And now translation of the Vedas, in the Arsha tradition of Maharshi Yaska and Swami Dayananda Saraswati.

Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma has spent the last ten years on this translation of the four Vedas, all the time saying: “I came for this”. While English has been the language of his professional communication, Sanskrit is the voice of his life and living.
For several years, I have been exploring some of the chapters of the Yajurveda Bhashya written by Prof. Tulsiram, a well-known Vedic scholar and author of English language and literature. I congratulate him because he has done this translation for an average English reader who is keen to know the Vedas. Knowledge of the Vedas is like the knowledge of science. Vedic language is a scientific language and nobody can understand that without the profound knowledge of Vedangas, especially Nirukta of Maharshi Yaska and the grammar of Panini and Patanjali. Nobody can interpret the Veda mantras without these two. This translation proves that Prof. Tulsiram has done this insightful translation after doing hard work in both Vedangas.

In translating the Vedas, only literal meaning is just not sufficient, sometimes it may create confusion and contradiction. Prof. Tulsiram deeply merges himself into Vedic Mantras, thinking deeply about words, derivatives and analyzes the hidden nuances of meaning in their context. For example, ‘Sumitriya na aapa oshadhayah santu…..Yajur. 36, 23’: If we take literal meaning in the ordinary sense, “may the waters, vital forces of life, and herbs be friendly to us and may they be enemies to those who hate us and whom we hate”, it will not make acceptable sense. After raising some questions, he says, “How can we accept this?” So, after going deeply into the words and context he gives this meaning of the said mantra: May waters, tonics, pranic energies and medicinal herbs be good friends of our health system and immunity and let the same waters, tonics, pranic energies herbal medicines act against those ailments, diseases and negativities which injure us, which we hate to suffer and which we love to destroy, moreover let them have no side effects because side effects too help the negativities and injure us.

After giving the actual sense of the Mantra he writes that this Mantra is a reasonable prayer for the health programme of an advanced society, and then, logically in the next Mantra, follows the prayer for a full hundred years and more of life and healthy living (Tacchakshurvedavahitam purastat-Yajur.36, 24).

The translation by Prof. Tulsiram is without any extraneous motive and without any extra-academic intention. The translation has been done purely as communication of the Vedic message for the welfare of mankind.

While giving his opinion on the Vedas Prof. Tulsiram writes in his Introduction….Veda is the Voice of God revealed in scientific Vedic Sanskrit free from local color and historical facts, therefore Vedic language is to be interpreted and understood according to its own laws and structure, and the only key available for such interpretation is the Nirukta of Maharshi Yaska and the grammar of Panini & Patanjali. According to Maharshi Dayananda Saraswati, ‘without reference to these bases of Vedic interpretation certain words have been given a distorted meaning in the translations of Max Muller, Griffith, Whitney and even Sayana.’ Actually the torch light for proper translation today, as Aurobindo says, is the Arsha tradition followed by Maharshi Dayananda Saraswati.

At the end I will say that this translation of Yajurveda, based on Nirukta and Grammar, follows the known ancient Indian tradition. It is factual, without prejudice or hidden motive. Prof. Tulsiram thinks deeply on every word of the mantra, looks into the context and etymology according to Nirukta and then does the translation. I congratulate him on this one more pioneering step to make the knowledge of Vedas available to the western world and the average English knowing reader. May God give him long and healthy life so that he continues to do this kind of stupendous work.

About Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma’s English translation of the Rgveda

I feel myself fortunate and blest with the Grace of God that I received a few pages of the English translation by Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma with introduction of the Yajurveda. The comparative views expressed by him about the Vedas are essential for every student of the Veda since it is a further pointer to scientific research in the field of Vedic interpretation.

Its conclusion is true: “In short Veda is an eternal articulation of omniscience, the voice of God”. Each work of Prasthanatrayi i.e. Vedanta, Upanishads and Gita is not a take off from the Vedas but a continuation of Vedic studies in its own context of meditation, meditative teaching and a rousing call to action in a situation of karmic crisis. This English translation is a welcome addition to Vedic studies opening truly a new path establishing with ease the Vedas in the service of humanity.

English Translation of Vedic Hymns: An Opinion

Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma has taken an uphill task of translating all the four Vedas in lucid and thought provoking English. Most of the translations of Vedas by European scholars depend on the ritualistic meaning given by the medieval commentators like Sayana and others. But Dr. Sharma has taken a new course of translation. He agrees with the idea that the Yajurveda basically propounds the theory of Karma which it explains as Yajna, which neither denotes sacrifice nor mere ritual (Agnihotra etc.). The term Yajna carries a threefold meaning: the worship of God, unification of diverse factors of human society, selfless charity and replenishment of nature and the environment.

The hymns of the Yajurveda carry lofty ideas of spiritual and ethical significance. Most of these mantras are, however, complicated and tough. It is difficult to make out useful meaning and draw important conclusion out of the text. But Dr. Sharma has fully succeeded in drawing out the natural and meaningful content of these mantras. In brief I can say that the present translation of the Vedas will be appreciated by the scholars of this Vedic lore as well as by the lay man who wants to understand the deep meaning of the Vedic texts or at least the basic knowledge hidden in these ancient works. It is all the more satisfying that Dr. Sharma has followed the dicta laid down by Maharshi Yaska and Swami Dayananda Saraswati in translating and explaining the inner wisdom of the sacred mantras.

It has been gratifying to go through the English translation of the Vedas rendered by Dr Tulsi Ram Sharma in as much as it conveys to the English-knowing world effectively the profound meaning and transcendental secrets enshrined in the Vedas. The most salient feature of this translation is its simple and lucid English. The Vedic words have been expounded here following the yaugik method of the Arsh tradition set up by Yaska, Panini and Patanjali (as opposed to the rudhi method which takes only the historically fixed meanings of words caring little for the context and the subject). As per the Arsh tradition name words like Agni, Vayu, Indra, Marut, etc., are synonyms indicating the various attributive names of the One that is the greatest and the most comprehensive ‘Tattva’ of existence, the Cosmic Spirit. It was Maharshi Dayananda who for the first time after Yaska and Patanjali advocated and followed this principle of interpretation on the basis of ancient supporting material. Dr. Sharma has religiously stuck to this theory while unfolding the truths enshrined in the Vedas. Obviously Dr Sharma’s interpretation of Vedic hymns enjoys the authenticity of the Arsh tradition and challenges the western Vedic perspective and the medieval Indian interpretations of the Vedas which now need to be seriously reviewed in our present day context of science and inter-cultural communication.

Above the narrow boundaries of country, time, caste and creed, the Vedas have been a treasure house of eternal universal knowledge and spiritual wisdom. There have been numerous attempts by Indians and foreigners to make the knowledge of these Vedas available to the people at large. Among them the Vedic commentaries of the great social and spiritual leader, Maharshi Dayananda are the best works in this field. Inspired by Swami Dayananda, the translation of the Yajurveda into English by Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma is a commendable work in this line. Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma has been a great devotee of sacred literature, especially Vedas, Upanishads, and various philosophies. His life long study of the Vedas has given him deep insight into Vedic philosophy. His translation of the Yajurveda reveals it fully. Here he has translated the Yajurveda, the Veda of Karma, in such a way that even a common reader can grasp its essence. He has very effectively brought out how this Veda teaches us to apply spiritual knowledge in practical life. Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma deserves our congratulations and best wishes for having done translation of all the four Vedas in simple and clear English for the international community.

APPRECIATION

I have gone through some chapters of the English translation of Yajurveda by Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma. As he has stated at the very beginning of the Introduction, this translation of Yajurveda is meant for an average English-knowing reader who is keen to know: What is Veda? What is it about? Is it old or new? To achieve this object, he has followed the Arsh method of interpretation. Accordingly, for example, he has mostly followed the etymological method of literal translation. But whenever he finds that the literal is not helpful in achieving his intended objective, he adds the implied explanation so that the essence of the Vedic hymn is quite clear. For example, his translation of, ‘Yathemam Vacham Kalyanimavadani janebhyah’ is rendered as follows—‘Just as I speak (reveal) this auspicious holy Word of the Veda for all people (without discrimination of high or low), so should you too communicate it to all people of the world, whosoever, whatsoever, where so ever they be’. That is the technique of Swami Dayananda also.

I regard Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma as one in the commendable line of Pundit Damodar Satavalekara who studied Sanskrit at a mature age and did unique work in that language. Dr. Sharma has also mastered the Sanskrit language after his retirement and done full justice to the translation of the Veda. He richly deserves our gratefulness, our expression of gratification and our appreciation for succeeding in his sacred mission of presenting an understandable, logical and above all sensible English translation of Vedas which hitherto was unavailable. Thus a long felt need has been fulfilled. I am sure Dr Sharma’s method of translation will not only be widely approved but will also be followed by others while translating the Vedas in other languages.

Sadbhavana (Good wishes)

Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma, is a profound scholar of English, Hindi, Sanskrit and Urdu. But his heart felt devotion goes to sacred literature, especially Vedas, Upanishads, Darshan Philosophy, Puranas, Ramayana, and Mahabharata with concentration on the Bhagwad Gita, Greek, Roman, Sumerian and English Epics, Gathas of Zarathustra, Bible, Quran and the writings of Swami Dayananda and Swami Vivekananda, in search of the essential values of Veda and Sanatan Vedic Dharma. It seems his real spirit and scholarly interest lies in the interpretation of the Vedas. I have gone through some portions of his English translation of Yajurveda and on perusal of this translation, I have marked two characterizing features:

1. His language is perfectly lucid and
2. His translation is faithful to the word and spirit of the Mantras.

Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma has very correctly observed, “Veda is knowledge of existence, pure and simple, as Science is knowledge. Science is the knowledge of nature as nature is and as it works according to its own laws. In Science, there is no story, no history. Similarly, in the Vedas, there is no story, no history. And just as Science is knowledge in Scientific language, free from local colour and historical variations of form and meaning, so Veda too is knowledge in scientific language, free from local colour and historical variations.”

Veda is ‘Knowledge’ and knowledge is eternal. The interpretation of the Vedas requires the knowledge of the Arsh technique as explained by the Rshis like Yaska, Panini, Patanjali, Dayananda and Aurobindo.

As Veda is pure knowledge, so is this translation in the Arsh tradition, free from myth and history with no local colour, no attitude, no motive, except pure communication of the Original for all.

With best wishes to the author and specially to the readers,

—Umakant Upadhyaya

To the Reader

This translation of the ‘Hymns of Yajurveda’ is an English Version of the Yajurveda for the common reader who wants to acquaint himself or herself with the content of this divine message of the dynamics of Karma, both human and divine, in the context of the nature, structure and purpose of the universe and the condition and position of the human being in it. While the opening mantra launches the human being on life with the exhortation: “Be vibrant as the winds”, the closing mantra seals the success of vibrant humanity in action with the final achievement of “Om Kham Brahma” with Grace Divine.

Life according to the Yajurveda is a journey from the beginning-less beginning to the endless end with the message:

  Immortal child of Divinity,
  Your roots go deep to Eternity,
  Your reach is unto Infinity.
  And your path is up and onwards,
  Never never downwards.

This version is a scientific translation of the text within the parameters of Yaska and Dayananda with rational understanding of Sayana at the one end and the western scholars at the other. Sayana’s translation is ritualistic especially with reference to yajna. It came at a time when the “Renaissance, Re-awakening of Learning” was far off, not yet just at the next door. Even communication between the East and the West was not as hectic as it became after the advent of the East India Company into India. Thus mutual criticism and appreciation too was silent rather than vocal. Hence Ritualism was just the thing acceptable to a society settled on the side of stagnation more than of fermentation.

Ritual, of course, is sacred. It is the most meticulous programme of action in pursuit of a holistic plan of life and living which arises from a spiritual vision of Divinity. It is conducted with unreserved commitment of will in faultless action, and completed with total surrender in absolute faith. For this reason yajna in Veda and Upanishad, is described as the highest human action, “Shreshthatamam karma”. This view is accepted in this translation too. But in addition, an extended interpretation of the same view of yajna is incorporated and followed in the light of Swami Dayananda, and also as warranted by the exhortation in the opening mantra: “Apply yourself to the highest form of action, yajna, in the service of Indra, lord of the universe, for the glory of the human nation”. The highest actions in the world of existence, the creative evolution of the universe under the immanent presiding presence of Divinity, and the total corporate action of humanity for progress, peace and freedom, all this is yajna. And this idea leads us to discover for ourselves and understand the science, art and technology of participative living for progress, from the individual level, through the social, to the cosmic, as universal Yajna, human, natural and divine.

There may or may not be an escape from Sayana, but there is no possible escape from Dayananda, and even from westerners especially for the sake of caution and self correction.

I respect the western translators for their clarity and their art of communication. In addition, I find that they did recognise that the ideal way to interpret and explain the Sanskrit words of Indian scriptures such as Vedas was to trace back every word to its root, deconstruct and reconstruct it with the addition of the affixes, and then structurally explain its meaning. That precisely was the approach of Yaska, Panini, Patanjali and Swami Dayananda. Monier Williams, author of the well known Sanskrit English Dictionary, himself admired the Indians for their scientific approach to language, specially Sanskrit:

“I draw attention at the very threshold to the fact that the Hindus are perhaps the only nation, except for the Greeks, who have investigated, independently and in a truly scientific manner, the general laws which govern the evolution of language.” (Introduction, p. xii)

He continues in relation to Sanskrit: “The synthetical process which comes into operation in the working of those laws may be well called Samskarana, ‘putting together’, by which I mean that every single word in the highest type of language (called
yajna in Veda and Upanishad, is described as the highest human action, "Shreshthatamam karma". This view is accepted in this translation too. But in addition, an extended interpretation of the same view of yajna is incorporated and followed in the light of Swami Dayananda, and also as warranted by the exhortation in the opening mantra: "Apply yourself to the highest form of action, yajna, in the service of Indra, lord of the universe, for the glory of the human nation". The highest actions in the world of existence, the creative evolution of the universe under the immanent presiding presence of Divinity, and the total corporate action of humanity for progress, peace and freedom, all this is yajna. And this idea leads us to discover for ourselves and understand the science, art and technology of participative living for progress, from the individual level, through the social, to the cosmic, as universal Yajna, human, natural and divine.

There may or may not be an escape from Sayana, but there is no possible escape from Dayananda, and even from westerners especially for the sake of caution and self correction.

I respect the western translators for their clarity and their art of communication. In addition, I find that they did recognise that the ideal way to interpret and explain the Sanskrit words of Indian scriptures such as Veda was to trace back every word to its root, deconstruct and reconstruct it with the addition of the affixes, and then structurally explain its meaning. That precisely was the approach of Yaska, Panini, Patanjali and Swami Dayananda. Monier Williams, author of the well known Sanskrit English Dictionary, himself admired the Indians for their scientific approach to language, specially Sanskrit: "I draw attention at the very threshold to the fact that the Hindus are perhaps the only nation, except for the Greeks, who have investigated, independently and in a truly scientific manner, the general laws which govern the evolution of language." (Introduction, p. xii)

He continues in relation to Sanskrit: "The synthetical process which comes into operation in the working of those laws may be well called Samskarana, 'putting together', by which I mean that every single word in the highest type of language (called Sanskrita) is first evolved out of a primary 'Dhatu'—a Sanskrit term usually translated as 'Root', but applicable to any primordial constituent substance, whether of words, or rocks, or living organisms, and then, being so evolved, goes through a process of 'putting together' by the combination of other elementary constituents." [Sanskrit, thus, becomes a language correspondence of the evolution, structure and dynamics of the world of reality, and Veda as articulation of the reality of existence.]

"Furthermore, the process of ‘putting together’ implies, of course, the possibility of a converse process of vyakarana. by which I mean ‘undoing’ or decomposition (deconstruction), that is to say, the resolution of every root-evolved word into its component elements. So that in endeavouring to exhibit these processes of synthesis and analysis, we appear to be engaged, like a chemist, in combining elementary substances into solid forms, and again in resolving these forms into their constituent ingredients." (p. xii). And in respect of this special character, Sanskrit, he says, is a different language from the Semitic languages (of which the Bible and the Quran are expressions).

And yet, in spite of this clear understanding of Sanskrit, an Arsha dictionary remained with him only "a beautiful philological dream, a dream, however, which could not receive practical shape without raising the Lexicon to a level of scientific perfection unsuited to the needs of ordinary students." (p. xiii)

Why unsuited? The answer lies in his mission and the main object of his mission. The scientific way of interpretation and explanation was counter to the purpose for which Monier Williams was appointed Professor of Sanskrit at Oxford where he occupied the Boden Chair after H.H.Wilson who had been a member of the Committee of Public Instruction in India under Lord Macaulay as Chairman and Lord William Bentinck as Governor General of India. And then English had been accepted and introduced as the medium as well as the content of Education.

Monier Williams says: “One consideration which led my predecessor (Professor H.H.Wilson) to pass on to me his project of a root-arranged Lexicon was that, on being elected to the Boden Chair, he felt that the elaboration of such a work would be incompatible with the practical objects for which the Boden Professorship was founded. . . The main object was really a missionary one, as I have shown in the Preface of this volume.” (p. xi)

The object, Professor Williams explains in the Preface to his Dictionary (p. ix): “I must draw attention to the fact that I am only the second occupant of the Boden Chair, and that its founder, Colonel Boden, stated most explicitly in his will (dated August 15, 1811) that the special object of his munificent bequest was to promote the translation of the Scriptures (that is, the Bible) into Sanskrit, so as ‘to enable his countrymen to proceed in the conversion of the natives of India to the Christian Religion’.

“Surely then it need not be thought surprising, if following in the footsteps of my venerated master, I have made it the chief aim of my professional life to provide facilities for the translation of our sacred Scriptures into Sanskrit, and for the promotion of a better knowledge of the religions and customs of India as the best way to a knowledge of the religious needs of our great Eastern Dependency (India). My very first public lecture delivered after my election (to the Boden Chair) in 1860 was on ‘The Study of Sanskrit in Relation to Missionary Work in India’ (published in 1861)” (pp. xxi)

For any student of Veda, specially in India, in fact anywhere, it is difficult to overlook the words of Monier Williams in the Preface and Introduction to his Dictionary of Sanskrit, for the reason that from translation of Christian Scriptures into Sanskrit with a missionary motive, the translation of Sanskrit Scriptures into English was but the next and ‘logical’ step with that same missionary motive of conversion, one to extol, the other to denigrate:

One example, of extolment, is the following translation of the Bible, ‘The Gospel according to John’:

Yohana-likhitah Susamvadah;
Ishvarasya vakyam Yishor mahatvam avatara kathaa ca.

Jesus here is presented as an Avatara, someone a very God for the traditional Hindu, although the Gospel does not mention the incarnation at all. (The translation of The Bible in Sanskrit by
The other example, of denigration, is given here below from W.D. Whitney’s translation of the Atharvaveda (7, 107, 1) edited and revised by K.L. Joshi, published by Parimal Publications, Delhi, 2004:

“Having paid homage to heaven and earth, to the atmosphere, to Death, I will urinate standing erect; let not the Lords (Ishvara) harm me.”

I give below an English rendering of the same mantra translated by Pundit Satavalekara in Hindi:

“Having done homage to heaven and earth and to the middle regions and Death (Yama), I stand high and watch (the world of life). Let not my masters hurt me.”

An English rendering of the same mantra translated by Pundit Jai Dev Sharma in Hindi is the following:

“Having done homage to heaven and earth (i.e. father and mother) and to the immanent God and Yama (all Dissolver), standing high and alert, I move forward in life. These masters of mine, pray, may not hurt me.”

I would like to quote my own translation of the mantra now under print:

“Having done homage to heaven and earth, and to the middle regions, and having acknowledged the fact of death as inevitable counterpart of life under God’s dispensation, now standing high, I watch the world and go forward with showers of the cloud. Let no powers of earthly nature hurt and violate me.”

‘Showers of the cloud’ is a metaphor, as in Shelley’s poem ‘the Cloud’: “I bring fresh showers for the thirsting flowers”, which suggests a lovely rendering.

The problem here arises from the verb ‘mekshami’ from the root ‘mih’ which means ‘to shower’ (sechane). It depends on the translator’s sense and attitude to sacred writing how the message is received and communicated in an interfaith context.
with no strings attached (or unattached).

This extolment and denigration was happening around the time when the English language, English education and missionary work had been introduced into India and was raging on top. Swami Dayananda faced this challenge with boldness and caution, still with an open mind, all prepared even for correction. He based his interpretation of the Vedas on Nirukta and the etymological principles of word interpretation, and interpretation of the word in the context, both local and total, because the local is an integral part of the total whole.

We are living in an age of science and reason, democracy and freedom, globalism and global communication, and we feel the need for a free and frank interfaith dialogue. In such an age, ritualism and mythology is not enough. If we want to understand and present Veda as a body of universal knowledge and articulation of divine awareness of existence, there is no escape from Yaska, Panini, Patanjali, Dayananda and Aurobindo, because they provide the key principles and practice of scientific interpretation of an ancient scientific language such as Vedic Sanskrit which has no historical parallel for comparison. The language of science tells no stories, no myths. It states the truth pure and simple. Hence the resort to Swami Dayananda, either before or after Sayana and the western scholars, is indispensable.

There is one observation I must make on Swami Dayananda. Swami Dayananda has given a socio-economic orientation to the Vedic mantras because he underscores the relevance of the Vedas to the social, economic and political situation of humanity, especially in India, which was necessary and highly meaningful. For example, the Ashwins, in general, are the complementary powers of nature and humanity working as twin forces like the positive and negative currents of electricity, or like the theoretician and the laboratory man, or the curative and recuperative powers of medicine and nature’s powers of rejuvenation. Swami Dayananda often explains such powers in the interest of practical understanding: he defines them as teacher and preacher, or father and mother, sun and moon, fire and water, prana and Apana energy, ruler and council, scientist and engineer, and so on, depending on the mantra context. Sometimes it appears as if he is delimiting the open-ended general meaning of the Veda. But we should be careful before we say so, and realise that the definiteness of his meaning is illustrative and in no way exhaustive. In this translation such situations have been appreciated and the meaning has been kept open ended, inclusive of the meanings given by Swami Dayananda, as suggested by Yaska and the etymology of the terms. In short, this translation has been done with cautious reference to Sayana, under the guidance of Swami Dayananda, with respect for Pundit Satavalekara and with very careful observance of the western anglers.

Pundit Satavalekara comes in between Sayana and swami Dayananda for his excellent syntactic structures of mantra meanings in continuous Hindi. But he explains words such as Indra, Agni, Ashwins, Vrtra, Trita, Bhujyu, Kashyapa, Jamadagni, etc. as proper names so that the mantra appears to be a mythical or historical statement of either fact or fiction. But Swami Dayananda interprets these terms in the yaugic manner and explains them as scientific terms of the forms, functions, orders and attributes of the powers of existence representing the manifestive diversity of one Divinity and one Prakrti in the state of objective existence. These words are not historical names, because the time context of the creation of the Vedas remains unknown beyond history and imagination as even Max Muller confessed in his Gifford lectures in 1890.

This translation respects the entire tradition of Vedic interpretation, and under the guidance of this tradition takes Vedic interpretation to the original level of scientific rationality in the context of modern consciousness, modern language and global culture, a message both sanatan and, at the same time, modern (ref. Atharva, 10,8,23).

Take just one example of the problem I have faced, with the solution I have suggested: Yajurveda (36, 23) says, if we take the literal meaning in the ordinary sense: “May the waters, pranic energies and herbs be friendly to us and may they be enemies to those who hate us and whom we hate.” How can we accept this? How can the same waters, tonics and herbs be good friends to us and enemies to those we hate or those who hate us? Medicine is medicine after all. This is excellent stuff for a translator who believes that Vedic poetry is nothing but the voice of a tribal society in the barbaric, not civilized, state of social evolution. But let us think deeply. What is the context? Who are our enemies in that context? Who or what are those that injure us? What are those we hate or want to injure and destroy? The context is health. In the context of health, they are the ailments, diseases, germs and bacteria, viruses, negativities and side effects of medicines in our system. So the correct and scientific interpretation in the context of health would be: “May waters, tonics, pranic energies and medicinal herbs be good friends of our health and immunity system and let the waters, tonics, pranic energies and herbal medicines act against those ailments, diseases and negativities which injure us, which we hate to suffer and which we love to destroy. Moreover let them have no side effects because side effects too aggravate the negativities and injure us.” This is the reasonable prayer and health programme of an advanced society. And then, logically in the next mantra, follows the prayer for a full hundred years and more of life and healthy living (Yajurveda, 36, 24). Veda thus is food for thought.

In human terms: If a legendary celebrity can admire another human figure as “inscrutable, apocalyptic, a mysterious poem written in flesh and blood”, how much more – infinitely more– mysterious, inscrutable, apocalyptic would be the Cosmic Poem (Devasya Kavyah) created in the language of the Ultimate Vision?

Veda is a Cosmic Poem: the more we know, the more we know the Veda, and the more we know the Veda, the more we know.

Indeed, every reader should stand before the Veda, every verse of It in fact, as Arjuna stood before the Cosmic Krishna, waiting and watching intently, for the burst of a thousand suns, for the Dawn on top of the Earth, for the Revelation.

May the light burst forth, I pray.

Introduction to Rgveda

This translation of Rgveda is meant for an average English knowing reader who is keen to know:

What is Veda? What is it all about? Is it old or new? If it’s old, what is its relevance today? And if it is relevant, is it relevant to me also? Or is it relevant only to some particular community in some particular country at some particular time?

These are relevant questions especially in an age of science, democracy and globalism.

Veda is Knowledge. The very word ‘Veda’ means knowledge. It is derived from the root ‘vid’, which means: ‘to be, to know, to think, and to benefit from’.

So whatever is is Veda, the very world of existence is Veda. The knowledge of the world of existence is Veda. The extension of knowledge through thought and research further is Veda. And to use that knowledge for the benefit of mankind with the protection and preservation of nature and the environment, without hurting any form of life, that is Veda.

Veda is knowledge, pure and simple, as science is knowledge. Science is knowledge of nature as nature is and as it works according to its own laws. In science, there is no story no history. Similarly in the Veda, there is no story, no history. And just as science is knowledge in scientific language free from local colour and historical variations of form and meaning, so Veda too is knowledge in scientific language free from local colour and historical variations. Therefore Vedic language has to be interpreted and understood according to the laws and technique of its own structure as stated by seers such as Yaska, Panini and Patanjali.
and as explained by Swami Dayananda in his grammatical works and his notes on Vedic words in his commentary on the Vedas.

But there is a difference between scientific knowledge and Vedic knowledge: While science is knowledge of nature to the extent that man has been able to discover it, Veda is the quintessential knowledge of all that is, including nature, all that happens, all that we are, all that we do, and all that we reap in consequence of our action. It is the Original and Universal knowledge of the Reality of Existence and the Ideality of our aspirations, covering the facts and processes of existence, their interaction and the laws that operate in the interaction. In short, Veda is an eternal articulation of Omniscience, The Voice of God.

Vedic knowledge is classified thematically into three: Stuti, Prarthana and Upasana. Stuti, praise, is solemn reverential remembrance and description of the attributes, nature, character and function of divine powers. Prarthana, prayer, is an autosuggestive resolution to realise our limitations and rise above those limitations by calling on Divinity for aid and blessings when we have exhausted our effort and potential. Upasana is meditation, the surrender of our limited identity to participate in the Divine Presence. Stuti implies knowledge (Janana), Prarthana implies humility and action (Karma), and Upasana implies total love and surrender (Bhakti). In consequence, formally, Vedic knowledge is divided into four:

Rgveda is the Veda of Knowledge, Yajurveda is the Veda of Karma, Samaveda is the Veda of Bhakti, and Atharvaveda is Brahma Veda, an umbrella, celebrating the Divine Presence as in Book 10, hymns 7 and 8.

Rgveda is the Veda of knowledge revealed by Parameshvara, Lord Supreme Himself. All the four Vedas were received by the primeval Rshis from That Supreme Divinity (Rgveda, 10, 90, 9). That Supreme power and presence is One and only one, wise sages call it by many names such as Agni, Indra, Mitra, Varuna and others. That one Lord creates this wonderful world of many forms and pervades it simultaneously (6, 47, 18). The creative evolution begins from that and when one cycle is complete, the involution ends up therein (10, 129, 7). The light of the sun radiates from there (10, 37, 3), the streams of life flow from there through the medium of five elements (1, 164, 3). We too come from there and retire unto That when the existential sojourn terminates (8, 44, 23), that is the covenant of man and God. The truth of Vedas is eternal (5, 25, 2). Law is eternal (4, 23, 8).

Our life is a lovely sojourn of our active and intelligent choice (5, 1, 2; 6, 15, 9) in the fivefold body (5, 47, 5), or outside the body (1, 164, 30), in a homely paradise on earth (6, 120, 3), or in a fools paradise (9, 64, 20-1). Therefore the one basic commandment of Vedas is “Be man”, intelligent human being (10, 53, 6), be a visionary which you ought to be (1, 31, 6), in the category of Deva, godliness (1, 68, 2), remembering fully well that each one comes alone for a short time (10, 97, 5), to live in a house of clay (8, 44, 23) which is not our ultimate destination. Therefore our self-fulfilment lies through breaking the threefold bonds of body, mind and spiritual ignorance (1, 24, 15), rise beyond the darkness and reach the light Divine (1, 50, 10). The Light is our real potential as children of Immortality, unhurt, imperishable (1, 148, 5).

Rgveda begins with an invocation and prayer to Agni, Lord of light and energy, giver of life and light, the first, original and ultimate High-priest of the yajna of creative evolution and ends with a prayer to Agni for the gift of the fragrance and nectar of yajnic life from the vedi of the earth. It exhorts humanity to live together in creative and cooperative unity, to act and move together, to speak together, and to think together for a united decision and common achievement, knowing each other’s mind in harmony in the same tradition as the ancient wise followed in the performance of Dharma.

Rgveda gives a clear picture of the socio-political and economic organisation of humanity from the local to the international level. The Vedic word for a brilliant, enlightened, sovereign republic is Swarajya (3, 49, 2; 3, 46, 1; 3, 45,5; 1, 36, 7). The word for such an organisation is Rashtra. For such a Rashtra, efforts have to be made (1, 80,9), there should be three assemblies: the Executive, Legislature, the Law and Order and Defence forces (3, 38, 6), and the Educational Authority. The ruler and the assemblies have to be elected by the people from amongst the educated and socially dedicated people (Atharva, 3, 4, 2). Yajurveda and Atharva-Veda provide further details. The Vedic ideal of any human organisation and its law is that the organisation, in order to be just, creative, productive and egalitarian, must be an organism, a living, intelligent, self-organising, autonomous sovereign system.

The universe, the social system too, is a Purusha, a person (10, 90,2) of which the intellectual is the spokesman of values, of knowledge, rectitude and piety, the law and order and defence forces are the guards, the produces are providers, and the ancillary services are assistants, all governed by law which should be a human version of Rtam, the law of Nature and Divinity governing the universe.

There are many other Themes as prayers to Parameshvara, divine attributes of the forces of Nature, attributes, potential and limitations of the individual soul, life and death, individual freedom, marriage and family life, free social mobility under the Verna-Ashrama Dharma based on merit, precreation stage of existence (10, 129, 1-7) which was the Zero state which we can describe neither as existence nor as non-existence: There ‘was’ or, may be, there ‘was not’:

It was the state of Zero Absolute,
The Hour beyond the hour.
No night, no day, no life nor death,
No existence, nor no-existence,
Darkness beyond the dark.
Silence, mother of speech,
Void, mother of space and time,
THAT One beyond the name,
Breathing alone without breath
Ever awake.
The flow consumed in the point of no dimensions Potential Infinity.
This is Vision beyond the vision of mind, the mystery of Rigveda.

Between this point of Potential Infinity for creation and the time of cosmic dissolution there is the evolutionary and involuntary interplay of natural forces Agni, Indra, Soma, Pusha, Vaishvanara, Ashvins, Savita, Maruts, Sarasvati, heaven and earth, and the social dynamics of humanity for four billion and three hundred and twenty million years, a drama of infinite variety, ultimately all sucked in into the mysterious Black Hole, and then the breath out, back again.

So, says Rigveda, be good, do good, and make the world noble (Rg. 9, 63, 5).

Samaveda is Bhaktiveda in song, a symphony of Veda mantras chiefly from Rgveda in celebration of the Truth, Beauty and Goodness of life and the Power, Glory, Sublimity and Beatitude of Divinity. It begins with an invitation to Agni, Light and Life of the universe, moves to Indra, the Power and Glory of Divinity and then to Beatific Soma, divine Spirit of peace and universal joy, and ends with thanks and prayer to All-listening Indra, All-embracing Pusha, inviolable Tarkshya, and Brhaspati, Lord of Infinity, for the gifts of peace, progress, prosperity and total well being.

Yajurveda is Karma Veda, knowledge of the application of knowledge in practical living in a positive, creative and constructive manner at both the individual and the collective level. This way of living and working is “Yajna” which, in simple words, means a selfless and participative way of living and thereby creating the maximum out of the minimum for all, including nature, humanity, the environment and the whole universe, with complete faith in the living, breathing, intelligent self-organising, self-conscious, Sovereign System. Living the yajnic way, we realise that Nature is an organism, a tree, Ashwattha, and the entire cosmos including ourselves is a Purusha, and we as human beings are but cells in this Divine Purusha. Without living this way in a state of full awareness, we cannot realise that you and I, Mother Nature and the Supreme Brahma are all together, one in union and communion.

Vedic knowledge then is the Divine knowledge of existence from the dimensionless point and particle unto Infinity. And prayerful living and communion in meditation and yoga means: Self-integration of the particle, Re-integration of the part with the whole, and Re-Union of the finite with the Infinite.

This is the climactic close of Yajurveda: The light and life that shines in and beyond the sun is that Supreme

This is the climactic close of Yajurveda: The light and life that shines in and beyond the sun is that Supreme Purusha. That is there, and that is here, in me too.

Om is the saviour. Om is Bramha. Bramha is Infinite, Sublime! The message of Yajurveda begins with the rousing divine call to live: “Be vibrant as the winds!” But we must be gratefully vibrant: “O Lord we pray for and thank thee for the gift of food and energy for life, for the health and efficiency of body, mind and soul.” All of us must dedicate ourselves to Savita, giver of life and light, with devotion to the highest, yajnic, action, we must not hurt the ‘Cow’, and we must not allow a thief to boss over us and deprive us of our creative freedom of thought, word and deed.

Atharva-Veda is Brahma Veda, umbrella knowledge of existence both Murtta and Amurtta, concrete and abstract. It is the knowledge of Prakrti, Mother Nature, as well as of Purusha, the Soul, the individual Jiva as well as the Cosmic Soul Brahma. It begins with a celebrative description of the thrice-seven variant evolutes of Prakrti and a prayer to Vachaspati, Lord of Nature and the Word of Knowledge, to bless us with strength, energy, intelligence and knowledge emanating from those thrice-seven forms of the world of Nature and Spirit. It covers the world of humanity from the individual to the total collective personality of humanity, including social structures from the family, community and the nation up to the international United Nations. It pays homage to Divinity, Jyeshtha Brahma, Supreme Presiding Spirit and Power, immanent and transcendent, which creates and sustains and winds up the world of existence in each cycle of creation, eternally (10, 7-8, and 19, 6). Towards the end Atharva-Veda pays homage to Brahma and Mother Veda with thanks for the gifts of good health and full age, vibrant pranic energy, noble progeny, ample wealth, fame, lasting achievement and divine lustre of life. These are the gifts of Vedic knowledge in life, and when one cycle of existence reaches the hour of completion, the Mother Knowledge returns to her eternal and Original abode, Jyeshtha Brahma Itself, the mighty, mysterious, awful Silence, impenetrable Darkness, Smaller than the smallest conceivable, yet Greater than the greatest imaginable, the Original and Ultimate Home of all that matter, energy, thought and Speech is, beyond time and space.

As you open the text of Rg-Veda, you find the words: Agni, Madhucchanda Rshi. ‘Devata’ here means the subject which is dealt with in the mantra. ‘Devata’ as a Vedic term means a presence, a power, a force, which is brilliant, illuminative, and generous. The ‘Devata’ of a mantra may be God, the One Sacchidananda Brahma as in the closing mantra quoted above, or Savita, the same One self-refulgent God as in the opening mantra of Yajurveda, or it can be a generous divine power of Nature such as the sun, moon, earth; or it can be a noble person of brilliant quality of nature, character and performance as a ruler, leader, commander, teacher, etc. What the ‘Devata’ means in any particular mantra depends on the total context that emerges from the mantra in its thematic environment of the hymn.

Madhucchanda is the Rshi of the opening mantra. The Rshi in the Arsha tradition is not the author of the mantra, Rshi is the exponent of the meaning of the mantra. As Maharshi Yaska says in the Nirukta, Rshis are the ‘seers of the mantras: they are the sages who went into deep meditation unto the universal frequency of the Cosmic Mind and experienced the voice of Divinity speaking in the mantra, the mantra, a semantic correspondence of the Divine Voice, the Divine Voice, a sound correspondence of Divine Awareness of the Reality of Existence in the modes of Being and Becoming.
Who then is the poet of the Vedas? The answer is in Yajurveda 40, 8: That Cosmic Spirit which pervades and rules every moving particle in the moving universe is “the poet, thinker, all-comprehending, and self-existent”. That is the Lord who creates the world of existence, ordains the Laws of its dynamics, and reveals the poetry of its beauty and majesty, the Vedas. “From that Lord of universal yajna were born the Rks and Samans. From Him were born the Chhandas of Atharva-veda and from Him were born the Yajus”, (Yajurveda 31, 7). The Vedic lore comes in Pura-kalpa, the beginning of the world of humanity (Shvetashvatataropanishad, 6, 22) and when its function is over at the end of the kalpa, one cycle of existence, it retires into Brahma-loka (Atharva-veda 19, 71, 1).

The Vedas were revealed by the Lord Omniscient to four primeval Rshis: Rgveda to Agni, Yajurveda to Vayu, Samaveda to Aditya, and Atharva-veda to Angira, directly in their spiritual consciousness. The Sage Brahma received and collected the four from them and passed them on to other sages.

When were the Vedas revealed? What is their age? How old are they? As old as the age of humanity on earth. The Lord who creates humanity leaves them not to nature like animals. He enlightens them with the knowledge of existence and their place in the world with the vision of their journey and its culmination. Swami Dayananda works out the age of the Vedas on the basis of Surya Siddhanta which in the year 2010 A.D. comes to 1,96,08,53,110 years.

If someone does not accept it and insists on historical proof, let us listen to Max Muller from whom we learn of the problem of the date or dates but with no possibility of solution on scientific and historical grounds.

Max Muller is known as a world renowned Vedic scholar and exegesist of the West. Max Muller once ventured to pronounce a purely arbitrary date based on unproven assumptions that around 1200 B.C. was the date of the Rgveda. Later, he himself warned his students that “Whether the Vedic Hymns were composed in 1000 or 1500 or 2000 B.C., no power on earth could ever fix .... Whatever may be the date of the Vedic hymns... they have their own unique place and stand by themselves”. Such daring presumptions of western scholars about the date of the Vedas are exposed by Graham Hancock in his latest researches, in his explosive book: Underworld: The Mysterious Origins of Civilization (2002).

Hancock first gives the range of dates accepted by Western scholars such as Max Muller and Dr. Mitchiner, a great authority on ancient Sanskrit texts: Vedas 1500-800 BC, Brahmanas 900-600 BC, Aranyakas 700-500 BC, Upanishads 600-400 BC, Mahabharata 350 BC-50 AD, Ramayana 250 BC-200 AD, Puranas AD 200-1500. “Amazing!” says he: “Whether starting in 1500 BC, 1400 BC or 1200 BC, the timelines, suggested for the compilation and codification of the Vedas, all rest on the now thoroughly falsified and bankrupt (and rejected) idea of an Aryan invasion of India around 1500 BC”. He continues: ‘There was no such thing as an Aryan race that spoke Indo –European languages and authored the Vedas, there was no such event as an Aryan invasion of India. ‘Arya’ does not mean a race, it means a noble, educated and cultured person. So once the hypothesis of the Aryan invasion is rejected, the structure of the supposed dates of the Vedas and other texts crumbles like a house of cards.’ And then he sums up his view of the Western approach to the Vedas and Indian civilization: “Almost everything that was ever written about this literature and civilization before five years ago (i.e., before 1997) is wrong.” (See pp. 131, 116, 129)
Max Muller himself in his Gifford Lectures in 1890 had confessed that “no power on earth could ever fix” the date of the Vedas. Even Mitchiner himself concedes that “the dating of Sanskrit texts is a notoriously difficult problem” (Quoted Ibid p. 131).

Who could then possibly speak the truth about ancient Indian civilisation and the Vedic literature? Says Hancock (p. 105): “Perhaps we are coming to a time when ancient India will speak for herself again after millennia of silence.” It was Swami Dayananda who spoke for India and the Vedas in the Rshis’ tradition after millennia of silence to correct the distortions of Indian history and redeem Vedic literature and the Vedic tradition.

If no history, no Science, no human imagination can help, better follow the sages tradition, Surya Siddhanta, and the daily sankalpa of the dedicated Brahmanas. And lastly follow the internal evidence of the Vedas themselves: Vedas are the Original, Universal, Eternal articulation of Divinity, by Divinity, for humanity at the beginning of human creation. (Yajurveda, 26, 2; Shvetashvataropanishad, 6, 18)

Since Vedas are the oldest recorded knowledge of the world, no one can guess how much time, even ages, might have passed between the Vedas and the next work in Sanskrit. If so, there is no other work in Sanskrit comparable to the Vedas. Consequently the language of any other work would not provide any clue for the interpretation of Veda mantras. Vedic language then has to be interpreted on its own, and the only key available for such independent interpretation is the Nirukta and Nighantu of Maharshi Yaska, the grammatical works of Panini and Patanjali, and Swami Dayananda’s notes in his commentary on Vedic verses explaining the structure and meaning of the words. Without reference to these bases of Vedic interpretation, certain words have been given a very distorted meaning in other translations by Max Muller, Griffith, Whitney, and even Sayana. The torch light for proper translation today is the Arsha tradition followed by Swami Dayananda.

The Arsha way is the only right way, the key, to discover the truth of the Vedas. According to Shri Aurobindo, Swami Dayananda alone, in modern times, possessed this key to the secret of the Vedas. Interpreted this way the Vedas shine in their essential scientific refulgence. As science is pure knowledge, no story, no history, no mythology, so are the Vedas, pure knowledge: knowledge of nature, mind, spirit, human society, Dharma, the dynamics of existence and the right way of living as individuals and as members of organised society upto the international level. Even Max Muller, though he was once committed to uprooting the religion of India by his arbitrary translation of Rgveda, had to admit in his Biographical Essays that: “To Swami Dayananda, everything contained in the Vedas was not only perfect truth, but he went one step further and, by their interpretation, succeeded in persuading others that everything worth knowing, even the most recent inventions of modern science, were alluded to in the Vedas. Steam Engines, Electricity, Telegraphy and Wireless Marconogram were shown to have been at least in the germ known to the poets of the Vedas”. In fact Shri Aurobindo in his essay on “Dayananda and the Veda” goes even further: “There is nothing fantastic in Dayananda’s idea that Veda contains truth of science as well as truth of religion (i.e., Dharma). I will even add my own conviction that Veda contains other truths of a Science the modern world does not at all possess, and in that case, Dayananda has rather understated than overstated the depth and range of the Vedic wisdom (see ‘Bankim, Tilak, Dayananda’, p. 57).
The basic requirement of scriptural interpretation for us is faith and intellingetial solemnity, not doubt and cynicism. This way, if we want to confirm our faith in the scientific vision of the Veda, refer to Rgveda 1, 34, 7 and 9 for three-stage rocket chariot of the Ashwins, to 1, 36, 18 for Agni missile, to 1, 37, 3 for winds and communication, to 1, 46, 10 for concentration of light, to 1, 52, 1 and 1, 36, 1 for the science of missile defence and space-craft, to 6, 46, 11 for missiles and war heads, and so on. The position of the solar system with planets and satellites, earth’s and sun’s gravitation, solar healing, parliamentary democracy, organisational structure of the nation and the international world, water and electric energy, and so many other subjects are hinted at in Vedic verses. We need serious research to work out the details. Had even Einstein read the Purusha Sukta of the Vedas, Brahma Sutras and Sankhya Vaisheshika philosophy, probably he would have found clues to his search for Unified Field theory of the universe.

Beyond faith and intelligent solemnity we need vision, potential Darshan of the Vedic Rshis. Once you have had the vision of truth, doubts disappear and questions recede into silence because, then, nothing shines but the Truth, and Divinity Itself reveals It’s Reality with showers of Grace. In this mood and in this spirit, I suggest, you start your search for Vedic Truth and the Mystery of Existence.

Lastly, if the Vedic lore is as old as humanity itself, what is its relevance today in the modern world? Ask yourself other questions: What is the relevance of Galileio or Newton or the Theory of Relativity, two plus two makes four, Swaraj, the Vedic word for freedom and self-discipline? Truth is truth, when the statement was or is made is irrelevant. Vedic truth, if you find it convincing and acceptable, is relevant not only for today but also for all time, to every person, everywhere.
Yajurveda itself says (26, 2):

“Yathemam vacham kalyanim avadani janebhyah”:
Just as I speak (reveal) this auspicious holy Word of the Veda for all people (without any discrimination of high or low), so should you too communicate it to all people of the world whoever, whatever, wherever they be.

Mandala 1/Sukta 1

Agni Devata, Madhucchanda Rshi

I invoke and worship Agni light of life, self-refulgent lord of the universe, foremost leader and inspirer, blazing light of yajnic creation, high-priest of cosmic dynamics, controller of natural evolution, and most generous giver of the treasures of life.

Agni, lord of light and power, is ever adorable by the saints and scholars of old and modern times. May

Agnim¶üe purohitaÅ yajÛasya devam¾tvijam.

HotŒraÅ ratnadhŒtamam.

I invoke and worship Agni light of life, self-refulgent lord of the universe, foremost leader and inspirer, blazing light of yajnic creation, high-priest of cosmic dynamics, controller of natural evolution, and most generous giver of the treasures of life.

Sa devŒ~n eha vak¦ati.

Agni, lord of light and power, is ever adorable by the saints and scholars of old and modern times. May He bless us with divine vision, knowledge and power in this world.

Agninā rayimaśnavat poṣameva divedive. Yaśasam vīravattamam.

By virtue of Agni, light and energy of the universe, one advances in health and wealth day by day, blest with honour and fame of the highest order of heroes.

AgninŒ rayimaÜnavat po¦ameva divedive. YaÜasaÅ v¶ravattamam.

By virtue of Agni, light and energy of the universe, one advances in health and wealth day by day, blest with honour and fame of the highest order of heroes.

AgnirhotŒ kavikratu¬ satyaÜcitraÜravastama¬. Devo devebhirā gamat.

Agni, self-refulgent lord of the universe, high-priest of nature, poetic creator of cosmic yajna, wondrous and most resounding, come and bless us with the noblest gifts of life.

Agni, life of life, surely you would do good to the person who is generous and giving. Dear as the breath of life, this is ever true of your divine nature.

Agni, lord omniscient, day by day, night and day, with all our heart and soul we come to you bearing gifts of homage in faith and humility.

Bearing gifts of homage with faith and humility, we come to Agni, self-refulgent ruling lord of yajnic acts of love and compassion, protector of the earth and the environment and illuminator of the Divine Word and the universal law, immanently growing with the expansive universe of His own creation.

   As a father is ever one with his child in love, so may Agni, lord of life and light and father guardian of His creation, be ever close to us in love and benediction. Father of us all, give us the grace of life divine.

Mandala 1/Sukta 2

Devata: Vayu (1), Indra-Vayu (4-6), Mitra-Varunau (7-9), Madhucchanda Rshi

   Vayu, lord of grace and majesty, come, listen to our prayer, and protect and promote these somas vitalized as nectar and adorned in beauty.

   Vayu, lord of life and majesty, the celebrants who know the time and season of yajnic ecstasy, having distilled the soma nectar of life, sing songs of joy in praise of your glory.
3. Vāyo tava prapṛṣṇcaṭi dhenā jīgāti dāśuṣe.

Vayu, breath of life and love, your voice of omniscience resounding across heaven and earth overflows like the mother cow for the generous yajnic soul and gives him a surfeit of soma, drink of immortality.

4. Indravāyū ime sutā upa prayobhirā gatam.
   Indavo vāmuśanti hi.

Indra, lord of light, and Vayu, breath of life and energy, distilled are these vital essences with joyous experiments of yajna. They manifest and glorify your divine light and power. Come and bless us.

5. Vāyavindraśca cetathaḥ sutānāṁ vājinīvasū.

Vayu and Indra, Lord’s powers of breath and light, you vitalise and illuminate the objects of creation with strength, energy and intelligence. Divinities of creation, come and inspire life and nature farther at the fastest.

6. Vāyavindraśca sunvata ā yātamupa niṣkṛtam.
   Makṣvitthā dhiyā narā.
Vayu and Indra, divine breath of life and divine light of intelligence, both divinities of nature, inspire the objects of creation with the sap of life. So do they invest the human being with spirit and intelligence and thus accomplish their creative yajna of evolution.

7. Mitrāṁ huve pūtadakṣam varuṇāṁ ca riśādasam.

I invoke, with dedication, Mitra the sun, pure, generous and sanctifying, and Varuna, pranic energy of nature, nourishing and immunizing, both divine agents of cosmic intelligence and natural powers of human evolution (in science and art).

By virtue of the divine law, Mitra and Varuna, sun and pranic energy, both extend the operation of the natural law of cosmic evolution and inspire the human intelligence to reach unto divine realisation. They both pervade and energize the mighty yajna of the expanding universe.

9. Kavī no mitrāvaruṇā tuvijātā urukṣayā.
Creative, illuminative and inspiring, Mitra and Varuna, sun and pranic energy, like the breath of life, are universally pervasive and mighty potent, and both wield the divine power of versatile action.

Devata: Ashvinau (1-3), Indra (4-6), Vishvedevah (7-9), Sarasvati (10-12), Madhucchanda Rshi

   Ashvins, fire and water, are powers of the Divine for quick motion through yajnic science. They are sources of splendour, food and energy, comfort and joy. Men of learning and science, let the two be developed in a spirit of delight and dedication.

   Ashvins, divine powers of creative energy working through fire and water, are wondrous heroic achievers of mighty deeds with relentless acts of scientific study and research. Rich and generous, may they respond to our invocations and grant our voice of hope and prayer.
3. \textit{Dasrā yuvākavah sutā nāsatyā vṛktabarhiṣah. Ā yātaṁ rudravartanī.}

Scholars of distinction dedicated to divine science, experts of natural metabolism, seated on the sacred vedi of scientific yajna, working on the marvellous powers of the Ashvins, fire and water, eternal media of divine power, for the elimination of suffering, let the gifts of divinity come (for the benefit of humanity).

4. \textit{Indrā yāhi citrabhāno sutā ime tvāyavaḥ. Aṇṭībhistanā pūtāsaḥ.}

Indra, Lord Supreme of wondrous light and power, come and bless us. All these sacred objects in existence, created, energised and extended over spaces from the subtlest causes by you are sustained in your divine power.

5. \textit{Indrā yāhi dhiyeṣito viprajūtaḥ sutāvataḥ. Upa brahmāṇi vāghataḥ.}

Indra, Lord Supreme of light and life, meditated by the pure at heart, realised by the enlightened, distilled from the Veda and the world of existence by the visionaries, come and inspire the chant of the dedicated yajakas.
6. Indrā yāhi tūtujāna upa brahmāṇi harivāh.
Sute dadhiśva naścanaḥ.

Indra, lord and breath of life, energy and speech, come fast at the speed of light, vitalise our songs of praise in yajna and bless us with food for the body, mind and soul.

7. Omāścarṣanīdhṛto viśve devāsa ā gata.
Dāśvāṁso dāśuṣaḥ sutam.

Come ye, lovers of Om, lord creator and protector of the universe, masters of light and lovers of humanity, noblest visionaries of the world, generous givers and benefactors of all, come and give us the essence and wisdom distilled from life and literature.

8. Viśve devāso apturaḥ sutamā ganta tūrṇayāḥ.
Usrā iva svasarāṇī.

Visionaries of the world, generous givers, wise scholars of life and literature, fast as winds and eager as dawn for the day and mother-cow for the calf in the stall, come to your own and bring us the essences of knowledge and wisdom.

Medham juśanta vahnayaḥ.
Divinities of the world, unerring and unfouling lovers of Omniscience, free from hate and fear, come at the fastest and join the ecstasies of the brilliant fires of the yajna of love, compassion and knowledge.

10. Pāvakā naḥ sarasvatī vājebhirvājinīvatī.

May Sarasvati, goddess of divine speech, mother knowledge of arts, science and divinity, come with gifts of food for the mind and intellect and purify us with the light of knowledge. May the mother grace our yajna of arts and sciences and bless us with the light divine.

11. Codayitrī sūnrtānāṁ cetanī sumaṭīnām.

Sarasvati, mother stream of eternal knowledge and divine speech, inspires the seekers of universal truth and cosmic law and enlightens the admirers of noble wisdom and understanding. The divine flow of light and knowledge carries on the universal yajna of nature and humanity.

12. Maho arṇaḥ sarasvatī pra cetayati ketunā.

Dhiyo viśvā vi rājati.
Sarasvati, mighty ocean flow of mother knowledge and divine speech, shines with her radiance of omniscience and illuminates the universal mind and the minds of humanity across the worlds of existence.

Mandala 1/Sukta 4

Indra Devata, Madhucchanda Rshi

1. Surūpākṛtvanumūtaye sudughāṁiva godhuhe.
   Juhūmasi dyavidyavi.

   Just as the generous mother cow is milked for the person in need of nourishment, so every day for the sake of light and knowledge we invoke and worship Indra, lord omnipotent of light and life, maker of beautiful forms of existence and giver of protection and progress.

2. Upa naḥ savanā gahi somasya somapāḥ piba.

   Indra, lord of light, protector of yajnic joy, promoter of sense and mind, come to our yajna, accept our homage of soma and give us the light and ecstasy of the soul.

3. Athā te antamānāṁ vidyāma sumātinām.
   Mā no ati khya ā gahi.
Indra, lord of light and knowledge, come, so that we know you at the closest of those who are established in you and hold you in their heart and vision. Come, lord of life, come close, forsake us not.

Keep off the malicious malinger. Go even far, farthest to Indra, lord of divine knowledge, love and kindness, light and vision, experience and wisdom, who is good and the best choice for you and me and your friends. Go, ask, and pray.

5. Uta bruvantu no nido niranyataścidārata. Dadhānā indra id duvaḥ.

Indra, lord of light and bliss, may the wise and visionaries who cherish the divine in their heart speak to us. Let the others, ignorant, malicious and malingers be off from here.

Let us pray and seek the protection of Indra, lord of might unchallengeable, so that men of knowledge and wisdom bring us the voice of divinity and even those who oppose appreciate and speak well of us.

Indra, lord of knowledge and power, give us the secret of the speed of motion for the giant leap forward in progress. Bless us with the wealth of the nation’s yajna exciting for the people and joyous for our friends.

Hero of a hundred yajnic projects, having accomplished the programme and having drunk the soma of success, concentrate and consolidate as the light of the sun and be the breaker of the clouds of rain, and then advance and promote the wealth and defence of the nation through the battles of progress.

Indra, lord of light and power, hero of a hundred yajnic creations, we celebrate your glory of speed and success in the battles of humanity for the achievement of the wealth of life and prosperity of the people.
1.  Ā tvetā ni śidatendramabhi pra gāyata.
Sakhāyāḥ stomavāhasah.

Friends and celebrants of song divine, come, sit together and join to meditate (on life, divinity, humanity, science and spirituality, and freedom), and sing in thankful praise of Indra, lord of life and energy.

2.  Purūtamaṁ purūṇāmiśānaṁ vāryāṇām.
Indraṁ some sacā sute.

Friends and comrades in study and meditation, when you have distilled the essence of soma, life and spirit present at the heart of things, then sing in praise of Indra, closest at hand of things in heaven and earth, and ruler dispenser of the fruits of love and desire.

Indra, life and energy of the universe, is at the heart of our meditation. That is the spirit and secret of the wealth of the world. That is the inspiration at the centre of our thought and intelligence. May that lord of life and energy come and bless us with gifts of knowledge and power in our joint endeavours.

4.  Yasya saṃsthe na vṛṇvate harī samatsu śatravaḥ. Tasmā indrāya gāyata.

Sing in honour of that Indra in the field of whose power and force no enemies can have the courage to stand in opposition and sustain themselves.

All these bright and pure creations of the soma-yajna of science and meditation, sweet and vitalising as nectar-sweet delicacies of milk and curds (are created by Indra through His light and wind energy) and flow for the beneficiary, humanity, for their pleasure, Indra, noble soul of purity and yajnic meditation, hero of a hundred acts of goodness, for a drink of the soma of Lord Indra’s creation, rising to new honour and grandeur every day, take a new birth into higher knowledge every moment.

Indra, noble soul, high-priest of yajna and the divine voice, may all these brilliant creations of lightning speed be good and beneficial to you and humanity. May they bring bliss and peace to you, prince of knowledge and grandeur.

Indra, supreme lord of omnipotence and majesty, the Stoma hymns of the Veda celebrate your glory. Lord infinite of countless acts of creation, the Uktha hymns sing of your power and action. So may all our songs of devotion and homage light up your presence and grandeur all round.

अऽ ताति: सन्दिमं वाजुमिन्द: सहुस्त्रिणाम। यस्मिन विश्वान्ति पांछ्या॥ ९ ॥

Yasmin viśvāni paumṣyā.

Indra, whose omnipotence and protection is infinite and imperishable, may, we pray, bless us with this thousand-fold knowledge and power of science in which are contained all the secrets of nature’s vitality.

मा ना मता अभि दुःहन तनूनामिन्द गित्वण: ॥
इश्वाना यव्या वृध्म॥ १० ॥

10. Mā no martā abhi druhaṇ tanūnāmindra girva-
ṇaḥ. Īśāno yavaya vadham.

Indra, lord adorable in sacred song, let no mortal hate or injure our body and mind from anywhere. Keep off hate, violence and murder far away from us. You are the ruler, ordainer and dispenser of justice and punishment.

Mandala 1/Sukta 6

Devata: Indra (1-3, 10), Maruts (4, 6, 8, 9), Indra and Maruts (5, 7), Madhucchanda Rshi

युञ्जन्ति ब्रह्मप्ररुषं चरान्तं परि तस्थुर्ष: ॥ राचन्त राचना दिवि॥ १ ॥

1. Yuñjanti bradhnamaruṣaṁ carantaṁ pari tasthusaḥ. Rocante rocanā divi.

Pious souls in meditation commune with the great and gracious lord of existence immanent in the steady universe and transcendent beyond. Brilliant are they with the lord of light and they shine in the heaven of bliss.

2. Yuñjantyasya kāmyā hari vipakṣasā rathe. Šoṇā dhrṣṭīḥ nṝvāhasā.

Scholars of science dedicated to Indra study and meditate on the lord’s omnipotence of light, fire and wind, and harness the energy like two horses to a chariot, both beautiful, equal and complementary as positive-negative currents, fiery red, powerful and carriers of people.

3. Ketuṁ krṣvannaketaṁ peśo maryā apeśase. Samuṣadbhirajāyathāḥ.

Children of the earth, know That who creates light and knowledge for the ignorant in darkness and gives form and beauty to the formless and chaotic, and regenerate yourselves by virtue of the men of knowledge and passion for action.

4. Ādaha svadhāmanu punargarbhatvamerire. Dadhānā nāma yajñīyam.

Bearing the sacred vapours of yajna as is their wont and nature, the winds rise to the sky, hold the clouds in their womb, and after the rain carry on the cycle with the sun-rays and yajna-fire.

5. \(\text{Vi}ū\l\text{u cidārujatnubhirguhā cidindra vahnibhi}ḥ\). Avinda usriyā anu.

The mighty sun with its piercing rays breaks down things in the sky, and the wind with its currents after the sunbeams reconstructs and replaces new forms of things in the sky.

6. \(\text{Devayanto yathā matimacchā vidadvasum} \text{ girā}ḥ. \text{Mahāmanu}ṣṭata śrutam.\)

Just as noble scholars develop and brighten up their generous mind and intelligence after the principles of Vedic revelation, so do the Maruts, currents of energy, intensify, magnify and adorn the sound that is produced and heard.

7. \(\text{Indreṇa saṁ hi dṛkṣase samjagamāno abibhyuṣā. Mandū samānavarcasā.}\)

Marut, wind energy, is seen while moving along with the indomitable sun, both beautiful and joyous, divinities coexistent, equal in splendour by and nature, the winds rise to the sky, hold the clouds in their womb, and after the rain carry on the cycle with the sun-rays and yajna-fire.

The mighty sun with its piercing rays breaks down things in the sky, and the wind with its currents after the sunbeams reconstructs and replaces new forms of things in the sky.

Just as noble scholars develop and brighten up their generous mind and intelligence after the principles of Vedic revelation, so do the Maruts, currents of energy, intensify, magnify and adorn the sound that is produced and heard.

Marut, wind energy, is seen while moving along with the indomitable sun, both beautiful and joyous, divinities coexistent, equal in splendour by virtue of omnipresent Indra, Lord Supreme.

The yajnic dynamics of nature’s currents of energy, Maruts, so potent and effective, illuminates the world and does homage to the Lord of creation with the immaculate blazing radiations of glorious sun light.

The currents of energy, Maruts, travel up from here, the earth, to the region of the sun, and from up there down to the earth. And in this space they sustain all the objects of the world and all the voices divine and human.

From here we rise to the sun, and to Indra, lord omnipotent blazing in the sun, with prayers, with homage and oblations, Indra who is greater and higher than the earth, the skies and the heavens and rules over all these.
Mandala 1/Sukta 7
Indra Devata, Madhucchanda Rshi

   Indram vānīranūṣata.

   The singers of Vedic hymns worship Indra, infinite lord of the expansive universe, Indra, the sun, lord of light, Indra, vayu, maruts, currents of energy, and Indra, the universal divine voice, with prayers, mantras, actions and scientific research.

2.  Indra iddharyoh sacā saṁmiśla ā vacoyujā.

   Indra, the omnipresent Spirit, Indra, the universal energy of vayu or maruts, and Indra, the solar energy, the bond of unity and sustenance in things, co-existent synthesis of equal and opposite complementarities of positive and negative, activiser of speech, lord of the thunderbolt and the golden light of the day and the year.

3.  Indro dīrghāya caṅṣa ā sūryāṁ rohayad divi.
   Vi gobhiradrimairayat.

   Indra, lord omnipotent, raised the sun high up in the heavens for expansive light and vision. With the Indra, lord of light and omnipotence, in a thousand battles of life and prize contests, protect us with bright blazing ways of protection and advancement.

Indra, lord omnipotent, raised the sun high up in the heavens for expansive light and vision. With the rays of the sun, He forms and moves the cloud for rain.

In battles great and small, we invoke Indra, lord omnipotent, we call upon sun and wind, mighty breaker of the clouds, friend in darkness, wielder of the thunderbolt.

Indra, lord of the universe, light of the world, generous lord of wealth, irresistible wielder of power, generous giver of showers, grant us the yajnic prosperity of life and open the doors of freedom and salvation at the end.
7. Tuñjetuñje ya uttare stomā indrasya vajriṇāḥ.
Na vindhe asya suśṭutim.

On success in battle after battle, follow songs of celebration in honour of Indra, lord wielder of the thunderbolt, and I love to go on and on with the song without end.

8. Vṛṣā yūtheva vaṁsagaḥ krṣṭīriyartyojasā.
Īśāno apratiśkutah.

As the virile bull leads the herd it rules, so does Indra, generous lord indomitable and ruler of the world, inspire and lead His children to joy and freedom.

Indraḥ pañca kṣiṣīnāṁ.

One and only one without a second is Indra, lord supreme of the universe, the lord who rules and guides humanity, showers treasures of wealth, and sustains and ultimately disposes the five orders of the universe.

10. Indraṁ vo viśvataspari havāmahe janebhyaḥ.
Asmākamastu kevalaḥ.

For the sake of you all of humanity, we invoke and worship Indra, the one lord ruler over the universe, and we pray He may be with us in vision in a state of absolute bliss.

Mandala 1/Sukta 8

Indra Devata, Madhucchanda, Rshi

1. Endra sānasim rayim sajītvānaṁ sadāsaham.
   Varṣiṣṭhamūtaye bhara.

   Indra, lord supreme of power and glory, bless us with the wealth of life and well-being that gives us the superiority of action over sufferance, delight and victory, courage and endurance, excellence and generosity, and leads us on way to progress under divine protection.

   *नि चर मुष्टिहल्या नि चृत्रा रुणद्रांमहः
   त्वारासः न्यर्वता* || 2 ||

2. Ni yena muṣṭihatyayā ni vṛtrā ruṇadhāmahai.
   Tvotāso nyarvatā.

   Indra, lord of power and glory, give us that strength of life and character whereby, under your blessed protection, we may hold back the enemy, evil and darkness with less than a blow of the fist and less than a dart of the lance.

   *इन्द्रु त्वारास्स आ वृथ्य वर्ण घना दंदीमहि
   जययम सं युधि स्मृद्धः* || 3 ||

3. Indra tvotāsa ā vayaṁ vajraṁ ghanā daḍimahi.
   Jayema saṁ yudhi sprṛdhaḥ.
Indra, lord of might and splendour, under your divine protection, may we develop, we pray, strong and sophisticated weapons of defence so that fighting battles of mutual contest we may win the prize of victory.

4. \( \text{Vaya} \text{ṁ śūrebhirastrbhirindra tvayā yujā vayam.} \)
\( \text{Sāsahyāma pṛtanyataḥ.} \)

Indra, lord of might, protection and progress, joined as we are with you in spirit, may we, with our heroes, shotmen and missiles, challenge, fight out and win over our contestants in battle.

5. \( \text{Mahāṁ indraḥ paraśca nu mahitvamastu vajriṇe.} \)
\( \text{Dyaurna prathinā śavaḥ.} \)

Indra is great, supreme and transcendent, self-refulgent like the sun, extensive like space and more. May all the power and grandeur be for the lord of justice and the thunderbolt. May all be dedicated to Him.

6. \( \text{Samohe vā ya āśata narastokasya sanitau.} \)
\( \text{Viprāso vā dhiyāyavaḥ.} \)

Men of valour and heroism engage in battles, men of knowledge and piety in learned gatherings and in the training of youth.
Indra, the sun, is the womb of life, it feeds and promotes the life-giving vegetation. Just as the sea and the space-ocean of vapours augment the waters, the wide earth generates and promotes life, the throat cavity sustains prana, and prana promotes speech, so does the sun nourish and promote life, soma and joy.

Verily the divine voice of Indra, Supreme Lord of Omniscience, is the richest treasure of eternal truth, generous mother of the language of existence and great. It is an abundant branch of the divine tree laden with ripe fruit for the faithful devotee and yajnic giver.

Indra, lord omnipresent, omniscient and omnipotent, such are your wondrous works and attributes, such are your powers, protections and promotions, of life, knowledge and happiness for a person like me. They are ever abundant for the faithful and generous devotee dedicated to love and service.

Such are the songs of praise, adoration and celebration of this lord of life, light and power, sweet, enchanting and elevating, offered in honour of Indra, creator, protector and promoter of life and its joy.

\textbf{Mandala 1/Sukta 9}

\textit{Indra Devata, Madhucchanda Rshi}

1. \textit{Indrehi matsyandhaso viśvebhiḥ somaparvabhiḥ. Mahāṁ abhiṣṭirajasā.}

Indra, lord of light and life, come with all the soma-celebrations of food, energy and joy, great as you are with majesty, power and splendour omnipresent, and give us the ecstasy of living with enlightenment.

2. \textit{Emenaṁ sṛjatā sute mandimindrāya mandine. Cakrim viśvāṁi cakraye.}

Scholars of eminence, in this world of Indra’s yajnic creation, come up for the sake of joyous humanity and accomplish all those works of creation and construction which are needed for its prosperity and well-being.

मत्स्वः सुशिप मुनिदिभि: स्ताम्भभविश्वचचछन।
सच्चेत सर्वनाशा || ॥ ॥

3. Matsvā suśipra mandibhiḥ stomebhirviśvacar-ṣaṇe. Sacaiṣu savanesvā.

Indra, Lord omniscient of universal presence, light and vision, with joyous songs of praise and celebration we invoke you and dedicate ourselves to you as our constant friend and guide. Come lord, and give us the bliss of existence in our yajnic acts of creation.

असूर्गमिन्द तत गिरः पति त्वामुदहासत।
अर्जौषा व्र्षभं पतिम || ॥ ॥

4. Asrgramindra te giraḥ prati tvāmudahāsata.
Ajoṣā vrṣabham patim.

Indra, lord of light and splendour, the songs of divinity reveal and manifest you in your glory, protector of the universe and generous rain-giver of favours and kindness. And I too, in response, celebrate your magnificence and magnanimity without satiety.

सं चांदय चित्रमवागाध्रं इन्द्रं वरणयम।
असदिनतं विधु पृथु || ॥ ॥

5. Sam codaya citramarvāgrādha indra vareṇyam.
Asaditte vibhu prabhu.

Indra, lord of light and glory, creator giver of wondrous beauty, wealth and joy, infinite, mighty and supreme, whatever is worthy of choice in the world of your creation, grant us here and now.

Indra, lord of light and infinite power, guide and inspire us on way to the wealth of life and divinity, zealous seekers of love, honour and excellence as we are.

7. Saṁ gomadindra vājavadasme pṛthu śravo bṛhat. Viśvāyurdhehyakṣitam.

Indra, infinite lord of life and light, wealth and honour, grant us a full life of knowledge and divine speech, wealth of food and energy, great reputation, high and inexhaustible honour, and the vision of infinity.

Indra, lord of honour, wealth and power, grant us great honour and knowledge, wealth and happiness of a thousand sort, a strong economy and a mighty force of chariots (moving on land and sea and in the air).

For our defence, protection and advancement, we invoke and celebrate in song with homage, Indra, lord protector of wealth, ruler of the earth, fire, breath and other sustainers of life, self-revealed and honoured in the Rks and immanent ruler and mover of everything.

Even if a person is opposed to faith in Indra and is an enemy of the pious, but (on repentance) offers sincere homage to Him, Great Lord and universal home and haven of everything of the world, worshipped in every act of piety, he is saved.

(ii) The pious, and even the impious, if he offers homage to Him, Great Lord who is the haven and home of everything in the world, worshipped in every act of piety, he is saved.

Mandala 1/Sukta 10

Indra Devata, Madhucchanda Rshi

1. Gāyanti tvā gāyatrito’rcantyarkamarkiṇaḥ.
Brahmāṇastvā śatakraṇa udvamśamiva yemire.

The singers of Gayatri celebrate you, Indra, lord of song and joy, with the hymns of Sama-Veda. The devotees of Rgveda worship Indra, lord of light, with Rks. And the sage scholars of all the Vedas, O lord of a hundred noble acts of cosmic yajna, maintain the line of divine worship as the centre-string of the human family.

2. Yatsānoḥ sānumāruhad bhūryaspaṣṭa kartvam.
   Tadindro arthāṁ cetati yūthena vṛṣṇirejati.

As the sun-beams radiate with waves of energy from one peak to another of a mountain illuminating each in succession, similarly when a person rises from one peak of action to another, accomplishing one after another as holy duty, then Indra, lord of light, illuminates one meaning of life and mystery after another for him.

3. Yukṣvā hi keśinā harī vṛṣanā kakṣyaprapā.
   Athā na indra somapā girāmupaśrutim cara.

Indra, lord of light blazing in the sun, protector and promoter of the soma of life and joy, yoke your team of sunbeams like chariot-horses, equal, opposite and complementary as the positive-negative currents of energy-circuit, beautiful in their operative field, generous, pervasive in the skies all round, listen to our prayer and advance the yajna of knowledge and action on earth.

4. Ehi stomaṁ abhi svarā’bhi grññihyāruva.
   Brahma ca no vaso sacendra yajñam ca vardhaya.
Indra, omnipresent omniscient lord sustainer of the universe and support of all, come in response to our prayer, reveal the secrets of knowledge, let the light shine in our heart, inspire us to proclaim, let the sacred science of life and nature prevail, and promote the yajna of creation at the human level for the earth and her children.

उक्तं भावं दर्श्यं वधं न पुनतिष्ठित ।
शकानं यथा सुतं णम राज्यं सुखं च ॥ ५ ॥

5. Ukthamindrāya śāṁsyāṁ vardhanaṁ puruniṣṣi-dhe. Śakro yathā suteṣu ṇo rāraṇat sakhyeṣu ca.

Just as a man rejoices with his children and friends and bestows lots of knowledge and wealth on them, so does Shakra, omnipotent Indra, lord of wealth and knowledge, rejoice to bestow admirable mantras of elevating light of Vedic lore on the generous soul for its advancement.

तमित सहिते इमहं तं रायं तं सुवीयं ।
स शक उत्त नं शकुदिन्दा वसु दर्श्यानं ॥ ६ ॥

6. Tamit sakhitva īmahe taṁ rāye taṁ suvīrye.
Sa śakra uta naḥ śakadindro vasu dayamānaḥ.

We invoke Indra and pray to Him for friendship, wealth and wisdom, courage and heroism, that Lord Omnipotent, Indra, lord of power and honour, strength and support of all, who has the power to give, to protect, and to destroy sin and evil, He alone.

Indra, lord of light and honour blazing as the sun, lord of magnanimity as the clouds of rain, the honour and fame given by you is open and brilliant, transparent and free, even from a speck of dust. Lord of generosity, open the doors of knowledge, augment the wealth of the world, and illuminate the honour of humanity.

Lord omnipotent and infinite, transcending the expanse of space, the heaven and earth contain you not. Dominant over the holy waters of the universe, ruling over the noblest actions of humanity, liberate our mind, thought and speech, electrify our sense and will, and give us a shower of knowledge and wealth of life divine.

9. Āśrutkarṇa śruḍhī havāṁ nū ciddadhiṣva me girah. Indra stomamimāṁ mama krṣvā yujaścirdantaram.

Lord of instant and universal ear, listen to my voice. Hold my prayer in your heart. Indra, it is the song of a dear friend. Take me in along with it, cleanse and sanctify my heart and soul.
10. Vidmā hi tvā vrṣantamaṁ vājeṣu havanāśrutam.
Vrṣantamasya hūmaha ūtim sahasrasātamām.

Indra, lord of love and power, we know you as the most generous giver of the showers of blessings, instant listener to our call in the battles of life. We pray for the divine protection of the most generous guardian and giver of victory, best and highest of a thousand other modes of protection and redemption.

11. Ā tū na indra kauśika mandasānaḥ sutam piba.
Navyamāyuḥ pra sū tira kṛdhī sahasrasāmṛṣim.

Indra, lord giver of infinite joy, universal teacher of humanity, come and taste the sweets of our divine celebrations. Create a new and higher life for us, and let a new seer and prophet of a thousand visions and sciences arise among us.

12. Pari tvā girvaṇo gira imā bhavantu viśvataḥ.
Vṛddhayumanu vrddhayo juṣṭā bhavantu juṣṭa-yaḥ.

May all these holy songs of the divine singers from all sides celebrate you, sole object of the sacred voice of eternity. May all the songs of love and worship glorify the lord of eternal existence. May all these songs be acceptable to the Lord and delightful and elevating for us.

Mandala 1/Sukta 11

Indra Devata, Jeta Madhucchanda Rshi

1. Indraṁ viśvā avīryḍhantsamudravyacasaṁ girah. Rathītamāṁ rathīnāṁ vājānāṁ satpatimīṁ patim.

May all the songs of divine love and worship celebrate and glorify Indra, lord infinite and glorious like the expansive oceans of space, highest redeemer, higher than all other saviours, sole true lord victorious of the battles of life between good and evil, ultimate protector and promoter of humanity and ruler of existence.

2. Sakhye ta indra vājino mā bhema śavasaspate. Tvāmabhī praṇumō jetāramaparājitam.

We are the friends of Indra, we are the fighters of life and humanity. Indra, lord of might, never shall we succumb to fear while we are under the cover of your protective friendship. We offer homage and worship to you, supreme victor, unbeaten since eternity.
The eternal gifts of Indra, lord magnificent, never fail, His favours and protections never fade, nor exhaust, because the munificence of the lord of earth and His bounties of wealth and honour always flow in abundance more and ever more for the devotees.

4. Purāṁ bhinduryuvā kaviramitaujā ajāyata.
Indro viśvasya karmano dhartā vajrī puruṣṭutaḥ.

Breaker of the enemy forts, youthful, creative and imaginative, hero of boundless strength, sustainer of the acts of the world and disposer, wielder of the thunderbolt, universally acclaimed and celebrated is risen into prominence.

5. Tvāṁ valasya gomato’pavadvrivo bilam.
Tvāṁ devā abibhyuṣastujyamānāsa āvisuḥ.

Indra, blazing as the sun, wielder of the clouds, you break open the water-hold of the clouds. The devas, planets, seekers of the lord of light and centre-home, moved round in orbit, hold on to their place in the solar family.

Hero of generosity, drawn by your gifts of light and grace, I come to you as to the sea, singing songs of praise. Lord and lover of the voice of celebration, they, all your servants, know you and they abide by you in adoration.

Indra, lord of supernal powers, with your vision and extraordinary intelligence ward off the artful opponent and exploiter. Your friends and admirers know you. Listen to their voice and overthrow the enemies.

8. Indramīśānamojasābhī stomā anuṣāta. Sahasraṁ yasya rātaya uta vā santi bhūyasīḥ.

All the hymns of praise celebrate Indra, lord ruler over the universe with His power and splendour. Thousands, uncountable, are His gifts and benedictions, infinitely more indeed.

Mandala 1/Sukta 12
Agni Devata, Kanva Medhatithi Rshi

social yajna, which carries the fragrance of yajna universally across the earth, the sky and even to the heavens, and which is the chief creator of prosperity and maker of beautiful forms.

अग्निमानिन हवीमाभिः सदा हवन्त विश्वपतिम । हव्यवाहं पुरुप्रियम ॥ २ ॥

2. Agnimagnim havīmabhīḥ sadā havanta viśpatim.
Havyavāham purupriyam.

We choose Agni visible and invisible, and invoke it with faith and holy action, Agni which is the protector of the people, carrier of yajnic fragrance, and favourite of the wise.

अग्निदुर्बाँ हस्यजज्ञान वृक्षवांहिष । असि हाता न इद्याः ॥ ३ ॥

3. Agne devāṁ ihā vaha jajñāno vrktabarhiṣe.
Asi hotā na īḍyāḥ.

Agni, omniscient and omnipresent power, bring us here the brilliant divine gifts of yajna for the pure at heart. You alone are the chief priest and performer of the yajna of creation. You alone are adorable.

तों उद्वर्ता वि बाध्यू यद्यग्र्य यासिं दृष्म ॥ दुविन्स सत्त्वि बुहिष्ठि ॥ ४ ॥

4. Tāṁ uṣato vi bodhaya yadagne yāsi dūtyam.
Devairā satsi barhiṣi.

Agni, purify and activate the libations lighted by the fire which you have carried to the skies, and bring them back home to the seat of yajna with gifts divine.
5.  Ghṛtāhavana dīdivah prati śma riṣato daha.

Agni, brilliant and resplendent, fed on ghee and blazing, burn up the jealous, the negative and the wicked who destroy.

Agni is lighted, generated and raised by agni, universal energy. It is the creator of new things, protector and promoter of the home, and ever young—powerful catalytic agent carrying holy materials to the sky and to the heavens across space, and a voracious consumer (and creator) with its mouth ever open to devour (and convert) holy offerings (to divine gifts of joy and prosperity).

7.  Kavimagnimupa stuhi satyadharmāṇamadhvare.

In the holy acts of yajna, light, serve and adore Agni, brilliant creator of new things of beauty, prosperity and joy, illuminator and observer of the eternal laws, generous giver, and destroyer of evil and disease.

Lord omniscient and resplendent, protector and harbinger of the holy gifts and blessings of life, whosoever be the yajnapati of service with holy offering unto you, save, protect and promote.

Whosoever offers yajna with holy materials in honour and service to Agni for the gifts of the divine, to him, brilliant power, be kind and gracious with blessings.

That holy purifying brilliant power and presence may, we pray, bring us the finest gifts of divinity and humanity, and endow our yajna with holy riches and offerings for the fire.

May Agni, omnipresent and self-refulgent Lord, adored again and ever again with Gayatri hymns and new versions of prayer, bless us with wealth, food and energy and heroic progeny.

अग्नि शुक्रकणं शाचिषा विश्वाभिनव्हृत्तिभि: ।
द्रमं स्तामं जुषस्व ने ॥ १२ ॥

12. Agne śukreṇa शोचिषा viśvābhirdevahūtibhiḥ.
Imañ stomaṁ juṣasva naḥ.

Agni, self-refulgent Lord, be gracious to accept this adoration of ours with the pure and purifying radiance of yours, this prayer and service offered with all our sincere invocations to the generous powers of divinity.

Mandala 1/Sukta 13
Agni and others Devata, Kanva Medhatithi Rshi

सुसमिद्ध्र न आ वहं द्रवां अग्नि हविष्मत ।
हारं: पावकं याँ ॥ १ ॥

1. Susamiddho na ā vaha devāṁ agne haviṣmate.
Hotāḥ pāvaka yaksi ca.

Agni, invoked, lighted and blazing refulgent, creator and chief agent of cosmic yajna, universal purifier, bring the divine gifts for us and for the yajamana offering holy materials to the fire, and carry on the yajna for ever.

मधुमन्त्रं तनूनपाद यज्ञं द्रव्युं न: कव ।
अद्या कृणुहि वीतय ॥ २ ॥

Agni, self-refulgent omniscience, lord self-existent and preserver of the body, poetic power of creation and illumination, let the yajna rise to the heights of joy among the divinities of nature and bring the honey-sweets of bliss to the dedicated people of brilliance among us.

3. \textit{Narāśaṁsamiha priyamasmin yajña upa hvaye. Madhujihvam haviśkṛtam.}

I invoke Agni, universally adorable lord of light and life, in my heart, and kindle the fire in this dear auspicious yajna with offerings of holy materials to be tasted and consumed by the honey flames of fire for the good of the people.

4. \textit{Agne sukhatame rathe devaṁ īliita ā vaha. Asi hotā manurhitah.}

Agni, invoked, lighted and honoured by all, you are the lord and agent of yajna for the benefit of humanity. Come and bring the best powers and divinities of nature in the most comfortable chariot.

5. \textit{Stṛṇīta barhirānuṣag ghṛtaprśtham manīśīnaḥ. Yatrāmṛtasya caksuṇam.}

Men of science and wisdom, cover the sacred grass of yajna sprinkled with holy water, reach the skies pregnant with the waters of space, and there you will have a vision of nectar.

Scholars of science, servants of eternal truth who extend the bounds of knowledge, open the holy doors of inexhaustible light, the yajna must be performed today.

I invoke the glorious dawn and the deep-soothing night, both beautiful and elevating, and invite them to come and grace this holy seat of yajna.

8. Tā sujihvā upa hvaye hotārā daivyā kavī. Yajñaṁ no yakṣatānimam.

I invoke and kindle two divine and visionary priestly powers of yajna, fire visible and invisible, energy physical and grace divine, both of beautiful flames of light, so that they accomplish this socio-scientific yajna of ours.
9. Iḷā sarasvatī mahī tisvo devīmayobhuvah.

   I invoke three divine graces, brilliant and blissful, Ila, eternal speech of divine omniscience, Sarasvati, universal speech of divine revelation, and Mahi, realised speech of earthly communication. May the three come and sanctify the holy seats of our yajna here and now without delay, without fail.

   Here to this house of yajna, from the core of my heart, I invoke and invite Tvashta, first pioneer of all, omnipresent lord of cosmic dynamics and maker of beautiful forms of existence. May He be the sole object of our worship.

11. Ava sṛjjā vanaspate deva devebhyo haviḥ.

   Vanaspati, generous lord of love, light and beauty, nature and the forests, create, produce and provide the food for the divinities of yajna. And may that creation, production and provision initiate extension of the study, knowledge and awareness of the generous yajnics who offer the libations.

12. Svāhā yajñam kṛṣṇotanendrāya yajvano grhe.
    Tatra devān upa hvaye.

In the house of the devotee of yajna where the scholars and artists perform yajna and offer libations of creation in truth of word and deed with the divine voice, I invoke and invite brilliant and dedicated scholars for the performance and the extension of power and glory for Indra on earth.

Mandala 1/Sukta 14

Vishvedeva Devata, Kanva Medhatithi Rshi

1. Aibhiragane duvo giro viśvebhiḥ somapītaye.
   Devebhiryāhi yakṣi ca.

   Agni, lord of light and life, listen to our words of reverence and prayer, come with all these generous powers and gifts of nature for the protection and promotion of the soma-joy of our yajna, and inspire us to carry on with the performance.

2. Ā tvā kaṇvā ahūṣata gṛṇanti vipra te dhiyāḥ.
   Devebhiragna ā gahi.

   Agni, lord of light and knowledge, the wise and intelligent invoke you. Power of vision and inspiration, they sing and celebrate your will and omniscience. Come lord, we pray, with the gifts of the universal powers of generosity.

3. Indravāyū braḥspatim mitrāgniṁ pūṣāṇam bhagam. Ādityān mārutam gaṇam.

Scholars of science and men of wisdom, study and celebrate the nature and powers of Indra, universal energy, Vayu, air, Brhaspati, nourishing and protective light of the sun, Mitra, pranic energy, Agni, heat and light, Pushan, moonlight, Bhaga, socio-economic power and prosperity, Adityas, zodics of the sun vis-a-vis the earth and other planets, and Maruts, the currents of wind.

4. Pra vo bhriyanta indavo matsarā mādayiṣṇavaḥ. Drapsā madhvaścamuṣadaḥ.

All of you maintain these assets, soothing, inspiring, exhilarating, energising, honey-sweet and highly strengthening of growth and protection.

5. Īlate tvāmavasyavah kaṇvāso vrktabarhiṣah. Haviṣmanto araṅkṛtah.

The intelligent and the wise, pure at heart and ready for yajna, endowed with holy-materials, cultural and graceful, keen to have divine protection, adore and glorify you, Lord Supreme.

6. Ghṛtapṛṣṭhā manoyujo ye tvā vahanti vahnayaḥ. Ā devān̄tsomapītaye.

   Holy yajna, the flames of fire laden with waters and currents of energy rise from the vedi and carry your purpose to the skies and space. They are friends of the wind to be raised and used by the intelligent and the wise. They invoke the divine powers of nature and bring their blessings to the desire of humanity for protection and progress of joy and prosperity.

7. Tān yajatrāṁ rtāvrddho’gne patnīvataskṛdhi. Madhvāḥ sujīhva pāyaya.

   Agni, lord of yajna with the flaming fire and power, advance the scholars of yajna who extend the bounds of truth and knowledge, give them a protective home of comfort, and give us all a honey taste of life.

8. Ye yajatrā ya īdyaṁte pibantu jihvayā. Madhoragne vaṣaṭkṛti.

   Those who conduct the yajna, those who are worthy of reverence and adoration, they taste the honey-sweets of yajna with flames of fire.

When the sun is on the rise and nature wakes up with the dawn, the holy man of yajna who offers libations into the fire receives all the blessings of divinities from the light of the sun there and then (and communes with nature).

The Holy fire of yajna alongwith the wind and currents of energy collects the soothing sweets of vitality from all the quarters of universal prana and the light of the sun for the benefit of humanity.

Universal fire, lover and sustainer of humanity, you are the prime agent of the cosmic dynamics of life, and you preside over all the yajnas of nature and mankind. Pray grace this yajna of ours and help it rise to success.
12.  \(\text{Yukṣvā hyaruśi rathe harito deva rohitaḥ.}\)
\(\text{Tābhirdevān ihā vaha.}\)

General power of brilliance, fire of yajna, brilliant scholar of the science and power of heat and energy, yoke the blazing red flames of fire like horses to the chariot, and with the currents of energy bring the noble divinities of power here.

Mandala 1/Sukta 15

Rtavah, Indra, Marutah, Tvashta, Agni, Indra, Mitra-Varuna, Dravinoda, Ashvinau, Agni, Devatah, Kanva Medhatithi Rshi

1.  \(\text{Indra somaÅ piba ṛtunā’ tvā viśantvindavaḥ.}\)
\(\text{Matsarāsastadokasaḥ.}\)

Indra, power divine blazing in the sun, drink up the soma juices of nature according to the seasons, and let these essences, inspiring and exhilarating, abide there, their home, according to the seasons.

2.  \(\text{Marutaḥ pibata ṛtunā potrād yajñam punītana.}\)
\(\text{Yūyam hi śthā sudānavah.}\)

Maruts, pure and purifying powers of the winds, drink the sap of nature according to the seasons, purify the yajna of nature according to the seasons by your powers of purity. Stay you all in your element, noble generous givers.
1. Yukṣvœ hyaru¶ rathe harito deva rohita¬.
   Tœbhirdevnœ~n ihœ vaha.
   General power of brilliance, fire of yajna, brilliant scholar of the science and power of heat and energy, yoke the blazing red flames of fire like horses to the chariot, and with the currents of energy bring the noble divinities of power here.

Mandala 1/Sukta 15

Rtavah, Indra, Marutah, Tvashta, Agni, Indra, Mitra-V aruna, Dravinoda, Ashvinau, Agni, Devatah, Kanva Medhatithi Rshi

2. Indra somaÅ piba ¾tunŒ'' tvŒ viÜantvindava¬.
   MatsarŒsastadokasa¬.
   Indra, power divine blazing in the sun, drink up the soma juices of nature according to the seasons, and let these essences, inspiring and exhilarating, abide there, their home, according to the seasons.

3. Abhi yajñaṁ grñ̄hi no gn̄vo neṣṭaḥ piba ṛtunā. Tvaṁ hi ratnadhā asi.
   Electricity, purifier of everything, generous giver of things, receive and appraise the fragrance of our yajna, drink the sweets of it according to the seasons and give us the jewels, treasure of jewels as you are.

   Agni, universal energy of fire, bring here the divine powers of nature, convert and fix them in three orders at three levels, physical, mental and spiritual. Beautify, beatify and sanctify, and drink the fragrance according to the seasons.

   Indra, pranic energy of air, according to the seasons drink the soma juices of nature from the earthly treasuries created by the Supreme Lord of the universe. The vital relation of life with you is universal and inviolable.
6. Yuvaṁ daksāṁ dhṛtavrata mitrāvaruṇa dūlabham. Ṛtunā yajñamāśāthe.

Mitra and Varuna, vital energies of prana and udana, both versatile, formidable and committed to life, pervade and endow yajna with power and vitality according to the seasons.

7. Draviṇodā draviṇaso grāvahastāso adhvare. Yajñēṣu devamīlate.

Priests of yajna, keen to have the wealth of life and spirit and soma, and holding the stone-press in hand for the purpose in the yajna of love and non-violence, worship the generous lord giver of wealth with hymns of praise in yajnas of piety, science and technology.

8. Draviṇodā dadātu no vasūni yāni śṛṇvire. Devesu tā vanāmahe.

May the lord creator and giver of wealth bless us with treasures of wealth which we have heard of, which we love, and which abound in the generous stores of nature, in yajna, and in the products of science and technology.

9. Draviṇodāḥ pīpīṣati juhota pra ca tiṣṭhata. Neṣṭrādṛtubhiriṣyata.
The generous devotee of yajna thirsts for a drink of soma, the wealth and joy of life. Listen ye all, perform the yajna and be steadfast therein. Know the art and secrets of yajna and create wealth from yajnic studies of natural energy such as electricity, in accordance with the seasons.

\[\text{Adha smā no dadirbhava.}\]

Lord creator and giver of the wealth of the universe, we worship you, lord transcendent of the fourth estate of spirit and existence, in yajna in tune with the seasons of nature. Your devotees as we are, bless us with the gift of wealth and joy which is on top of heaven beyond paradise.

\[\text{Ṛtunā yajñavāhasā.}\]

Ashvins, twin powers of sun and moon, earth and heaven, night and day, vested with light and fire, committed to purification, carriers of the fragrance of yajna, create and receive the honey-sweets of yajna according to the seasons.
Agni, as bountiful master-power of home life, you are the leader of yajna according to the seasons. Carry on the yajna of the divine powers for the yajamana dedicated to holy development of power and energy in honour of the Divine.

Mandala 1/Sukta 16

Indra Devata, Kanva Medhatithi Rshi

आ त्वा वहन्तु हरया वृष्णं सामपीतयः
इन्द्रे त्वा सूर्यव रासः ॥ १ ॥

1. Å tvā vahantu harayo vrṣaṇam somapītaye.
   Indra tvā sūracakṣasah.

   Indra, light and power blazing as the sun, may the rays of light, brightest and fastest waves of energy, transmit your power, generous harbinger of light and rain, to the earth for a drink of soma as well as the protection of the joyous gifts of life. May the specialist scholars of light and solar energy develop the light and energy for the protection and prosperity of humanity and the environment.

2. Imā dhānā ghṛtasnuvo harī ihopa vakṣataḥ.
   Indraṁ sukhatame rathe.

   These rays of light, laden with waters and fertility, day and night, in the dark and bright fortnight of the moon, and in the equinoctial and solstitial courses of the sun, bring Indra, solar energy, in the most comfortable chariot to the earth and her environment.
Agni, as bountiful master-power of home life, you are the leader of yajna according to the seasons. Carry on the yajna of the divine powers for the yajamana dedicated to holy development of power and energy in honour of the Divine.

1. tvāṃ vahantu harayo vaham somapātaye. Indra tvāṃ suracakṣasaṁ.

Indra, light and power blazing as the sun, may the rays of light, brightest and fastest waves of energy, transmit your power, generous harbinger of light and rain, to the earth for a drink of soma as well as the protection of the joyous gifts of life. May the specialist scholars of light and solar energy develop the light and energy for the protection and prosperity of humanity and the environment.

2. dhāṛṇi ghṛtasnuvo harī ihopā vakṣataṁ. Indraṁ sukhatame rathe.

These rays of light, laden with waters and fertility, day and night, in the dark and bright fortnight of the moon, and in the equinoctial and solstitial courses of the sun, bring Indra, solar energy, in the most comfortable chariot to the earth and her environment.

3. prātarhavāmaha indram prayatyadhvare. Indram somasya pītaye.

Every morning, in every yajnic programme of body, mind and soul, we invoke, awake and develop Indra, lord omnipotent of light and honour, Indra, solar and electric energy, and Indra, energy of wind and prana for the protection, promotion and enjoyment of soma, spiritual bliss, pleasure and joy, and power and prosperity.

4. dhūṃ gahi haribhirindra keśibhiḥ. Sute hi tvāḥ havāmahe.

Indra, lord of light and honour, universal energy, come to our yajna with the sun, wind and electricity, with the rays of light and currents of energy. In all our yajnic programmes we feel the joy of your presence and offer worship, pray awake and promote your power and purpose on earth.

5. stomam gahyupedam savanaṁ sutam. Gauro na tṛśitaḥ pība.

May Indra, rays of the sun and currents of energy, come to this celebration and yajna of ours and drink of the sweets of this creative programme of ours as a thirsty golden stag drinks of the water of a stream.
3. Ime somāsa indavaḥ sutāso adhi barhiṣi.

   Indra, lord of sun and wind, these streams of soma are distilled on the holy seats of grass around the vedi, and their sweets and fragrance rise into the skies. These, O Lord, protect, promote and accept for the sake of strength and courage of constancy for the devotees.

7. Ayāṁ te stomo agriyo hṛdisprgastu śantamaḥ.

   Indra, this song of celebration and yajna in your honour, first and foremost programme of creativity, may be, we pray, a pleasure to the heart and a source of peace and solace. And now, therefore, protect and promote the soma distilled, and drink of it freely with the gift of grace.

8. Viśvamitsavanāṁ sutamindro madāya gacchati.

   Indra, lord of creative energy that breaks up the clouds of darkness and releases the locked up rain for growth, moves to the universal yajna of evolution for the pleasure of created humanity, and for the protection, promotion and enjoyment of the beauties of His own creation.

Indra, Lord of infinite acts of creative yajna and joyous fulfilment, fulfil our noble desires and ambitions with cows and horses, health of mind and senses and the fastest modes of motion and attainment. Pious, thoughtful and meditative, we worship you alone.

Mandala 1/Sukta 17

Indra, Varuna Devata, Kanva Medhatithi Rshi

1. Indrāvaruṇayorahāṁ samrājorava ā vrṇe. Tā no mṛḷāta īḍrśe.

I pray for the gifts and protection of the glorious and brilliant Indra and Varuna, sun and moon. May they be good and gracious to bless us with a similar state of brilliance in our life.

2. Gantārā hi stho’vase havāṁ viprasya māvataḥ. Dhartārā carṣaṇīnāṁ.

I pray to Indra and Varuna, lords of fire and water, both sustainers of mankind, to listen to the prayer of devotees like me, come to our yajnic projects of life and abide by us for our protection and progress.

3. Anukāmaṁ tarpayethāmindrāvaruṇa rāya ā.
   Tā vāṁ nediṣṭhamīmahe.

   Both Indra and Varuna, we pray, stay closest with us and bless us with the wealth of life according to our desire, intention and performance.

4. Yuvāku hi śacīnaṁ yuvāku sumatīnāṁ.
   Bhūyāmā vājadāvāṁ.

   And it is our prayer and earnest desire that we be ever close and abide by the words of the sages, advice of the wise and gifts of the generous.

5. Indraḥ sahasradāvāṁ varuṇāḥ śaṁsyānām.
   Kraturbhavatyukthyaḥ.

   Indra (fire, sun and electric energy) is one of the givers of a thousand gifts. Varuna (water, air and moon) is one of the adorable celebrities. May our yajnic projects of science and technology be successful and worthy of praise.
6. Tayoridavasā vayaṁ sanema ni ca dhīmahi.

By the gifts and protection of these two, Indra and Varuna, may we succeed and prosper with treasures of wealth and fulfilment, and may we ever enjoy an economy of abundance and excellence.

7. Indrāvaruṇa vāmahaṁ huve citrāya rādhase.

We invoke and adore Indra and Varuna, and we enact yajnic projects to develop solar, fire, air and water energy for the realisation of various and wondrous attainments of progress. May the two divinities grant us success in our desire and ambition for victory.

8. Indrāvaruṇa nū nu vāṁ sīṣāsanīṣu dhīṣvā.

May Indra and Varuna, we pray, establish us in the state of noble mind and action and bless us with peace, comfort and security.

9. Pra vāmaśnotu suṣṭutirindrāvaruṇa yāṁ huve.

Indra and Varuna, self-refulgent in the sun and moon, and lords of nature and energy, may the holy song of praise which I sing, and the joint yajna of science and technology you both advance and bless, may that song and yajna come out successful and reach you as a mark of thanks and hope for grace.

Mandala 1/Sukta 18

_Brahmanaspati, Brahmanaspati-Indra-Soma, Brhaspati-Dakshina, Sadasaspati, Sadasaspati-Narashansa Devatah, Kanva Medhatithi Rshi_

1. _Somānaṁ svaraṇanāṁ krñuhi brahmaṣpate. Kakṣīvantam ya auśijaḥ._

   Brahmanaspati, brilliant lord of Vedic knowledge, zealous for learning I am, born of learned parents, kindly take me up as a disciple, train me as an expert of soma-yajna, a scholar of language and communication with a vision of the Word and meaning, and as an artist and craftsman of eminence.

2. _Yo revān yo amīvahā vasuvit puṣṭivardhanaḥ. Sa naḥ siṣaktu yasturaḥ._

   The Lord Supreme that is lord of universal wealth and knowledge, destroyer of evil and disease, absolute master of the Vasus, prime cause of creation and evolution, power of instant action and beneficence, may He, we pray, bless us with the knowledge and wealth of the world.

Lord omniscient of the universe, may our honour and fame never die. Save us from the miser and the graceless man. Let there be no wickedness in or around us, no violence anywhere.

4. Sa ghā vīro na riṣyati yamindro brahmaṇaṇaspatiḥ. Somo hinoti martyam.

Surely that brave man never suffers any hurt or injury whom Indra, lord giver of honour, Brahmanaspati, lord omniscient of the universe, and Soma, lord of peace, beauty and joy initiate and call on the way to action and honour.

5. Tvaṁ taṁ brahmaṇaṇaspate soma indraśca martyam. Dakṣiṇā pātvamhasaḥ.

Brahmanaspati, lord omniscient of the universe, you, Soma, lord of herbs and health, Indra, lord of wind and energy, and Dakshina, yajnic generosity, save and protect that heroic man from sin who is on way to action and piety on call of the divine.

May I realise, I pray, and attain to the direct presence of the Lord of the Universe, wondrous darling love of the soul, with gifts of the divine and discriminative vision of meditative intelligence.

7. Yasmādrte na sidhyati yajño vipaścitaścana. Sa dhīnāṁ yogaminvati.

The Lord omniscient and omnipresent is the One without whom no yajna, not even the yajna of creation, can be accomplished, and He manifests His presence directly in the meditative intelligence of the dedicated soul.

Sadasaspati, lord of the universe, then, accelerates the offer of holy materials of nature into the creative process and expands the holy yajna further with self-generative libations till it reaches the noble humanity and the divine presence emerges in the meditative intelligence.

I see like the light of the sun the holy presence of Divinity, adored of humanity, most resolute wielder of the universe, of infinite expanse and prime yajamana as well as the home of the yajna of creation.

Mandala 1/Sukta 19

Agni Marutah Devatah, Kanva Medhatithi Rshi

1. Prati tyam cārumadhvaram gopīthāya pra hūyase. Marudbhiragna ā gahi.

Agni, fire energy of nature, come with the winds, you are invoked and kindled for the preservation and promotion of the beautiful holy yajna (of the earth for her children).

Lord self-refulgent and omniscient, come with pranic energy and manifest into the meditative intelligence. Neither human nor divine can comprehend your refulgence and glory or your action which is supreme.
3. Ye maho rajaso vidurviśve devāso adruhaḥ.

Those who are visionaries of the world inspired by Agni and free from jealousy and malignity, only they know the great worlds of the Lord’s creation. Agni, light of Divinity, come with the vibrations of pranic energy in meditation.

4. Ya ugrā arkamānṛcuranādhṛṣṭāsa ojasā.

Light and fire, Agni, come with the winds and waves of energy, Maruts which are awful and undaunted, and which blaze and light up the sun with splendour.

5. Ye śubhrā ghoravarpasaḥ sukṣatrāso riśādasah.
Marudbhiragna ā gahi.

Those are the winds blessed and beautiful, awful and catalytic, dominating rulers of nature’s metabolism, destroyers of evil and disease. Agni, come with the winds.

6. Ye nākasyādhi rocane divi devāsa āsate.
The brilliant powers are Maruts which abide and preside over the regions of bliss in the light of the solar region, and which hold, sustain and light the earth, moon and others. Agni, come with those divine Maruts of light and power. Agni, come and bless.

The winds which scatter the clouds and shatter the mountains, agitate the seas and shake the oceans of space, with those winds, Agni, come to us and bless.

The winds which, with their power, churn the seas, and with their waves of splendour light the sun and expand the space, with those winds, Agni, come and bless.

I create and concentrate from all sides the honey sweets of life with yajna for you as your first and only drink of ecstasy. Come, Agni, with all the power and splendour of the winds and bless us one and all.
Mandala 1/Sukta 20

Rbhavah Devatah, Kanva Medhatithi Rshi

अर्यं दुर्वाय जन्मनं स्ताम्या विष्णुभिरास्या। अकार्षि रग्धार्तमः ॥ १ ॥

1. Ayairy devāya janmane stomo viprebrhīrāsayā.
Akārī ratnadātamaḥ.

This song of celebrity full of divine treasure of joy sung by sagely poets in their own voice leads to a new birth full of divine happiness.

शर्मीभिभीयज्ञमाशत ॥ २ ॥

2. Ya indrāya vacoyujā tatakṣurmanasā harī.
Śamībhiryajñamāśata.

Those sagely scholars who study and analyse the subtleties of motion and gravitation with their mind and speech, and with scientific apparatuses actualise the power for use, in fact, extend the creative yajna for God and humanity toward its fulfilment.

त १ गार्त्याथ्वां परिज्ञानं सुखं रथं!
त तन्धनुं संबद्धां ॥ ३ ॥

3. Takṣannāsatyābhyāṁ parijmānam sukham ratham. Takṣandhenum sabardughāṁ.

Those scholars and scientists who create a comfortable chariot of universal motion with fire and water power create a language of immense possibilities of knowledge, indeed a mother cow for universal prosperity.
4. Yuvānā pitarā punah satyamantrā rjūyavah.

Sagely scholars, simple men of rectitude dedicated to the secrets of nature and service of humanity, searching, researching, joining, disjoining again and again in experiments ultimately achieve speed and success.

5. Saṁ vo madāso agmatendreṇa ca marutvatā.

Ye sagely scholars of science and divinity, dedicated and rejoicing together, march on with the winds, with the speed of lightning, and with the power and splendour of sun-beams.

When the scholars see a new work of discovery or invention created by Tvashta, a brilliant sophisticated creator of new forms, they advance the work further to fourfold dimensions with the energy of earth, water, fire and wind.

May the sagely scholars create and provide gems of wealth for us. Indeed they create the means of seven kinds of joyful service for us, each with care and laudable work, three ways in thought, word and deed, that is, three kinds of yajnic activity of reverence to the seniors, social cooperation and charity to be performed by all the four classes of society at each one of the four stages of life.

8. Adhārayanta vahnoyo’bhajanta sukṛtyayā.
   Bhāgam deveṣu yajñiyam.

Brilliant and generous people, who bear the burdens of humanity, who undertake and carry out their part of yajnic duty with honesty and expertise enjoy their share of happiness and rejoice among the divinities.

Mandala 1/Sukta 21

Indragni Devate, Kanva Medhatithi Rshi

1. Ihendrāgni upa hvaye tayoritstomamuśmasi.
   Tā somam somapātamā.

I invoke Indra and Agni, air and fire. We love to study and appraise their properties. They are the most joyous protectors and promoters of soma, peace, pleasure and prosperity of life.
2. \( Tā \) yajñaśu praśastayā indrāgni śumbhatā naraḥ.
\( Tā \) gāyatreṣu gāyata.

All ye men and women, sing and celebrate the qualities of fire and air in yajna, develop and illuminate them in use, and glorify them in Gayatri music of the Veda.

3. \( Tā \) mitrasya praśastaya indrāgni tā havāmahe.
Somapā somapītaye.

We invoke and honour Indra and Agni, air and fire energy, in the yajnic projects of humanity for the delight and comfort of noble friends and for the protection and promotion of the wealth and joy of the world. Indeed, they are the protectors and promoters of soma, pleasure, peace and prosperity for all.

4. \( Ugrā \) santā havāmaha upedaṁ savanaṁ sutam.
\( Indrāgni \) eha gacchatām.

We invoke and honour Indra and Agni, powers of air and fire, both powerful and brilliant, to come and join this yajnic project of ours for the creation of wealth and joy. May they come here, promote the yajna and bless us.
5. Tā mahāntā sadaspāṭī indrāgniṇī rakṣa ubjatam. Aprajāh santvatriṇah.

Indra and Agni, air and fire, both are great, both protect and illuminate halls and assemblies and destroy sin and evil and the wicked people. Enemies do not last till the next generation if they be friends.

6. Tena satyena jāgrtamadhi pracetune pade. Indrāgniṇī śarma yacchatam.

Indra and Agni, pranic energy and vital heat energy, are ever awake in their state of real and constant qualities with their blissful and beatific virtues. May these two provide us with peace and comfort in a safe and happy home.

Mandala 1/Sukta 22

Ashvinau (1-4), Savītā (5-8), Agni (9-10), Devyah (11), Indrani-Varunani-Agnayya (12), Dyava Prthivi (13-14), Prthivi (15), Vishnu or Devah (16), Vishnu (17-21), Devatah, Kanva Medhatithi Rshi

7. Prātaryujā vi bodhayāśvināveha gacchatām. Asya somasya pītaye.

Ashvins, twin masters of the science of motion, come early morning to this yajna of ours and enlighten us (on knowledge and application, fire and earth, power and gravitation, and acceleration and retardation). Come for the enjoyment, protection and promotion of our yajnic creations.

Ya surathā rathītamobhā devā divisprśā.
Aśvinī tā havāmahe.

We invoke the Ashvins, divine master makers of the chariot, most powerful energies of motion, water and fire, fire and earth, who can touch the skies.

3.
Ya vāṁ kaśā madhumatyāśvinā sūnṛtavatī.
Tayā yajñāṁ mimikṣatam.

Ashvins, masters of the science of motion, with your words of knowledge, power, energy and velocity in nature, so sweet and so true, come and accomplish our yajna of creation and technology.

Nahi vāmasti dūrake yatrā rathnā gacchathāḥ.
Aśvinā somino grham.

Ashvins, masters of the celestial chariot, wherever you reach by the chariot, even farthest to the house of the lord of soma wealth, nothing is too far for you.
5. *Hiranya*pañimµutaye *savita*ramupa hvaye.
Sa cetta devata padam.

For protection, love and progress, we invoke the golden-handed Savita, creator, energiser, omniscient giver of knowledge and awareness, light of the universe and the supreme destination.

*Tasya vrataniyu*smasi.

For the sake of protection, knowledge and progress, invoke and worship Savita, creator of the universe, imperishable lord pervasive of spaces and the waters of life, since we all abide by the laws ordained by Him.

7. *Vibhakta*rami havamahi vasościtrasya rādhasah.
Savitarami nṛcakṣasam.

We invoke and worship Savita, creator and sustainer of the universe, giver of the wonderful wealth of the world, and dispenser of the fruits of human action and endeavour and to all. He watches from within and without. All, everything, He watches.

Friends, come and sit together, Savita alone is our lord for worship and adoration. Universal giver, He beautifies and beatifies His gifts of wealth and light.

Agni, lord of light and life and evolution, bring home to us here those generous energies of heat and light which warmly and profusely feed and promote the life and joy of the earth and other sustaining powers of nature, and bring Tvashta, that divine artificer, who creates beautiful new forms of existence and promotes life.

10. Ā gnā agna ihāvase hotrāṁ yaviṣṭha bhāratīm. Varūtrīṁ dhiṣaṇāṁ vaha.

Agni, lord of light, life and learning, youngest and most brilliant creative power, bring home to us here the beauties of the earth, fragrance of oblations, life-giving sunlight and language of learning, soothing nights and days, and the fiery speech of heaven and earth for our protection and progress.
12. Abhi no devīravasā mahaḥ śarmanā nṛpatnīḥ.

   May noble and generous women of brilliance, supporters and sustainers of their men, bless us with great and comfortable happy homes and the wealth of security, peace and progress.

   I invoke Indrani, light of the sun, Varunani, coolness of water and soothing softness of air, and Agnayi, heat of fire and warmth to bless our homes and women with peace and progress, protection and prosperity for the sake of happiness and well-being.

   Pipṛtāṁ no bharīmabhiḥ.

   May the high heavens with their light and energy, and the dark green earths with their sustenance and gravitation feed and accomplish this holy scientific yajna of ours and, with their support and nourishment, bless us with fulfilment.

14. Tayoridghṛṣṭavatpayo viprā rihanti dhūtibhiḥ.
By the force of attraction and repulsion of those two, sun and earth, do eminent men of knowledge receive liquid life on earth and move around in the steady space of the universal hold of the sustainer of the stars.

स्योनापृथिविभवानुरानितिवर्जनि। यच्चनाःशामसूपथः॥१५॥

15. Syonā pṛthivi bhavānṛkṣarā niveṣanī.
Yacchā naḥ śarma saprathaḥ.

Dear green earth, beautiful, free from thorns of sufferance, wide expansive happy haven for all, give us a happy home of pleasure and delight.

अतांद्वा अवन्तू ना यता विष्णुविचक्कम।
पृथिविया: सम स्थामभि:॥१६॥

16. Ato devā avantu no yato viṣṇurvicakrame.
Pṛthivyāḥ sapta dhamabhiḥ.

May the scholars of light and vision favour and protect us with knowledge of the seven stages of creation from earth to Prakṛti through which Vishnu, lord omnipresent, created the universe (of five elements, Virat and Prakriti).

इदंविष्णुविचक्कमनंदधानंतद्धपुदम।
समृहहमस्यपांसुर॥१७॥

17. Idam viṣṇurvi cakrame tredhā ni dadhe padam.
Samūḥhamasya pāmsure.

Vishnu created this threefold universe of matter, motion and mind in three steps of evolution through Prakṛti, subtle elements and gross elements, shaped the atoms into form and fixed the form in eternal space and time.

\[ \text{Ato dharmāṇi dhārayan.} \]

Vishnu, universal sustainer and unchallengeable protector, fixed the order of the threefold universe of forms, comprehensible, apprehensible and spiritually attainable, and hence the forms abide in and observe the laws of their existence and function.

\[ \text{Indrasya yujaḥ sakḥā.} \]

Watch the creation and actions of Vishnu. Thence the souls know and observe the law and discipline of their existence. Vishnu is the friend and constant companion of the soul.

\[ \text{Divīva cakṣurātītāt.} \]

Heroic souls of vision realise the supreme presence of Vishnu in their soul as they see the light of the sun in heaven.
Atoms into form and fixed the form in eternal space and time.

18. Trāti padāvi ca kramāv urgo adhyābhyañ.
Ato dharmātī dhrayan.

Vishnu, universal sustainer and unchallengeable protector, fixed the order of the threefold universe of forms, comprehensible, apprehensible and spiritually attainable, and hence the forms abide in and observe the laws of their existence and function.

19. Viśvokarmātī paśyantī yato vratāni paspaśe.
Indrasya yujyāt sakhañ.

Watch the creation and actions of Vishnu. Thence the souls know and observe the law and discipline of their existence. Vishnu is the friend and constant companion of the soul.

20. Tadvaś∥ paramā padaś∥ sadā paśyantī suryaāś∥. Divāv ca kā∥ur∥tatam.

Heroic souls of vision realise the supreme presence of Vishnu in their soul as they see the light of the sun in heaven.

21. Tadviprā∥so vipanyavo jāgrvāṁsaḥ samindhate.
Viṣṇoryat paramāṁ padam.

Visionary souls, celebrants of Vishnu, ever awake, invoke, kindle and light up the spirit within and realise that supreme light of Divinity in the soul.

Mandala 1/Sukta 23

Vayu, Indra-Vayu, Mitra-Varunau, Indra-Marutvan Vishvedeva, Pusha, Apah, Agni Devatah, Kanva Medhatithi Rshi

1. Tivrāḥ somāsa ā gahyāśīrvantaḥ sutā ṛṇam∥
Vāyaḥ tān prasthitāṁ piba.

Sharp and lovely tonics are these somas, distilled essences of herbs. Vayu, vitality of the winds, take them on as they flow and energise them as food for the mind and soul.

2. Udbhā devā divisprśendravāyū havāmahe.
Asya somasya pītaye.

We invoke Indra and Vayu, divine powers of fire and wind which touch the skies, for the protection and promotion of soma, the beauty and joy of life in the world, which we have been able to create.
3. Indravāyu manojuvā viprā havanta ītaye. Sahasrākṣā dhiyaspatī.

For the protection and progress of the world in a state of peace and happiness, scholars of vision and piety invoke Indra and Vayu, divine energies of wind and electricity, which move at the speed of the mind, and which are givers of a thousand powers of sensitivity and promoters of human intelligence and its creations.

For the creation, preservation and promotion of soma, peace and joy of life, we invoke Mitra and Varuna, life energies of prana and udana in systemic circulation, which are purifying, vitalising and enlightening for the body, mind and soul.

5. Ṛtena yāvṛtāvṛdhāvṛtasya jyotiṣaṁpatī. Tā mitrāvaruṇā huve.

For our enlightenment and spiritual advancement, we invoke Mitra and Varuna, light of the sun and motive energy of the wind, both guardians of the light of truth and natural laws of Divinity, which, by that very light of truth, extend the operation of that law in the Lord’s creation upto the mind and soul of humanity.
Varuṇaḥ prāvitā bhuvan mitro viśvābhirūtibhiḥ. Karatāṁ naḥ surādhasaḥ.

Varuna is breath of air, and Mitra, light of the sun, with energies and all the vitalities and immunities of human life and prosperity. May they both help us rise to the noblest wealth of body, mind and soul.

Marutvantaṁ havāmaha indramā somapītaye. Sajūrgaṇena tṛṃpatu.

We invoke Indra, electric energy of nature which carries the energy of the Maruts, tempestuous winds of higher skies. May the electric energy, omnipresent in nature and co-operative with the winds, bless us with comfort and happiness in life.

Indrajyeṣṭhā marudgaṇā devāsah pūṣarātayaḥ. Viśve mama śrutā havam.

May all the divine powers of nature, of which the sun is the chief, especially the winds blissfully working in unison with sun-rays, listen to our invocation and bless us with power and prosperity.

Working with tremendous force in unison with the sun, the winds break up the clouds and bless us with rain.

Indra, Lord of universal power and honour, we pray, let no man of evil mind and dishonour exploit their power and rule over us.

We invoke all the divinities of nature and humanity, and we invoke the Maruts, fierce children of mother skies, all for a drink of soma — to celebrate our creation of power by yajna and join our prayer for protection by Grace.

Whatever good a person achieves in life is achieved by courage and daring such as the force of winds, or the thunder of lightning or the power of a king’s victorious army.

12. Haskārādvidyutāsparya’to jētāvantu naṁ. Maruto mṛtyayantu naṁ.

May the lights born of flashes of lightning spare and protect and help us advance. May the Maruts give us peace and comfort.
12. Haskārād vidyutasparyā’to jātā avantu naḥ.

May the lights born of flashes of lightning spare and protect and help us advance. May the Maruts give us peace and comfort.

13. Ā pūṣāṅ citrabarhiṣamāgṛhṛṇe dharuṇaṁ divaḥ.

Just as a shepherd shows a once lost but later found animal, so the sun, lord of brilliant rays and supporter of life with nourishment, lights up and reveals the wondrous skies and spaces and lights up and moves around the stars and planets such as the earth.

Pusha, lord creator and supporter of life, and lord of light of the universe creates, manifests and illuminates the wondrous universe of light and beauty which was hidden deep but safe and secure in the cave of the night of annihilation.

(The mantra also applies to the creation of the earth and other planets of the solar system, in continuation of mantra 13 above. It also applies to the revelation of the light of the soul hidden in the cave of the heart.)
15. Uto sa mahyamindubhiḥ śaḍyuktāṁ anuseṣi-dhat. Gobhiryavāṁ na carkṛṣat.

And then, just as a farmer tills the land and produces food, so does He, Lord Creator, again create for me — humanity — the earth with sweets of green and the cycle of six seasons, cows and barley food.

May the motherly waters, protectors of humanity, flow by the same paths, the flow mixing with honey-sweets of the earth, performing part of the creative yajna for us.

17. Amūryā upa sūrye yāḥhirvā sūryaḥ saha. Tā no hinavantvadhvaram.

And those distant waters which are close to the sun, or which are in the sun itself, or with which the sun nourishes life, may all those come, accomplish and advance our yajna.
18. Apo devīrupa hvaye yatra gāvahi pibanti naḥ.

   I invoke the celestial waters whereby the rays of the sun suck up the vapours in order to create holy materials for our yajna.

   अप्सु मु सामा अबवीदन्त विश्वानिनि भूषजसः
   अग्रिं च विश्ववंशभुवमापरश्च विश्वभूषजीः

   There is nectar in the waters. There is health and medicinal efficacy in the waters. General scholars of eminence, rise and act fast for special studies and appraisal of waters.

   अप्सु मृ सामा अववीदन्त विश्वानिनि भूषजसः
   अग्रिं च विश्ववंशभुवमापरश्च विश्वभूषजीः

   Soma, the moon and the herbs, creates and shows there is universal medicine in the waters for me. And the waters, universal medicine, create the vital heat of life which is the universal sustainer of us all.

   आप्सु मृ सामा अववीदन्त विश्वानिनि भूषजसः
   अग्रिं च विश्ववंशभुवमापरश्च विश्वभूषजीः

   Waters create the best medicine for my body for a long life time for me to have a sight of the sun, universal light, everyday.

=idamæpaḥ pra vahata yatkiṃ ca duritaṃ mayi. Yadvāhamabhidudroha yadvā ṣepa utānṛtam.

May these holy waters wash off and carry away whatever evil there be in me, whatever I hate, or whatever I curse, or whatever false there be in me.

Let us to-day taste of the holy waters mixed with vital juices. And whatever I have drunk, whatever I have performed in action as my Karma, Agni, come to me and recreate me with the power and splendour I deserve accordingly.

Agni, Lord omniscient and omnipotent, recreate me with power and splendour, with family, with good health and age. May the divinities know me as I am. May Indra, lord of splendour and honour, know me, along with all the seers of the universal eye. They know.

Prajapati, Agni, Savita or Bhaga, Varuna Devatah, Ajigarti Shunahshepa Krtrima Vaishvamitra
Devarata Rshi

कस्य नूनं कंतप्रयामृतां न्यनःमहुः चारू दुवस्य नाम।

1. Kasya nunaṁ katamasyāmṛtāṁ manāmahe cāru devasya nāma. Ko no mahyā aditaye punar-dāt pitaram ca dṛśeyam mātaraṁ ca.

Who, which one, is that supreme lord of the many immortals whose auspicious name we adore and worship? Who is that for sure who sends us back to the great earth so that we may again behold and be with our father and mother?

अग्निवयां पर्थमस्यामृतां न्यनःमहुः चारू दुवस्य नाम।

2. Agnervayam prathamasyāmṛtāṁ manāmahe cāru devasya nāma. Sa no mahyā aditaye punar-dāt pitaram ca dṛśeyam mātaraṁ ca.

We adore and worship the auspicious name of Agni, lord of light and life, first of the immortals and the highest. He it is who sends us back to this great world of Prakṛti so that we may behold and be with our father and mother again.

अभि त्वा देव सवितरीशां वायमां॥
सदावनभुगमिमह॥ ३ ॥

3. Abhi tvā deva savitarīśānam vāryāṇām.
Sadāvanbhāgamīmahe.
Of all the immortals, we worship you alone, Savita, glorious lord of light and life, ruler of the regions and favourite things of our choice, eternal protector and adorable dispenser of universal justice.

4. Yaściddhi ta itthā bhagāḥ śaśamānāḥ purā nidaḥ.
   Adveṣo hastayordadhe.

Whatever your gifts of dispensation thus, whether admirable wealth as a result of former adoration and worship, or otherwise as a result of blame and censure, I deliver into your hands without hate or anger.

5. Bhagabhaktasya te vayamudaśema tavāvasā.

Lord of glory, we pray, let us receive our share of divine dispensation with your protection and grace in order to rise to the top in wealth and reach the glory of your presence.

All those that move in space comprehend not your order and dominion, nor violate your power or force or constancy. Nor do these waters and currents of universal energy ever on the move surpass your presence. Nor even the velocities of the wind can ever violate the immensity of your power which is eternal and immortal.

Abudhne rājā varuṇo vanasyordhvaṁ stūpaṁ ādāte pūtadakṣaḥ. Nicināḥ sthurupari budhna eṣāmasme antarnihitāḥ ketavāḥ syuḥ.

The ruling lord Varuna, the brilliant sun, pure and generous, radiates a flood of light in the bottomless astral sphere over the atmosphere, flowing down, the rays of light stop over the atmosphere and filter down to the clouds and impregnate them over the earth. May the rays of the sun, the clouds and the vapours absorbed in the clouds be for our good.

Varuna, ruling lord of the universe, carved out a wide path for the sun to move and thus created an orbit-path in the pathless space for His deputy wielder and sustainer of the sub-system, meticulously averting, as if, a pinhole in the heart of the cosmic system, like a surgeon.

Glorious ruler, hundred are your healing balms and medicaments, thousands your wide earths, and deep is your noble intelligence. Drive off adversity far away. And whatever sin is committed by the wicked, keep away, and liberate us.

Those constellations of stars such as the Great Bear set in motion high and far, which are seen at night — where do they go in the day?

Fixed, inviolable are the laws and rules of Varuna, rules of the stars. So the moon shines at night and moves on in its orbit.
11. \( \text{Tattvāyāmi brahmaṇā vandamānastadāśāaste yajamāno havirbhīh. Aheḻmāno varuṇeha bodhyuruśamsa mā na āyuḥ pra moṣīḥ.} \)

Varuna, lord ruler of the stars, praised and celebrated by many, I come to you singing in worship the hymns of divinity, offering holy fragrances in yajna with faith and reverence. Lord kind and gracious, give us the light of life here itself. Let not our life waste away.

12. \( \text{Tadinaktamā taddivā mahyamāhustadayamāṃ keto hṛda ā vi caṣṭe. Śunahśepo yamahvadgrbhī-ṭaḥ so asmān rājā varuṇo mumoktu.} \)

Of that the wise men nightly speak to me. Day in and day out they sing of that for me. And the same presence this voice of the heart reveals to me. The sagely scholar, inspired and possessed, proclaims His honour and dominion. May the same ruling lord of glory, Varuna, deliver us from sin and slavery unto light and freedom.

13. \( \text{Śunahśepo hyahvadgrbhītastrisvādityaṃ drupa-deśu baddhaḥ. Avaināṁ rājā varuṇaḥ sasṛjyā-dvidvāṅ adabdho vi mumoktu pāśān.} \)

bound within the yajnic pillars of knowledge, action and meditation, should invoke and develop Aditya, power of sun and wind. May Varuna, lord omniscient ruler of the world, shape him (as a maker and saviour of humanity). May He, inviolable lord omnipotent, deliver us from bonds of sin, ignorance and poverty.

Varuna, self-refulgent lord of omniscience, giver of knowledge, life of our breath, we pray for the gift of your light and favour with acts of homage, yajnas and holy offerings. Reducing and destroying our sins as you are, we pray, be kind and gracious to loosen the bonds of our actions performed.

Varuna, dearest lord of our choice, we pray, loosen the highest, middling and the lowest bonds of our sin and slavery so that, O Lord Supreme of light, free from sin and slavery and living within the rules of your law, we may be fit for the attainment of the ultimate freedom of Moksha.
Mandala 1/Sukta 25

Varuna Devata, Ajīgarti Shunahshepa Krtrima
Vaishvamitra Devarata Rshi

यच्चिन्द्रि तु विश्वा यथा प दंव वरुण चतम । मिनीमस्त्य प्रविन्द्रव्यः ॥ १ ॥

1. Yacciddhi te viśo yathā pra deva varuṇa vratam. Mūnīmasi dyavidyavi.

Varuna, brilliant and generous lord of creation, since after all we are your children, and we do (out of ignorance) violate your rules of discipline and conduct day by day, we pray for your compassion as our father.

मा नां वधायं हल्लवं जिहीलणस्यं रीरधः ।
मा ह्रणाणस्य मन्यवः ॥ २ ॥

Lord of compassion, let us not feel excited to take up a deadly weapon against the person who offends us and excites our passion for revenge, and save us from the wrath against the person who feels ashamed of his action against us.

वि मृढीकार्यं तु मनो रथीरश्वं न सन्धितम ।
गीभिभरूणं सीमहि ॥ ३ ॥

Like a driver who has yoked the horse to his chariot, we control and concentrate our mind on you with thought and prayers for the gift of your compassion.
and grace.

4. Parā hi me vimanyavalḥ patanti vasya-iṣṭaye.

For the sake of my domestic good and well-being, I pray, may those who are ill-disposed and impassioned against me go off far away just as birds leave their nests and fly away.

Kadā kṣatraśriyam naramā varuṇamā karāmahe. Mṛlikāyorucakṣasam.

How shall we adore and pray to Varuna, lord of universal eye and guide of humanity, for His favour and grace, and when shall we realise the beauty and prosperity of the social order.

6. Taditsamānāmāśāte venantā na pra yucchataḥ.

Both Mitra and Varuna yearning with love for the man of the vows of Dharma and yajnic generosity forsake him not, they abide by him constantly and bless him with fulfilment.
7. Vedā yo vīnāṁ padamantarikṣeṇa patatām.
   Veda nāvaḥ samudriyaḥ.

   The specialist of the sea and the sky is the man who knows the science and paths of the birds and planes flying across the skies, and he knows the science and routes of the ships sailing across the seas.

   वर्ध मासा धृतवर्ता द्वारेश्न प्रजावते: ।
   वद्वृ यो उपजायते ॥ ८ ॥

8. Veda māso dhṛtavrato dvādaśa praṇāvataḥ.
   Vedā ya upajāyate.

   The man of the discipline of science and Dharma who knows the twelve months of the year and the thirteenth which is supplementary every third year, and also knows how they raise the produce of the earth like a father, is the specialist of time, seasons, fertility and production.

   वद्वृ वार्तस्य वत्तिनिमुरार्ध्वस्य बुहूत: ।
   वद्वृ यो अध्यायते ॥ ९ ॥

   Vedā ye adhyāsate.

   One who knows the course of the winds, vast, abundant and stormy, and knows those that are sustained by it, and also knows those that control it, is a specialist of the earth and the skies.

   नि षसादा धृतवर्ता वर्धन: प्रस्त्याःस्वा । सामाय्याय सुकर्तृ: ॥ १० ॥

    Sāmrājyāya sukratuḥ.
Varuna, man of brilliance and leadership, dedicated to holy vows, yajna and Dharma, hero of noble watchful action, would sit among the people with power and grace and rise to the heights of governance and world order.

And hence wide awake and all aware, he watches and oversees all the wonderful things which have been done and which have yet to be done.

And may He, Aditya, imperishable lord of light and omniscience, sun and life’s energy, lord of noble and watchful action, keep us on the right path all days and nights and thus bless us across a full life of total fulfilment.

Varuna, self-refulgent lord of the universe, wearing a golden mantle (as the sun) shines pure and shines all (covering them with the golden light of His purity). All the tangible objects of the world abide in Him.

Na yāṁ dhipsanti dipsavo na druḥvāṇoṇa javānām. Na devamabhimātayaḥ.

The enemies of humanity dare challenge Him not, the jealous affect Him not, the proud can touch Him not, Lord of light and universe since He is.

Uta yo mānuṣeṣvā yaśaścakre asāmyā. Aṃśakamudaresvā.

It is He who bestows perfect honour on humanity and creates food and water for us. It is He who shines in glory over humanity and others in and out everywhere.

Parā me yantī dhītayo gāvo na vagyūṭīraṇu. Icchantīrurucakṣasam.

As cows run to their stall yearning for home, so do my thoughts rise and travel far and high yearning for Varuna, Lord Supreme of universal vision, watching over all, and my haven and home.

Sā na vaṁchaavhyāntaḥ ma madvabhūtām. Hātaṁ gādeśaśiḥ.

Let us speak together again and again since you give me dear sweet food for knowledge collected from versatile sources just as a priest gives honey-sweets to the yajamana for dispelling his ignorance with knowledge.

For a vision of the Lord omniscient of the universal eye who is also an object of world vision, and for a model of the chariot over earth, air and sea, listen carefully to these words of mine in a mood of patience and forbearance.

18. Darśaṁ nu viśvadārśataṁ darśaṁ rathamadhi kṣami. Eta juṣata me giraḥ.

19. Imaṁ me varuṇa śrudhī havamadyā ca mṛlaya. Tvāmavasyurā cake.

Varuna, Lord Supreme of our highest choice, listen to my prayer to-day, be kind and gracious. In search of love and protection, I come and praise and pray.

Varuna, Lord of cosmic intelligence, light of the universe who illuminate the heaven and earth over time, we pray, listen to our prayer and respond.

अवीण्धामानि जीवस्य ॥ २१ ॥

Varuna, Lord of Law and Light, snap our highest bonds of the mind and loosen the middle bond of the senses and the lowest bond of the body for real life of spiritual fulfilment.

Mandala 1/Sukta 26

*Agni Devata, Ajigarati Shunahshepa Krtrima
Vaishvamitra Devarata Rshi*

वसिष्य्या हि मियेध्या वस्त्राण्यूर्जां पत । समं ना अध्वरं यज ॥ १ ॥

1. *Vasiṣvā hi miyedhya vastrāṇyūṛjāṁ pate.
Semāṁ no adhvaram yaja.*

High-priest of yajna, yajamana, disseminator of yajna fragrances into the skies, preserver of energy, put on the holy clothes and perform this sacred non-violent yajna for us.

नि ना हाता वरण्यां: सदा यविष मन्मभिः ।
अग्रं दिवित्तमता वर्चं ॥ २ ॥

2. *Ni no hotā vareṇyāḥ sadā yaviṣṭha manmabhīḥ.
Agni divitmatā vacaḥ.*

Agni, ever most youthful power of yajna, may the chosen high-priest with noble thoughts and hymns always help us realise the words of our prayer with your gifts of heavenly light and joy.

3. आ हि ष्मा सूनवे पितापितर्यजत्यापयः।
सर्खा सर्ख्य वर्णणः ॥ ३ ॥

Agni, self-refulgent lord of light, dearest yajnic power of our choice, just as a father for the son, a benefactor for the beneficiary, a friend for a friend performs the yajna, so may you, we pray, bless us. (So may we too perform yajna for one another.)

4. आ ना बुधि रिशादसा वर्णा मित्रा अर्यमा।
सीदंतु मनुष्य यथा ॥ ४ ॥

May Varuna, lord of knowledge, Mitra, universal friend, and Aryama, lord of justice, all destroyers of sin, enemies and disease, grace the seats of our yajna with their blissful divine presence, as may the sagely scholar, our friends, and our dispensers of justice, all fighters against sin, enmity and negativity, come and take their seats on the vedi, sanctify and accomplish our yajna.

5. पूर्वा होतारस्य ना मन्दस्व सुख्यस्य च। इमा तु शु श्रुधि गिरः ॥ ५ ॥

Pūrvya hotarasya no mandasva sakhyasya ca. Imā tu śu śrūdhī girah.
Agni, self-refulgent eternal power of yajna, friend of our forefathers and high-priest of our noble creative acts of yajna, exhilarate, enjoy and brighten up this friendly yajna of ours and listen to these holy chants and prayers.

6. \( Yacciddhi \text{ śaśvatā tanā devaṁdevaṁ yajāmahe.} \)
   \( Tve \text{ iddhūyate haviḥ.} \)

   By whichever eternal and extended holy powers of cosmic yajna were the brilliant and generous powers of nature created, to the same divine powers we offer yajna, to one and all. And to the same powers is the holy material of yajna offered for all time.

7. \( Priyo \text{ no astu viśpatirhotā mandro vareṇyāḥ.} \)
   \( Priyāḥ svagnayo vayam. \)

   May the happy, charming and venerable ruler of the people, worthy of choice, be dear to us. May the venerable people who offer yajna in honour of Agni, eternal lord of cosmic yajna, and the leader of the people, be dear to us.

8. \( Svagnayo \text{ hi vāryaṁ devāso dadh ire ca naḥ.} \)
   \( Svagnayo \text{ manāmahe.} \)

   Noble people dedicated to the fire and performance of yajna, brilliant and generous, as also the motherly powers of nature such as the earth and showers of rain, bear and bring for us the blessings of our choice. We know them, and we honour and meditate on these yajnic powers.

1. Agni, brilliant and illuminating power and presence of yajnas from the homely agnihotra to the highest programmes of humanity, like a tempestuous horse of flying hair, we praise you and celebrate you with homage and offerings of food and oblations.

2. May our children and successors, travelling far and wide with power and knowledge, be good and kind to us and give us showers of wealth and prosperity.

3. May he, lord of light and knowledge, giver of all joys of life, protect our life, home and industry from far and near against any and every sinful person.

4. Agni, eternal lord omniscient, this divine knowledge, blissful, sweet and musical in Gayatri and Mandala 1/Sukta 27: 99 100 Rgveda

9. Atha na ubhayasāmamṛta martyānām. Mithaḥ santu praśastayah.

   Lord eternal and immortal, by your kindness and grace, may the mutual praise and appreciation of both kinds of people—all subject to mortality, both average and exceptional of knowledge and achievement—be for our good.

10. Viśvebhiragne agnibhirimāṁ yajñamidaṁ vacaḥ. Cano dhāḥ sahaso yaho.

   Agni, lord of knowledge, mighty of strength and power, kind and gracious, with all these forms of heat and energy, take on this yajnic programme of ours, fructify our words of prayer, and bless us with the delight of well-being.

Mandala 1/Sukta 27

Agni & Vishvedevah Devatah, Ajigarti Shunahshepa, Krtrima Vaishvanmitra Devarata Rshi

अग्नि न त्वा वार्तवन्तं चन्द्रध्या अग्नि नमाभि: । सुमाजन्तमध्यराणाम ॥ १ ॥

Agni, brilliant and illuminating power and presence of yajnas from the homely agnihotra to the highest programmes of humanity, like a tempestuous horse of flying hair, we praise you and celebrate you with homage and offerings of food and oblations.

2. Sa ghā nah sūnuh śavasā prthupragāmā suśevah. Mīḍhvāṉ asmākaṁ babhūyāt.

May our children and successors, travelling far and wide with power and knowledge, be good and kind to us and give us showers of wealth and prosperity.

May he, lord of light and knowledge, giver of all joys of life, protect our life, home and industry from far and near against any and every sinful person.

4. Imamū ṣu tvamasmākam sanim gāyatrāṁ navyāṁsam. Agne deveṣu pra vocah.

Agni, eternal lord omniscient, this divine knowledge, blissful, sweet and musical in Gayatri and other musical metres, ever new and giver of new ideas, pray reveal it to the sages and whisper it into our soul.

अ ना भज परुमखा वाजेशु मध्यमर्षु ।

Lord of light and power, let the man you protect in fighting armies, whom you inspire to join battles for knowledge and development, who protects these people who have lived free since time immemorial, let him be the leader, ruler and protector of the people and their wealth and power.

8. Nakirasya sahantya paryetā kayasya cit.
   Vājo asti śravāyyah.

   No one is his challenger, no vanquisher of the hero whose battle for life and humanity is worthy of praise.

   Viprebhastu sanitā.

   May he, protector of humanity, be the winner of battle for progress with the horses that run fast and reach the goal. With the scholars and sages, may he be the generous benefactor and saviour of the people.

10. Jarābodha tadvividāḥ viśeviśe yajñīyāya.

   Hero of high knowledge and wide fame, create and provide for every people and offer to adorable yajnic Rudra, brilliant lord of justice and power, that wealth, honour and celebration which is magnificent and worthy of praise.

Brilliant scholars of eminence, saints and sages, we offer homage and hospitality to great scholars, love and hospitality to beginners, reverence and hospitality to youthful scholars, homage and hospitality to veterans of knowledge and wisdom. We do homage, reverence and service to the noble and brilliant people and to the divinities of nature as far as we can make it possible. You must not, no one should, malign or uproot the honour and reputation of the great and generous power
May the yajnic science of fire, great, immeasurable, universal delight with banners of smoke and flame, call up and inspire us for the achievement of intelligent technology and creative power and progress.

That Agni, divine protector and sustainer of humanity, destroyer of disease with rays of light, mighty brilliant, may listen to our prayers and hymns of praise like a generous man of wealth and prosperity.

Mandala 1/Sukta 28
Indra-Yajna-Soma Devatah, Ajigarti Shunahshepa Krtrima Vaishvamitra Devarata Rshi

Indra, organiser of the yajna for development, where the broad-based stone is upraised for extraction and straining of the refined soma essences, there, for specific treatment, take the materials ground in the mortar, test them and proclaim your judgement.

Indra, where the two stones of the soma press are intensely juxtaposed like the two gear meshes, there take the materials fine ground in the mortar for straining and refinement for the special purpose, take out for testing and say whether it is of the right quality.

Where the house-wife teaches the methods of sifting and mixing of the soma materials, there take the materials ground in the mortar for the special purpose, test and judge the quality and control.

Where they fix the churner and the cords for working control as does a driver, there, Indra, take the materials ground in the mortar for the specific purpose, try and test and judge the product.

5. Yacciddhi tvam grhegreha ulūkhalaṅka yujyase. Iha dyumattamam vada jayatāṁiva dundubhiḥ.

Pharmacist of the soma refinery, whatever the knowledge, technique and process that you use in operation in every home, announce here itself the brilliant results of that loudly as if with the drum of a victor.

Lord of herbs and trees, the wind of your achievement blows ahead far and wide, so then, for the health and joy of humanity, refine and prepare tonics and medications in the refinery for Indra.
7. Āyajī vāyasātāmā tā hyuccā vijarbhṛtaḥ.
Harī ivāndhāṃsi bapsatā.

Worshipful men and women, heroes of the creative battles of life, holding up their own yajnic achievements high, enjoy the delicacies of life and good health as the sun rays drink up the juices of herbs.

8. Tā no adya vanaspatī rśvāvṛṣvebhiḥ sotṛbhiḥ.
Indrāya madhumatsutam.

Men and women who are dynamic with yajnic ambition, and experts of herbs and forests may provide for us to-day refined essences of soma replete with honey-sweets distilled by brilliant specialists of the science.
Indra Devatah, Ajigarti Shunahshepa Krtrima
Vaishvamitra Devarata Rshi

1. Yacciddhi satya somapā anāśastā iva smasi. Ā tū na indra śaṁsaya gośvaśveṣu śubhriṣu sahasreṣu tuvīmagha.

Indra, lord of glory, eternal and imperishable, protector and promoter of soma, beauty and prosperity of life, if ever we are found wanting (for our acts of omission or commission), graciously help us repair, rehabilitate and re-establish in a splendid world of a thousand cows and horses (in a state of good health and a sound economy of plenty and progress).

2. Śiprinvājānāṁ pate śacīvastava đaṁsanā. Ā tū na indra śaṁsaya gośvaśveṣu śubhriṣu sahasreṣu tuvīmagha.

Indra, lord of glory, giver of secular and sacred wealth and well-being, protector and supporter of our struggle for progress and prosperity, master of manpower and great action, by virtue of the divine voice and under your presence and protection, bless us to rise to a splendid state of thousand-fold good health of sound sense and knowledge and speedy progress in prosperity, transport and communication.

Indra, glorious lord of vitality, vision and will to live, eliminate the phantom of illusion and sloth of body and mind which mislead and depress, and let us awake and rise to a splendid state of a thousand-fold brilliance of knowledge, generous prosperity and fast advancement.

Indra, lord of glory, heroic strength and courage, let adversities go to sleep and breathe out, let good fortunes awake and prosper, and let us advance and establish in an admirable state of thousand-fold wealth and generosity, cows and horses.

5. Samindra gardabhaṁ mṛṇa nuvantaṁ pāpayāmuyā. Ā tū na indra śaṁsaya gośvaśveṣu śubhriṣu sahasreṣu tuvīmagha.

Indra, glorious lord of justice and power, upholder of truth and Dharma, discriminate and throw out that brayer shouting his praises with that vile intention of his and help us establish ourselves in a splendid state of thousand-fold purity and truth with wealth of cows and horses.

   The wind blows over the forest and clusters of lotus, over and across the world and soars high with the rays of light in waves up and down. Indra, lord of light and winds, commanding the wealth of the worlds, inspire and establish us in a splendid state of thousand beauties, generosities of the cow and mother earth and the speed of winds.

7. Sarvam parikroṣaṁ jahi jambhayā kṛkadāśvam. Ā tū na indra śaṁsaya goṣṭaśveṣu śubhriṣu sahasreṣu tuvāmagha.

   Indra, lord of the world’s wealth and glory, silence the wail of lamentations, crush the spirit of evil, and inspire and establish us in a splendid state of thousand-fold purity of conduct, free dominion over the earth and meteoric speed of progress and attainment.
Mandala 1/Sukta 30

Indra-Ashvinau-Usha Devatah, Ajigarti Shunahshepah Krtrima Vaishvamitra Devarata Rshi

1. \( \text{Ā va indraṁ kriviṁ yathā vājayantah śata-kratum.} \)
   \( \text{Mamhiṣṭham śiñca indubhiḥ.} \)

   Just as strong winds carry the cloud for rain on the earth, just as men dig the well for irrigating the field, so you serve Indra, most generous and powerful hero of a hundred acts of creation and growth, with each drop of your powers and energies.

2. \( \text{Śatam vā yaḥ śucināṁ sahasraṁ vā samāśirām.} \)
   \( \text{Edu nimnam na rīyate.} \)

   Indra, controller of fire, water and electric energy, raises the pure ones to power hundred, and the mixed and synthesised ones to power thousand. Never does He or His power or the efficacy of His creations go down.

3. \( \text{Sam yanmadāya śuṣmiṇa enā hyasyodare.} \)
   \( \text{Samudro na vyaco dadhe.} \)

   For the creation of life’s joy and for the development of food and energy for life, I take on these hundreds of powers of Indra implicit in the potentials of fire, water and electricity just like the jewels hidden in the depths of the wide wide sea.

4. Ayamu te samatasi kapota iva garbhadhim.
   Vacastaccinna ohase.

   Indra, light and power of existence, this creation is yours for sure. Just as a pigeon flies into the nest to meet its mate so do you pervade and impregnate nature to create the world of forms, and listen to our words of praise and prayer.

5. Stotram rādhānāṁ pate girvāho vīra yasya te.
   Vibhūtirastu sūnṛtā.

   Indra, celebrated in the divine voice of revelation, creator and guardian of the world and its wealth, mighty lord of omnipotence, great and true is your glory, and may our praise and prayer to you be truly realised for our strength and joy of life.

6. Īrdhvastiṣṭhā na ātaye’sminvāje śatakrate.
   Samanyeṣu bravāvahai.

   Indra, hero of a hundred great acts of yajnic creation, rise and stay high for our defence and protection in this battle of life. And we would sing your praises in prayer with joy in other battles too together with you.

   Sakhāya indramūtaye.

   Friends together and friends of Indra ever stronger and mightier, in every act of production and progress and in every battle for protection and preservation, we call upon Indra for defence and victory for well-being.

8. Ā ghā gamadyadi śravatsahasriṇībhirūtibhiḥ.
   Vājebhirupa no havam.

   If Indra hears our call, let Him come, we pray, with a thousand ways of protection and progress of prosperity and well-being.

9. Anu pratnasyaukaso huve tuvipratim naram.
   Yam te pūrvam pītā huve.

   I invoke and call upon the Primeval Man, eternal father, who creates this multitudinous existence from the eternal womb of nature, the same whom our original forefathers invoked and worshipped.
Sakhe vaso jaritṛbhyāḥ.*

Lord of universal love and choice, all benefactor, invoked and worshipped by all, friend, immanent and universal home, we invoke and worship you and pray for light from the celebrants of Divinity.

11. *Asmākaṁ śiprinīnāṁ somapāḥ somapāvnām.
Sakhe vajrintsakhīnām.*

Friend of friends, benign protector of the protectors of soma, life’s joy, lord of the thunderbolt of light and lightning, supreme deity of us all and of all noble women, we love and pray for light and life divine.

Yathā ta uśmasīṣṭaye.*

Protector of soma, peace and happiness, friend, lord of light and destroyer of suffering, as we love and pray to you for our good, so may you be and so may you do for us.

Kṣumanto yābhirmadema.*
May our people, wives and children be rich in wealth, knowledge and grace of culture, so that we, abundant and prosperous, may rejoice with them and live with them in happy homes in a state of honour and glory.

14. Ā gha tvāvāntmanāptaḥ stotṛbhyo dhṛṣṇaviyānah.
ṛṇorkaśaṁ na cakryoh.

Lord of inviolable might, yourself your own definition, omniscient, instantly comprehending all that moves, you manifest your presence to the vision of your celebrants just as the one axle of two chariot wheels (moving, caring yet unmoved).

15. Ā yadduvah śatakratavā kāmaṁ jaritīṇām.
ṛṇorakṣaṁ na śacībhiḥ.

Lord of a hundred blissful acts of the yajna of creation, who by the prayers and pious actions of the celebrants come into their vision and experience like the axis of a wheel, you fulfill their love and desire wholly and entirely.

16. Šaśvadindraḥ popruthadbhirjigāya nānadadbhiḥ śāśvasadbhirdhanāni.
Sa no hiranyaratham damśanāvāntsa naḥ sanitā sanaye sa no’dāt.
Indra, the eternal creator, with roaring, moving, non-moving and animate things and materials, creates the wealth of existence such as earth, gold and knowledge and rises in glory. May He, lord of generosity and dispensation of justice, give us golden chariots and bless us with wealth of the world for happiness and well-being.

Ashvins, scientist and technologist of eminence, president and commander, moving like the earth and light, create the chariot with golden materials and earthly comfortable provisions and take us to distant places at the wanted speed with chosen acceleration and reach distant places for our goals.

Ashvins, generous and imaginative experts, indestructible is your chariot of balanced technology of velocity. It goes over the sea and soars into the sky, at the wanted speed and acceleration, for the wanted destination.

न्यायव्यस्त मूढनि चुकं रथस्य चमथुः।
परि द्यामुन्यदीयत। १९।।

   Ashvins, on top of your indestructible chariot fix a rotating machine, chakra, which will take it over the sea and the sky. Fix another below, and this other will take it over the sky into space, the region of light.

   O Dawn, immortal light of the divine sun, lover of divine songs and stories, darling of the singers and celebrants, which mortal man is able to comprehend your beauty and bliss? Lady of Light, who do you see as such?

   Golden lady of Light Divine, refulgent, riding as if on a wondrous flying horse, we pray we may know and attain to you wholly from within and from far off above.

Come, daughter of the light of Heaven, with all the light and speed and message of time and space. Bear all the wealth and knowledge and bring us the blessings of the Divine.

Mandala 1/Sukta 31

Agni Devata, Angirasa Hiranyastupa Rshi

Agni, Lord Supreme of the universe, you are the first of existence and pre-existence, life and spirit of the worlds, seer and teacher, light and light-giver of nature for scholars of humanity. Friend and lord of bliss, the scholars, saints and poets, and the fastest geniuses of the world abiding in your laws of Dharma and Karma, with full consciousness and responsibility rise to a state of glorious light and vision.

1. Tvamagne prathamo aṅgirā ṛṣirdevo devānām-abhavaḥ śivaḥ sakāh. Tava vrate kavayo vidma-nāpaso ’jāyanta maruto bhrājadrṣṭayah.

Agni, Lord of light, eternal and ever first existence and prime cause of creation, life of life, omniscient, you create the laws of the lights of nature and humanity and invest them with beauty and grace. Immanent, omnipresent and infinite, for all the worlds of the universe you are the mother maker and mover of the world of light and dark, subtle and gross, all. You send them up into the light of existence for a life-time in so many ways.

त्वमग्न पथ्रमा मातारिख्वन आविभव सुकतूया विवस्वतः
अर्जतां रादसी हातौवूययाचरणाभारायणा मुहा वंसा॥ ३ ॥

3. Tvamagne prathamo mātārisvāna āvirbhava sukratūyā vivasvate. Arejetāṁ rodasī hoṭṛvūrye’-saghnorbhāramayajo maho vaso.

Agni, lord of light and knowledge, you are the first of existence and eternal wakeful presence. By your yajnic vibration of divine intention you manifest for the creation of Matarishva, universal energy of nature, and Vivasvan, the refulgent sun. By the same cause, the all-containing heaven and the generous earth, all productive, come into existence, move and shine. Haven and home of all, immanent power, bear the burden and create the mighty and subtle knowledge of the superpower for us.

शवात्राण यत्पित्रामुच्यस सयाचवत्त्व: पूर्वमनयाय गार्परः पुनः॥ ४ ॥

4. Tvamagne manave dyāmavāsayaḥ purūravase sukṛte sukṛttaraḥ. Śvātretā yaotpitromucyase paryā’’ tvā pūrvamanayannāparam punah.
Agni, lord of light and knowledge, greater creator of beneficence than anyone else, you create the light and heaven for the man of knowledge, divine speech and noble action. O soul, jiva, who are freed of the obligation and causal link of father and mother by virtue of knowledge and action, the same lord who led you to the previous birth takes you to the next, after this and even after moksha.

5. \(Tvamagne vṛṣabhaḥ puṣṭivardhana udyatasruce bhavasi śravāyyaḥ. Ya āhutim pari vedā vaṣaṭkṛti-mekāyuragre viṣa āvivāsasi\)

Agni, lord giver of the showers of blessings, promoter of growth and progress, you listen to the praise and prayer of the yajakas holding up the ladle of offering for the fire, now as before and after. Lord eternal, constant and imperishable existence, you wholly know the offers of libations and accept all yajnic actions of the performers, and all the people of the world abide in you and serve you.

6. \(Tvamagne vṛjinavartanīṁ nāram sakmanpi-parṣi vidathe vicarṣāne. Yaḥ śūrasātā paritakm-ye dhane dabhrebhiścitsamṛtā hāṃsi bhūyasaḥ\)

Agni, friend and associate lord of comprehensive vision, you support the man who goes with the man of strength in yajna, and resist and defeat the man who supports a man of crooked ways of power. And in battle of the brave for the creation of wealth and joy, you destroy many evils with limited men and means dedicated to righteousness.

7. \(\text{Tva\textit{\text{"m}}} \text{ tamagne amr\textit{\text{"t}}} \text{ta uttame} \text{ mart\textit{\text{"m}}} \text{ dadh\textit{\text{"s}}} \text{ i sravase} \text{ divedive. Agni, into the best state of moksha you place that intelligent person who is keen to hear the divine voice day in and day out and longs for freedom. And then for the man of wisdom who loves both the previous state and the next human birth, you do good and create the best of desired happiness and comfort in life.

Agni, lord giver of honour, sung and celebrated in hymns, for the management and growth of our wealth, give us a reputed expert of economy so that we may advance and prosper with new enterprises, and both heaven and earth may promote us with the blessings of nature and the environment.
9. Tvāṁ no agne pitrorupastha ā devo deveśva-navadya jāgrvih. Tanukṛd bodhi pramatiśca kārave tvāṁ kalyāṇa vasu viśvamopise.

Agni, light of the world and giver of knowledge and progress, keep us close in the presence of father and mother under the care and protection of heaven and earth. Brilliant and generous, lord immaculate beyond words of evil and calumny, you are ever awake and active in the lights of nature and hearts of pious humanity. Lord creator and maker of the finest forms of existence, give us the knowledge, give us the protection and expertise for the worker specialist entrepreneur. You are the peace, you are the bliss. You are the wealth, you are the Home. Let the world awake, arise and reach where they belong.

10. Tvamagnē pramatistvāṁ pitāṁśa nastvaṁvaya-skṛttava jāmaya vayam. Sam āṁ rāyaḥ śatinaḥ sam sahasriniḥ suvīraṁ yanti vratapāmadābhyā.

Agni, light of the world, you are the power of exalted knowledge. You are our father and protector. You are the giver of life for us, life ever new. We are your children of enlightenment. The wealths of the world in hundred forms in a thousand streams flow unto you, lord inviolable, bravest of the brave, observer and Agni, lord of light and life, ruler, sustainer and protector of the people, brilliant powers of nature manifest you, brilliant men of knowledge and generosity elect and kindle you, first power, leading light and protector of the people for their life, enlightenment and advancement. They envision, proclaim and disseminate the divine voice, eternal truth and ruling law of the world and humanity. And, as in my case, the son is born of the father, so is light and knowledge born of parental light and knowledge.

Agni, universal protector and sustainer of life, generous and brilliant lord, adorable power, blest are we with wealth and prosperity. Protect and promote us and our health and age with all your powers of protection and sustenance. You are the saviour and vigilant guardian of our children, our land and cows, and our sense and mind for the sake of our posterity. And we are steady and dedicated to the rules and discipline of your law.

13. Tvamagne yajyave pāyurantaro’niśaṅgāya catu-rakṣa idhyase. Yo rātahavyo’vṛkāya dhāyase kīreścinmantram manasā vanoṣī tam.

Agni, ruling lord, you are the protector and promoter of the man of yajna who creates wealth and contributes to prosperity. Lord of all round vision and power, you shine within for the man of objective wisdom and judgement. You are the creator and giver of wealth and prosperity for the non-violent man of action and generosity, and you listen with love and accept that prayer and mantra of the celebrant which springs from the heart.

14. Tvamagna uruśamsāya vāghate spārhamḥ yadre-knāḥ paramaṁ vanoṣī tat. Ādhrasya citpramatirucyase pitā pra pākam śāssi pra diṣo viduṣṭaraḥ.

Agni, lord of light and knowledge, ruler of the world, for the man of celebrated eminence and for the man of yajna and divine speech, you create and give that wealth of life which is the best and most wanted of all. Lord of vision and wisdom, you are called the father of the world you hold in sway, and you superintend the rule of law, and you rise as redeemer of the world in all quarters of space.

Tvamagné prayatadakśiñām naraṁ varmeva syūtaṁ pari pāsi viśvataḥ. Svādukṣadmā yo vasatau syonakṛjjīvayājaṁ yajate sopamā divaḥ.

Agni, lord of light and law, guardian of all, like a strongly fabricated armour you protect from all sides the man initiated and consecrated who abides in the home with delicious foods, doing noble deeds with yajna and dharma and serves life as an example of the saving light of heaven.

Imāmagne śaraṇiṁ mīmṛśo na imamadhvānāṁ yamagāma dūrāt. Āpiḥ pitā pramatiḥ somyā-nāṁ bhṛmirasyṛṣikṛnmaṁtānāṁ.

Agni, lord of light and knowledge, remove this destructive ignorance of ours so that we come back to the right path from afar. Lord of vision and wisdom, giver of the light divine, omnipresent, ever on the move, immanent and accessible to the people of peace and piety, father, save us, redeem us, bless us.

Agni, lord of the world, Angira, life-breath of existence, the very light of purity, come well beautifully, come like a human presence, come like the breath of freshness, come like the effort and achievement of life, come as ever before. Come to the dear holy man of divinity, bear him on to knowledge and Dharma, seat him on the sacred grass of the vedi in the house of yajna, and conduct the yajna for us unto the light of heaven.

18. Etanāṅghe brahmaČ vāvṛdhasva śakti vā yatte caṅkāma vidā vā. Uta pra ṇeṣyabhi vasyo asmā-ntsam naḥ srja sumatyā vājavatya॥ १८॥

Agni, lord of light and fire of yajna, grow and let us grow by this divine voice of Veda, and by whatever we may do and achieve with our spiritual and physical strength or with our knowledge and action for the Divine. And bring us all-round wealth, and in-vest and exalt us with holy, creative and dynamic intelligence of a positive and victorious order.

Mandala 1/Sukta 32

Indra Devata, Angirasa Hiranyastupa Rshi
1. Indrasya nu vīryāṇi pra vocam yāṇi cakāra prathamāṇi vaṃḍi. Ahannahimanvapastatarda pra vaksanā abhinat parvatānām.

   I recite and celebrate the first and highest exploits of Indra, lord of the thunderbolt, refulgent ruler, which he, like the sun, performs with the shooting rays of His light. He breaks down the cloud like an enemy, releases the waters and opens the paths of mountain streams. (The ruler too, similarly, breaks down the enemies holding up the powers of the nation for movement, releases the energies and resources of the nation, and carves out the paths of progress.)

2. Ahannahim parvate śiśriyāṇam tavaśāsmai vajraṁ svaryam tatakṣa. Vāśrā iva dhena vaṁ kṣa añjāḥ samuḍramava jagmuṛāpaḥ.

   Indra, lord of shooting rays of light, breaks the cloud resting on the mountain. Tvashta, creative power of the Divine, making fine forms and subtle energies, creates the catalytic power for Him and His shooting rays against the cloud. And, like cows eager for the calves, rushing to the stalls, the waters instantly rush down to the sea.

3. Vṛṣāyamāṇo’vṛṇīta somāṁ trikāḍrukeśvapibata-sutasya. Ā sāyakaṁ maghavādatta vajramahā- nnenaṁ prathamajāmahīnāṁ.
Indra, generous lord of showers of light and rain, receives and drinks up the vital essences present in heaven, earth and sky, three regions of the created world. The sun, glorious possessor of heat and water, takes up the thunderbolt of electric energy and strikes and breaks up the first born of the dense clouds of vapours.

(So does the ruler hold and rule and enjoy the rule over his dominion. He takes up his forces and deploys them to destroy the worst of the nation’s enemies. And just as the sun is mighty and generous for the earth, so should the ruler be for his subjects and dominions.)

\[ \text{Yadindrāhan prathamajām ahīnāmām āyinām amināḥ prota māyāḥ. Āt sūryām janayan dyāmu-\text{ṣāsam tādītīnā śatrum na kilā vivitse.} \]

Indra, since you break up the first born of the clouds of dark vapours and also disperse the powerful forces of these wonder demons, creating and revealing thereby the sun and the dawn and the heavens, you will not, for sure, encounter any enemy.

\[ \text{Ahanvṛtraṁ vṛtrataram vyāṃsāmindro vajreṇa mahatā vadhenā. Skandhāṁśīva kuliśenā vivṛ-\text{kṛḥhiḥ śayata upapṛkṛthivyāḥ.} \]
Indra, sun and vayu energy, breaks up Vrtra, the dark thick cloud, denser than demonic, with the fatal blow of the thunderbolt of lightning. Its shoulders chopped off by the shooting sharpness of the sword-like waves of sun-rays, the cloud lies flat on the floor of the earth (its body turned to rain water).

Like a naive warrior gone mad, Vrtra, the cloud dared and challenged the sun, great and valiant Indra, vanquisher of many, reducing them to juice. But he could not take the force of the blows of Indra, failed and lay crushed. The streams flow over hills breaking down mounds of earth.

7. Āpādahasto aprtanyadindramāsya vajramadhi sānau jaghāna. Vṛṣṇo vadhriḥ pratimānaṁ bu-bhūṣan purutrā vṛtro aśayad vyastaḥ.

Legs now lost, arms lost, Vrtra had challenged Indra. Impotent fool he was, desiring equal rivalry with the mighty hero. Indra struck the lightning thunderbolt on his shoulder. Beaten and broken all over, Vrtra lies flat on the earth.

Like a flood let loose, the showers of rain, so soothing and beautiful to the mind, defy Vṛtra, the cloud, which is now lying shattered on the ground — waters which, earlier, the cloud had held up with its own might. Their master now lies trampled under feet on the ground. (This is the fate of a presumptuous man who proudly and foolishly challenges the Almighty.)

The earth is the mother of the cloud, below. The other is the sky up on high. Indra, the sun, strikes Vṛtra, the cloud, with its thunderbolt in the sky and the cloud comes down with the showers. The earth lies with the cloud like a cow sleeping with its calf.

In the non-stop ever flowing streams of the tracks of the sky is diffused the mysterious body of Vṛtra, the cloud, in the deepest dark. The same rival of Indra which covered the sun now lies flat on earth and the water-streams flow (open and beautiful).

(Indra, the ruler, should strike the hidden forces which cover the light of the order, condense them and make them flow out openly for the good of the nation.)

Like women supported by their husbands, the waters stay supported by the cloud, hidden in its darkness like cows in the stall guarded by the cowherd or the trader. The water-hold that was hidden and closed was opened and released through the door by the slayer of Vṛtra, Indra, the sun.

Tempestuous of speed and power of defence and offence and as the choice lord and hero do you arise, Indra, then when the one unique rival, Vrtra, throws its darkness over your rays of light and catalysis. Arising then you conquer the earth, you win and collect the vital soma of life, and you release the seven streams of nectar to enrich the seven seas of existence as they flow.

Neither lightning nor thunder, nor storm and shower, nor the roar and rumble which Vrtra produces does resist and stop Indra. When Indra and Vrtra both battle—Vrtra with inadequate forces—then Indra, powerful and glorious, comes out victorious.

Indra, who ever sees anyone else other than you as the killer of Vrtra, since in every heart it is your fear, the victor’s fear, that prevails? And like a victorious hawk not-afraid you shine and rule over regions of the world and feed nine and ninety streams of water that flow and sustain life.

Indra, lord of thunder force of arms, is the ruler and illuminator of the moving world, settled and peaceful humanity and the animals. The same ruler holds and sustains the order of humanity and the world together and keeps it going.

Mandala 1/Sukta 33

Indra Devata, Angirasa Hiranyastupa Rshi

1. \[Etāyāmopa gavyanta indramasmākam su pramātin vārvdhāti. Anāmrṇaḥ kuvīdādasya rāyo gavām ketaṁ paramāvarjate naḥ.\]

Come ye, come all, seekers of health and brilliance of mind and sense, let us approach Indra, lord supreme of light and knowledge, who feeds, increases and refines our intelligence along the right lines. Undying, unborn and eternal, great is He. He increases the beauty and grandeur of the wealth and grace of this earth in many ways and then He bestows on us supreme knowledge and the possession of it.

Just as a falcon flies to its favourite haunt and home, so bowing and praying with exemplary songs and offerings I yearn to reach Indra, lord of honour and splendour, giver of wealth, but invisible and incomprehensible, who alone is adorable for the worshippers in the world of time.

Indra, lord of hosts and battle, take up the bow and quiver, shine as you will and win. The victor carries the prize. Generous and profusely rewarding to the noble and the splendid, be not ungenerous to us, lofty and great overlord as you are over us.

4. Vadhiṁhi dasyūṁ dhaninam dhanenaṁ ekaścaraṁ paṇirbhūrasadhi pravṛddha.

alongwith his supporters with a single blow of the thunderbolt. Eliminator of smugglers and infiltrators, fix the selfish fun-lovers on the point of your arrow and let them meet their end.

bhiï spardhamïnï. Pra yaddivo harivåh sthïtarugra niravratã adhamo rodasyoh.

Indra, lord of light and justice, firm and steadfast, mighty strong, commander of horse power and armoured force, just as the sun, blazing lord of light and sustainer of earth, heaven and the middle skies, breaks up and scatters the cloud, so do you blow off and scatter the top-notch selfish, uncreative and lawless elements who rival and stall the yajnic creative, constructive and productive powers of your dominion.

6. Ayuyutsannannavadyasya senâmâyâtayanta kïtayo navagvâh. Vrïâyudho na vadhrayo niraštï pravadbhirindráccitayanta åyan.

Settled heroes of the nation, brave fighters, trained in the latest arms and tactics, experts of offence and defence, strengthening and elevating the striking power of the admirable commander of the ruler and supreme commander, try to fight and fight on so that the enemies, defeated and demoralised, flee away from Indra down hill by the swiftest course, like emasculated cowards.

Indra, ruler and commander, fight out these ogres and those, weeping and wailing, away from the middle regions of the dominion. Throw off the wicked from the higher regions, and from higher positions. Raise those who are creators of soma, peace and joy. Protect those who appreciate and raise the honour of the world and humanity.

The fighting forces of the sun, beautified by golden jewels of light by the sun, messengers of peace and joy of the earth, do not break the protective cover of the earth, nor do they violate the purpose of the sun, and by virtue of the same sun they serve and glorify Indra, lord ruler of the earth and her children.

(Similarly, the dynamic forces of the earth’s dominion, invested with the golden jewels of royal robes, dedicated to service and well-being, do not violate the bounds of the earth’s protective laws and, as messengers and agents of the universal lord of light, they uphold the ruler and the rule of law.)

Just as Indra, the sun, with its own power and glory, holds both earth and heaven in orbit all round in a state of equilibrium by the force of its gravitation and throws off the unwanted forces by its own laudable forces of heat and light, so you, Indra, lord ruler of the earth, with your power and glory, hold and sustain the earth and the people and, with the assistance of responsible and respectable people of knowledge and divine wisdom, control and correct the unruly elements, and throw off the selfish and the wicked.

There are those who do not understand the end and purpose of the earth and heaven, nor can they, with all their magic and power, conquer or insult the mother giver earth. Indra, virile and generous lord ruler of earth and heaven, uses his ready weapon of the thunderbolt of light and force, kindles the sense and mind of the people and delivers the earth from the darkness of ignorance and evil.
11. Anu svadhāmakṣarannāpo asyā’vardhata madhya ā nāvyānām. Sadhrīcīnena manasā tamindra ojiṣṭhena hanmanāhannabhi dyūn.

The waters of this cloud flow according to their nature, in response to this Indra’s power after the yajnic offers of holy havi, and they collect in the navigable lakes, rivers and seas. Indra, lord of lightning power, strike that cloud of darkness pregnant with waters with your own essential and most lustrous fatal weapon fast as mind, break the darkness, and release the light and waters to flow to the earth.

12. Nyavidhyadilībīśasya dṛḍhā vi śṛṇgiṇamabhin-acchuṣṇamindrah. Yāvattaro maghavan yāvadojo vajreṇa śatrum avadhīh pṛtanyum.

Just as Indra, the sun, lord of light and power, breaks and scatters the dense cloud into rain water lying in the depressions of the earth such as lakes and oceans, and scatters and condenses the mountainous cloud in the sky which has sucked up the waters from the earth, similarly, O lord ruler of the earth’s wealth and glory, strike the underground enemy forces with thunder and destroy them. Don’t give up while your strength lasts and your lustre and morale sustains.

Just as the never-failing triumphant light of this sun goes straight and takes on the cloud like an enemy and, with penetrating but generous force, breaks up the cloud like enemy fort, just as Indra, solar energy, with its lightning force, scatters the clouds proclaiming its distinguished power to the world, so should the ruler take on and destroy the enemies of the dominion and proclaim the generous power of his sovereignty.

14. Āvaḥ kutsamindra yasmiṃcākanprāvo yudhyan-tam vrṣabham daśadyum. Śaphacyuto reṇurna-kṣata dyāmucchvaitreyo nṛṣāhyāya tasthau.

Indra, as the sun desirous of protecting the earth takes to the thunderbolt in the battle and engages the roaring fighting cloud full of showers of rain filling all the directions, and as the dust raised by the hoofs of the cows and horses rises to the sky, so may the ruler, son and protector of the earth, stand firm for the protection and promotion of humanity.

Indra, Maghavan, lord of power and glory, just as in matters of the prosperity of the various fields of the earth the sun directs its catalytic rays of energy to engage the cloud in battles of precipitation to rain down the soothing life sustaining showers, so may you, like the sun and showers, help the people settled here in peace so that they may for long carry on their earthly chores. Like the sun, bring the hostile elements of the dominion to book and keep them down to suffer as they deserve.

Ashvins Devata, Angirasa Hiranyastupa Rshi

1. Triścinno adyā bhavataṁ navedasā vibhurvāṁ yāma uta rātiraśvinā. Yuvoṛhi yantraṁ himyeva vāsaso’bhyāyaṁ senyā bhavataṁ manīṣibhiḥ.

Ashvins, brilliant experts of eminence like the sun and moon, working together complementarily, be three ways good to us today: May your chariot be universal in movement. May your gifts of wealth, too, be of universal value. May your machine too be of universal purpose in design, structure and performance. Carry on together with the scholars and thinkers as a team like the night and day of winter or like the cold and warm cover.

Ashvins, scientists and engineers of eminence, three are the thunderous wheels and dynamos in the chariot which brings you honey-sweets of wealth and comfort. The scholars of eminence know the pleasure of soma and beauty of the moon. Three are the sustaining beams and pillars fixed in its motive system. By this you can reach your destination thrice in the day and thrice in the night.

3. Samāne ahan triravadyagohanā triradya yajñaṁ madhunā mimikṣatam. Trivrājavatīrīṣo aśvinā yuvam doṣā asmabhyamuṣaśaśca pinvatam.

Ashvins, scholars of science and locomotion, covering your gaps and weaknesses, in one day complete the threefold yajna of science (in food, energy and speed of locomotion with fire and water). Both of you develop for us thrice powerful food and energy, and let the days and nights abound in food, energy, speed and progress.

Asvins, scholars of knowledge and practice, come our way thrice to guide us. Follow thrice in the way of an easily accessible man of noble discipline and dedication and lead us too, teaching us three ways the art of defence, industry and automation. Conduct the programmes of joy and celebration three ways for body, mind and soul. And like the flowing waters augmented by showers of rain, develop the knowledge of mixing, compounds and mutual contact threefold.

5. Trirno rayiṁ vahatamaśvinā yuvaṁ trirdevatātaṁ trirutāvatāṁ dhiyaiḥ. Triḥ saubhagatvaṁ trituta śravāmsi nastriṣṭhaṁ vāṁ sūre duhitā ruhadratham.

Ashvins, generous as earth and heaven, bring us, develop and sustain threefold wealth of knowledge, power and protection. Brilliant and godly scholars of science, technology and yajna, three-way benefactors by inspiration, action and achievement, give us threefold enlightenment, protection and sustenance of body, mind and soul. Give us threefold beauty, honour, and grace... of prosperity, well-being and noble family. Give us the threefold capacity of listening, reflecting and meditating on Vedas, Shastras and the economics and polity of practical living. And lo! by virtue of your inspiration, action and achievement, the dawn, daughter of the sun, would ride your chariot of glory and in-fuse strength and peace and joy into our body, mind and soul.

Ashvins, scholars of knowledge, light and progressive expansion, protectors of all that is good and blissful, create for us and give us threefold heavenly essences such as soma, three earthly ones and three from waters. For my child create something soothing and all-round protective, a three-metal tonic panacea for a healthy and comfortable state of health in which the three humors of vitality are balanced in peace, without agitation, anywhere.

7. Trirno aśvinaṇa yajatā divedive pari tridhātu pṛthivīmaśāyatam. Tisro nāsatiṇa rathyā parāvata ātmeva vātaḥ svasarāṇi gacchatam.

Ashvins, expert powers of science and technology, truthful, devoted to yajna and working together like fire and water, and masters of the three-metal chariot, day by day go round the earth and sky thrice for us and then come to sleep on the earth. Just as the soul goes from one body to another, as winds blow from one place to another, so by the threefold, three way, three speed chariot, move from one chariot to another and go to the destinations of your choice.

8. \( Triraśvinā \) sindhubhiḥ saptamāṭṛbhistraya

    Ashvins, high-priests of nature, truth and yajna, come with three-eleven divinities of nature and the universe, having crossed the seas in three days and the globe in eleven, come for a drink of honey-sweets. Sail across life, triumphant. Destroy evils. Drive off jealous hostiles. Be friends, unifiers.
12. Ā no aśvinā trivṛtā ratheṇā’rvāṇcaṁ rayim vahataṁ suvīram. Śṛṇvantā vāmavase johavīmi vṛdhe ca no bhavataṁ vājasātau.

Ashvins, high-priests of nature, science and technology, come by the multipurpose chariot across the land, over the sea and through the skies, and bring us wealth and honour worthy of the brave this side of the horizon. Listeners as you are, I call upon you for protection and promotion. Be favourable to us for advancement and victory in the battles of life.

Mandala 1/Sukta 35

Agni-Mitra-Varuna-Night-Savita, Savita Devata, Angirasa Hiranyastupa Rshi

I invoke Agni, vital heat, first basic sustainer of life, for physical well-being. I invoke Mitra-and-Varuna, pranic energies of the breath of life, for protection and immunity. I invoke the night which envelops the world in restful sleep. And I invoke Savita, the sun, lord of light, refreshment and inspiration for the sake of protection, promotion and advancement here upon the
2. Å krṣṇena rajasā vartamāṇo niveśayannamṛtam martyam ca. Hiraṇyayena savitā rathenā’’ devo yāti bhuvaṇāṇi paśyan.

Savita, lord of life and light, existing and abiding with the regions of the universe, sustaining them with his centripetal force of gravitation, enveloping the mortals and the immortals, goes on and on in self-refulgent glory in his golden chariot, watching and illuminating the worlds of existence.

3. Yāti devaḥ pravatā yātyudvatā yāti śubhrā-bhyām yajato haribhyām. Ā devo yāti savitā parāvato’pa visvā duritā bādhamānah.

The lord of light, adorable and in company, goes on by lower and higher paths, descending and ascending, by beautiful horses, white and glossy (i.e., day and night, bright and dark fortnights). Savita, lord effulgent, goes on travelling hitherward and far off away dispelling the darkness and evil of the world.
4. Abhīvṛtam kṛśanairviśvarūpam hiranyāśamyam yajato bṛhantam. Āsthādratham savitā citrabhānuḥ kṛṣṇā rajāmsi taviśīṁ dadhānah.

Savita, adorable and companionable lord of wondrous light, commanding enormous power, holding the world regions by his subtle waves of gravitation, rides the vast, beautiful and autonomous world of infinite forms brighter than gold.

5. Vi janāṅcchyaṅvāḥ śītipādo akhyan ratham hiraṇyapra ugam vahantaḥ. Śaśvad viśaḥ saviturdaivyasyopasthe viśvā bhuvanāni tashthuḥ.

In the lap of Divine Savita, eternal Lord of the universe, reside all the worlds of existence and the children of the divine. So in the gravitational field of the sun, heavenly light, are held all the regions of the solar system alongwith the living beings ever abiding therein. And the rays of the sun, white and brilliant, bearing the world-chariot of the golden yoke, shine and proclaim the glory of the lord to the people.

Three are the lights: sunlight, fire and universal electric energy. Two of these, sun-light and fire (which is of the earthly sphere) are in the sun’s field of power and gravitation. The third, universal energy which holds the spirit and soul of the brave resides in antariksha, the middle region of yama, the vital wind (which overtakes and carries the soul after death of the body). Like the pin of a chariot wheel axle in battle, all these, fixed in their place with their role, abide by the Immortal Supreme Savita. Whoever here really knows the secret, may speak.

The sun is mighty brilliant, illuminates the middle regions, awfully vibrating with fusion, gives pranic life to nature and humanity, holding and guiding things in orbit. And then, where is the sun now, (when it is no more there)? In what heaven does its light shine now? Who knows?

Kah knows. The Lord Supreme only knows.

Savita, generous lord of golden light, comes illuminating the eight directions and sub-directions of the earth, the three sustaining regions of earth, heaven and the middle skies, and the seven seas of space, holding and bringing choicest gifts for the man of charity and yajna.

Savita, the sun, lord of the golden hand of generosity, creator of the sap of life, shines across the regions of heaven and earth. It destroys and eliminates disease and dirt, spreads its light all over, blazes in the heavens and over-reaches the regions of darkness.

Savita, generous and self-refulgent lord, giving and blessing, with a golden hand, breath and inspiration of life, universal guide, creator giver of peace and well-being, lord of universal wealth, may come to us in direct experience and bless us all ways and every way, warding off the wicked, the evil and the violent destroyers, and stay with us in the heart day and night, praised and celebrated as we ought to praise and celebrate the Divine Lord.

11. Ye te panthāḥ savitaḥ pūrvyāso’renavāḥ sukṛtā antarikṣe. Tebhirno adya pathibhiḥ sugebhī rakṣā ca no adhi ca brūhi deva.

Savita, self-refulgent lord creator and giver of light, by those paths of divinity set out by you which are ancient and eternal, free from dust and smoke, well laid out on high in heaven, by those very paths simple, straight and pleasant, come to-day, guide and protect us, and reveal into our soul the Voice Divine.

Agni Devata, Ghaura Kanva Rshi

With songs of praise and words of worship we adore Agni, Lord and light of the universe, whom other devotees too adore in many ways, and we pray to the lord of light and power and instant action, worthy of the love and devotion of many people far and wide who are seekers of divine knowledge and bliss for themselves.
2. Janāso agnim dadhire sahoṛdham haviṣmanto vidhema te. Sa tvam no adya sumanā ihāvītā bhavā vājeṣu santya.

The ancient people of vision and wisdom hold on to Agni, Lord of light and knowledge. We have the will and devotion, and we have the offerings, with these we worship you, lord giver of strength and courage more and ever more. Lord of wealth and generosity, we pray, be good and kind to us here and now, be our saviour and protector in the battles of life.

Agni, light and fire of yajna, harbinger of blessings Divine and carrier of the fragrance of yajna, we opt for you, we kindle you. You are the yajaka, you reach the world over and over. Great and true you are, the flames and lights of your power reach the heavens and, like the rays of the sun, bless everything with a touch of new life and inspiration.

Agni, brilliant power of heat and light of yajna, harbinger of joy and inspiration, the noblest of the wise and generous people of the world and powers of nature, Varuna the high, Mitra the friendly, and Aryama the fair and just, all kindle and raise you high for the world’s yajna of growth and progress. The man who offers you the holy materials of yajna wins wealth of the world by virtue of your yajnic action.

5. Mandro hotā grhapatiragne dūtō viśāmasi. Tve viśvā saṁgaṭāni vratā dhruvā yāni devā akrṣṇvata.

Agni, deep and grave and joyous, giver of peace and prosperity, protector and promoter of home and family, you are the fighter and ambassador of the people. In you abide all those steady laws and discipline which go with the observance of Dharma and good conduct and which the noblest in nature and humanity observe and have observed.

6. Tve idagne subhuge yaviṣṭhyā viśvamā hūyate havīḥ. Sa tvam no adya sumanā utāparaṁ yakṣi devāntsvīryā.

Agni, fire and power of yajna, strongest catalyser and noblest creative and constructive agent, to you alone are offered all the inputs of yajna (for the sustenance and advancement of life). Right to-day and to-morrow and all through future, be good and kind to us, act with the generous powers of yajna and help us grow as brave and noble people.

Surely men of faith and reverence wielding power and weapons sit and abide by the brilliant sovereign ruler. They kindle the fire and do homage to Agni with sacrificial offers and, wishing to get over the violent and destructive forces, win the battles of life.

Just as Indra, the sun, with its rays, strikes the cloud and fills the earth and heaven with light and waters, so does Agni, brilliant ruler and commander, with his forces, break through evil and darkness, filling heaven and earth with the light and fame of his actions. He works for the settlement of his people in spacious homes and, invited and celebrated among the intelligent, he shines as generous and prosperous, while his fame resounds like the roar of the victor in battle.

Agni, Lord of light and power, brilliant, admirable, adorable, divinely superb, you are great. Come be seated, wipe out evil, shine and create the light without smoke, and beauty most sublime.

10. Yaṁ tvā devāso manave dadhuriha yajisthaṁ havyavāhana. Yaṁ kaṇvo medhyātithirdhanaspr̥t̥am yaṁ vr̥ṣā yaṁupastutaḥ.

Agni, lord of light and fire, most dedicated to yajna, loved and honoured, creator and harbinger of the noblest wealth of life, you — whom the brilliant, intelligent and generous people accepted for enlightened rule, whom the scholars and teachers with their disciples and yajnic friends accepted as the man of wealth and knowledge, whom the generous pious people accepted, whom the popular and respected people accepted — such as you are, we accept, elect, appoint and consecrate you as the ruler and commander of the nation.

The fire and energy which kaṇva, expert scholar of science and practical work, karma kanda, in company with his disciples of technical yajna, captured and lighted from the waves and waters over the sky, and whose flames reach beyond the sky over the clouds, these hymns of celebration illumine and the same we develop and augment.

12. \[\text{Rāyaspūrdhi svadāhvo’sti hi te’gne deveśvāpyam. Tvaṁ vājasya śrūtyasya rājasi sa no mṛṭa mahāñ asi.}\]

Agni, lord of power and wealth in your own right, fulfil our life with honour and prosperity, so friendly and accessible you are among the noble and the generous. You shine in battles and your fame resounds. Be good to us for our well-being. Great and glorious you are indeed.

13. \[\text{Ūrdhva ū suṇa ūtaye tiśṭhā devo na savitā. Urdhvo vājasya sanitā yadaṇjibhirvāghadbhirvihvayā-mahe.}\]

Agni, lord of light and life, brilliant as the sun, stay high with grace in glory for our protection and progress. Rise high as the hero of life’s battles of honour and prosperity. It is for the reason of your glory and generosity that we invoke and pray to you alongwith the scholars with holy offers of yajna and celebration.

Agni, high and great, save us from sin and evil with the gift of intelligence and knowledge. Burn up all grabbing and robbing of other’s food and freedom. Help us rise to the heights of knowledge, comfort and happiness for a full life. Accept our prayer that we may rise to our place among the noble and the brilliant.

15. Pāhi no agne rakṣasah pāhi dhūrterarāvṇaḥ. Pāhi rīṣata uta vā jighāṁsato bṛhadbhāno yaviṣṭhya.

Agni, lord of light and fire, youthful and blazing with mighty glory, save us from the destroyers. Protect us from the wicked and the ungenerous. Protect us from the cruel and the violent. Protect us from the killers. (Let these negative and destructive elements be eliminated.)

Agni, lord of fire and justice, whosoever is jealous and destructive toward us, whosoever is ungenerous and an exploiter, destroy wholly with the blow of the thunderbolt. Whosoever bleeds humanity with instruments of torture and death, such an enemy must not rule over us.

अग्निर्वावन् सुविरयामग्निः कण्वाय साभ्यान। अग्निः पारवमन्मित्रात

Agni is mighty power for one who cares and prays for it. It is great good fortune for the man of knowledge. It is a great friend and protector in battle, and provides all help and encouragement to the man who is loved and admired by his colleagues and disciples.

अग्निनां तुवशं यदुं परावर्तं उगारद्वं हवामह।
अग्निनां गंवास्तवं बृहदवं तुवीति दस्यवं सहः॥ १८॥

By the might and splendour of Agni, we challenge from afar the fast invader, robber, ferocious warrior who hides in new hideouts and suddenly emerges in a big chariot with the intention of instant kill. May Agni, great and blazing, destroyer of the wicked, take on such demons and throw them off.

नि त्वामग्ने मनुरद्ध ज्यातिजनाय शश्वत। दीदश्य कण्वे

Agni, lord of universal light and power, I, Manu, man of thought and intelligence, enlightened in truth and divine Law, consecrated in the joy of piety, hold on to you in the heart. Shine, eternal light, in the heart of Kanva, man of knowledge, for the sake of humanity. The devotees bow to you in obedience and obeisance.

2. Ajañyanat svabhāṅgav:.
2. Ye prṣaṭībhīrṛṣṭibhīḥ sākāṁ vāśībhiraṅjibhīḥ.
   Ajāyanta svabhāṇavaḥ.

   Those men who, like the winds, with liquid thrusts of motion in smooth, refined, chiselled and lubricated language and style, express themselves and their ideas, rise with their own brilliance like the rays of the sun.

3. Iheva śṛṇva eśāṁ kaśā hasteṣu yad vadān.
   Ni yāmaṅcitramṛṇjate.

   Whatever I hear here wherever I am, whatever the stimulation of the nerves and motions of the muscles in the hands, whatever people speak, whatever varied and wonderful they straighten, realise or obtain in the business of life, all that is by the motion of these winds.

4. Pra vaḥ śardhāya ghṛṣvaye tveṣadyumnāya śuṣṭiṁe. Devattain brahma gāyata.

   For your strength, for your refinements, for light and prosperity, for health, food and plenty, study the divine gift of the winds and sing in thanks and praise of the sacred hymns of the Veda.
5. Pra śaṁśā gośvaghnyam krīlam yacchardho mārutam. Jambhe rasasya vāvṛdhe.

Study and celebrate that refreshing and inviolable strength and power of the winds which operates in the earths and cows and in the wind and senses and which issues forth in the juices pressed out by the jaws in the mouth and soma press and which increases the strength and vitality of the body.

6. Ko vo varṣiṣṭha ā naro divaśca gmaśca dhūtayāḥ. Yatsīmantāṁ na dhūnutha.

Ye men, energetic as the winds, movers and shakers of earth and heavens, who is the mightiest so great of you that you shake the world around you to the very end like the leaves of a tree or the hem of a gown?

7. Ni vo yāmāya mānuṣo dadhra ugrāya manyave. Jihīta parvato giriḥ.

The mightiest great man among you sustains your passionate morale and directs your might and main for the onward march of life. Shake the clouds. Cross the mountains.
Just as on the stormy movements of a heroic leader’s armies the decrepit ruler of a broken nation shakes with fear and flees, so under the force of the motions of the winds, electric energy of the lord of the universe, the earth moves and goes whirling round and round in orbit.

Still is the cause of these winds, i.e., space (akasha) whence they have their birth. By virtue of their mother source, their power is two-fold: Sound, which is the property of space which the winds carry, and motion which is their specific property, so that things such as birds may move in space by the force of the winds.

Those children of space, the winds, in their motions, carry and expand the waves of sound and the currents of waters and other energies across the spaces so that they reach their destinations like the mother cows hastening on their legs to their stalls.

The winds, by their motions of mighty currents, drive the dark and deep and heavy clouds holding the waters and make them rain down in incessant showers.

Maruts, warriors of the nation, just as the powers of the winds shake up the clouds, so may your power and force inspire the people to do great deeds in the world.

13. Yaddha yānti marutaḥ saṁ ha bruvate’dhvannā. Śṛṇoti kaścideśām.

The Maruts, wind powers of nature, like the dynamic heroes of humanity, go together, and as they go by the paths of their movement, they speak together and proclaim their presence and their work. But only some exceptionally perceptive people listen to their voice.

Maruts, dynamic heroes of the nation, go fast by the straightest paths set out for you. Your honour and achievement lies in the heart of the learned and the wise. And there, with the learned and the wise, we’ll celebrate.

विशिवं चिदायुजिवसं॥ १५ ॥

Surely life is for the joy of living for all of you. May we too enjoy and be happy. Indeed life is for the joy of living for all living beings of the world.

Mandala 1/Sukta 38

Maruts Devata, Ghaura Kanva Rshi

कब्र्द्रू नूरं कंधपियः पिता पुत्रं न हस्तयाः।
दृढ़िध्व दृष्टकबहिः॥ १ ॥

Heroes of yajna, lovers of the stories of life and nature, you have collected the sacred grass for the yajna vedi. When for sure are you going to take the work of the nation in hand like a father taking up the child in arms for its nurture and nourishment?

कव्र्द्र नूनं कद्र अर्ष्म गन्तां दिवा न पृथिव्याः।
कव्र्द्र वा गावा न रण्यन्ति॥ २ ॥

Heroes on the move, Maruts incarnate, where for sure is the end and purpose of your march, when are you going to reach it like the end and purpose of heaven and earth? Where is the place of destination whence the purpose calls you like cows lowing for their calves? Where do your mind and senses and spirits direct you?

Maruts, heroes of the nation of humanity, where are your latest dream loves? Where your ideals? Where all your good fortunes to which you all move?

4. Yadyūyairi pṛśnimātaro martāsah syātana. Stotā vo amṛtaḥ syāt.

Maruts, children of mother-space, heroes of the nation and children of the colourful mother earth doing good work, though you are mortal, the Immortal is your protector.

As the deer takes delight in the grass, so should you take delight in learning. May your teacher never be unwelcome to you. May he have full life before he goes by the divine path. May he never go close to the path of the wind prematurely, early in life.

6. \textit{Mo śu ṇaḥ parāparā nrṣtirdurhaṇā vadhūt. Padīṣṭa tṛṣṇayā saha.}

   May the fatal adversity of life far or near never strike us. Instead, O Winds, powers of the Immortals, let it fly away from us along with the thirst and deprivation of life.

7. \textit{Satyaṁ tveṣā amavanto dhanvaṇcidā rudriyāsah. Mihaṁ kṛṣṇantyavātām.}

   The bright and blazing lightning winds, strong and impetuous in the sky, sustained benefactors of living life, cause ceaseless showers of rain on the thirsty earth. And that is truly the divine work of nature (which the human beings should emulate).

8. \textit{Vāśreva vidyunmimāti vatsaṁ na mātā siṣakti. Yadeśāṁ vṛṣṭirasarji.}

   Just as the mother cow hastens to the calf, overflowing with milk, just as the mother suckles her baby, so does the bright blazing lightning, roaring and raining powers of the winds, bless the living beings when the showers released by them fall upon the thirsty earth.

9. Divā cittamaḥ kṛṇvanti parjanyenodavāhena.
   Yat prthivīṁ vyundanti.

   When the winds overflood the earth with showers of rain from the dense clouds overladen with vapours of water, they overcast even the bright day with darkness deep as that of the night.

10. Adha svanānmarutāṁ viśvamā sadma pārthivam.

    And then by the roar of lightning winds the whole earth and the entire human world shake and tremble like a house built of clay.

11. Maruto viḷupāṇibhiś citrā rodhasvatīranu.

    Maruts, lightning powers of the winds, wondrous forces of the nation, resistant and inviolable, march on with invincible arms by the irresistible paths (to your goal in sight).

Let the wheels of your chariots be strong and steady. May your chariots of horse and fire be strong by wind and electric energy. Let the reins and steering be very sensitive and sophisticated.

Speak well with expansive words in detail for full understanding of power and energy to the brilliant scholar of the Vedas like a very very dear friend worth visiting again and again.

Receive the sacred words, fix them in your speech and mind, specify the sense, expand the knowledge, language and communication further as the cloud holds and expands the vapours of water. Sing and speak of the sacred knowledge extensively.

Honour the powers of the winds and Marut-group of nature and prana, brilliant, admirable and awful source of light and energy. Reverence the brilliant, dynamic scholars of light and energy rich in possibilities of growth and nourishment. Honour and respect power and these people so that great men may arise among us here.

Maruts Devata, Ghaura Kanva Rshi

1. Pra yaditthā parāvataḥ śocirna mānamasyatha. Kasya kratvā marutaḥ kasya varpasā kaṁ yātha kaṁ ha dhūtayaḥ.

Maruts, heroes of light and power, movers and shakers, just as the sun radiates its rays of light from afar, so by whose idea and purpose is it that you thus strike your light and weapons far off? By whose thought and action? By whose energy, strength and power? Who do you wish to reach? Who do you want to shake?

May your weapons be strong and steady to drive off the enemy, and strong and firm to stem the onslaught. May your forces be admirably intelligent and resourceful. Let the cunning and wicked people have nothing such.

3. Parā ha yatsthiraṁ hatha naro vartayathā guru. Vi yāthana vanināḥ prthivyā vyāśāḥ parvatānām.

Men of heroic character as the winds, whatever stands unmoved and inflexible against you, move and throw off. Whatever is dense and impenetrable, break through and scatter. Like rays of light and currents of winds, go round the earth in all directions, reach the clouds and cross over the mountains unto the skies.

Scourge of wrong and enemies of injustice, no enemy will stand against you on earth or on high in the light of your justice and rectitude. May your forces be blazing brilliant, wide and expansive, expert and well-provided with weapons and equipment for your struggle and battles for life and humanity.

5. Pra vepayanti parvatānvi viṁcanti vanaspaṁ. Pro ārata maruto durmadā iva devāsaṁ sarvayā viśā.
Just as Maruts, the winds, shake up the mountains, scatter the clouds and uproot the trees, so you, brave heroes, intelligent, brilliant and creative, together with all the people, throw off the evil and the wicked like drunkards lost in intoxication.

6. Upo ratheṣu pṛṣatīrayugdhvam praṣṭirvahati rohitah. Ā vo yāmāya pṛthivī cidaśrodabibhaya-yanta mānuṣāḥ.

For your travel on earth and in the sky, yoke to your chariot horses fast as winds. Let the red fire with the mist be the leader in front as motive power of the carrier. Let the earth hear the boom and people feel fear and awe.

7. Ā vo makṣū tanāya kam rudrā avo vrṇīmahe. Gantā nūnam no'vasā yathā purettā kaṇvāya bibhyuṣe.

O Rudras, heroes of might and rectitude, we choose comfort and well-being for you and for posterity. We choose freedom and security for ourselves and for the man of knowledge and wisdom. And we call upon you for safety, security and well-being. Come soon with protection and freedom for us all as you came ever before post-haste for the protection and progress of the wise suppressed in fear.

8. Yuṣmeṣito maruto martyeṣita ā yo no abhva īṣate. Vi tam yuyota śavasā vyojasā vi yuṣmākābhīrūtibhiḥ.

    Maruts, veterans of knowledge and heroes of might and right, if the monstrous enemy whom you would wish to subdue and whom the people wish to suppress attacks us, then with your valour and splendour and with your means of protection and promotion for us, ward him off.

9. Asāmi hi prayajyavaḥ kañvaṁ dada pracetasah. Asāmibhirmaruta ā na útibhirgantā vrṣṭīṁ na vidyutah.

    Heroic yajakas, brilliant men of knowledge and wisdom, mighty heroes of the speed of winds, just as flashes of lightning bring showers of rain for us, so with spontaneous, unqualified and unreserved powers and protections give us peace, freedom and comfort, whole, complete and undisturbed. And to suppress the evil and the wicked, go to the man of wisdom and vision for light and guidance.

10. Asāmyojo bibhṛthā sudānavo’sāmi dhūtayaḥ śavaḥ. Rṣidviṣe marutaḥ parimanyava iṣum na sṛjata dviṣam.

    Heroes of the world powerful as the winds, movers and shakers of evil, overflowing with love and charity, wield power and splendour whole and complete, undisturbed strength and valour, and just as men of righteous passion shoot the arrows at the enemy, so shoot at the enemy of the seer and his vision of knowledge and reality.

Mandala 1/Sukta 40

Brhaspati Devata, Ghaura Kanva Rshi

उत्तिष्ठ ब्रह्माणस्पति दक्षिणात्स्त्वमहाः।
उपप यत्रु मरुतं सुदानन्व इन्द्रं प्रासुर्भवं सचा || २ ||

1. Uttiṣṭha brahmaṇaspate devayantastvemahe. Upa pra yantu marutaḥ sudānava indra prāśūrbhavā sacā.

Arise Brahmaṇaspati, Master of Divinity, seer blest and lord of universal knowledge. Lovers of Divinity, we approach you and pray. Let the Maruts, heroes of valour and splendour fast as winds and liberal men of yajnic charity come and march ahead. May Indra, lord of knowledge and power bless them with light and success.

त्वामिद्धि सहसस्पृत्र मत्यः उपबृत धनं हित ।
सुवीर्यं मरुतं आ स्वाश्यं दर्धीत यव व आचक || २ ||

Child of valour and victory, courage incarnate, tolerance and endurance, in the interest of wealth and well-being, people invoke and call upon you. Maruts, heroes of knowledge and divinity, whoever may sincerely invoke and call upon you to your satisfaction, for him you bear the gift of heroic manliness and effective battle power and achievement.

May the lord of divine knowledge move forward. May the lady scholar of divine truth and law move forward. May the generous and brilliant men of yajna carry and conduct our yajnas of the achievement of manly heroes for five-fold gifts of wealth and well-being.

The man who gives to the scholar of divinity and the high-priest of yajna wealth by which noble people arise commands imperishable honour and fame. For him we pray and work for the gift of divine speech and sacred earth, inviolable, holy and instantly productive, which creates and raises noble heroes.

Surely the master of divinity and high-priest of yajna and Vedic speech chants the celebrated hymns of the Lord of the Universe in whose infinite presence Indra (electric energy), Varuna (sun, moon and oceans, etc.), Mitra (prana energy), Aryama (winds) and other divine powers of nature such as earth find their abode and sustenance.

Noble and generous people, in yajnas and holy congregations, if we chant that sacred blissful and imperishable mantra of science and divine mystery of Veda, and you, O men and women, if you receive, realise and follow this holy speech in action, it would bring you all the splendid wealth of the world.

Who would reach the man of divine love? Who would go to the man of yajna who has collected the holy grass for the vedi? Who is the generous giver that finds a settled home with noble presences on open airy land and holds the fort? (Answer: Brahmanaspati).
Brahmanaspati consolidates the ruling power. With warriors and statesmen he eliminates the enemies. In a state of fear and challenge he maintains his cool constancy. Wielder of the thunderbolt as he is, none can turn him, none can defeat even in the greatest battle. In little skirmishes? No question.

Mandala 1/Sukta 41

Varuna, Mitra, Aryama, Adityah, Devata, Ghaura Kanva Rshi

The man whom Prachetas, men of knowledge and wisdom, Varuna, distinguished and meritorious man, Mitra, friend of all, Aryama, man of justice, all these protect and advance (is really strong). Can he ever be hurt, bullied or suppressed? No!

2. Yāṁ bāhuteva piprati pāṇti martyuṁ riṣaḥ. Ariṣṭaḥ sarva edhate.
Those men whom Varuna and others support and protect against the violent as if with the force of their own arms advance and grow in life safe and secure.

3. Vi durgā vi dviṣaḥ puro ghnanti rājāna eṣām.
Nayanti duritā tirah.

Brilliant rulers and others who shine, rout the forts and cities of these enemies and cast off all evil and suffering far away.

4. Sugaḥ panthā anṛksara ādityāsa ṛtaṁ yate.
Nātrāvakhādo asti vah.

Adityas, men of divine brilliance, the path of those who go by truth and divine law is straight and simple. For you too (who are dedicated to Divinity and universal truth) there is no fear or danger.

5. Yāṁ yajñāṁ nayathā nara ādityā ṛjunā pathā.
Pra vah ṣa dhītaye naṣat.

Adityas, heroes of light and the law, people of the land, the yajna of creation and development which you carry forward by the path of truth and piety for knowledge, science and art must not disappear from the scene.

The man of invincible love and non-violence by his very mind and soul gets the wealth and jewels of the world and very dear lovely children.

Friends, how shall we realise in truth of fact the great celebration we offered for the power and glory of Mitra, friend of the people, Aryama, lord of justice, and Varuna, highest leader of our choice, and how shall we achieve the high standard of our comfort and well-being?

Friends, I must not even speak to the man who hurts or curses you. In stead, I must love and serve the man who feels divine love for you and wishes you well all comfort and joy.

Trust not, fear the man who gives you four: hurt, curse, pain and depression. Off with the thief, the encroacher and misappropriator. Love not one who speaks evil.

Feel reverence and awe, without fear, for the man who gives you four: Dharma, Artha (wealth), Kama (fulfilment), Moksha (ultimate freedom). Respect the parent. Love not the man of evil tongue.

Mandala 1/Sukta 42

Pusha Devata, Ghaura Kanva Rshi

1. Saṁ pūśannadhvanastira vyaṁho vimuco napāt. Sakṣvā deva pra ṇaspurah.

Pusha, lord giver of nourishment and growth, lord imperishable, brilliant and generous, cross over through the paths of life and help us cross. Free us from sin and evil, join us and guide us to move forward.

2. Yo nah pūśannagho vrko duḥśeva ādideśati. Apa sma taṁ patho jahi.

Pusha, lord of physical, moral, spiritual and intellectual nourishment, whoever be the sinner, the thief, the malignant enemy that orders us to be off from the right path, remove him from the path.

अप्र त्यं परिपंथिनं मुषिवाणं हरशिचतम्।
दूरमधिः स्रुतराज् ॥ ३ ॥

3. Apa tyam paripanthinam muṣīvāṇam huraścitam. Dūramadhi sruteraja.

Pusha, saviour and protector lord, remove and throw off far from our path that highway man, that robber, who lies in ambush waiting to rob us.

त्वं तस्य द्रव्याविनाचघंशंसस्य कस्य चित्। पुदाभि तिष्ठ तपुषिम् ॥ ४ ॥

Pusha, whosoever the sinner, thief or robber, overt or covert, suppress, and keep his oppressive force under foot.

आ तत्र दस्त्र मन्तुमः पूर्वा गवाः वृणीमह।
यन्न पितृनचान्दयः ॥ ५ ॥

5. Ā tat te dasra mantumah pūṣannavo vṛṇīmahe. Yena pitṛnacodayaḥ.

Pusha, wondrous destroyer of evil, generous saviour and protector, lord of knowledge, we pray for your love, grace and protection by which you inspire and enlighten our parents and seniors (to follow the right path).

अधर्मा ना विश्वसाख्य हिरण्यवाशीमत्तम।
धनानि सुष्णा कृधि ॥ ६ ॥
6. Adhā no viśvasaubhaga hiraṇyavāśimattama.
   Dhanāni suṣaṇā kṛdhi.

   Pusha, lord of universal good fortune, generous giver of the light of knowledge and golden lustre of honour, create for us and bless us with liberal gifts of wealth of knowledge, prosperity and well-being.

7. Ati nah saścato naya sugā nah supathā kṛṇu.
   Pūṣannīha kratuṁ vidah.

   Pusha, lord of light and enlightenment, save us from the enemy, take us far on way to knowledge by the simplest noble path. Let us have the light and vision of good yajnic action.

8. Abhi sūyavasaniḥ naya na navajvāro adhvane.
   Pūṣannīha kratuṁ vidah.

   Pusha, lord of growth and advancement, take us to the land of manna, beauty and joy. No new obstacles, no sufferance on the way. And then know the noble acts (we do in the new land).

9. Śaḍgdi pūrdhi pra yaṁsi ca śīśihi prāsyudaram.
   Pūṣannīha kratuṁ vidah.

   Pusha, you are the power and the glory. Give us

\[Na \ pūṣaṇāṁ \ methāmāsi \ sūktairabhi \ grṇīmāsi.\]
\[Vasūni \ dasmāmīmahe.\]

We don’t fight Pusha, generous lord giver, sustainer and ruler of the world. We celebrate him in sacred songs. We pray to the generous lord for the wealths of life.

Mandala 1/Sukta 43

Rudra, Mitra, Varuna, Soma, Devatah, Ghaura Kanvas Rshi

\[Kad \ rudrāya \ pracetase \ mīl \ huṣṭamāya \ tavyase.\]
\[Vocema \ śantamaṁ \ hrde.\]

When shall we sing hymns of peace and bliss most soothing in celebration of the glory of Rudra, lord of justice and mercy, omniscient, most generous, omnipotent and dearest ever present in the heart?

(With a little modification of meaning, the mantra applies to the soul and to Vayu, universal energy as well as prana energy of life. Rudra stands for Isvara, jiva and vayu/prana.)

Just as Aditi, mother, does good to the child, the shepherd to his animals, the ruler to his people, the master to the cows, so, we pray, may Rudra, lord of life and energy, grant us kindness and grace.

Just as Mitra, universal friend and breath of life, Varuna, lord omniscient and the teacher, Rudra, lord of love and justice, and all friends of life and common humanity energise and enlighten us, so may all the teachers of the earth give us the light and energy of life.

We pray to gathapati, lord protector of hymns and celebrants, medhapati, lord protector and promoter of yajnas, jalashabheshajam, universal balm of life, and Rudra, lord of life, love and justice for the bliss of peace and ultimate freedom.
5. Yaḥ śukra iva sūryo hiranyamiva rocate. Śreṣṭho devānāṁ vasuḥ.

Rudra, lord of love and justice and the ruling power of humanity, who shines like the refulgence of pure light, who blazes like the sun and pleases like the beauty of gold, is the highest of the generous and brilliant, and he is the haven and abode of the living beings on earth.

Rudra, lord of the world, ruler, healer and teacher may, we pray, bring good health, peace and well-being to our horses, sheep and goats, men and women, cows and our mind and sense and to the earth and the environment.

Rudra, lord ruler of the world, Soma, joyous, kind and beatific, bring us and establish over the earth wealth and beauty, honour and fame, dignity and grandeur of a high exciting kind and quality for all the hundred orders of humanity.
8. Mā naḥ somaparibādho mārātayo juhurānta. Āna indo vāje bhaja.

Lord of beauty and dignity, may the enemies of peace and prosperity and the agents of poverty and adversity never be able to challenge us. Help us and strengthen us in the struggle for peace, prosperity and dignity.

Soma, lord of peace and prosperity, Vena, blessed presence of beauty and grace, these are your people trying to reach the prime centre of immortal truth and law. Know these, love these, and help them reach and abide in the highest heaven of joy.

Mandala 1/Sukta 44

Agni Devata, Praskanva Kanva Rshi

Agni, lord of life, blazing as the sun, immortal, omniscient of things born, for the man of charity who has surrendered himself to you, you bring today wonderful wealth of the dawn, and let the yogis and blessings of nature awake at the dawn.

2. Juṣṭo hi dūto asi havyavāhano’gne rathīradhvāraṇāṁ. Sajūraśvibhyāmuṣasā suvīryamasme dhehi śravo bṛhat.

Agni, ruling lord of light and the world, invoked and lighted, you are the blazing catalyst and carrier of yajnic materials offered and fragrances received. You are the leading chariot hero of the world’s yajnic acts of love and creation. Friend of the Ashvins, sun and moon, water and air, working with the complementary powers of nature, friend and companion of ours too, bring us noble strength and valour, bless us with universal honour and fame.

Today we choose to invoke, invite and light up Agni, lord of light and life and knowledge, leader of the dynamics of existence, homely sustainer of all and giver of wealth, darling of everybody, moving with the flag of smoke in dazzling flames of light, and giving us brilliant success and glory in the holy yajnas of our heart’s desire.
4. Śreṣṭhāṁ yaviṣṭhamatithim svāhutaṁ juṣṭam janāya dāṣuṣe. Devān acchā yātave jātaveda-sam agnimīle vyuṣṭiṣu.

In the lights of the dawn of desire and to reach the holy splendours of Divinity, I invoke, worship and serve Agni, lord of light and life and universal knowledge, best and youngest holy light, loving, burning and ever on the move as a blessing for the man of faith and charity with surrender to the Lord.

5. Stavisyāmi tvāmahāṁ viśvasyāṁṛta bhojana. Agne trātāram amṛtam miyedhya yajiṣṭham havyavāhan.

Agni, self-refulgent lord of creation, eternal and imperishable, sustainer of the universe, holiest of the holy and giver of highest gifts of yajna, I shall ever sing in celebration of your glory as the eternal saviour and protector of the world and the worthiest object of worship in yajna.

Agni, lord of light and universal knowledge, youngest ever young, universally celebrated you are, honey tongued, invoked and deeply honoured, protecting the life of the wise for the joy of living, worthy of obedience and obeisance, save the man of divinity and bless the celebrant with enlightenment.

7. Hotāraṁ viśvavedasaṁ saṁ hi tvā vişa indhate.
   Sa ā vaha puruhūta pracetaso’gne devān iha dravat.

Agni, lord of light and life, ruler of the world, the people invoke, kindle and honour you, lord omniscient and high-priest of cosmic yajna. Lord universally celebrated, let the brilliances of nature and humanity come and bless us here straight at the earliest and fastest. Let the wise scholars come and bless us.

Agni, lord of light, high-priest of great yajnas, wise scholars, and those who have distilled the soma essence of life in their visions of light and life’s joy, invoke, study and develop the powers and blessings of Savita, inspiring light of the sun, the dawn, the Ashvins, water and air, Bhaga, universal vitality and majesty of divine nature, Agni, energy of heat, light and electricity, the nights and showers of peace, and yajna which is the harbinger of all the blessings of life and its wealth.

_Usārbudha ā vaha somapītaye devān svardrśāḥ._

Agni, lord of light and knowledge, protector and promoter of the noblest yajnic acts of humanity, you are the conscience of the people and harbinger of joy for them. Bring here the brilliances of nature and humanity who wake up with the dawn. They have the vision of light and heaven. Let them come for participation in the celebration of soma-success of the yajna.

10. Agne pūrvā anuṣṇasya vibhāvasya dīnēśthō viśvadarśataḥ. _Asi grāmeśvavitā purohito’si yajñeṣu mānuṣāḥ._

Agni, blazing lord of light and knowledge, you are the leading light of the world. You shine before, with, and after the dawns. You are the protector of life in human habitations. You are the image and life of the people and the leader and high-priest in their yajnas from the family yajna upto the world programmes of creation, so human, sacred and divine.

Ni tvā yajñeṣya sādhanamagnē hotāramrtvijam. _Manuṣvad deva dhīmahi pracetasam jīram dūtamamartyam._
Agni, lord of light and life, you are the ultimate cause, means and end of universal yajna, the high-priest and the yajaka. Lord of brilliance, we constantly perceive, reflect, and meditate on you, worship and internalise you as a very human presence, inspiring, dynamic, illuminating and imperishable.

12. Yad devānāṁ mitramahaḥ purohito’ntaro yāsi dūtyam. Sindhoriva prasvanitāsa ūrmayo’gneryājante arcayah.

Lord of light, you are the greatest friend of the brilliant men of knowledge and vision, morning call of the high-priest in the mind, leading light of the voice divine, and the invitation to live by the yajna fire. And the flames of fire blaze like the rolling waves of the sea (at the dawn).

13. Śrudhi śrutkarna vah nibhirdevairagne sayāvabhiḥ. Ā sidantu barhiṣi mitro aryamā pṛtar-vāvāṇo adhvaram.

Listen lord, you have the ear, listen to the constant crackle of the blazing flames of fire within. Come Mitra, friends of humanity, come Aryama, powers of justice, come moving travellers to the house of yajna, join the sacred cause of love and non-violence and sit on the holy grass around the vedi-fire.
Agni, lord of light and life, you are the ultimate cause, means and end of universal yajna, the high-priest and the yajaka. Lord of brilliance, we constantly perceive, reflect, and meditate on you, worship and internalise you as a very human presence, inspiring, dynamic, illuminating and imperishable.

Listen to the songs of celebration, Maruts, heroes of the human nation moving at the speed of winds, generous, brilliant as flames of fire and rising in the realms of universal yajna of the divine laws of life and truth. Let Varuna, highest powers of nature and humanity, committed to universal laws, come with the lovely dawn and the Ashvins, complementary currents of life’s energy, and participate in the joys of yajna.

Mandala 1/Sukta 45

Agni, Devah Devatah, Praskanva Kanva Rshi

1. Tvamagne vasūnriha rudrāṇ ādityāṇ uta.
   Yajā svadhvaraiṇ janaṁ manujātam ghṛtaprusam.

Agni, lord of light and knowledge, sagely scholar of wisdom and piety, bring together into this yajna of love and non-violence the people, children of reflective humanity, who sprinkle the vedi with holy water and offer ghee into the fire. Bring together the celibate scholars of twenty four, thirty six and forty eight years discipline and perform yajna in honour of the Vasus, eight abodes of life in nature, Rudras, eleven vitalities of life, and Adityas, twelve phases of the yearly round of the sun.
2. Śrūṣṭivāno hi dāṣuṣe devā agne vicetasah.
   Tān rohīḍāśva girvāṇastrayāstrāṁśatamā vaḥ.

   Agni, lord of light, knowledge and power of the world, moving at lightning speed of the red flames of fire, bring here for the generous man of charity and brilliant piety the thirty-three divinities of the universe such as earth and vital airs which are givers of light and intelligence and which instantly bring up the blessings of life.

3. Priyamedhavad atrivaj jātavedo virūpavat.
   Aṅgirasvanmahivrata praskaṇvasya śrūdhī havam.

   Agni, lord of existential knowledge, committed to the great laws of eternity, listen to the invocation and prayer of the man of intelligence and reason like a lord of beauteous wisdom, above ignorance, injustice and poverty, and free from physical, mental and spiritual want, a power of versatile form and present within as the breath of life.

   Rājantam adhvarāṇāṁ agnim śukreṇa śociṣā.

   Great artists and men, who love intelligence, industry and research for the sake of progress and protection, invoke, study and explain agni, fire and electricity, brilliant power of creative and constructive yajnic programmes blazing with instant energy.

5. Ghṛṭāhavana santyemā u ṣu śrudpī gīrāḥ. Yābhīḥ kaṇvasya sūnavo havante’vase tvā.

Agni, lord of light and knowledge, generous, receiving libations of ghee and waters, listen well to these voices of prayer with which the disciples of the distinguished genius of science invoke and serve you for the sake of protection.

6. Tvāṁ citrasravastama havante vikṣu jantavaḥ. Śociśkeśaṁ purupriyā’gne havyāya voḷhave.

Agni, lordly power of light and knowledge, most wondrous in fame and prosperity, flaming with flashes of lightning, widely loved and pursued, earnest men among people invoke, study and serve you for generous gifts of knowledge and power.

7. Ni tvā hotāram ṛtvijaṁ dadhire vasuvittamam. Śrutkarṇaṁ saprathastamaṁ viprā agne diviṣṭīṣu.

Agni, power of light and knowledge, men of genius invoke, install and kindle you in the holiest acts of yajna as the yajaka and high-priest, richest in gifts of prosperity, easy listener ever in readiness and widest in fame and possibility.

8. Ā tvā viprā acucyavuh sutasomā abhi prayah. Bṛhad bhā bibhrato haviragne martāya dāśuṣe.

Agni, lord of blazing brilliance and treasure of wealth and knowledge, men of genius who have distilled soma, spirit of joy and meaning of life, from nature, bearing offers of yajna come to you for the sake of food and delight of living for the man of yajnic generosity.

Noble genius of light and knowledge, Agni, generous creator of strength, courage and endurance, holy shelter for the seekers, here and now institute the yajna and seat the lovers of divinity and morning pilgrims of yajna on the sacred grass to join the yajna for a drink of soma.

10. Arvāñcaṁ daiyayāṁ janamagne yaksya sahūtibhiḥ. Ayāṁ somaḥ sudānavastaiṁ pāta tiroahn-yam.
Agni, fiery genius of yajna, welcome the lovers of divinity come up for the yajaka and conduct the yajna with joint invocations and libations into the holy fire. Generous creators of wealth and honour, this is the soma of delight and beauty earlier distilled in the day. Protect it, promote it and enjoy it.

Mandala 1/Sukta 46
Ashvinau Devate, Praskanva Kanva Rshi

1. Eśo uṣā apūrivyā vyucchatī priyā divaḥ. Stuṣe vāmaśvinā bṛhat.
   This glorious dawn, darling of the sun, shines forth from heaven and proclaims the day. Ashvins, harbingers of this glory, I admire you immensely — infinitely.

   Ashvins, harbingers of the dawn, wonder-workers are they. Born of the oceans of space, they create the seas of morning mist. Faster than the mind, they bring wealths of the world. With intelligence and inspiration, they reveal the treasures of the Vasus, they are brilliant, generous, divine.

Ashvins, harbingers of light, knowledge and wealth across the Vasus, scientists and technologists, veterans of vision and wisdom celebrate your achievement when your chariot flies like a bird into the ancient sky over the heavens.

Ye men and women of the world, the sun, lover of the dawn, father, protector and illuminator of the tortuous paths and human habitations nourishes and promotes life with the consumption and creation of waters across the heavens over the earth.

5. Ādāro vāṁ maṅīnāṁ nāstyā matavacasā. Pātam somasya dhṛṣṭuyā.

Ashvins, harbingers of light and destroyers of enemy forces, dedicated to truth and holy speech, defend your people and protect their peace and prosperity with confidence and daring courage.

Ashvins, harbingers of light and inspiration, like the dawn give us that light of heaven which may help us cross over beyond the night and darkness of life and bring us total fulfilment.

आ ना नावा मतीनां यातं पारायं गन्तवः
युञ्जाध्यामश्विनां रथं || ७ ||

7. Ā no nāvā maṁināṁ yātaṁ pārāya gantave. Yuñjāthāmaśvinā ratham.

Ashvins, harbingers of light, knowledge and power, design and prepare and bring us the chariot for the people to cross over land and sea and sky and reach their destination.

अरित्रे वां दिवसपृशु तीथ सिन्धूनां रथः ||
धिया युयुज इन्दवः || ८ ||

Ashvins, scientists and engineers, for crossing of the seas and skies to your destination, let your chariot and propulsion be elaborate and powerful by design and structure using water and fire power and electric and solar energy.

दिवसकर्णवास इन्दवा वसु सिन्धूनां पदः
र्वं वालिं कुहें धितसथः || ९ ||

Ashvins, eminent scholars, in the depths of the seas and over the rolling waves, in the rays of light and in the mists of waters, there is wealth and energy. And where do you place the value of your own intelligence (in the design and structure of the chariot of your own choice)?

अभूदु भा उं अंशव हिरण्यं पति सूयः। व्यङ्ग्यजिह्ययासितः।।१०।।

10.  Abhűdu bhā u anīśave hiraṇyam prati sūryaḥ. Vyakhyajjihvayāsitaḥ.

The light is for collection in focus. Sunlight so collected is an image of gold. And so collected and focussed, the light, otherwise free, uncontrolled and undirected, burns like a tongue of fire (as power).

अभूदु पारमतं पन्था ऋतस्य साधुया।
अदर्शि वि स्रुतिदिवः।।११।।

The path of the laws of science and nature, as the path of Truth, is for simple and sure travel across the seas of existence to the cherished goal. See the flow of light divine from the doors of heaven.

तत्तदिदविनारवां जरिता पति भूषितः।
मदु सार्थस्य पिरपतः।।१२।।

12.  Tattadidaśvinoravo jaritā prati bhūṣati.
Made somasya pipratoh.

Every worshipful seeker of knowledge, wisdom and power explores and supplements the paths of protection and progress in the business of life’s joy created by the Ashvins (divinities of nature and humanity who are harbingers of light and inspiration).
13. Vāvasānā vivasvati somasya pītyā girā.
   Manuṣyaccaṁhaṁbhū ā gatam.

   Ashvins, blissful powers of nature and humanity, living and working in the light of the sun, come to us like our own men, bringing with you the love and protection of Soma, lord of happiness and glory, along with the voice of the Divine.

14. Yuvaruṣā anu śriyam pariṣmanorupācarat.
   Rtā vanatho aktubhiḥ.

   Ashvins, inspiring and protective powers of nature and humanity, ever on the move like the sun and moon, let the dawn of light and joy follow upon your beauty and glory. High-priests of truth and universal law, shine, illuminate and create the joy of life by nights and days.

15. Ubhā pibatamaśvinobhā naḥ śarma yacchatam.
   Avidriyābhīrūtibhiḥ.

   Ashvins, powers of protection and inspiration, both of you drink the delight of life and protect its sanctity, and, with relentless actions and modes of defence, give us the peace and well-being of happy settlement.
Mandala 1/Sukta 47

Ashvinau Devate, Praskanva Kanva Rshi

1. Ayam vam madhumattamaḥ sutah soma ṛtāvṛdhāḥ. Tamaśvinā pibatam tiroahnyaṁ dhattam ratnāni dāśuṣe.

Ashvins, brilliant powers like the sun and moon, promoters of light and truth, science and industry, this is the sweetest soma distilled for you so far till yesterday. Taste it and enjoy it and bring the jewels for the generous man of yajnic charity.

Ashvins, brilliant scholars of science and technology, come by three-stage, three armoured, beautifully structured chariot. The geniuses study and advance universal knowledge for you in scientific yajna. Listen to their prayers, accept their holy call.

3. Āśvinā madhumattamam pātaṁ somamṛtāv-ṛdhā. Athādyā dasrā vasu bibhratā rathe dāśvāmsa-mupa gacchatam.

Ashvins, powerful like the sun and wind, extenders of the bounds of natural knowledge, taste and protect the sweetest soma of yajnic joy and prosperity of humanity. And, O destroyers of enemies, come to the generous man of charity, to-day, bearing in your charity the wealth of the world.

Ashvins, masters of universal knowledge and creators of the world’s wealth, in the three-stage yajnic house of space—on the earth, across the skies and over the heavens—try to conduct and enrich the yajna with honeyed fragrances. Brilliant sages who have distilled the soma for you call you up to the heavens.

5. Yābhiḥ kanyām abhiṣṭibhiḥ prāvatam yuvamāśvinā. Tābhiḥ śvasmān avatam śubhaspaṭi pātam somam ṛtāvṛdhā.

Ashvins, universal harbingers of light and knowledge, defenders of good and promoters of Truth and Law, by the cherished plans and noble desires by which you protect and promote the sagely scholar, protect us too and promote the beauty and glory of the world.
6. Sudāse dasrā vasu bibhratā rathe pṛkṣo vahata-maśvinā. Rayim samudrāduta vā divasaparyasme dhattam puruspṛham.

Ashvins, harbingers of light and prosperity, destroyers of enemies, who ride the well-piloted chariot and bring wealth and abundance for the man of generosity, come bearing universally desired honour and excellence of wealth from the sea and sky and also from the heavens.

7. Yannāsatyā parāvati yadvā stho adhi turvaśe. Ato rathena suvṛtā na ā gataṁ sākaṁ sūryasya raśmibhiḥ.

Ashvins, friends of truth and humanity, whether you live and operate far off in a distant place or you rule close by over noble people of dedication, all the same come by the beautiful flying chariot alongwith the rays of the sun.

8. Arvāṅcā vāṁ saptay‘dhvaraśriyo vahantu savanedupa. Iśam pṛṇcantā sukṛte sudānava ā barhiḥ sīdataṁ narā.

Ashvins, brilliant creative powers of humanity and nature, may your horses of the speed of the dawn bring you hither close to the beauties and glories of yajna in the sessions. Bearing food, energy and excellence for the generous people of noble yajnic action, come by the chariot and grace the yajna on earth and in space.

Ashvins, ever true and dedicated to the light of truth, come by that very chariot of sunbeams by which you always bear and bring the wealth of life for the man of charity, for the taste and protection of the honeyed soma of yajnic glory.

10. Uktēbhīravāgavase purūvasū arkaśca ni hvayāmahe. Śaśvat kaṇvānāṁ sadasi priye hi kaṁ somaṁ papathuraśvinā.

Ashvins, harbingers of light and power like the sun and wind, lords of abundant wealth among the wise, with songs of praise and sacred words of prayer we invoke and invite you to the distinguished house of eminent scholars and leaders, in faith and love, for our protection and advancement here. Come, and then enjoy the comfort and have a taste of somaic ecstasy for ever without satiety.

Usha Devata, Praskanva Kanva Rshi
1. Saha vāmena na uṣo vyucchā duhitardivāḥ.
Saha dyumnena brhataś vibhāvari rāyā devi dāsvaī.

Glorious dawn, daughter of heaven, come with splendour, come with majesty. Lady of light, generous giver, come with infinite wealth, shine forth and inspire us with fresh lease of life and joy.

2. AŚvāvatīrgomatīrviśvasuvido bhūrī cyavanta vastave. Udīraya prati mā sūnṛtā uṣāścoda rādho maghonām.

The abundant lights of the dawn, blest with sun-rays and the speed of divine energy, move to the earth to usher in the morning and stir their cows and horses to start their day, as the sunrays illuminate the world. O dawn, bring me the blessed voice of truth. Inspire the munificence of the rich to charity and social creativity.

As the brilliant dawn arrives and shines in splendour, it sets the wheels of life’s chariots in motion. On its arrival the yogis concentrate their minds in meditation as rich merchants send their ships over the sea. (As the sea is vast for the ships, so is the Divine presence vast for the yogi’s mind.)

   Usha, O lady of divinity, blessed are those brave and brilliant spirits who, during your revelations of the light, concentrate their mind in meditation on the divine presence to surrender it back to mother Prakrti in the state of Kaivalya here itself in this life. And surely here itself in this life, of all these men, that is the wisest sage

The silent and brilliant dawn replete with energy stirs up and inaugurates the battles of existence. Refreshing, and sprinkling, as if, the paths of the seekers with holy waters, it guides them to their goals. The birds that fly soar in the splendour of its light.

7. \textit{Eśāyukta parāvataḥ sūryasyodayanādadhi. Šataṁ rathebhiḥ subhagośā iyaṁ vi yātyabhi mānuśān.}

This dawn, clad in wealth and splendour, saddles her horses long before sunrise and, by a hundred chariots, comes and joins the world of humanity and engages them in their activity.

8. \textit{Viśvamasyā nānāma cakṣase jagaj jyotiśkrṇoti sūnarī. Apa dveṣo maghonī duhitā diva uṣā ucchadapa sridhaḥ.}

The whole world bows in homage to this dawn. Noble guide and leader, it brings the light of the world for all so that they may see the glory of the universe. Daughter of light Divine, Queen of wealth and splendour, it lights up and life drives out the darkness of jealousy and throws off the violence of enmity.
9. Uṣa ā bhāhi bhānunā candreṇa duhitardivaḥ. Āvahanī bhūryasmabhyaṁ saubhagam vyuccchanī diviṣṭisu.

O Dawn, daughter of the light of heaven, come and shine with the beauty of the moon and splendour of the sun, bearing for us all plenty of good fortune and brilliant success in our sacred programmes.

10. Viśvasya hi prāṇanāṁ jīvanāṁ tve vi yaducchasi sūnari. Sā no rathena bṛhatā vibhāvari śrudhi citrāmaghe havam.

O Dawn, leading light of humanity, when you shine in splendour, you hold the breath and life of the world in you. The same, lady of light, harbinger of wondrous wealth and good fortune, come by your magnificent chariot and listen to our prayer.

11. Uṣo vājam hi vāṁsva yaścitro mānuṣe jane. Tenā vaha sukrto adhvarāṁ upa ye tvā grñanti vahnayaḥ.

O Dawn, Light Divine, accept and enlighten whatever best and noblest food, energy and wealth is in the world of humanity and, by that, lead our fires and performers of yajna, who sing in praise of your glory, close to the sacred acts of love and piety in non-violent yajnas.
12. Viśvān devān ā vaha somapītaye’ntarikṣāduṣastvam. Sāsmāsu dhā gomadaśvāvadukthamāmuṣo vājam suvīryam.

Light of Divinity, you bring us from the skies all the divine powers and energies of the world to partake of the soma of our yajna and vest in us the best of food, energy and virility of the early morning which may give us admirable wealth of sense and mind, speed and agility, and plenty of cows and horses.

13. Yasyā ruṣantō arcayah pratibhadrā adṛkasata. Sā no rayim viśvavāram supeśasamuṣā dadātu sugmyam.

That light of Divinity whose bright and blazing lights of bliss shine for us to see and which dispel the darkness of the night and ignorance, may that dawn of light give us the wealth of life, universal, beautiful and auspicious.

14. Ye ciddhi tvāmṛṣayāḥ pūrva ūtaye juhūre’väse mahi. Sā nah stomān abhi Ḡṛṇīhi rādhasoṣaḥ śukreṇa śociśā.

Great and Blessed Light of Divinity, whom the saints and seers of ancient and eternal vision and wisdom invoked and invoke for the sake of protection and advancement, may you, the same lady of light, listen and approve our songs of praise and prayer with gifts of light, action and wealth of success and prosperity.

15. Uṣo yadadya bhānūṇā vi dvārāvṛṇavo divaḥ. Pra no yacchatādavṛkaṁ pṛthu cchardih pra devi gomaṁrīṣah.

Light of Divinity, since you have opened the doors of the light of heaven at the dawn today, bless us now with a spacious home of love and peace free from violence and the gift of food and energy, mind and sense of the Divine, and plenty of land and cows.

Light of Divinity, great mistress of the dawn of power and energy, bless us with the wealth of life, great, beautiful and universal, food and energy, dynamic knowledge, action and splendour, and vision of the Divine Word and beauty of the earth.

Mandala 1/Sukta 49

Usha Devata, Praskanva Kanva Rshi

O Divine light of the Dawn, come with auspicious living energy from the top of refulgent heaven, and may the red beams of splendour, we pray, carry the creative energy to the yajnic home of the lover of Soma.

2. \textit{Supe\textasciitilde asa\textasciitilde sukha\textasciitilde ratha\textasciitilde yamadhyasth\textasciitilde u\textasciitilde astvam.} Ten\textasciitilde su\textasciitilde rava\textasciitilde jana\textasciitilde pr\textasciitilde vadya duhitardiva\textasciitilde.

Daughter of Heaven, blessed dawn, by the refulgent beautiful and luxurious comfortable chariot you ride, protect and promote this morning the man dedicated to the Word Divine who loves to eat the holy food of yajna.

3. \textit{Vaya\textasciitilde citte patatri\textasciitilde no dvipaccatuspadarjuni.} \textit{U\textasciitilde ah pr\textasciitilde rann\textasciitilde tu\textasciitilde nranu divo antebhyaspari.}

Blessed Dawn, fiery messenger of light and life, may humans and animals as the birds of flight, we pray, rise and reach unto the bounds of heaven in pursuance of the time and seasons of your arrival.
4. Vyucchanti hi raśmibhirviśvamābhāsi rocanam.
    Tāṁ tvāmuṣarvasūyavo gīrbhīḥ kaṇvā ahūṣata.

    Illuminating and revealing this world of beauty with the rays of light, you shine in glory and divine majesty. Lady of light, daughter of heaven, O Dawn, saints and sages of vision and wisdom devoted to life of the earth and her children celebrate you in songs of adoration and dedication.

    Surya Devata, Praskanva Kanva Rshi

    उदुः त्यः जातवर्धस्य दुवेन्द्र बहुन्ति कृतव: ॥
    द्रश्च विश्वाय सूर्यम् ॥ १ ॥

    1. Udu tyaṁ jātavedasaṁ devam vahanti ketavah.
       Drśe viśvāya sūryam.

       The rays of the sun (like the banners of a mighty monarch) carry the brilliance of light revealing the omnipresence of the omniscient Lord Supreme of the universe.

       अप्त्र्य तायवा यथा न रात्रा यत्न्यकुर्भिः ॥ सूर्यविश्वचः सः ॥ २ ॥

    2. Apa tye tāyavo yathā nakṣatrā yantyaktubhiḥ.
       Sūrāya viśvacakṣase.

       And, as thieves of the night steal away at dawn, so do all those stars steal away along with the darkness of the night so that the world may see only the sun, lord supreme of the heavens.

       अदृश्यमस्य कृतवा वि रश्मया जनाः अनुः ।
       भाजन्ता अग्रयाय यथा ॥ ३ ॥

O that I could see the banners of the Lord of sunbeams, the rays of the sun, alongwith the other people, blazing like the explosions of fire in heaven.

O Sun, light of the world, creator of light and Light Itself, it is you alone who light the lights of the universe and reveal the wondrous worlds of beauty and glory. You are the saviour, you are the redeemer, taking us across the seas of existence.

Lord Light of the world, to the noblest powers of nature and humanity, to the people in the business of life, to the people in general, you rise directly and reveal your presence directly in their heart and soul so that the world may see the light divine directly through their experience.

Lord purifier and sanctifier, with the eye with which you watch the mighty world of dynamic activity and humanity holding everything in equipoise, with the same kind and benign eye watch and bless us.

O sun, watching the species of various forms and traversing and measuring the wide worlds of existence by days and nights, you move to the regions of light and heaven. So may the Lord of Light Supreme, we pray, watch us, guard us and sustain in measure our life and actions through successive lives and births.

8. Sapta tvā harito rathe vahanti deva sūrya. Śociśkeśaṁ vicakṣaṇa.

O sun, self-refulgent lord of blazing flames and universal illumination, seven are the colourful lights of glory which like seven horses draw your chariot of time across the spaces. In the same way, seven are the chhandas, metres, which reveal the light of Divinity in the sacred voice of the Veda.
The sun, bright and illuminant, yokes the seven pure, immaculate, purifying and infallible sunbeams like horses to his chariot of motion, and with these self-yoked powers moves on across the spaces to the regions of light.

So does the Lord of the Universe with His laws and powers of Prakṛti move the world like His own chariot of creative manifestation.

10. Udvayaṁ tamasaspari jyotispaśyanta uttaram.

   Devaṁ devatrā sūryamaganma jyotiruttamam.

   Let us rise beyond the dark seeing the light higher and still higher and reach the sun, the highest light and Lord Supreme of the divinities of the universe.

11. Udyannadya mitramahā ārohanuttarāṁ divam.

   Hṛdrogaṁ mama sūrya harimāṇāṁ ca nāśaya.

   O sun, greatest friend for the health of life, risen to day and rising higher to the regions of light, destroy my heart’s ailment and consumptive disease of the body.

12. Śukeṣu me harimāṇāṁ ropanākāsu dadhmasi.

   Atho hāridraveṣu me harimāṇāṁ ni dadhmasi.

   Our consumptive and bilious diseases we attribute to abuse, fear, infatuation, schizophrenia, infect any severe mental disturbance, and for cure we assign these to green and yellow birds, and green and yellow fluids, soma, sandal, acasia sirissa and turmeric, and close it with cicatrix.

उद्गादयमादित्यो विश्रवं सहसः सह।

13. Udagādayamādityo viśvena sahāsa saha.
Dviṣantaṁ mahayāṁ randhayanmo aham dviṣate radham.

There arises this sun with all the light and power and glory of the world, scorching and burning off whatever is negative and injurious to me. O Lord of Light and Glory of power, I pray I may never be subjected to the jealous and the destructive forces of life.

Mandala 1/Sukta 51

Indra Devata, Angirasa Savya Rshi

अभि त्यं मुरं पुरुहुतमुरिमियमिन्दं गीर्भिमदता वस्वा अगूत्म। यस्य द्यावा न विचरस्ति मानुषं भुज मंहिष्ठमभि विपर्मचत ॥ १ ॥

1. Abhi tyam meṣaṁ puruhūtam ṛgmiyam indram gīr bhirmadatā vasvo arṇavam. Yasya dyāvo na vicaranti mānuṣā bhuje manhiṣṭham abhi vipram arcata.

Worship Indra, lord of power and glory, destroyer of enemies. Celebrate and exhilarate Him who is generous and virile, universally invoked and honoured, master of the Rks, wielder of wealth, deep as ocean, greatest of the great, and lord of knowledge and wisdom. People roam around Him, approach and meditate on His presence for a vision and experience of the presence as the rays of the sun do homage to their source and master.

अभिमर्गन्वन्तविभिषिष्ठिमृतयाः चत्तरि ययं तत्विश्रीभिरावृतं
इन्द्रूं द गास ऋभवा मदथ्युं त ततः कत्वं जरनिसूनातारुहत

2.  Abhīmanvantsvahishśtimūtabayoyntarikṣapraśaṁ taviśibhīrāvritam. Indraṁ dakṣaśaṁ ṛbhavo madacyutam śatakramuṁ javanī sūṛtāruhat.

Powers of protection, expertise and excellence shower love and honour on Indra, lord of power and glory, giver of desire, pervasive and blazing in the skies, clad in his own might and splendour, giver of showers of joy and hero of a hundred noble acts of creation. And may the youthful and inspiring voice of Eternal Truth see him rise to the heights.

त्यं गात्रमंगीरभव्याचवृणारपातात्रय शुतदुरेशु गातुवित
सस्सन्विद्विदः दयावत्वा वस्याजावदिं वास्मानस्य नतर्यन

3.  Tvam gotramāṅgirōbhyo vṛṇorapātraye śatadureṣu gātuвит. Sasena cidvimadāyāvaho vasvājāvadriṁ vāvasānasasya nartayan.

Indra, you open up the cloud-showers for the sake of pranic energies. Lord of the earth and master of motion and dominions of the earth, you open up a hundred outlets into wealth for the alleviation of want and threefold suffering of body, mind and soul. You bear wealth and comfort with food and energy for joy of the people in a state of sobriety. And reeling the dense forces of the overwhelming enemy into confusion, you throw off the adversaries in battle.

4. Tvamapāmabhidhānāvṛṇorapā’dhārayaḥ parvate dānumad vasu. Viṣtram yadindra śivasāvadhīra-him ādit sūryaṁ divyārohayo drṣe.

The vapours hold up the wealth of waters in the cloud. Indra, you open up the cloud-hold of waters when you break up the cloud with the thunderbolt. And then you raise up the divine and brilliant sun high up in space for the world to see.

5. Tvam māyābhirapa māyino’dhamaḥ svadhā-bhīrye adhi śuptāvajuhvata. Tvam pipornṛmaṇaḥ prārujah puraḥ pra ṛjiśvānāṁ dasyuhatyesvā-vidha.

With your intelligence and tactics, blow off the cunning fellows of wicked designs, who cheat the sleeping unwary people and who offer the oblations into their own mouth. Admirable hero, pride of all, break down the forts of the demons, and in the conflicts of good and evil, protect those who follow the paths of rectitude.

In the battles against exploiters and destroyers, protect the men and materials of defence. Destroy the demon and the highway man for the safety of travellers. Crush with your feet the great serpentine bubbles of poison. You always rise and stand for the destruction of the wicked enemies.

7. Tve viśvā taviṣī sadhrayagghitā tava rādhah somapīthāya harṣate. Tava vajrāscikite bāhvoro-hito vṛscā śatrorava viśvāni vṛṣṇyā.

In you is concentrated all the force and power together with your love of service. Your wealth, power and success exhilarates the lover of soma-yajna. Your thunderbolt in hand is held for the enlightened. Protect all the powers of generosity, as you destroy all the inimical negativities.

8. Vi jānīhyāryānye ca dasyavo barhiṣmate ran-dhayā śāsadavratān. Śākī bhava yajamānasya coditā viśvettā te sadhamādeṣu cākana.

Know the good, know the evil too, eliminate the wicked, for the sake of the man of yajnic action.
Ruling over and controlling the lawless, be a source of strength and inspiration for the yajamana. May all your actions in yajnas and pious homes be for success of the good. This is my prayer and earnest desire.

Subduing the lawless for the law-abiding, fixing the traitors by proper acts of the patriots, appreciating and honouring the seniors, the progressive, and the growing and rising ones to the heights of knowledge and light of heaven, rejecting the scoffers and eliminating the skeptics, Indra, ruler, fighter and saviour marches on.

Ushana, power of love and honour, with courage and dignity tempered and sharpened, your valour and grandeur, and your valour and splendour with its speed and sharpness bounds the heaven and earth. Indra, admirable hero of humanity, may the currents of wind fast as mind elevate you, lord of fulfilment, and amply fulfilled, may they carry your fame to the heavens.

11. Mandiṣṭa yaduśane kāvye sacāṁ indro vaṅkū vaṅkutarādhi tiṣṭhati. Ugro yayin nirapaḥ srotasāśrajadvi śuṣṇasya dṛṇhitā airayat puraḥ.

   Indra, most rejoicing and specially delighting in the exciting exhortations of the poets, with his own essential force and versatile perception of the crooked, rules over the crooked and the wicked. And, just as the sun breaks the cloud and drains out the vapours in floods of rain, so does he, bright and blazing with passion, advance upon the strongholds of the social suckers, breaks open their dens and marches ahead with his noble exploits great as the sun’s.

12. Ā smā ratham vrṣapāṇeṣu tiṣṭhasi śāryātasya prabhṛtā yeṣu mandase. Indra yathā sutasomeṣu cākano’narvāṇaṁ slokam ā rohase divi.

   Indra, in the soma-celebrations of humanity you ride the chariot of glory won by the brave and the intelligent and rejoice in the celebrations. And as you rejoice in the delightful celebrations of blessed achievements, you pilot the celestial car worthy of praise and ascend to the heights of heaven.
13. Adadā arbhāṁ mahate vacasyave kakṣīvate vṛcayāmindra sunvate. Menābhavo vrṣaṇaśva-sya sukṛato viśvet tā te savaneṣu provācyā.

Indra, wondrous lord of science and vision, knowledge and power, you gave just a limited amount of new knowledge of analytical and creative technology in short indicative formulae to the distinguished and dexterous man of discipline keen to listen and create. And that word of yours, generous lord of noble yajnic action, became worthy of proclamation and celebration in world meets for eminent achievements. Generous lord of vision and wisdom, carry on the order of creation.

14. Indro aśrāyi sudhyo nireke pajreṣu stomo duro na yūpaḥ. Aśvayurgavyū rathayurvasūyurinda idrāya kṣayati prayantā.

Indra, lord of power and governance, who invites and maintains high intellectuals in the study and practical programmes of definite sciences has his reputation among people as sure and prominent as a column at the door or a sacrificial post in the yajna. Progressive and advancing, developing the wealth of cows, lands and intellectuals, horses and other modes of fast communication, chariots and other modes of travel and transport, he augments, manages and rules over all forms of national wealth and takes the country
15. Idam namo vrśabhāya svarājya satyaśuṣmāya tavase’vāci. Asminnindra vṛjane sarvavirāḥ smat sūribhistava śarmantsyāma.

This salutation in words of homage is offered to Indra, lord virile of generosity, sovereign lord of indestructible power, universal protector, so that, O Lord Adorable, in this world we may live in happy homes, blest with brave children, in the company of high and sagely intellectuals.

Mandala 1/Sukta 52

Indra Devata, Angirasa Savya Rshi

1. Tyāṁ su meśaṁ mahayaṁ svārvidaṁ śataṁ yasya subhvāḥ sākamīrate. Atyaṁ na vājaṁ havana- syadaṁ rathamendraṁ vāvṛtyāmavase svṛkti- bhiḥ.

Honour that Indra, lord of glory and virile generosity who takes us high to the skies. Hundreds of noble and creative craftsmen together with their expert performance work on and engineer his glorious chariot which can cover the spatial paths across the skies for the sake of protection and defence. I wish I too could fly by that chariot.

Unshaken like a mountain within the bounds of its own hold, providing a thousand ways of protection and promotion for life, that Indra, sun/wind/ electric charge, waxes in strength and power when it kills Vritra, breaks the demon cloud holding up the streaming waters, when it releases the showers of rain, and rejoices with the food and energy that it creates through the showers. (So is the ruler for the demons and the people.)

Indra is deep and grave among the serious. In the light of the dawn, he is a cloud of generosity. He is brilliant and blissful as the moon in the firmament. Sober in joy, he is surrounded by sages and intellectuals. With the best of my intelligence and action I invoke and call upon this lord Indra, extremely generous and munificent of food and energy.
4. Ā yaṁ prṇanti divi sadmabarhiṣaḥ samudram na subhvaḥ svā abhiṣṭayaḥ. Tam vrtrahatye anu tasthanūtayaḥ suṣmā indramavātā ahrutap-savah.

Indra is in his heaven of light and justice. The high-priests sitting on seats of grass in his house of yajna, his own values, his own well-wishers, his own people assist, complete and promote him, Indra who is the ruler, guide and protector, in the same manner in which the lovely streams and mighty rivers join and fill the sea. In his battles against Vritra, clouds of darkness, hoarders of national wealth and natural resources, his fighting forces of defence, powerful, undisturbed and unopposed, straight and sincere in action stand by him and follow him steadfast in the battle.

5. Abhi svavṛśṭīṁ made asya yudhyato raghvīriva pravaṇe sasrurūtayaḥ. Indro yadvajrī dhṛṣmāṇo andhasā bhinad valasya paridhiṁriva tritaḥ.

Like streams rushing down to the sea, the defence forces of this warrior hero, Indra, rush to him to join in his celebration by soma, Indra, wielder of the thunderbolt, daring the enemy, who showers the enemy with a rain of arrows and breaks down the threefold defence lines of the enemy three ways, up, down and cross-wise.

Vṛtra, the cloud that holds and confines the vapours of water sleeps in body in the sky. Indra, the sun, strikes the thunderbolt of lightning on the jaws of Vṛtra, a real formidable adversary for the release of the showers of rain. And then the splendour of Indra spreads around, glory of power blazes.

Indra, lord of power and ruler of the world, just as streams of water reach the sea augmenting it, so do all the wealths of the world and all the songs of divine celebration converge to you, centre as well as circumference of existence, and glorify your sublimity. Tvaṣṭa, maker of the forms of existence, designs and creates the thunderbolt of lightning to augment your force of arms to use in battle, and he provides that splendour of valour for you which breaks open the might of Vṛtra, hoarded wealth of nature, for the joy of humanity.

Indra, prosperous lord of noble actions, breaker of the clouds with currents of lightning energy to let the streams of rain showers flow on the earth for humanity, take up the thunderbolt of steel in arms and strike, and rise to the heavens so that all may see the sun in all its glory.

When humanity, stricken with fear of Vritra and drought, raises great, heavenly, beautiful, enlightened and powerful songs of praise and prayer rising to the heavens in honour of Indra, and when the protective forces of nature such as winds and pranic energy fighting for humanity move into action and bring showers of joy from heaven for humanity on earth, then all these forces and humanity rejoice with thanks and praise to Indra.
Indra, lord of power and ruler of the world, when under the inspiration of soma your thunderbolt with terrible force breaks open the peak of Vritra, the cloud overcasting the earth and skies, then with thunder and lightning, the powerful heavens shaking in the operation catalyse and turn the vapours into rain showers.

11. Yadinnvindra prthivī dasabhujirahāni visvā tatananta krṣṭayah. Atrāha te maghavan viśrutam saho dyāmanu śavasā barhaṇā bhuvat.

Indra, lord of power, wealth and glory, if the earth, which is enjoyable with the ten senses, and all the people were to wax in peace and joy all days and nights by virtue of the light of your knowledge and justice and your power of protection and progress, then your fame and splendour on earth would touch the heights of heaven.

Lord of omnipotent force, master of your own essential splendour, you are beyond this world of earth and sky. You create the earth, a symbolic measure of your power, for the sake of life and protection. You pervade the earth, the waters, the regions of bliss and the heavens of light and you are transcendent even beyond.

You are the ultimate measure of the earth and the skies. You are the highest lord and master of the wondrous world of heroes. Having pervaded the world, having measured the spaces and transcended, you are the ultimate truth of eternal reality. No one is like you, none in image, symbol or measure, none, nothing.

The heaven and earth approach not His infinite expanse. Nor do the oceans of waters and spaces find the end of His universe of glory. Nor can any one rival the power and passion of the generosity of this warrior against Vritra, the demon of darkness and drought, in matters of the joy of living. Nor has He Himself, sole Lord as He is, created any one else, or any other world, like Himself or like the world He has created.
15. Ārcannaṭra marutaḥ sasminnājau viśve devāsop amadannanu tvā. Vṛtrasya yad bhṛṣṭimataḥ vadhe-na ni tvamindra pratyānām jaghantha.

Indra, lord of universal power, when you strike on the jaws of Vritra with the fatal thunderbolt of dazzling force in all the battles against darkness and drought, then the Maruts, high-priests of nature and humanity, sing hymns of praise for you, and all the divinities of nature and humanity rejoice with you.

Mandala 1/Sukta 53

Indra Devata, Angirasa Savya Rshi

In this great yajnic house of Vivasvan, lord of light, we raise our voice of celebrations in honour of Indra, lord of power and action, for the sake of honour and prosperity. Rarely is the jewel obtained by the lazy loons asleep. And slander finds no favour among the givers of wealth.
2. Duro aśvasya dura indra gorasi duro yavasya vasuna inaspatiḥ. Śikṣānaraḥ pradivo akāma-karśanaḥ sakhaḥ sakhibhyastamidaṁ grṇīmasi.

Indra, lord of knowledge, wealth and power, you are the gateway to speed and fast advancement. You are the giver of divine speech and wealth of cows, earth and prosperity of life. You are the treasure house of food and energy. You are the lord giver of wealth and splendour. You are the leading light of education and scholarship. You are the refulgent lord of light. You are the chastiser of the lazy, an inspiration for the ambitious. And you are the friend of friends. Such is Indra whom we praise and celebrate in song.

Indra, lord of power and glory, lord of wisdom, Word, and action, versatile giver of success and victory, most brilliant and omniscient, the wealth all round is yours, you know. Therefore, O lord of victory, take that up and bear it along to bless us. Neglect not the desire and ambition of your celebrant, discount him not.

Indra, lord of power and glory, pleased at heart, with these lights of knowledge and these streams of soma, preventing our want and poverty of wealth and knowledge, bless us with cows and horses, gifts of divine speech, lands and wealth of mind and wisdom, and speedy movement in progress, so that, subduing the evil and wicked enemies, and free from the jealous and hateful, we may enjoy and live happily with plenty of food and energy and joyous drinks of soma in a state of power and prosperity.

5. Samindra rāyā samiśā rabhemahi Sam vājebhiḥ puruścandrairabhidyubhiḥ. Saṁ devyā pramatyā víraśuṣmayā go agrayāśvāvatyā rabhemahi.

Indra, lord of knowledge and power, honour and prosperity, let us begin well, advance, succeed and celebrate with noble wealth and power, food and energy, knowledge and speed, universal beauty and joy and the light of brilliance. Let us advance and enjoy with divine wisdom, forceful arms of the brave, prime lands and cows and sophisticated intelligence, and all this at the top speed of advancement.

Lord of truth and protector of the people of truth and piety, when in the battles against Vritra, demon of darkness and evil, for the defence of the hero of yajnic action you resolutely overthrow tens of thousands of the forces of darkness, then those joyous and generous fighters and lovers of soma celebrate the victories with you.

With the courage and arms of a mighty warrior you go forward, engage the enemy and with your valour and splendour destroy the hostile fort yonder. With your friends and disciplined warriors, in the far off country, you uproot the guileful adversary who, otherwise is a constant challenge and terror to humanity.

By your ardour and brilliance you destroy the man who troubles the pious, who steals others’ money and property, and who waylays the travellers and prevents hospitality. By your own strength you rout a hundred strongholds of the purveyors of poison and exploitation and you protect the good creations and productions of people by disciplined expert masters of management.

Indra, mighty sovereign, far and wide is your fame. Twenty are these rulers of the republics in need of help and they too are of noble fame, come here for protection. Sixty thousand ninety-nine are their people. Save them from violence and loss of freedom with the strong chariot wheel of your sovereignty.

Indra, lord of power and force of divinity, with your modes of protection and your modes of sustenance you cover and protect the man of noble fame and fast motion and, with your power of fulfilment and prosperity, you grant good health and full age, love of hospitality and the mighty thunderbolt of arms and justice to this great and youthful ruler commanding honour and brilliance.
11. Ya udrčindra devagopāḥ sakṣāyaste śivatamā asāma. Tvāṁ stoṣāma tvayā suvīrā drāghīya āyuḥ prataram dadhānāḥ.

Indra, lord omnipotent of the world, dedicated as we are to the light of the Rks, we are protected by the divinities. All friends of yours, we pray, may we be at perfect peace in holy comfort and sing in praise of your glory. And by your grace, may we be blest with noble children and live a long, full and happy life.

Mandala 1/Sukta 54

Indra Devata, Angirasa Savya Rshi

1. Mā no asmin maghavan prātvamhasi nahi te antaḥ śavasaḥ parīṇaše. Akrandayo nadyoṣ roruvaḍ vanā kathā na kṣoṇīrbhiyasā samārata.

Indra, lord of the universe and the wealth and grandeur of life, let us not be boggled in sin and conflicts of the world. You make the rivers roar, streams to flow and the springs to sing in praise. Shake us not with fear. Why shouldn’t the earth and her children, then, attain to you?

Offer homage to Indra, lord of strength, power, knowledge and wisdom. Sing songs of praise glorifying the Lord who, with His mighty strength and power of knowledge and wisdom, creates both heaven and earth and the sky, and with the same strength and generosity showers His blessings on us.

3. Arcā dive brhataḥ śūṣyaṁ vacaḥ svakṣatram yasya dhṛṣtaḥ dhṛṣanmanah. Brhacchravā asuro barhaṇā kṛtaḥ puro hariṣybāṁ vrṣabho ratho hi ṣaḥ.

Offer resounding words of strength and creative imagination in honour of Indra, great lord of light and grandeur. Great is the sovereign republic of the lord of awful power, awful in his mind capable of wondrous acts of wisdom. The lord is a good listener and giver of vital energy and fresh life, and subduer of enemies. He rides and rushes forward in a chariot drawn by the winds and sunbeams.
From the great regions of light, feeling passionate and indignant, you strike the top of the cloud and break it with the shattering thunderbolt of sunbeams. Similarly, righteously and conscientiously feeling passionate and indignant, with your formidable actions, subduing the forces of the wicked and guileful powers, you raise an army to fight for light and justice.

Just as the sun strikes the thunderbolt of sunbeams on top of the cloud which holds the life-giving waters but deprives the earth of rain, so you, striking the thunderbolt on the head of the living rich but hoarding wicked powers of society, with your ancient and advancing powers of knowledge, make them cry even to-day. Since you were earlier, and now you are, the hero of action, who can be superior enough to act against you? No one.

6. \( T\text{vam} \text{avitha narya} \text{n turva} \text{sa} \text{m yadu} \text{m tva} \text{m tur} \text{v} \text{ita} \text{m vaya} \text{ma} \text{ satakrato. \)

Indra, lord and hero of a hundred noble actions, you protect the good among humanity, the best of them, the industrious, who destroys the evil and who knows.

Now that the battle is on and almost won for success and prosperity, protect the tempestuous chariot of advance and progress and break down the ninety nine forts of the enemies of humanity.

He surely is the king, the man, who protects the good and the true, who knows, enlightens and advances, who liberally offers in yajna and himself commands reverence, who advances every unit of the human order and himself advances in response, who chants the hymns in honour of Divinity, who is rich and liberal in prosperity and bright in law and justice, and a liberal giver over all else. For such a man as this, the higher powers from above shower rains of grace in generosity.

Asamaṁ kṣatram asamā maniṣā pra somapā apasā santu neme. Ye ta indra daduṣo vardhayanti Indra, unique is your order of governance. Your intelligence and imagination is unique. May all the citizens, lovers of soma as they are, prosper by their karma who, generous and giving, advance your great strength and system, stability and generosity.

9. Tubhyedete bahulā adridugdhāścamūṣadāścamasā indrapānāḥ. Vyaśnuhi tarpayā kāmaineṣāmathā mano vasudeyāya kṛṣva.

Indra, lord of power and governance, for your service are these many warrior heroes, overflowing with generosity like the clouds, strong as adamant, formidable in battle and embodiments of national genius fit for service and sacrifice for the honour and glory of the nation. Accept these, grant them the desire and ambition they have, and make up your mind and resolve for the growth of honour, prosperity and generosity.

10. Apām atiṣṭhad dharuṇahvaram tamo’ntarvyutra-sya jaṭhāreṣu parvataḥ. Abhīmindro nadyo vavriṇā hitā viśvā anuṣṭhāḥ pravaṇeṣu jighnate.

The darkest dark mountainous body of vapours stays enclosed in the depths of Vritra, the dense cloud. Indra, lord of light and lightning energy, releases the waters in the form of all the streams earlier withheld by Vritra and makes them flow in their usual course.
11. Sa śevṛdhamadhi dhā dyumnamasme mahi kṣatraṁ janāśālindra tavyam. Rakṣā ca no maghonaḥ pāhi sūrīn rāye ca naḥ svapatyā iface dhāḥ.

Indra, lord of power and glory, friend and protector of the people, bring us the most felicitous honour, rule over the great republic, protect us, advance us to power and fame, support the wise, let us march to plenty of food and energy, and wealth and prosperity for our noble generations to follow.

The splendour of this Indra, lord of rule and light, extends to the lights of heaven. The earth too cannot rival his greatness with all its expanse. Lord of strength and power, he is fearsome for the enemies, warm for the good, and hot and blazing for others. He radiates light for the dark and strikes the thunderbolt into the hoarded waters of Vritra and walks around as the leader among people as leader of the flock.

This ocean, this sun, this ruler, mighty warrior and protector rises in strength with his glory since time immemorial.

Just like that cloud of rain, you rule and govern the great wealth and the rules and laws for the enjoyment and well-being of life on earth and shine. Thus mighty and blazing by your own power and splendour, leader in front of all noble action, you are celebrated as a very

Celebrated is Indra, far and wide in town and forest and in distant lands, by his admirers in worship and reverence, lord and bold as he is, expressing his knowledge and power among people gracefully. Generous he is, joyous and free, full of blessings for those who are keen to learn and earn the wealth of life.
And generous of knowledge, power and protection, glorious all round, he commands the voice of praise and appreciation everywhere.

5. Sa inmahāni samithāni majmanā kṛṇoti yudhma

Great warrior as he is, fighting with the brilliance of his knowledge, wealth and power against ignorance, injustice and poverty, he wins great battles for the people. He strikes the thunderbolt against evil, wickedness and hoarding for the glory of the order, and then the people vest full faith in him, lord of splendour and majesty as he is.

He, ruling lord of power, hero of noble actions, keen to hear the Shastras for knowledge and food for the soul, developing projects of growth and progress, growing stronger and stronger by the earth, destroying evil and wickedness with his valour and splendour, creating the lights of art, science, beauty and culture, rendering the homes and highways free from danger and highway men, should set the wheels of humanity in motion and keep the waters flowing abundantly for the yajamana and the yajnic nation.

Indra, lord creator of soma and lover of the drink of joy, may your heart and mind concentrate on giving. Lord of fame commanding admiration and reverence, direct your dynamic and magnetic forces this way for progress and stability. May your charioteers, leaders and guides of the nation, be experts on the steering wheel and in the direction of Dharma. Realise your noble and brilliant intentions. May no enemies be able to injure and suppress or terrorize you.

8. Apraksitam vasu bibharshi hastayorasaḥhaṁ sahastanvi śruto dadhe. Āvrtaśo'vatāso na kartṛbhistanuṣu te kratava indra bhūrayaḥ.

Indra, indestructible wealths you hold in your hands, and formidable strength in your body. Lord of fame and good listening ear, innumerable yajnic actions of dedication are internalised by your admirers in their mind and body like precious jewels enveloped in beauty, the same I hold and cherish.

Mandala 1/Sukta 56

Indra Devata, Angirasa Savya Rshi

1. Eśa pra pūrvirava tasya camriśo ‘tyo na yośāmu-dayamsta bhurvaṇīḥ. Dakṣam mahe pāyayate hiranyayaṁ rathamāvṛtyā hariyogamṛbhvasam.

This Indra, lord protector of the land, advances to meet, guide and protect his people just as the smartest young man advances and wins the hand of his lady love. And, holding them as sacred libations in the ladle for offering into the yajna fire, he ascends the excellent, golden chariot prepared by experts and driven by the fastest fuel power, and advances to protect the glory of the Lord of humanity for them.

Just as the streams flow to join the sea in common and waters glide round the mountain, so hosts of admirers, loving and loved and eager to join Indra, lord and protector of the mighty and versatile order of humanity, rise and, with their strength and splendour, augment his power and majesty deep as the ocean and high as a mountain peak.

He, Indra, blessed and blissful, great, inviolable, shines in his bloom of youth like the peak of a mountain with the force and brilliance of his knowledge and power, by which he, formidable hero of the armour of steel, delights and rules a strong and enlightened nation in a state of joy and self-restraint in all situations of existence.

If a generous and brilliant beauty were to come and join Indra, a brilliant young man of culture, education and universal values of Dharma, join him as life partner and inspire him to advance for the safety, security and progress of society, then, just as the sun having joined the wonderful dawn, dispels the world enveloping darkness with his blazing splendour so would Indra dispel the darkness and suffering of humanity with his power and splendour.

5. Vi yat tiro dhūruṇamacyutaṁ rajo’tiṣṭhipo diva ātāsu barhaṇā. Svarmīḷhe yanmada indra harṣyāhan vṛtraṁ nirapāmaubjo arṇavam.

Mighty is Indra, blazing in splendour and rejoicing in the light of heaven. In the vast spaces of the universe, he wields and sustains indestructible life supports such as earths and skies. He catalyses the vapours of water held in the depths of space, breaks the clouds, and in the mood of power, glory and joy makes them shower the rains on the earth, thereby forming the ocean.
6. Tvāṁ dīvo dharuṇāṁ dhiṣa ojasā prthivyā indra sadaneṣu māhināḥ. Tvāṁ sutasya made ariṇā apo vi vṛtrasya samayā pāṣyārujaḥ.

Indra, with your splendour of omnipotence you wield the sustaining powers of heaven and earth. You are all great and glorious in the halls and homes of the earth. With your power of catalysis you break the clouds and release the waters by the season, and then in celebrations of soma yajna you bless the devotees with joy.

Indra Devata, Angirasa Savya Rshi

1. Pra maṇhiṣṭhāya bṛhate bṛhadraye satyaśu-ṣmāya tavase matim bhare. Apāmiva pravaṇe yasya durdharam rādho viśvāyu śavase apāvṛtam.

To the most generous lord of the world, Indra, great, awfully wealthy, truly fragrant blissful, and mighty strong, I offer my homage of faith and celebration whose universal gift of wealth, knowledge and efficiency of karma, released and open to all for strength and enlightenment, flows freely like streams of water rushing down to the sea.

Just as the golden glorious thunderbolt of Indra struck at the cloud reaches to the heart of the vapours and the treasure streams of water flow down to the sea, so may the fruits of the holy works of yajnic people and the wealth of the world flow to you like streams of water for your fulfilment and freedom. (The ruler is the nation’s centre and chief yajamana of the nation’s yajnic activity.)

3. Asmai bhīmāya namasā samadhvara uṣo na śubhra ā bharā panīyase. Yasya dhāma śravase nāmendriyaṁ jyotirakāri harito nāyase.

O man of knowledge, come to the auspicious yajna like the glorious dawn bearing gifts of food power and energy for this awful lord of majesty and charity, whose house, famous for gold and chant of the Word, emanates the light and power of science and knowledge as the spaces in the morning reflect the light and glory of the dawn.
4. Ime ta indra te vayaṁ puruṣṭuta ye tvārabhyā carāmāsi prabhūvaso. Nahi tvadanyo girvāṇo girah sahath kṣoṇiriva prati no harya tad vacaḥ.

These are yours, Indra, We are yours, lord praised and celebrated by all. Beginning with you we go about the business of living, lord of existence and shelter of life. Other than you there is no one else, lord of holy Word, who would listen to our prayer. Hear our prayer as the voice of earth and humanity and respond with grace.

5. Bhūri ta indra vīryaṁ tava smasyasya stoturma-ghavan kāmamā prṇa. Anu te dyaurbṛhati vīryaṁ mama iyaṁ ca te pṛthivī nema ojase.

Great is your power and splendour, Indra. We are yours, under your law and shelter. Lord of glory, listen to this devotee and grant his prayer. The vast heaven acknowledges and celebrates your power and glory. This earth too does homage to your might and grandeur.

6. Tvāṁ tamindra parvataṁ mahāmuruni vajreṇa vajrīnparvaśaścakartitha. Avāsṛjo nivrṭāḥ sartavā apaḥ satrā viśvāṁ dadhiṣe kevalaṁ sahaḥ.

Indra, lord of the thunderbolt, you break that mountainous cloud of vast dimensions part by part with the thunderbolt of lightning energy. You release the held up waters for downward flow in the streams. Eternal and absolute lord of omnipotence, you alone wield and sustain the universe and universal energy.

Mandala 1/Sukta 58
Agni Devata, Nodha Gautama Rshi

1. Nū cit sahojā amṛto ni tundate hotā yad dūto abhavad vivasvataḥ. Vi sādhiṣṭhebhiḥ pathibhī dajo mama ā devatātā haviṣā vivāsati.

Agni, surely born of strength and omnipotence, and immortal, never hurts. Giver and receiver of oblations, it is the carrier of yajna and inspirations of the Divine. Coexistent with other powers of nature, it traverses the paths of spaces from earth to heavens.
Divine among divinities, when it is fed on holy offerings, it shines itself and shines others with light.

2. Ā svamadma yuvamāno ajarastraśvavisyannantaseṣu tiṣṭhati. Atya na prṣṭhaṁ pruṣitasya rocate divo na sānu stanaya-ṇnacikradat.

Unaging and immortal, instantly consuming its food, it protects the environment and abides in the winds and the vast skies. Like a courser on the wings, it flies and shines on top when it is sprinkled with ghrta, and as on the peak of heaven, it thunders as lightning.

3. Krāṇā rudrebhirvasubhiḥ purohito hotā niśatto rayiṣālamartyah. Ratho na vikṣyṛṇjasāna āyuṣu vyānuṣagvāryā deva ṛṇvati.

Immortal agent of nature’s karma, living and acting with pranic energies and the abodes and supports of life, it is the high priest of cosmic yajna both offering and receiving the oblations in the dynamics of existence, and it is the treasure source of wealth. Beautiful and moving like a chariot, mixing with people, it integrates with life and age and, brilliant and generous, it creates and provides the choicest gifts of life.

4. Vi vātajūto ataseṣu tiṣṭhate vṛthā juhūbhiḥ sṛṇyā tuviṣvanīḥ. Trṣu yadagne vanino vrṣāyase kṛṣṇaṁ ta ema ruṣadūrme ajara.

Impelled by Vayu, Agni abides in its natural abodes, in wind and air and in its own flames, moving on loud and bold by its yajnic actions. Agni, unaging and ever young, refulgent with your own light, since you instantly shower the supplicants with favours, may we, we pray, share your love and protection.
5. Tapurjambho vana ā vātacodito yūthe na sāhvāṇa ava vāti vaiṁsagah. Abhivrajannakṣitaṁ pājasā rajaḥ sthātuścaratham bhayate patatṛṇaḥ.

Voracious power of the jaws of flame, enveloped in the rays of its own light, inspired by the energy of Vayu, it moves around bold and fearless like a bull in the herd of cows in the forest far and near. It moves across the moving and undecaying world of earth and sky up and down with its force, and the world feels afraid of it whether it stays or flies like a bird.

Agni, eminent scholars of science among humanity hold and install you as precious wealth for the people, Agni, divine yajnic power, welcome as a cherished visitor, worthy of choice, deserving of hospitality like a dear friend, bliss incarnate. They install you so that you kindle, rise and blaze like a divinity of heaven.

Intelligent men of knowledge and divine speech offer to invoke Agni, as generous yajnic power of seven beautiful tongues of flame, worthiest of adoration in yajna. That same power, a very jewel, giver of all wealths of the world, which they invoke in yajna, I too serve and attain.

Agni, child of omnipotence, greatest friend most adorable, give us today, your devotees, perfect peace and comfort of a happy home, energy and power of the world. Save the devotee and admirer from sin and perfect him with the strength of steel and beauties of gold.

Agni, lord of light and brilliance you are, be a very home for the admirer. Lord of wealth and honour, be the very light and honour for the men of wealth and power. Save the devotee from sin and crime with protection from within and without. Agni, you are the lord of intelligence, wealth and knowledge, come post-haste in the morning and bless me.
Mandala 1/Sukta 59

Agni-Vaishvanara Devata, Nodha Gautama Rshi

वया इदायेन अग्नयास्त अन्य त्व विश्व अमृतां मादयान्त ।
वध्वार्तर नार्त्तिसि गितीनां स्थूलां जनां उपमिद्य-यन्त्र ॥ १ ॥

1. \textit{Vayā idagne agnyayaste anye tve viśve amṛtā mādayante. Vaiśvānara nābhīrasi kṣītīnāṁ sthūṇeva janāṁ upam id yayantha.}

Agni, light and life of the universe, other agnis, lights, fires and vitalities are reflective branches of you only. All the immortals of the world, devas, jivas and lights such as the sun rejoice in you. Vaishvanara, vitality and leading light of the earthly worlds, you are the navel, centre-hold of the earths and the people, and, like the pillar of a house or the hub of the wheel of existence, you hold the people in the law of Dharma and keep them in their orbit.

2. \textit{Mūrdhā divo nābhīragṇiḥ pṛthivyā athābha- vadaratī rodasyoh. Tain tvā devāso’janayanta devam vaiśvānara jyotiridāryāya.}

Agni is the top of heaven and the centre hold of the earth, and it is the ruler of the earths, the skies and the heavens all. Vaishvanara, leading light of the universe, such as you are, the brilliances of nature such as sun and moon reveal your presence and the nobilities of humanity celebrate you as light of the Word and life of the world for the good and the pious.

Just as the sun-rays abide in the sun, so do the stars and planets and the Vasus, abodes of life, abide in Vaishvanara Agni, self-existent power and force of the universe. Lord supreme, whatever wealth and vitality is there in mountains, herbs, waters and humanity, you are the ruler and ordainer of it all.

4. Brhaṭiiva sūnave rodasī giro hotā manuṣyo na dakṣah. Svarvate satyaśuṣmāya pūrvirvaiśvānavarāya nṛtamāya yahvih.

Just as the wide and expansive heaven and earth honour and serve the sun, source of light and inspiration, so should the hota, the yajaka, like an expert man of yajna, offer great, eternal and divine hymns of praise in honour of Vaishvanara, life universal, self-existent, ever truly powerful and the best friend of humanity.

Vaishvanara, lord omniscient and omnipresent life and leader of the universe, your greatness and majesty exceeds the light and grandeur of the heavens. You are the lord ruler of the classes of humanity, and with your warlike exploits create treasures of wealth for the divinities of nature and humanity.

Spontaneously I celebrate the greatness and grandeur of the mighty and generous Vaishvanara Agni, Lord Omnipotent and Omnipresent, whom all people of the world seek and worship. Lord of light, breaker of the cloud, dispeller of darkness and destroyer of the wicked, He shakes the quarters of space and terrifies the demons of evil.

7. Vaiśvānaro mahimnā viśvāṇirbharadvājeṣu yajato vibhāvā. Śatavanaye śatīnībhiragnih puru-ṇīthe jarate sūnṛtāvān.

Vaishvanara, lord pervasive and leader of the world of existence, is the lord of world humanity by virtue of His might and grandeur. Among the sources of life sustenance such as earth and showers of rain, He is the light and glory of the man of yajna. Lord of the reality of existence and the word of truth, in the world of hundredfold splendour, Agni is praised and worshipped in a hundred manners in choric songs by the celebrants.

Agni Devata, Gautama Nodha Rshi

Matarishva, Vayu energy existent in space and operative in wind and electricity, bears Agni, carrier of oblations, mark of fame and honour, honour flag of the yajna of the world, worthy of preservation and advancement, instant mover and messenger, always valuable, twice born of Heaven and Vayu for earth and the skies. Vayu bears it like a real celebrity and beauty and generous giver in life and conducts it to Bhrgu, scientist and technologist, for heat treatment from cooking to tempering of sophisticated materials. (The Bhrgu collects and develops the fire.)

Ordinary people and men of means both, who are ambitious for noble yajnic acts, abide by the law and order of this ruler of truth and justice. Giver as well as receiver of the gifts of yajna, man of discriminate wisdom, protector of the people, intelligent and highly knowledgeable, he takes his place among the people like the sun before the rise of day.

Ordinary people and men of means both, who are ambitious for noble yajnic acts, abide by the law and order of this ruler of truth and justice. Giver as well as receiver of the gifts of yajna, man of discriminate wisdom, protector of the people, intelligent and highly knowledgeable, he takes his place among the people like the sun before the rise of day.

self-control, keeper and protector of the home, creator and protector of wealth, such a person shines as fire on top and commands the nation.

5. Taṁ tvā vayaṁ patimagne rayināṁ praśamsāmo matibhirgotamāsah. Āsum na vājambharam marjayantah prātarmakṣū dhiyāvasurjagamyāt.

Agni, lord of light and leader, Agni, lord creator and protector of the wealth of nations, instant in action, commanding speed and prosperity, we, men of the Divine Word, with all our mind and intelligence, with all the saints and the wise, cleansing, sanctifying and anointing you as leader, praise and celebrate you, and we pray that the lord of wealth and intelligence may come post-haste and bless us in the early morning.

Mandala 1/Sukta 61

Indra Devata, Gautama Nodha Rshi

In honour of this lord Indra, mighty power, great leader, holy celebrity and commander of the brave, informidable to the enemies, I offer an excellent song of praise in adoration and holiest offerings of the most spontaneous and liberal homage.
You offer to this Indra, lord of life and power, libations of homage and reverence like gifts of dainty food. So do I bear and offer to him songs of praise well-structured and formulaic modes of defence and protection against the enemies of humanity. Come ye all, cleanse your mind honestly by heart, mind and soul for Indra, ancient and eternal lord of life and light, and serve him.

For the sake of the advancement of Agni, the ruler, and of the people of knowledge and wisdom, I speak noble and powerfully persuasive words in support of this exemplary, generous, revered and magnanimous hero, a great man of wisdom and piety of conduct.
For this Indra, ruling lord of knowledge and power, master promoter of divine speech and veteran of wisdom, I create and float a song of praise of universal and persuasive purport and use words of discriminating wisdom to strengthen his power and control over the land and people just as an engineer creates a strong structure for the chassis of the master’s chariot.

वीरं द्वाराभिर्म बुन्दध्यायुरं गूर्तश्रवसं दुर्माणम। ॥ ५ ॥

As a driver yokes the horse to the master’s chariot to drive him on, so, in honour of Indra and in order to celebrate and exalt him, the brave hero as he is, treasure home of charity and destroyer of enemy strongholds, whose fame rings far and wide, I compose a song in my own words and offer it as a libation to him with my own ladle in homage.

�स्मा इदु त्वाश्च त गुर्णं स्वपस्तमं स्वर्यं रणाणं।
वृत्रस्य चित्रद्यान् मम तुज गिर्षानस्तुजता किष्यथा: ॥ ६ ॥

6. Asmā idu tvāṣṭā takṣad vajram svapastamaṁ svaryam raṇāya. Vṛtrasya cid vidad yena marma tujannīśānastujatā kiyedhāḥ.

Let Tvashta, the Maker, design and form for this Indra, ruling Lord of power and defence, the thunderbolt of lightning force blazing for the battle so that he (Indra), striking with this fatal weapon, taking many enemies on, may reach the mortal centrepot of Vritra, the cloud of darkness and ignorance (and release the showers of rain and prosperity and the light of knowledge).

In the yajnic programmes of this Indra, lord of rule and power who measures everything to size, Vishnu, the great sun pervading everything with its light, drinks up the delicious holy foods prepared and sent up sanctified from the yajna, and then, challenging the mountainous cloud hoarding up the wealth of the same yajnic foods in the form of vapours, breaks up the cloud and throws it down (releasing the showers of rain).

For this Indra, blazing as the sun with light and grandeur, holy voices served and preserved by noble sages and scholars composed hymns of praise and offered homage to Indra on the break up of the cloud. Indra holds both the vast heaven and earth, but these two do not comprehend his grandeur and greatness (which exceeds heaven and earth both).

Surely the greatness and grandeur of this Indra exceeds the heaven, skies and earth. The self-refulgent hero, universal warrior, brilliant and brave, infinitely strong and bold, resounds in the universe for battle against evil and negation.

O lord of power and law, with the strength and rectitude of this Indra, the universal force of Divinity uproots the exploitative forces, just as the sun breaks down the cloud which holds up the rain and scorches the earth. And just as held up cows are released from the stalls, so the ruler releases the streams of life on the earth, enlightened hero as he is, who releases food and justice for the powers of generosity.
By the might and splendour of this Indra, the rivers flow and seas roll at will since he gives the blow (to Vritra and releases the waters below). Ruler, controller, and giver of power and honour, instantly victorious, giving liberally to the generous, he creates firm standing ground for the speedy success of generosity all round.

Indra, ruling lord of manifold power, fast and impetuous, wields the thunderbolt of sunrays for this Vritra, cloud of vapours and darkness, and releasing the waters for the streams to flow on earth, breaks the layers of vapours with the thunderbolt as lightning breaks things into pieces bit by bit.

Sing and celebrate the old and new exploits of this fast and powerful Indra in songs of praise, Indra who, passionate and tempestuous, updating and wielding the weapons for battle, strikes and destroys the enemies.

By the power and holy fear of this omnipotent Indra, the mountains stay firm and fixed, and the heaven and earth and the people shake with awe. The leader, abiding in the protective shade of this intelligent and handsome power and chanting words of praise immediately rises and grows capable of great action.

Indra, sole one lord of himself is the absolute ruler of many. Whatever he wills of these and commands, the same is rendered in reverence and obedience. And Indra himself advances and protects the hero of power and honour who, fighting for victory in the battle of horse, spurs on his steed in the direction of the sun.
Indra, O Lord of sunbeams, these are the songs divine, purest and serene, offered by the highest souls of faith and vision. Bless these souls with universal brilliance of vision and intelligence, lord omniscient. Lord Omnificent, reveal your presence in our mind instantly with the light of the dawn.

Indra Devata, Nodha Gautama Rshi

With selected words of purity and pious deeds we offer songs of adoration to Indra, lord omnipotent, poet of Divine omniscience, universal object of worship, celebrated in the Rgveda, sole guide of humanity and celebrated in story all over the world, and we pray for strength and knowledge as for the very breath of life.

All ye men and women of the world, bear and offer to Indra, great lord of strength and power, celebrative songs of adoration and holy offerings in Samans and hymns of knowledge and enlightenment, by virtue of which our ancient forefathers, who knew the life stages of Dharma, Artha, Kama and Moksha and who were scholars of divine knowledge and worshippers of the Lord, received the gift of holy speech and universal knowledge.

3. \textit{Indrasyāṅgirasāṁ ceṣṭau vidat saramā tanayāya dhāsim. Brhaspatirbhinadadrim vidad gāḥ samusriyābhirvāvaśanta naraḥ.}

Just as a mother gives milk to the child, as Brihaspati, the sun, breaks the cloud with its rays and the light reaches the earth, so you, men and women of the world, in the yajna of Indra and the yajnic programmes of the scholars of science and society, shining and advancing like sun-rays, spread the light of knowledge and the joy of life.

4. \textit{Sa suṣṭubhā sa stubhā sapta vipraṅādṛim svariyo navagvaiḥ. Saranyubhiḥ phaligamindra šakra valaṁ ravaṇa darayo daśagvaiḥ.}

Just as the bright sun breaks the powerful clouds with its fresh, all embracing, all expansive, sustaining and sustained but resounding rays of light, similarly Indra, powerful ruler of the world, shining and resounding, with balanced and all-sustaining order, seven orders of the wise, his rolling voice, new and all expansive radiating powers and burning and roaring weapons, breaks down the thick and powerful clouds of darkness which hoard the system’s life and progress.

5. ग्र्नाना अंगिरोभिरदस्मा वि वरुषसा सूर्येना गोभिरंधनः।
वि भूमया अपथ्रय इन्द्र सानु दिवा रजू उपरमस्तभाय॥ ५ ॥

Indra, lord of wondrous deeds, proclaiming his power and presence by the pranic energies of nature, the dawn, the sun and the sun-rays, dispels the darkness and creates the food for life and growth. He expands the earth and the hills and mountains of the earth and stabilizes the heights of the skies and the heavens.

So should the ruler proclaim his power and presence dispelling the darkness of ignorance, injustice and poverty, create food and prosperity and thereby expand the character, power and potential of the land and stabilize the common wealth of humanity.

6. तदु पर्यं तत्मस्य कर्मु दुस्मस्य चारुतमस्तिः दंसे।
उपहर यदुर्फ़रा अर्पिन्यन्मध्व्रण्या नद्याः रचतस्तस्र॥ ६ ॥

The most charming act and the most admirable achievement of this lord Indra of wondrous deeds is that in the business of life on the earth all the streams and rivers and all the four directions of space are full and abundant with delicious waters and flow for all the people freely.

7. Dvītā vi vavre sanajā saṇīle ayāsyah stavamā-nebhirarkaiḥ. Bhago na mene parame vyomannadhārayad rodasī sudairāsāḥ.

Indra, valiant lord of infinite action, concealed and held and then revealed a duality of creation, two complementarities, both born of the same mother, Prakṛti, and both coexistent and cooperative, both held by waves of energy (light and dark), both doing homage to the lord creator. He, Bhaga, lord of existence and master of materials, held the two in space as two co-workers, complementary like the sun holding heaven and earth and the skies in eternal space.

8. Sanād divam pari bhūmā virūpe punarbhuvā yuvaṭi svebhirevaiḥ. Kṛṣṇebhiraktoṣā ruṣadbhirvapurbhirā carato anyānyā.

Since time immemorial, from the same eternal cause, co-existent and cooperative from heaven to earth, the two complementarities of distinctive forms, night and day, both ever young and born again and again, move on and on by their own path together yet separately, the night in the forms of darkness and the day in the forms of light. Both move in and on serving the heaven and earth.
9. Sanemi sakhyam svapasyamānāḥ sūnurdādhāra śavasā sudāṃsāḥ. Āmāsu cid dadhiṣe pakvamantaḥ payāḥ kṛṣṇāsu ruṣad rohiṇīṣu.

Lord of the thunderbolt, eternal creator, master of wondrous actions, beatific in performance by his own might holds and maintains equality of company and cooperation between the light and the dark, raw and ripe, just as he holds the same herbal juice in the mature as well as the maturing vegetation and the same white milk in the white, dark and ruddy cows.

10. Sanāt sanīlā avanīravatā vratā rakṣante amṛtāḥ sahobhiḥ. Purū sahasrā janayo na patnīrduva- syanti svasāro ahrayāṇam.

Since time immemorial, born of the same cause, Prakṛti, coexistent and cooperative, thousands of earths immortal in their own nature, undisturbed even by a breath of wind, observe the eternal laws of their existence with their innate powers. And as mothers nourish their child, wives love and serve their husbands, and sisters love and cooperate with their brothers, they do homage to the bold and intrepid Indra.

Indra, lord adorable of wondrous action, bright and generous, people of intelligence, faith and meditation, desirous of wealth and food for the body, mind and soul, lovers of yajna, rush to you offering gifts of homage with hymns of praise and prayer as loving wives in passion approach the loving husbands and feel immortalised by the beatific touch of your presence.

Since eternity, O lord of infinite light and generosity, the wealths in your open hand never decrease, never will they exhaust. You are the lord supreme of light and knowledge. You are the lord of omnipotence. You are the master of the dynamics of existence. You are calm and constant. You are the lord of kindness, favour and grace. Enlighten us with the light of knowledge. Bless us with your favours and grace.

Indra, lord of omnipotence and infinite action, lord omnipresent of infinite motion, since eternity you are ever present just at hand. Nodha, the poet of constant adoration, Gotama, spirit of fastest thought and imagination, creates the latest songs of celebration in honour of you, lord of universal light and humanity, lord giver of infinite freedom and joy. May the lord of eternal wealth and joy, may the spirit of eternal vision and imagination be with us upon the instant with the light of the dawn.

Indra Devata, Gautama Nodha Rshi

1. \( \text{Tva} \text{m mahā} \text{n indra yo ha} \text{ śu} \text{smaīrdyāvā} \text{ jajñānah} \text{ pṛthivī ame dhāh. Yaddha te viśvā girayaści-} \text{dabhvā bhiyā drīlhasaḥ kiranā naijan.} \)

Indra, lord omnipresent, great you are indeed who, manifest in creation, hold the heaven and earth in your power and law of omnipotence. It is by that eternal power and awe that all the mighty mountains and the impetuous rays of light do not deviate from their fixed course.

2. \( \text{Ā yaddharī indra vivratā verā te vajraṁ jaritā bāhvordhāt. Yenāviharyatakato amitrān pura iṣṇāsi purūhūta pūrvīḥ.} \)
Indra, lord almighty of immaculate action, universally invoked, when you deploy your forces of movement and advance, observing the rules and discipline of your universal law, your worshippers and admirers too hold in their arms the same thunderbolt of law by which you destroy the many strongholds of the enemies of life and humanity.

3. Tvāṁ satya indra dhṛṣṭṣuretān tvamṛbhuḳṣā naryastvaṁ śāt. Tvāṁ śuṣṭaṁ vṛjane prkṣa āṇau yūne kutsāya dyumate sacāhan.

Indra, you are ever true, constant destroyer of these negativities of life and nature. You are the protector and promoter of the wise artists and scientists. You are the leader and friend of humanity. You are ever patient and forbearing. In the great battles of unity and fulfilment, you eliminate want and drought for the sake of the young generation, bright and brave wielders of the force of the thunderbolt of plenty and righteousness.

4. Tvāṁ ha tyadindra codīḥ sakḥā vytraṁ yad vajrin vṛṣakarmannubhnāḥ. Yaddha śūra vṛṣamaṇaḥ parācairvi dasyūṅryonāvākṛto vythāsāt.

You only, for sure, Indra, are the universal friend, wielder of the thunderbolt, and hero of vast operation who take on the cloud of darkness and want, overthrow the demon of want and darkness and shower the blessings of plenty and fulfilment and who, O brave one, generous at heart, by nature and instinct nip evil and wickedness in the bud itself.

Tvāṁ ha tyadindrārāṣṭyān dṛḍhasya cinmartā-nāmajuṣṭau. Vyasmadā kāṣṭhā arvate varghaneva vajriṁchnathihyamitrān.

Indra, lord of the thunderbolt, you surely are he who is unwilling to injure the strong and firm among humanity and the strong and stable system of the order. Fall like a hammer upon the disagreeables of humanity, fix them, and scatter the unfriendly as the sun scatters the clouds, and open the paths of advancement for progress in all directions.

Tvāṁ ha tyadindrārāṣṭyān dṛḍhasya cinmartā-nāmajuṣṭau. Vyasmadā kāṣṭhā arvate varghaneva vajriṁchnathihyamitrān.

In the tumult of the battles of the brave for victory and the showers of peace and joy, the leaders of humanity call upon you, Indra, to join the strife and win. Lord of innate wealth and power, may this help and protection of yours be available to us in our joint ventures and our battles for food, knowledge, science and social progress.

Indra, lord of the thunderbolt, ruler of the world, fighting seven evils and defending the seven-fold power of the order, you break down the strongholds of sin and crime for the sake of the generous and the many splendoured social order. Uproot the sin and crime like grass and deliver the wealth to the people for the sake of joy and fulfilment and take the order to the heights of the sky. (The sevenfold powers are: the council, councillors, president, army, commander, services and the people.)

यथा शूर पत्यमभ्र्यं यंसि त्मनमूर्त्त न विश्वध गर्ध्यः ८ ॥

Indra, brilliant lord of generosity, ever present and all protective, brave hero, ruler and holder of the world, like the flow of nature’s waters, let that various and wondrous energy, mind and means flow freely for us for the expression and fulfilment of our spiritual self by which you again and again direct and guide the conduct of our soul as well as the psychic flow of our energy.

अकारित इन्दु गात्मभिभवाण्यात्का नर्मसा हरिभ्याम।
सुपर्शासं वाज्मा भरा न: पातम ू धियावसुजज्ञमात। ९ ॥

Indra, lord of the world, by the most eminent sages of vision and intelligence, like fast motions of light rays for the sun, songs of homage have been presented with heart and soul with offerings of faith and reverence and sung for you.

May the same lord of wealth and intelligence come to us and bless us with wondrous wealth of food, light and energy at the break of dawn.

Mandala 1/Sukta 64

Maruts Devata, Gautama Nodha Rshi

Nodha, poet of vision and wisdom, come and sing a song of celebration in selected words of pure beauty for the generous, mighty and omniscient lord of universal yajna and in honour of the Maruts, divine energies of universal motion. Settled and constant, pure and fluent as waters, dexterous of hand in structure and form, with heart and soul I compose, adorn and chant holy voices revealed in meditation, presenting themselves as celebrants of the Lord.
2. Te jañīre diva ṛṣvāsa ukṣaṇo rudrasya maryā asurā arepasah. Pāvakāsaḥ śucayaḥ sūryā iva satvāno na drapsino ghoravarpasah.

Those Maruts, waves of winds, children of the light of heaven, reveal the light of knowledge. Friends of humanity, they are the breath of Rudra, cosmic energy of prana, generous, inspiring, pure and unpolluted, pure and purifying, brilliant as sunbeams, replete with vitality, carrying particles of living energy, they are awful and sublime in form.

Fresh, powerful and ever young, dynamic catalytic energies, unaging, free from suffering and death, they grow and augment. Unseen and irresistible in motion, strong and steady as mountains, with their power and force they move everything on earth and in heaven and all the worlds in existence.

In various colourful shapes they manifest and define themselves in beautiful forms of nature. They activate the heat and light of vitality in the body system. Their dynamic powers shine in the athletic shoulders of their favourite heroes. Life of heroic people, they arise and shine with their innate light and power from heaven itself.

Creators and makers of ruling powers on earth, they are the movers and shakers of things and people. Destroyers of the destroyers, they generate winds and lightning with their blazing splendour. They distil the essence of energy from the celestial sources of nature and, vibrating every particle of matter and energy, they feed the earth with the nectar of vitality while they go round in spaces at their tempestuous speed.

The generous Maruts, waves of cosmic energy, feed the vitality of waters. Instantly present at the yajnas of nature and humanity, as they radiate the ghṛta across the spaces, so they feed and augment milk and juices from spaces. And for the sake of rain, like a horse in the reins, they rule the floating cloud and the lightning thunder and milk the cloud like a perennial spring for life.

Mighty strong and strengthening, magical stimulators of intelligence and performance, various and versatile in heat and light, innately powerful and firmly rooted as mountains and inherently rich as clouds, the winds are impetuous in motion as the shooting deer and mighty as the elephants which destroy the forests. If you use these brilliant powers of light and winds in your fieriest forces of creation and defence you would destroy the destroyers and protect the beauties of life and nature and enjoy yourselves.

Like lions, the Maruts roar and proclaim the nature of nature (since, as waves of energy, they are in touch with everything in existence and hence know what it is). Powerful as they are possessed of minute particles of energy they possess the world and put you in touch with everything if you know them. Keeping everything in its own shape and order, coexistent with the clouds in their action of sun and shower, they vitalise the nights with the showers of their waves like mists.

Maruts, scholars, soldiers, leaders of humanity, organised in graceful classes, friends of mankind, brave, breakers of the clouds, with your own power reach over earth and heaven, address them and proclaim of them. And may the Maruts, energies of winds, like lightning, electric energy, in beautiful body form, come and sit in the strong structure of your cars to take you over earth and heaven.

Heroic men, mighty powers, cosmic energies, Maruts, voracious eaters, excellent and exuberant, who know and rule the world live together with all their wealth together, mix together in equal homes with all their light and power of the elements, hold immense strength in their hands, fix the arrow on the bow and shoot. They are the real men, the Maruts.

Maruts, creators and promoters of water, juice and milk, powers of cosmic yajna, advancing, self-driven, shakers of the fixed, makers of the firm, brandishing their burnishing steel, shatter the mountains and scatter the clouds like leaves on the pathways by the golden wheels of their chariots.

We invoke, praise and celebrate in song the band of Maruts, nature’s powers of grinding and crushing, purifying as fire with refinement, generous, ever active, children of Rudra, i.e., products of cosmic metabolism in the process of joining, disjoining, consuming and creating. You too love, study and serve the Maruts, most active energy of the universe, fiery and powerful, creative and collective forces which bestow the gifts of life on us. Do so for beauty, prosperity and grace.

O Maruts, surely that person soon surpasses other people with power and merit and settles whom you protect and promote with your favours. He achieves food, energy and success with the fastest means of movement and progress, gets the desired wealth for the asking with the people around, and collects and advances the wealth and beauty of yajnic life.

O Maruts, heroes of the world, bear for us valour and virility of sustained value for work, strength and courage irresistible in battles, and brilliant excellence among people of power and honour. Bless us with a son and a grandson, winner of wealth and victory, worthy of praise and universally admirable, whom we may nurse, nourish, protect and promote for a hundred years to advance in life.

15. Nū śṭhiram maruto vīravantamṛtīśaham rayima-smāsu dhatta. Sahasriṇāṁ śatinaṁ śūsvāṁ-saṁ prātarmakṣu dhiyāvasurjagamyāt.

O Maruts, heroes of humanity fast as winds, bear among us stable wealth comprising most heroic youth who are ever felicitous and victorious, and happiness of a hundred fold and a thousandfold order. May the spirit of pious intelligence and wealth of mind and soul visit and bless us instantly with the light of dawn.

Mandala 1/Sukta 65

Agni Devata, Parashara Shaktya Rshi

1. Pasvā na tāyuṁ guhā catantam namo yujānam namo vahantam. Sajośā dhīrāḥ padairanu gmanupā tvā sīdan viśve yajatrāḥ.

Tracing and following the foot-prints of the animal, the master finds where the cattle carrier is hiding in the cave. So do all the yajakas, loving together and dedicated, patient and constant in their search, follow you, Agni, by yogaic stages and find you where you are hiding in the cave of the heart, creating and commanding food and energy, bearing and bestowing food and energy.
of life, and they sit close around you, preparing and feeding the fire, seeking and finding.

2. Ṛtasya devā anu vratā gurbhuvat pariṣṭirdyaurna bhūma. Vardhanīmāpañḥ panvā susīśvīṁṛtasya yona garbhe sujātaṁ.

Noble yajakas dedicate themselves to the Law of Truth in sacred vows. The search for Agni goes on. They augment the waters, exalt the earth and, with their noble actions, promote the agni born in the vedi at the centre of the womb of nature and the Laws of Divinity. And the earth grows bright and blest as heaven.

Delightful as the glow of health, vast and happy dwelling as earth, generous as a cloud, sanctifying as waters, fast as a flying horse in rapid motion, deep and rolling as the sea, who can stop it, just at hand as it is?

It is a friend of the seas, dear as a brother of his
It rules over the wealthy as over its attendants, and devours the forests. Driven by the winds, it abides in the waters, clouds and the sunbeams. And it is only Agni which matures and harvests the grasses and herbs of the earth.

5. Śvāsityapsu haṁso na śīdan krātvā cetiṣṭho viśā- muśarbhut. Somo na vedhā ṛtaprajātah paśurna śiśvā vibhurduśrebḥāḥ.

It breathes in the waters, vitalising them, playing with them like a swan. Most intelligent and wide-awake, it awakens the people at dawn with its light and yajnic action. Born of Divine Law and Truth of Nature, it is an inspirer and energiser like soma. Playful as a calf, it is omnipresent, shining far and wide.

Mandala 1/Sukta 66

Agni Devata, Parashara Shaktya Rshi

1. Rayirna citrā sūro na samāḍgāyurna prāṇo nityo na sūnuḥ. Takvā na bhūṛ nirvanā siṣakti payo na dhenuḥ śucirvibhāvā.
It breathes in the waters, vitalising them, playing with them like a swan. Most intelligent and wide-awake, it awakens the people at dawn with its light and yajnic action. Born of Divine Law and Truth of Nature, it is an inspirer and energiser like soma. Playful as a calf, it is omnipresent, shining far and wide.

Lord of awful light for all places, eternal like the yajna of creation, beauty of the home like the wife, for all, wondrous of form and character that shines among people like the very sunlight, it is magnificent as a warrior’s chariot, blazing in battles with victory.

Like an army sent up to advance in battle, it wields power and force. Like an electric missile of fire it is blazing and voracious, a symbol of light and fire. It is the guide, controller, and destiny of all that is born, and the guide, controller and destiny of all that is on way to life. It is the paramour of maidens and the protector of wives.

5. Tāṁ vaścarāthā vayaṁ vasatyāstāṁ na gāvo nakṣanta iddham. Sindhurna kṣodāḥ pra nīcirainonnavanta gāvah svardiśīke.

Just as cows return to their stall, just as rays of the sun withdraw to the sun, just as streams and rivers flow down to the sea, so may we all, moving as well as settled people, attain to you, Agni, light of the sun, and the Lord Almighty.

Mandala 1/Sukta 67

Agni Devata, Parashara Shaktya Rshi

Just as a ruler selects a young, unaging and enthusiastic worker, best of the desirable lot and friendliest among people, so does Agni select and bless a devotee for the divine mission of life’s yajna. May this Agni, Lord of yajna, Itself the giver and receiver, carrier of the fragrances across life and the world, immanent in forests and manifest in sunbeams, friendliest power among living beings, good like happiness incarnate, creative and blissful as yajna itself be our sustainer, protector and promoter in life and select us for the sacred mission of Divinity.

People of faith and dedication, possessed of sacred intelligence who chant and meditate on mantras, divining into the secrets of nature and divinity with their heart and soul, come to know and realise here itself in actuality the presence and attributes of Agni which is immanent in the depth of the soul, reveals Itself, holding the wealths of the world for the devotees, and establishes the dedicated generous brilliances in knowledge, power and wealth of the world and protects and promotes them in life.

3. Ajo na kṣām dādhāra prthivīṁ tastambha dyāṁ mantrebhīḥ satyaiḥ. Priyā padāṇi paśvo ni pāhi viśvāyuragnē guhā guhāṁ gāḥ.

The eternal lord of existence, Agni, light and life of the universe, holds the earth as He holds the sky and sustains heaven in space with true mantras of Rtam (which are identical with His thoughts and laws of nature). Agni, lord and spirit of the universe, deepest in the depth of the soul as you are, protect the steps of the growth of the soul’s vision of divinity, guard them against the violence and vulgarity of brute force.

One who knows Agni existent in the cave of the heart, takes the shower in the stream of Truth and life flowing from Divinity. Those who tie the knot with the presence, serve It and shine the path of realisation along the steps, to them Agni reveals the secrets of the wealths of life and light of the Spirit.

Agni, that universal spirit and energy of life which manifests in form and measure in the shoots that come forth in the herbs and trees and in the child in the womb of the mother, that superconsciousness, the realised souls experience when they have collected their consciousness as if behind closed doors, when even the motion of their pranas has been stilled.

(The energy of life which is the heat, vitality and glow of health in life forms, which is universally active, the scientists and yogis realise in a state of total concentration.)

Mandala 1/Sukta 68

Agni Devata, Parashara Shaktya Rshi

1. Srīnānnapā sthād divāṁ bhuraṇyuh sthātu-ścarathamaktūn vyūrṇot. Pari yadeśāmeke viśveśāṁ bhuvad devo devānāṁ mahitvā.

The blazing, vibrating, ripening, perfecting power and energy of the Lord, Agni, that sustains and beautifies the world pervades and abides by the moving and non-moving forms of existence and covers as well as brightens and defines the day and night with His presence. He is the sole one lord and light of all the brilliances of the universe by virtue of His own might.

2. Ādīt te viśve, kratum juṣanta śuṣkād yad deva, jīvo janiṣṭhāḥ. Bhajanta viśve devatvāṁ nāma ṛtaṁ sapanto, amṛtamevaiḥ.

Brilliant lord of existence, most generative support of life-force arising from dry sources of energy, all the brilliances of the universe join your sacred act of creation. All of them worship your divinity in truth and faith. All of them with all their manners, customs, rituals, in short with every motion of their thought and body, do homage to your laws of existence and your immortal presence.

Agni, first impulse of creative intelligence, wielder of the laws of Truth and laws of evolution, life of the universe, all the forces of existence do your bidding and perform their action. Lord all percipient and omniscient, whosoever be intelligent and give away charity in homage to you or learn from your eternal Word and universal acts, bless him/her with the wealth of the world.

Lord of light, high-priest of the cosmic yajna of creation and generation, receiver of oblations and creator and begetter of blessings, immanently seated in humanity, Agni is the lord ruler and controller of these wealths of life, and its yajnic creations. Ye men and women of intelligence and generative science mutually desirous of creative energy and fertility together in your body system, know the science of generative yajna with your knowledge, education and expertise.

पितुन पुत्रः कतृ जुष्टन्त श्रावण्य अस्म शासं तुरासः ।
वि राय आङ्छादुःरः पुरु ः । पिपश नाक्ष स्वाधिमांनः ॥ ५ ॥

If men of genius and action were to dedicate themselves to yajña and listen to the divine voice and obey the discipline and command of this divine Agni as children listen to the father and do his behest, then the omnificent Lord of wealth and omnipotence would bless them with showers of wealth and open the beautiful doors of heaven and happiness to them.

Bright and blazing, pure and purifying as the sun, lover of the dawn, filling both earth and heaven like the light of the sun, Agni, emerging and rising, shines over all with its light and power, being both generator and generated of the divinities of the earth.

वधा अर्द्धसा अग्रिजिज्ञान ूधन गानं स्वाच्छा पितृनाम ।
जनं न शर्वं आद्रुः: सनमधु निर्षता रणवा दर्तण्ण ॥ २ ॥

Lord of light and intelligence, free from pride and infatuation, knower of right and wrong, light and dark, generous as cow’s udders overflowing with milk, Agni ripens and sweetens the food of life. Like a benefactor of humanity, worthy of invocation and invitation, sanctified in the middle of the home, it adds to the delight of the family.

Rising like a darling son, delight of the home, beautiful and joyous as a horse, Agni takes people across the hurdles of life. To whatever creative and productive yajnic programmes people invite and invoke Agni, It joins the people with Its light and divinity of power and blesses them with all the wealths of life.

Agni, none of these people violate your laws and discipline since you do good to them, for them. Agni, Lord of light and life, it is your grand act of generosity that you, joining with people of equality, repair their infirmities and ward off their sins without doing violence to anyone or anything.

5. Uṣo na jāro vibhāvosraḥ saṁjñātarūpasciąciketadasmāi. Tmanā vahanto duro vyṛṇvan navanta viśve svardṛśīke.

Agni, bright and blazing like the sun, lover of the dawn, is the dispeller of darkness like the first ray of morning light and reveals the beauteous forms of things, opening the doors of yajna, and destroys suffering. Carrying gifts of homage for it with their heart and soul in every noble act of yajna, let all the people know It and bow to it.

Mandala 1/Sukta 70

Agni Devata, Parashara Shaktya Rshi

वनम् पूवीपर्या मनीषेषा अग्नि: सुन्दरका विश्वन्यश्या: ।
आ देवश्च विद्वा विचित्वाना मानुषयं जनस्य जनमं || १ ||

1. Vanema pūrviraryo manīṣā agniḥ suśoko viśvānyaśyāḥ. A daivyāni vratā cikitvānā mānuṣasya janasya janma.

We, ancient people, with our heart and soul honour and worship Agni, Lord of universal wealth and power, brilliant and blazing Divinity, who knows, pervades, reaches and controls all the divine laws and rules of the world and the origin, birth and history of all the people and nations.

Agni abides at the heart of the waters and the pranic energies of the universe. It is at the heart of forests, sunbeams and all the lovely and beloved beauties of the world. It is at the heart of all that is still and all that moves. It abides in the cloud and in the mountain and it is the centre of the homes of people. Universal, immortal, free and absolute, it is the very life and ruler of everything in nature as it is the life and ruler of all the people for their sake only.

3. Sa hi kṣapāvāṁ agnī rayināṁ dāśadyo asmā arāṁ sūktaiḥ. Etā cikitvo bhūmā ni pāhi dūvānaṁ jāṁ मर्तिैश्च विद्वान। ॥ ३ ॥

That Agni is the lord of night and day. It is the giver of wealth and power in ample measure for anyone who adores it with hymns of divinity. It is aware of all, knows the manifestations and operations of all the divinities of nature, and it knows all that are mortal. Lord of knowledge, wealth and power, protect and promote all these children of nature and the earth.

वधान्यं पूवी: गृह विरूपा: स्थातुश्च रथ्यमृतपवीतम।
अराध्य हाता स्वांनिर्गतः क्रिणविषवान्यपौरसि सृत्या। ॥ ४ ॥
4. Vardhānyam pūrvih kṣapo virūpāḥ sthātuśca rathamūrtapraśvītam. Arādhi hota svarniṣattaḥ kṛṇvan viśvānyapāṁsi satyā.

The nights and days of various hues and forms since time immemorial serve this Agni born of constant Prakṛti inspired and energised by the Divine Laws of Rtam, which is the delight and impeller of all that is still and on the move. Let the man of the yajna of science and research study and advance the knowledge of this Agni abiding in light and the sun, doing all the real actions and operations of the natural world.

5. Goṣu praśastim vanesu dhīse bharanta viśve balīṁ svarṇaḥ. Vi tvā naraḥ purutrā saparyan piturna jivrervi vedo bharanta.

Agni, lord sustainer of life and the world, you in-vest the cows and forests and the earth and sunbeams with excellence of quality, virtue and wealth. May all powers of nature and humanity bear and bring joy for us. May all people doing homage to you in various ways receive from you and bear and advance knowledge like children receiving patrimony from the parents.

6. Sādhurna grīdhnurasteva śūro yāteva bhīmastve-śaḥ samatsu.

Immensely loving, generous and venerable as a saint, heroic like a brave archer, terrible like the dispenser of punishment, and blazing and brilliant in the battles of life: such is Agni, light, life and might of the world.

Mandala 1/Sukta 71

Agni Devata, Parashara Shaktya Rshi

Like married women in a state of love and desire meeting the loving husband for the joy of living, like cows of the same stall going up and out to welcome and feel the sallow, ruddy, wonderful and brilliant dawn, harbinger of light, for a fresh lease of life, let all the people together in love and faith always worship the wondrous, loving protector, Agni, eternal father, for a fresh lease of life and the joy of living.

Our forefathers sustain our strength and constancy. The Angirasas, sustainers of life, the winds, and our fathers with Veda-mantras, break the cloud for us with the voice of thunder. They create the path to the vast heaven and the space and show us the way to rise to the sun. They know the light of the dawn, the brilliance of the day and the bliss of heaven. They give us the light, the day and the bliss and vest us with an identity of splendour, a banner of recognition and a ruler and the law.

3. Dadhannṛtaṁ dhanayannasya dhītimādidaryo didiśvo vibhṛtrāḥ. Aṭṛṣyantirapaso yantyacchā devānjanma prayasaḥ vardhayantīḥ.

Holding on to Truth and Dharma, wielding the knowledge and power of Agni, lord of light, then possessing wealth as the Vaishyas, giving nourishment and help without thirst or selfishness, doing good acts with generosity of giving food and social service and promoting nobilities, specially children, the people and specially Brahmacharinis move on in life with grace.

मद्दीश्चरी विश्रूता मातरिश्वा गृहगृहेह श्यता जन्यां भूत ।

4. Mathīd yadīṁ vibhṛto mātariśvā ġṛhegrhe śyeto jenyo bhūt. Ādiṁ rājne na sahiyase sacā sannā dūtryam bṛgavāṇo vivāya.

If the wind, bearing the wealth of agni, and others were to churn out and produce fire and electricity which then emerges bright and victorious in every home, then the scholars of science would refine and develop it for the purpose of communication and transport and use it as ambassador for the grand ruling power and order of the society between one people and another in friendship.

It is the sun, self-refulgent giver of comfort and bliss, reaching all with its rays, knowing all and revealing all, who creates the nectar of life for the great fatherly lord of heaven, Agni, who radiates light like a mighty hero of the bow shooting arrows for the purpose of humanity, and who vests the light and splendour of the morning in its daughter, the dawn, dispelling the darkness. Who can get away from it or steal the light? None.

Agni, lord of light and life, who ever lights the fire in the home in the vedi, whoever in fervent love and faith offers food and reverence in yajna every day, you, giver of twofold advancement in knowledge and valour, grant him full age of honour and glory. Who ever you inspire and send up to battle of the chariot, you bless with the all-round wealth of life.

7. Agniḥ viśvā abhi prkṣaḥ sacante samudraṁ na sravataḥ sapta yahvīḥ. Na jāmibhirvi cikite vayo no vidā deveśu pramātinī cikitvān.

All foods, all that move and ripen go to Agni like the seven restless streams heading to the sea. The web of our life is incomprehensible to those on the move. May the Lord of Omniscience direct our will and intelligence and establish us among the wise and the brilliant sages of vision.

8. Ā yadiṣe nrpatim teja ānāt cuchi reto niṣiktam dyaurabhīke. Agnih śardhamanavadyam yuvā-nāṁ svādhyāṁ janayat sūdayaccā.

When pure light and lustre, living and sanctified, come to the ruling soul for the fulfilment of desire and perfection, then Agni creates the strong, praiseworthy, healthy and self-dependent youth, perfects and guides him in the battle of life.

9. Mano na yo’dhvanaiḥ sadya etyekaḥ satrā sūro vasva īše. Rājānā mitrāvaraṇā supāṇi goṣu priyamāṁtaṁ rakṣamāṇā.
The sun that instantly goes on its course in orbit all by itself as at the speed of mind and rules over all the Vasus, and Mitra and Varuna, brilliant powers of universal love and justice of the Divine with hands of generosity, which protect and promote the cherished immortal values of life on earths as milk in the cows: all this is the gift of Agni.

Mā naḥ agnī sūryāḥ pitṛyaṁ pra marśiṣṭhā abhi viduṣkaviḥ san. Nabho na rūpāṁ jarimā mināti purā tasyā abhiśasteradhīhi.

Agni, lord giver and protector of life, let not our ancestral values of love and friendship be destroyed, all-knowing and visionary creator as you are. Old age destroys the health and beauty of life as the cloud covers and hides the sun and sky. Lord protector and preserver, come before the onslaught of that, stop that and help us preserve ourselves.

Mandala 1/Sukta 72

Agni Devata, Parashara Shaktya Rshi

Ni kāvyā vedhaṣaḥ śaśvataskarhaste dadhāno naryā purūṇi. Agnirbhuvaḥ rayipaṭi rayiṇāṁ satrā cakrāṇo amṛtāṇi viśvā.
Agni, the man of faith and devotee of Agni, lord of life, light and wealth of existence, holding in hand the many hymns of the poetry of the eternal poet of omniscience, all-time beneficial to humanity, observing the rules of Dharma, and doing all the essential acts of immortal value becomes the highest master of the wealths of life and existence.

अस्म वत्सं परि जन्तु न विन्दा च्छन्नता विश्वं अमृता अमृरा: ||
श्रमयुव्वः पदव्या धियांधास्रस्तु: पदे परम पावाय: || २ ||

2. Asme vatsaṁ pari śantaṁ na vindannicchanto viśve amṛtā amūrāḥ. Śramayuvah padavyo dhiyamdhāstasthuḥ pade parame cārvaghneḥ.

People ordinarily do not attain to our darling Agni, immanent and transcendent lord of existence. But all the immortal souls, men of divine intelligence dedicated to divine love, relentlessly following the paths of Divinity, holding on to piety of faith in reason and passion both, reach and abide in the beatific state of supreme bliss in Agni’s direct presence.

तिस्रा यदेन्ग शरदस्तवामिच्छुचिं घृतनं शुचय: सप्यान।
नामानि चिददिधिर यज्ञियान्यसूदयन्त तन्वः सुजाता: || ३ ||

Agni, lord of light and cosmic yajna of evolution, those people of pure and dedicated soul who serve you, lord of purity, for three years with oblations of ghrta in yajna would justify their name with fame and yajnic karma and also perfect their physical existence in perfect bodies reborn in happy and enlightened homes.

Dedicated yajnic souls, lovers of Rudra pranas and devotees of Rudra, lord of justice and dispensation of karma, know, reach and replenish the vast heaven and earth with the fragrance of yajna. Such a man in mortal body finds the objects of his desire and, rising to divine knowledge, attains to the beatific vision of Agni abiding in the highest state of man’s spiritual experience.

5.  Sañjānānā upa śīdannibhijñu patnīvantō nama¬syāṁ namasyan. Ririkvāṁsastanvaḥ kṛṇvata svāḥ sakhā sakhyurnimiṣi rakṣamāṇāḥ.

Knowing well the science of yajna, let men of yajna with their wives sit on their knees doing homage to the adorable Agni and to others, parents, teachers and seniors. Men of purity, they would be purifying their own bodies, and they would abide as friends protecting each other in yajnic action and protected by yajna every moment of their life.

Agni, lord of life and positive living, those devotees established in you and dedicated to yajna, who know and achieve the thrice-seven deep and secret stages of yajna and abide therein, protect and preserve thereby the immortal wealth of life. Lovers of yajna and the yajnics, protect and promote all movable and immovable wealth of life, humans and animals all.

(According to Swami Dayanand the thrice-seven are: reading, reflection and meditation across the four Vedas, knowledge, practice and industry through Dharma, universal values of life, Artha, economic and social achievement, Kama, love and emotional fulfilment, and Moksha, ultimate freedom. Another way to explain it is to refer to the threefold meaning of yajna: reverence and worship, socialisation and social service, and charity including protection and replenishment of the environment, and then apply those to the seven stages of existence: Bhuh, Bhuvah, Swah, Maha, Janah, Tapah and Satyam. This mystique of yajna is described in detail in the Brahmana works on the Veda and briefly in the Upanishads, Katha and Chhandogya specially.)
7. Vidvān agne vayunāni kṣīṭānāṁ vyānuṣak chururudho ṛivase dhāḥ. Antarvidvān adhvano devayānānatandro dūto abhavo havirvāt.

Agni, lord omniscient of the sciences and ways of the world, you continuously provide nourishing foods, healing herbs and means of comfort for the life and sustenance of the children of the earth. You know the divine paths of spiritual evolution between earth and heaven. Pray, be the harbinger of holy fragrance of Divinity like a prophet for us without relent or delay.

8. Svādhyo diva ā saptayahvī rāyo duro vyṛtajñā ajānan. Vidad gavyaṁ saramā dṛhmanmūrvaṁ yenā nu kāṁ mānuṣī bhojate viṭ.

Men of noble thought and action, who know the seven streams of light flowing from heaven, who know the paths of Divine truth and spiritual evolution, who know the celestial doors of existential wealth and divine bliss, realise and bring to the earth all good for the cows, for the mind and senses, message of knowledge, strength and constancy, and immunity against suffering, virtues by which the human community enjoys peace, health and comfort in life.
9. Ā ye viśvā svapatyāni tasthuḥ krṣvānāso amṛta-tvāya gātum. Mahnā mahadbhiḥ prthivī vi tasthe mātā puthairaditirdhāyase veḥ.

Just as all parents abide by their children, men of noble action abide by the way of knowledge and virtue for the attainment of the nectar of salvation, the earth abides by her children with her great virtues and universal generosity, the mother abides by her children, the vast heaven abides for the support of her creations, and the sun light abides by the birds, so do I abide with life for the sake of good actions in the yajna of life.

10. Adhi śriyam ni dadhuścārumasmin divo yadakṣī amṛtā akṛṇvan. Adha kṣaranti sindhavo na srṣṭāh pra nīcīрагne aruṣīragānan.

The Immortals, realised souls with the vision of Divinity, create the beauty of knowledge, honour and happiness here on earth itself as if the light of heaven is blessing the world with its benign eyes through the divinity of Agni. Agni, like streams released from the waters of space flowing on the earth and blessing it with joy, the rays of light and flames of fire: all constantly revitalise humanity like the light of the dawn resurrecting life and nature after the cover of darkness.

Mandala 1/Sukta 73
Agni Devata, Parashara Shaktya Rshi
Agni is young and fresh, a philanthropist like a noble heir to the knowledge, power and wealth of ancestors, a controller and disciplinarian with policy like the noble and benevolent policy and orders of the wise, pleasing and blissful like a wise and learned guest enjoying liberal hospitality, and one who helps you cross over the seas of life like a priest conducting the yajna in the house of the yajamana.

2. Devo na yaḥ savitā satyamanmā kratvā nipāti vrjanāni viśvā. Purupraśasto amatirna satya ātmeva ēve didhiśāyyo bhūt.

Protector and promoter of truth like the bright sun, he saves from sin and evil and defends and augments all the strength and powers of humanity. Highly praised and revered like light and beauty, he knows the essences of things and traverses the right paths of life. He is kind and helpful like the very soul of the community, and like the conscience of the people he wields, supports and commands the nation in every respect. Such is the ruler.

2. Devo na yaḥ savitā satyamanmā kratvā nipāti vrjanāni viśvā. Purupraśasto amatirna satya ātmeva ēve didhiśāyyo bhūt.
3. Devo na yah prthivim viśvadhāyā upakṣeti hitamitro na rājā. Puraḥ sadaḥ śarmasado na vīrā anavadyā patijuṣṭeva nārī.

Holding the world like the brilliant sun, ruling over the heart like a sincere friend, he closely abides by the earth. The people of the state live together in unison like young and brave children of the house living together in a blessed home. The women are pure and worthy of praise like wives dedicated to the husband. Such is the leader.

4. Tam tvā naro dama ā nityamiddhamagne sacanta kṣitiṣu dhruvāsū. Adhi dyumnaṁ ni dadhuryasmin bhavāḥ viśvāyurdharuno rayinām.

Agni, such as you are, people serve you, lighting you every day in the home in the land of peace and stability and winning ample knowledge and power, wealth and honour. Lord of universal energy, life of the world, be the treasure home and giver of the wealths of existence for all in this life in this world.

5. Vi prṛkṣo agne maghavāno aśyurvi sūrayo dadato viśvamāyuḥ. Sanema vājaṁ samithe-śvaryo bhāgaṁ deveṣu śravase dadhānāḥ.

Agni, lord of light and life, may the men of wealth and power be blest with abundance of food and energy. May the brilliant men of knowledge, generous teachers, be blest with long and full age and good health. May the people engaged in economic endeavour win science and success in their battles of the people, playing their part among the brilliancies of the nation for the sake of honour and fame.

6. Ētasya hi dhena vāvaśānāḥ smadūdhīnīḥ pīpayanta dyubhaktāḥ. Parāvataḥ sumatiṁ bhikṣamāṇā vi sindhavaḥ samayā sasruradrim.

Cows yearning for their calves and overflowing with milk in the udders drink of Agni’s law of nature and follow it in love. Rays of light, sharing the splendour of the sun from afar bring favours to the earth by the law of Agni. Rivers flow from the vicinity of the mountains to the far off seas by the law of Agni. Sunbeams break the cloud by the law of Agni. (So should mankind follow nature’s law of generous Agni in yajna and shower love and favour on all life and the environment.)

Agni, lord of cosmic yajna, praying for will and intelligence and sharing your immanence of power and splendour, the high-priests of nature sent up their oblations into the vedi of heaven and created the night and the dawn, both different in form as flame and smoke. They filled the dark into the night and the blazing red into the dawn.

Agni, lord of cosmic yajna, praying for pious will and intelligence, the high-priests of human yajna sent up the fragrance of their oblations into heaven and realised the mystery of night and dawn, both different in form like flames and smoke arising from the vedi. They associated the dark with the night and the blazing red with the dawn.

(Note: To understand this mantra further, reference may be made to Rgveda 10, 90, Yajurveda 31 and Atharva-veda 19, 6, and 10, 8, 23.)

8. Yān rāye maritāntsuṣūdo agne te syāma maghavāno vayaṁ ca. Chāyeva viśvaṁ bhuvaṁ sisa-kṣyā paprīvān rodasī antarikṣam.

Agni, the mortals whom you inspire and guide for the achievement of wealth, may they all and we all be blest with wealth and honour and the favours of Divinity. Lord omnipresent, pervading the earth, the skies and the heavens, the entire universe abides with you inseparably since you are one with it as body is with the shadow and you shelter them all.
9. Arvadbhiragne arvato nṛbhirnīn vīrairvīrān vanuyāmā tvotāḥ. Īsanāsaḥ pitṛvittasya rāyo vi sūrayāḥ šatahimā no aśyuh.

Agni, lord of light and wealth of life, we pray, under your shelter and protection, let us continuously have horses with horses, brave men with men, and heroic children with children. Inheritors of the wealth and knowledge of our ancestors, let us be good managers of our heritage and move ahead. And may men of heroic vision and wisdom give us protective guidance for hundreds of years.

10. Etā te agna ucathāṇi vedho juṣṭāṇi santu manase hṛde ca. Śakema rāyāḥ sudhuro yamarī te’dhi śravo devabhaktam dadhānāḥ.

Agni, lord of light and life, omniscient giver of knowledge and vision, may these holy words of divinity be songs of faith and love for our mind and soul. May we, holding holy foods and blest by words of divine souls, be steady on our path of life and be able to conduct the management of life’s wealth in proper yajnic manner.

Mandala 1/Sukta 74

Agni Devata, Gotama Rahugana Rshi

उपपप्यन्ताः अध्वरं मन्त्रं वाचमाग्रयः आर अस्म चं शृणुवत् इ १ ॥
1. Upaprayanto adhvaram mantram vocemāg-naye. Are asme ca śṛṇvate.

Moving close to the vedi of the yajna of love and non-violence, let us chant holy words of thought and devotion in praise of Agni, lord of light and yajna who listens to us from far as well as from near.

2. Yaḥ snīhitīṣu pūrvyaḥ saṅjagmānāsu krṣṭīṣu. Arakṣad dāṣuṣe gayam.

Agni is the eternal lord of yajna who, in gatherings of people meeting for the purpose of fellowship and yajna of love, protects and promotes the wealth of the generous yajamana.

And let the people praise and celebrate Agni who dispels the clouds of darkness, creates and protects the wealth of the charitable yajamana, and gives us victory in the battles for wealth one after another.

Agni, you are the harbinger of light. Wherever you go, you carry holy sacrificial materials into the house for the joy of the family and conduct and accomplish blissful yajna which dispels want and suffering from the home.

Agni, Angira, breath of life for the world arising in yajna as the child of omnipotence, you are the same whom people call the lord of brilliance, master of science, waters and of the skies, worthy of being invoked in yajna for the gifts of wonderful wealths.

6. Ā ca vahāsi tāṁ īha devāṁ upa praśastaye. Havyā suścandra vītaye.

Agni, lord of light, beauty and joy, you are the power who bring in here close to us the brilliant and generous divinities worthy of invocation for their celebration and harbingers of holy gifts for the joy of the yajamana.

Agni, lord of light, power and yajnic communication, when you move on your mission then the tempestuous roar of your superfast chariot is not even heard.

8. Tvoto vājyahrayo’bhi pūrvasmādaparaḥ.
   Pra dāśvān agne asthāt.

   Lord of light and power, Agni, protected by you and blest with your speed, the generous and creative yajamana of scientific adventure, superfast, free and bold, shoots from one place and reaches the other.

9. Uta dyumat suvīryam bṛhadagne vivāsasi.
   Devebhyo deva dāśuṣe.

   Agni, lord of light, wealth and generosity, you are ever keen to shower upon the charitable yajamana and eminent scholars of scientific brilliance abundant gifts of valour, honour and universal excellence.

Mandala 1/Sukta 75

Agni Devata, Gotama Rahugana Rshi

1. Juṣasva saprathastamāṁ vaco devapsarastamam.
   Havyā juhvāna āsani.

   Agni, lord of light, knowledge and speech, since you accept sacred words and sacrificial foods into your vedi-like holy mouth, be kind to receive and enjoy the most liberal and extensive words and most divinely inspired prayerful exhortations of ours and be pleased to bless us.

2. \textit{Athā te āṅgirastamāṅgner vedhastama priyam. Vocema brahma sānasi.}

Agni, lord most knowledgeable, dearest breath of enlightenment, bless us, and then we would speak the eternal victorious words of divinity dear to you.

3. \textit{Kaste jāmirjanānāmagne ko dāśvadhvaraḥ. Ko ha kasminnasi śrītaḥ.}

Agni, who among people is your brother that knows well? Who is the giver? Who is the yajaka? Who are you? Wherein do you abide.

4. \textit{Tvāṁ jāmirjanānāmagne mitro asi priyāḥ. Sakhā sakhibhya īdyaḥ.}

Agni, you are the brother and saviour of the people. You are the friend. You are so dear and affectionate a source of fulfilment. You are the friend of friends, adorable for your companions.
5. Yajä no miträvaruṇā yajä devān ṛtam bṛhat.
   Agne yakṣi svam damam.

   Agni, do yajna for Mitra and Varuna, pranic energy of prana and apana. Do yajna for the divine energies of nature. Do yajna for Rtam, promotion of Eternal Knowledge of divine Law. Do yajna for the sake of your own home and for self-control and self-culture.

   Mandala 1/Sukta 76
   Agni Devata, Gotama Rahugana Rshi

   का त उपतिमनस्सा वराय भुवदग्रे श्तंतमा का मनिषा ।
   का वा युक्तपरिद त आप कर्ण वा त मनस्सा दाशम ॥ १ ॥

   Agni, lord of peace and enlightenment, what is your way to the improvement of mind? What is the most tranquillising exercise of the mind? Who attains to laudable success in the realisation of Divinity by yajnas of study, socialisation and self sacrifice? By what state of mind shall we offer to serve and honour you?

   2. Ehyagna iha hotā ni śīdādabdhah su pura etā bhavā naḥ. Avatāṁ tvā rodasī viśvaminve yajā mahe saumanasāya devān.

   Agni, lord of kindness and benevolence, come to us fearless and bold and lead our yajna as high-priest to take us forward. May the heaven and earth which sustain the world be with you. Come to the noblest brilliances of humanity for the sake of peace and joy of the mind and soul.

Agni, lord of light, power and justice, burn off the evil to extinction. Be the saviour and protector of yajnas of common endeavour from violence. Bring in Indra, lord of energy and the joy of soma. And we shall extend the heartiest welcome and hospitality to him.

Agni, power of yajna and harbinger of joy and prosperity, creative force of nature in yajna, voracious consumer of input oblations and creator of a thousandfold wealth and energies of life and prana, I invoke you with holy words of social import for the sake of all my people. Come to the yajna with blessings of divine brilliances and sit on the vedi. Front leader as you are, creator of wealth as you are for the hearth and home of people, spirit of yajna as you are, bring us the holiest sanctifying materials for our life of yajna and enlighten us on the art of advancement and progress.

Just as a person, being a poet going with the poets, performs yajna in honour of divinities and brilliant persons, with the sacred materials of a noble and intelligent person, similarly, O Agni, noble performer, noble visionary, truer and more sincere than truth and sincerity itself, perform yajna for us in the home today with a beautiful ladle and the divine voice of wisdom.

Agni Devata, Gotama Rahugana Rshi

What shall we offer, how shall we offer, what appropriate words worthy of divinities, to this Agni, lord of yajna, light of knowledge, loving, kind and righteous, who, immortal among the mortals, is the master of eternal truth and Law, lord promoter of yajnic projects, most adorable and most sacrificing, creates brilliant and generous celebrities?

या अर्ध्वरथु शन्तय ऋषियव द्वान तपो नमोभिरा कृष्णुध्रम ।
अग्नियद्भमतय द्वानान्त्स चा बाध्याति मन्यसा यजाति ॥ २ ॥
2. Yo adhvareṣu šantama ṛtāvā hotā tamū namobhirā kṛṇudhvam. Agniryad vermartāya devāntsa cā bodhāti manasā yajāti.

All ye yajakas, do honour and homage with salutations and oblations in yajna to Agni, harbinger of peace and bliss, ever true in nature, attributes and functioning, most creative and generous performer in yajna, who invokes the divinities for humanity, knows and awakes all to knowledge and self-awareness, and guides and leads the yajakas with his heart and soul.

3. Sa hi kratuḥ sa maryāḥ sa sādhurmitro na bhūda dbhutasya rathīḥ. Tam medheśu pratha-maṁ devayantīrviṣa upa bruvate dasmamārīḥ.

Agni is the power and performer of yajna. He is human, close to humanity. He is good and saintly. May he abide as our friend, master of the wonderful chariot of existence. Lord of love, beauty and goodness as he is, him only, in the noblest yajnic programmes the loving, pious and knowledgeable people approach for address and redress, first and supreme as he is.

He who among our people is the most human and gracious, destroyer of violence, is Agni, lord of light, power and leadership. May he join our voices and the powers of governance with defence, protection and progress and hold it together with the wealth of the nation and those who are men of honour, strongest in courage, endowed with food and energy and have the desire for knowledge and wisdom.

And Agni, lord ruler of truth and law, omniscient of things in existence is praised and acclaimed by sincere admirers and men of piety and dedication. And he, among these, providing for food, energy and prosperity and the light of knowledge in abundance, himself growing higher in knowledge, self-satisfaction and all round progress, goes on ever forward.

Mandala 1/Sukta 78

Agni Devata, Gotama Rahugana Rshi

Jataveda, Agni, omniscient lord of universal vision, we, men of knowledge and your admirers, offer homage to you with all our wealth and honour and our noblest songs of praise.
2. Tamu tvā gotamo girā rāyaskāmo duvasyati.

   The man of knowledge and admiration, desirous of wealth and honour, offers homage and prayer to you, Agni, lord of light and power, with his voice of the heart. We do homage to you with all our wealth and power and with noblest songs of praise.

3. Tamu tvā vājasātamam āṅgirasvaddhavāhame.

   Agni, you who are lord of light, knowledge and power and giver of victory, we invoke like the very breath of life and do homage with all our honour, wealth and virtue.

4. Tamu tvā vrtraхантамаṁ yo dasyūnhavadhūnuṣe.

   Agni, breaker of the cloud and dispeller of darkness, who shake the evil and wicked to destruction, we celebrate you in homage with all the power and valour at our command.
5. Avocāma rahūgaṇāh agnaye madhumad vacaḥ.
    Dyumnairabhi pra ṇonumah.

    We all, free from sin and evil, offer honey-sweet songs of praise and celebration in honour of Agni with all our knowledge and brilliance.

Mandala 1/Sukta 79

Agni Devata, Gotama Rahugana Rshi

1. Hiṁaṇyakeśo rajaso visāre’hirdhunirvāta iva dhrajabīmān. Śucibhrājā uṣaso navedā yaśasva- tūrapasyuvo na satyāḥ.

    The sun, lord of golden beams blazing in the expanse of spaces, skies and the earth, shaker of the clouds and tempestuous like the winds, is Agni. The dawns of pure splendour like fairies and angels of truth and honour, shining and rising like flames of yajna fire, revealing like the vibrations of primordial knowledge, these are Agni too.

2. Ā te suparṇā aminantaṁ evaiḥ kṛṣṇo nonāva vrṣabhō yaḍīdam. Śivābhirna smayamānā- bhirāgāt patanti mihāḥ stanayantyabhrā.

    Agni, if your golden sunbeams were to expand with their forces across the spaces, and if the sun holding the skies and the earth were to break the cloud pregnant with vapours, the cloud would roar and showers would fall, coming to the earth as if with smiling blissful breezes of joy.

When the sun drinking and waxing with the vapours of water takes these up by the straightest and speediest paths, then Aryama, the sunlight, Mitra and Varuna, complementary energies of the sun holding the earth and skies together, and Parijman, winds and electric energies in the higher space, create the body of the cloud.

4. Agne vājasya gomata īśānah sahaso yaho. Asme dhehi jātavedo mahi śravaḥ.

Agni, lord of the knowledge of existence, creator and ruler of food, energy and wealths of life and lord of cows and sunbeams, child of omnipotence, bring us the brilliance of knowledge and great splendour of life’s victories.

5. Sa idhāno vasuṣṭkaviragnirīlenyo girā. Revadasmabhyam purvaṇīka didihi.
Agni, that brilliant lord of light and knowledge, treasure home of wealth and joy, divine visionary of creation, adorable with holy words, lord of wealth, blazing with flames and flaming with forces, may he ever shine and shine us with knowledge.

   Sa tigmajambha rakṣaso daha prati.

   Agni, blazing with light and power, creating and ruling over nights, days and the dawns, lord of the mighty order of justice and dispensation, burn up the evil and the wicked.

7. Avā no agna ūribhīrīgāyatrasya prabharmāṇi.

   Lord adorable all over the world in the affairs of enlightenment, protect and advance us with your care and powers of defence and development in the transactions of knowledge and happiness of the people with your heart and soul.

8. Ā no agne rayim bhara satrāsāhāṁ varenīyah.

   Agni, lord of wealth and power, bless us with cherished wealth and power, formidable and invincible in all the battles of life, overcoming all and ever.

\[ \text{आ ना अग्र सुच्चतुना रथिं विश्वायुपाषसम।} \]
\[ \text{माधविकं धृहि जीवस्य॥ ९ द।} \]

9. Ā no agne sucetunā rayim viśvāyupoṣasam.
\[ \text{Mārḍikam dhehi jīvase.} \]

Agni, lord of life, light and wealth, bring us and bless us with wealth along with knowledge, science and technology that may provide nourishment and health for all, soothing and joyful for happy living.

\[ \text{प पूतासितगमशाचिच्छ वाचा गातमाय्र।} \]
\[ \text{भरस्व सुम्न्युगिरि॥ १० द।} \]

\[ \text{Bharasva sumnayurgirah।} \]

Most dedicated celebrant in search of peace and well-being of the soul, raise your voice and say holy words and sing pure songs of knowledge, wisdom and prayer in honour of Agni, blazing lord of splendour and vision of omniscience who would purify your mind and soul.

\[ \text{या ना अग्रचंभितवस्त्यन्ति दूर पर्दीष सः।} \]
\[ \text{अस्मयकमिद वृद्ध भव॥ ११ द।} \]

11. Yo no agne’bhidāsatyanti dūre padiśṭa saḥ.
\[ \text{Asmākamid vṛdhe bhava।} \]

Agni, lord of light and power, whosoever far or near hate us or enslave us, may he be destroyed. Lord of life and wealth, be kind and gracious for our growth and progress.

Also: Agni, lord of light and wealth, whatever you give us, or whenever and wherever you oblige us in person, that may be for our good and advancement.

12. Sahasrākṣo vicarṣaṇiragnī rakṣāmsi sedhati.

_Hotā grṇīta uktyah._

Agni, lord of a thousand eyes (such as the sun), lord of universal vision, dispels and destroys the evil, the demons, darkness and suffering and poverty. High-priest of cosmic yajna, he is adorable and reveals the voice of omniscience in the soul.

Mandala 1/Sukta 80

Indra Devata, Gotama Rahugana Rshi

Giving to freedom and self-government an exalted place of honour, Brahma, lord creator, in-vested the joy and excitement of life with animation, growth and independence. And for the same reason, Indra, strongest in courage and valour, wielder of the thunderbolt of freedom and self-government, with your might and main, strike off the serpent of evil, suffering and slavery from the earth for all time.
2. Sa tvāmadad vṛṣā madaḥ somaḥ śyenābhṛtaḥ sutah. Yenā vṛtraṁ niradbhyo jaghantha vajrinno jasārcannanu svarājyam.

That excitement and enthusiasm arising from the eagle-shaped vedi of yajna and defended and advanced by the army in eagle array, raining from showers of divinity from Brahma, may boost your morale, and thereby, O Indra, lord of the thunderbolt, doing homage to the freedom and self-government of your people with your valour and heroism, you break the cloud of darkness, want and suffering and release the flow of plenty and prosperity.

3. Prehyabhīhi dhṛṣṇuhi na te vajro ni yaṁsate. Indra nṛmṇaṁ hi te śavo hano vṛtraṁ jayā apo’-rcannanu svarājyam.

Indra, lord of power and brilliance, ruler of the land, go forward. Go forward all round. Shake the evil. Irresistible is your thunderbolt of light and power. Your power and force is the wealth of the nation. Destroy the demon of want and drought, release and win the waters, plenty and prosperity and, in homage and reverence advancing the freedom and self-governance of humanity, move ahead and higher.

Indra, all-ruling creative power of enlightenment and freedom, eliminate evil, darkness and ignorance from the face of the earth, bring the light of knowledge and vision of spirit from heaven and, reverentially advancing the republic of human freedom and self-governance, create and release these life-giving and energising waters to vitalise the nation of humanity to the speed and vibrancy of the winds.

5. Indro vytrasya dodhataḥ sānum vajreṇa hīlitaḥ.
Abhikramyāvajighnate’paḥ sarmāya codayannarcanannanu svarājyam.

Indra, lord ruler of might, hero of war, adored and passionate, striking with the thunderbolt on the top of the ferocious cloud of evil fighting against sustenance of life, exhorts his own forces of freedom and, in reverence and homage to the land of freedom and self-governance, breaks the cloud to let the waters of light and life aflow.

अधि सानाङ्गि जिघ्नत वर्जण शातपवणा। मन्दून इन्द्र अन्ध्य:
सखिंभ्य गातुपिच्छत्यच न्तु स्वराज्यम ॥ ६ ॥

6. Adhi sānau ni jighnate vajreṇa śataparvanā.
Mandāna indro andhasaḥ sakhibhyo gāgumicchatyarcannanu svarājyam.

Indra strikes on the head and shoulders of Vṛtra, demon of want and suffering with his thunderbolt of a hundredfold power and, rejoicing and doing honour and reverence to freedom and self-government, wants and plans to clear the way for the food and joy of his friendly allies and citizens of the nation.

7. Indra tubhyamidadrivo’ nuttaṁ varjin víryam. Yaddha tyaṁ māyinaṁ mṛgāṁ tamu tvaṁ māyayāvadhīraccha ānū स्वराज्यम् ॥ ॥

To you, Indra, lord of the thunderbolt, mighty ruler of the republic, high as mountain and the cloud, cheers for incomparable excellence of valour since you, doing honour and reverence to the freedom and self-governance of the republic, destroyed that artful roaring demon of a cloud of darkness with your extraordinary power.

Indra, your naval forces of the thunderbolt stand by ninety rivers and the sea. Mighty is your power, awful the valour concentrated in your arms, great ruler, dedicated in faith and reverence to freedom and the sovereign republic.

Let all together with unanimity honour Indra, the ruler dedicated in faith and honour to the freedom and sovereignty of the Republic and the law and constitution in force under the rules of Veda, universal knowledge and universal values of humanity. Let a council of twenty assist and support him for work and stability of the government. Let hundreds of commanders obey and admire him for the success and glory of the land and the people.

Indra, lord mighty as the force of lightning, with his courage and valour breaks down and eliminates the force and power of Vṛtra, demon of ignorance, injustice and poverty. Great is that manliness and virility of his. Destroyer of the forces of darkness and slavery, he releases the spirit of freshness and the waters of new life in dedication and reverence to freedom and sovereignty of the grand world order of humanity.

Indra, lord of law and the thunderbolt of strength and power, both these, the great earth and the vast environment, feel stirred with awe in reverence to your spirit and passion when you, O lord of stormy troops, with your valour and blazing brilliance, attack and destroy Vṛtra, demon of darkness and want, to defend and maintain the sanctity and glory of the freedom and sovereignty of the republic.

Neither by thunder nor by lightning can Vṛtra, the cloud, terrorize Indra, the sun. Similarly neither by force nor by fear can the forces of evil, injustice and violence shake Indra, the ruler, who is dedicated with faith and reverence to the freedom and self-government of the people and the republic. Instead, the thunderbolt of inviolable steel and a hundred-fold lightning blaze overwhelms this demon of destructive forces from all round.

Indra, heroic ruler, dedicated in reverence and faith to the freedom and sovereignty of the republic, when you fight Vṛtra, the cloud of evil and violence, shoot the force of lightning with your thunderbolt killing the demon, then your valour and fame as killer of the serpent of evil reaches heaven and abides there.

त्वं त्वा चित्तव मन्यते इन्द्रे विद्वतेऽभियाच गृहु स्वराज्यम्।

Tvāṣṭā cit tava manyava indra vevijyate bhīyār-cannanu svarājyam.

Indra, lord ruler of the republic, dedicated to the freedom of the people and sovereignty of the state, when in the resounding fame and reverberations of your power, everything non-moving and everybody moving shines with brilliance, and the artists and technologists, Tvashtas of the nation, creators and makers of beautiful things, move with awe in homage to your spirit and passion for freedom and governance, then your dedication to the republic would be complete and wholly fulfilled.

नहि नु यादधीमसिन्द्रं का वीया पुः।
तस्मि गृणमुत कतु दुवा आजांसि सं दंधुराच गृहु स्वराज्यम्।

15. Nahi nu yādadhīmasīndram ko vīryā paraḥ.
Tasminnṛṃṇamuta kratum devā ojāṃsi sam dadhurarcannanu svarājyam.

Who would not approach Indra? We all approach and admire him. Supreme are his virtues and attributes. Who can surpass? The divinities vest in him all the wealth desired by humanity, noble yajnic action and all the valour, splendour and heroism, dedicated as he is in reverence and faith to freedom and self-government. In him and under his rule all good people are blest with wealth of knowledge, action, valour and fame.

Yāmatharvā manuṣṭīta dūḍydhā dhiyamalata. tasmān-bhājanī

16. Yāmatharvā manuṣṭīta dadhyaṇa dhiyamatanata. Tasmin brahmāṇii pūrvathendra ukthā Samag-mattārcanmanu svarājyam.

That intelligence, knowledge and enlightenment which Atharva, men of love and settled peace, Manu, men of thought and science, Pita, parents and teachers, and men of attainment and acquisition developed and spread across the land in faith and service to the sovereign republic of the peoples’ freedom and self-governance, and, like the ancients, vested in Indra, the ruler, the same multiple sciences and songs of celebration, the same intelligence, knowledge and enlightenment, you all, people of the land, acquire and develop in furtherance of the freedom and sovereignty of the republic with faith and reverence.

Mandala 1/Sukta 81

Indra Devata, Gotama Rahugana Rshi

Indro madāya vāvṛdhī śavase vṛtrahā nṛbhiḥ. Taminmahatśvājiṣṭuṁtamabhīh havāmāhe sa vājēṣu pra no’viṣat. ॥ १ ॥

1. Indro madāya vāvṛdhī śavase vṛtrahā nṛbhiḥ. Taminmahatśvājiṣṭuṁemarbhe havāmahe sa vājēṣu pra no’viṣat.

Indra, the hero who destroys Vṛtra, the cloud of want and suffering, and releases the showers of plenty and prosperity, goes forward with the people for the achievement of strength and joy of the land of freedom and self-government. And him we invoke and exhort in the battles of life, great and small, so that he may defend and advance us in all our struggles for progress and lead us to victory.

2. Asi hi vīra senyo’si bhūri parādadiḥ. Asi dabhra-sya cid vṛdho yajamānāya śikṣasi sunvate bhūri te vasu.

Indra, you are the valiant hero. You are the warrior taking on many enemies and oppositions at a time. Even the small, you raise to greatness. You lead the creative and generous yajamana to knowledge and power. Hero of the battles of existence, may your wealth, power and honour grow higher and higher.

यदुदीर्त आजया धृष्ट्वर्ग धीयत धना। यु बा मंदुच्युता हरी के हन: के वसाांडधाच्चर्माँ इन्द्र वसाांडध:॥ ३ ॥

When battles confront the nation, means and money are raised and prizes won for the brave. Commander of the forces, yoke the forces exuberant and raging for war. Destroy the enemy. Settle the victorious in wealth and peace. Indra, pray settle us in peace and comfort.

कत्वा महां अनुष्ठं भीम आ वांवृृथ: शर्व:। श्रीय ॠष्ष्ट्रउपाक्यानि शिप्पी हरिवान्दध हस्तयावर्ज्ञमायसम ॥ ४ ॥
4. Kratvā mahāān anuśvadham bhīma ā vāvṛdhe śavaḥ. Śriya ṛṣva upākayorṇi śiprī harivān dadhe hastayorvajramāyasam.

   Great by knowledge, awful by action, in his own right and by his own might, he grows in power and majesty. Elevated and sublime, blazing brilliant, lord of horses and speed of motion, he wields the golden thunderbolt of power and force in both his hands for the beauty and dignity of life and the republic of humanity.

5. Ā paprau pārthivam rajo badbadhe rocanā divi. Na tvāvāṁ īndra kaścana na jāto na janisyate’ti viśvaṁ vavakṣitha.

   You pervade the earth and all that is earthly. You pervade the sky. You pervade and fix the bright heaven in place. Indra, none like you was ever born, nor shall ever be born. Indeed, you hold, rule, pervade and transcend the entire universe of existence.

6. Yo aryo martabhojanam parādadāti dāśuṣe. Indro asmabhyaṁ śiksatu vi bhajā bhūrī te vasu bha-kṣīya tava rādhasaḥ.

   Indra, lord of the universe, master of life, provides food and sustenance for living beings. He gives wealth and comfort for the generous giver and for us. May the lord take us unto himself and give us knowledge and instruction. O lord, may we, we pray, share your abundant treasure of wealth and divine happiness. May I enjoy the wealth and knowledge given by the lord.

7. Mademade hi no dadiryūthā gavāmrjukratuḥ. Sam grbhāya purū śatobhayāhastya vasu śīśīhi rāya ā bhara.

Indra, lord of wealth, power and generosity, in every joy of life, you are the giver. You are the giver of plenty of cows and abundance of light and sense. Lord of simple, natural and divine action of yajna, may he provide hundreds of kinds of wealth for us and bless us with both of his hands generously. Lord of wealth and glory, bring us the wealth of joy, dignity and glory and let us shine with honour.

Brave hero, be with us in this holy yajnic programme of the land of freedom and sovereignty for the creation of wealth, power and joy. Join us and let us celebrate together. Lord of abundant wealth, power and joy you are. May we, we pray, know you and be with you at the closest. Be our saviour, our protector, our promoter, so that we may creatively realise all our desires and ambitions.

Indra, lord of life and spirit, these living beings, yours all, do homage to you and augment the wealth and glory of the entire world. Lord and master of the people, you know the very heart of them inside out. Bring us the wealth of knowledge and spirit. Restore the wealth and knowledge of those ungenerous miserables who have lost it.

Indra Devata, Gotama Rahugana Rshi

1. Upo ṣu śṛṇuhī giro maghavan mātathā iva. Yadā nah sūnṛtāvataḥ kara ādārthayāsa idyojā nvinndra te harī.

Indra, lord of wealth and glory, listen to our prayer at the closest, not like one distant or different. And when we pray bless us with a voice of sweetness and the light of holy truth. Lord of speed and motion, yoke your horses (and come to join the yajna).

2. Aksānnaṁimadanta hyava priyā adhūṣata. Astoṣata svabhānavo vipra naviṣṭhayā maṁ yojā nvinndra te harī.

Indra, only that person who knows the science and technology of that horse-powered chariot which is perfect and fully capable of defence and safety against the enemy, would ride that prize-winning chariot of victory which would lead him to the conquest of territory and prosperity. Indra, yoke your horses (and come to join the yajna of defence and protection).
Noble men acquiring holy knowledge, rejoicing, dearest favourite saints and sages brilliant with their innate genius and virtue, ward off the evil and pray to Indra with latest words of wisdom and homage. Indra, yoke your horses (on the wing and come to join the yajna).

Indra, lord of wealth, power and universal glory, we pray to you, lord of the blissful eye. Lord in perfect covenant with humanity, worshipped and prayed to in sincerity, proceed and overwhelm the enemies of yajna and humanity. Yoke your horses (and come to bless the yajna).

4. Sa ghā taṁ vrṣaṇaṁ rathamadhi tiṣṭhāti govidam. Yah pātraṁ hāriyojanaṁ pūrṇamin-dra ciketati yojā nvindra te harī.

Indra, only that person who knows the science and technology of that horse-powered chariot which is perfect and fully capable of defence and safety against the enemy, would ride that prize-winning chariot of victory which would lead him to the conquest of territory and prosperity. Indra, yoke your horses (and come to join the yajna of defence and protection).
5. \textit{Yuktaste astu dakśiṇa uta savyaḥ śatakrato. Tena jāyāmupa priyāṁ mandāno yāhyandhaso yojā nvindra te hari.}

Indra, hero of a hundred yajnic battles, let your horse power on the right, and your horse power on the left of the chariot be yoked, and, happy at heart, with presents of delicacies, go to meet your darling wife. Lord of love, power and victory, yoke your horses and proceed.

6. \textit{Yunajmi te brahmaČ keśinā hari upa pra yāhi dadhiśe gabhastyoh. Uttvā sutāso rabhasā amandīṣuḥ pūṣaṇvān vajrintsamu patnyāmadaḥ.}

I yoke your horses of beautiful mane to the chariot with holy chant of divine hymns and delicacies for sacred presents and gifts. Hold the reins in your hands and proceed for home. And then, lord of the thunderbolt and leader of heroic warriors, there, enthusiastic and ecstatic friends, well-trained, educated and cultured would join you for delightful company. And then, go and meet your wife and, with her, enjoy yourself with the family.
Mandala 1/Sukta 83

Indra Devata, Gotama Rahugana Rshi

1. Aśvāvati prathamo goṣu gacchati suprāvīrindra martyrastavitibhiḥ. Tamit prṇakṣi vasunā bha-vīyasā sindhumāpo yathābhito vicetasaḥ.

   O Indra, lord ruler and protector, in a horse-powered chariot the pioneer goes forward first over lands and oceans in the world, man of zeal and courage as he is, protected by all your means of safety and defence. And him you bless with abundant wealth and fame which come to him as prominent rivers from all round join and flow into the sea.

2. Āpo na devīrupa yanti hotriyamavaḥ paśyanti vitataṁ yathā rajāḥ. Prācairdevāsah pra ṇayan-ti devayūṁ brahmapiyāṁ joṣayante varā iva.

   Just as holy waters go to the sea and the vapours concentrate in the cloud, so do holy people go to yajna and to Indra, lord of yajna, and as they see the yajna spread around from the vedi as shelter of life’s protection, so they conduct themselves in the tradition of ancient scholars and go forward to the holiest of the holies of existence and, like the best people of knowledge, action and devotion, love the divine lord and the divine lore as the highest boon of life.

3. Adhi dvayoradadhā ukthyaṁ vaco yatasrucā mithunā yā saparyataḥ. Asaṁyatto vrate te kṣetī puṣyati bhadrā śaktiryajamānāya sunvate.

Indra, lord of yajna, just as you accept the offerings held in the ladles raised by the wedded couple, so graciously listen and accept the holy prayers of the two, ancients and moderns, teacher and disciple, husband and wife, parent and child, for the good of both. Even the loose and the wanton, under your care, find shelter and protection and grow. The gracious power of yajna creates and offers everything for the yajamana.

4. Ādaṅgirāḥ prathamāṁ dadhire vaya iddhāgnayāḥ śamyā ye sukrtyayā. Sarvam paṇeḥ samavindanta bhojanam aśvāvantam gomantamā paśuṁ naraḥ.

And then the scientists of fire and energy, leaders of mankind who light the fires and who first offer the libations into the fire with holy acts of love and peace, win their share of praise and fame with the reward of horses, speed and motion, wealth of cows, sensitivity of mind and senses and the joy of life and celestial vision.
5. Yajñairatharvā prathamaḥ prathastate tataḥ sūryo vratapā vena ājani. Ā gā ājaduśanā kāvyāḥ sacā yamasya jatamamṛtam yajāmahe.

As Atharva, scholar of sustained constancy like energy in stasis, discovers and creates the prime path of motion by yajnic research, the noble solar scientist brilliant as the sun dedicated to his vow rises in knowledge and discovers the path of the earth. Then the poetic sage prophetically inspired sings of the beauty of Venus and satellites born of the sun. And we meditate and pray for immortality of the state of moksha.

6. Barhirvā yat svapatyāya vṛjyate’rko vā ślokamā-ghoṣate divi. Grāvā yatra vadati kārurukthya- stasyedindro abhipitveṣu raṇyatī.

Where knowledge and science is collected like holy grass of yajna for the sake of noble posterity, where holy verses illuminating as the sun in heaven are chanted, where the artist carves around the vedi and holy mantras resound as thunder of the clouds, there in the blessed foods and offerings, Indra, lord of yajna, rejoices and speaks.
Mandala 1/Sukta 84

1. Asāvi soma indra te śaviṣṭha dhṛṣṭānavā gahi. Ā tvā pṛṇaktvindriyaṁ rajaḥ sūryo na raśmibhiḥ.

   Indra, lord ruler of power, strong and resolute, come, this soma has been distilled for you. May it exhilarate and strengthen your mind as the sun fills and brightens the sky with its rays.

2. Indramiddharī vahato’pratidhṛṣṭaśavasam. Rṣīṇāṁ ca stūrīrupa yajñāṁ ca mānuṣānaṁ.

   The horses carry Indra, lord of formidable force and resolution of mind, to the Rshis’ songs of praise and yajnic programmes of the people.

3. Ā tiṣṭha vṛtrahan ratham yuktā te brahmaṅā harī. Arvācīnaṁ su te mano grāvā kṛṇotu vagnunaṁ.

   Indra, lord ruler, breaker of the cloud, releaser of the waters of life, ride your chariot of the latest design and come. The horses are yoked with the right mantra and necessary stuffs. And may the high-priest of knowledge with his words of knowledge exhilarate you at heart.
1. As Śvī soma Indra te Śvī ha dhāvī gahi.

    Indra, lord of light and universal rule, drink of the ecstasy of joy distilled, highest and immortal. The streams of pure and brilliant power and glory flow towards you in the house of Truth and Law.

5. Indrāya nūnamarcatokthāni ca bravītana.
   Sutā amatsurindavo jyeśham namasyatā sahaḥ.

    All ye children of the earth, in truth and sincerity, do reverence and homage to Indra, ruling lord of light and life. Speak words of thanks and praise in appreciation of his dominion. Let the drops of distilled soma give him delight and ecstasy. Bow to him, lord supreme of courage and power.

   Nakiśṭvānu majmanā nakiḥ svaśva ānaše.

    Indra, while you yoke and drive the horses, powers of the chariot of your dominion, none could be a better master of the chariot. None could equal you in power, courage and force. None as master of horse and chariot could claim even to approach you in power, efficiency and glory.
7. Ya eka id vidayate vasu martāya dāśuše.
   Īśāno apratīṣṭkuta indro aṅga.

   Dear friend, the one sole lord who gives everything in life to the man of charity and generosity is Indra, supreme ruler of the world, who is constant, unmoved and unchallenged.

   Dear friend, when would Indra, lord of wealth, power and justice, shake the miserly, uncreative, ungenerous and selfish person like a weed? Who knows? And would he listen to our prayers? Any time!

9. Yaściddhi tvā bahubhyā ā sutāvāṁ āvivāsati.
   Ugraṁ tat patyate śava indro aṅga.

   Dear friend, it is Indra, creator of energy, vitality and the joy of soma, who, for the sake of many does special favours to you and makes you shine, and it is he, again, who controls violent force, that which could be anywhere.

   The golden and brilliant people and forces of the land drink of the delicious, exciting and universal honey sweets of national pride and prestige and joyously celebrate their achievements in the company of generous and valorous Indra for the advancement of the honour and glory of the republic in obedience to the demands and discipline of the freedom and self-government of the nation.

   Those forces of Indra, the ruler, close together in contact and unison, of varied forms and colours, brilliant as sunrays and generous and productive as cows, who are dearest favourites of the ruler, create the soma of joy and national dignity and hurl the missile of the thunderbolt upon the invader as loyal citizens of the land in accordance with the demands and discipline of freedom and self-government.

Those forces, noble and intelligent, serve and augment the courage and power of this Indra with food, energy and armaments and, as citizens of the land, as a matter of duty to the freedom and discipline of the republic, predictably join many dedicated projects and programmes of his in anticipation of success.

Indra, lord of light and space, unchallenged and unchallengeable, wields the thunderbolt and, with weapons of winds, light and thunder, breaks the clouds of ninety-nine orders of water and electricity for the sake of humanity and the earth.

Just as here on the surface of the earth and in its environment, we know, there is the beautiful light of the sun penetrating and reaching everywhere, similarly, let all know, it is there on the surface of the moon. (Just as the sun holds and illuminates the earth and the moon, so should the ruler with his light of justice and power hold and brighten every home in the land.)

Who joins the bullocks to the front yoke of the chariot of Truth to-day as ever? The Lord Ruler of the universe. And he who joins men of noble action, heroes of passion and righteousness, frightful fighters, archers of the bow and arrow who pierce the hearts of contradictions and maintain peace and joy, may he who joins these to truth and promotes these servants of truth to prosperity live long.

Who attacks and wins? Who is attacked and overthrown, who is smothered by fear? Who knows

Who worships Agni with ghrta and holy materials for the progress of life? Who performs yajna with ladles of offerings definitely according to the seasons? For whom do the divinities instantly bear and bring the blessings of holiness? Who, noble and generous yajaka and brilliant scholar, really knows? The lord ruler.

Anga, dear friend, Indra, dear and saviour, giver of joy, omnipotent lord, self-refulgent and omniscient, reveal the truth for mortal humanity. Lord of universal wealth, none other than you is the giver of peace and bliss. I speak the very word of yours in covenant.
20. Mā te rādhāṁsi mā ta ītayo vaso’śmān kadā canā dabhan. Viśvā ca na upamimīhi mānuṣa vasūni carṣaṇībhya ā.

Indra, universal shelter of the world, may all your blessings of wealth and modes of protection never forsake us. Loving father of humanity, grant us all the wealth of knowledge and bliss here and hereafter for all the people of the world.

1. Pra ye śumbhante janayo na saptayo yāman rudrasya sūnavaḥ sudāṁsasah. Rodaśi hi maruta-āścakrire vṛdhe madanti vīrā vidatheśu ghrṣvayaḥ.

Maruts, the winds, currents of energy, tempestuous warriors of noble action, children of Rudra, lord of justice and dispensation, move on their highways and shine like graceful beauties and coursers of lightning speed. They fill the heaven and earth with their vibrations and actions for the sake of progress and expansion. Heroes of mighty power, they fight and rejoice in yajnic acts of creation and growth of life.

Maruts, children of Rudra, lord of might and justice, born of space, showerers of fertility over the earth, they win grandeur for themselves and build their home high over the skies in heaven. Worshipping the sun and creating wealth of mind and material, they shine with grace over the wealth and beauty of the mortal world.

Maruts, children of the earth, shining with noblest sciences and actions, commanding glowing health and handsomeness, bear light and grace of body and mind. They stall all their opponents in the world, and wherever they go, life’s nectar, ghṛta and waters flow in abundance and follow in their footsteps.

They are the heroes, Maruts, who shine with their own lustre, powers of noble yajnic action and scientific achievement who, moving at the speed of mind, shake even the unshakable with their mighty weapons, using the energy of wind, water and electricity. Ye, rulers and commanders of the forces, powerful tacticians and organisers, deploy the maruts and use the power of versatile wind, water and electricity in your cars and battle chariots.

5. Pra yad ratheṣu प्रशारीयुगधवं वाजु adriṁ मरुतो राहयांताः. Utārūṣasya viṣyanti dhārā ścarmevodabhirvyundanti bhūma.

O Maruts, heroes of the nation, when in the battle of life you apply the versatile winds and water which move the cloud to shower the rains, then the brilliant streams issue forth and cover the earth with water just as the streams of soma flow and soak the filter spread out for distillation.

6. Ā vo vahantu saptayo raγhuṣyaδo rāγhupatvānaḥ pra jīgaṭa bāhubhiḥ. Śīdata barhiruru vaḥ sadaskṛtam mādayadhvam maruto madhvo andhasaḥ.

Maruts, may superfast vehicles transport you here and everywhere. May the flying planes at top speed take you anywhere by the force of their arms. Come, the chamber is made ready for you. Come and be comfortable in the seats. Enjoy yourselves with honey sweets of food and drink.

They surely grow and advance by their own strength and high merit, abide in regions of bliss and expand their home whom Vishnu, lord of knowledge and science, protects while they ride a luxurious plane powered by wind and water and, seated in a beautiful and comfortable chamber, they fly like birds.

Like heroes they are warriors. Like warriors they rise and advance. In battles they strike like flying dragons. The entire world quakes with fear of the Maruts. They are leaders of men blazing in majesty like emperors.

Tvashta, the expert maker of weapons, tools and instruments for defence and development, provides the thunderbolt, total infrastructure, well-done, golden and capable of countless possibilities of performance. Indra, mighty ruler, defender and creator, wields that thunderbolt and apparatus for the accomplishment of desired and planned actions in the world of humanity. He strikes Vṛtra, the cloud holding waters of fertility, the resources of materials and energy, and thus releases the oceanic flow of wealth. (This is how scientific, technological and economic development of the human nation goes on for the achievement of economic prosperity, political stability and generous happiness and well-being for all. All through, the Maruts are active since they are nature’s forces ever at work anywhere and everywhere.)

10. Ūrdhvaṁ nunudre’vatāṁ ta ojasā dādṛḥāṇaṁ cid bibhidurvi parvatam. Dhamanto bāṇaṁ marutaḥ sudānavo made somasya raṇyāni cakrire.

With their lustrous power and valour, up and high they impel the cloud holding the reservoir of water, drive it on and break it to release the flow of energy for earth’s fertility. Blowing the conch, they call upon the nation and, playing the veena and burnishing their weapons, the tempestuous Maruts, commanders of Indra, generous heroes of humanity, perform delightful acts of joy and martial celebration in the midst of life’s ecstasy.

Maruts, powers of wondrous light with their might and generosity direct the controlled waters of the cloud by various paths in the desired directions, filling wells, tanks, springs and depressions for the thirsting children of the earth. Thus do the powers of beneficence come to the earth with protection and progress fulfilling the need of noble humanity with their power and potential.

12. Yā vaḥ śarma śaśamāṇāya santi tridhātūṁi dāśuṣe yacchatādhi. Asmabhyāṁ tāṁi maruto vi yantī no dhatta vrṣaṅaḥ suvīrāṁ.

O Maruts, dynamic powers of nature and humanity, creative, generous and kind, whatever your gifts of shelter, comfort and protection there be, whatever gifts of balanced health and triple physical, mental and material wealth there be, bear and bring for the toiling, working, worshipping humanity, specially for the generous man of philanthropy. Powers and showers of divine favours, bear and bring for us those gifts of wealth and brave progeny.

Mandala 1/Sukta 86

Maruts Devata, Gotama Rahugana Rshi

1. Maruto yasya hi kṣaye pāthā divo vimahasaḥ.
   Sa sugopātamo janaḥ.

   Maruts, dear as the breath of life, bright as the light of heaven, agents of great and adorable action, the person whose house you visit and bless with protection grows to be the most secure and meritorious person.

2. Yajñairvā yajñavāhaso viprasya vā mañīnām.
   Marutaḥ śṛṇutā havam.

   Maruts, carriers and promoters of universal yajna by various acts of yajna in nature and society, listen to the prayer and invocations of the pious and intelligent people and promote their acts of holiness.

3. Uta vā yasya vājino’nu vipramatakasata.
   Sa gantā gomati vraje.
Maruts, powers of exceptional speed and intelligence, the man of knowledge whom you shape into a sophisticated scholar of eminence grows to be a pioneer on the path of the stars.

\[\text{Maruts, dynamic powers of brilliance and generosity, old and ancient, just as you have been giving knowledge, power and protection to humanity since the earliest years of life, so may we, we pray, do honour}\]

The soma of honour and fame distilled on the holy seats of yajna, the holy chant of praise, and the joy and celebration of the brilliant achievement of this brave young man is exceptional and it is raised all round.

Let all people of the world listen to this brave young man and let their homage reach him as the homage and gratitude of the world reaches the sun for the gift of light and life.

Maruts, dynamic powers of brilliance and generosity, old and ancient, just as you have been giving knowledge, power and protection to humanity since the earliest years of life, so may we, we pray, do honour and homage to you with the faithful gifts of a grateful people.

9. Yūyam tat satyaśavasa āviṣkarta mahitvanā. Vidhyatā vidyutā rakṣaḥ.

Maruts, men of real courage and power, with your honour and reputation and technological weapons, let that power and force come into play which would fix and break down the forces of crime and evil from the social scene.
10. Gūhatā guhyaṁ tamo vi yāta viśvamatriṇām. **
Jyotिकटā yaduśmāsī.

Maruts, powers of courage and justice, uncover and reduce the deep darkness of want and ignorance to nullity, eliminate the voracious hoarders of the world, and create the light that we love and adore.

Mandala 1/Sukta 87

Maruts Devata, Gotama Rahugana Rshi

Pratvākṣasaḥ pratavasō virapśino’nānatā avīthuṛā jīśiṇāḥ. Jūṣṭatamāso nṛtamāso añjihir vyānajre ke cidusrā iva stṛbhiḥ.

Maruts, shaping and refining powers of life and nature, active powerfully, mighty exuberant, unbent, unshaken, lovers of truth, knowledge and joy to the last drop of soma, most adorable, foremost leaders of humanity shine as the lights of dawn with their splendour and cover the beauty of life with their blessings of protection.

Upahvareśu yadacidhvaṁ yayim vaya iva marutah kena cit pathā. Šcotanti kośā upa vo ratheṣvā ghrṣtamukṣatā madhuvarṇam arcate.
O Maruts, tempestuous heroes of the human nation, flying like birds by whatever path you choose, whatever the prize of success and victory you collect on your winding courses, the clouds consecrate you around your chariots, and shower golden honey-ghṛta on the admiring faithfults dedicated to you and your project.

During their mighty operations the earth vibrates like a maiden stricken with awe when the Maruts launch upon their noble courses. And they, sporting, shaking, burnishing their weapons and storming, mount up their own grandeur by themselves.

The same force of Maruts, troop of heroes, young, self-inspired and inspiring their people, equipped with variety of tempestuous horse-power, all ruling with comprehensive intelligence, clothed in the light of essential merit and grandeur, you are realistic and dedicated to truth, acquitted yourselves of your obligations, worthy of praise, protectors of this intelligence of the nation with promotion and progress, and generous as blessed winds that bring showers of rain.

We speak of the ancient and eternal Lord by virtue of birth from the same father of creation. By virtue of the joy of being and the sight and light of the sun, the tongue celebrates and advances the language of knowledge. Those researching and activating water and energy study the Rks and realise the knowledge and power, and then define the names, properties and yajnic uses of these in peace for progress.

For the sake of the beauty, comfort and culture of life, they mix water with the flames of fire and clouds with the rays of the sun with the advice of the scholars of Rks, and they bring showers of rain. And, blest with sophisticated instruments and weapons, impetuous of speed and power, free of fear, they know the secrets and sources of the wondrous and dear energies of the Maruts.

Mandala 1/Sukta 88

Maruts Devata, Gotama Rahugana Rshi

1. Ā vidyunmadbhirmarutāḥ svarkai rathebhiryāta rṣṭimadbhiraśvaparnaiḥ. Ā varṣiṣṭhayā na iṣā vayo na paptatā sumāyāḥ.

Maruts, heroes of the speed of winds, masters of wondrous science and power, go far by brilliant electric chariots fitted with high-powered weapons and equipped with aerial wings and, flying like birds, come to us with food and energy of the best and highest quality.

2. Te’ruṇebhirvaramā piśaṅgaiḥ ūbhe kaṁ yānti rathatūrbhiraśvaiḥ. Rukmo na citraḥ svadhitī-vān pavyā rathasya jaṅghananta bhūma.

Maruts, heroes of the speed of winds, come to high comfort for the sake of noble work by chariots powered by red flaming and yellow fire power and used for horses on the wing. The troop of heroes, brilliant as well as wonderful, commanding the force of thunderbolt, arrives striking and breaking the ground with the felly of the chariot wheel.

3. Śriye kam vo adhi tanuṣu vāśīrmedhā vanā na kṛṇavanta ārdhva. Yuṣmabhyaṁ kam marutah sujātāstuvidyumnāso dhanayante adrim.

For the grace of beauty, freedom and power, and to provide you comfort, they raise the level of intelligence and knowledge of the divine Word of the Veda in your personality just as they raise and develop the trees of the forest. The Maruts, high born, abundant and exuberant in the wealth and knowledge of nature and mind, enrich the cloud and the mountain to bear fruit and provide comfort and joy for you.

Lovers of noble ambition, good days are come for you all round. Scholars of divine knowledge creating food for knowledge and spirit with the chant of holy mantras inspire this brilliant vision and intelligence of yours pure as celestial waters. Just as they uplift the water to provide drink and irrigation to dry area, so they impel our knowledge and intelligence to rise high.

Maruts, heroes of knowledge and action moving at the speed of winds, this order of knowledge, action, science and progress which the scholars of science and Divinity, seeing the chariots of golden wheels and jaws of steel flying around and roaring, describes and teaches like an ideal teacher, awakens you to higher consciousness of knowledge and responsibility.

Maruts, heroes of the winds and leaders of humanity, this voice of celebration is replete with nourishment and confirmation of your honour and valour. It defines your action and achievement and, in consequence, it commits you to your honour and duty as the voice of the high priest commits the yajamana to his duty on purpose, according to the power and potential in his hands.
Vishvedeva Deva, Aditi Devata, Gotama Rahugana Rshi

1. Ā no bhadrāḥ kratavo yantu viśvato’dabdhaḥ aparitāsa udbhidaḥ. Devā no yathā sadmid vṛdhhe asannaprāyuvo rakṣitāro divedive.

From all sides, may noble thoughts, actions and meritorious people come and bless us, people fearless, indispensable, creative and all round saviours. Long lived they be, these noble ones of divine character, ever progressive and protective for us so that our life and home may grow and advance day by day.

2. Devānāṁ bhadrāḥ sumatirjūyatāṁ devānāṁ rātirabhī no ni vartatāṁ. Devānāṁ sakhyamu-pa sedimā vayaṁ devā na āyuḥ pra tirantu jīvase.

May the holy wisdom of the noble people dedicated to truth, simplicity and divinity come and bless us. May the wealth and generosity of the self-realised souls ever shine on us. May we ever be close to the love and friendship of the creative and brilliant people. May all powers of divinity bless us with good health and long age for a noble and full life.

3. TŒn pµurvayŒ nividã hûmahe vayam bhagammitram aditiµm dakµam asridham. Aryamanµam varuµam somam ašvinµasarasvaµi nahi subhagµamayaskarat.

Them, with the ancient and eternal Vedic voice of omniscience, do we invoke and celebrate: we praise and celebrate Bhaga, lord of glory, Mitra, universal friend, Aditi, mother of light, Daksha, lord of skill and expertise, Asridha, lord of love and ahinsa, Aryaman, lord of justice, Varuna, lord of all virtue worthy of choice, Soma, lord of beauty, peace and joy, Ashvins, lords of natural complementarities, and Sarasvati, mother of knowledge and learning and giver of good fortune who may, we pray, do us all the good in life.

4. Tanno våto mayobhu våtu bheṣajain tanmātā pr̲thivī tat pitā dyauµ. Tad gr̲avānāḥ somasuto mayobhuvastadašvinµ śṛṣūtaµ dhiṣṇyā yuvam.

May the wind, refreshing and delightful, blow good and bring us that healthful medicinal freshness and joy. May mother earth and father sun give us that fresh lease of life. May the clouds, showers of joy, and the soma press of yajna rain down peace, health and happiness on us. O Ashvins, both nature’s powers of growth, complementarity and enlightenment, innately vested with universal wisdom, listen to our prayer.

For our safety and protection, we invoke and pray to that Lord Ruler of the universe, father and controller of the moving and the non-moving world who inspires and enlightens our mind and sense so that Pusha, lord of health and growth, beyond fear and violence, protector and giver of nourishment be kind and favourable to us for our good and for the growth of our knowledge and competence.

May Indra, lord of power and majesty, abundant in food, energy and honour, be for our good and bless us with favours. May Pusha, lord of universal growth, be for our good and bless us with progress. May Tarkshya, lord inviolable, worthy of love and friendship, destroyer of suffering, be good for us and bless us with good fortune. And may Brhaspati, lord of universal knowledge and wisdom be good and bless us with knowledge, wisdom and sweet language.

Maruts, tempestuous heroes of war, of a variety of horses and chariots, children of the earth, lovers of good and beauty, moving to yajnas and marching to battles, having tongues of fire, thoughtful, radiant as the sun, all of them choice nobilities of the world may, we pray, come to us with the gift of protection and progress.

Noble people of brilliant, generous and divine nature, help us to hear with our ears what is good and beneficial. Noble people dedicated to yajna, may we, by your favour and kindness see with our eyes what is good and elevating. May we, enjoying with firm and strong bodies and body parts, thanking the Lord Divine and praising the things given by Him live a full life fit for and blest by the divinities.
9. Śatamīnu śarado anti devā yatrā naścakṛā jara-ṃ saṁ tanūnām. Putrāso yatra pitāro bhavanti mā no madhyā rīriṣatāyurgantoḥ.

O Devas, powers of nature and divinity, hundred years is the proximity of our life in which are also provided the years of our old age. In that very period, our children will grow to be the fathers of their children. We pray, let not the life line of a person moving on to the hundred year mark be snapped on the way.

Heaven, the region of light, the lord of light, is eternal, imperishable. Akasha, i.e., the sky region is eternal. Mother is eternal. The father is eternal. The son is eternal. All the divinities of nature and humanity are eternal. The five orders of society are eternal. All that is born is eternal. All that is being born and will be born is eternal.

Note: Eternal, imperishable, permanent: these terms are to be understood in the context of Vedic philosophy, and not in the context of daily life. Things are eternal in two ways: essentially and existentially. God, i.e., Ishvara/Brahma, jiva/ the soul, and Prakṛti, these are eternal essentially. They are there when the universe is created and they remain after the life of one creation is over at the time of pralaya, annihilation. But the things that come into existence at the time of creation, such as light, sun, sky, air, water, earth, human and other forms of life, human relations such as father, mother, son, daughter, classes of people etc., go out of existence to annihilation at the time of pralaya. And yet, at the time of the next creation, they come into existence again. Thus they come into existence and go out of existence, and this flow of existence-non existence continues for all time, eternally. This flow is eternal. This flow is called Pravaha. These things are eternal in relation to this flow of existence. They are eternal existentially. The three, God, soul and Prakrti (nature) are eternal essentially.

Mandala 1/Sukta 90

Vishvedeva Devata, Gotama Rahugana Rshi

1. Rjunīti no varuṇo mitro nayatu vidvān.
   Aryamā devaiḥ sajośāh.

May God, Lord Omniscient, Varuna, lord of justice and worthy of our intelligent choice, Mitra, lord of universal friendship, and the man of knowledge, wisdom and divine vision bless us with a natural simple and honest way of living. May Aryama, lord of justice and dispensation, bless us with a straight way of living without pretence. May He, lord of love who loves us and whom we love bless us with the company of noble, generous and brilliant people in humanity, and may He grant us the benefit of such generous powers of nature.

2. Te hi vasvo vasavānāste apramūrā mahobhiḥ.
Vratā rakṣante viśvāhā.

They are the wealth, they are the values. They shower all with wealth and the values of life. They are intelligent, they know, they are great with great things and grandeur of existence. They guard and maintain the discipline and laws of life for all time.

3. Te asmabhyaṁ śarma yaṁsannamṛtā martye-bhyah.
Bādhamānā apu dvīṣah.

May they, lords of power and intelligence, immortal and free, bring us, for all the mortals, comfort and well-being, keeping off hate and enmity.

4. Vi naḥ pathah suvitāya ciyantvindro marutah.
Pūṣā bhago vandyāsah.

May Indra, lord of power and majesty, Maruts, vibrant powers of nature and leaders of humanity, Pusha, lord of health and growth, Bhaga, lord of plenty and good fortune, all worthy of adoration, select and prepare for us the right paths of living and confirm us in the good life for comfort and well-being.
5.  Uta no dhiyo go agrāh pūṣan viṣṇavevayāvah.

Pusha, lord of health and growth, Vishnu, lord omnipresent, and the leading man of enlightenment may, we pray, guide us to the intelligence and imagination which may issue in the right sense of perception, will and action, and may they confirm us in the good life of plenty and well-being.

Sweet as honey the winds blow for the soul of simplicity and naturalness. The waters rain, rivers flow and the oceans roll sweet as honey. May the herbs too be sweet as honey for us all.

May the night be soothing sweet as honey. May the days be energetic sweet as honey. May the dust of earth be fragrant sweet as honey. And may the sun in heaven, our father, shine bright and sweet as honey.
8. Madhumānno vanaspartirmadhumān astu sūryaḥ.
Mādhvīrgāvo bhavantu naḥ.

May the trees be full of honey for us. May the sun be full of honey for us. May the cows be abundant in honey sweet milk for us.

9. Śaṁ no mitraḥ śaṁ varuṇaḥ śaṁ no bhavatvar-yamā. Śaṁ na indro bhṛhaspatiḥ śaṁ no viṣṇururu-kramaḥ.

May Mitra bless us with peace. May Varuna bring us peace. May Aryama lead us to peace. May Indra and Brhaspati shower us with peace. May Vishnu, lord of mighty action, bless us with peace and action.

Mandala 1/Sukta 91

Soma Devata, Gotama Rahugana Rshi

1. Tvaṁ soma pra cikito maniṣaṁ tvam rajisthama-nu neṣi panthām. Tava praṇītiḥ pitaro na indo deveṣu ratnam abhajanta dhīrāḥ.

Soma, lord of peace, power and joy, you are wide-awake with understanding and alertness of mind. You lead to the simple, natural and truthful path of life and action. By virtue of your guidance and leadership, soothing and gracious as the moon, our wise seniors and forefathers enjoy the very jewels of life among the divinities.
2. Tvaṁ soma kratubhiḥ sukuratorbhūstävam daksaiḥ sudakṣo viśvavedāḥ. Tvaṁ vṛśā vṛṣatvēbhīrma-hitvā dyumnebhīrdyumnnyabhavo nṛcaksāḥ.

Soma, lord of peace and joy, with acts of knowledge, vision and wisdom, you are a hero of noble action. With science and expertise, you are the specialist, possessed of universal knowledge. With showers of generosity and noble qualities, you are generous as the cloud. Lord of knowledge and vision of humanity, with your wealth and charities, you are the ideal honoured philanthropist.

3. Rājīno nu te varuṇasya vratāni bṛhadgabhūraṁ tava soma dhāma. Śuciṣṭvamasi priyo na mitro daksāyyo aryamevāsī soma.

Soma, royal and exceptional are your vows of discipline dedicated to the world ruler Varuna. Grand and deep is your home. Pure and immaculate are you, dear as a bosom friend, Soma, and master of ceremonies as the foremost leader of a yajna.

4. Yā te dhāmāni divi yā prthivyāṁ yā parvate-śvoṣadhiśvapsu. Tebhirno viśvaiḥ sumanā aheḷan rājantsoma prati havyā gṛbhāya.
Soma, ruling lord of vitality, life and joy, whatever and wherever your homes in the regions of light, wherever on earth, wherever on the mountains, wherever in the herbs and waters, with all of them, lord good at heart and well-disposed, bless us with the holy materials for yajna and, in return, accept our homage of yajnic oblations.

5. Tvain somasi satpatistvaṁ rājota vṛtrahā.
Tvain bhadro asi kratuḥ.

Soma, you are the lord and ruler of the ultimate and essential reality of existence. You are the ruler and controller of the negativities of existence and a breaker of the clouds of rain. You are the ultimate good and kind father, lord of yajna, omniscient, giver of knowledge, creator of knowledge and yajna.

6. Tvain ca soma no vaśo jīvāturī na marāmahe.
Priyastotro vanaspatiḥ.

Soma, you are the pleasure, beauty and charm of our life for health and age. By virtue of you, we shall not die. You are the darling magic mantra against mortality, the ultimate Tree of Life and freedom.

7. Tvain soma mahe bhagam tvain yūna ṛtāyate.
Dakṣaṁ dadhāsi jīvase.
For the great and young and the devotee of simplicity, nature and universal law, you bring science and expertise and great wealth of special knowledge for life, well-being and full age.

Soma, whatever safeguards, protections and immunities of yours there be, refreshing and rejuvenating for the generous and the charitable, with those be the saviour and protector for us too.

10.

Soma, accept this yajna, this yajnic homage of divine words, come close and be good and kind for our growth and progress.
11. Soma gīrbiṣṭvā vayam vardhayāmo vacovidaḥ. Sumṛṭīko na ā viṣa.

Soma, lord of health and well-being, we praise, celebrate and extol you in the words we know, which describe your virtues and powers. Harbinger of peace and well-being, come and be with us.

12. Gayasphāno amīvahā vasuvit puṣṭivardhanah. Sumitraḥ soma no bhava.

Soma, you are the giver and promoter of pranic vitality. You are the destroyer of disease. You are the lord giver of the wealth of good health and growth with nourishment. You are a good friend. Come and be with us.

13. Soma rārandhi no hṛdi gāvo na yavaseṣvā. Marya iva sva okye.

Soma, come and abide with pleasure in our heart, and let us be at peace with delight at heart as cows are in the fields of rich barley and humans are at peace in security in their own homes.

Soma, lord of health and happiness, lucky is the man who enjoys life in your company with your delightful gifts. The man of efficiency loves to have him for company, and the poet loves to sing of him.

Soma, lord of health and well-being, we praise, celebrate and extol you in the words we know, which describe your virtues and powers. Harbinger of peace and well-being, come and be with us.

15. Uruṣyā ṇo abhiśasteḥ soma ni pāhyaṇhasah. Sakhā suśeva edhi nah.

Soma, lord of health and happiness, guard us against hate, imprecation and depression. Save us from sin and damnation. Come, we pray, and be with us a good friend, philosopher and guide.

Source and secret of health and life, Soma, lord giver of strength and vitality, grow and help us grow. May growth and progress come to you from all round. Let it come to us from all round. Be at the heart of congregations and in the thick of battles where strength and courage rule the life for victory.

17. Ā pyāyasva madintama soma viśvebhiraṁśu-bhīḥ. Bhavā nah suśravastamaḥ sakhā vṛdhe.
Most ecstatic Soma, grow all round with every filament of growth, with the rays of the sun all round, with every libation in the vedi, and help us grow too. Be a friend of ours, most reputable and prosperous, for all round growth.

Soma, lord of light, health and energy of life, may all the waters, foods and vitalities of existence, antidotes to the negativities of existence come to you in abundance, and may all those abundant and powerful drinks, foods and energies of yours come to us and augment our vitality to fight out the negative and cancerous forces of life. Lord of life, thus strengthened by nature in the regions of light and blessing us for health and immortality, bear for us the best of foods and energies of life for growth and for victory in the battles of life.

Soma, lord of life, energy and vitality, all those places and nature’s activities which feed and promote your yajna of evolution may, we pray, bless and benefit us. Lord supreme over all, generous giver of promotion and progress, saviour across the seas of life, commander of the brave and support of the meek, be close to us, our families and our homes.

Sōma dhēnum soma arvantāśuṁ soma vīraṁ karmanyāṁ dadāti. Sādanyāṁ vidathyāṁ sabheyaṁ pitṛśravaṇaṁ yo dadāśadasmāi.

Blessed is the man who gives in faith in homage to Soma, this lord of life, to augment his yajna of evolution at the human level. And Soma gives him the cow, the fast horse, the brave hero for progeny dedicated to the family and the home, yajna and the battles of life, the congregation and the assembly, and the words and wishes of the parents.

Aṣālham yutsu pṛtanāsu papriṁ svarṣāmapsāṁ vṛjanaśya gopām. Bhareṣujāṁ sukṣiṁtuṁ suśrava-saṁ jayantāṁ tvāmanu madema soma.

Soma, lord of joy, ecstasy and generosity in abundance, informidable in battles, protective and promotive in contests, abundant in the shower of waters, preserver of strength, hero of abundance in means of defence, lord of land and shelter, commanding fame and honour, and always victorious, we praise and celebrate you and enjoy life with you.

Tvamimā oṣadhīḥ soma viśvāstvamapo ajanayastvam gāḥ. Tvamā tatanthorvantarikṣam tvam jyotisā vi tamo vavartha.

Soma, lord of creation and evolution, you create all these herbs of the world, you create the waters, the mind and senses, the cows, the earths and all else that moves. You create, expand and pervade the skies, and you dispel the dark and cover the spaces with light.

Devena no manasā deva soma rāyo bhāgam sahasāvannabhi yudhya. Mā tvā tanadīśiṣe vīryasyobhayebhyāḥ pra cikitsā gaviṣṭau.

Soma, lord of generosity and invincible force, move and, with brilliance of mind and intelligence, fight against opposition for the creation of our share of wealth. No one would oppose and thwart you. You rule the strength for both body and mind. In the battles of humanity for light, freedom and prosperity, increase your power and influence.

Mandala 1/Sukta 92

Usha and Ashvins Devata, Gotama Rahugana Rshi

The lights of the dawn over there in the eastern half of the sky over earth reveal the sun and proclaim the day. Like resolute warriors burnishing their swords, the flames of the dawn, shining scarlet red, move forward with the rising sun bringing a fresh breath of life for humanity, like mother cows.

उद्दपस रूणा भानवा वृथा स्वायुजा अर्णेीगा अयु रत। अको शासोऽ वयुनःनि पूवता रूणेर्व भानुमरूणीरशि-श्रृयः ॥ २ ॥

2. Udāpaptannaruṇā bhānavo vrthā svāyujo aruṣir-gā ayuṣkṣata. Akrannusāsō vayunāni pūrvathā ruṣantaṁ bhānumaruṣūraśīśrayuḥ.

Up rise the red flames of the dawn, naturally and spontaneously like willing red horses yoked to the chariot. The ruddy lights of the dawn awakening humanity to their daily chores as before proclaim the rise of the brilliant sun in obedience to his command.

इष्टं वहन्ती: सुकृतं सुदार्नवं विश्वदुह यज्ञमानाय सुन्तत ॥ ३ ॥

The lights of the dawn, like blessed women expert in their noble work, serve and illumine from afar with equal brilliance various regions of the world, bearing vital food and rejuvenating energy for the pious and generous yajamana dedicated to the creative service of life and nature everywhere every day.

4. Adhi peśāṃsi vapate nṛtūrivāpornaṇuta vakṣa usreva varjaham. Jyotirviśvasmai bhuvaṇāya kṛṇvaṇi gāvo na vrajaṁ vyuṣā āvartamaḥ.

Just as a dancer puts on various costumes and characters and just as a cow waxes its udders full of milk for the calf, so does the dawn assume many forms and bares her bosom of light to illuminate the whole world with lights as the flames dispel the darkness from all places reaching there as cows reach their stalls.

5. Pratyarcī ruśadasyā adarśi vi tiṣṭhate bādhaṭe kṛṣṇamabhvam. Svarum na pēso vidathēśvāṇjaṅ citram divo duhitā bhānumaśret.

The brilliant light of the dawn arises in the east, radiates and expands, it stalls and dispels the deep dark of the night. And just as an artist decorates a yajnic post in great congregations so, adorning the wondrous sun as an ornament of light, this daughter of heaven reveals the glory of the sun.
6. Atāriśma tamasaspāramasayośā ucchanīḥ vayunā kṛṇoti. Śriye chando na smayate vibhāti supratīkā saumanasāyājīgaḥ.

At the rise of the dawn, we cross this dark of the night. Rising and radiating, the brilliant dawn awakens us to the bright business of the day. Like the joyous hymns of the Veda for the beauty, prosperity and graces of life, it smiles, shining, consumes the darkness and, itself beautiful of form, it reveals the beauties of the world for our refreshment and rejuvenation.

7. Bhāsvatī netrī sūnṛtānāṁ divaḥ stave duhitā gotamebhīḥ. Prajāvato nṛvato aśvabudhyānuśo go-agrāṇ upa māsi vājān.

Brilliant and radiating, inspiring the devotees of truth and piety, the Dawn, daughter of light, is celebrated by divine scholars. So do I sing in honour of her. She brings over the foods, energies, inspirations and noble aspirations and battles of action which lead to awakening of family people and leaders of men to speed of advancement, planning for land and cows, human development and family management.
O Dawn, daughter of sunlight, divine and charming, who shine with the morning splendour of action and glory of fame and generosity, I pray, with your inspiration and initiation, may I be blessed with that great growing and highest wealth of life which is full of honour, maintained by brave heroes and multitude of manpower, and characterized by speed, advancement and achievement.

9. \( \text{Viśvāni devī bhuvanābhicāṣṭī paścitē cakṣu-rurviyā vi bhāti. Viśvam jīvam carase bodhayan-tī viśvasya vācam avidanmanāyoh.} \)

Dawn, brilliant daughter of light and heaven, eye of the eye, watching all the regions of the world, shines and moves to the west in relation to the earth, awakening all the forms of life to daily activities, speaking as if and inspiring the language of the people of thought and imagination.

10. \( \text{Punah punarjāyamānā purāṇī samānām varṇamābhi śumbhamānā. Śvaghnīva kṛtnurviṣṭā āmi-nāna martasya devī jarayantyāyuh.} \)

Old and ancient, born and reborn again and again, ever a new, the Brilliant Dawn, shining in glory with the same refulgence of beauty, an artificer of eternity consuming time today and tomorrow collects the stakes at play and counts out the age of mortals day by day.

Puna punarjyam

The Dawn wakes up, illuminating and revealing the bounds of heaven and expanse of the sky, and constantly dispels her sister, the dark night. Wearing away and counting out the ages of humanity, she shines by the light of the sun like a maiden blooming and blushing at the sight of her admirer.

Pa

Wonderful and glorious, waxing like animals spreading and roaming around out of the stalls, like a river in spate and like swell of the sea, the Dawn radiates and expands over the expanse of the earth. Transgressing no laws of Nature and holy observances of Truth, shining with the rays of the sun, she reveals herself to our eyes.
13.  Uṣastaccitramā bharāsmabhyāṁ vājinīvati.
Yena tokāṁ ca tanayaṁ ca dhāmahe.

O Dawn, harbinger of food, energy and rejuvenation of thought, will and action, bear and bring that health and wealth of wondrous and various kinds for us by which we may be able to beget, maintain and advance our children and grand-children and others, friends and assistants in life.

Revadasme vyuccha sūṇtāvati.

O Dawn, lady of light, generous with cows and fertility, horses and fast movement, light and knowledge, truth and piety of life with favours of divinity, bear and bless us here and now in this life with wealth of prosperity and a happy home.

15.  Yuṅśvā hi vājinīvatyaśvāṁ adyāruṇāṁ uṣaḥ.
Aṭhā no viśvā saubhagānyā vaha.

O Dawn, lady of radiance and the energy and vibrancy of life, yoke the red rays of sunbeams to your celestial chariot and then bear and bring us all the wealths and good fortunes of the world.
16. Áśvinā vartirasmadā gomad dasrā hiranyavat.
Arvāgratham samanasā ni yacchatam.

Generous scientists of fire and waters, Ashvins, expert technologists working together with equal cooperative mind, bring hither before us a chariot sensitive in reception and communication of signals, golden in quality and extremely fast in motion anywhere on earth, over water and in the sky.

17. Yāvitthā ślokamā divo jyotirjanāya cakrathuḥ.
Ā na ūrjan vahatamaśvinā yuvam.

Ashvins, scientist and technologist of fire and water, both of you thus from the sun create the mantra, light and energy and bring it for us and the people for common use.

18. Eha devā mayobhuvā dasrā hiranyavartanī.
Uṣarbudho vahantu somapītaye.

Let the Ashvins, people of divine nature, scientists and technologists, generous experts of fire and water, water and air, creators of comfort and joy, working on the golden sunbeams of the morning dawn, create and bring us energy and vitality for the health, vitality and joy of humanity.
Mandala 1/Sukta 93

Agni-Soma Devata, Gotama Rahugana Rshi

Agni-Soma, power divine both fire and water in one, beauty and brilliance of the Lord’s Nature in existence blissful as sun-and-moon, fire and air, exciting and soothing, lord of dynamic knowledge, kind disposition and steady action, generous and abundant, listen to this prayer of mine, respond with love and kindness to these honest words and be gracious to me, this dedicated child and faithful disciple.

1. Agnīṣomavimaṁ su me śrūntam vrśanā havam.
Prati sūktāṁ haryatāṁ bhavatāṁ dāśuṣe mayah.

Agni-Soma, whoever may listen to this word of yours, and faithfully follow it in spirit and action, bless him with health and nourishment, speed and success in advancement, sensitivity of mind and brain and generous productivity and social dynamism.

2. Agnīṣomā yo adya vāmidam vacaḥ saparyati.
Tasmai dhattāṁ suvīryam gavāṁ poṣam svaśv-yam.

Agni-Soma, whoever may listen to this word of yours, and faithfully follow it in spirit and action, bless him with health and nourishment, speed and success in advancement, sensitivity of mind and brain and generous productivity and social dynamism.

3. Agnīṣomā ya āhutim yo vāṁ dāśāddhaviśkṛtim.
Sa prajayā suvīryam viśvamāyuryurvyāśnavat.
Agni-Soma, fire, air and waters of the firmament, whoever the person offering you oblations in yajna and holy gifts of yajna in charity, may he, we pray, be blest with best of health and energy and a full age of universal prosperity with a happy family and noble friends.

Agni-Soma, fire and water, your valour and power is revealed and known when you acquire and absorb the protective power of sun-rays, retain a part of the blaze, release the rest of the sun’s heat and bring down one uniform light for the many forms of life to survive and grow.

Agni and Soma, you two, electric energy and air of equal power and joint function, hold and sustain these wondrous lights of the stars in heaven. Agni and Soma, you two release the rivers and seas of waters held up above and save them from disagreeable imprecations below.
6. Ānyam divo mātariśvā jabhārāmathnādanyam pari śyeno adreḥ. Agnīsomā brahmaṇā vāvrdhā-norum yajñāya cakrathurulokam.

Agni and Soma growing by the energy and power of Brahman extend and expand the universe wider and wider for the divine yajna of creation. Of these, Matarishva, electric energy that rolls in space, derives from and holds another, i.e., the subtle energy from the sun in heaven. And Agni, moving like a celestial horse at the speed of light, holds the other, that is, the subtle Soma, from the sun and the cloud.

Agni and Soma, fire and wind, vitalise and impel the holy materials offered into the fire, carry it on and delight in their creative and expansive process. Creators and givers of comfort and joy, protectors of life they are, they bring peace and happiness for the yajamana, catalyse, refine and create new materials for him.

8. Yo agnīsomā haviśā saparyād devadrīcā manasā yo ghṛtena. Tasya vrataṁ rākṣataṁ pātamaṁhaso više janāya mahi śarma yacchatam.
Whoever is dedicated to Agni and Soma, fire and wind, and with an honest mind offers homage to them with ghrta and other holy materials, Agni and Soma protect and support his vows of piety for life, save him from sin, and give the citizens, people high and low all, great and noble peace, comfort and joy.

Agni and Soma, fire and wind, both of you accept these holy materials of ours in scientific yajna, come and be our friends and benefactors.
12. Agniḥomā pipṛtamārvarvato na ā pyāyantāmusriyā havyasūdaḥ. Asme balāni maghavatsu dhattam kṛṇutam no adhvaram śrūṣṭimantam.

Agni and Soma, yajnic leaders of the nation, feed and empower our horses, modes of travel and transport. Nourish and upbreed our cows for the gift of holy milk and ghrta for our yajnas. Invest our economic and governing powers with strength and generosity and universalise our yajnic endeavours with instant response and rich production for all of us.

Mandala 1/Sukta 94

Agni Devata, Angirasa Kutsa Rshi

1. Imaṁ stomamarhate jātavedase rathamiva sam mahemā maniṣayā. Bhadrā hi naṁ pramatirasya saṁsadyagne sakhye mā riṣāmā vayam tava.

This song of celebration and worship in honour of venerable Jataveda, Agni, omnipresent in the created world and lord omniscient, we sing in praise of his glory with our mind and soul in sincerity and offer it to him as a joyous holiday chariot fit for his majesty. Blessed is our mind in his company, while we sit in the assembly of devotees.
Agni, lord of light and knowledge, we pray, may we never come to suffering while we enjoy your company and friendship.

Yasmasi tvamāyajase sa sādhvatyanarvā kṣeti dadhate suvīryam. Sa tūtāva nainamaśnotyaṁhatiragnē sakhyē mā riṣāmā vayaṁ tava.

Agni, whoever you bless grows in strength and competence. He lives and moves undisturbed, irresistible, wins power and valour, and rises to greatness and prosperity. Want, anxiety and poverty touch him never. Agni, we pray, we may never suffer want and misery while we enjoy your friendship and company.

Śakema tvā samidham sādhaya dhiyastve devā haviradantyāhutam. Tvamādityāṁ ā vaha tān hyuśmasyagne sakhyē mā riṣāmā vayaṁ tava.

Agni, lord of light and knowledge, we pray, may we be able to kindle and develop the fire power of yajna. Pray refine our intelligence and bless us with success in our intellectual endeavours. Whatever we offer in yajna, the divinities receive and share. Bring over the scholars of the highest order of brilliance and realise the light of the stars on earth. We love them, honour and cherish them. Agni, we pray, may we never suffer any want or misery in your company.
4. Bharāmedhmaṁ kṛṇavāmā havīṁśi te citayantah parvaṇā parvaṇā vayam. Jīvatave prataram sādhaya dhiyo’gne sakhye mā riśāmā vayaṁ tava.

Lighting the fire, observing and learning step by step, yajna by yajna, the full and fuller preparation, we collect the fuel and create the inputs of yajna for Agni. Agni, lord of light and fire, refine our mind and intelligence to be more subtle and sophisticated for the sake of better and better life. Agni, we pray we may never suffer a set back or loss of success while we are in your company.

5. Viśāṁ gopā asya caranti jantavo dvipacca yaduta catuspadaktubhiḥ. Citraḥ praketa uṣaso mahān asyagne sakhye mā riśāmā vayaṁ tava.

Agni is people’s protector. By the rays of this Agni’s light, living creatures, bipeds such as humans, quadrupeds such as cows, and others move around days and nights.

Agni, various and brilliant you are, greater than the dawn and the days. Lord of light and action, may we never suffer misery in your company and friendship.

You are the high priest and the yajamana, ancient and eternal, of the yajna of creation. Teacher and ruler, sanctifier, invoked and worshipped since creation and manifestation, omniscient leading priest of creation, lord of universal knowledge, constant and imperishable, you nourish all. Lord, we pray, may we never suffer under your protection.

Agni, you are the lord who are universally beatific of form and constant of eye. You may be far off, yet you awfully blaze like the explosion of lightning. Even in the darkness of the night you shine and see and reveal things for all. Lord of light and revelation, we pray, may we never suffer ignorance and misery but ever enjoy your company and friendship.
8. \( \text{Pūrvo devā bhavatu sunvato ratho'ṃ sākam śaṃso abhyastu dūḍhyāḥ. Tadā jānītota puṣyatā vaco’gne sakhye mā riṣāmā vayaṃ tava.} \)

Scholars of science and technology, may the chariot of the man of yajnic project be the first and foremost, the same as ours, so admirable, yet difficult for the ill-intentioned even to understand. Therefore, know the word, the secret of it, feed it with more research and knowledge, grow and let us grow too. Agni, lord of light, power and speed, may we never suffer any misery, injury or onslaught from anywhere under your friendship and protection.

\( \text{Vādhairduḥśaṁsāṃ apa dūḍhyo jahi dūre vā ye anti vā ke cidatriṇāḥ. Athā yajñāya grñate sugaṁ kṛḍhyagne sakhye mā riṣāmā vayaṃ tava.} \)

With punishments and even with the thunderbolt, strike away, even eliminate, the despicable, evil intentioned and those who are enemies of the society whether they be far away or lurking close by. Clear the path for the dedicated who chant and work in faith for the yajna of development and progress. Agni, lord of light, power and progress, may we never suffer any set back, injury or defeat under your guidance and friendship.

\( \text{Yadṛṇa kṛṣṇa rāhita ratha vātajūta vṛṣabhṣṭyav tu ravaḥ.} \)
\( \text{Aatīrṇaṁ śaṁsaḥ śaṃsakṛtvānāchsel śaṃkṛ ma riṣāmā vayaṃ tava.} \)
10. \textit{Yadayukthā aruṣā rohitā rathe vātajūtā vrṣabhasyeva te ravaḥ. Ādivinasi vanino dhūmaketunā'-gne sakhye mā riṣāmā vayaṁ tava.}

Agni, lord of light and nature’s power, when you yoke, employ and ignite the red and fiery power at the speed of wind for your chariot, your roar is like the thunder of clouds. You cover the forest trees with grey smoke and leave it behind like the trail of a shooting star. Agni, lord of knowledge, power and speed, may we never suffer any mishap or injury under your power and friendship.

11. \textit{Adha svaṇāduta bibhyuḥ patatriṇo drapsā yat te yavasādo vyasthiran. Sugāṁ tat te tāvakebhyo rathebhyo’gne sakhye mā riṣāmā vayaṁ tava.}

When on the roar of the chariot the birds fly in fright, when the flames of fire shake the grass and rise to the optimum, then the path is clear for the flight of your chariots. Agni, lord of light, fire and flight, may we never suffer any set-back or mishap under your power, guidance and friendship but fly on and on.

12. \textit{Ayaṁ mitrasya varuṇasya dhāyase’vayātāṁ marutāṁ helo adbhutaḥ. Mṛḷā su no bhūtvesāṁ manañ punaragne sakhye mā riṣāmā vayaṁ tava.}
This Agni is the power for the support of Mitra and Varuna, friends and the best people among humanity. It is also the awful terror of the Maruts, forces of defence and justice, against the people of anti-human values. Lord of light, justice and generosity, such as you are, be kind and gracious and a source of peace and joy to the mind of these good and law-abiding people. We pray that we may not suffer any want and misery under your guidance and control as friends.

Agni, lord of light and peace, you are the divinest of divinities, a friend of friends most wonderful. You are the shelter of shelters for all and the treasure of all treasures. In your vastest and supreme order of yajnic existence, we pray, we may enjoy perfect peace of mind and soul. May we never face any suffering or misery under your rule of friendship, gracious as you are.

Agni, lord of light and grace, it is the highest blessing of yours that, self-lighted and self-manifested in your own house, this house of existence of your own creation, worshipped with oblations of soma in yajna, you spontaneously become gracious to bless the admiring devotee and bestow jewels and wealths of the world upon the generous yajamana. Lord of generosity, we pray, we may never suffer any misery of poverty for the body, mind and soul under the control of your grace and friendship.

15. Yasmai tvain sudravinō dadāso’nāgāstvamadite sarvatātā. Yaṁ bhadreṇa ṣavasā codayāsi praJayavatā rādhasā te syāma.

Agni, lord of divine wealth of existence, power imperishable, whoever the person you bless with purity and sinlessness in all the affairs of life, whoever you inspire with noble courage and valour, he begets good children and a happy family and obtains abundant wealth of the world. Lord of wealth and generosity, we pray, bless us with that same wealth and good fortune.

Agni, lord of light and wealth of the world, lord and giver of all good fortune, honour and glory of life, give us a happy and full life here and let it thrive and prosper. The same may Mitra, prana energy, Varuna, udana energy, Aditi, Mother Nature, the sea, the earth, the heaven and the skies support, strengthen and promote. The same, lord Agni, giver of life, bless and let us cross the seas of existence with grace divine.

Mandala 1/Sukta 95

Agni Devata, Angirasa Kutsa Rshi

Night and day, two different forms of nature, two divisions of time, two different states of Agni, one direct, the other reflected, move on with their priest-like task. Both, co-existent and continuous but separately, like two women, feed and nurse each other’s child as their own. In one, the night, the moon grows on with its inherent character of beauty, peace and bliss, while the sun in the other, the day, blazes with light and fire, pure, immaculate, glorious. The sun sleeps at night and the moon sleeps in the day.

2. Daśeṣeṁ tvāṣṭurjanayanta garbham atandrāso yuvatayo vibhṛtram. Tigmāṇīkaṁ svayaśasam janesu virocamānaṁ pari śūn nayanti.
Ten directions of space, young and unaging, and ever-vigilant, create, produce and manifest this sun, child of Tvashta, Vayu, cosmic energy. It is of versatile action and purpose and sustains the various forms of existence. It is blazing and beautiful, self-refulgent with inherent glory, glowing and showing among the people, and the same directions move it around for the accomplishment of the tasks of creation.

Three manifestations of this Agni shine in nature, space and time, the womb of the universe: one is in the oceans, another one is in the heavenly region of light, and yet another is in the waters in the middle region. Accordingly, it creates and controls the seasons in relation to the sun and earth and, in relation to the earth and her people, it creates the directions such as east and others.

Who among you could know this mysterious nursling of the day and night, the sun born of Agni and Vayu, cosmic energy, who creates its own mothers, the day and the night? It is the creature of many forces of nature and itself the womb of many, being the measure of physical time and creator of the directions of space. Great, visionary, and innately powerful, it moves on and across the regions of water and air in space.

Having entered these directions of space and the objects therein, it grows and expands. Present within the oblique and wavy motions of wind, air and the rays of light, it rises above by its own power. On the rise of the sun, the day and night split up as if out of fear. The same split marks the west. And yet the night and day again nurse the hero of light as a favourite hero.

Both night and day, noble and loving, nurse and serve the sun, Agni, just as lowing cows stay by the calves with all their love and care. Of those dedicated experts of yajna who serve Agni with oblations, he rises above all who offers the oblations from the south.

Great, visionary, and innately powerful, it moves on and across the regions of water and air in space.

The same split marks the west. And yet the night and day again nurse the hero of light as a favourite hero.

Both night and day, noble and loving, nurse and serve the sun, Agni, just as lowing cows stay by the calves with all their love and care. Of those dedicated experts of yajna who serve Agni with oblations, he rises above all who offers the oblations from the south.

As the sun, this Agni raises its rays upward as two arms continuously and, growing awful and blazing, it joins both the horizons, brightening them both together. All round it radiates its light as if it offers new clothes to its mothers, the day and the night or the heaven and earth which hold the light in their lap.

When Agni, sunlight, assumes a brighter and higher form mixing the rays of light and vapours of water in its own region, then, shining as lord of celestial light and vision, it purifies the sky, elevates intelligence and refines knowledge and science, and that state of intelligence and knowledge is divinely pious and supreme.

Uru te jrayaḥ paryeti budhnaṁ virocamānaṁ mahiṣasya dhāma. Viśvebhiragne svayaśobhiriddho’dabdhebhiḥ pāyubhiḥ pāhyasmān.
Agni, mighty as the sun, the vast expanse of your sphere travels and reaches across and over the bright regions of the skies. Bright and blazing with all your own powers and irresistible modes of protection, protect and promote us.

10. Dhanvantsrotaḥ kṛṇute gātumūrmūṁ śukrairūrmirbhirabhi nakṣatī kṣām. Viśvā sanāṁ jaṭhāreṣu dhattē’ntarnavāsau carati prasūṣu.

Agni as electric power and vital heat of life creates paths over the deserts and in the skies, makes waterways to flow with rippling waves, and with bright rays of light illuminates the earth. It creates all the foods and vitalities for the internal organs of the living body systems and vibrates in all the new and upcoming forms of nature and human generations.

11. Evā no agne samidhā vṛdhāno revat pāvaka śravase vi bhāhi. Tanno mitro varuṇo māmahan-tāmaditih sindhuh prthivī uta dyauḥ.

These, O Agni, light, life and vitality of the world of existence, pure and purifying, treasure and dispenser of universal wealth, growing by fuel and making us grow, pray shine and illuminate us with nourishments, light and honour. Thus also may Mitra and Varuna, sun and air and pranic energies, the skies, the sea and the earth, and the light of heaven and the electric energy of Agni may shine and make us shine.

Dravinoda Agni Devata, Angirasa Kutsa Rshi

1. Sa pratnathā sahasā jāyamānah sadyah kāvyāni baṇadhatta viśvā. Āpaśca mitraṁ dhiṣanā ca sādhan devā agnim dhārayan draviṇodām.

That is Agni, light and fire of life, instantly rising as ever with power and force for the devotee. He bears the strength, vision and wisdom of the world and helps the dedicated person to realise the values of life with waters, energy, intelligence and friendship in the society. The devas, divinities of nature and humanity dedicate themselves to Him, lord giver of universal wealth, and bear on the fire of yajna from generation to generation.

2. Sa pūrvayā nividā kavyatāyorimāh prajā ajana- yan manunām. Vivasvatā cakṣasā dyāmapaśca devā agnim dhārayan draviṇodām.

With the ancient and eternal poetry of omniscience and from the eternal cause, He, the lord of light, creates these children of Manus, men of thought.
and vision. And with the brilliant light of the sun, he creates the regions of light and waters and others such as the earth. The devas, divinities of nature and the noblest of humanity, hold on to him and bear on the fire of yajna from generation to generation, universal giver as He is.

3. Tamālata prathamaṁ yajñasādhamṁ viśa ārīrā-hutam rījasānam. Ūrjāḥ putram bharatam srpadānum devā agnim dhārayan draviṇodām.

O grateful and dynamic people, serve and worship Him, Agni, first and highest of existence, invoked and loved with homage through yajna, visualised and realised through vision and discrimination, manifested in energy and products of energy, sustainer of all and inspiring all with knowledge. Devas, divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity, hold on to Him and bear on the fire of yajna from generation to generation, universal giver as He is.

He, Agni, is Matarishva, universal breath of life replete in the middle regions of space. He is the inexhaustible treasure-home of energy and nourishment. He revealed the Holy Word of the Veda for His child, the humanity. He is the giver of light and happiness. He is the protector of the people and creator of heaven and earth and the skies. Devas, divinities of nature and humanity, worship Him, universal and generous creator and giver of wealth, and bear on the fire of yajna from generation to generation.

3. Tamātata prathama-yajña viśva-hutam jājas nam. Īśurja¬ putraḥ bharataḥ sūpra-dhenuḥ devaḥ agniḥ dhrayan draviḍodhām.

4. O grateful and dynamic people, serve and worship Him, Agni, first and highest of existence, invoked and loved with homage through yajna, visualised and realised through vision and discrimination, manifested in energy and products of energy, sustainer of all and inspiring all with knowledge. Devas, divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity, hold on to Him and bear on the fire of yajna from generation to generation, universal giver as He is.

The night and the day both of different light and form like two nursing mothers together feed the same one child. The child, Agni, the sun, pervades and shines in heaven and over earth. The devas serve and worship Agni, giver of universal wealth, and move on bearing the fire of yajna from generation to generation.

Agni is the foundation and magic mantra of wealth and power. It is the companion of the Vasus, sustainers of life such as the earth, and our guide to achieve them. It is the flag-post and light-house to the yajnic projects of life, and means to the fulfilment of cherished desires. The seekers of immortality and protectors of eternal values hold on to this giver of universal wealth and bear on the fire of yajna from generation to generation.

Agni is the new as well as the old and eternal cause and the haven and home of all the material wealth of the created universe already born and what is continuously being born. It is the holder, sustainer and protector of the constant and the mutable forms of the vast creation. The devas, divinities of nature and humanity, hold on to Agni in faith and maintain the fire of yajna from generation to generation, giver of universal wealth as It is.

Agni, universal creator and giver of universal and omnipresent wealth, may, we pray, grant us the wealth of knowledge and piety. The creator and giver of social wealth may, we pray, grant us our share of material wealth. The creator and giver of food and energy may, we pray, grant us the food and energy which gives rise to a community of heroes. The creator and giver of life and health may, we pray, grant us our full share of life and age with health and plenty.

9. Evā no agne samidhā vṛdhāno revat pāvaka śravase vi bhāhi. Tanno mitro varuṇo māma-hantāmaditih sindhuḥ prthivī uta dyauḥ.

Thus may Agni, lord of wealth, pure and purifying, flaming and growing with fuels and oblations, shine for our honour and fame. And may Mitra, the sun, Varuna, the air and pranic energies, Aditi, the sky, the sea, the earth and the light of heaven, bless us with health, wealth, knowledge and piety.

Agni Devata, Angirasa Kutsa Rshi

अर्य न: शाशुचद्वर्धमग्र्ष्य शुशुग्ध्या रथिम्।
अर्य न: शाशुचद्वर्धम् ॥ १ ॥

1. Apa naḥ śośucadaghamagne śuśugdyā rayim.
Apa naḥ śośucadagham.

Agni, lord of light, power and purity, pray shine on us, burn off our sins and purify us. Shine, purify and sanctify our wealth of body, mind and soul. O lord, burn off our sins and let us shine in purity.

सु मण्डित्या सुंगगतया वैसूया चे यजामह।
अर्य न: शाशुचद्वर्धम् ॥ २ ॥
2.  Sukṣetriyā sugātuyā vasūyā ca yajāmahe.
Apa naḥ śośucadagham.

With our desire and plans for waving green fields, straight and simple highways for movement, and honest wealth for body, mind and soul and for the power of defence and protection do we approach and honour you, Agni, lord of light and power. Pray burn off our sins and let us shine in purity.

Lord most shining and excellent, whosoever among these people be the best of our people, let them be the leaders of the assembly and administrators. Agni, lord of light and power, cleanse us of our sins and let us shine.

4.  Pra yat te agne sūrayo jāyemahi pra te vayam.
Apa naḥ śośucadagham.

Lord of light and power, Agni, as your leading and brilliant brave heroes and devotees are, so may we rise to be. Lord, we pray, save us from our sins and let us shine.

5.  Pra yadagneḥ sahasvato viśvato yanti bhūnaḥ.
Apa naḥ śośucadagham.

As the lights of this powerful Agni go up in flames all round and blaze, so may we be, we pray. Lord of light and power, purge us of our sins and let us shine in purity.

Agni, lord omnipresent of universal face and all-seeing eye, you are the lord supreme over all the worlds. Lord of light and fire, burn off our sins and let us shine pure and powerful.

Agni, light of life, all-watching eye, saving ark over the seas of existence, lead us over and across the whirl-pools of jealousies and enmities of the world and conquer the flood for us. Purge us of our sins and let us shine in purity.

Just as we cross a river in flood by boat, so for the sake of good life and ultimate joy, may Agni, lord of light and life, help us cross the seas. Lord of light and purity, cleanse us of evil, burn off our sins and help us shine in purity, power and piety.

Mandala 1/Sukta 98

Agni Devata, Angirasa Kutsa Rshi

1. Vaiśvānarasya sumatau syāma rāja hi kam bhuvanānāmabhāṣīriḥ. Ito jāto viśvamidam vi caṣṭe vaiśvānaro yatate sūryeṇa.

May we abide in the pleasure and good will of Vaishvanara Agni, ruler of humanity and indeed the spirit and vitality of all life on earth. The ruling power, for sure, is the order, beauty and grace of the world, the real wealth and life of existence. Born of the original cause, Prakrti, and manifesting here, this Agni shows this world and acts in unison with the sun and prana.

It is sanctified: sanctified as light in heaven, as heat in fire, as energy in earth, as vitality in all the herbs in which it has entered. Vaishvanara Agni, sanctified and replete with strength, energy and courage, may, we pray, protect us against hate, enmity and negativity day and night, both in the waking and in the sleeping state.

\[\text{Vaiśvānara tava tat satyamastvasmān rāyo maghavānahā sacantām. Tanno mitro varuṇo māmahantām aditiḥ sindhuḥ prthivī uta dyauḥ.}\]

May that divine nature, energy and vitality of Vaishvanara Agni, ruling and breathing power of life, be right and true for the world. May all the treasures and holders of the wealth of this world be kind and friendly to us. May Mitra, universal friend, Varuna, the best, just and reasonable worthy of choice, Aditi, motherly powers of nature and humanity, the earth, the seas, the cool waters above and the light of heaven bless us with the health and vitality of existence.

Mandala 1/Sukta 99

Agni Jataveda Devata, Maricha Kashyapa Rshi

\[\text{Jātavedase sunavāma somam arātiyato ni dahiṭi vedah. Sa naḥ parśadatī durgāṇi viśvā nāveva sindhuṁ duriṭātyagniḥ.}\]

For the sake of Jatavedas Agni, lord omnipresent and omniscient of creation, we love and respect the abundant things of the world and, in a spirit of thanks to Him, distil every drop of soma joy from it. Indeed, He burns off the easy wealth of those who are jealous, hateful, ungrateful and wasteful. Just as a boatman helps us cross the river by boat, so does the omnipresent lord help us cross all the evils and the most difficult problems of life.

Mandala 1/Sukta 100

Indra Devata, Varshagirah Rjrashva, Ambarisha, Sahadeva, Bhayamana, Suradhasa Rshi

1. Sa yo vrṣā vrṣṇyebhiḥ samokā maho divaḥ prthivyāśca samrāt. Saīnasatvā havyo bhareṣu marutvān no bhavatvindra ūtī.

   He, Indra, who is mighty and generous, existing with his showers and powers of generosity, who rules over the great heaven and earth, who collects the clouds of water and commands the force of windy Maruts, tempestuous heroes, and who is ever invoked in the yajnic battles of life, may that Indra, lord of power and glory, be for our protection and promotion in prosperity.

2. Yasyānāptaḥ sūryasyeṣa yāmo bharebhare vrtrahā śuṣmo asti. Vṛṣantamaḥ sakhibhiḥ svebhirevairmarutvān no bhavatvindra ūtī.

   Unapproachable is Indra’s speed and power for the wicked. In battle after battle of life he is the same breaker of the cloud and destroyer of evil. Lord of Maruts, tempestuous heroes, most generous and powerful, may he with his friends and their exploits be for our protection, promotion and prosperity.

3. Divo na yasya retaso dughānāḥ panthāso yanti śavasāparītāḥ. Tarad dveṣāḥ sāsahīḥ pauṁsye-bhirmarutvān no bhavatvindra ūtī.

The showers of the favours of Indra overflow like the rays of light from heaven. They hurry on apace uninterrupted on their paths with force and overwhelm hate, fear and enmity. May he, lord of courage and valour, commander of tempestuous Maruts, with his irresistible forces be our protector for progress and prosperity.

4. So aṅgirabhiraṅgirastamo bhūd vṛṣā vṛṣabhiḥ sakhībhiḥ sakhā san. Ṛgmiṁbhirṛgmiṁ gātubhir-yeṣṭho marutvān no bhavatvindra ūtī.

With inflow of pranic energies, Indra is the life of life, mighty generous with showers of strength and joy, being a friend with friends. With scholars of Rks, he is master of divine knowledge and supreme of movement with those who are ever on the move. Lord and commander of Maruts, heroes of tempestuous speed and force, may he be our protector for progress and prosperity.

5. Sa sūnubhirna rudrebhirṛbhṛvā nṛṣāhye sāsahvān amitrān. Sanīlebhiḥ śravasyāni tūrvan marutvān no bhavatvindra útī.

Indra, prudent and wise, commander of the Maruts, challenging his opponents in the battle of the brave with the assistance of Rudras, fierce fighters dear as his children, and overthrowing the shooting bowmen of the enemy with the force of his companions, may he, we pray, be our leader and protector on way to progress.

Let Indra, ruler of the world, passionate controller of anger and passion, creator of projects for freedom and joy, bring the light and bliss of heaven on earth. Protector and promoter of truth and the true, invoked and praised by many, may he, commander of the force of tempestuous Maruts, we pray, be our leader and guide and protect us on way to progress with the assistance and cooperation of our people.
7. Tamūtayo raṇayaṅchūrasātau tam kṣemasya kṣitayāḥ kṛṇvata trām. Sa viṣvasya karuṇasyeṣa eko marutvān no bhavatvindra ūṇī.

Him, the battles of defence inspire for victory of the brave. Him, the people elevate to the status of the protector of peace and prosperity. He, unique among all, rules the projects of love and cooperation among the people. May he, commander of the Maruts, be our leader and protector for peace and progress.

8. Tamapsanta śavasa utsaveṣu naro naramavase tam dhanāya. So andhe cit tamasi jyotirvidan marutvān no bhavatvindra ūṇī.

Him, in battles of greatness and celebrations, the people discover as a man among men for the sake of protection and prosperity. May he, creating light in the midst of utter darkness and commanding the force of Maruts, be our defender and promoter on way to peace and progress.

9. Sa savyena yamati vrādhataścit sa daksine samgrbhītā kṛtaṇi. Sa kīrinā cit sanita dhanāni marutvān no bhavatvindra ūṇī.

With his left hand he overcomes even the strong oppositions, and with the right he holds and secures the fruits of his success. With his acts of success and assessment, he manages and distributes the wealth of the nation. May he, commander of the Maruts, be our protector for freedom and progress.

He shares the wealth of the nation with the farming people in the villages, warriors of the chariot, and all sections of the people without exception, and thus he faces and overcomes all shades of criticism and opposition with the strength of his body, mind and soul and his noble actions for the sake of mutual confidence and understanding for harmony. May he, commander of the Maruts, be our protector for progress and prosperity in unison and freedom.

11. Sa jāmibhīryat samajāti mīḷhe’jāmibhirvā puruhūta evaiḥ. Apāṃ tokasya tanayasya jeṣe marutvān no bhavatvindra uṭī.

When invoked and called upon by many, Indra goes to battle with his friends, opponents and the indifferent ones with all his might and main, he fights at his best for victory for the future generations of sons and grandsons of the nation. May Indra, commander of the Maruts, be our leader and defender for our protection.
and progress.

Indra is the wielder of the force of the thunderbolt, destroyer of the wicked, fierce, passionate, knowledgeable of a hundred things and problems, versatile with a hundred plans and policies, mighty, concentration of the force of armies as the centre of yajna congregations, manager of all the five communities with his power and intelligence. May be, commander of the Maruts, he our ruler and protector for freedom and progress.

The thunderbolt of Indra is vocal and effective appropriately: It is a call to action for the warrior, roar of terror for the wicked, soothing shower of rain for the generous, blaze of the sun for the hero, song of the cuckoo for the artist, and whirring of the wheels for the industrious. Varieties of wealth abound in him, streams of generosity flow from him. May Indra, commander of the Maruts, be our leader and protector on way to progress and prosperity in peace with freedom.

Whose constant measure and grandeur divine, the heaven and earth with their power and potential share and celebrate all round, may that Indra, we pray, happy with our yajnic performances, take us across the seas of existence. May he, commanding the Maruts, be our protector in life and hereafter.

15. Na yasya devā devatā na martā āpaścana śavaso antamāpuḥ. Sa prarikvā tvākṣasā kṣmo divāśca marutvān no bhavatvindra ātī.

The end of whose power and potential, neither divinities, nor the mind and sense and imagination of any one, nor the human mortals, nor even the realised souls reach and comprehend, that Indra pervades and, with his subtle and mysterious omnipotence, transcends heaven and earth. May he, lord of Maruts, be our protector and saviour.

Red and dark, bright and beautiful flames, as a banner mark, touching the heaven, carrying the mighty chariot of Indra, master of horse power, shooting straight on wheels for the target of wealth and knowledge, shine glorious for the people on earth, a blessed sight indeed.

17. Etat tyat ta indra vṛṣṇa ukthāṁ vārśāgirā abhi grṇanti rādhaḥ. Rjrāśvaḥ prṣṭibhirambarīṣaḥ sahadevo bhayamānaḥ surādhāḥ.

Indra, lord of power and prosperity, this is that song of praise which the children of divine voice alongwith friends and companions sing as a gift of love and homage for the lord of eternal prosperity and infinite generosity: they are Rijrashvas, sages of simple thought and honest conduct, Ambarisha, scholar of holy word and knowledge, Sahadeva, who loves to be with lovers of divinity, Bhayamana, who fears the Divine and whom the wicked and the crooked fear, and Suradha, man of honest wealth and versatile genius.
Invoked and prayed by many, Indra, wielder of the defensive and protective thunderbolt, having destroyed the wicked and removed the aggressive, ought to root out the weeds, and, with the cooperation and brilliant actions of his friends and companions, acquire, enrich, distribute and manage the land, strengthen heat, light and health and energy, and manage the water resources.

19. \textit{Viśvāhendro adhivaktā no astvaparītvṛtāḥ sanuyāma vājam. Tanno mitro varūṇo māmahantāmaditīḥ sindhuḥ pṛthivī uta dyauḥ.}

May Indra, lord of power, justice and knowledge be the supreme speaker and adviser for us. Let us too, simple, straight and honest in thought, action and material support, cooperate with him. And we pray: May Mitra, the sun and human powers of friendship, Varuna, powers of justice worthiest of choice, the sky, the seas, the earth and the heavens bless and promote this union of ours with success.

May this union last for all time!

	extbf{Mandala 1/Sukta 101}

\textit{Indra Devata, Angirasa Kutsa Rshi}

All ye men and women of the earth, offer words of welcome and hospitality to joyous Indra, lord giver of the power of knowledge, who, in a simple natural manner, breaks open the secret treasures of the dark womb of nature and makes the streams of knowledge flow. We, seekers of protection and knowledge, invoke Indra, lord of light and power, rich and generous, expert in the use of the thunderbolt of knowledge against the demon of darkness, and commander of the tempestuous Maruts of social dynamics, and we pray for his love and friendship.

For friendship and support, we invoke Indra, lord of justice, power and generosity, commander of the Maruts, tempestuous guarding soldiers of humanity, Indra who, with overwhelming passion and righteousness breaks the shoulders of Vṛtra, dark demonic cloud of hoarded vapours, and releases the showers of rain, who destroys the selfish Shambara and Pipru, undisciplined demons of social unrighteousness, and who overthrows the mighty but callous and voracious eater of the nation’s wealth who causes a drought and famine of the people’s resources for life and progress.

3. \textit{Yasya dyāvāprthivī paunṣyaṁ mahad yasya vrate varuṇo yasya sūryaḥ. Yasyendrasya sindhavah saścati vrataṁ marutvantaṁ sakhyāya havāmahe.}

For love, friendship and support, we invoke and pray to Indra, omnipotent lord of the Maruts who post across the universe and maintain the kingdom. Mighty is the force in his Law of Dharma for nature and humanity. The heaven and the moon in their orbits move as fixed by Law. The seas roll and rivers flow in accordance with the Law. (We pray, help us, lord, to follow the Law and enjoy the divine grace.)

4. \textit{Yo aśvānāṁ yo gavāṁ gopatirvaśi ya āritaḥ karmanī karmanī sthirāḥ. Vīlościdindro yo asunvato vadho marutvantair sakhyāya havāmahe.}

For our protection, friendship and support, we invoke and pray to Indra, lord ruler of the universe and humanity. He is the lord of horses. He is the lord of cows and controller of the moving earths and fluctuating mind and senses. Ever conscious and wide-awake, he is constant and active in every act and every movement that happens in nature and humanity. Mighty powerful is he, friend of the pious, and the very stroke of death for the selfish uncreators and violators of yajna.

5. \( \text{Yo viśvasya jagataḥ prāṇataspatriyō brahmāṇe} \) prathamo gā avindat. \( \text{Indro yo dasyūṇradharāṇ} \) avātiran marutvantarāṃ sakhyāya havāmahe.

Indra is the lord ruler, controller and sustainer of all the moving and breathing universe. He is the first, creator manifestive in expanding space who created the mind and senses and the moving earths for the living creatures. He is the lord of law and justice who throws down the wicked to the darkest caverns. We invoke and pray to Indra, lord of Maruts, for our protection and support as his dear ones and friends.

6. \( \text{Yaḥ śūrebhirhavyo yaśca bhūrubhiryo dhyāvad-} \) bhīrhūyate yaśca jigyubhiḥ. \( \text{Indram yaṃ viśvā} \) bhūvanābhi samādadhur-marutvantarāṃ sakhyāya havāmahe.

Indra is invoked and worshipped by the brave, and he is called upon by the timid as well as by the fearless, and he is called upon by the victors as well as by those who flee. Him, all people and worlds in existence hold at the centre of their being. That Indra, lord of Maruts, we invoke for support, sustenance and friendship.

7. Rudrāṇāmeti pradiśā vicakṣaṇo rudrebhīryoṣā tanute pṛthu jrayaḥ. Indraṁ manīṣā abhyarcati śrutaṁ marutvantāṁ sakhyāya havāmahe.

Lord of intelligence, Indra, acts by the paths of Rudras, that is, Maruts, powers of law and dispensation and the process of formation and reformation. With the Rudras, waves of Maruts’ energy, the dawn expands the lights of the day. Intelligence and mind invoke the famous powers of Indra, waves of Maruts, as they act in thought. That Indra, lord of the Maruts’ motion and energy in space, we invoke for support as divine friend and benefactor for progress and prosperity.

8. Yad vā marutvaḥ parame sadhasthe yad vāvame vṛjane mādayāse. Ata ā yāhyadhvaram no acchā tvāyā haviścakṛmā saytarādhaḥ.

Indra, lord of Maruts, tempestuous dynamics of divine energy, whether you are in the highest heaven of creation or at the lowest plane of space, there you rejoice and create joy for the play of life. Lord of light and the power of joy, come to our yajna of the will to live, and come well, happy and rejoicing. We are your own, lord

We are ready with holy and fragrant yajnic havi.

Gracious lord of versatile power, Indra, with you let us distil the soma of life’s joy and knowledge. Divine harbinger of universal wealth, let us create the means and materials of yajnic living with you. And then, lord of all-competence, allies and equipment, come with the Maruts, lightning carriers of fragrance, join, enjoy, and bless us on the holy seats of grass in the yajna.

Indra, lord of light, power and joy, come by the lights of the dawn, they are yours. Find the heaven and earth of freedom and open the flood-gates of song and joy. Lord of noble helmet, let your horses of the speed of lightning transport you hither. Come to us and, in a mood of love and ecstasy, celebrate and bless our gifts of action and homage in our yajna of life.

We are watchmen of the land of freedom and joy. We are singers of the song of Maruts in honour of Indra. May we, we pray, achieve success in our mission by the grace of Indra. May Mitra, universal friend, Varuna, our choice lord of justice and dispensation, the sun and moon, congregations of the learned, the rolling seas and flowing rivers, mother earth and generous skies, and the bright heavens help us in that yajnic mission.

I hold on to this great and adorable knowledge and wisdom of yours, Indra, which, loud and bold, is revealed in this divine song of yours in praise. 1. Marutstotrasya v¾janasya gopŒ vayamindreÄa sanuyŒma vŒjam. Tanno mitro varuÄo mŒma-hantŒm aditi¬ sindhu¬ p¾thiv¶ uta dyau¬.

We hold on to this great and adorable knowledge and wisdom of yours, Indra, which, loud and bold, is revealed in this divine song of yours in praise. That mighty lord Indra of valour and courage, the noblest leaders and teachers of humanity celebrate with all their might and wisdom in all yajnic projects for the expansion and elevation of human life and culture. In consequence, they too enjoy themselves and feel blest.

The power and fame of this Indra, the seven rivers hold in their flow and reveal. Heaven and earth and the skies manifest his majestic form. The sun and the moon shine and move so that we may realise his glory, have faith, feel the joy of life and finally cross through the ocean of existence.

3. Tam śma rathaṁ maghavan prāva sātaye jaitram yam te anumadāma samgame. Ājā na indra manasā puruṣṭuta tvāyabhya maghavañ-charma yaccha naḥ.

Maghavan, lord of power, wealth and victory, reveal and bring up that wondrous and victorious chariot of yours for our victory and success in battle which we celebrate in the contests of heroes. Invoked, praised and worshipped with our mind and soul for the battles of life, Indra, give us, who are your admirers, our part of wealth and comfort.

Indra, let us win the prizes of life with your help. In every battle and in every contest, keep our selected part and our deserved prize safe. Indra, lord of wealth and power, let the treasures of life be reachable and make the way to them straight and simple. Lord of power and force, break down the storms of enemy power for us.

Indra, lord controller and treasurer of the wealth of the nation, many people are there, your admirers and worshippers, who invoke you and call upon you with means of security and protection. Be seated in our chariot which is unbreakable and victorious and in which your mind would be cool, collected and at peace, and come to assign our share of rights and duties and to dispense our part of endeavour and prize.
6. Gojītā bāhū amitakratuḥ simaḥ karman karmañ-chatamūtiḥ khajaṅkaraḥ. Akalpa indraḥ pratimānamoajasāthā janā vi ḫvayante sīśāsavaḥ.

Strong armed victor of lands, immensely intelligent, tactical fighter and winner, protector and defender in a hundred ways in every battle, heroic warrior, strongest of the strong, match for the matchless with his might and power, such is Indra, lord ruler of the world. Him, the men of admiration invoke for company and protection.

7. Ut te śatānmaghavannucca bhūyasa ut sahasrād ririce kṛṣṭiṣu śravaḥ. Amātraṁ tvā dhiṣaṅā titviṣe mahyadhā vṛtrāṇi jighnase purandara.

Indra, lord of might and power, more than hundred, more than most, more than thousand exceeds your fame and power among the people. Great is your intelligence and action and noble is your voice which makes you shine immensely more than brilliant. And then you break the clouds of rain for the showers and rout the strongholds of the hoarders.

8. Triviṣṭidhātu pratimānamoajasastisro bhūmīrnr-pate trini rocanā. Atīdaṁ viśvaṁ bhuvanaṁ vavakṣīthāśatruindra januṣā sanādasi.

Indra, Nrpati, lord of the people and ruler of the world, in you, threefold is the existence of elements such as earth, water, fire, air and space, of the order of matter, motion and mind (sattva, rajas and tamas). You are the measure of omnipotence. Three are the regions of space, heaven, sky and earth. Three are the orders of heat and light, vaishvanara fire in earth, taijasa electric energy in the sky and Aditya light in heaven. O lord, Indra, you transcend this entire universe, and by nature since eternity you are without an enemy, contrariety and contradiction.

समं न: कार्मुप्पन्युमुद्विन्दिमिन्द: कृणातु पसवं रथं पुर: ॥ ९ ॥

Indra, lord ruler of the universe, first and highest among devas, divinities of nature and humanity, greater than your own attributes, we invoke you, pray to you, and worship you. In the battles of the elements and conflicts of humanity, you are the unmoved victor. Lord Indra as you are, in our yajna of life for progress and prosperity, we pray, advance our chariot made of earthly materials to the front and raise our technologist maker and respected worker close at hand among us to high status.

त्वं जिजगश्च न धना रुराधिधारे भवः जाम मन्यकन्महत्सु च।
त्वामुगमवसम सं शिशीमस्थान् न हन्दु हर्वनषु चादय ॥ १० ॥
10. Tvam jigetha na dhanā rurodhitārbheṣvājā maghavan mahatsu ca. Tvāṃ ugram avase sam śiśīmasyathā na indra havaneṣu codaya.

Indra, lord ruler of the wealth and power of the world, you win the battles great and small, and stall not the growth of wealth. In all the battles great and small, we invoke you, lord of power and passion, for protection and advancement, deplete the enemies and glorify you. Then, lord, inspire us in our yajnic programmes for joint progress and universal prosperity.

11. Viśvāhendro adhivaktā no astvaparihvrṭāḥ sanuyām vājam. Tanno mitro varuṇo māmahantāmaditiḥ sindhuḥ pṛthivī uta dyauḥ.

May Indra, lord of light and power, universal destroyer, creator and preserver, be our teacher and supreme speaker for all time. And may we, obedient and protected, straight and simple, offer him homage, support and perfect service. We pray, may Mitra and Varuna, sun and shower, Aditi, saints and skies, Sindhu, rolling seas and rippling rivers, the earth and heaven protect and promote this holy programme of ours.

That glory of yours, lord, which is supreme and eternal, which is essential, subtle and mysterious, and this which is actual and existential, the poets of vision and imagination realise by its manifestations. Of this glory of Indra, this which is on earth is one and distinct, and the other which is in heaven is distinct and another. The two mingle in form and mature as one just as two parties meet in the assembly, each with its identity, and become one community.

2. Sa dhārayat prthiviśa paprathacca vajreṇa hatvā nirapah sasajra. Ahannahim abhinad rauhiṇaṁ vyahan vyānsaṁ maṅgava śacibhiḥ.

Indra, lord of light and power, like the sun, with his actions, i.e., waves of gravitation, holds the earth and manifests its vast expanse. Striking the electric thunderbolt of his energy, he constantly creates the waters of space. He breaks the cloud formed in the Rohini constellation, striking over its shoulders and releases the showers of rain on earth.

Indra, lord of knowledge and wielder of the thunderbolt, sustainer of all that is born, faithful and valorous, routing the strongholds of evil, roams around. Heroic Indra, having struck the thunderbolt on the wicked, develops wealth and valour for the noble ones.

Surely that honour and fame for actions, the lord of power and wealth, Indra, maintains for the admirers for ages of human memory, which he, wielder of the thunderbolt, of omnipotence, achieves in action for the sake of wealth and fame while he advances for the destruction of the evil and the wicked.

Watch the mighty action, this great achievement of this lord Indra and take it on with conviction for the attainment of honour, fame and valour. He develops lands and cows. He acquires horses and develops modes of transport and communication. He develops herbs and trees, creates waters and develops water resources, and he creates all kinds of wealth and expands the forests.

We create wealth and distil the soma-joy of life for Indra, lord of abundant action, brave, generous and truly brilliant. Heroic and fearless, he respects the wise and, like a detective, uncovers the black money of the hoarders, shares it with the community and moves on.

Indra, joyous hero, you show your prowess then when you take on the sleeping cloud with the thunderbolt. And then the house-wives, the wise seniors, and all the noble pious people rejoice with you.

8. Śuṣṇaṁ pipruṁ kuyavaṁ vr̥tramindra yadhīvī purah śambarasya. Tanno mitro varuṇo māmahantām aditiḥ sindhuḥ pr̥thivī uta dyauḥ.

Indra, when you break down Vṛtra, the mighty cloud which can raise green fields of barley and create prosperity for the farmers, and when you shatter the deep caverns of Shambhara, the dark cloud pregnant with vapour as if destroying the formidable forts of an enemy, then Mitra, the sun, Varuna, the oceans, Aditi, the sky, the rivers, the earth and heaven rise and inspire us with reverence and faith.

Mandala 1/Sukta 104

Indra Devata, Angirasa Kutsa Rshi

Indra, this seat of high office is prepared and reserved for you. Come, take it, rejoicing as a victorious knight of horse. Come post-haste to join for refreshments and holy food, leaving behind the birds, horses and the celestial carriers of the night and day.

2. O tye nara indramūtaye gurnū cit tān tsadyo adhvano jagamyāt. Devāso manyuṁ dāsasya ścamnan te na ā vakṣan tsuvitāya varṇam.

Those people who approach Indra for protection and pray for advancement, he leads, all of them, by the right path at once and always. May the devas, noblest powers of nature and humanity, allaying the passion and fear of the demon of opposition, open the path of progress and bless us with inspiration and guidance for onward movement and protection.

अत्र त्यम् भरत कर्तव्यात् अत्र त्यम् भरत फर्मृद्धः। गीर्ण स्मात्: कुर्यावस्य यार्क हृत् त स्त्रातां पवन शिफाया: ॥ ३ ॥

The clever financier carries away the wealth of others for his heart’s desire. He syphons away the nation’s wealth down to the scum with a passion and wallows in the milky waters of his bath. But bathed and anointed with milk, like the rivalmistresses of a swindler both dying of violent jealousy, he would drown in the whirlpool of the flood of his own creation.

युयोपा नाभिरुपरस्या: प पूर्वाभिस्तितरः राष्ट्रः: शूरः ।
अञ्जसी कुलिशी वीरपतिः पर्या हिन्वाना उदाभिभर्तः ॥ ४ ॥

The life-string of the people’s energy, like the centre of the waters of the cloud, is implicit and hidden. And just as the sun breaks open the energy of the cloud with its rays and shines, so does Indra, the ruler, with the people themselves, release that energy and shines as a hero. And then, just as the straight and rapid, brilliant rivers fed by the heroic Indra, collecting streams of water, full to over flowing, move on, so the people, dynamic and brilliant, protected and guided by the heroic ruler, grow to their full capacity and, creating and collecting wealth and power, move on their way.

5. Prati yat syā nīthādarśī dasyoroko nācchā sadanāṁ jānāti gāt. Adha smā no maghavaṇcar-kṛtādinnā no magheva niṣṣapī parā dāḥ.

Seen is the path, the people know: like the one to the house of the robber and that which leads to the house of the good in full knowledge. Indra, lord of wealth and power, take us not away from the path of good action, throw us not away like the wealth of a wastour.

Indra, lord ruler of light and power, give us the brilliance of the sun. Give us the coolness and plenty of waters. Establish us firmly in sinlessness for a full life of joy. Pray do not hurt our people, they are worthy of protection. We are dedicated in faith to you for the sake of wealth and prosperity.

And I believe in you. We have reposed full faith in you for this life of joy. Great lord of strength and generosity, inspire us to achieve great wealth and honour. Honoured and invoked by many, O lord, do not deliver us, our life and descendants, unto an ignoble state of existence. Indra, provide ample food and soma drink for the hungry and thirsty.

Indra, destroy us not, deliver us not unto aliens. Deprive us not of our cherished dreams and desires. Lord of great action and power, wealth and honour, destroy not the future in the womb. Neglect not those who deserve, let them not be lost in oblivion. Alienate not our brethren, descendants and traditions.

Indra, come right here and now. They say you love soma. Distilled is the soma of life’s joy, drink of it to your fill for the bliss of life. Lord of great honour and universal reverence, invoked by all with love in faith, listen to our prayers as a father and shower the rains of bliss.

Mandala 1/Sukta 105

Vishvedeva Devata, Trita Aptya or Angirasa Kutsa Rshi

1. Candramā apsvantarā suparṇo dhāvate divi. Na vo hiraṇyanemayah padaṁ vindanti vidyuto vittaṁ me asya rodasā.

   The moon glides in the middle regions of Antariksha in the midst of waters and pranic energies. So does the sun of wondrous rays run fast in the heaven of light. But the golden-rimmed flashes of lightning reveal themselves not to your state of consciousness. May the heaven and earth know the secret of this mystery and reveal it to men, the ruler and the people.

2. Arthamid vā u arthina ā jāyā yuvate patim. Tuṇāte vṛṣṇyaṁ payaḥ paridāya rasaṁ duhe vittaṁ me asya rodasā.

   Those who love things of value get the thing they cherish just as a wife fascinates her husband she loves. They vitalise the fluent waters of life, distil the soma of ecstasy and giving themselves up to the spirit of life, taste the nectar of existence. O heaven and earth, know the secret of this mystery of love and life and reveal it for me.

म षु दंवा अदः स्वपुर्वव पादि दिवस्परी। मा स्मयस्म

3. Mo şu devā adah svarava pādi divaspari. Mā tittam me asya rodasī.

O divinities of life and nature, may that ecstasy and bliss of our life never fall below the top of heaven.
May we never suffer frustration in vacuum of the peace and joy of the soma of existence. Heaven and earth, know the secret and mystery of living in the state of bliss and reveal it to me for all, the ruler as well as the ruled.

Kva ṛtam pūrvyam gataṁ kastad bibharti nūtano

Lord of knowledge, you are the harbinger of truth and the message of Divinity. I ask you of that supreme yajna of life’s protection and promotion which sustains existence. Where is that eternal water and law of life hidden or gone? Who at the present time observes that same ancient and eternal yajna and law of life, and how? May the heaven and earth know and reveal the truth for us.

अमी य दंवा: स्थनं त्रिश्चा र ‘चन दिवः। कवं ऋहंतं कदनृतं

5. Amī ye devāḥ sthāna triśvā rocane divaḥ. Kad va ṛtaṁ kadanṛtaṁ kva pratnā va āhutivruttam me asya rodasī.

O lords of knowledge, who or what are those divine powers of existence abiding in the light of heaven by their name, identity and state of being in the three regions of the universe? Where is the law of cosmic dynamics of evolution? What is truth and what is untruth? What is eternal and constant? What is existential and mutable? What was the first mutation of Prakṛti in the cosmic yajna? What is going to be the last and closing oblation in the cosmic vedi? May the heaven and earth know and reveal it for us.

O divinities of existence, what and where is the ultimate cause of the original life and law, what is that omnipotence? What and where is that omniscient all-seeing eye that watches the created forms and their karmic movement? What and where is that awful path of the great sun by which we may comprehend and cross the challenges of existence? May the heaven and earth know of this and reveal the knowledge to me.
7. Ahaṁ so asmi yaḥ purā sute vadāmi kāni cit. Tam mā vyantyādhyo vṛko na ṭṛṣṇajam mṛgaṁ vittam me asya rodasī.

I am the same who chant some songs of Vedic adoration at the dawn of the cosmic yajna of the Divine. And yet the loves and cares of existence overwhelm me as a wolf pounces upon a deer thirsting for life and existence. What is this mystery? May the heaven and earth know and reveal it to me!

8. Saṁ mā tapantyabhitaḥ sapatniriva parśavaḥ. Mūṣo na śīśnā vyadanti mādhyaḥ stotāram te śatakraṭo vittam me asya rodasī.

The knives and sickles of life all round cut into my vitals as rival mistresses consume the lover’s heart and soul. Just as mice eat up the warp and woof of cloth in the making, so do the cares of life eat away the original wealth of me who am, in reality, your admirer and worshipper, O Lord of a hundred yajnas of the universe. What is this mystery? Let heaven and earth reveal it to me.

9. Amī ye sapta raśmayastatrā me nābhirātatā. Tritastad vedāpyaḥ sa jāmitvāya rebhati vittam me asya rodasī.

As far as the rainbow lights of the universe radiate, as far as the five elements, Ahankara, mind-matter complex and Mahan, first mutation of Prakrti expand, as far as the five pranas, mind and intellect energise life, that far exists the sphere of my life’s centrehold. The self-realised soul who knows the time past, present and future upon the instant knows that and proclaims for the realisation of universal brotherhood of souls. May the heaven and earth know and reveal the secret of this universal brotherhood for me.

10. Amī ye pañcokṣaṇo madhye tāsthurmaho divaḥ. Devatrā nu pravācyam sadhrīcīnā ni vāṃturvi-ttamā me asya rodasī.

There they are, five generous founts of energy, water and joy which abide in the great heavens, they being fire, wind, vapours of water, electricity and the sun. They are simultaneous, coexistent and worthy of being researched, analysed and explained by and to the noblest of generous scholars. May the heaven and earth know this mystery of nature and reveal it to me.

11. Suparṇā ēta āsate madhya ārodhane divaḥ. Te sedhantī patho vrkaṁ tarantāṁ yahvarīrapo vittamā me asya rodasī.

The waves of solar energy abide in the midst of the sun’s gravity. They being most potent regulate the paths and velocities of electricity and the formation and movement of waters. May the heaven and earth know this mystery and reveal it to me.

नव्यं तदुक्थं हितं दवासं: सुपवाचनम। ऋतृतम्पष्पन्निति सिन्धवं: सत्यं तातान सूया विचं म अस्य रंदसी॥ १२॥

O men of knowledge and generosity, this new, laudable, sacred, useful and secret principle of nature’s truth and law of physical evolution is worthy of study, discussion and development. The rivers flow and the sea rolls the waters while the sun creates and expands the vapours and again sucks up the vapours. This mysterious cycle may the heaven and earth know and reveal to us.

अग्न तव त्यदुक्थं दुवप्रप्राप्तस्यधिम। स नै: सत्या मनुष्वदा दुवाय्यी। विदुर्देर विचं म अस्य रंदसी॥ १३॥

13. Agne tava tyadukthyaṁ deveśvastyāpyam. Sa naḥ satto manuşvadā devān yakṣi viduṣṭaro vittam me asya rodası.

Agni, scholar of heat and vitality, that laudable knowledge of yours is worthy of confirmation with reference to the presence of vitality in various forms of nature. Scholar of eminence, come as a participant in yajna, study those forms of nature, cooperate with other scholars, and may the heaven and earth know the mysteries of nature and reveal the same to you and me.

सत्य ह ताम मनुष्वदा दुवां अच्छां विदुर्देर:। अग्रिहुव्या सुपृषदति दुवा दुवषु मधिरा विचं म अस्य रंदसी॥ १४॥
Agnirhavyā suṣūdati devo deveṣu medhiro vittam me asya rodasī.

Scholar of eminence, researcher in the yajna of science, come as a participant in yajna. Specialist of natural sciences, adorable you are among scholars. Agni is the vital power that creates, matures and gives the materials for the yajna of humanity. May the heaven and earth know the mysteries of vital fire and reveal the same to you and me.

15. Brahmā kṛṇoti varuṇo gātuvidam tamīmahe.
Vyūṛṇoti hṛdā matim navyo jāyatāmṛtaṁ vittam me asya rodasī.

Brahma, lord supreme, creates, Varuna, lord of love and justice, reveals the knowledge and shapes the man of knowledge who knows the ways of nature and the ways of the world. We pray to the lord supreme, we request the man of knowledge. He removes the veil of ignorance with his heart of love and refines our intelligence. We pray may new and newer facts of nature and divine law arise. May heaven and earth know and reveal the knowledge to us.

16. Asau yaḥ panthā ādityo divi pravācyam kṛtaḥ.
Na sa devā atikrame tam marīṣo na paśyatha vittam me asya rodasī.
That is the path which is blazing glorious as the sun in heaven, eternal and imperishable, created in the light of eternal knowledge, Veda, to be meditated on, spoken of and followed. Not even the greatest in nature or humanity can exceed or violate it. O mortal men and women, you do not see it. I pray, may the heaven and earth know and reveal it to you and me.

Tritāḥ kūpe’vahito devān havata ītaye. Tacchu-śrāva brhaspatiḥ krṣṇannamhūraṇāduru vittam me asya rodasī || 17 ||

Trita, the soul in possession of simultaneous vision of past, present and future time, having achieved efficiency in knowledge, action and prayer, withdrawn into the cave of the heart, or, even the soul fallen into disarray in all the three ways and deep in the well of desperation, calls upon the Lord for succour, protection and spiritual elevation. The Lord, Brhaspati, lord of the universe and universal voice, listens and creates a wide path of freedom from sin, despondency and limitations. May the heaven and earth know that path and reveal the words of prayer to me.

Aruṇo mā sakṛd vrkāḥ pathā yantam dadarśa hi. Ujjihīte nicāyyā taṣṭeva prṣṭyāmayī vittam me asya rodasī || 18 ||

The Lord of golden majesty, creator and measurer of the months of time, giver of vision and bliss like the moon, watches the wayfarer going on the path of life created for humanity. And the person so observed, even a hunchback suffering the worst pains, is reshaped into form and, thanking the Lord, leaps and bounds on way to freedom in a state of perfect health. May the heaven and earth know that path and reveal the vision divine for me.

Inspired by this song of divinity sung by the sage of eternal vision, let us all, children of Indra, be all ways great and strong and move forward by leaps and bounds. And may Mitra, the sun, Varuna, the moon, Aditi, the sky, the river and the sea, the earth and heaven strengthen our resolve and advance us on way to freedom and bliss.

1. Indraṁ mitraṁ varuṇamagnimūtaye mārutaṁ śardho aditiṁ havāmahe. Ratham na durgād vasa-vahṣ sudānavo viśvasmānno aṁhaso nisnipartana.
For energy, power and protection, we invoke Indra, lord of power and natural energy, Mitra, pranic energy and universal friend, Varuna, noble scholar and power of will, Agni, fire, solar energy and lord of knowledge, troop and force of Maruts, power of the winds, Aditi, children of the earth, powers of nature and knowledge of the original cause of the physical world. May the Vasus, sustainers of life, generous and giving, save us from all sin and evil of the world and take us forward as a chariot over the difficult paths of earth, sea and sky.

2. \textit{Ta ādityā ā gatā sarvatātaye bhūta devā vṛtra-\tiny \textit{tūryeṣu} saṁbhuvāḥ. Rathaṁ na durgād vasavaḥ sudānaṁ viśvasmāṁno aṁhaso niśpipartana.}

Let the Adityas, lights of the world, come for our total protection and prosperity. Come all the nobilities of nature and humanity to fight with us in all the battles against demons of darkness for creation and production, and may they be good for our peace and joy. May the Vasus, generous and giving, save us from all sin and evil of the world and take us forward as a chariot over the difficult paths of earth, sea and sky.

3. \textit{Avantu naḥ pitaraḥ supravācanā uta devē devaputre rāvṛdhā. Rathaṁ na durgād vasavaḥ sudānaṁ viśvasmāṁno aṁhaso niśpipartana.}
May the wise and adorable ancients and seniors protect us, may the divine earth and heaven, and the daughters of divine nature help us and advance the rule of truth and law. And may the generous Vasus, we pray, save us from all sin and evil and lead us as a chariot over the difficult paths of earth, sea and sky.

With sincere mind and soul, we invoke the universally praised hero of knowledge and power, ideal of the brave, lord of protection and progress, heroic Pushan, fighting here for development of food, energy and social advancement. And we pray, may the generous Vasus save us from all sin and evil and take us forward as a chariot across the difficult paths of earth, sea and sky.
universal knowledge, we pray, make our path of movement easy for all time. We pray for peace and all round protection against suffering, all that is good for mankind. And, we pray, may the generous Vasus save us from all sin and evil and take us forward as a chariot over the difficult paths of earth, sea and sky.

Rshi, divine seer, Kutsa, master of knowledge and power, creator of peace and joy, in his programmes of peace and progress, invokes for help, inspiration and protection Indra, lord of universal action, speech and knowledge and divine destroyer of evil and darkness. We pray, may the generous Vasus save us from all sin and evil and take us forward as a chariot over the difficult paths of earth, sea and sky.

7. Devairno devyaditirni pātu devastrātā trāyatāmpryucchān. Tanno mitro varuṇo māmahantām aditiḥ sindhuḥ prthivi ūt ut dyauḥ.

May Aditi, eternal knowledge with the gift of noble virtues protect us. May the scholar and generous seer, saviour from ignorance, in all sincerity protect us without relent. And may Mitra, the sun, Varuna, the moon, Aditi, the sky, the sea and rivers, earth and heaven support and bless us in our progress onward.

चन्द्र दुधानां पत्यति सुमुन्मदित्यासा भवता मृण्यन्ति:।

Yajña brings peace, prosperity and happiness to the noble people. O scholars of science and divinity, be harbingers of peace and joy by yajnic creations and inventions. May your latest intellectual endeavour go on successfully so that it may save us from anxiety and fear, bring us wealth, and win honour and reverence for the wise.

चन्द्र इन्द्रियशुक्तौ मूर्तिदिरादित्याः अदिति: श्रमं यथसं।

Invoked, honoured and aroused with the soma songs of the Angirasa scholars of pranic energies, let the divinities come with protection to bless: may Indra come with wealth and powers, Maruts with energy of winds, and Aditi with the seasonal gifts of sunlight and solar energy. May they, we pray, come close to us and bless us with peace, comfort and joy.

That food for life and wealth of the world may the divinities bring us: Indra, that power and wealth with energy and rain, Varuna, that peace and prosperity with water, Agni, that knowledge, light and fire for living, Aryama, that force and speed of the winds, and Savita, that light and life with solar energy distilled from nature. May the divinities bring us that food for life, that strength, enlightenment, justice, dignity and grace. And may Mitra, Varuna, Aditi, the seas and rivers, earth and heaven raise us to the heights of grandeur.

Mandala 1/Sukta 108

Indragni Devata, Angirasa Kutsa Rshi

Ya indrāgni citratamo ratho vāmabhi viśvāni bhuvanāni caṣṭe. Tenā yātam sarathāṁ tasthi-vāṁśāthā somasya pibataṁ sutasya.

Indra and Agni, powers of air and fire, wonderful is the chariot which goes round and shows for you all the places and planets of the world. Come riding therein and bring us all that is there in the chariot and enjoy the beauty and pleasure of the Lord’s creation.

Yāvadidam bhuvañāṃ visvamstyuruvyacā varimatā gabhīram. Tāvāṃ ayaṁ pātave somo astvaramindrāgni manase yuvabhyāṃ.

Indra and Agni, lords of the chariot, as far deep and majestic as this world is with its wide expanse and gravity, that far may be the beauty and pleasure of the soma for you to drink to your heart’s desire.

Cakrāthe hi sādhryaṁnāma bhadram sādhṛi-cinā vṛtrahaṇā uta sthaḥ. Tāvindraṅgī sādhryaṅcā niśadyā vṛṣṇaḥ somasya vṛṣaṇā vṛṣethām.

Indra and Agni, together you are, together you exist, together you do good and together you break the cloud for rain. Therefore, acting together as ever, bring generous showers of the abundant soma joy of the Lord’s creation.
The flames of yajna fire are blazing, the ladles are full and raised, the holy seats are spread and occupied in anticipation of Indra and Agni for whom the yajna is organised. And now Indra and Agni, we pray, come and join us with brilliant soma showers for the sake of joy.

5. \textit{Yānindrāgni cakrathurvīryāṇi yāni rūpāṇyuta vrṣṇyāṇi. Yā vāṁ pratnāṇi sakhyā śivāni tebhiḥ somasya pibataṁ sutasya.}

Indra and Agni, whatever great success you have inspired and achieved, whatever forms of abundant generosity you have assumed, whatever ancient and auspicious actions you have performed as friends of humanity, with all these drink of the soma distilled in celebration of your power and glory.

6. \textit{Yadabravaṁ prathamaṁ vāṁ vṛṇāno’yaṁ somo asurairno vihavyah. Tāṁ satyāṁ śraddhā- mabhyaḥ hi yātamaṁ somasya pibataṁ sutasya.}

What I spoke of you first, opting to invoke you in the yajna of science and creation, was true and faithful. And the soma distilled in yajna is worth invoking even by the asuras, those who live merely at the physical level. Come in response to that true and faithful voice of ours and drink of this soma of the joy
The flames of yajna fire are blazing, the ladles are full and raised, the holy seats are spread and occupied in anticipation of Indra and Agni for whom the yajna is organised. And now Indra and Agni, we pray, come and join us with brilliant soma showers for the sake of joy.

Indra and Agni, whatever great success you have inspired and achieved, whatever forms of abundant generosity you have assumed, whatever ancient and auspicious actions you have performed as friends of humanity, with all these drink of the soma distilled in celebration of your power and glory.

Indra and Agni, adorable powers of yajna, as you celebrate your power and achievement in your own house and enjoy, or celebrate among the learned and the divines, or the rulers of the nation, the same way, O generous and abundant powers, holy and heroic, come and drink of the soma of your own creation with us.

Indra and Agni, generous and abundant, holy and heroic, whether you are among the industrious or the victorious, or the malicious, or followers or leaders, from there come and drink of the soma distilled.

Indra and Agni, generous and abundant, holy and heroic, whether you are among the industrious or the victorious, or the malicious, or followers or leaders, from there come and drink of the soma distilled.
Indra and Agni, whether you abide in the lower region of the earth, or in the middle region of the sky, or in the highest region of heaven, from there, powers generous and heroic, come and then drink of the soma of joy distilled from the life of existence.

Indra and Agni, whether you are in the highest regions of the heaven of light, or in the middle region of the skies of wind and lightning, or in the lowest region of the earth, from there come, powers generous and heroic, and then drink of the soma joy of life distilled.

Indra and Agni, as you stay in the region of heaven, on the earth, in the mountains and the clouds, in the herbs and in the waters, from there come, powers generous and life-giving, and then drink of the soma of life distilled.
12. Yadindrāgni udītā sūryasya madhye divāh sva-dhaya mādayethe. Ataḥ pari vrṣaṇāvā hi yātamathā somasya pibatam sutasya.

Indra and Agni, generated of the sun in the midst of heaven, inspire and enlighten with their essential power of energy and food for life. From there, powers generous and brilliant, come and then delight with a drink of soma distilled for you and all.

Indra and Agni, treasure sources of knowledge, wealth and victory, having drunk of the soma distilled from life and nature may, we pray, win for us all the wealth of the world. May Mitra, Varuna, Aditi, rivers and the seas, earth and heaven bliss this wish and prayer and raise us to the dignity and prosperity of life.

Indragani Devata, Angirasa Kutsa Rshi

1. Vi hyakhyāṁ manasā vasya icchannindrāgni jñāsa uta vā sajātān. Nānyā yuvat pramatirasti mahyāṁ sa vāṁ dhiyāṁ vajayanīṁ atakṣam.
O Indra and Agni, wishing with heart and soul for better life and wealth I speak to those who know and to my contemporary brethren: Other than you two, none is my protector, none preceptor, none my subject. Thus I improve and refine the worshipful and divine knowledge and understanding about fire and electricity.

I hear that you are much more rich and munificent in gifts than a son-in-law or a brother-in-law. Hence an offering of soma for you both, a cherished gift of study, whereby I create and present the latest treatise on the energy of fire and electricity.

“Let us not snap the life-line, keep the light flowing”, praying thus for progress and prosperity, pursuing the tradition of their forefathers’ energy, imbiding the nourishments of the seasons and directing themselves by Indra and Agni, heat and energy of nature’s divinity, the virile and generous children of humanity live and celebrate life in the magnetic field of intelligence along the perpetual line of piety and continuity.

4. \[Yuvābhyaṁ devi dhiṣanā madāyendrāgni somasuṣati sunoti. Tāvaśvinā bhadrahastā supāṇi ā dhāvataṁ madhunā pṛṇktamapsu.\]

Indra and Agni, fire and power, with you and for you and for the pleasure and dignity of living does divine intelligence, inspired with love and passion for life, create beauty and power alongwith joy. Come generous handed Ashvins, complementary currents of nature’s energy, with honey sweets and join the two, fire and power, with waters in the sky.

5. \[Yuvāmindrāgni vasuno vibhāge tavastamā śuśrava vrtrahatye. Tāvāsadyā barhiṣi yajñe asmin pra carṣaṇi mādayethāṁ sutasya.\]

Indra and Agni, lords of energy and fire power, you two I hear are the fastest and strongest in the battle against the clouds of darkness and want and in the creation and distribution of wealth and joy. Come benefactors, both of you, grace the seats of this yajna of science and technology and enjoy the honey-sweets of creation.
6. _Pra carṣaṇibhyāḥ pṛtanāhaveṣu pra pṛthivyā riricāthe divaśca. Pra sindhubhyāḥ pra giribhyo mahitvā prendrāgni viśvā bhuvanātyanyā._

Indra and Agni, universal fire, light and electric energy, by your own power and grandeur, in the battles of existence and evolution, you exceed humanity, earth, heaven, seas, mountains and all other regions of the universe.

7. _Ā bharataṁ śiṣṭatam vajrabāhū asmāṁ indrāgni avataṁ śacībhiḥ. Ime nu te raśmayaḥ sūryasya eybhiḥ sapitvaṁ pitaro na āsan._

Indra and Agni, of strong arms as adamant, come, sustain us, teach us and protect us with your knowledge and actions. And these and those far off are your rays of the sun, both knowledge and nourishment, by which our forefathers blest us with science, knowledge and sustenance.

8. _Puraṁdarā śiṣṭatam vajrahastāsmāṁ indrāgni avataṁ bhareṣu. Tanno mitro varuṇo māmahatntāṁ aditiḥ sindhuḥ pṛthivī uta dyauḥ._
Indra and Agni, strong of arms as adamant, breakers of the strongholds of darkness and poverty, we pray, protect us, and advance us in the battles of success in life. And may Mitra, Varuna, Aditi, seas and rivers, earth and heaven support this prayer of ours and raise us to the heights of achievement.

Mandala 1/Sukta 110

_Rbhus Devata, Angirasa Kutsa Rshi_

1. _Tatam̐ me apastadu tāyate punaḥ svādiśṭhā dhītirucathāya śasyate. Ayam̐ samudra iha viśvadevyah svāhākṛtasya samu tṛṇuta ṛbhavaḥ._

Wide is my knowledge and action and it continues growing wider and higher. Sweet is my word and wisdom worthy of approval and appreciation in discourse and communication. Deep as the ocean is this world of knowledge, wisdom and dharmic action, divine and adorable, distilled from the voice of Divinity. Come, devotees of knowledge and wisdom and leaders of noble action, and drink of it to your heart’s content.

2. _Ābhogayaṁ pra yadicchanta aitenāpākāḥ prāṇco mama ke cidāpayah. Saudhanvanā-saścaritasya bhūmanāgacchata saviturdāśuṣo śrham._
Saints and sages, living on alms and uncooked vegetables and fruits, men of ancient knowledge and wisdom, realised souls for me, if you wish to taste the joy and ecstasy of life, then, like heroes of the mighty bow, with all your wealth of noble action, come to the house of generous Savita, light and life of the universe.

3. \textit{Tat savitā vo’ṁṛtatvamāsuvaḍagohyaṁ yacchra-vayanta aitana. Tyāṁ cīccamasamasurasya bhakṣaṇamekaṁ santamakṛṇutā caturvayam.}

O Saints and sages, when singing in praise of Divinity you reach the house of Savita, lord of light which can never be concealed, then He creates the nectar of bliss for you. And that one measure of holy food, which is held in the sacrificial ladle as water is held in the cloud or soul in the body, He increases fourfold for the living and breathing souls in existence.

4. \textit{Viśṭvī śamī taraṇītvena vāghato martāsah santo ṅṛṣatvamānaśuḥ. Saudhanvanā ṛbhavaḥ śūracakṣasah saṁvatsare samapṛcyanta dhī-tibhīḥ.}

People of noble speech and action doing acts of piety with zeal attain freedom from death to immortality of bliss though they are still in the mortal state. Heroes of the mighty bow, commanding wisdom and dexterity, having universal vision as light of the sun attain perfection by virtue of good actions just in one year.

The Rbhus, heroes of knowledge, wisdom and expertise of action, approached and solicited for exceptional work, desiring and winning honour and reputation among immortals, with their genius and brilliance measure and cross like a field any body of knowledge effective for one kind of achievement.

For the sake of humanity we dedicate our mind and intelligence and offer it like ghṛta in a sacrificial ladle to the Rbhus, inhabitants of the sky, who share its food and energy with their zeal and, with their force and power rise to the regions of heaven.
7. \( \text{Rbhurna indra}^{\text{†}} \text{ śavasā } \text{ navīyān}^{\text{†}} \text{ bhur}^{\text{†}} \text{ vājehbir-} \text{ vasurbhirvāsurdadih. } \text{ Yuṣmākaṁ } \text{ devā } \text{ avasāhāni priye’bhi } \text{ tiṣṭhema } \text{ pṛtsūtīrasunvatām.} \)

Rbhu, man of science and wonders is Indra for us, always new and fresh with discoveries and inventions. He is ever new and fresh with creation of food and energy and giver of new wealth and power. O spirits and dwellers of the sky, may we with your power and protection in our dearest days win over the force and armies of ungenerous and selfish people.

8. \( \text{ Niścarmana }^{\text{†}} \text{ ṛbhavo } \text{ gāmapimśata } \text{ samī } \text{ vatsenā-} \text{ sṛjatā } \text{ mātaraṁ } \text{ punaḥ. Saudhanvanāsaḥ } \text{ svapa-} \text{ syayā } \text{ naro } \text{ jivrī } \text{ yuvānā } \text{ pitarākrṣotana.} \)

O Rbhus, wondrous scholars of life-science and rejuvenation, rejuvenate and strengthen the skinny cow and recreate her as the mother cow with her calf. Heroes of the mighty bow, leaders of men, with your knowledge and action vitalise the worn out seniors and restore them to their youth.

9. \( \text{ Vājehbirno } \text{ vājastāvavidhy}^{\text{†}} \text{ ḛumāṁ } \text{ indra } \text{ citramā } \text{ darṣi } \text{ rādhaḥ. Tanno } \text{ mitro } \text{ varuṇo } \text{ māma-} \text{ hantām } \text{ aditiḥ } \text{ sindhuḥ } \text{ pṛthivī } \text{ uta } \text{ dyauḥ.} \)

Indra, lord of power and force, empowered with the Rbhus, wondrous force of knowledge and power of science, move into the battle of life for us and win us wealth as well as honour. And, we pray, may Mitra, Varuna, Aditi, rivers and the sea, earth and heaven bless and advance this united effort of knowledge, power and the people.

Mandala 1/Sukta 111

Rbhus Devata, Angirasa Kutsa Rshi

Let the Rbhus, with their knowledge and action in the field of science and technology, manufacture a sophisticated multistage chariot for the ride of Indra, lord of wealth and honour and generous giver of showers of prosperity. Let them also creates the horse power for that chariot to carry Indra and the wealth of riches. Let them create new youthful vigour for the ageing parents and seniors and the mother cow for the calf to provide protection for it.
2. Ā no yajñāya takṣata ṛbhumadvayaḥ kratve dakṣāya suprajāvatimīṣam. Yathā kṣayāma sarvavīrayā viśā tannaḥ śardhāya dhāsathā svindriyam.

O ṛbhus, create that youthful and vibrant health and age for our yajña of social order with science and technology which shapes the ṛbhus for further advancement, create food and energy for a nation of the brave worthy of noble acts and expertise, and build up that science and wealth for our strength by which we may abide as a heroic nation in peace, security and prosperity.

3. Ā takṣata sātim asmabhyam ṛbhavaḥ sātim rathāya sātim arvate naraḥ. Sātim no jaitrīṁ sam maheta viśvahā jāmim ajāmim pṛtanāsu sakṣaṇim.

O ṛbhus, leaders of science and commanders of the forces, create and refine the wealth of the nation for us. Create speed and power for the chariot, and strength and speed for movement and transport. Create and heighten our capacity for victory and advancement over the challenging enemy known or unknown, equal or unequal, in the battles of life.

I invoke Indra, lord of glory and master friend of the Rbhus, for protection and progress. I invoke the Rbhus, experts of the art of living and creator of the beauty of life. I invoke these pioneers of intelligence, Vajas, leaders of knowledge and power, and the Maruts, spirits and forces of tempestuous movement forward. I call upon them all for protection, promotion and enjoyment of the beauty, wealth and excitement of life. May Mitra, spirit of love and friendship, Varuna, light of excellence, and surely both the Ashvins, complementary currents of divine energy, inspire and exhilarate us for wealth and dignity, intelligence and passion for victory in the struggle for progress in spiritual evolution.

5. \textit{Rbhurbharāya sam śiśātu sātīṁ samaryajidvājo asmāṅ aviṣṭu. Tanno mitro varuṇo māmahan-tāmaditiḥ sindhuḥ pṛthivī uta dyauḥ.}

May the Rbhus grant us wealth and victory for total fulfilment. May the victor, Vaja, inspire us with courage and valour. And may Mitra, Varuna, Aditi, the seas and the rivers, earth and heaven bless this resolve and prayer of ours with success.
Mandala 1/Sukta 112

Dyavaprthivi, Agni, Ashvins Devata, Angirasa Kutsa Rshi

1. Ile dyavaprthivi pūrvacittaye’gniṃ gharmam surucain yāmanniṣṭaye. Yābhirbhare kāramāṁ-śāya jinvathastābhiruṣu ūtibhiraśvinā gatam.

In continuation of the earlier yajnas of prayer and production, and moving on further on the same path of desired creation and comfort, I invoke at the outset heaven and earth and Agni, brilliant fire. O Ashvins, complementary currents of nature’s energy and teachers and scholars, come forth with those very means of protection and advancement by which you inspire and lead the efficient worker and researcher to play his part in the programmes of progress.

Ashvins, teachers and scholars, complementary harbingers of natural wealth, just as creators and producers of food and energy, avoiding idlers and wastours, come to the man of knowledge for advice, so they come to your chariot to sit in for the gift of desired achievement in action. Come forth with those means of safety and success by which you protect and promote intellectuals and researchers for progress.

3. Yuvaṃ tāsāṃ divyasya praśāsane viśām kṣayatho amṛtasya majmanā. Yābhirdhenuma-svaṁ pin-vatho narā tābhirū śu ūtibhiraśvinā gatam.

O Ashvins, teachers, scholars and leaders of the nation, harbingers of health and vitality from the sap of nature, who reside in the midst of the socio-economic and educational system of the people and rule and teach by the power of celestial soma and by the grace of the pure and eternal lord of immortality, come and bless us with those means of vitality, safety and protection by which you revitalize the enervated holy speech and education like rejuvenation of the barren cow.

4. Yābhiḥ parijmā tanayasya majmanā dvimātā tūrtsu taraṇirvibhūṣati. Yābhistrimanturabhavad vicakṣaṇastābhirū śu ūtibhiraśvinā gatam.

Ashvins, complementary forces of natural evolution, teacher and scholar, human forces of social evolution, come with power and grace with those means and powers of protection and progress by which the all-round moving Vayu, wind energy, source of fire and water, blows and shines among the fast moving forces of nature with the light and grandeur of its extension, the fire, and by which the teacher and scholar shines in society by the merit of his disciple and power of his creative work, and by which the man of knowledge, action and prayer rises to the universal vision of existence.

Ashvins, catalytic powers of nature’s divinity, analytic scholars of nature, educational and developmental powers of society, come up to us with grace with all those powers and protections by which you support and advance the scholar wholly and exclusively dedicated to worshipful study of nature in the field of water and liquids and see him emerging from the waters for a sight of divinity through success. Come with those protections by which you support the scholar of eminence in his analytical studies of the elements until he comes out successful.

Ashvins, scholars of science and medicine, come with all that knowledge, protection and promotions and safety measures by which you develop pain killers, antibiotics, tonics and anesthetics in the battle of life and by which you save, sustain and develop the fetus after conception. Come with all these with grace.

7. \(Yābhiḥ śucantim dhanasāṁ suṣaṁsadam taptam gharmaṁ omyāvantam atraye. Yābhiḥ prśniguṁ purukutsamāvatam tābhirū ṣu ūtibhiraśvinā gatam.\)

Ashvins, scholars, teachers and social planners, come with grace with all those modes and means by which you protect and promote the pure hearted creator and distributor of wealth, the noble parliamentarian, brilliant enthusiast, protective warrior, the astronaut and the versatile scholar for the establishment of a social order free from physical, psychological and spiritual ailments.

8. \(Yābhiḥ śacībhivrṛṣaṇā parāvrjāṁ prāṇdham śrōṇam cakṣasa etave kṛthah. Yābhirvartikāṁ grasitāṁ amuṇcataṁ tābhirū ṣu ūtibhiraśvinā
gatam.\)
Ashvins, powers of nature and humanity, generous and virile, come with grace with all those noble acts of protection and mercy by which you restore the rejected, the blind and the deaf back to their natural health and efficiency to see clearly and walk with confidence, and by which you release the poor bird caught in the falcon’s beak.

Ashvins, scholars of science and leaders of the world, young and unaging, come with all those acts of power and protection by which you cross the sea and make the honey-sweets of rivers to flow, promote the pious scholar of Divinity and arm the warrior with thunder, train the man of information and create the leader of leaders. Come with all those and come with grace.

Ashvins, ruler and commander of the army, come with all those acts and powers by which you refresh and promote the defence forces which protect the people, create wealth and remain steady and unshaken in the war of a thousand battles, and by which you raise and maintain an impressive cavalry and armoured corps which is inspired and committed to the nation. Ashvins, come and come with grace.

11. Yābhiḥ sudāṇū auśijāya vaṇiye dīrghaśravase madhu kośo aṅkṣarat. Kakṣīvantāṁ stotāraṁ yābhirāvataṁ tābhirū ṣu Ǵibhirāśvinā gatam Ashvins, generous and highly creative scholars and leaders of humanity, come with all those acts and policies by which you open the treasure secrets of the wealth of nature and humanity and let flow the streams of water and honey for the children of the learned, the man of commerce and industry, and the masters of knowledge and wide wealth, and by which you protect and promote the devotees of the nation and national prestige who command the loyalty of their supporters. Come soon and come with grace.

By feats of irrigation engineering you augment the stream of water with over-flowing rush of floods of water. By feats of automotive engineering you protect and propel the horse-less chariot onward for victory. By electrical engineering, the leader, feeling the want of education, justice and economic well-being throws up the currents of electric energy for development. With all these wonders of science and technology, O Ashvins, scientists and leaders, come with grace and protection for development and progress.

With the communication by which you go round the sphere of the sun in far off orbit, by which you reach and protect the pious man of thought and action over the dominions, by which you protect and promote the scholar of science and the creator and harbinger of food, energy and speed, with all these gifts of protection and progress, O Ashvins, leaders of science and development, come with grace and bless us.

Ashvins, promoters and leaders of humanity, come with those protections and generosities by which in the most challenging battle of life you protect the great man of liberality, the manager of water resources and the promoter of sunlight and the light of Dharma, and by which you defend and advance the terror-warrior against the strongholds of the evil and the wicked in the struggle of life for light and knowledge.

Ashvins, promoters and leaders of humanity, come with those protections and generosities by which in the most challenging battle of life you protect the great man of liberality, the manager of water resources and the promoter of sunlight and the light of Dharma, and by which you defend and advance the terror-warrior against the strongholds of the evil and the wicked in the struggle of life for light and knowledge.

Ashvins, scientists and technologists, come soon and with grace, with those preventives, protectives, curatives and restoratives by which you treat sickness and dehydration, create tonic drinks, protect approved preparations and specialists, and prepare sedatives and pacifiers, by which you protect and honour marriage partners, and by which you launch and protect technological vehicles and genius scholars.

Ashvins, leaders of humanity, come and bring us those protections and preparations by which you provide peace and security for the common man sleeping in comfort, assure freedom from weakness of body, mind and soul for the man of virtue, elevate the rule of the benevolent ruler to the sunlight of love and justice over the vast earth and wide paths of movement, and shoot arrows of defence for the rule of light, love and justice.

Ashvins, leaders and protectors of the people, come with the support and protections by which the ruler protects and promotes the teachers and the disciples. Come with the passion and power by which the warrior, inspired like fire lit up and blazing with the holy fuel in the vedi, rages and blazes with valour and rectitude in battle. Come with the defences by which you protect the warrior facing a shower of arrows in the mighty battle for justice and development.

Ashvins, leaders and commanders, come with the support by which you satiate the man of knowledge with peace and joy at heart. Come with the power and speed by which you fly over the paths of stars. Come with the plenty and generosity by which you strengthen the warrior for humanity with food, energy, movement and refreshment. With all these means of support and protection, come and bless us in peace and security.

Ashvins, generous powers of nature and humanity, teachers and celibates, come with the love and protection by which you bring generous and noble life-partners for young men. Come with the love and knowledge by which you teach bright girls and prepare them for life. Come with that bright and divine knowledge by which you enrich the man of charity and generosity. Come and bless us with all these modes of support and protection.

Ashvins, harbingers of comfort and joy, come with those gifts of support and protection by which you bless the generous man with peace and comfort, by which you protect the man of prosperity and the man of power and honour. Come with that knowledge which bears and brings the wealth of peace and joy and the wealth of truth and right.

Ashvins, rulers and commanders, come with those protections by which you protect the archer in battle, by which you protect the young rider and the horse in the race, by which you bear and bring the favourite honey for the bees. Come with all these and bless us.

Ashvins, rulers and commanders, come with those powers and protections by which in the battles of men you exhort the leader bravely fighting for the land and her cows, by which in the battle of the field you protect the children of the nation, and by which you defend the warriors of the chariot. Come with all these protections and bless us.

23. Yābhiḥ kutsmārjuneyaṁ śatakraṭū pra turvītiṁ pra ca dabhītim āvatam. Yābhirdhvasantiṁ puruṣantim āvatāṁ tābhirū şu ūtibhiraśvinā gatam.

Ashvins, rulers and commanders, heroes of a hundred acts of war and defence, come with those powers and protections by which you protect the lightning missile, by which you protect the tempestuous warrior terrorizing the enemy, by which you defend and advance the leader who takes on and destroys many hosts of the enemy. Come with these protections and advance us on way to progress.

Ashvins, complementary divinities of nature and powers of humanity, generous harbingers of showers of strength and prosperity, give us the holy voice which is creative and effective. Give us the intelligence and wisdom for reflection, imagination and planning. I invoke you for protection and advancement in the sure, clear and honest business of life for light and progress. We take no chances, nor gamble with life, be kind and gracious, lords, be favourable to grant us growth and prosperity in food, energy, success and advancement.

Ashvins, protect and promote us, we pray, by days and by nights with steady and unobstructed progress, with wealth, grace and good fortune. And may Mitra and Varuna, the sun and shower, Aditi, mother nature, Sindhu, the sea and the rivers, Prithivi, mother earth and Dyau, the light of heaven and currents of spatial energies help, advance and bless this prayer and programme of ours.

Mandala 1/Sukta 113

Usha Devata, Angirasa Kutsa Rshi

इदम् श्रेष्ठम् ज्योतिषां ज्योतिराग्गचित्राः प्रकेतो अजनिष्टविभवा ।
यथा पर्सूता सवितु: सवायाः पुवा रात्रिपुस्त यानिधारकः ॥ १ ॥

1. Idaṁ śreṣṭhaṁ jyotiṣāṁ jyotirāgāccitraḥ praketo ajaniṣṭa vibhvā. Yathā prasūtā savitūḥ savāyaṁ Evā rātryuṣase yonimāraik.
Here comes this dawn, light of lights, supreme, wonderful, bright and enlightening, rising and expanding. Just as the night comes over for regeneration of the sun, so does it uncover the womb of darkness for the coming of dawn.

रुशद्वत्सा रुशति श्वेत्यागादारंकृष्णा सदनान्यस्या।
समानवन्धू अमृतं अनूचि द्रावा वर्ष चरत आमिनान।

The bright dawn comes shining with light, bearing the bright sun new born. The dark night leaves its regions open for the light. Both, like sisters of the same one brother, immortal, assume their own form of light, one bright, the other covered and both come in succession, each retiring and succeeding the other.

समाना अध्वा स्वस्वार्तंतरस्तम्यान्याय चरता दुव्वन्ये।

One and the same is the path of the two sisters, which is space, endless and infinite, existentially speaking, which they follow one after the other as ordained by the Divine. They neither overlap, nor encroach, nor clash, nor stand still for a moment. Fixed and firm, each on its own, and of harmonious nature are they, although the night and the dawn are of different forms which are apparently contradictory as light and darkness.
4. Bhāsvatī netrī sūṅtānāmaceti citrā vi duro na āvah. Prārpyā jagadvyu no rāyo akhyaduṣā ajīgarbhuvanāni viśvā.

Brilliant shines the dawn, leading inspiration and revelation of divinity for spirits of piety. Wonderful and splendid, it opens the doors of intelligence and consciousness. Taking the world over, it reveals the wealth of nature and envelops the worlds of existence in beauty and splendour.

5. Jihmaśye caritave maghonyābhogaya iṣṭaye rāya u tvam. Dabhrāṁ paśyadbhya urviyā vicakṣa uṣā ajīgarbhuvanāni viśvā.

O dawn, lady light of wealth and beauty, inspiring, vast and bright, for the lazy loon oversleeping or the squint eyed one, for moving around, for enjoyment of living, for the attainment of desire and yajna, for the achievement of wealth, for the weak-eyed one, and for the revelation of things on earth, you shine and wake up the worlds of existence into light, beauty and activity, revealing even the tiny things.
6. Kṣatrāyā tvam śravase tvam mahīyā iṣṭaye tvam artham iva tvamityai. Visadṛśā jīvitābhipra-cakṣa uṣā ajīgarbhuvaṇāni viśvā.

    O dawn, for governance and administration of the social order, for food, energy and national prestige, for honour and grandeur, for reaching the desired goal in life, and for the attainment of the various and versatile ways of life, you shine, wake up and envelop the worlds of existence in light and beauty.

7. Eṣā divo duhitā pratyadarśi vyucchanī yuvatiḥ sukraṣṭasāḥ. Viśvasyeśānā pārthivasya vasva uṣo adyeha subhage vyuccha.

    Dawn, this daughter of heavenly light, appears on the horizon, shining bright, a maiden clothed in light, over-whelming the entire beauty and wealth of the world. O dawn, lady of noble good fortune, come here for us and shine.

8. Parāyaīnāmanveti pātha āyaśināṁ prathamā śaśvatīnām. Vyucchantī jīvamudrayantyuṣā mṛṭaṁ kaṁ cana bodhayantī.

    The dawn follows the path of those that have gone before since eternity. It is the first pioneer of those that would follow for eternity. Shining bright, waking up, inspiring, exciting, even reviving life asleep as dead, it comes on and shines on.

\textit{Uṣo yadagnīṁ samidhe cakartha vi yadāvāścakṣasā sūryasya. Yanmānusān yakṣyamāṇāṁ aṅīgastad deveśu cakṛṣe bhadramapnāḥ.}

O dawn, what you do for lighting of the fire of yajna early morning, what you do to reveal the beauty of the world with the light of the sun, what you do to awake and inspire the devotees of yajna, all that you do is noble action for the divinities of nature and humanity among the divinities.

How long did the dawns last which came and shone earlier? How long would they shine and last which, lovely and brilliant as the earlier ones, remind us of the past ones and brighten up the present around? The dawn would last for ever thus in company with the preceding and the following.

The mortals who saw the bright and blazing dawn saw the light and passed away. By us too the lovely and shining dawn has been seen for the light. And those too who would see the light of life in the dawns that would follow, would go but with the light of life. (Life and light thus go together continuously in succession in the continuum that existence is.)

O Dawn, warding off the jealous, guardian of divine truth and yajna, born of divine truth and cosmic yajna, harbinger of peace and comfort, high-priestess of truth, inspiring and exciting, messenger of felicity, bearing joy and prosperity fit for divinity, arise and come, best and highest of lights, shine, inspire and bless us all with freshness.
gifts of generosity.

\[ \text{Vyañjibhrîdīv ātāsvadyaudapa kṛṣṇāṁ nirñijāṁ devyāvaḥ. Prabodhayantyaruṇe-bhiraśvairoṣā yāti suyujā ratthena.} \]

With her soothing celebrities, shining from heaven across the quarters of space, the bright dawn dispels the darkness of night and adorns and reveals the beauty of the world. Waking up the sleeping humanity she comes in the early morning by the celestial car of luxurious light drawn by the glorious sunbeams of fiery speed and splendour.

\[ \text{Āvahantī paśyā vāryāṇi citraṁ ketum kṛnte cekitānā. Īyuṣināmupamā śaśvatīnāṁ vibhātināṁ prathamoṣā vyaśvait.} \]

Bearing and bringing choice nourishments for body, mind and soul, waking those who sleep, lighting the dark, the dawn creates wonderful brilliance. Following upon the heels of the by-gones, first shining of the succeeding lights, measure of the eternal recurrent lights of the dawn, she goes on by her chariot of light drawn not by horses but by sunbeams.
16. Udīrdhvam jīvo asurna āgādapā prāgāt tama ā jyotireti. Āraik panthām yātave sūryāyāganma yatra pratiranta āyuḥ.

Awake ye all who sleep, arise ye all who wake, life has come, and the energy of life-prana flows for all. Darkness is gone. Light has come, having cleared the path for the sun to rise and move. Let us reach there, enjoy life and elevate life and ourselves.

The admirer, poet of fiery imagination, sings inspiring songs in praise of brilliant dawn. O Dawn, lady of light and harbinger of wealth, shine for the worshipper and give him the light. And give us the health and age blest with progeny.

Bright are the dawns, rich in sunbeams and wealth of cows, creators and inspirers of all the brave on earth. Generous are they for the man who gives and sacrifices, giver of horses fast as sunbeams. And when men of truth and law meditate on them, then, flying as the wind, they come and bless the man who performs the soma-yajna of creative joy for life.

Creative power of Divinity, image of Eternity, fire of the cosmic yajna of creation and evolution, shine brilliant over the vast spaces. Light adorable, shine and let us shine for the service of Divinity. Universal giver of bliss, elevate us to the heights where we belong.

Whatever creation and wonderful inspiration the dawns, lady lights of divinity, bear and bring for the zealous yajaka, may Mitra, universal friend of life, Varuna, lord of eternal peace and justice, Aditi, mother nature, the rivers and the sea, the earth, the sky and the light of heaven expand and elevate for humanity.
1. Imā rudrāya tavase kapardine kṣayadvīrāya pra bharāmahe matīḥ. Yathā śamasad dvipade catuṣpade viśvam puṣṭam grāme asminnana-turam.

We offer these songs of prayer and adoration to Rudra, omnipotent lord of mercy and justice, father and protector of the brave, for the sake of the brahmachari student of the Rudra order so that all may be peace and joy among the humans and animals and all life on earth and the environment be healthy and happy in this settlement, this world and the universe.

2. Mṛśā no rudrota no mayaskṛdhi kṣayadvīrāya namasā vidhema te. Yacchaṁ ca yośca manurāyeje pitā tadaśyāma tava rudra praṇītiṣu.

Rudra, be kind to us, be good and give us peace, comfort and good health. We do homage to you, leader and protector of the brave, with oblations and salutations. The peace and freedom which Manu, father guardian of humanity, procured and secured for us, may we, we pray, attain under your kind guidance and discipline.

Mandala 1/Sukta 114

Rudra Devata, Angirasa Kutsa Rshi
3. Aśyāma te sumatiṁ devayajyayā kṣayadvīrasya tava rudra mūḍhvaḥ. Sumnāyannid viśo asmākamā carārīstavīrā juhāvāma te haviḥ.

Rudra, good and generous, protector of the brave, may we attain the favour of your wisdom and advice by worship and homage to you. With our heroes of the nation unhurt and protected, we offer gifts of oblations and homage to you. Come, we pray, be kind and gracious to our people.

4. Tveṣaṁ vayaṁ rudraṁ yajñasādhamā vaṅkumā kavimavase ni hvayāmahe. Āre asmad daivyāṁ helo asyatu sumatimid vayamasyā vṛṣṭimāhe.

For our protection and guidance we invoke Rudra, blazing brilliant, destroyer of enemies, giver of success in the yajnic projects of life, lord of instant motion and action, and seer of universal vision. May He ward off all furies of nature from us. We choose and pray for His vision and wisdom for our conduct in life.
With offerings of food and salutations we invoke Rudra from the regions of light, generous as a cloud, brilliant, master controller of the gambler’s dice and blazing magnificent of form. May he come bearing in hand the choicest herbs for medicine and bless us with gifts of a peaceful happy home, protective armour, and preventive and deterrent arms and armaments.

This exhilarating song of homage, holiest of holies, is offered in honour of Rudra, father and protector of the Maruts, heroes of the nation. Lord of immortality, give us the best nourishing food for the mortals, sweetest of sweets, for our body, mind and soul, for our children and for our youth. Lord, be kind and gracious to bless us.

7. Mā no mahāntamuta mā no arbhakam mā na ukṣantamuta mā na ukṣitam. Mā no vadhiḥ pitaram mota mātaram mā naḥ priyāstanvo rudra rīriṣah.

Rudra, lord of mercy and justice, frustrate not our great men, saints and scholars, and our seniors. Strike not our children. Slay-not our youth. Kill not the fetus in the womb. Kill not our father, nor our mother. Hurt not our lovely bodies, nor hurt our beloved wives.

8. Mā nastoke tanaye mā na āyau mā no goṣu mā no āsveṣu rīriṣaḥ. Vīrān mā no rudra bhāmīto vadhīrHAVAVIṢMANTAH sadamī tvā havāmahe.

Rudra, lord eternal of mercy and justice, strike not our baby, nor our child. Snap not our life short. Kill not our cows, nor horses. If ever you feel angry for our trespasses, forgive, we pray, strike not our brave. With our hands raised in prayer with holy offerings, we always invoke you and pray for kindness and grace.

I bring these songs of praise in homage to you, father and protector of the brave Maruts, heroes of nature and humanity, just as a shepherd brings milk and curds to offer to his master. Lord, we pray, give us peace and joy. Blissful is the vision of Divinity, most beatific. Therefore we choose to pray for your protection and guidance, only that and none else’s.
10. Are te goghnamuta pūrusaghnāṁ kṣayadvīra sumnamasme te astu. Mrā ca no adhi ca brūhi devādhā ca naḥ śarma yaccha dvibarhāḥ.

Lord protector and shelter of the brave, let the butcher of cows and murderer of men be off by your protection and grace. May the peace and joy of your blessings be for us. Be kind and gracious to us. Speak to us in the heart from above. Lord of the world of here and after, give us peace and joy on earth, and the ultimate freedom after.

11. Avocāma namo asmā avasyavah śṛṇotu no havam rudro marutvān.Tanno mitro varuṇo māma-hantām aditiḥ sindhuḥ prthivī uta dyauḥ.

Seekers of protection and bliss, let us sing in praise of the Lord. May Rudra, omniscient lord omnipotent, listen to our call and prayer. And may Mitra, Varuna, Aditi, the sea and rivers, the earth and heaven raise and sublimate our word of salutation and prayer to the divine presence. (The word is Namaste.)

Mandala 1/Sukta 115
Surya Devata, Angirasa Kutsa Rshi

1. Citram devānāṁ udgād anīkaṁ caksurmitrasya varuṇasyāgneh. Āprā dyāvāpṛthivī antarikṣam sūrya ātmā jagatāstasthuṣaśca.

Lo! there rises the sun, wonderful image of Divinity, the very eye of Mitra, heaven, the soothing cool of Varuna, the waters, and the beauty of the moon. It pervades and fills the heaven and earth and the middle regions of the sky. It is indeed the very soul of the moving and the unmoving world.

2. Sūryo devimukṣasam rocamānāṁ maryo na yośāṁ abhyeti paścāt. Yatrā naro devayanto yugāni vitanvate prati bhadṛāya bhadram.

The sun follows the brilliant and beautiful dawn just like a youthful lover who pursues his beloved. And therein, with reference to that, the leading astronomers of the stars extend their noble vision for the calculation of ages for the good of humanity.

The blissful rays of the sun, reddish, various and wondrous, exhilarating, invigorating overspread the expanse of heaven and constantly go over the regions
1. Citra-devōnōm udgōd anōka-cakuruṁmitrasya varūṇasya-gne¬. Íprō dyōvōp:iθivō antarikšaÅ sūρyā ōtmō jagatastasthu¬ca. Lo! there rises the sun, wonderful image of Divinity, the very eye of Mitra, heaven, the soothing cool of Varuna, the waters, and the beauty of the moon. It pervades and fills the heaven and earth and the middle regions of the sky. It is indeed the very soul of the moving and the unmoving world.

4. Tat sūryasya devatvam tanmahitvam madhyā kartorvitatam saṁ jabhāra. Yadedayukta haritaḥ sadhasthādādātrī vāsastanute simasmai.

That Lord of the universe, Omnipotent Light of creation, is the Sun, Savita, who holds and sustains the light and grandeur of the sun pervading in the world of action. And it is He who withdraws and folds up the same divinity and grandeur of the sun. And when the Lord withdraws the light of the sun, then the Night of Pralaya absorbs everything of existence into her fold of darkness. (This is the story of the eternal round of evolution and involution of the universe.)

When the sun, in the daily round of day-light and darkness at night, collects the rays of light from down below then the night spreads her cover of darkness over all. (This is the story of the daily round of the day-night cycle.)

5. Tanmitrasya varuṇasyābhicakṣe sūryo rūpaṁ kṛṣṇute dyorupasthe. Anantamanyad ruṣadasya pājah kṛṣṇamanyaddharitaḥ saṁ bharanti.

The Eternal Lord, in order that Mitra and Varuna, day and night, be seen, creates light and shade and form. And so, the sun, which is light incarnate, in the close space of heaven, shows the forms of things. Endless, different and blazing is its power of one sort, while the shade of darkness is another, which the rays of the sun bear in the quarters of space.

O powers divine and vitalities of nature born of the rising sun, pure and immaculate, save us to-day from whatever is sinful and despicable. And may the day and night, the wide space, the rivers and the sea, the earth and the heavens of light, we pray, bless us to rise in our hopes and endeavours.

Mandala 1/Sukta 116

Ashvins Devata, Kakshivan Dairghatamasa Aushija Rshi

1. Nāsatyābhyāṃ barhiriva pra vrñje stomān iyarnyabhriyeva vātaḥ. Yāvarbhagāya vimadāya jāyāṃ senājuvā nyūhatū rathena.

Just as the priest selects and plucks sacred grass and spreads it over and around the vedi in celebration, and just as the winds move the vapour laden cloud across the sky, so do I select words of appreciation for the Ashvins, scientist and technologist, sincere and true, compose them into songs of praise and air them over the skies, for the Ashvins, who fly troops of the army by a carrier plane over the mountains like friends flying a damsel for the youthful sober lover.

2. Viḷupatmabhirāśuhemabhirvā devānāṁ vā jūti-bhiḥ śāsadānā. Tad rāsabho nāsatyā sahasramājā yamasya pradhane jīgāya.

Ashvins, ever sincere and true, flying by the wings of powerful birds, fast at the speed of clouds, by the tempests of wind and fire splitting the currents of winds, eminent scholars and aeronauts, the power applied, controlled and directed in your chariot would win victories in a thousand battles of wealth against the deadly enemy.

Ashvins, commanders forceful as wind and lightning, if a great ruler and governor launches a fighter and pioneer beneficiary of the nation on the bottomless sea but then abandons hope like a dying man giving up his wealth of a life-time, you rescue him by self-driven, waterproof, flying boats.

Ashvins, undeviating from truth and reality, you carry the ruler beneficiary across the unfathomable ocean and over the desert three-nights and three days non-stop by three flying chariots fitted with hundred wheels and six engines.

Ashvins, scholars dedicated to truth and humanity, in the ocean of space where there is no beginning and no end, where there is no foothold and nothing to hold with hand, you carry the man of earthly enjoyment riding the carrier-boat worked with a hundred propellers to his haven of rest where there is no want, no pain, nothing beyond desire. That is great, heroic!

Ashvins, experts of velocity and motion, the brilliant white solar car which you provide for the adventurous traveller is all-time auspicious. That gift of yours is great, admirable all over the earth. The super-fast car is of undiminishing value and adorable in the economic world of business and industry.

Ashvins, leading teacher and scholar of herbal science, you reward the faithful disciple of pious discipline ever ready in harness with exceptional knowledge and insight into the science and technology of restorative nectar by which you can fill a hundred jars of drink from one horse-hoof measure of virile essence distilled through the filter.

Ashvins, scholars of heat and energy, fight out fire and heat with ice and cool, and bear edible energy concentrate for us. Pull out the man fallen into the earth’s womb of fire and despondency and free him and his community from physical, mental and spiritual suffering for their common good.

Ashvins, high-priests of nature and truth, light up the waters from the bottom at the lowest level, raise it to a higher level by oblique channels, and let the streams flow for drink for a thousand people, and for the scholar and the administrator, to quench their thirst and for the production of wealth.

Ashvins, recuperative powers of nature, masters of medicine and psychiatrists, you free the ageing man from wrinkled skin, remove fear complex from the escapist running away from life, give a new lease of life to the depressed heading to suicide, and mature adolescent girls to grow and match with the right husband in marriage.

Ashvins, leading lights of humanity dedicated to truth and reality, the protective and promotive work you do is appreciable, adorable and blissfully desirable. Leaders of knowledge and secrets of nature, it is so far hidden from view like an underground treasure. Let it come forth so that all may see and admire and do you the honour you deserve.

12. Tad vāṁ narā sanaye daṁsa ugramāviśkṛṇomi tanyaturna vrṣtim. Dadhyaṁ ha yanmadhvā-tharvaṇo vā maśvasya śirṣā pra yadimuvāca.

Ashvins, leaders of men in knowledge and action, that marvellous work of yours in the interest of social good, I explain and proclaim in detail like thunder and lightning raining showers from the cloud, work and knowledge sweet as honey which the man of love and reverence, Dadhyang, child and disciple of the sober sage of non-violence, Atharvan, taught you from his mind inspired with wisdom and passion for superfast action in the form of a full treatise on the subject.

Ashvins, lovers of truth and reality, munificent powers of action and knowledge, liberal givers of joy and prosperity for all, let the woman of noble intelligence invite you for the sake of abundant peace and prosperity, listen to her invocation as a commandment of the world Ruler, and give the fortunate woman that superior knowledge which showers the joys of life with golden hands of generosity.

Ashvins, defenders of truth, light and justice, leaders of humanity and creators of peace and prosperity for all, in the human search for progress and enlightenment, you save the poor bird from the devourer’s mouth, and give the poet a compassionate heart for a comprehensive vision of life.

Ashvins, when the battle is raging for the defence and sustenance of the people but the issue is wavering in the night of uncertainty, you instantly take to the armour of steel for advance, strike and break down the enemy’s force as you cut off the wing of a bird.
If a person were to sacrifice a hundred generous and creative contenders, meshas, for the pleasure of a wolfish thief and his wife, even though such a person were otherwise very intelligent and dynamic, the fatherly ruler should throw him into the darkness of prison. And yet, O Ashvins, lovers of ultimate truth, dispellers of untruth and darkness, generous showers of bliss, bring the eyes for the waking blind so that he could see what is real and true and good and be released from the dungeon of ignorance. (It is better to make the blind see than keep them in the prison. It is better to redeem the criminal and the sinner than throw him in the prison.)

Ashvins, lovers and defenders of truth in the battle of life and health of the world, let the dawn, daughter of the sun, arise and ride your chariot drawn by horses of light and win the battle. Let all the divinities of the world heartily applaud the beauty and power, and may you shine with the beauty and glory of the rise and may you win the victory.

18. Yadayātāṁ divodāsāya vartir-bharadvājāyāṁśvinā hayantā. Revad-uvāha sacano ratho vāṁ vṛṣabhaśca śimśumāraśca yuktā.

Ashvins, generous givers and protectors, ever on the move, when you come to the house of Divodasa, the giver of light and knowledge, and to Bharadvaja, bearer and giver of food, energy and the fighting force, let the chariot that transports you be delightful, laden with wealth, powerfully equipped, victorious and killer of the enemy.

Ashvins, protectors of truth and leaders of equal and agreeable mind, come with food, energy and powerful forces, bearing wealth, good social order, noble progeny, good health and age, courage and valour, and free flowing streams of water for the people performing their daily duties full three times of the day.

Ashvins, defenders and saviours of truth and right, young and unaging, when the commander or a section of the army or the ruler is besieged on all sides, launch, and attack by an invincible killer chariot, rescue the besieged force by easy but misty paths and take over the caverns and mountains by night.

Ashvins, brilliant as sun and moon, forceful as lightning and thunder, generous as showers of rain, leaders of the land and commanders of the army, protect and promote the freedom of the land for a hundred gifts and acquisitions of peace and happiness. Protect and develop the army for battle for the sake of freedom and advancement. And in a single day rout the destructive force of the frustrative enemy even if it be of commanding fame in the world.

22. Śarasya cidārcatkasyāvatādā nīcāduccā cakra-thuḥ pātave vāḥ. Śayave cinnāsatyā śacībhir-jasuraye staryāṁ pipyathur-gām.

Ashvins, lovers and defenders of truth and the facts of life, with your noble actions of science and husbandry, you raise the water from the lowest level as that of a well or lake to the higher level for the drink of the violent as well as of the worshipper, and you develop the dry cow to fertility for the drooping, depressed and the exhausted humanity.

Ashvins, lovers of truth and humanity, with your noble words and acts of wisdom give that sagely vision and knowledge to the protective, worshipful, attractive, simple and sympathetic visionary with which the sages are blest in a state of samadhi communion with the divine. Give it like a lovely pet or a valuable treasure lost but then found and then restored to the master.

Ashvins, lovers and defenders of truth and right, just as a boat is tied and transfixed under water for ten nights and nine days by an envious person, or it is held up, or drifts over water, but then is upraised and brought on the track by a noble ferry man, so if an admirer of truth and right and devotee of divinity feels suppressed by adverse forces, feels depressed or distempered or drifts from the right track, then, O Ashvins, give him a hand and raise him like a soma libation raised in the ladle ready for offering into the fire of yajna.
Ashvins, noble divinities of truth and right action, generous givers of good health and purpose of life for a full age, I pray I may sing in praise of your great actions with gratitude and, blest with cows, noble speech and abundant land, in the company of brave children, seeing the world and the light of divinity, enjoying long and full age, and giving up this ageing body I should retire, set like the sun and go home.

Mandala 1/Sukta 117

Ashvins Devata, Kakshivan Dairghatamasa Aushija Rshi

Ashvins, lovers and defenders of truth, givers of health and joy, the veteran yajaka, high-priest of knowledge, invokes you for the honey sweets of soma’s joy for the health and ecstasy of living. Brilliant and blissful is your gift of peace and prosperity, celebrated is your voice and wisdom. Come with your gifts of food and energy and the vibrant ways of living and advancement at the fastest.

2. Yo vām-aśvinī manaso jāvīyān rathah svaśvo viśa ājigāti. Yena gacchathah sukṛto duroṇāṁ tena narā vartir-asmabhyāṁ yātam.

Ashvins, leaders of the people, faster than thought is your chariot which reaches the people with you. Wondrously made it is, drawn by horses fast as sun beams and lightning, by which you go home to the man of noble deeds. Riding that same chariot come home for us too (and bless us with light and speed).

Ashvins, leaders of humanity, generous and inspiring as ever before with universal knowledge and human values, destroyers of the envious demonics and their crooked powers, you save Atri, visionary scholar free from the three bonds of physical, mental and spiritual ailments, self-realised soul with mastery over all the five pranic energies and dedicated to all the five classes of universal humanity without discrimination, and you deliver him along with his band of teachers and scholars from the evil of prison in utter darkness, against the light of reason, knowledge and rectitude, into which, such men of light and freedom are thrown by the envious and wicked blood suckers of society.

Ashvins, leaders of the people, faster than thought is your chariot which reaches the people with you. Wondrously made it is, drawn by horses fast as sun beams and lightning, by which you go home to the man of noble deeds. Riding that same chariot come home for us too (and bless us with light and speed).

Rebha, eminent scholar of knowledge and wisdom, dynamic and productive proclaimer of the secrets of science, is obscured among the lesser stars and kept back, by manipulators of evil design, straying around lost like a horse in the jungle. Ashvins, brave and generous heroes and leaders of humanity and guides of knowledge, redeem that seer of light with your noble actions, he would otherwise be lost and gone. All your actions, old and ancient as well as new, never fade away nor die out.

Ashvins, heroic and generous powers of action, destroyers of want and suffering, like the soul’s awareness covered in deep sleep, like the dormant seed enfolded in the soil, like the sun resting as if in the night cover of darkness, like the lovely shining fold buried in the folds of the earth, the face of beauty and truth is hidden. Awaken the awareness of life divine, generate the life of the seed, let the sun arise, bring out the hidden gold of the earth, and sow the seeds of life, energy and light so that all may see, honour and admire the grandeur of existence.

Ashvins, dedicated to truth and nature, leaders of scientists and pharmacists, that work of yours is of universal value and worthy of praise by eminent scholars by which you manufacture a horse-hoof measure of herbal essence and from that prepare a hundred potfuls of honey sweet restorative tonics for the ailing people.

Ashvins, generous givers and leaders of men, for the man of truth true to his word, kind ruler, planning development of agriculture, dedicated to parental seniors, provide the expert of farming on the land, and for the herdswoman growing old provide a caretaker.

Ashvins, brave and generous harbingers of fulfilment for the lover of learning, give brilliance of knowledge for the learned teacher and his resident pupil, give great strength of will and purpose, and for the successor of the man presiding over people and pupils, give communicable knowledge, strength of action, right reputation and the will to listen above all.

Ashvins, harbingers of many things for good and comfortable life, assuming various forms of workers and designers, you give to the traveller and transporter the instant motive power such as electricity, fast, serving a thousand purposes, invisible, present in earth and consumable fuels, breaker of the cloud and capable of crossing the seas.
10. Etāni vāṁ śravasyā sudānū brahmāṅgūṣaṁ sadanāṁ rodasyoḥ. Yad vāṁ pajarāso aśvinā havante yātamiṣā ca viduṣe ca vājam.

Ashvins, generous divinities of nature and humanity, these are your reputable acts of charity. This is the song of praise for you. The infinite and omniscient lord, Brahma, is the home and sustenance of heaven and earth, whom you and your friends and admirers invoke and worship. Move on, powers of life and light divine, with your will and gifts of food for life and soul and with the vision divine for the man and seeker of knowledge.

11. Śūnornaṁenaśvinā grñānā vājam vipṛya bhu- raṇā radantā. Agastye brahmaṇā vāvṛdhānā sam viśpalāṁ nāsatyāriniṁ- tām॥ ११॥

Ashvins, lovers and defenders of truth and rectitude, generous harbingers of comfort, prosperity and happiness, sung and celebrated by the honour and reverence of the admirer and the lover of soma like a son, opening the channels of food, energy and knowledge for the pious and intelligent people, rising by the light of omniscience in knowledge and acts of charity in the service of Divinity, release the flow of vision, will and right policy for the advancement of humanity on the path of progress.

12. Kūhā yāntaḥ suṣṭutāt kāvyaśya dīvāṁ nāpata vṛṣṇaḥ śaṣṭrā। hirṛṇyāṃ vṛcchā nirāvatmāṃ puruṣābhāṇāṁ aśvināh॥ १२॥

Ashvins, children of light, generous and brave, guardians of sleeping humanity, moving on the paths of divinity, where do you find celebration in poetry and discover the golden vessel of spiritual treasure buried under the folds of earthly existence, on the tenth day of yajnic performance, and then sow the seeds of piety? (The answer is: among the lovers of knowledge, children of divinity).

Ashvins, lovers of truth and masters of the currents of natural energy, by your noble and creative acts you rejuvenate Chyavana, man of dynamic living and prayerful culture but ageing and declining in energy, and you return him to his youth again, and the Dawn, daughter of the sun chooses you and rides your chariot in your company in all her beauty and grandeur.

Ashvins, masters of the secrets of nature, youth and age, for the sake of vitality and energy and by the acts and achievements of the ancients, you grow young and come to know each other again, and you carry the man of joy and tonics of rejuvenation from and beyond the bottomless ocean of water and air by transports flying like birds straight and unobstructed.

Ashvins, generous and brave experts of energy, power and motion, let the powerful force assigned to the sea on the move call on you and you would transport it without trouble by the chariot meticulously driven at the speed of thought for the good of all.

Ashvins, heroes of tempestuous speed and movement, let the army, stuck up, besieged, and helpless as a poor bird, call upon you for help any time which you rescue from the wolfish mouth of the enemy. Mount up to the peak of the mountain by your victory chariot and destroy the advancing army of the enemy with your reinforcements.
17. Śatam meśān vrke māmahānam tamaḥ pranī-tamaśivena pitrā. Ākṣī ṛjrāśve aśvināvadhattaṁ vyotirandhāya cakrathurvicakṣe.

Ashvins, creators of light and givers of eyes, remove the social butcher who throws a hundred helpless persons like sheep to the she-wolf, correct the unkind father and the unreasonable judge who assigns the innocent youth to the dungeon, bring eyes for the injured of the swift army of horse, in short, create and bring light for the blind who may then see the light of truth.

18. Śunamandhāya bharamahvayat sā vrkīraśvinā vrṣanā nareti. Jāraḥ kaṇīna iva cakṣadāna ṛjrāsvaḥ satamekaṁ ca meśān.

Ashvins, generous harbingers of the showers of comfort and joy, leading lights of humanity, bring peace, comfort and ample light of the eye for the poor blind as if the she-wolf herself were to call up and save the hundred and one innocent sheep, or an old wise man of experience, or the youthful spirit of hope, or the very pupil of the eye, or the light-giver for the eye of the fast horse rider were to bring comfort, safety and light for the needy.

Ashvins, heroes wise and brave, great, soothing and inspiring is your presence and protection. Shatter the injustice, release the lame and the disabled to freedom. And then the very spirit of wisdom and the nation would call upon you: come like the breath of fresh air with favours and fulfilment and be here for life.

Ashvins, generous and brave fighters against suffering, destroyers of want and pain, nourish and revitalize the dry and barren cow, give nourishment to the weak and sleeping man, and, with your noble and generous actions, a wife for the happy and youthful man, the young and beautiful daughter of the friend of many.
Ashvins, brave heroes and destroyers of evil, want and suffering, sowing barley with the plough and uprooting the weeds, creating and drawing energy from nature and food, warding and blowing off the evil and wicked by warning and punishment all round, expanding and radiating the light of knowledge and justice for the good and progressive people, you build a grand social order of freedom and happiness.

For the child of the man of faith beyond doubt and question, for the admirer of men of knowledge and rectitude, you create the best and most dynamic brain and inspire him. Ashvins, generous and creative, the inspired man, in search of the honey sweets of life and nourishment, speaks of the science of yajna and of the science of anatomy and the structure of the forms of life, for you and all.

Ashvins, poetic visionaries of creation, high-priests of truth and reality, harbingers of cosmic intelligence and energy, I pray to you, always bless me with universal vision and understanding and protect it from doubt. Give us the wealth which is reputable and honourable, blest with family and children, and which is ever growing higher and higher.

24. Hiranyahastamaśvinā rārāṇa putram narā vadhrimatya adattam. Tridhā ha śyāvamaśvinā vikastamujjīvasa airayatam sudānū.

Ashvins, harbingers of life, leading lights of humanity, kind and compassionate, rejuvenate the wedded couple and bless the intelligent woman with a golden-handed son. Three ways broken is the man of knowledge, otherwise blooming and brilliant, bring him back to life and let him rise to full stature again to higher life.

Ashvins, brave and generous heroes of noble action, these are the great actions you have ever done and still do and which people celebrate in song. We pray that, blest with friends and brave children, singing songs of celebration for you, creating food and energy for life and living for yajna, we may live, and praise and propagate the yajnic way of creative life (as yours).

Ashvins, generous as rain showers of new life, brave destroyers of evil, with your noble thoughts, words and acts, raise the venerable from adversity, rescue the worshipful from falling to violence, help the brave warrior cross over the sea and redeem the passionate youth from decrepitude to regain his youth.

Ashvins, powers of intelligence and light of knowledge, loved and admired of all, bear and bring seasoned, protective and promotive energy and power of action to the man free from physical, mental and spiritual want for the removal of darkness and ignorance. Bring the vision and wisdom of the world with appreciation and exhortation for the veteran of wisdom for the collection and expansion of knowledge and enlightenment.

Ashvins, for the man of hereditary power and prosperity sleeping in ignorance and indifference, bring up the rousing call of divine speech. Rescue and save the poor, victimised people from sin and violence of injustice and give them a strong, protective and promotive social and political policy for development.

Ashvins, for the traveller you give a brilliant, electrically powered, cloud breaking, heavily reinforced, excellent, victorious, tempestuous, multipurpose, highly productive and firmly structured mode of transport.

10. Tā vāṁ narā svavase sujatā havāmahe aśvinā nādhamaṁ āḥ. Ā na upa vasumatā rathena giro juṣāṇā suvitāyā yātam.

Ashvins, powers of nature’s energy, leading lights of humanity, born of divinity and risen in blessed knowledge and noble actions, we invoke you, invite you and call upon you for our protection and advancement in the hour of need at the height of power and prosperity. Listen to our prayer, come riding your chariot of universal wealth and stand by us for our freedom and prosperity.

Mandala 1/Sukta 119

Asvins Devata, Kakshivan Dairghatamasa Aushija Rshi

आ वां रथं पुरुमायं मनोजुवमं जीराशं युजियं जीवसं हुव।
सहस्रकेतुं वानिं शतादचं श्रुण्यचानं वरिवाधामभिं

1. Ā vāṁ ratham purumāyam manojuvam jīrāśvam yajñiyam jīvase huve. Sahasraketun vaninām śatadvasuṁ śruṣṭivānaṁ varivodhāmabhī prayaḥ.

Ashvins, leading lights of nature and humanity, for the sake of a long life and full living and for the desired aim of life, I invoke you and admire your chariot wonderfully made, quick as mind, drawn by swift horses, a vehicle for yajnic action, distinguished by a thousand flags, beautiful and luxurious, giver of a hundred kinds of wealth, superfast and a very home and treasure of divine bliss. (I love it for a heavenly ride for this existential journey.)

2. Ārdhva dhītiḥ prayāmanyadhāyi šasmantsamayanta ā diśah. Svadāmi gharmaṁ prati yantyūtaya ā vāmūrjānī rathamāśvināruhat.

Ashvins, leading lights of humanity, generous and brave, when your chariot moves forward, our mind and thought rises in admiration. The quarters of space are made small and the noblest people come together. I taste the sweets and beauties of the warmth of yajnic life. Accordingly protections and paths of progress open and expand. May heavenly light, wisdom and energy ride your chariot and rise on earth.

3. Saṁ yanmithaḥ paspṛdhānāso agmata śubhe makhā amitā jāyavo rāne. Yuvoraha pravaṇe cekite ratho yadaśvinā vahathaḥ sūrimā varam.

Ashvins, brave and generous heroes of the chariot and tempestuous speed, when countless, great sacrificing, and victorious heroes excelling one another come together in the splendid battle for justice and progress, then surely your chariot in which you carry the noblest hero of valour and wisdom shines with distinction in its onward march.

4. Yuvaṁ bhujyum bhuramāṇam vibhirgatam svayuktibhirnivahantā pitṛbhyā ā. Yāsiṣṭam vartirvṛṣaṇā vijenyam divodāsāya mahi ceti vāmavaḥ.

Ashvins, brave and generous heroes, with your own powers and plans and with your chariots flying like birds, take a powerful force to the protector and defender of the nation gone to a state of isolation, rescue him and carry him home to the parental seniors and sustainers of the people. Your support and protection for the giver of light and knowledge, who is a servant of heaven, is great and well-known.

5. Yuvoraśvinā vapuśe yuvāyujam ratham vāṇī yematurasya śardhyam. Ā vāṁ patitvāṁ sakhyāya jagmuśī yoṣāvṛṇīta jenyā yuvāṁ patī.

Ashvins, brave, generous and friendly heroes, to raise your dignity and grandeur, your voice controls and directs your own chariot and its power and force. And as the bright and beaming maiden of the morning, the dawn, victorious over the dark, desirous of your friendship and protection, opts to join you on the chariot as her lords, so does the bright and beaming nation select you as guardians and defenders of the land.

6. Yuvaṁ rebham pariṣṭerurasyatho himena gharmaṁ paritaptamatraye. Yuvaṁ šayoravasam pipyathurgavi pra dirgheṇa vandanastār>yāyuṣā.

You rescue the man of faith and prayer from all round oppression and relieve the thrice free man from blazing heat with the cool of snow. For the man in sleep you provide rest and security on earth and you help the man worthy of reverence to live a long and full life.

7. Yuvaṁ vandanam nrṛtam jaranyayā ratham na dasrā karaṇā saminvathah. Kṣetradā vipram janatho vipanyayā pra vāmatra vidhate daṃsanā bhuvat.

Ashvins, heroes of noble action, destroyers of suffering, with knowledge and admiration you reinvigorate the noble reverend scholar stricken with age and adversity as you would repair and recondition a chariot with your knowledge and expertise. With appreciation and praise regenerate and elevate the veteran of knowledge from his place of birth. Let your marvellous power and action be dedicated to the lord of humanity.

8. Agacchataṁ kṛpamāṇaṁ parāvati pituḥ svasya tyajasā nibādhitam. Svarvaīrita ūīryuvoraha citrā abhīke abhavannabhiṣṭayaḥ.

You go far to the person afflicted by separation and alienation from his or her own parents and praying for succour. Surely blessed and brilliant are your protections, wonderful and cherished, and instant and close at hand.

उत्त स्या वां मध्रुममी रकारापमदु सारस्याभिषिङ्गा हुवन्यति । vivāsatho’thā śiraḥ prati vāmaśvyaṁ vadat.*

Ashvins, that bee, seeker of honey, in a mood of ecstasy, hums in praise of you her song of search and celebration. So does Aushija, child of light and grace, invoke and celebrate you in the ecstasy of soma. Come both, enlighten and inspire the mind of Dadhicha, the sagely seeker of knowledge and Dharma, and then, at the head of the seers he would proclaim the Word of cherished wisdom and enlightenment.
10. Yuvaṁ pedave puruvāramaśvinā śprdhāṁ śvetam tarutāram duvasyathāḥ. Śaryairabhī-dyum prta-nāsu duṣṭaram carkṛtyam-indramiva caraṣaṇīsaham.

Ashvins, masters of nature’s energy, develop and provide a brilliant mode of transport, communication and defence superfast as light, the choice of many, carrier of warriors across to victory, blazing with catalytic beams like arrows, invincible in wars, constantly active and unfailing as the thunderbolt of lightning, by which the people can challenge any enemy whatsoever anywhere.

Mandala 1/Sukta 120

Ashvins Devata, Kakshivan Dairghatamasa Aushija Rshi

1. Kā rādhaddhotrāśvinā vāṁ ko vāṁ joṣa ubhayoh. Kathā vidhātyapracetāḥ.

What call, Ashvins, leaders and commanders, would rouse you to action and victory? Who could, if he were ignorant and unintelligent, lead you to victory and win your pleasure, and how? (None of the ignorant and unintelligent.)
2. Vīdvāṁsāvid durāḥ pṛcchēdavidvānītthāparo acetāḥ. Nū cinnū marte akrau.

Let the ignorant man and the imperceptive unintelligent person ask the Ashvins, men of intelligence and wisdom, the way forward for progress. Similarly another, the intelligent and the learned person too in his own way should ask the way forward for further advancement. In any case, let them ask the way out and onward for the sake of the man who would otherwise stand still doing nothing, in the state of doubt and inaction.

3. Tāa vidvāṁsā havāmahe vāṁ tā no vidvāṁsā manma vocetamadya. Prārcad dayamāno yuvā-kuḥ.

The same, Ashvins, harbingers of light and knowledge, we invoke. Both, we pray, universal teachers and benefactors, reveal to us the knowledge wanted and loved at heart today here and now. Invoking, yearning to join you and the knowledge earnestly desired, praying for sympathy and grace, may this humanity look up to you for guidance on the way forward.

4. Vi pṛcchāmi pākyā na devān vaśatktasyād-bhutasya dasrā. Pātaṁ ca sahyaso yuvāṁ ca rabhyaso nah.

Ashvins, generous givers, and destroyers of want and ignorance, I ask you questions about the mysterious knowledge of analysis, integration and formulaic structure and formation of things in creation and science, brilliant veterans, dynamic and tolerant as well as enduring as you are, both scholars and teachers. May we offer you homage and reverence, and may you, we pray, guide and protect us.

Ashvins, harbingers of light and knowledge, that voice which rings like the resounding proclamation of the brilliant visionary, by which the scholar does homage and reverence to you, the same voice and word, we pray, may the teacher speak to us like a scholar in search of food, energy and light for all of us.

6. Śrūtaṁ gāyatram takavānasyāham ciddhi rirebhāśvinā vām. Ākṣi śubhaspatī dan.

Ashvins, eyes divine and harbingers of supernal bliss, I have heard your song of omniscience and redemption and, truly by your kindness and grace, I sing in ecstasy.
7. Yuvaṁ hyāstāṁ maho ran yuvaṁ vā yanniratatamisatam. Tā no vasū sugopā syātam pātam no vṛkādagāhayoḥ.

Ashvins, harbingers of wealth and universal shelter of all, you abide by us and bring the gift of abundance, and you bless with beauty and grace whosoever you choose. We pray, be our saviours and protectors, save us from the sinful hungry wolf.

8. Mā kasmai dhātamabhyamitriṇe no mākutrā no grīhebhyo dhenavo guh. Stanābhujo aśīsviḥ.

Ashvins, hold us in protection but not for the man who is friendless and nobody’s friend. Let our cows be fertile, rich in milk and blest with calves. Let them not go off from our homes anywhere, let them not be barren, never without calves.

Ashvins, let people dedicated to you take advantage of your generosity for the growth and prosperity of friends. Inspire us and let us grow to plenty of wealth with horses, speed and progress and have lot of food and energy with plenty of cows.

अशिविनारसां रथमनरवं वाजिनीवता: ।
तनाहं भूरि चाकन ॥ १० ॥
10. Aśvinorasanāṁ rathamanāśvam vājinīvatoḥ.
Tenāham bhūri cākana.

I pray: let me achieve and ride the horseless automotive chariot of the Ashvins, lords of knowledge, wealth and speed, so that I may advance and amply shine.

11. Ayaṁ samaha mā tanūhyāte janāṁ anu.
Somapeyanāṁ sukho rathāḥ.

Great and glorious is this chariot, comfortable and luxurious, by which the Ashvins, noble, generous and exceptional men of knowledge and power are transported to places of light and delight in the interest of the people. May this chariot help us too to rise in wealth and knowledge.

12. Adha svapnasya nirveḍbhuṇjataśca revataḥ.
Ubbhā tā basri naśyataḥ.

Let me get away from the dreaming slothful and the uncharitable rich because both of them soon come to their logical end (since they neglect the vibrancy and generosity of the Ashvins).
Mandala 1/Sukta 121

Vishvedeva and Indra Devata, Kakshivan Dairghatamasa Aushija Rshi

Kaditthā nṛṇāṁ pātraṁ devayatāṁ śravadh giro aṅgirasāṁ turaṇyan. Pra yadānādvīśa ā harm-yasyorū kramaṁ tāte adhvare yajatraḥ.

O man, when would you be like Indra, a protector, ruler, saviour and friend of the people? When, in order to help and protect the people, you would hear the voices of the lovers of light and knowledge who are keen to rise to divinity, when running to join the people you would reach their homes over the wide earth, and when you would raise your voice and inspire them in their yajnic task of love, cooperation and creation as the performer of yajna yourself.

2.
Stambhīddha dyāṁ sa dharaṇāṁ pruṣāyadr-
-bhurvājāya dravīṇāṁ naro goḥ. Anu svajāṁ mahiśaścakṣata vrāṁ menāmaśvasya pari mātaram goḥ.

Just as Indra, the sun, self-refulgent lord of light and sustainer of the earth, wields the heaven and showers the wealth and waters of life for the creation of food and energy, so should the ruler, luminant with the light of knowledge and justice and sustainer of the world system of the earth and environment, uphold Dharma, justice and rectitude and create the wealth and waters of stability and progress with nourishment and energy for the maintenance of the social order. And just as the mighty sun lights and watches its own creation, the dawn, beauteous glory of the solar system and nurse of mother earth, so should the ruler light up and watch the word of knowledge and the light of justice created by the social order itself which, in turn, would be the beauty of the system and sustenance of the order.

3. Nakṣaddhavamarūṇiḥ pūrvyāṁ rāṭ turo viśāṁaṅgirasāṁ-anu dyūn. Takṣad vajram niyutāṁ tastambhad dyāṁ catuspade naryāya dvipāde.

Like the sun illuminating the brilliant dawn every day, let the ruler follow, illuminate and extend the brilliant ethics and policies of eternal value and shine, inspiring the best and dearest people, day by day. Let him have the armaments deployed, serviced and sharpened and, as the sun holds the regions of heaven, let him maintain the light of justice for the quadrupeds, bipeds and humans and all that concerns the humans.

4. Asya made svaryāṁ dā ṛtāyāpīvṛtam-usriyāṇāmanīkam. Yaddha prasarge trikakum-nivarta-dapa druho mānuṣasya duro vah.

Just as the sun, in the excitement of the morning, releases the flood-light of its brilliant rays held up at night for the yajna fire of the day, and, pervading three quarters of space (leaving off the nether hemisphere of the earth), returns and stands firm in the battle of light, and breaks through the gates of the dark enemy forts, so should the ruler, for the joy and prosperity of the social order, release his resounding force of light and power held in reserve for the occasion to extend the yajna of justice and rectitude and, raising the resources of eloquent and brilliant teachers, preachers and scientists, should break down the strongholds of opposition in the battle for the development of cows for the white revolution.

5. Tubhyāṁ payo yat pitarāvanītāṁ rādhaḥ suretasṭuraṇe bhuranyūḥ. Śuci yat te rekṣa āyajanta sabardughāyāḥ paya usriyāyāḥ.

O man, when for your sake yajnic people offer oblations of pure milk and ghrta of the all-blessing cow as the wealth of their choice, then for you, O living and vibrant humanity, the brilliant heaven and earth, both generous givers of health and nourishment like mother and father, bring you showers of rain full of virility, fertility and all round success and fulfilment.

Let Indra, the noble soul, self-redeemer from suffering, arise, rejoice and shine like the rising sun close upon the heels of the dawn. Blest with grace like the beauty of the moon, sprinkling the vedi with ladlefuls of holy offerings and singing songs in praise of Divinity by which you attain to the city celestial, let the soul rise, rejoice and shine.

7. Svidhmā yaṁ vanadhitirapasyāṁ sūro adhvare pari rodhanā goṁ. Yaddha prabhāsi kṛtvān anu dyūnanarviśe paśviṣe turāya.

Noble soul, brave and shining, whatever famous you have done, whatever preservation of forests or cow protection you have achieved, you shine thereby. Now whatever further you wish to do for the sake of transport, animal husbandary or superfast travel try to do for the value of love, non-violence and yajna day in and day out.

Indra, O ruler, the rays of the sun pervading the great heaven, reaching here on earth, churn and absorb the delicious, vitalising fragrances of yajna, soma strengthened with cows milk and reinforced by the earth’s energy, and then, swelled up by the wind and fighting with the clouds rain down showers of wealth
Let Indra, the noble soul, self-redeemer from suffering, arise, rejoice and shine like the rising sun close upon the heels of the dawn. Blest with grace like the beauty of the moon, sprinkling the vedis with ladlefuls of holy offerings and singing songs in praise of Divinity by which you attain to the city celestial, let the soul rise, rejoice and shine.

(So does the yajnic ruler and the pious creative soul absorb the yajnic production of the earth and society and returns the same through hundred and thousandfold production and creation adding thereby to the wealth and beauty of life.)

Indra, lord of light, power and justice, you go round earth and heaven, wielding the thunderbolt made from steel and stone and tempered with heat and electricity procured and refined by Rbhu, master of metals, speed and range. Invoked and invited by all for the defence of the sagely man of wisdom, you go about with the fatal weapon striking countless blows upon the wicked and destructive demons. Lord of light and force, having used the weapon and achieved the aim, be gracious and call it back.

Pūra yat sūras-tamaso aprītasthāṁ raddhi parihitaṁ yadojaphaligaṁ hetimasya. śuṣṇasya cit parihiṣṭam yadojo divaspari sugrathitam tadādaḥ.

Indra, brilliant sun, brave ruler of the world, lord of mountains and the clouds, as earlier, before the elimination of darkness, you struck the thunderbolt and broke the cloud of darkness, so now strike the same thunderbolt, destroy the power and darkness of the demon that covers the world unto the borders of heaven, and restore the light that is blissful and enduring across the heavens and the farthest quarters of space.

Anu tvā mahī pāajasī acakre dyāvāksāmā mada-tām-indra karman. Tvaṁ vrītramāśayā-namī sirāsu maho vajreṇa siṣvapo varāhum.

Indra, may the great, protective and irresistible heaven and earth rejoice with your exploits. With your mighty thunderbolt of sun-rays you break the inert cloud of darkness in showers and make it flow in streams of water as it has been hoarding vapour and then flowing, earlier.

Tvamindra naryo yāṁ avo nīṁ tiṣṭhā vātasya suyugo vahiṣṭhān. Yāṁ te kāvyā uśanā mandi-namī dād vṛtrahaṇāṁ pāryāṁ tatakṣa vajram.

Indra, first of men, guide and leader of the social order, manage, protect and abide by those men who, like children of the wind, are cooperative carriers of the burdens of the state, and protect and abide by that impassioned lover of Dharma, son of the wise and poetic creator, who creates, sharpens and gives to you the thunderbolt, that invincible weapon of defence and law, which helps you destroy the enemies of light and leads you to the delight of victory.

   Indra, bright and brave like the lord of sunbeams, keep the creative yajnic people happy, wielding and moving the wheel of the nation like the moving chariot of the sun. And take the uncreative and non-yajnics, across the ninety navigable streams and engage them in labour jobs like digging of wells and canals.

   Indra, lord of light, justice and glory, wielder of the thunderbolt and mover of the chariot wheels of the nation, we pray to you, protect us from this difficult army of evil and this sin in our battle of life and, for the sake of will and resolution, food and energy, honour and reputation, truth and justice, bless us with dynamic experts of motive power and velocity across the earth and the quarters of space.
Lord of energy and glory, admired by leading men among the great, lord of wealth and life’s lustre, may this wisdom and understanding of ours, by divine grace, never wear away and fade out from us. May all people have the best choice of will, food and energy for life. Lord of noble humanity, bless us with advancement with wealth of cows, land and the Word of knowledge. Lord of grandeur, may we ever enjoy the ecstasy of your love.

Mandala 1/Sukta 122

Vishvedeva Devata, Kaksivan Dairghatamasā
Aushija Rshi

1. Pra vaḥ pāntaṁ rāghumanyavο’ndho yajñam rodāya mīlhuṣe bharadhvam. Dīvo aṣṭoṣya-rasya vīraiśuṣudhyeva maruto rodasyoh.

Let the dawn and dusk, light of day and peace of night, clothed in beauty of the sun, beatific with the rays of light, dressed like a lady of fulfilment in apparel of golden hue, bearing rich gifts of life and wealth, come in response to our invitation to yajna with a shower of light for our growth and enrichment.

3. Mamattu naḥ parijmā vasarhā mamattu vāto apāṁ vrṣaṇvān. Śiśītam-indrāparvatā yuvāṁ nastanno viśve varivasyantu devāḥ.

May the light of the sun and heat of fire, all radiating, all consuming and creating, give us joy. May the winds, harbingers of rain showers, give us joy. May Indra, cosmic energy, and the clouds, both, sharpen our intellect, and may He, the Lord Almighty, and all the generous divinities of nature and humanity bless us with the wealth and joy of life.

Note: The text provided is a natural reading in English of a Sanskrit text. The original Sanskrit script is not transcribed here, and the translation is provided for better understanding.
4. Uta tyā me yaśasā śvetanāyai vyantā pāntauśījo huvadhyai. Pra vo napātamapām kṛṇudhvaṁ pra mātarā rāspinasyāyoḥ.

For honour and glory with reputable action, I, child of noble ambition, invoke the two, fire and wind, one the product, the other, the giver of waters, both universal and protective as well as promotive of life and humanity. And I call upon you all: create and promote the child of waters, the fire energy, and the mother of waters, the winds.

5. Ā vo ruvaṇyumauśījo huvadhyai ghoseva śaṁ-samarjunasya namśe. Pra vaḥ pūṣne dāvana āṁ acchā voceya vasutātimagneh.

Listen ye all, scholars of science and technology, I, son and disciple of the man of knowledge and noble ambition, call upon you and, like a voice from above, proclaim the admirable word of the gifts of the heat and light of Agni in resounding tones: its form and structure, analysis and break up, its creative re-structure for life-support and the gifts for the protection and promotion of life.

6. Śrutaṁ me mitrāvarunā havemota śrutaṁ sadane viśvataḥ sīṁ. Śrotu naḥ śroturātīḥ suśrotuḥ sukṣetrā sindhuradbhiḥ.

Listen ye Mitra-Varuna, friends, and all men of the chosen few, listen well to this invocation and exhortation, listen ye members of the yajnic assembly all round to this gift of wealth and well-being in the words of one who himself listened well to the voice Divine, and listen like the river receiving the waters of rain from above for the onward gift of life and growth to the fields and the farmers and so on for us.

Mitra and Varuna, lord of light and lord of water, friends and chosen comrades, I worship you, I honour you, for the gifts of your power and generosity. The gifts of your benevolence and hundred voices of the Divine and a hundred cows of milky nourishment in the battles of speed and progress are showered on those who ride and advance in stout chariots of the Divine Word and chariots of love and beauty, always and instantly bearing gifts of nourishment and growth, ruling out all negativities and nonsense.
I honour and admire the wealth and generosity of this man of power and prosperity, and pray, we join the noble man in a spirit of friendship, blest as we are with noble and brave progeny and friends. I wish the heroic man of knowledge and the chariot, possessed of fast conveyances, power and speed, and horses and horse-power were to share the secret for me.

Mitra and Varuna, lords of friendship and liquid generosity, whoever hates you, whoever opposes you in crooked ways, whoever does not support you and life with nourishment and energy, such a man would himself wear the canker in his heart. But the man of truth and generosity supporting life all round with love, charity and sacrifice would be blest with peace and joy.

The man of love and generosity, the real man, inspired by the brave, of exceptional strength, of universal reputation among men of power and honour, giving in charity liberally, heroic in performance, always moves forward over the opponents fast in all the battles of life.

Adha gmantā nahuṣo havam sureḥ śrotā rājāno amṛtasya mandrāḥ. Nabhōjuvo yanniravasya rādhaḥ praśastaye mahinā rathavate.

O Divinities of nature, generous powers of humanity, brilliant and joyous, flying across the skies with your own power and grandeur, listen to the prayer and invitation of the charitable man, brave and immortal of fame and honour, leave the wealth of the uncharitable and unprotective unprotected and let it pass on to the man of love and charity for noble causes.

Etāṁ śardhaṁ dhāma yasya sūrerityavocan daśatayasya namśe. Dyumnāni yeśu vasutātī rāran viśve sanvantu prabhṛtheṣu vājam.

O Lord, let me attain to the house of the man of tenfold knowledge of the Veda, Vedangas and yajnic liberality of which the wise and pious may say: This is the great house of the brave and generous man of fame wherein may all the wealths of the world abound and in whose rich oblations may all the divinities of nature and humanity rejoice and partake of the fragrant nourishment.

We praise and celebrate the generous man of tenfold food and knowledge since people come and go receiving nourishment for body and mind from his house. And such a man blest with desired power and speed in life, well in control of his desired reins of power and prosperity, generous as the flood of the ocean, and such men as he, of power and discipline worthy of governance, bring the grace of culture and beauty to the people’s life.

May all the powers of nature and nobilities of humanity bless the man of oceanic generosity wearing gold and diamond in the neck and ear, and may they wide open the paths of progress for him and for us. And may the generous producer of wealth always try to create the knowledge of living languages of communication and the wealth of cows for himself and for us all.
15. Catvāro mā maśarśārasya śīśvastrayo rājña āyavasasya jiṣṇoh. Ratho vāṁ mitrāvaruṇā dirghāpsāḥ syūmagabhastih sūro nādyaut.

The four classes and the four orders of society and the three councils of the ruling order, destroyer of evil, prosperous and victorious may, I pray, protect and advance me. Mitra and Varuna, friendly ruling powers of our highest choice, may your chariot, far-reaching, bright and beaming like the rising sun, shine on and brighten us up in life.

Mandala 1/Sukta 123

Usha Devata, Kakshivan Dairghatamasa Aushija Rshi

The great and wide chariot of the glorious dawn is ready, which the divine immortal powers of nature would ride. The great noble maiden is arisen from the dark, radiating health and freedom from disease for human settlements.

Mandala 1/Sukta 123

Usha Devata, Kakshivan Dairghatamasa Aushija Rshi

The great and wide chariot of the glorious dawn is ready, which the divine immortal powers of nature would ride. The great noble maiden is arisen from the dark, radiating health and freedom from disease for human settlements.

The great and generous dawn wakes up before the world, winning, collecting, and carrying health, wealth and beauty. Ever young, rising again and again, watching us from far and above, she arrives in response to our earliest invocation.

3. Yadadya bhāgam vibhajāsi nṛbhya uṣo devi martyatrā sujāte. Devo no atra savitā damūnā anāgaso vocati sūryāya.

O Dawn, high-born of heaven, inspirer of humanity, whatever share of your generous gifts you bring here to-day for men, let the divine Savita, best of men among friends, brilliant giver of life, say of us to the sun: These are sinless people.

(Swami Dayanand gives an applied interpretation of this mantra: Usha is the bride beautiful as the dawn, Savita is the groom, Surya is God, and the ‘sinless’ are members of the family. This interpretation prevails through the whole Sukta.)

The light of the dawn radiates from home to home gracefully day by day clothed in the beauty and glory of her own name, inspiring and beatifying, shining bright, new as ever every day. She goes on and on from place to place, sharing the joy of life.

Sister of glory, daughter of the highest light, O Dawn, lady of truth, first shine and brighten and be praised, and then hold him who is the supporter of sin and then we shall catch him with the gift of your light and win by the chariot.

Let the ladies of high truth and generous munificence sing songs of Divinity. Let the fires of yajna shining and blazing stay and go on burning. The brilliant dawnss light up and reveal the cherished wealths of life hidden in the dark.

One goes away at dusk, the other comes over in the morning, thus the lights of the day-night cycle both different of form move together and coexist. Of these two cyclic coexistents of the world, the dark covers and hides things in the cave, the other, the dawn of light, reveals them in their true form with the beauty of its chariot.

They are the same today as they will be tomorrow, and in the same manner together, both brave and beautiful, they go round in the region of the sun, each traversing thirty stages of its travel time ever and on in the yajnic cycle of their circulation. (Each stage of time is of twenty-four minutes.)

She knows and reveals the first, morning, part of the day and its holiness. Pure and brilliant is she, risen from the darkness of night. Young and maidenly, following her daily chores fixed by nature day by day and hour by hour, she never relents in her observance of the Law of the Divine.

Sweet and soothing Beauteous, unique in form and figure of body as a virgin, O brilliant Dawn, you rise to meet the effulgent lord you love and desire, and then, charming bright in the splendour of youth, O maiden, smiling amorous, you stand before him and bare your bosom for love and adoration.

Glorious and comely in appearance, a bride as if anointed by the Mother, O youthful Dawn, you reveal the light of your beauty and majesty for the world’s love and adoration. Shine and radiate, O maiden, in all your glory, and may the sublimity of this glory never fade but ever abide as now in future manifestations also.
12. \( \text{Asvāvatārgomaīrviśvavārā yatamānā raśma-bhiḥ sūryasya. Parā ca yanti punarā ca yanti bhadrā nāma vahamānā uṣāsah.} \)

Riding the rays of the sun, commanding the beauties of the earth, inspiring the chants of the holy Word, dispelling the darkness without and within by the vision of sunlight, arousing universal love and adoration, bearing the name and spirit of Divinity, the blissful lights of the Dawn go round, ascending far above, descending again for the world, and in the end transcending the world of existence to nameless Eternity.

13. \( \text{Ṛtasya raśmimanuyacchamānā bhadrāmbhadrā kraṭumāsāsu dhehi. Uṣo no adya suhavā vyucchāsmāsu rāyo maghavatsu ca syuh.} \)

O Dawn, going round by the light of Eternity in pursuit of the Law Divine, bring us the bliss of goodness, give us the vision of truth and beauty and the will to yajnic action. Listen to our invocation and prayer, shine and bring us the light. May the wealths of the world abide in us. May the wealths of existence abound in those who adore the wealth of Eternity.

Mandala 1/Sukta 124

Usha Devata, Kakshivan Dairghatamasa Aushija Rshi
1. Uṣā ucchantī samidhāne agnā udyantsūrya urviyā jyotirāśret. Devo no atra savitā nvartham prāsāvid dvipat pra catuspadityai.

The dawn is breaking, the fire is burning, the sun is rising, and light is radiating over heaven and earth. May Savita, lord giver of light and life, inspire the humans and animals to move to activity and create new wealth and new meaning and purpose in life.

2. Aminatī daivyāni vratāni praminatī manusyā yugāni. Íyuṣināmupamā śaśvatīnāmāyatīnām prathamōsā vyadyaut.

Not violating the laws of Divinity, counting out the ages of humanity, shines the dawn, last picture of the dawns gone by, first of the dawns coming, an instance of the original and eternal Dawn recurring every morning.

Yonder shines this daughter of heaven clothed in light, rejoicing at heart, following the path of nature’s law well like a lady of omniscience measuring as if but not overstepping the bounds of space.
4. Upo adarśi śundhyuvo na vakṣo nodhā ivāvira-kṛta priyāṇi. Admasanna sasato bodhayantī śaśvattamāgāt punareyuśīṇām.

The Dawn, she appears to stand so close like the treasure chest of purest sunbeams, open, radiating and revealing the dearest things like the latest versatile scholar, giving the wake-up call to the sleeping partners living and eating together. It appears as if, of all the dawns coming and rising, she is the most real and original of the Eternal that has come this morning.

5. Pūrve ardhe rajaso aptyasya gavām janitryakṛta pra ketum. Vyu prathe vitaram varīya obhā pṛ-ṇantī pitrorupasthā.

Radiating the rays of light in the eastern half of the sky, the dawn has unfurled her banner of morning glory. And sitting as if in the lap of her parents, the heaven and the earth, she expands the noblest light of bliss showering on both.

6. Evedeśā purutamā dṛṣe kam nājāmim na pari vrṇakti jāmim. Arepasā tanvā śāsadānā nārbhā-diṣate na maho vibhāṭī.
And this dawn most comely to the sight and blissful to the heart, neither precludes her own nor excludes the aliens. Similarly, shining unique and exceptional by her immaculate body of light, she neither ignores the small nor neglects the great, but shines bright and smiles equally on all, giving them the feel of bliss.

Just as a brotherless woman returns to her man, just as a man reduced to aversity goes to the court to rejoin his money, just as a wife in all her finery, loving and passionate, opens her secret charms to her husband, so does the dawn in all her splendour reveal her beauty and majesty to the world everywhere.

Just as a sister surrenders her place for her elder sister and having seen her vacates it for her and goes away, so does the dawn, with the rays of the sun, move her soothing brilliance from one place to another, of her own choice.

Of all these sister dawns of the past age, the latter, the elder, follows after the former, the younger, in cyclic succession day after day. May all these dawns, each new one like the former, bring us happy days bearing the wealth of the world and illuminate our days with the light of the world.

O Dawn, abundant in light and wealth, wake up the generous and giving. The miserly and the ignorant lost in daily chores would sleep, wake up these too. Lady of light and wealth, let the wealth of the generous shine in charity. Mistress of Truth and Law, rousing and praising the singer of songs divinely blest with wealth, enlighten him, bless him.

This Dawn, young maiden, rises yonder in front from the east, yokes her team of crimson sun-rays and, fully self-assured, emerges, her banner blazing in the dark. And as she rises, yajna fire kindles in every home, giving the heat and light of life all round.

O Dawn, as you rise and shine, birds fly up from their nests and men move out in pursuit of food and sustenance for life. Brilliant lady of piety and sanctity, for the man of generosity and for the inmate of the home you strive to bear the holiest labours of love and joy.

13. Astoḍhvaṁ stomyā brahmaṇā me’vīvṛdhadhvamūśatīruṇāśaḥ. Yuṣmākaṁ devīravasā sanema sahasriṇaṁ ca śatinaṁ ca vājam.

O Dawns, loving and inspiring, adorable lights of Divinity, with the holy voice of Vedic adoration, pray for me and help me grow in life and piety, and you grow too in brilliance and sanctity. May we all by your favour, prayer and grace achieve food for life, energy, progress and prosperity a hundredfold, thousandfold and more.
Mandala 1/Sukta 125

Dampati Devata, Kakshivan Dairghatamasā Aushija Rshi

1. Prātā ratnāṁ prātaritvā dadhāti tam cikitvān pratigrhyā ni dhatte. Tena prajāṁ vardhayaṁ maṁ āyū rayaspoṣeṇa sacate suvīraḥ.

The morning bears and brings the jewels of wealth for us. That wealth, the man of knowledge and wisdom, rising early, receives, and having received keeps safe. And by that, this brave man, growing and advancing in health and age and progeny, lives well with wealth, nourishment and comfort.

He is blest with good cows, good gold and good horses, and Indra, lord of life and power, brings him liberal gifts of food and energy for body, mind and soul for a long life time, who, rising early, binds you, the needy and deserving man, in a bond of thanks with a gift of ample means and money, like a calf bound with a rope to the post, while you come to him for help and assistance.

Generous Indra, lord giver of every gift of life, nourishment, training and honour, by the most precious chariot I have come today early morning for the reason of an honest desire, wishing to have a son growing to be capable of noble yajnic deeds. I pray, nourish and promote the son born of the most delightful essence of my life, and with holy words of truth, wisdom and Law develop the young man to be a centre and shelter of the brave.

4. Upa kṣaranti sindhavo mayobhuva ījānam ca yaksyamānaṁ ca dhenavaḥ. Pṛṇantāṁ ca papurim ca śravasyavo ghṛtasya dhāraṁ upa yanti viśvataḥ.

Streams of joy, peace and prosperity flow from all round to the man performing the yajna of social charity and divine dedication now and in the future. Cows for love of food and care stand round the man feeding and satisfying the needy. And streams of water, milk and ghrta flow to the charitable man incessantly from all round.
5. Nākasya prṣṭhe adhi tiṣṭhati śrito yaḥ prṇāti sa ha devesu gacchati. Tasmā āpo ghṛtamaraṣṭanti sindhavastasmā iyaṁ dakṣinā pinvate sadā.

The man dedicated to knowledge abides in inviolable peace and joy. The man who feeds and maintains children and scholars moves with the noblest men of knowledge and divinity. For him the waters, rivers and the seas create showers of ghrta, and this earth with her generosity always creates the joy of fulfilment.

For the men of charity and yajna are these wonders of the world. For the men of honour, service and sacrifice shine the stars in heaven and abide. The men of knowledge, education and charity enjoy immortality beyond death, in life and after. And the men of courage, protection, fearlessness and charity cross the seas of suffering and slavery in their life of full age.

May the generous never come to sin and suffering. May the brilliant people of holy vows never suffer the disabilities of old age. May the orbit of their Karma be something different from evil and pain, since sorrow and suffering is the lot of the ungenerous and selfish.

Mandala 1/Sukta 126

Vidvan Devata, Kakshivan Dairghatamas Aushija (1-5), Svanaya Bhavayavya (6), and Romasha Brahma-vadini (7), Rshis

1. Amandāntstomān pra bhare manīṣā sindhā-vadhi kṣiyato bhāvyasya. Yo me sahasramami-mīta savānatūrto rājā śrava icchamānāḥ.

With honest mind and a clear conscience, I offer enthusiastic tributes of praise and approbation for the deserving ruler who, dedicated to honour and fame, has performed a thousand yajnic acts of generosity for me and the people on the river side without violence and opposition.
2. Šatam rājño nādhamānasya niśkāṁ chatama-śvān prayatāntsadya ādam. Šatam kakṣīvān asurasya gonāṁ divi śravo’jaramā tatāna.

I always accept and approve of the ruler’s ways of charity, a man glorious, generous as the cloud and a protector of the pranic energies of life, and I admire his gifts of a hundred golds, hundred horses fast and well-trained, and a hundred cows and pieces of land. Rightly the man who knows the various ways of knowledge and charity extends his immortal fame to the heights of heaven.

Let there be around me ten chariots bright as sunbeams drawn by bright mares, assigned by the commander. And may the man of knowledge be blest with the wealth of sixty thousand cows and receive welcome and hospitality for days and nights on his social rounds.

Forty fiery horses of the commander of ten chariots march in formation in advance of a thousand. Golden decorated are they, camouflaged, a pioneer force, they challenge and break through the defences, clear the routes for the advance, and the forces move forward in multiformation.

Pūrvāmanu prayatimā dade vastrīn yuktān aṣṭāvaridhāyaso gāh. Subandhavo ye viśyā iva vrā anasvantah śrava aি�anta parjrāh.

Noble brethren, I accept and promote the tradition laid down earlier, and I accept and apply the three tier system of education, defence and economic organisation and the eightfold policy of defence, justice and administration, development, production and distribution, health and nourishment symbolized by the generous and fertile cows. I exhort you all who, strong and bold, united together like the inmates of a home, as one body, equipped with chariots, march forward for the sake of honour and glory.

The most valuable policy of the state worthy of acceptance which is approved and followed and which is an inspirer of the people of action and advancement in important matters of the nation, like a goad, spurs me on to action and helps me get the sweetest delicacies of life, hundreds of them.

7. Upopa me parā mṛśa mā me dabhrāṇi manyathāḥ. Sarvāhamasmi romāṣā gandhāriniṇāmivāvikā.

Come close and closer to me and consult with me. Do not think that the little nameless things I say, advise and do are insignificant. One of the vigilant guards among the protective supporters of the nation, I am all over warm and protective like a golden fleece in winter cold.

Mandala 1/Sukta 127

Agni Devata, Paruchhepa Daivodasi Rshi

अग्नि हातारं मन्य दास्वन्तं वसुं सूनुं सहसा जातव्रदसं विपं न जातव्रदसम। य ऊध्यया स्वध्वरा दुवा दुवाच्या कृपा।
गृहख्य विभाषितमनु वेष शाचिन्याच्युष्टनस्य सुपिष्ट: ॥ १ ॥

I worship, serve and meditate on Agni, lord of light and knowledge, spirit of life and heat and inspiration of noble action, yajaka, generous giver, treasure of wealth and universal shelter, inspirer and creator of courage and courageous action like the sun, omniscient lord of all that is born in existence, master of knowledge as the supreme scholar of the Veda, organisers of yajna with love and non-violence with divine knowledge and awareness, refulgent with heavenly light and power, loving and consuming with flames of fire and light the blaze of the purest and most powerful ghrta offered into the fire of yajna, physical, mental and spiritual all.’

Agni, lord most worshipful, we the performers of this yajnic assembly, with all our heart and mind, together with all the saints and scholars with their earnest desire, invoke and invite you, wisest and senior-most of the scholar visionaries of Divinity, pure and immaculate, brilliant as the sun with your reach into the light of heaven, high-priest of humanity, lord of light knowledge, generous as rain showers, whom all these people accept, respect and approach with their desire and prayer for protection and self-fulfilment.

स हि पुरुष चिदार्जसा चितुरक्ष्य्वता दीयाद्या भवति दुह्नूरः

परशु दुह्नूरः । वीलु चिद्यस्य समृद्धायूहर्नवेद सत्त्वरम ।

निष्प्रह्माणा यमत्न नायत धन्वासहा नायति ॥ ३ ॥
3. Sa hi purū citodajasā virukmatā didyāno bhavati druhataraḥ paraśurna druhataraḥ. Viḷu cid yasya samṛtau śruvad vaneva yat sthiram. Niṣṣahamāṇo yamate nāyate dhanvāsahā nāyate.

He surely rises to shine very brilliantly with his own splendid valour and honour who, like the axe which cuts down the trees, mows down the enemies, in whose presence even the strong and firm like the dense forest burst asunder into pieces, and who, commanding brave warriors, dominates and directs the enemies and, like a mighty wielder of the bow and arrow, never wavers but advances in battle against the enemy forces.

4. Dṛḥḥā cidasmā anu duryathā vide tejiṣṭhābhira-raṇibhir-dāṣṭyavase’gnaye dāṣṭyavase. Pra yah purūṇi gāhate takṣad vaneva śociṣā. Sthirā cidannā ni riṇātyojasā ni sthirāṇi cidojasā.

Just as the strong man of prosperity and spirit of service offers homage to the man of knowledge and wisdom, so does he offer oblations in yajna to Agni for the sake of protection and advancement. And Agni too, arising from the fiery potential of arani wood, gives protection and advancement to the yajaka. Just as fire overtakes many thick forests and reduces them to ash with its flames, so does the commanding yajaka reduce even strong enemies to naught, and just as the light of the sun ripens the grain with its energy, so does the yajaka ripen and strengthen the prosperity of the earth.

Let us meditate on and do homage to that assiduous and uncompromising Agni, leading light of the world, in all directions, who shines brighter and stronger at night than in the day and, holding holy offerings in hand, let us honour and worship him. Just as a father provides a strong and happy home for the child so do the unaging leading lights of yajna and humanity bring us solace and protection with the gracious judgement of the dedicated and the undedicated. And thus, let us too, unageing and bright like the fire, live long and happy.

That Agni, daring and roaring as the wind, is admirably fearsome in raging battles, as he is worthy of honour and homage in yajnas in lands fertile as well as deserts and among families blest with lovely children.
He receives offerings with love, readily consumes and uses the same for creative purposes. Indeed he is the triumphal banner of yajnas, most worthy of honour and worship. And of course all the people, joyous and emanating joy all round, follow in his footsteps, follow him on the path shown by him for the pursuit of goodness, beauty and joy of life.

7. *Dvitā yadiṁ kīstāso abhidyavo namasyanta upavocanta bhṛgavo mathnanto dāśā bhṛga-vah.
Agniṁśe vasūnāṁ sūciryō dharmiṅresām. Priyāṁ apidhiṁrvaniśīṣṭā medhira ā vaniśiṣṭa medhirah.*

When the Bhrgus, dedicated seekers and worshippers, generous members of the community, brilliant scholars, faithfully take on Agni for study and meditation, two ways in theory and practice, vision and pursuit, speak of it in detail analysing and realising it, then Agni, pure and immaculate power, wise and intelligent, that rules the wealth of the world and is the very foundation of these, blesses the darling dedicated servants with beauty, wealth and success.
That Agni, daring and roaring as the wind, is admirably fearsome in raging battles, as he is worthy of honour and homage in yajnas in lands fertile as well as deserts and among families blest with lovely children. He receives offerings with love, readily consumes and uses the same for creative purposes. Indeed he is the triumphal banner of yajnas, most worthy of honour and worship. And of course all the people, joyous and emanating joy all round, follow in his footsteps, follow him on the path shown by him for the pursuit of goodness, beauty and joy of life.

We invoke, invite and do homage to you, Agni, lord protector of all the people of the world, for the light of life. We invoke and do homage to the lord protector of the home and family equally for all the people, for the joy of family life. We do homage to the lord of the voice of omniscience for the joy of knowledge. We do homage to the lord as the guest of honour and fire of yajna for all the people, in whose presence, as in the presence of the father, all these seekers of freedom and immortality hope for the food of life, and in whose honour they offer food and oblations to the brilliant and generous divinities of nature and humanity.
Agni, lord of light, knowledge and power, by courage most courageous of the brave and victorious, you rise most brilliant and fiery for the advancement of the noblest powers of nature and humanity, just as wealth is most effective for the service of the divines. Most brilliant is your light of joy, most abundant in the service of yajna. Lord of light immortal, servants of yajna most obedient and willing, serve you just as they would serve the Immortal Lord of life.

May your song of praise in honour of Agni, victorious by virtue of great valour, light of the morning such as the dawn, be as it should be for the lord giver of life’s wealth. Just so it is that the yajnic faithful offers oblations to the eternal teacher of revelation anywhere in all lands, and how an admirer ever offers praise to the eminent among scholars, or an aged yajaka offers to the senior physician.

O Lord, Agni, watching, guiding and guarding us at the closest, with all the brilliant powers of nature and humanity, bear and bring us, most kindly and graciously, great, valuable and lasting wealths of the world. Mightiest Lord, make us great for the experience and enjoyment of this earth. Lord of wealth, power and grandeur, bring us, admirers and worshippers, great valour and honour, and as a fierce disciplinarian churn us to the essence of magnanimity and majesty of life that existence is in reality.

Mandala 1/Sukta 128
Agni Devata, Paruchhepa Daivodasi Rshi

life and noble ambition. Agreeable and complaisant with the world, he loves to be friends with all as wealth is friendly with the man who loves and cares to value it. Inspiring the dauntless yajamana, soaked in knowledge and surrounded by the learned, he sits on the vedi of yajna in the world of action and abides in the knowledge and vision of Divinity.

That Agni, divine treasure of the wealth of life and giver of success in yajnic endeavours, we, bearing holy offerings in divine service, kindle and fan to light and blaze, and serve along the path of Truth and natural Law with offers of food and reverence. And that lord of light and energy never tires of this divine grace, never fades out of this divine light and splendour, since this divine blaze and splendour, the wind and solar energy carries for humanity from a far distance, from the farthest imaginable distance.

Agni, lord of light, constantly goes by his path, pervading all that is in the world, celebrated in the voices of the divines, life of life, generous shower of vitality, roaring, wielding life and still roaring. The lord of brilliance, breaking and building in waves of energy, watching and illuminating the worlds with a hundred lights, holding, wielding and supporting the homes of life in the clouds, over the peaks, in the farthest regions of space on top, he goes on and on in the orbit along the circumference.

That Agni, lord of light, knowledge and fire, first agent of cosmic yajna, foremost and leader, inspires and lights the yajna, fragrant acts of creative love and non-violence, advances yajna by yajnic acts, issues forth like penetrative intelligence by the waves of yajnic energy and inspires all things in existence, and from the vedi arises with the glory, light of libations like a guest of honour at its own will, carrier, catalyser, penetrative, intelligent, illuminative for all.

Katuṣ fastvā tathāṃ sthāṇaḥ pūjyaḥ chagrabhavan mṛtuṃ n bhūjyāhitam n bhūjyaḥ. Sa hiṣṣya dānuṣṭhitam vṛṣṇāṃ cha mukṣmanoḥ. Sa nāstāram atūnirdeśitam: śāṃsvitaśādēśitam: ॥ ५ ॥

When a person joins the blazing flames and forces of this Agni with his gift of oblations and energy by the yajna of creative and defensive action, as you would enhance the energy of a vigorous man with refreshments or you augment the force of the winds, then Agni receives the gift and, with his force and power, blesses the givers, and he warns us of the crooked ways of the world, protects us against scandals of the envious, saves us from evil and redeems us from sin and fall off from Divinity.

6. Viśvo vihāyā aratirvasurdadhe haste daksiṇe taraṇirna śrīśrathacchhravasyayā na śiśrathat. Viśvasmā idiṣudhyate devatrā havyamohiše. Viśvasmā it sukrte vāramṝṇvatyagnirdvārā vyṛṇvati.

Agni, universal lord of wealth, honour and grandeur, like a saviour and redeemer, holds the wealth of the world in his right hand for the man of endeavour for his honour and fame, and the gift never slackens, yes, it never slackens. Lord of brilliance and generosity, you bear and bring all the sacrificial riches for the man of martial action and prayer. For the man of yajnic action, you give all the choice gifts of the world, give them through open doors.

That Agni, in the saving paths of human life, is most blissful, giver of fulfilment, and in yajnas he is like a victorious ruler and guardian of the people, yes, dear in yajnic projects and a saviour and protector of the world. He creates for humanity the materials for yajnic consumption and brings us the holiest words and actions of bliss. He guards us against the violence of nature and saves us from the ravages of misfortune.

The devas, creative men of brilliance inspired with generosity, who search for light, knowledge and wealth of the world for the sake of power, protection and advancement, worship Agni, lord of light and omnipotent. They honour and admire Agni, leading scholar of light and energy. They study, raise and develop fire and energy, brilliant source of light and power, productive source of wealth, inspirer of intelligence to create wealth, dearest friend and generous power, energiser, arouser and mover of mind and soul, and generous giver of comfort, joy and bliss. They worship, honour and develop Agni, creator, harbinger and giver of holy materials for wealth, yes, they do worship, honour and raise Agni, lord, scholar and power, which is life of the world, omniscient and omnipresent with every atom of the world, great unifier and integrator, creative power of cosmic yajna at every stage, poetic creator of beauty, a source of delight and happiness. That power of truth, beauty and joy, the seekers of light, wealth, power and divine joy celebrate in holy words for the sake of protection, guidance and advancement.

Mandala 1/Sukta 129

Indra Devata, Paruchhepa Daivodasi Rshi

1. \[Yaṁ tvam rathamindra medhasātaye’pākā santamiṣṭra praṇayasi prānāvadya nayasi sadyaś-cittamabhiṣṭaye karo vāsaśca vājīnam.
Sāsmākam-anavadya tūtujīna vedhasāmimāṁ
vācam na vedhasām.\]

Indra, lord of light and knowledge, power beyond reproach, inspirer of life and people, whatever chariot you move for the purpose of yajna, that being faultless and immaculate, you move it fast forward and, favourable as you are to the yajaka, you instantly lead it and the master to success, to the desired object. Lord sung and celebrated, faster than light in motion and inspiration, faithful admirers we are all, elevate this song of ours to the height of the word of the wise and visionaries and graciously accept it as our homage of holiness.

1. YaÅ tvaÅ rathamindra medhasŒtaye'pŒkŒ santami¦ira praÄayasi prŒnavadya nayasi sadyaÜ-cittamabhi¦¢aye karo v½asaÜca vŒjinam. SmŒkam-anavadya tµutujŒna vedhasŒmimŒÅ vŒcaÅ na vedhasŒm.

2. Sa śrūdhīḥ yaḥ smā pṛtanāsu kāsu cid daksāyya indra bharahūtaye nṛbhirasi pratūrtaye nṛbhīḥ. Yah śuraiḥ svāḥ sanitā yo vipraivājam tarutā. Tamīśānāsa iradhanta vājinam pṛkṣamatyam na vājinam.

May Indra, lord of wealth and power, listen to our voice of prayer and suggestion, Indra who is an expert hero in the projects of social fulfilment in cooperation with the socially motivated people and an instant fighter in battles of defence and development with men of martial nature, who meditates on the heavenly light of the spirit and with the brave, intelligent and wise men is the creator and distributor of food and energy among people, and with whom the strong and powerful leaders love to work exactly as successful people love to take to a strong and fast horse to reach their destination, fast as he is and versatile in everything.
Dasmo hi śmā vrṣaṇāṁ pinvasi tvacāṁ kaṁ cid yāvīraraṁuṁ śūra martyāṁ parivṛṇkāsi martyam. Indrota tubhyāṁ tad dive tad rudrāya svayaśase. Mitrāya vocāṁ varuṇāya saprathāḥ sumṛṭikāya saprathāḥ.

Indra, lord of power and wealth, justice and generosity, brave hero of wondrous deeds, you shower the generous and protective man with support and plenty, you strike off the destructive saboteur and root out the corrupt man. Great you are, broad of mind and deep in spirit. I say these profuse words of praise for you, Indra, ruler and leader, light of the nation, dispenser of justice, commanding honour and fame, friend of all, universal choice of hearts, inspirer of peace and bliss, great mind and spirit indeed!

For your good and ours, we love and celebrate Indra, friend, the very life breath of the world, patient and courageous, cooperative comrade, daring and victorious in battles, dedicated and meditative on life and Divinity. For our protection, O lord, protect and preserve our knowledge and Veda in all the battles. No enemy can overwhelm you. Whatever adversary you defeat, whatever world you win and cover with justice and protection, no enemy anywhere can overcome you.

In all grace, bow down before the exceptional wisdom of the learned. And bring down the haughty pride of the notorious enemy, O fierce lord of raging power and rectitude, with your burning and brilliant methods and actions of defence and protection blazing like the radiant flames of the fire of arani wood. You know us all, O brave, heroic and sinless, lead us forward as before, wash off all sin and evil from the life of humanity. Bearer of the burdens of existence, harbinger of all that is good, like fire, burn off our evil and let us shine close to your presence.
6. Pra tad voceyaṁ bhavyāyendave havyo na ya
iṣavān manma rejati rakṣohā manma rejati Śvayaṁ so asmadā nido vadhairajeta durmatim.
Ava sravedaghaśaṁso’vataramava kṣudramiva sravet.

I would speak words of appreciation and sing that song of praise for one who is worthy of reverence, brilliant, and like a divinity worthy of invocation, strong, dynamic and favourable, inspires like soma and shines like the moon, who shines at heart and destroys evil, who by himself, with blows, wards off the evil-tongued and the malicious, and who makes the evil go down the gutter and even lower just like worms of dirt.

7. Vanema taddhotrayā citantyā vanema rayivāḥ suvīryaṁ raṇvaṁ santam suvīryam.
Durmanmānaṁ sumantubhir-emiśā pṛcimahi.
Ā satyābhir-indram dyumnahūṭibhir-yajatram dyumnahūṭibhiḥ.

Let us invoke Indra with most enthusiastic homage, pray and win his favour. O lord of wealth, let us win wealth, win noble strength, noble strength of body and mind abiding with holy joy of the spirit. Let us, with honest thoughts and earnest desire associate and be one with Indra who brooks no nonsense and negativity of mind and spirit. Let us offer prayers and homage to Indra, holiest of the holy, with truth of mind and spirit and the richest offerings, the richest that we have.

Indra, lord of power and glory, by his own power and honour, is all for your protection and ours, and he is all out for the total destruction of the men of evil mind and intention. And may that force which is sent by our enemies for our destruction never reach us, but be routed on way as if destroyed of itself even if it is inspired and moved at the fastest speed. (It must be prevented and destroyed on the way itself by defence missiles).

Indra, lord of power, honour and glory, go forward, and come to us with abundant wealth by the paths of non-violence, no-wickedness and no-sin. Be with us and for us as a friend at the closest and at the farthest places. Protect and promote us from afar with all that is desired, give us fulfilment at the closest with love at heart, always be a friend and saviour with total protection and fulfilment.

Indra, lord of power and glory, come with great and victorious wealth, honour and grace, Mighty and lustrous, may grandeur and dignity abide with you for protection like a friend as a mark of greatness. Lord most lustrous, saviour, protector, immortal by fame and honour, ride the chariot of glory. Lord of the clouds and mountains of the earth, if you are angry, even violent sometime, strike something other than our soul, whatsoever is violent and destructive, O lord of the clouds and mountains of the earth.

Indra, sung and celebrated for honour and graciousness, protect us from error, blunder and loss of faith. Always averting the envious and malicious, being brilliant and lustrous, you take the evil-minded down to the pit. Destroyer of the sinful and demonic killers, saviour of the pious and noble scholars and people like me, haven and home of the needy, may the lord creator of life rejuvenate you ever. Destroyer of sin and cruelty, shelter of the good, may the lord bless you ever with new life, energy and knowledge.

Mandala 1/Sukta 130

Indra Devata, Paruchhepa Daivodasi Rshi

एन्द्र याह्युप न: परावता नायमच्छा विदथानीव सत्यतिरस्तं राजेव सत्यति:। हवामहे त्वा वयं पवस्वन्त: सुत सचा। पुत्रसा न पितरं वाजसात्यय मंहिष्ठं वाजसात्यय ॥ १ ॥

Indra, lord of wealth and power, ruler of the world, come graciously from afar to us like this Agni who comes to the yajnic battles of life. Protector and promoter of truth and rectitude, friend and protector of the truthful and righteous, come to our home like the ruler. Joining you faithfully in this yajna of life, dedicated to holy action and endeavour, we invoke and invite you to join us. As children call upon the father to help them to food, sustenance and protection in their course of life and growth, so do we call upon you for safety and protection, great lord of power and prosperity, for victory in our battle of life.

2. Pibā somamindra suvānamadribhiḥ kośena siktamavatam na vaṁsagastāṛṣaṇo na vaṁsagaḥ. Madāya haryatāya te tuviṣṭamāya dhāyase. A tvā yacchantu harito na sūryamahā viśveva sūryam.

   Just as a thirsty bull drinks the water of a pool augmented by the showers of a cloud, so you Indra, friend and fond of company, drink this soma prepared from herbs crushed with grinders and seasoned by the shower of the clouds for your delight, lord versatile and vibrant, sustainer of life, worthy of love and homage, and just as the rays of light and all the days bring up the sun for the world, so may they bring you to our vedi of yajna.

3. Avindad divo nihitāṁ guhā nidhiṁ verna garbhāṁ parivītamaśmanyanante antaraśmani. Vajraṁ vajrī gavāmiva siṣāsannaṅgirastamaḥ. Apāvṛ-ṇodiṣa indraḥ parīvṛtā dvāra iṣaḥ parīvṛtāḥ.

   Indra, wielder of the thunderbolt of cosmic energy, most brilliant of the cosmic brilliances, creates from the light of omniscience and divine omnipotence the wealth of existence hidden in the heart of mystery and opens out the materials and energies of cosmic evolution covered in the folds of sleep. He opens the closed doors of the wealth of existence as you deliver a foetus from the womb or an embryo from the egg or dig out a diamond from the heart of a stone lying in the depth of a mighty mountain or as the sun breaks open the waters of rain held in the cloud in the vast sky or as a cowherd opens the gates of a cow stall, wielding his staff to control their movements. Thus does Indra open the doors of the wealth of existence and control the order of evolution with his force of law.

4. Dādṛhāṇo vajramindro gabhastyoh kṣadmeva tigmamasanāya saṁ śyadahihatyāya saṁ śyat.
Samvivyāna ojasā śavobhirindra majmanā.
Taṣṭeva vṛkṣaṁ vanino ni vṛscasi paraśveva ni vṛscasi.

Indra, firmly holding the thunder-bolt in hand, like a forceful jet of water or like a flood of penetrating rays of light to shoot, breaks the cloud and releases the waters of life. Similarly, one with your lustre and valour, like a wood cutter and carver, you fell the strongholds of evil like the trees of a forest, yes, uproot the wicked, striking the blows as with the axe.

त्वं वृक्षं नु द्रव इतनु सत्तवच्छा समुदर्मप्रमुखा रथाण्डेव बाज्यताः
रथाण्डेव। इतैं उत्तीर्युव्जत समानमयम्यम् सतम। धृतरथिन नरनव

5. \textit{Tvaṁ vrthā nadya indra sartave’cchā samudramamasṛjo rathāṅ iva vājayato rathāṅ iva. Ita ūtirauñjata samānamarthamakṣitam. Dhenūriva manave viśvadhaso janāya viśvadhasaḥ.}

Indra, you release the rivers at will to flow naturally well to the sea, they are like chariots loaded with food and energy, yes, replete with immense energy like chariots ever on the move. Thus, flow with this flow, you join the rivers with unrestricted wealth and modes of protection for all equally. And these rivers are like cows yielding all kinds of food and energy for the man of intelligence and for all people, for all, whole world indeed.

6. \textit{Imāṁ te vācaṁ vasūyanta āyavo ratham na dhīraḥ svapā atakṣiṣuḥ sumnāya tvāmatakṣiṣuḥ. Šumbhanto jenyāṁ yathā vājeṣu vipra vājinam.
Atyamiva śavase sātaye dhanā viśvā dhanānī sātaye.}

Indra, vipra, lord of knowledge, this song of honour and celebration, for you, men of knowledge, patience, and noble action seeking wealth and power, have formed in the mind, as they have created the chariot for the sake of comfort and well-being, just like men of knowledge, culture and grace would love to have a fast horse in life’s battle flying to victory for the achievement of universal strength and power of wealth for
7. Bhinat puro navatimindra pūrave divodāsāya
mahi dāśuṣe nrto vajreṇa dāśuṣe nrto. Atithigvā-ya śāmbaram gīrerugro avābhārat. Maho dhanāṇi dayamāṇa ojasā viśvā dhanāṇyojasā.

Indra, lord of the world, dancing with the joy of victory, you break down ninety strongholds of want and injustice for the sake of the people and for the great hospitable and philanthropist with your thunder-bolt of strength, power and energy. Lord of light and lustre, as the sun, you bring the cloud down in showers to the top of the mountain for the host, favourite of the visitors. Lord of sympathy and generosity, with your power and brilliance, you create great wealths of life, yes, and with your genius and philanthropy, bring up wealths of the world for universal benefit.

8. Indraḥ samatsu yajamānamāryam prāvad viśveṣu šatamūtirājiṣu svarmīlheṣvājiṣu. Manave śaśad-avratān tvacaṁ kṛṣṇāmarandhayat. Dakṣānna viśvaṁ tatṛṣāṇamoṣati nyarāsāṇa-moṣati.

Indra, ruler of the world, master of a hundred modes and means of protection and promotion, should protect and advance the noble and creative yajamana in all the projects of public good, in all the programmes of heavenly light for the man of thought and pious intention and action. Let him correct and control the forces of indiscipline and lawlessness, overthrow the earth’s cover of darkness, and like the generous benefactor enlighten all the seekers thirsting for light and knowledge and cauterise all the festering wounds of humanity.

9. Sūraścakram pra bhajjāta ojasā prapitve vācamaruno muṣāyatīśāna ā muṣāyati. Uṣānā yat parāvato’jagannūtaye kave. Sumnāni viśvā manuṣeṇa turvaṇāraḥ viśveva turvaṇih. Indra, the sun, lord of crimson glory, rising from the vast spaces lights up the mighty wheel of the world, ravishes the imagination with its refulgence and inspires human speech to silence in adoration, and, ruling the world specially at the advance of the day and more in the northern solstice, it inspires as well as silences the speech with awe. O Poet divine, inspired with light, love and brilliance, come here on the earth from afar like a man divine, fast and faster, generous, all days every hour, and bring us the wealth and joys of the world for the protection and advancement of humanity.

10. Sa no navyebhir-vṛṣakarmannukthaiḥ purāṁ dartah pāyubhiḥ pāhi śagmaiḥ. Divodāsebhīr-indra stavāno vār dhīṭhā ahobhiriva dyauḥ.
Indra, lord of light, might and power, ruler of the world, hero of generous and universal action, breaker of enemy strongholds, protect and promote us with the latest pious, admirable and blissful modes, means and actions of defence and development. Sung and celebrated by poets of enlightenment, you too rise and advance as the sun ascends high and higher day by day in heaven.

Mandala 1/Sukta 131

Indra Devata, Paruchhepa Daivodasi Rshi

1. Indrāya hi dyaurasuro anamnatendrāya mahī pṛthivī varīmabhir-dyumnasātā varīmabhiḥ. Indram viśve sajoṣaso devāso dadhire puraḥ. Indrāya viśvā savanāni mānuṣā rātāni santu mānuṣā.

The heavenly light of the sun and the cloud with all pranic energy do homage to Indra only. The mighty Prakṛti and the earth, their best characteristic powers and virtues, do homage to Indra. All the divinities of nature and brilliancies of humanity together with unqualified love and faith do homage primarily to Indra as the Lord Supreme. May all the human work and wealth and the highest yajnic sessions be surrendered as gifts of homage to Indra, Lord Supreme of the universe.

In all their yajnic projects of creation and development and in their acts of piety, all the liberal minded people and all seekers of heavenly bliss serve you and abide by you, sole one universal lord of existence, individually as well as together. To the same one lord we too belong, and we too love, meditate on and serve you, lord, with faith as the very centre of cosmic energy and as the saviour ship for crossing over the ocean of existence. All the people born and living on earth in their mortal existence and all the stars and planets in their songs and dance of adoration serve and worship the Lord as Indra, light of the world like the sun.

Indra, lord of might and prosperity, wedded couples, keen for protection and advancement united with you and going out in pursuit of their efforts to promote the wealth of cows, development of land and related knowledge, extend your glory and eliminate their want and suffering, since you inspire and exhort both men and women going out and achieving the light and joy of life when you open out and wield for action the thunderbolt of justice and protection, so generous, promotive and friendly to you and the people.

Indra, lord of power and management, the people would know and realise your usual power and valour when you, bold and challenging, would overcome the autumnal and wintry problems of life and society, reclaim the habitations, control the rivers, and restore total civic normalcy after rains, when, O lord of law and power, you tame the man who is selfish, possessive, uncreative, uncooperative and unyajnic, and when, happy at heart and creating the pleasure and joy of life, you release the great earth, release these waters and relieve these creative and cooperative people.
5. Ādit te asya vīryasya carkiran madeśu vṛṣannu-śijo yadāvittha sakhīyato yadāvittha. Cakartha kāramebhyāḥ pṛtanāśu pravantave. Te anīmā-nyāṁ nadyāṁ saniśñata śravasyantaḥ saniśñata.

Indra, lord of generosity, people loving and dedicated to you in their moods of joy praise and celebrate this valour and justice of yours since you protect and promote them, yes, promote and advance them, so friendly to you and to all as they are. You work wonders for them in their battles of life and production for proper distribution and participation while they, desiring their share of food and wealth, rightfully hope to gain one thing after another of the flow of national wealth.

6. Uto no asyā uṣasā juṣeta hyarkasya bodhi haviśo havīmadbhīḥ svarṣātā havīmadbhīḥ. Yadindra hantave mṛdho vrṣā vajriṅciketasi. Ā me asya vedhaso navīyaso manma śrudhi navīyasāḥ.

Indra, lord of light, now listen and accept this joyous celebration of ours of the light of the dawn, know this prayer and, O shower of light and joy, accept our invocation and holy offerings since, O wielder of the thunderbolt, lord of generosity, you keep awake for us for the elimination of violence. Listen to this newest prayer of mine made in full knowledge in worship, listen and accept this latest thought and petition.
7. Tvaim tamindra vāvṛdhaḥo asmayur-amitravan-tam tuvijāta martyrāṁ vajreṇa śūra martyrāṁ. Jahi yo no aghaẏati śṛṇuṣva suśravastamaḥ. Riṣṭam na yāmannapa bhūtu durmatir-viśvāpa bhūtu durmatiḥ.

Indra, lord of power and glory, ever exalting, friend of ours, universally famous, mighty bold, eliminate with the thunderbolt every man who entertains hate and enmity toward us and does sinful acts against us. Listen lord, since you are the closest listener. Let the man of evil intention be off from our way like one broken by evil. Let all evil intentions and evil designers be off and away from us.

Mandala 1/Sukta 132

Indra Devata, Paruchhepa Daivodasi Rshi

Indra, ruling lord of wealth and power, we pray, guided and protected by you and your power and potential, let us face the men in the very first encounter, love, tolerate or fight who wish to love, contest or fight, and let us win the encounter. On this day right now at the closest, speak to one and all of those who are conducting the yajna of the business of corporate living. In this yajna of full measure, while we are up and doing and winning all round, let us choose the best meritorious line of action and let us choose you as our guide, leader and protector.

In the yajnic battle for the winning of light and joy, in the chant of the Apri hymns for divine favour, in the holy performance of the person rising at dawn, in the instant action of the man of love and grace, Indra destroys the obstacles in the way of action and achievement for the man who knows the favours of the lord, and for these the lord is adorable for every one and for the best among us. Just as Indra is favourable thus, so we pray to the lord: With us and for us as you always are, may all your gifts be for our good. May your gracious favours be good to the noble humanity.
potential, let us face the men in the very first encounter, love, tolerate or fight who wish to love, contest or fight, and let us win the encounter. On this day right now at the closest, speak to one and all of those who are

In this yajna of full measure, while we are up and doing

3. Tat tu prayah pratnathā te sūśukvanam yasmin

yam. Vi tad voceradha dvitā’ntaḥ paśyanti raśmi-bhiḥ. Sa ghā vide anvindro gaveśaṇo bandhukṣidbhyo gaveśaṇah.

Indra, that Word of yours, that gracious gift, as ever, is brilliant. You are the ocean of Rta, eternal light and law of the truth of existence, the very home from where it flows like a river, like the radiation of sunlight.
Pray speak of that same Word, reveal it in the yajna where they have created the choicest altar for your presence. Surely the same light the dedicated yajnics see within by the divine rays within and without. And I too would know of it then and realise. Truly Indra is the giver of knowledge, the Word, the cows and earthly wealth. He is the giver of these for the lovers and friends of our brethren. (The seeker of these too is Indra among humanity.)

4. Na itthā te pūrvathā ca pravācyāṁ yadaṅgirobhyo’vṛṇorapa vrajamindra sikṣṇnapa vrajam.
Aibhyāḥ samānyā diśā’smabhyaṁ jeṣi yotsi ca.
Sunvadbhyo randhayā kaṁ cidavratam hṛṣāya-ntam cidavratam.
Indra, surely the word which you thus reveal as before for the scholars dear as the breath of life, and the way you open the doors of knowledge and treasures of the world, teaching us the wisdom of eternity is worth admiration and celebration. You fight for us and win the victories in the same constant way for these and for us who distil the essence of things. Heat up and season those indisciplined and lawless people who are funny, angry, violent or thievish, yes, subject them to the crucibles of law and education and cleanse them to purity from culturelessness.

When Indra, brave and fearless lord of power and glory, by virtue of his wisdom and noble actions, closely surveys the forces of the people at the call of battle, the people, keen for honour, in love with fame, overcome all opposition, worship him and serve him with all their valour and lustre in the hour of crisis. They augment his life and morale as the hero of a mighty nation. Firm of mind and full of confidence, they repose complete faith in him as in the divinities and find their haven and home in him.
Indra, surely the word which you thus reveal as before for the scholars dear as the breath of life, and the way you open the doors of knowledge and treasures of the world, teaching us the wisdom of eternity is worth admiration and celebration. You fight for us and win the victories in the same constant way for these and for us who distil the essence of things. Heat up and season those indisciplined and lawless people who are funny, angry, violent or thievish, yes, subject them to the crucibles of law and education and cleanse them to purity from culturelessness.

You both, Indra and the forces, like lightning and the mountain, fighting in the forefront, destroy with the thunderbolt everyone whosoever come to attack and fight us, see that they are destroyed first to the last, whosoever it be, even running far away for cover or even if one has gone deep into the bunker. O lord of valour and lustre, router of the deadly forces, destroy our enemies all round, crush them everywhere.

Mandala 1/Sukta 133

Indra Devata, Paruchhepa Daivodasi Rshi

I purify the earth and heavens both by the light of truth and the fire and fragrance of yajna, creative and cooperative action. I subject the elements of hate and chaos to the heat and power of law and discipline and burn off the anti-Indra forces on earth to naught. And having thus seized and crushed the unfriendly elements wherever they happen to be active, and confirmed that they are dead and gone, I let them lie asleep in their grave.

Indra, lord of yajna, power and law, firm as rock and generous as cloud, having caught the lawless and the violent by the head of the evil-minded, crush them under the wide wide foot, crush them by the rising forces of the youth.

Indra, maghavan, lord of world power and wealth, break down and destroy the force of the evil-minded and throw them out deep into the vault of darkness, into the hideous world of sin and death.

4. Yāsāṁ tisrāḥ paṅcāśatio’ḥivlaṅgairapāvapah. Tat su te manāyati takat su te manāyati.

Indra, now that you have routed the three times fifty forces of those agents of hate and violence by your tactics of seizure and attack, that act excites holy admiration and celebration, hearty admiration and reverence.

5. Piśaṅgabhṛṣṭimambhrṇaṁ piśācimindra saṁ mṛṇa. Sarvam rakṣo ni barhaya.

Indra, destroy the fierce ogres of the lance of red blood and root out the demons all over.

6. Avarmaha indra dādrhi śrudhī naḥ śuṣoca hi dyauḥ kṣā na bhīśān adrivo ghrṇānna bhīśān adrivah. Śuṣmīntamo hi śuṣmībhīrvedātṛ

Indra, lord of earth and heaven, bring down that fierce demon and break him to pieces. Listen to our prayer. Purify and let the earth shine like heaven with tremendous light, lord of clouds and mountains, let the earth shine with the rule of law as by the blaze of light, lord of earth and heaven. Lord of highest power, you move on wielding the most powerful and lustrous weapons of law and punishment. Gracious and non-violent with noble humanity, quiet, unseen and brave, you move with thrice seven heroic purities of existence,
O noblest lord, with the purest and holiest verities of life.

The yajamana who performs yajna and distils the soma prays for a home and gets one. Organising the yajna and the distillation of the soma of joy and prosperity, he drives away many envious enemies by yajna, drives the enemies of noble people away. The organiser of yajna, fast, intelligent and wise, open, free and fearless wants to create a hundred things, and Indra, lord of creation, power and generosity creates and gives blissful wealth for the yajnic people, yes, the lord blesses with the gift of wealth, peace and joy.

Vayu Devata, Paruchhepa Daivodasi Rshi

1. Ā tvā juvo rārahāṇā abhi prayo vāyo vahantviha pūrvapītaye somasya pūrvapītaye. Ěrdhvā te anu sūnṛtā manastiṣṭhatu jānatī. Niyutvatā ratheṇa yāhi dāvane vāyo makhasya dāvane.
Vayu, spirit of yajnic vitality, may the fast currents of cosmic energy with love and caress escort and bring you here for a drink up of soma first of all, drink of fragrance as ever before, and your consort, upward current on the circuitous wave, recognising you as her partner and offering herself as an oblation, join you in the cycle of yajnic transmission of fragrance. Come, yoke the horses to the chariot and fly with your gifts for the generous yajamana.

And O Vayu, cyclic energy of nature divine, may the exhilarating vapours of our yajna, well-created and activated by our libations into the fire, brilliant as light, radiating with the waves of the earth energy and rising with the rays of the sun join and vitalise you. The dynamic people exerting for advancement achieve divine protection and success. Only the intelligent ones working together in unison with yajna and divine energy receive and reveal the power and wisdom for the generous yajamana.

Vayu yokes the red and the orange red of nature’s powers such as fire and light, and it inspires the dawn and the sun. It uses all the dynamic sources of energy and power such as air and wind, fire and sunlight, the mind and senses, and the flow of water, all strongest and most impetuous for transport and communication. It awakens them and yokes them to the chariot of cosmic movement. O Vayu, come and wake up and energise life like a lover who wakes up and impassions a sleeping beauty. Light up the heaven and earth, light up the dawns. Light up the dawn of new life and let it rise to the top of glory.

4. Tubhyam-uṣāsaḥ śucayaḥ parāvati bhdraḥ vastrā tanvate daṁsu raśmiṣu citrā navyeṣu raśmiṣu. Tubhyaṁ dhenuḥ sabardughā viśvā vasūni dohate. Ajanayo maruto vakṣanābhyo diva ā vakṣanābhyah.

For you, O Vayu, Divine Energy, the purest and brightest blissful lights of the dawn in far off spaces wondrously weave the designs of world beauty in sunlight, in the newest colourful rays of light. For you the all generous cow produces all the milky wealths of

The brilliant, pure and radiant, fast and zealous, and the blazing geniuses in the ecstasy of meditation, in the rapid flow of their karmas have desire only for you, have love but only for you in the intensity of their karma and devotion. The man of strength and generosity going by safest high ways worships you, lord giver of wealth and power of the world. You alone, by Dharma save from all the evils of the world, you alone help us cross through the world through Dharma.

O Vayu, first, unprecedented and eternal lord, you alone deserve to drink of these soma essences distilled by us, you alone deserve to receive the offer of our acts of worship. You alone are the object of worship by purified intelligences and dedicated souls of the people. All dynamics of the world, lights of the suns, earths of the universe, divinities of nature and geniuses of humanity offer the milk of worship, they offer the ghrta of milky soma in the divine fire for you, only for you.

Mandala 1/Sukta 135

_Vayu Devata, Paruchhepa Daivodasi Rshi_

Vayu, the assembly hall is ready, the holy seat is laid, come fast, come close, come for certain by the chariot drawn by a thousand horses, for rest and drink of soma reserved for the hero of a hundred forces. The devas, saints and sages brilliant all, have prepared and reserved the soma for you first by virtue of your divinity. May the honey drinks of distilled soma be sure and stable, reserved for your delight in the joint yajna of corporate action.
O Vayu, first, unprecedented and eternal lord, you alone deserve to drink of these soma essences distilled by us, you alone deserve to receive the offer of our acts of worship. Mandala 1/Sukta 135

Vayu Devata, Paruchhepa Daivodasi Rshi

For you does this soma distilled and purified with soma-stones and filters, seasoned by clouds, coveted and brilliant, over flows the jar. Pure, brilliant and exciting, it flows and overflows. This soma share of yours, delightful and exciting, is loved and honoured among the youth and learned divines. For this you are invoked and invited. Go, with love, your chariot driven by the team of horses impetuous as the winds, come for us and take your share of the beauty and ecstasy of life.

O Vayu, lord of power, force and tempestuous speed, come to our yajnic project of love and non-violence for protection and participation to enjoy our offering and hospitality. Come by your chariot drawn by hundreds and thousands of horses. Here is your share of holy offerings in accordance with the time and season, reinforced with the energy of light radiating from the sun. It is prepared by our high-priests of yajna, stored and reserved by them and to be offered by them to you, O Vayu, an offering holiest pure and paradisal!

O Vayu, may the chariot equipped with horses fast as winds bring both of you, Vayu and Indra, like ruler and commander, for our protection and for our choicest offerings prepared in faith with love, yes for your gracious acceptance of our gifts. Come and drink of the honey sweets of soma reserved as special drink for you first and exclusively. Vayu, come with the golden gift of wealth and power, and may Indra also come with the wealth of universal value and success.

O Vayu, these soma juices extracted and distilled here in yajnas, perfected by the priests, pure and exciting, may reach you, must reach you both, Vayu and Indra. These, flowing to you both in cross currents as if eager for you are created for you and flow to you.
5. Ā vāṃ dhiyo vavṛtyuradhvarāṇī upemamindum marmṛjanta vājinamāśumatyām na vājinam. Teṣāṁ pibatamasmayū ā no gantamihotyā. Indrāvāyū sutānāmadribhiryuvāṃ madāya vājadā yuvam.

O Indra and Vayu, ruler and commander of the world, lords of intelligence and power, come close, and may your intelligence and power strengthen and vitalise our yajnic actions and inspire men of knowledge and wisdom, and may they refine and reinforce this soma and this wealth and honour and this dynamism of ours as a groom refines and refreshes a fleet and impetuous horse. May they come for our protection and advancement and drink of these soma juices prepared with stones and seasoned with the vapours of clouds for the gift of joy and excitement. O Indra and Vayu, givers of joy and strength and speed, come both for the joy of life for you and for ourselves.

Vayu, these soma juices extracted and distilled here in yajnas, perfected by the priests, pure and exciting, may reach you, must reach you both, Vayu and Indra. These, flowing to you both in cross currents as if eager for you are created for you and flow to you.
These are of imperishable strength and vitality and have been filtered through woollen filters of permanent value. The inspiration is even more than permanent, beyond imperishment.

O Vayu, power of speed and knowledge, pass by the idle and the sleeping. Both of you, Indra and Vayu, go to the lovers of permanent values and knowledge, there to the house where the voice of soma chant is heard, where truth and universal law of the universe is celebrated in yajna, and where ghrta flows into the yajna fire. Go to the yajna both of you, to the house of yajna by the chariot drawn by a team of horses in full and perfect form.

8. Atrāha tad vahethe madhva āhutim yamaśv-attham-upatiṣṭhanta jāyavo’sme te santu jāyavaḥ. Sākam gāvah suvate pacyate yavo na te vāya upa dasyanti dhenavo nāpa dasyanti dhenavaḥ.

O noble Vayu and Indra, breath and powers of omniscience and omnipotence, scholar and commander, bring us here that holy fragrance of knowledge and power to our social yajna by which the rising youth aspiring for victory, sitting round you like nestlings in the sacred peepal tree, may benefit and reach the goal of their ambition. Our cows, our lands, our voices bear fruit. Our grains ripen, our individual and collective endeavours mature and prosper. O Vayu, your gifts of creation never decrease, your words never go waste, nor are they ever stolen away.

These warriors of yours, strong of arm and virile they are. Generous and creative, they sanctify the earth. They fly in space between earth and heaven, and, themselves rising in glory, they add to the glory of earth and heaven. Rising to the stars like the winds they are steady and self-restrained. Impetuous as they are like the winds, their rest and home is beyond words. Untamable they are like the sunbeams, and awful to handle by the hands.
Mandala 1/Sukta 136

Mitra-Varuna Devata, Paruchhepa Daivodasi Rshi

Take the best and ampest food, and songs and tributes of adoration, holy and most delicious, and offer to the eternal, beneficent and gracious lords Mitra and Varuna, universal friend and adored love of everybody’s choice. Brilliant are they, regaled, revered and worshipped in yajna after yajna of social and sacred programmes with ghṛta which they love and consume with delight. Their rule and power of order none can challenge, their brilliance and divinity none can resist.

The great earth is lit for a wide range of activities for the day. The path of Rtam, divine truth of Law and yajna is revealed by the rays of the sun, bright as the rays themselves, as the eye of the lord of world’s wealth has opened with the sun. The heavenly seats of Mitra, Aryama and Varuna, lords of love, justice and freedom, are bright on high. The divinities of nature bear and bring for humanity admirable food, health and long age. The noblest of humanity bear and offer holy offerings to the divinities of yajna with faith and holy chants of Vedic hymns.

Mitra and Varuna, centripetal and centrifugal powers of cosmic energy, which are the Adityas, children of Aditi, infinite and inviolable power of the omnipotent Lord, sustain the beautiful and paradisal indivisible earth joined with the self-luminant heaven day by day constantly. Ever wakeful are they, day in and day out, without a wink of sleep. They are supporters and protectors of the generous and motivated people and they pervade, unite and maintain the grand order of the earth and the world. Aryama, cosmic dynamics, ordains and harmonises the powers of the two, Mitra and Varuna, inspires the human creation and impels the entire universe of the Lord’s creation.

4. Ayaṁ mitrāya varuṇāya śaṅtamaṁ somo bhūtva-vapāṇeṣvābhago devo deveṣvābhagaḥ. Tam devāso juṣerata viśve adya sajoṣasaḥ. Tathā rājānā karatho yadimaha ṛtāvānā yadimaha.

May this Soma, holy peace and brilliant justice of the social order, be most joyous and blissful for Mitra and Varuna, friendly and the best intelligent powers be harbinger of honour and good fortune among saints and sages and in the daily business and yajnic programmes of national activity. May all the noble powers today, observing the common universal Dharma, serve the same peace and justice. May the ruling powers, observing the universal law, accept and do what we ask for, what we, observing the universal law, suggest they ought to do.

5. Yo mitrāya varuṇāyāvidhajjano’narvāṇam tāṁ pari pāto aṁhaso dāśvāṁsaṁ martamaṁhasaḥ. Tamaryamābhi rakṣatyṛjūyantamanu vratam. Ukthairyā enoḥ paribhūṣati vratāṁ stomairā-bhūṣati vratam.

The man who serves Mitra, lord protector and friend of all, and Varuna, lord supreme of love and justice, is generous, free from jealousy and irresistible. The lords save him from sin and protect him against evil and wickedness. Aryama, lord of universal law, gives him all round protection and promotion who is simple and honest in character and behaviour and submits to the divine law and discipline in word and deed, who honours the discipline of Mitra and Varuna with sincere words of thanks and praise and, in obedience to their law, abides by them in creative acts of yajna in regular seasonal performances.

We offer words of praise and homage in honour of the great heaven of light, the earth and the skies, Mitra, lord of universal friendship, Varuna, lord supreme of love and choice, generous, blissful and virile. O man, sing in praise of Indra, lord of power, Agni, lord of light and leadership, the lord of heavenly light, Aryama, lord of the stars, and Bhaga, lord of wealth and honour. O Lord, living long, we pray, may we be blest with good family and friends, may we enjoy the protection of Soma, lord of peace, light and joy of the world.
7. Ùtì devānāṁ vayamindravanto māṁśīmahi swayaśasō marudbhiḥ. Agnimitro varuṇah śarma yāṁsan tadaśyāma maghavāno vayāṁ ca.

Blest with wealth and power, enjoying fame and glory, now our own, with youth vibrant as the winds, we set our heart and mind on the protection of divinities and the best great powers of humanity. We pray may Agni, lord of light and energy, Mitra, the sun, and Varuna, the moon, grant us peace, comfort and joy of a happy home, and we resolve that, having that bounty and munificence of the divinities, we endeavour to do our Karma and achieve the same.

O Mitra and Varuna, dear as the very breath of life and motion of our blood, friends of our darling choice, dazzling with splendour and soothing with beauty as the sun and the moon, touching the very heights of heaven in your character and action, come both, come close to us all and join us. You are ours, our saviours and protectors. We distill these soma drinks of life for you. They are refined with soma-stones and replete with the showers of the clouds, mixed with cows milk and ripened with sun-rays. Exciting are these, ecstatic with sensuous joy and sobering with spiritual peace and enlightenment. These soma gifts of life, lustrous and delicious essences of the foods of the earth and light of the sun are for you, Mitra and Varuna, darlings of our love and admiration in faith, constant companions as day and night.

O Mitra and Varuna, bright friend as the day and highest lord of wisdom, broad as the sky and deep as the night, come, these nectar drops of soma mixed with curds, distilled at the break of dawn and matured with life-giving rays of the sun, are for you both, yes, distilled for the drink of Mitra and Varuna, matured for a soothing, inspiring and enlightening drink of the truth and essence of law of the world of existence for both our friends and wise teachers, ideals of our love and cherished choice and for the dearest lover of truth.

O Mitra and Varuna, best of friends and highest order of the wise, our people extract and distil the soma drink for you from delicate shoots of soma plant crushed with soma stones and seasoned with showers, yes, they extract this soma as they milk a fertile generous cow.
Saviours and protectors of us all, come here close to us upfront for a drink of soma and for protection of the soma joy of the people. Listen both of you graciously, Mitra and Varuna, these somas are distilled by all our people for you, for your drink, delightful drink of soma distilled for you.

The greatness and grandeur of this Pusa, lord of living power, protection and promotion, renowned among the strongest, resounds all round. None can violate his prowess, none can destroy his knowledge and fame. Dedicated to peace and well-being, I adore him, the very image of strength and protection, embodiment of peace and joy. Lord of social cohesion and holy union in yajna, he unites the minds of all humanity. Brilliant and generous, yajna itself, he joins everything together in existence as one integrated organismic whole.

O Mitra and Varuna, best of friends and highest order of the wise, our people extract and distil the soma drink for you from delicate shoots of soma plant crushed with soma stones and seasoned with showers, yes, they extract this soma as they milk a fertile generous cow. Saviours and protectors of us all, come here close to us upfront for a drink of soma and for protection of the soma joy of the people. Listen both of you graciously, Mitra and Varuna, these somas are distilled by all our people for you, for your drink, delightful drink of soma distilled for you.

Pusha, lord of nourishment, health and protection, I celebrate you with songs of praise as a fast and intelligent traveller on the path of life. Just as warriors go to battle and win, just as camels cross the desert, so do you help us get over the battles of life. As I am mortal, I invoke you and pray, lord of peace, indeed an embodiment of peace and joy, brilliant and generous, for help and friendship on the journey. Inspire our prayers and wise men with power and spiritual strength in the serious business of life, give us the wealth of victory in the battles of life.
3. Yasya te puṣṣantsakhye vipanyavaḥ kratvā cit santo’vasā bubhujrira iti kratvā bubhujrire. Tāmanu tvā naviyasīṁ niyutaṁ rāya īmahe. Aheḷamāna uruśarṇsa sarī bhava vājevāje sarī bhava.

Pusha, lord giver of health and joy, by virtue of your friendship, being strong of intelligence yajnic performance and self-protection, people enjoy a good self-image and self-esteem. And as thus they esteem themselves by their performance and enjoy life, we pray to you for the latest and countless forms of the wealth of life. Lord of health and joy, kind and favourable, universally adored, accept us as good friends and soldiers and be with us in every battle of life.

Pusha, lord of nature and fastest motion, lord of goats and horses, we pray, be close with us for the gift of this wealth and intelligence, be kind and generous, richest of the masters of food, wealth and power. With our best and holiest songs of praise and prayer, O lord of riches and generosity, destroyer of suffering, we pray, we may always abide by you. Lord of light and showers of nourishment, we never offend your majesty, we never neglect or disregard your friendship. We are with you,
May my voice be heard! I have realised the energy and power of Agni, light and fire, in full with my intellect and understanding. Then we opt for the divine force and power of nature and move on to the study and application of the power of wind and electricity which, active at the centre of the sun, give us the newest and latest form of energy and power. May all our intellectual efforts and intelligent vision reach the forces of nature and analyse and discover their energy and powers. Let us reach there well with all our intellect and imagination and let our efforts benefit the noblest humanity.
2. Yaddha tyanmitrāvaruṇāvṛtādadhyādadāthe anṛtaṁ svena manyunā dakṣasasya svena manyunā. Yuvoritthādhi sadmasvapaśyāma hiraṇyayam. Dhībhiścana manasā svebhirakṣabhiḥ somasya svebhirakṣabhiḥ.

O Mitra and Varuna, whatever you win and achieve by virtue of your love of goodness and dedication to Truth over untruth with your own valour and passion and with the expert’s own action and passion, we see over and above everything, the same way, shining like gold everywhere in your own homes, and we pray we too may win and achieve the same lustre of truth over untruth by virtue of our understanding, thought and vision and the imagination of Soma, lord lover of peace and beauty.

3. Yuvāṁ stomebhir-devayanto aśvina”śrāvayanta iva ślokamāyavo yuvāṁ havyābhīyāyavaḥ. Yuvorviśvā adhi śriyāḥ prkṣaśca viśvavedasā. Pruśāyante vāṁ pavayo hiraṇyaye rathe dasrā hiranyaye.

Ashvins, lords and harbingers of light and the light of wealth and knowledge, mortal men loving and dedicated to you, celebrating your divinity with words of praise and singing songs to you in your honour, do homage to you with holy offerings. Lords of universal knowledge, yours are the wealth and beauty and all resources of the world you rule over. Generous lords and protectors, graceful in your chariot, the golden wheels of the chariot shower and sanctify you with the golden beams of radiance.

Translation:

Ashvins, lords of grace and destroyers of suffering, you travel by the paradisal paths of joy, it is universally known, Users of the chariot flying by paths of the skies on high join you, they fly in the sky without losing height. Generous lords of light, let us also join you on your golden and stoutly structured chariot. Going on high as on highways of the earth, you are rulers of the skies, you rule the skies with your strength and speed of motion.

Translation:

Ashvins, lords of noble action and givers of wealth by noble action, for the noble actions of ours, bless us with the gifts of wealth day and night. We pray, may your generosity never wear away from us. May our charity too never forsake us.

Indra, lord of power and honour, virile and generous, these sparkling draughts of soma worthy of the mighty generous and heroic, extracted with soma stones, distilled from the vapours of the clouds, bubbling and exciting they are, are distilled for you. May they be delightful to you, generous giver, great, wonderful, and thriving lord of accomplishment and success. Lord adorable in the holiest words, celebrated in song, giver of bliss, come, come to us and bless!

7. O śūṇo agne śrūṇuhī tvamīlito Devebhuyo bravasi yajñīyebhyo rājabhyo yajñīyebhyaḥ. Yaddha tyā-maṅgirobhyo dhenuṁ devā adattana. Vi tāṁ duḥ-re aryamā kartarī sacāṁ eṣa tāṁ veda me sacā.

Agni, lord of light, knowledge and leadership, lord adorable and adored, listen graciously to our word: you speak to the brilliant and revered men of knowledge and yajna, you speak to the illustrious men of governance and administration. Say this: O Devas, divine powers, whatever word of knowledge and life’s vitality you impart to the scholars of energy and the science of life, that very knowledge the specialist of mind, will and emotion, Aryama, has distilled for his co-worker, the man of action, and the same this friend and colleague of mine, the judge, knows for practical application.

O Maruts, brave heroes of earth and space vibrant as waves of energy, may your ancient and eternal powers and potentials and ours, and our honour and fame never wear away outmoded, and never forsake us. Whatever is yours, wondrous and excellent, ancient and yet ever new from age to age, what is imperishable from the eternal Voice and your proclamations, fix that within us deep in the mind, so it is difficult to surpass, unchallengeable.
9. Dadhyaṁ ha me januṣaṁ pūrvo aṅgirāḥ priyamedhaḥ kaṇyo atrirmanurviduste me pūrve manurviduh. Teṣāṁ deveṣvāyatirasmākaṁ teṣu nābhayaḥ. Teṣāṁ padena mahyā name girendrāgni ā name girā.

Dadhyang, the ideal man of virtue who approaches men of knowledge and wisdom with reverence, Angira, the scholar of life-energy and science, Priyamedha, the visionary who loves intellectual advancement, Kanva, the high-priest of intelligence, Atri, the saint who has conquered threefold pain and suffering, Manu, the philosopher of thought and contemplation, all these perfect souls, realised souls of wisdom all, know my rebirth into the state of knowledge and refinement, yes, they know. Our reach is unto the centre of their holy presence, the centre hold of our identity is there. In their tradition, at every step, with every word I speak of exalted speech, I adore Indra and Agni, lord of honour and power, lord of light and knowledge, I bow in thought, word and deed.

Let the performer of yajna offer oblations in honour of the divinities of nature and humanity. Let the brilliant man of knowledge honour and serve the virtuous man worthy of choice. Let Brhaspati, scholar of knowledge and master of the speech of knowledge, loving and kind, associate with generous and virtuous people and, with all these noble sacrificing people, engage in yajna, socially creative work. Let us all, with equal mind and soul, hear and internalise what words of truth are spoken even far away as we enjoy the sound of soma stones and the soothing showers of clouds. Let the man of holy intelligence and action enjoy the showers of peace, prosperity and joy, and may the man of noble yajna enjoy many many homes and havens of his choice.

O divinities, brilliant and generous powers of the Divine, existing and active by your great power and potential, ten pranic life energies and the individual soul, abiding in the heavenly regions of light, and the same eleven existing on the earth, and the same eleven abiding in the waters and the skies, may all these universal powers come and join this yajna of our life, and help us to extend it wide and high.
Mandala 1/Sukta 140

Agni Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

As you bring holy food for the holy fire burning bright in the vedi, lovely seat of its choice, so for Agni, with a sincere mind and soul, prepare a happy home and a brilliant chariot of light, pure, blazing white dispelling darkness, and cover it safe as with a cloth, beautifully and fragrantly.

To the twice born scholar threefold food of jnana (knowledge), karma (action) and Upasana (prayer and meditation) is brought and gifted which, received in the session and assimilated, grows manifold in the session. By the mouth and tongue (speech) of another, the teacher, and with the mouth and tongue of others (his colleagues), through discussion, the strong and victorious scholar warding off difficulties and challenges in the company of others refines and shines all those who love and admire him.

Both the mothers of this Agni, i.e., the mother and the guru-mother of the scholar at school, both equal in ambition, rising to the clouds in hope, vibrate in ecstasy like the two arani woods which produce the fire, and look forward to the success of their child speaking boldly, destroying the darkness of ignorance and acquiring knowledge, being reborn fast, worthy of the company, joy and honour of his father, but carefully to be guarded at every critical step.

All lovers of liberation, dynamic pioneers, explorers of the unknown paths of the world, smartest, diverse minded, fast and wind-inspired, shooting to the goal at the speed of light join on the yajna vedi with the man of thought for the man of self-esteem and honour.
5. Ādasya te dhvasayanto vrtherate kṛṣṇamabhvam mahi varpaḥ karikrataḥ. Yat śīm mahīmavaniṁ prābhi marmṛśadabhiśvasan tstanayanneti nānadam.

When this Agni, mighty hero of light and power, goes forward blowing, roaring, thundering and striking, covering and vitalising this great earth all round, then those warriors of his, men of action, advance at will destroying the monstrous ways of darkness and creating mighty forms of life and social structure.

Graceful among the old sages, he excels, doing reverence and homage bowing down. Like a virile husband going to meet his wife, he moves and speaks loud and bold among creative women dedicated to pious and holy yajna. Like a man of light and power, he appears in brilliant form. Like an awful lion difficult to overcome, he goes about majestically commanding all with his knowledge and power at the peak.

7. Sa saṁstiro viṣṭiraḥ saṁ grbhāyati jānanneva jānatīrṇitya ā śaye. Punarvardhante api yanti devyamanyad varpaḥ pitroḥ kṛṣṇate sacā.

Covering or expanding, Agni, the brilliant scholar, covers and seizes things and subjects well, intensively as well as extensively, and vitalizes them. Knowing well, he always associates with those who are knowledgeable, and they, in association with him, growing higher and higher, assume a divine form and thus create a personality different from the personality of their birth.

8. Tamagruvaḥ keśinīḥ saṁ hi rebhira ārdhvā斯塔sthatr-mamruṣīḥ prāyave punaḥ. Tāśāṁ jarāṁ pramuṣcanetti nānadadasum param jānayaṁ jīvaṃastṛtam.

The leading lights speak of Agni like flames of fire and sing of him, and if they ever go down weak and enervated, they look up to him for fresh life, and Agni, releasing them from their weakness and enervation and recreating a high order of fresh vitality and new life, helps them stay up on high as before and goes forward roaring and crackling as ever.

अधीवासं परि मातृ रिहाइं तुविगभि: सत्वभिवाति वि जयः। वया दर्षत पद्भूत रथिहुत सदानु श्यनि सचत वृत्तीर्है॥ ९ ॥
9. \( \text{Adhīvāsāṁ pari mātū rihannaḥ tuvigrebhiḥ satvabhīr yāti vi jrayaḥ. Vayo dadhat padvate rerihat sadā’nu śyenī sacate vartanīraha.} \)

Touching and playing with the upper green garments of mother earth, going fast with resounding living beings, bearing foods and health and vitality for the moving multitudes on earth, always following the paths it came by, Agni goes on leaving behind a reddish white trail of its visit.

10. \( \text{Asmākam-agne maghavatsu dīdihyadha śvasīvān vṛṣabho damūnāḥ. Avāsyā śiśumaṭi-raḍīder-varmeva yutsu parijarbhūṇaḥ.} \)

Agni, shine among our great and powerful people, and then, breathing, panting, blowing and bellowing like a bull, overflowing with energy, commanding and restraining, dear to the families but blazing in the battles, protect women, children and the homes like an armour, throw out the enemy and shine and brighten up life all around.

11. \( \text{Idamagne sudhitaṁ durdhitādādhi priyādu cinmanmanāḥ preyo astu te. Yat te śukrāṁ tanvo rocate śuci tenāśmabhyāṁ vanase ratnamā tvam.} \)

Agni, may this mind and song of ours composed with love and dedicated in faith be dearer to you than the dearest song composed with the greatest effort for you, and may the splendour of your person which blazes pure and sacred be auspicious for us by which you bring us precious jewels of life.

12. Rathāya nāvamuta no grhāya nityāritrāṁ padvatīṁ rāsyagne. Aṃśakaṁ vīrāṁ uta no maghono janāṁśca yā pārayāccharma yā ca.

Agni, lord of light, fire and knowledge, for our chariot-car and for our home, give us the power fitted with life-time mechanism for propulsion, steering and measuring the depth of water, a transport which may take our brave heroes, leaders of power and men of wealth, and the people across the rivers and seas and which may provide for peace, protection and a comfortable house.

Abhī no agna ukthamijjuguryā dyāvākṣāmā sindhavaśca svagūrtāḥ. Gavyāṁ yavyāṁ yanto dirghāheśam varamaruṇyo varanta.

Agni, lord of light and knowledge, accept our song and raise our sacred action so that the heaven and earth, the rivers and seas and the dawns, all self-moving, may be favourable to us and give us our choice wealth of cows and plenty of milk, lot of food grains and the best of jewels for long long days to come for a full and vibrant life.
1. Balitthā tad vapuṣe dhāyi darśataṁ devasya bhargah sahaso yato jani. Yadimupa hvarate sādhate matirṛtasya dhenā anayanta sasrutaḥ.

Truly thus, by the grace of Divinity, is radiated and received the wonderful splendour of Agni’s glory, and therein lies the seed, the birth, the very life of the strength and victory of our soul’s existence: therefrom is the light radiated and received for the beauty of our embodied soul so that even if our mind ever deviates from truth, the voices of Law and Truth of Eternity ever resounding, ever flowing with currents of nature’s light, call us back to the right path and, thus beatified, our mind achieves the success we want.

The eternal Agni, which nourishes and matures the body of life with food, lives in the physical body (as vital heat and abides with the earth). The second form of it abides in the seven motherly forms of nature (which are the seven lokas bhuh, bhuvaḥ, svah, maha, janah, tapah and satyam), which empowers seven grades of natural energy, and matures the seven grades of natural life. The third form of this generous divinity which matures and distils the essences of natural life abides in the sun. And the form which energises ten intellectual faculties (five senses of hearing, touch, sigh, taste and smell, mana or mind, buddhi or intellect, chitta or memory and imagination, ahankara or sense of identity consciousness, and the soul, the dynamic spirit), young mothers with love bring into the living world.

Brilliant scholars of commanding eminence from the middle regions of the light of the great sun collect the vitality and convert it into ripening waves for the maturity of grain. Similarly the vision of the yogis collects the spiritual vitality of the honey sweets of heavenly light unto itself in communion and the pranic energy churns the latent spirit in the depths of the soul to join it with the heavenly light.

Pra yat pituḥ paramāṇīyate paryā prkṣudho vīrudho daṁsu rohai. Udbhā yadasya januṣaṁ yadinvata ādid yaviṣṭho abhavad ghrṇā śuciḥ.
The food and nourishment which is collected, received and assimilated from the highest light of heaven and the middle regions wonderfully rises and grows into the hungry herbs and trees and vegetation. And when both nourish the yajamana and his progeny, the person grows most youthful, kind and compassionate, and brilliant and pure.

In the course of evolution, Agni, the vitality of life, which enters the mother forms of nature, now grows, pure, brilliant and unhurt, with the soil of its germination and generation, and then, the one which grew on the earlier one with the earlier forms of life, self-impulsive with the eternal will to live, now lives, vibrates and runs in the latest and most delicate mother forms.
invite this lord of life and yajnic evolution of nature and humanity in their cherished holy projects and offer hospitality and gifts of oblations to it as to the lord of world wealth and power. And then this lord, worshipped and favourable by pious acts and power joins the noble humanity in many many ways to the devas, divine and generous powers of the universe, for sustenance and progress under the divine eye.

When Agni, light and fire of life, conducting the yajna of existence, inspired and impelled by winds, blazing eloquent like a poet singing in praise of his patron undisturbed, rises to a state of stability and omnipresence, then the path of this blazing power going over areas of darkness, pure and immaculate by birth shining everywhere across the wide ways of space is worthy of praise and following by all humanity.

As a chariot created by scientists and driven by expert drivers flies across the sky with the brilliant parts of the machine, so does Agni rise across space with its blazing flames of fire. Lord of life and light, enlighten the ignorant, light the paths of darkness, and strengthen your warriors because, otherwise, at the blaze of fiery violence like the terror of a demonic hero, life flies away.

9. \(Tvayā hyagne varuṇo dhṛtavrato mitraḥ śāsadre aryamā sudānavaḥ. Yat simanu kratunā viśvathā vibhurārānna nemih paribhūrajāyathāḥ.\)

Agni, lord of light, life and power, it is by you that Varuna, the sea as the sky holds on to its law, Mitra, the sun, dispels the darkness, and Aryama, the abundant and dynamic nature and the philanthropic humanity are creative and generous. For the reason of your nature and divine action, you are universal, omnipresent, and omnipotent over all and you manifest as immanent and concurrent just like the rim of a wheel holding the spokes together running and working together.

10. \(Tvamagne śaśamānāya sunvate ratnaṁ yaviṣṭha devatātiminvasi. Tam tvā nu navyam sahaso yuvan vayaṁ bhagaṁ na kāre mahiratna dhīmahi.\)

Agni, ever young beyond age, for the creative man of active piety and worship, you bring the universal wealth of Divinity in meditation. Lord of power and youth, wealth and value of the universe, eternal and ever new, such as you are, in every act of our life we worship you as the lord and master of the power and glory of the universe.

Bountifully you create and augment for us the wealth of life good enough for success and value with honour and discipline of mind and character. Give us the expert as well as the man of wealth and power to stabilize and maintain the balance of power and discipline, law and freedom, individual and society. Lord controller of both our life here and hereafter like the rays of light, you who hold the reins of our thought and action like the reins of a chariot, lord and master of all noble acts of yajna, pray come and accept the homage of worship of the dedicated people.

And Agni, lord of divine light, faster than light and omnipresent, generous giver and performer of universal yajna, blissful master of the golden chariot of existence may, we pray, listen to our song of celebration. May the lord omnipotent, inviolable, ever loving and lovable, lead us well to the good life and good fortune by the most virtuous thoughts and actions of faith and piety.

Thus is Agni, wielding power and splendour for world governance, praised with songs of success and thankfulness. And thus the yajakas and we, celebrants all blest with wealth and power by the Lord’s grace, raise our songs of adoration to the skies loud and bold as thunder of the clouds under power of the sun.

Mandala 1/Sukta 142

Agni and others Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

1. Samiddho agna ā vaha devān adya yatasruce. Tantuṁ tanuṣva pūrvyam sutasomāya dāśuṣe.
raised the ladle to offer the oblation. Expand and continue the ancient line of yajnic action and progeny for the generous yajamana who has distilled the soma for the sages and for you.

\[1. \text{Astævyagnimimrjyaprataram dadhuna. Ama ca ye maghavno vaya ca miha na sµuro ati ni¦¢atanyu.}\]

Thus is Agni, wielding power and splendour for world governance, praised with songs of success andthankfulness. And thus the yajakas and we, celebrants all blest with wealth and power by the Lord’s grace, raise our songs of adoration to the skies loud and bold as thunder of the clouds under power of the sun.

\[2. \text{Ghṛtavantamupamāsi madhumantaratinānunapāt. Yajñarīṇī viprasya māvataḥ śaśamānasya dāśuṣaḥ.}\]

Agni, light and spirit of yajna, protector and preserver of the body, you are the measure of yajna and with your presence bless the ghṛta-sprinkled honey-sweet fragrant yajna of the adoring generous sagely yajamana faithful like me.

\[3. \text{Śucih pāvakado abdhuto madhvā yajñam mimikṣati. Narāśamsastrirā divo devo devesu yajñiyah.}\]

Agni, pure and purifier, wonderful of nature, character and action, is keen to sprinkle yajna thrice with honey-sweets of fragrance from the light of heaven. Adorable is he among men, brilliant and generous among the nobilities of humanity, worthy of company and honour at yajnas.

\[4. \text{Iīito agna ā vahendram citramiha priyam. Iyam hi tvā matirmamācchā sujihva vacyate.}\]

Agni, leading light of life and the world, praised and prayed at yajna, bring us here and now Indra, wondrous, versatile and dear lord of honour and power, and bless us with wealth and prosperity. Lord of blissful voice and word, thus does my mind and understanding speak well of you and to you in adoration and prayer.

The organisers of great yajnas of love and non-violence collect the holy grass, spread it on the vedi and hold the ladle in hand for the oblation in yajna in honour of Indra for the sake of power, wealth and knowledge. And they build the largest home for the scholars of divinity and, through yajna, divest themselves of misery and poverty.

In order to rise to the brilliance of the sages and towards the heights of divinity, take recource to the veteran pioneers of Truth, pure purifiers of the spirit, and the great and distinctive voices of the sages universally loved and wanted, and join their paths of action like entering the doors of Divinity.

7.  Ā bhurddmān naµpāk nākāśāsam supārśāsam yuhī śrūtāya mañjara सीदतां बहिरा सुमत
Bright and blissful cyclic sisters, night and day, both beautiful, moving majestic, mothers of love and faith in Truth Divine may, we pray, come and grace our great house rejoicing, and bless our yajna with dignity and devotion.

May the divine poets and visionaries, holy yajakas, soft and sweet of sacred speech and eloquence, come and join us today in this auspicious yajna of ours, the fragrance of which, with their chant, rises to the heavens.

Bright and pure, delivered and entrusted to the divine visionaries and dynamic Maruts, vibrations of universal mind and brilliant teachers, holy media of communication between the divine and human, Bharati, mother speech of the nation for sustenance, Ila, divine articulation of Omniscience, Sarasvati, everflowing Word of the Veda, and Mahi, mother spirit of the earth, all these, we pray, may grace our house of yajna for honour and adoration and for mutual discourse.

That wealth of life, knowledge, power and honour, ever flowing, all protective and self-preserving, which is the universal choice and conscientious love of all, may Tvashta, creator of life forms and human institutions, the very centre-hold of our life and society, lord our own, create for our sustenance, prosperity and progress.

11. Avasṛjannupa tmanā devān yakṣi vanaspate. Agnirhavyā suṣūdati devo deveṣu medhiraḥ.

Vanaspati, lord of light and sunbeams, with your heart and soul you join the devas, seekers of light and knowledge of divinity, giving them the enlightenment they love and desire, just as Agni, brilliant light and life of the universe, refulgent among the lights of nature and humanity, receives and refines the materials consumed and recreated in the yajnic evolution of nature and humanity.

Homage of honour and adoration to the lord of nourishment, sustenance and advancement of life, to the lord of energy and movement onward, to the lord of the universe and ideal of humanity, and to Vayu, lord of the breath of life and spirit adorable. Do homage with offer of food and service to the saviour lord beatific of blessed form and to Indra, lord of honour, power and knowledge.

13. Svāhākṛtānyā gahyupa havyāni vītaye.
     Indrā gahi śrūdhī havam tvām havante adhvare.
```

Indra, lord of light and life, knowledge, power and honour, come close to our yajna and receive our homage of worship and prayer, gifts and service in yajna for the sake of protection and well-being. Come lord, listen to the prayers and presentations made in faith. All the devotees invoke, invite and honour you in the yajna of love and non-violence and in their conduct and behaviour.

Mandala 1/Sukta 143

Agni Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

```
1. Pra tavyasīṁ navyasīṁ dhītimagnaye vāco matiṁ sahasāḥ sūnave bhare. Apāṁ napād yo vasubhiḥ saha priyo hotā pṛthivyāṁ nyasāḍadṛtvīyaḥ.
I bear and offer the highest, latest, joyously celebrative and most sacred worshipful homage in words of adoration to Agni, created of might, who is the grand child of waters of the skies, dearest favourite with the Vasu order of scholars, receiver and performer in yajna corresponding to the seasons and abiding with the earth.

That refulgent Agni born of the highest cosmic space manifested itself in energy currents in the middle region of space in the skies. It is by the action and force of this blazing power that the heaven is lit bright and the earth shines on in beauty.

The beams and brilliance of this holy light, clear and discerning of sight, beautiful of form and blazing with awe, are unaging, beyond decay. The waves of this mighty power of light flowing like rivers in flood are ever youthful, ever wakeful, they ever shine and dispel darkness as the dawn dispels the night.
That Agni whom the Bhrgus, men of vision and knowledge, invoke and realise on the floor of the earth, in the centre of the world and in the depth of their consciousness with the power of their knowledge, spirit and prana, that omniscient Agni, light of the world, with your words of prayer, invoke and realise in your own heart and home, yes, Him who alone by Himself is lord of the wealth of the universe and shines over all as Varuna, supreme ruler.

Agni is a mighty power which, like the roar of winds, like an awful force launched upon the enemy, is irresistible just like the thunderbolt of lightning in the sky. With its dreadful jaws, or crushing weapons, sharp and destructive, it eats up and destroys as a mighty warrior destroys the enemies, or as the conflagration burns up and reduces the forests to ash.

May Agni, lord of light and power, expand and heighten our song of praise and celebration. May the brilliant power, great and beneficent, accord, approve and accomplish our desire and ambition with comforts and well-being in life. Great inspirer is Agni. May the power sharpen and activate our mind and intellect to create new things with acquisition of success and victories. With the same mind and intellect we praise and celebrate the grandeur of Agni, mighty, versatile, brilliant, blazing and pure of form and action.

7. Ghṛtapraṅkaṁ va rṛtasya dhūrṣadamagnīṁ mitraṁ na samidhāna ṛṇjate. Indhāno akro vidatheṣu didyacchukravarnāmudūḥ na yamsate dhiyam। ॥ ७ ॥

The scholar of brilliance and intelligence researches and develops agni for you, agni, a power rising with flames of ghrta, firmly active like a friend of light and truth, sitting and working for humanity against the forces of falsehood, darkness and lawlessness. Blazing unresisted, it shines in the yajnic projects of development, and inspires and sharpens our pure and transparent intelligence.

\textit{nah pāyubhiḥ pāhi śagmaiḥ. Adabdhebhir-} \\
\textit{adṛpitebhir-iṣṭe’nimisadbhiḥ pari pāhi no jāḥ.}

Agni, holy power, brilliant and blazing, ever wakeful, active and working relentlessly, protect us with good, protective and preservative, and blissful modes of life, by noble, protective and blissful people. Power dear, creator and giver of joy and comfort, protect, promote and advance us all round by sober, irresistible and intrepidable modes and people ever watchful and working without a wink of sleep.

\textbf{Mandala 1/Sukta 144}

\textit{Agni Devata, Dirghatama Auchathyā Rshi}

\textbf{1.} \textit{Eti pra hota vratamasya māyayordhvāṁ dadhā-} \\
\textit{nah śucipeśasāṁ dhiyam. Abhi srucāḥ kramate} \\
\textit{dakṣīṇāvrto yā asya dhāma prathamaṁ ha nimsate.}

The yajaka who holds his clear and brilliant intelligence high with his will and power goes by the law and discipline of this Agni, light of the Divine power of the world. He moves forward to hold the sacred ladles dedicated to the service of yajna-fire and right circumambulation of the vedi, ladles which first and directly reach and take the yajamana to the sacred abode of Agni, light Divine.

\begin{quote}

\textit{sadane parīvṛtāḥ. Apāmupasthe vibhrīto yadāva-sadadha svadhā adhayad yābhirīyate.}

Waves of fragrance, streams of nectar, dynamics of Truth and divine Law, returning, abiding, enveloped in light, going round Agni in the seat and home of the lord, the sun, do sing in adoration of the Divine. They nestle in the womb of the divine mother of waters, creativity of cosmic energy there held by the mother, and then the streams of nectar are distilled and rain down again in showers for the life of the earth and her children, joining, again with agni, electric energy.

\begin{quote}

3. \textit{Yuyūṣataḥ savayasā tadid vapuḥ samānamartham vitaritratā mithaḥ. Ādīm bhago na havyaḥ samasmadā volhurna raśmīn tsamayaṁsta sārathih.}

When two persons of equal age and equal mind wishing to cross over a common problem and achieve a common end, join together in body for mutual love and support, they accept, hold on and support each other as beauty and majesty and accept a tribute of love as fire accepts an oblation of yajna from us, or as a charioteer accepts and holds the reins of the horses.

Yamīṁ dvā savayāsā saparyataḥ samāne yonā mithunā samokasā. Divā na naktaṁ palito yuvā-jani purū carannajaro mānuṣā yugā.

When two persons of equal age, the wedded couple, living together, the two as one in the same one body, in the same one house, serve and worship the same Agni in love day and night, then the same old eternal Agni, ever vibrating in the human soul as the will to live and generate, unaging, for ages and ages, is reborn as new and young as ever in the human form.

Tamīṁ hinvantī dhītaya daśa vriṣo devaṁ mar-tāsa ūtaye havāmahe. Dhanoradhi pravata ā sa ṛṇvatyabhivrajadbhirvayunā navādhita.

All the human potentials such as thoughts, ideas, reflection, wisdom, will and understanding, intention, devotion, prayer and meditation, all ten senses of perception and volition, the five main pranic energies and five sub-pranas, though separate, yet jointly, invoke, enlight and serve the same one Agni as the ten fingers, though separate, yet jointly, nurse the same one baby with love and care. We all mortals serve, adore and worship the same eternal light of life, Agni. It moves ever so fast and hits its targets as an arrow shot from the bow, and ever new born and growing, young and youthful, it receives new knowledge from the sages on the move. Homage to the Lord for protection, promotion, peace and well-being!

6. Tvaṁ hyagne divyasya rājasi tvam̐ pārthivasya paśupā iva tmanā. Enī ta ete bhṛhaṁ abhiśriyā hiranyayā vakvarī barhirāśāte.

   Agni, light supreme and power, you light and rule the heavens. You enliven and rule the earth and the earthly like a master shepherd with love and care. And both of them, heaven and earth, move on, mighty, grand and graceful, golden rich and beautiful, rotating and revolving in their orbits, rushing on and participating in the cosmic yajna.

7. Agni juṣasva prati harya tad vaco mandra svadhāva ṛtajāta sukrato. Yo viśvataḥ pratyayāṇasi darśato raṇvah saṁdrṣṭau pitumāṇ iva kṣayaḥ.

   Agni, be pleased, listen to our words of praise and prayer and respond, charming lord of light possessed of innate power, born of cosmic energy for the law and truth of existence, master of yajnic action, universally kind and favourable as you are, celestial beautiful to the sight, joyous and brilliant of word, and a haven of peace and comfort like a generous man of hospitality for all.

Mandala 1/Sukta 145

Agni Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

1. Tamā prcchātā sa jagāmā sa veda sa cikitvān iyate sā nvīyate. Tasmin tsanti praśiṣastasminn-īṣṭayaḥ sa vājasya śavasaḥ śuśmināspatiḥ.

Agni is the lord of light, knowledge and power: of him they ask the questions, he goes all round, he knows, he has the wisdom and awareness and the knowledge of sciences, he reaches, yes, reaches anywhere he wants. In him lies the power of governance and law, in him lies the potential for all you want, and he is the master, ruler and commander of energy, strength and valour, and of the fiery forces of his dominion.

2. Tamit prcchanti na simo vi prcchati sveneva dhīro manasā yadagraḥhit. Na mṛṣyate prathamam nāparam vaco’sya kratvā sacate apradṛpitaḥ.

Agni is the lord of knowledge and selfrealisation: of him the learned ask the questions where they miss the light, not all, everybody doesn’t ask him. Lord of peace and stability of mind as he is, whatever he realises or understands with his own mind is not subject to doubt either before or later. Everybody goes by the words and holy actions of this power of undaunted spirit and undisturbed mind free from arrogance.

3. Tamid gachanti juhvastamarvatīrviśvānyekāḥ srṇavad vacāmsī me. Purupraśastaturiryajñā-sādhano’cchidrotiḥ śiśurādatta sam rabhāḥ.

Just as ladles of ghrta reach agni, fire of yajna, so do youth of noble speech and blessed intelligence reach Agni, lord of brilliance and exalted soul, bearing questions and homage. May the lord, sole master of knowledge, unique and unparalleleled, listen to my prayers and questions too, lord inspirer of many, instant saviour of the seekers, master of yajnic accomplishments, giver of faultless protection, dispeller of doubts and darkness, all-great and loving, gracefully receiving and acknowledging questions as well as the homage of yajna.

4. Upasthāyaṁ carati yat samārata sadyo jāta-statsāra yujyebhīḥ. Abhi śvāntam mṛśate nāndye mude yadīṁ gacchantyuśaṭirapiṣṭhitam.
When the devotee approaches this brilliant Agni with holy offerings, it instantly responds, rises, grows and expands with its flames. When the maidens with love and faith approach it, it provides soothing touches of caress and reflection for their peace and joy in a state of tranquillity.

MANDALA 1 / SUKTA 146

Agni Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

1. Trimūrdhānam saaptarasāṁm grñiše’nūnamagnim pitrorupasthe. Niṣattamasya carato dhruvasya viśvā divo rocanāpaprīṁsam.
Invoke and celebrate Agni, three-headed, seven-rayed, perfect, nestled in the lap of its parents, which pervades and fills the lights of this moving but stable heavenly solar system of the universe.

(Agni is the life-energy of light and heat, born of akasha and vayu, cosmic space and cosmic energy; it abides on top of the three regions, earth, middle region of the skies, and the high and heavenly regions of the sun. It also abides in the three modes of nature, Prakrti: sattva, rajas and tamas. It is an integration, or call it the seed, of the seven rays of light-spectrum, and it energises all the moving but stable solar systems of the universe.

Agni also is the vital spirit of the articulation of cosmic awareness in language form in the Veda, which is learnt from the opening word of the Rgveda. It abides on top of the three tenses and three persons of the verbs of the linguistic structure and in the seven vibhaktis, case endings, and sung in the seven metrical forms and seven notes of music.

Agni thus is the divine attribute of the spirit at the individual as well as the cosmic level, and energises, inspires and illuminates the physical, mental and spiritual worlds in the spheres of matter, motion and mind.)

उ ग महाः अभि चव । एन अजरस्तस्थावितः अविभ्रष्टः ।
उव्वः प्रदा नि देधाति सानांदिरिहन्त्यूथा अरु रासा अस्य ॥ २ ॥

2. Ukṣā mahāṁ abhi vavakṣa eme ajarastasthā-vitaūtirṛṣvah. Urvyāḥ pado ni dadhāti sānau rihantyūdho aruṣāso asya.
The mighty sun, far greater than the earth and other planets, generously radiating floods of light and waves of gravitational energy, holds the earth and skies. Ever young and awfully moving, it is stable, providing protection and stability to its family. On top, it maintains its degree and distance from the earth while its light rays touch and drink up the reservoirs of water.

Two cows, the earth and the sun, beautiful and co-existent, tending the same calf, the day-night cycle, equally well, traversing their orbits without deviating, go round and round, sustaining and revealing the great banners of the identity of various objects in space.

Poets and scholars, wise and meditative, protecting and guiding people with their heart in many ways, lead them to positions of undecaying value. Keen to share the joy and generosity of life wide as the sea, they look round and the sun reveals itself to them.

Agni, power of light and knowledge in life, so brilliant as to be admirable by the brilliant victorious all round in all directions, worthy of praise and reverence, life-giving to the small as well as to the great, abundantly creative and promotive to all these people and projects in the making, is the lord of wealth and power and universally admired and honourable.

Mandala 1/Sukta 147

Agni Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

Kathā te agne śucayanta āyordadāśurvājebhirāśuṣāṇāḥ. Ubhe yat toke tanaye dadhānā ṛtasya sāman raṇayanta devāḥ.

Agni, lord of light and life, how do your flames of fire, and brilliant scholars, blazing and purifying, givers of life with food, energy and knowledge to both children and grand children, and bearing food both for body and mind, rejoice and participate in the songs of Veda and the yajna of Truth, Law and divine knowledge?
2. Bodhā me asya vacaso yaviṣṭha maṅghiṣṭhasya prabhṛtasya svadhāvah. Piyati tvo anu tvo grṇāti vandāruste tanvaṁ vande agne.

Agni, lord of light, master of your own power of knowledge, youngest of the lights, listen to me, I pray, and know my word, highest and most powerful of mine ever borne: One drinks at the fount of your knowledge, and the other repeats your words according as you have directed. I am your admirer and worshipper. I bow to your body, mind and soul.

Agni, lord of light, power and knowledge, the flames of your fire, brilliant teachers and warriors, are the guardians of humanity, seers and visionaries of the present and future generations, who guard the blind and the ignorant against evil and crime. O lord and master of world knowledge, protect all those who do good work so that even the deadly enemies of society may not be able to terrorize anyone.

4. Yo no agne ararivāṁ aghāyurarātīvā marcyayati dvayena. Mantro guruḥ punarastu so asmā anu mṛkṣiṣṭa tanvaṁ duruktaiḥ.
Agni, whoever be envious, sinful and non-giving and try to mislead us with evil words and double dealing in action, may the Agni mantra be our right guide and save us, and may the evil speaker and doer stew himself in his own juice and destroy himself with those very evil words.

उत्त वा यः संहस्य पवित्रान्म भाजत मर्ताण भूष्मिति द्वैयन | अतः पाहि स्तवमान स्तुवन्तपूर्व मानकिना दुरितायं धायी | ॥ ५ ॥

O Agni, eminent power of knowledge, child of courage and valour celebrated by many, whoever be the man of advanced knowledge who enthralls men by way of right teaching and preaching, protect and promote him who praises you and teaches us. Let us never be seized by any evil or sinful person.

Mandala 1/Sukta 148

Agni Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

मथीदयिन विष्ठा मातृरिशव हातारं विश्वासुं विश्वदैवयम |
नि यं दधुर्मनुष्यासु वि स्वां चित्रं वर्णे विश्वार्थम | ॥ १ ॥

Let us study and develop this Agni, light and fire energy, which Matarishva, wind and electric energy, pervading the skies energises, and which the scholars adopt in human communities like the wonderful sun for enhancement of the beauty of form and health of body — Agni which exists in all forms of the universe, which gives the universe its cosmic form and which receives, consumes and recreates everything that is offered to it since it is the catalytic agent of the cosmic yajna.

2. Dadānaminna dadabhanta manmāgnir-varūthaṁ mama tasya cākan. Juṣanta viśvān-yasya karmopastutim bharamāṇasya kāroḥ.

Enemies cannot injure or violate Agni, fire power and the learned scientist, because it is the giver and it loves and desires the supreme good of me and everybody. All people love and esteem the celebration of the scientific and artistic versatility of this power and benefit from all the arts and crafts of the artist of this generous source of energy and beauty.

3. Nitye cinnu yaṁ sadane jagṛbhre praśastibhir-dadhire yajñiyāsāḥ. Pra sū nayanta grbhayanta iṣṭaṁvaśaṇa na rathyo rārahānāḥ.

Let the high-priests of yajna (in the field of science and meditation) take up Agni, fire energy, in the laboratory, workshop, the eternal space and the cave of the mind, develop it with laudable means for advancement, and harness it for desired purposes, going forward as by chariot drawn by trained horses.
4. Purūṇi dasmo ni riṇāti jambhairād rocate vana ā vibhāvā. Ādasya vāto anu vāti śocirasturna śaryāmasanāmanu dyūn.

Agni, mighty power of light and fire, catalyses, destroys and creates many and, blazing in the light rays, shines in majesty. And then shining and blazing like a shooting star of the eternal archer, it releases stormy currents of energy every day, every minute, every moment.

Existing as it is in the womb of Eternity, no enemies, no designers of evil, no destroyers, no attacks, can damage it. The blind and the ignorant hurt it not, they cannot suppress it. Those who know, those who love, value and cooperate, permanently protect and promote it.

Mandala 1/Sukta 149

Agni Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

Agni! Mighty is he, lord and protector of wealth. Ruler of rulers, abundant and gracious giver of wealth, he comes to us to give us of his gifts. And when he comes near, mountains quake in fear and clouds shower in rain with reverence.

Sa yo vrṣā narāṁ na rodasyoh śravobhirasti jīvapītasargah. Pra yah sasrāṇah śiśrīta yonau.

Abundant and generous is he like the clouds of rain, who, in the midst of heaven and earth as amidst humanity, has drunk deep of the joy of creation, and, dynamically pervading the universe with his majesty, who abides at the centre of the form and identity of existence.

Ā yah puram nārminīmadīdatedatyah kavirnavabhanyo nārvā. Sūro na rurukvāṁchatātmā.

Agni, who has illuminated the celestial city of this imperishable soul, who is fast as the winds of space and faster than sunbeams, is the visionary creator of the worlds of eternity, blazing as the very soul of a thousand suns.

Abhi dvijanmā trī rocanāni viśvā rajāmsi śuśucāno asthāt. Hotā yajiṣṭho apāṁ sadhasthe.
Twice born and born of two, akasha and vayu, manifesting in universal nature and in every distinct form of nature, illuminating three lights, fire of the earth, lightning of the skies and lights of heaven, vitalising all the worlds of the universe, Agni abides all round everywhere. Worthiest universal yajaka, holding the worlds unto itself, it abides coexistent with the universal liquid energy of the cosmos.

5. Ayam sa hota yo dvijanmā viśvāvā dūth vāyāṇi śravasya. Marto yo asmai sutuko dadāṣa.

Such is this Agni, creative lord of cosmic yajna, wielder of the worlds, born of two and twice born, who holds the choicest foods, energies and honours of the universe. And the man who, self-sacrificing, twice born of natural mother and mother Sarasvati, blest with the richest gifts of food, energy and honour, with a noble family gives in homage and surrender to this Agni, he is the real man.

Mandala 1/Sukta 150

Agni Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

1. Puru tvā dāśvān voce ’riragne tava svidā. Todasyeva śaraṇa ā mahasya.

Faithful and dedicated, giving in homage, I sing profusely in honour and celebration of you, and come in to you for shelter and protection, Agni, lord of light as the sun, great and glorious.

Vyaninasya dhaninah praohoṣe cidararuṣah. Kadā cana prajigato adevayoh.

And I would not care to join the company of the admirer of the rich not dedicated to the divinities and to the lord of light, Agni, even though he be otherwise non-violent.

Sa candro vipra martyo maho vrādhantamo divi. Prapet te agne vanuṣaḥ syāma.

O lord of light and generosity, Agni, surely that mortal is blest and brilliant like the moon in the heavens, great and greater, ever rising most high, who is worshipful and gives in charity with thanks and divine admiration. May we, we pray, be dedicated to you, singing songs of devotion in admiration of the Divine.
Agni is dear as a friend and adorable (since it is the vigour and vitality of life in the human personality, in the animal world and in the earth and the environment). Let the people dedicated to the welfare and protection of humanity, who love the wealth of cows and milk products, who want to preserve the earth and the environment, and who value the vitality of their sense and mind, light and develop Agni, as a dear adorable friend, with noble acts in yajna and corporate action to inspire vitality in the cows, in the pranic energies, in the mind and senses, and in the earth and environment. And then the heaven and earth would vibrate with life and joy by virtue of their holy voice and the power of their songs of adoration. (Let the voice resound on earth and songs rise to heaven).

O Mitra and Varuna, generous heaven and earth and the skies, listen to the voice of adoration which people of intelligence and innate virtue bear and offer as friends to you. Know the yajnic act of the blessed yajamana of prosperity holding rich libations of soma for the holy fire. Clear the path of progress for the worshipper and listen to the songs of the master of a happy home.
Agni is dear as a friend and adorable (since it is the vigour and vitality of life in the human personality, in the animal world and in the earth and the environment). Let the people dedicated to the welfare and protection of humanity, who love the wealth of cows and milk products, who want to preserve the earth and the environment, and who value the vitality of their sense and mind, light and develop Agni, as a dear adorable friend, with noble acts in yajna and corporate action to inspire vitality in the cows, in the pranic energies, in the mind and senses, and in the earth and environment. And then the heaven and earth would vibrate with life and joy by virtue of their holy voice and the power of their songs of adoration. (Let the voice resound on earth and songs rise to heaven).

Generous Mitra and Varuna, sun and cosmic waters, fire and sun, people living on earth admire your celebrated rise from heaven through the skies for the sake of spiritual greatness of honour and smartness of perfect performance, since on their invocation with holy action you reach their yajna of love and holiness of non-violence and bear all round fruits of yajna for the man of science and speed and for the man of truth and cosmic Law.

O Mitra and Varuna, lords of the universal truth of being and action, wielders of the pranic energies dear as life, to the great earth which is so dear to you and to the people, proclaim the great and universal truth of life: Bring from the vast heaven of light, both of you, the mighty strength of being and the conviction of will and action, yoke the two like the driving force of a chariot, (like the ruler and the people of the world state), and join the march of life.

Mitra and Varuna, you come like sun and shower to the great earth here and bring choice gifts. Pure cows unsullied by dust, fertile and generous they are, come home lowing for their calves like the dawns returning with homage to the sun in the vault of heaven, or like the birds on the flight back to the nest.

Mitra and Varuna, powers of love and justice of society, where the lights of knowledge and the flames of yajnic fire in action serve and augment you for the advancement of truth and rule of law, there your powers of love and friendship and your power of justice serve, protect and enrich the earth and the character and conduct of her children. O light and shower of life, love and justice, with your heart and soul, create, protect and strengthen the native intelligence and refine and raise the knowledge and wisdom of the noble saints and scholars.

Mitra and Varuna, teachers, masters and eminent scholars inspired with love friendship and justice, whoever does honour and reverence to you and gives in charity and homage to divinity by yajnas, good reading, prayer, and noble company, whoever attends on you with reverence for service, the worshipful man who has mastered his subject or the poet of vision and imagination or the generous yajaka, or the man of knowledge for whom science and honest industry alone is the key to success, you go to him, I pray, meet him at his yajna of love, reverence and non-violence, and bless him with holy words, noble wisdom and discrimination.

Mitra and Varuna, first and foremost lords of truth and rectitude, whoever approach you with respect and honour you with yajnas and noble words as the first choice of their heart and soul, and offer you tributes of love and reverence with controlled words of honesty and sincerity, you bless them with the wealth of knowledge and honour with a mind and spirit free from the pride of learning.

Mitra and Varuna, eternal lord of love and spirit of justice and rectitude, you bear and bring the wealth of health and age of the natural world. Immanent spirits of divinity in the world, leaders of humanity, with your innate powers of protection here on earth, you bring us immense wealth and honour of life. The lights of the day to-day or tomorrow reach not the immensity of that grandeur. The rolling seas swell not to the heights of that immensity. The human voices fail to touch the fringe of that power and that glory.

Mandala 1/Sukta 152

Mitra-Varuna Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

यूवं वस्त्राणि पीवसा वेसाथ युवारच्छिद्दा मन्तवा हु सर्गः।
अवातिरतमन्त्रानि विश्व त्रक्ततन्मित्रावरुणा सचथः॥ १ ॥

1. Yuvaåm vastråñi påvåså vasåthe yuvoracchidrå mantavo ha sargåå. Avåtiratamanåñåni viåva årtena mitråvarunå sacethe.

Mitra and Varuna, like day and night, with your expansion over the world you reveal and cover the forms of things in existence and your revelations of the things are faultless. You rule out and overcome illusions and unrealities since you associate with what is real and true.

   This much, may be, one of these wise ones may know, one who knows the truth, thinks aright, and is recognised and praised by scholars of distinction as a man of vision and discrimination. The brilliant scholar of the four Veda masters the three dimensions of knowledge: pure knowledge of Rks, applied knowledge of Yajus, and the meditative knowledge of sweet Samans, and, being the prime force and power of wisdom ever true, never out of date, defeats those who deny and dishonour the divinities of existence and eminence of knowledge.

   Just as the dawn arises and radiates over the earth before moving humanity rises and goes out on business, so does the Original Knowledge of Revelation... radiate whole before it is analysed into distinctive branches. Which of your scholars, O Mitra and Varuna, powers of vision and wisdom, knows that? Probably the man-treasure of knowledge bears the burden of it, maintains it and feeds it with detailed application and overcomes illusion and confusion.

4. Prayantamit pari jāram kanīṇām paśyāmasi noppaṇipadyamānam. Anavapṛṇā vitatā vasānāṁ priyāṁ mitrasya varuṇasya dhāma.

Just as we see the sun, lover of the maidenly dawns, gather up the lights and moving on, never resting, so do we see the scholar, treasure-home of knowledge, lover of rising generations, moving on in his pursuit of knowledge, never resting and rusting, but expanding far and wide the light of knowledge, wherein lies the favourite love of Lord Supreme, lord of light as well as of the bottomless deep of annihilation.

5. Anaśvo jāto anabhīṣuravā kanikradat patayadūrdhvasānuḥ. Acittāṁ brahma jjuṣuryuvānaḥ pra mitre dhāma varuṇe gṛṇantaḥ.

The sun is arisen, up on the heights of heaven, rushing on, roaring, no horse, no reins. Bright young generations pay homage, singing hymns of Infinity, admiring the treasure love of the Lord for the sake of Mitra and Varuna, love, light and justice of existence.
6.

Just as cows feed their calves on milk from their udders, just as protective mothers breast-feed their darling child of love and promote him in his favourite studies of Divinity, so should the scholar of the ways and laws of the world ask for food and maintenance and, serving and shining, advance the study and knowledge of nature and eternity.

7. O Mitra and Varuna, brilliant and generous lords of love and justice, I pray, I may, with your protection, choose to worship you with the homage of love, dedication and sacrifice. Bless our songs of adoration among our people with wealth and honour of success and may our projects of action be holy and powerful, taking us across the high seas of life. Let our showers be showers of divinity and redemption.

Mandala 1/Sukta 153

Mitra-Varuna Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

Mitra and Varuna, great, loving, rejoicing, friends of humanity, lords of love and justice, resplendent with flames of ghrta, we love, honour and worship you with salutations, service and oblations of high grades of ghrta, and the devotees, dedicated and worshipful, bring holy offerings with sincere prayers like high-priests of yajna for you and for us.

Mitra, lord of love, and Varuna, lord of justice, I come to you as to my home and haven of peace, comfort and grace, having abandoned the storms of disturbance and temptation. My concentration is complete and my song of praise is divine. Lords of generosity, brave is the yajaka, come to join you in congregations of prayer and action, doing honour and homage to you, waiting for grace and comfort of well-being.

Mitra and Varuna, whoever the yajaka giving oblations in the yajna of love and charity to you like a noble human being, who invokes you and prays for help in his tasks of life, thanking you and serving you in gratitude, Mother Nature like a generous cow gives infinite blessings to that man of truth and sacrifice.

Mitra and Varuna, friends, teachers and leaders of humanity, may the cows and the holy voices, consecrated holy waters and food and the juice of soma among the happy people surfeit you with delight. And may the ancient master of our yajna of education, governance and production giving us the fruits of holiness sustain the yajna, and may you too continue to enjoy the fruits of that yajna and drink the milk of the cow as well as the lights of dawn.

Mandala 1/Sukta 154

Vishnu Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

Let me well recite the grand acts of Vishnu, lord immanent, all pervasive, of the universe, who creates all worlds of the universe, who sustains the high regions of light in upper space and, having created, maintains it three ways, i.e., as a system, as part of the cosmic system, and in relation to the other systems, the lord who is sung and celebrated everywhere.

That Vishnu who is sung and celebrated by virtue of his might, is the lord who pervades the universe everywhere just as the awful lion, lord of the mountain cave, majestically moves around over the tortuous paths of the forest. In the vast three-fold acts of his mighty creation, i.e., the acts of projection, sustenance and withdrawal, reside the entire worlds of existence.

May this powerful song of celebration reach Vishnu, celebrated lord, great and generous, who holds in balance the heights of the universe of space and time and creates it just in three steps of sattva, rajas and tamas, i.e., mind, motion and matter, or the three regions of earth, sky and the heaven of light.
4. Yasya tri pūrṇā madhunāpadānyakṣiyamānā svadhayā madanti. Ya u tridhātu prthivīmuta dyāme ko dādāra bhuvanāni viśvā.

The threefold worlds of his, earth, heaven and the middle regions, full and perfect in their own ways and character, honey sweet and undecaying, rejoice in the lord’s presence with their inmates by their innate power of sustenance. He, the sole lord, by himself, holds the entire worlds of existence including heaven and earth created of the three modes of Prakṛti, sattva, rajas and tamas.

May I rise to and follow that cherished path of lord Vishnu and reach that state of being wherein the noble people dedicated to Divinity live and rejoice in bliss. This lord of divine power and action is friend of the industrious men of relentless action, and there in his supreme presence flows the stream of divine love and bliss.

Men of dedication, yogis, teachers and preachers, scholars and scientists, wedded couples, for your rest and abiding residence where you should go and rest, we want those places where the sharp and penetrative rays of the divine sun should reach for enlightenment. Here only is the place, and we want your abode here, where the supreme abode of the generous and the omnipotent Vishnu shines with abundant light and bliss.

Mandala 1/Sukta 155

Vishnu Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

प वः पान्तमन्धसा धियायते महेः शूरायु विष्णव चाचत।
या सानुनि पव्वतानामदाध्या महस्तस्थतुरवतव साधुनां॥ १ ॥

Of your delicious food and soma drink, offer in homage to the great and mighty Vishnu, lord of intelligence, and to Indra, bold and mighty lord of energy and power. Both stand on top of mountains and clouds and on top of heaven, firm and inviolable high, as the mountaineer stands firm on top of a mountain peak by the best and strongest equipment.

(According to Swami Dayanand, the mantra may be applied to the teachers and scholars of a nation who reach on top of learning and knowledge by arduous Men of dedication, yogis, teachers and preachers, scholars and scientists, wedded couples, for your rest and abiding residence where you should go and rest, we want those places where the sharp and penetrative rays of the divine sun should reach for enlightenment. Here only is the place, and we want your abode here, where the supreme abode of the generous and the omnipotent Vishnu shines with abundant light and bliss.

Indra, lord of power such as lightning, and Vishnu, lord of light such as the sun, extend and expand the range and potential of the mighty shooting archer’s missile-fitted defence of humanity. And thus does the man of yajna, protecting, promoting and drinking the soma-joy of the nation, extend and expand the blaze of the battle of the mighty defender of the nation and thus does he glorify you both, Indra and Vishnu.

Those oblations of yajna food and distilled soma augment the great creative power of this Vishnu, spirit of the universe, for procreative virility and divine enjoyment of the world of existence. He vests it in the mother powers of nature, i.e., heaven and earth. Then the off-spring bears the name of the father, the one that is the ultimate, as the child of Divinity, and the other that is the worldly name of his family. The third the Lord bears over and above the light of heaven.

That procreative virility of this lord Vishnu at every step of it, we celebrate in songs of joy, that creativity of the lord saviour and protector, generous and not rapacious who takes away nothing for himself, creator supreme and lord of cosmic fertility, who completes the creation of the natural universe in three steps of sattva, rajas and tamas — thought, energy and matter — for the delightful life of the soul, and then transcends the work of his own creation.

5. Dve idasya kramaṇe svardṛśo’bhikhyāya martyo bhuraṇyati. Tr̥ṭīyamasya nakīra dadharṣati vayaścana patayantaḥ patatriṇaḥ.

To know the grandeur of the lord seer of light and bliss across two steps of his creation, earth and the heavens of light, the human soul stirs in mind and intelligence. The third step no one can, or ought to, violate, overcome or ignore, not even people of the highest imagination, like birds of the strongest wings, can do so.

Inspiring, moving, measuring four and ninety names of the passage of chronological time, circulating in the cosmic circle of eternal time, rotating, revolving, eternally recurring, the mighty cosmic bodied Vishnu, ever young, never a teenager, moves the universe, himself unmoved and unmoving, and transcendent, and he listens and attends to our invocations of yajna with the Rkvi hymns of praise and celebration.

Mandala 1/Sukta 156

Vishnu Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

1. Bhavā mitro na śeyvo ghṛtāsutirvibhūtadyumna evayā u saprathāḥ. Adhā te viṣṇo viduṣā cidar-dhyāḥ stomo yajñaśca rādhyaḥ haviṣmaṭā.

O Vishnu, lord of universal knowledge, be like a friend, giver of peace and comfort, generator of the waters of life, lord of the wealth and honour of the world, instant mover and controller of protections, vast and expanding in influence and inspiration, and being so, worshipped by the wise and eminent scholars, served by the generous devotees of yajna, let the song of celebration and the fragrance of yajna in your honour rise to the skies. (The mantra is applicable to the teacher also).

2. Yah pūrvyāya vedhase navīyase sumajjānaye viṣṇave dadāsati. Yo jātamasya mahato mahi bravat sedu śravobhīryujaṃ cidabhyasat.

One who lovingly and generously does homage to Vishnu, ancient and yet most modern lord of knowledge, one who creates and imparts new knowledge for the devotees of knowledge, one who speaks and communicates this great new message of the great lord of universal knowledge, and one who practices this applicable and useful knowledge with thanks and grateful offerings in yajna for charity and social service, he is the real man.

3. Tamu stotārah pūrvyaṃ yathā vida ṛtasya garbham januṣā pipartana. Āsyā jānanto nāma cid vivaktana mahaste viṣṇo sumatiṃ bhajāmahe.

Admirers and worshippers of the ancient and eternal lord of knowledge, Vishnu, as much as you know the lord and his knowledge, please augment and advance that body of knowledge with your own growth and contribution, a process as hard as rebirth though it is.
And knowing the lord and his knowledge, speak of the knowledge to the seekers in full confidence. O Vishnu, lord eternal and master of universal knowledge, all hail to you! We offer homage and worship to you in honour of your knowledge and wisdom.

Brilliant Varuna, lord of light and favourite choice of all, and the Ashvins, harbingers of the dawn of new knowledge, in unison, join that noble and yajnic act of the knowledge and revelation of Vishnu, lord of universal knowledge and instant controller of the Maruts, tempestuous heroes of action, for furtherance and application. Vishnu, commanding the force of his friends, wields the highest knowledge and expertise of action and opens the paths of action brilliant as day for humanity to follow and advance.

5. Ā yo vivāya sacathāya daivya indrāya viṣṇuh sukṛte sukṛttaraḥ. Vedhā ajinvat triṣadhasṭha āryamṛtasya bhāge yajamānamābhajat.

Vishnu, generous and divine lord of knowledge, friend of all, brilliant hero of action, better and ever more blissful doer, established in the threefold virtue of knowledge, action and worship, goes forward to join Indra, lord ruler of the world, who does good to all, and, in the direction of truth and rectitude, protects and promotes men of virtue, culture and creativity, and with all help blesses the yajamana in the performance of his acts of love and non-violence for peace and progress.

The fire of Agni awakes and stirs the world with life afresh. The sun is on the rise over the earth. The great and golden dawn wrapt in beauty waxes on the horizon with the splendour of her glory. The Ashvins, harbingers of new light and knowledge, harness their chariot for the daily round. And the generous lord of light and life, Savita, in his own gracious way, showers and sanctifies the moving world with sunlight and new inspiration for action.

Ashvins, harbingers of new light and life, chariot leaders of the world, you harness and ride your chariot of might and victory and sprinkle and inspire the Kshatra order of our defence and governance with exciting spirit of life and honey sweets of power and prosperity. In our struggle for the joy of life, inspire and strengthen our Brahma system of research and education with new knowledge and self-confidence. We pray, may we achieve the prize of success and victory in our battles of the brave.

Here, may the three engined, three staged, honey carrier, superfast chariot of the Ashvins come, the chariot all-acclaimed, mighty, laden with wealth and splendours of the world, and may that chariot, we pray, bring us peace, prosperity and well-being for our humans and for our animal world.

Ashvins, leaders of humanity, harbingers of light and life, generous and brave, life of nature astir, you vest the moving spheres with living potentials for growth, you enrich all the living worlds of the universe with light and life. Come both of you, help and support, excite the fire, agitate the waters and inspire the herbs and trees of the nation with life anew, elevate, gear up and bring showers of fire and waters of action and ambition.

Ashvins, harbingers of light and life, teachers, scholars and healers of the nation of humanity, be the physicians for us all with curatives, tonics and sanatives, be leaders and drivers with superfast chariots and energies. Lords of blazing power, keep the social order of defence bright and high for the ruler who, with all his wealth and powers of yajnic action, offers you homage sincerely with his heart and soul.

Mandala 1/Sukta 158

Ashvins Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

Ashvins, generous lords of light and power, loved and wanted, shelter and support of all, scourge of evil and enmity, universally respected, ever on the rise, give us, we pray, what we love and desire for our success, since the admirable wealth that is yours you bring us for sure with abundant protection, promotion and welfare for all, brave saviours as you are from want and suffering.
Ashvins, lords of light and leadership, shelter, support and protection for all, ever on the move with a mind keen to fulfil the desire and ambition of all, who hold and rule the human habitations in villages, towns and rich cities with food and power on the face of the earth and relentlessly keep awake, vigilant for us all and for our protection. Who can give, and what, in appreciation and return for this love and generosity of your mind and consideration for us — what except thanks and gratitude in homage?

3. Yukto ha yad vāṁ taugṛyāya perurvi madhye arṇaso dhāyi pajrah. Upa vāmavah śaranāṁ gameyam śūro nājma patayadbhirevaiḥ.

Ashvins, harbingers of light, power and protection, that stout, protective and irresistible chariot of yours propelled by flying oars stationed in the midst of the sea in full harness is ready for the valiant warrior to take us across the waters. May I, a powerful navigator in the battle of the sea, come and join the force under your protective cover?

4. Upastutirauca thāyamurushyēnā māmime pata-trinī vi dugdhām. Mā māmedho daśatayaścito dhāk pra yad vāṁ baddhastmani khādāti kṣām.

Ashvins, lords of light, power and holiness, may my celebrative invocation and prayer protect my self-confidence. May the day and night cycle never drain me out. May your tenfold fire, concentrated and blazing, never burn me off, which otherwise bound up in the soul as the fire of grief and despair eats up the very flesh of the body.

Let the streams be most motherly and kind saviours to me, simple, natural and unhurtful person as I am. Let not the streams swallow me even if savages were to throw me down into the water. If a thrice torturous person were to try to cut the head of such a person, then may the evil intentioned person cut his own torso and his own shoulders.

The person lost in darkness of the deep, having fallen a victim to blind attachment, grows old and decrepit in ten years. The one dedicated to sages in pursuit of divine knowledge, yajnic action and meditative prayer becomes a Brahma, scholar of the Veda, and a master of the chariot of life.
Mandala 1/Sukta 159

_Dyava-Prthivi Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi_

1. _Pra dyāvā yajñaiḥ prthivi ītāvṛdhā mahī stūṣe vidathēṣu pracetasā. Devebhīrye devaputre sudamsasetthā dhiyā vāryāṇi prabhūṣataḥ._

I study, serve and admire the earthly sphere and the solar system, both great, born of the particles of matter and energy in the course of natural evolution, both suggestive of new and newer knowledge through our yajnas of scientific programmes. Both of them, creations of the Divine, highly generous and productive, in cooperation with other natural elements, powers and spheres, working by the immanent will and intelligence of nature, produce and adorn manifold things of beauty and value.

2. _Uta manye pituradruho mano māturmahī svata-vastaddhavīmahī. Suretasā pitarā bhūma cakratururu praśāyā amṛtam varīm-abhiḥ._

And with holy invocations in yajna, I study, investigate and meditate on the great and innate power and intelligence of my father and mother the sun and the earth, both free from hate and full of love for all. Both father and mother of the world, overflowing with life and virility, create and augment the great and universal nectar wealth of humanity with their expansive and abundant generosity.

They are the children, sons and daughters in reality, heroic, noble and graceful of action, who for the first, essential and absolute knowledge of prime importance, collect the knowledge of the great parents of the world of existence: Ishwar and Prakrti, sun and earth, and father and mother of this human birth of ours. O Parents, protect and bless the true and firm establishment of the child, free from duplicity and double dealing, in the Dharma of the static and dynamic world.

Those are poets and scientists of brilliance and vision possessed of wondrous power and intelligence, of equal knowledge and interest, loving together and working together as a family team like brother and sister, who study and measure the depths and interior of the oceans of earth and the heavens of light, create the warp and woof of ever expanding new knowledge and find new paths over the seas and in the skies and space.

5. Tad rādho adya saviturvareṇyāṁ vayaṁ devasya prasave manāmahe. Asmabhyaṁ dyāvāprthivī sucetunā rayim dhattāṁ vasuma-ntāṁ śat-ag-vinam.

That gift of knowledge worthy of love and choice in the creation of self-refulgent Lord Savita’s cosmic yajna, we value and admire. May the heaven and earth, universal father and mother, blest with immanent will of Nature, bear, bring and reveal that body of knowledge which is rich in wealth and power and provides a hundred forms of prosperity with cows, fertile lands and the word of knowledge and divinity.

Mandala 1/Sukta 160

Dyava-Prthivi Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

1. Te hi dyāvāprthivī viśvaśambhuva ṛtāvari rajaso dhārayatkavī. Sujanmanī dhiṣaṇe antarīyate devo devī dharmāṇā sūryaḥ śucih.

The two, heaven and earth, givers of universal peace and comfort, abiding by the laws of universal Truth, holding their spheres, vested with immanent will and intelligence, nobly born of mother nature, stout and forbearing, are brilliant and of divine quality. The sun, pure and effulgent, goes on by the laws of its own existence between heaven and earth.

2. Uruvyacasā mahinī asaścatā pitā mātā ca bhuvanāni rakṣataḥ. Sudhrṣṭame vāpuṣye na rodasī pitā yat śimabhi rūpairavāsayat.

The two, of mighty expanse, great and grand, each separate with its own distinct identity, the sun as father and the earth as mother, protect and sustain the worlds and people around. Very strong and forbearing, the heaven and earth are like two wondrous icons of Beauty itself, which the father sun has fully vested with form and colour.

That universal vital fire, carrier of light and life and yajna, child of its causal parents, Lord Supreme and Nature and then akasha and vayu, i.e., space and energy, universal agent of holy action, constant and resolute, purifies and sanctifies with its wonderful powers, it energises, fertilises and purifies the cow, the earth and the holy Word, enlightens the sun and skies, gives vitality to the virile bull and pranic energy and sustaining power to the life-giving sun, and it emanates purity and vitality to the seed of life in existence day and night. Men and women all, serve it and draw the milk of life energy from the holy, universal and constant energy of fire through the creative act of yajna.

4. Ayaiṁ devānāmapasāmapastamo yo jajāna rodasī viśvaśambhuvā. Vi yo mame rajasī sukraṭīyayaḥ jarebhiḥ skambhanebhiḥ samāṇṛce.

Of all the lights of divinity and of all the acts of divinities, the Lord Supreme is the prime efficient cause of the acts of creation. Lord of bliss for the whole universe in existence, He creates the heaven and earth. With His divine omnipotence, He pervades and transcends the spaces and, with His imperishable powers of sustenance, stabilises the suns and the stars and the worlds that move. Homage in prayer and celebration to the Lord!

5. Te no gṛṇāne mahnī mahī śravaḥ kṣatram dyāvāprthivī dhāsatho brhat. Yenābhi kṛṣṭīstata-

May they, the great heaven and earth, thus sung and celebrated, bear and bring us abundant food and energy and create a grand social order for us, and may they infuse in us every day an admirable sense of honour and valour so that we may build a great nation of humanity across the globe.

Mandala 1/Sukta 161

Rbhus Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

1. Kimu śreṣṭhaḥ kim yaviṣṭho na ājagan kimīyate dūtyāṁ kad yaducima. Na nindima camasaṁ yo mahākulo’gne bhrātardruṇa id bhūtim-ūdima.

What best, what youngest or latest comes to us, or what message comes to us and from where, when do we speak of such things? Agni, brother dear, the high born who takes to the ladle of yajna or to the cloud, we never malign. Who ever is fast and dynamic, we praise. We speak of good fortune and of well-being only.

Create four ladles worth of yajnic materials out of one put in. Let the nobles speak to you of this. Create four clouds out of one, the scholars would speak to you.
And to that end I too would come to you. Men of the mighty bow, if you would but do this, then with the light of divinities and with the nobilities, you would be the real men of yajna.

Agni dūtāṃ prati yadabravītanāśvah kartvo ratha uteha kartvāḥ. Dhenuḥ kartvā yuvaśā kartvā dvā tāni bhrātaranu vaḥ kṛtvyemasi.

Agni, scholar, scientist, technologist, if you were to say about agni, the harbinger of fire and electric power: the horse power has to be developed, the chariot has to be designed and developed here and now, and the language has to be found and developed, and youth has to be developed and rejuvenated, and the horse and the cow have to be groomed and developed, then dear brother, we would follow you in action for both fire and electric power.

Cakṛvāṁsa rbhavastadaprcchata kvedabhūd yaḥ sya dūta nā ājāganaṃ. Yadāvākhyaccamasāṅcaturāḥ kṛtānādīcitvadhyā gṛāsvānto-nyāne.

O Rbhush, eminent scientists, technologists and engineers of the top-most intellectual order of vision and dynamic action, if that messenger of knowledge, light and fire energy were to come to us, ask him where the origin of that power is, and who the messenger is, since when Tvashta, analyst and maker of fine things, analysed one form of composite matter or compound such as the cloud or a ladleful of sacrificial input of the furnace-vedi into its four chemical components like earth, water, heat and vayu, wind energy of electric potential, then only was agni energy able to move things over and into the moving spheres such as earth.

If Tvashta, master analyst and expert maker, were to say: “Let us reject these,” about those who mock at the ladleful of yajnic input or the cloud, analysed, synthesised and restructured, then let us reject the undue criticism. And when the soma has been distilled, that is, when the result has been obtained from the scientific yajna, let us describe the achievement by other names, and let the delighted beneficiary too call the new product by other favourite names, the soma is worthy of the gods to drink.

Let Indra, master of energy, power and sunlight, use the knowledge of fire, electricity, radiation and gravitation. Let the Ashvins, masters of the chariot, prepare the car. Let Brhaspati, expert of the earth’s variety of objects and scientific language, create the formulae of analysis and structure. Let Rbhu, expert of the science of universal energy, with Vibhu, brilliant man of light and fire, and Vaja, expert of speed and control, all noble powers of great action, reach the divine sources of nature’s wealth and energy and enjoy their share of the gifts of corporate programmes of yajnic creation.

7. निस्तर्मान्यो गामरिणीत धीतिभिः जरेन्ता युवशा ताकृण्णातन। साधिन्वना अश्वादर्श्वमह 1त्युक्तवा रथमुपय दुवाँ अयातन ॥ ॥

With dexterous use of your ideas, repair and enrich the surface of the earth like nourishing the holy cow emaciated to the skin, and rejuvenate those who are breaking down under the weight of aging and consumptive diseases. O warriors of the bow, create new vehicles of wondrous velocity from materials of magnetic energy and radiation. And then yoke your motive power to the chariot and reach the wealth of nature’s divinity.

8. इदमुदकस्ति पिबतत्त्वबवीतनं वाघ घा पिबता मुःत्तनजनम। साधिन्वना यतदि त गव हयथ्यू तूनीय घा सरवन माद-याध्वञ्ज ॥ ॥
8. Idamudakam pibatetyabravitanedam vā ghā pibatā muñjanejanam. Saudhanvanā yadi tanneva haryatha ōṣṭīye ghā savane mādayādhvai.

Master experts of pharmacy and distillation of medicinal drinks, to the patients and admirers say: Taste and drink this tonic, or drink this one which has been purified and reinforced with munja grass, and if you choose to drink neither, then take this one prepared in the third distillation for purity and power and be happy.

One of the experts says: waters are the best and most efficacious. Another says: fire is the best and most efficacious. Out of all, one speaks of earth as the most powerful for life and against anti-life. Thus do you all speak of the existent elements of truth and reality and distinguish between one source of power and grandeur and another for yourself and develop the same.

10. Śroṇāmeka udakam gāmavājati māṁsvakaḥ pimśati sūnayābhṛtam. Ā nimrucaḥ šakṛdeko apābharat kim svit putrebhyah pitārā upāvatuḥ.

One takes water to the disabled cow, the other dresses the wound suffered from accidental hurt, yet another looks after the shed and removes the dirt the whole day till sunset. What would the parents expect of children to approve, more than this?

All ye men and women, with all your desire and good action on higher ground, grow fodder for cows and other animals, and produce and store water in lower places. Do not destroy anything in the open home of even a carefree person and always follow wise and intelligent persons of noble and expert performance.

Rbhus, experts of tempestuous action, join together with concentrated action, go round the worlds and know them, and take care where your progenitors then abide. Accost and face whoever holds up your hand, and thank and appreciate whoever approves your action with praise.

Suṣupvāṁsa ṛbhavastadapṛcchatāgohya ka idaṁ no abūbudhat. Śvānaṁ basto bodhayitārama-bravīt saṁvatsara idamadyā vyakhyata.

Sleeping Rbhus, like potential scholars and rays of the sun, ask that supreme lord of light such as sun who it is who wakes them up into light and life. He, the lord of light from whom nothing is hidden says: it is vayu, waves of divine energy, which wakes them up into life and light. The lord of light is the shelter home of all. It is now a year (cycle) when you awaken us and tell us of that to-day.

(It is life waking up to self-consciousness at the dawn of creation after a ‘long year’ of sleep in Divinity during the long night of annihilation.)

Maruts, waves of universal energy of the winds, go with the light of the sun. The fire energy goes with the earth. Vata, the currents of wind go with the middle region of the sky. Varuna, water energy, goes with the vapours and the seas. You, indefatigable seekers of knowledge, go with the Rbhus, imperishable children of might and omnipotence.

Mandala 1/Sukta 162

Mitra, Ashva and others Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

1. Mā no mitro varuṇo aryanāyurindra ṛbhukṣā marutaḥ pari khyan. Yad vājino devajātasya sapteḥ pravakṣyāmo vidathe vīryāṇi.

May Mitra, the friend, Varuna, lord supreme worthy of universal choice and homage, Aryama, lord of justice, Ayu, man of knowledge, Indra, lord of power and honour, Rbhukshā, man of intelligence and wisdom, and Maruts, dynamic men of creative action, never ignore us since we too admire and celebrate powerful acts of the mighty pioneer leader of war born of noble qualities, i.e., acts performed in our yajnic battle of life.

2. Yannirṇijā rekṇasā prāvṛtasya rātim ṛgbhitāṁ mukhato nayanti. Suprāṇjo memyad viśvarūpa indrāpūṣṇoḥ priyamapyeti pāthāḥ.

We are those who advance to the front the man of honour and generosity, leader blest with wealth and power earned by pure and sinless means, possessing universal virtues, capable of versatile roles, going forward leading and roaring, who achieves the cherished gifts of the dignity and prosperity of Indra and Pushan, lord of power and glory and the lord of light and plenty.

Eṣa cchāgah puro aśvena vājinaḥ pūṣṇo bhāgo nīyate viśvadevyāḥ. Abhipriyam yat puroḷāśa-martarā tvaṣṭedenaṁ sauśravasāya jinvati.

This undaunted horse blest with all noble quality, gift of nature’s generosity, is taken along with the fast war horse by the driver in advance for the training of the warrior’s favourite so that the expert cavalry trainer may prepare the loved grooming for the steed for his victory.

4.
Yaddhaviṣyaṁṛtuśo devayānaṁ trirmānuṣāḥ paryaśvaiṁ nayanti. Atraḥ pūṣṇaḥ prathamo bhāga eti yajñamīn deverbhyāḥ prativedayannajah.

When men take this horse out and around for grooming thrice according to the seasons, then this horse, prime gift of nature’s generosity, fit for the noblest heroes to ride to the yajna of the battle of rectitude, leading pioneer, goes forward first proclaiming its act of advance in the battle for the noble warriors to hear, here in the world.

हाताध्वयुरावङ्गः अग्रिमिन्धा गावगंभ उत शंस्तासुमिरि: ।
तन्ते यज्ञः स्वरंकृतं स्विष्ट्तं व ॥ गः ॥
5. Hotādhvaryurāvayā agnimindho grāvagrābha uta śamstā suvipraḥ. Tena yajñena svarāmkrētena sviṣṭena vakṣaṇā ā pṛṇadhvam.

The man of yajna, the high-priest of love and non-violence, the faithful giver of oblations, the lighter of the holy fire, the grinder of soma, the singer of the hymns, and the noble scholar Brahmana, all ye yajakas in unison, light up the fire, and with that yajna gracefully completed with love, faith and expertise, fill the streams of life and the land with waters and prosperity.

Those who cut the tree for the yajna flag post, those who transport the post to the yajnic arena, he who shapes the flag bearing part of the post, those who bear and bring in the holy food for the consecrated horse, symbol of the nation and its order of governance, and among all these the master of ceremonies and the coordination and cooperation of all these may, we wish and pray, oblige us with success.

Let the horse, symbol of the nation of humanity and the order of governance, come forward for us. Let it uphold the thoughts and values of the nation. Strong of back and body, let it fulfil the hopes and dreams of me and all the nobilities of humanity. In consequence, the scholars and the visionaries would enjoy themselves and celebrate its grandeur. Let us do our best in service for this noble order of brotherhood for the development and advancement of the noble people.

8. Yad vājino dāma saṁdānamarvato yā śirṣaṇyā raśanā rajiṣurasya. Yad vā ghāsyā prabhṛtamāsyeye ṛṣam sarvā tā te api deveṣvastu.

The law that controls the onward movement of this dynamic social order, symbolised by the foot-band of the mighty and tempestuous horse, is the law of self-restraint and Dharma. The reins and bridle which control it over the head and shoulders symbolise thought, wisdom and self-guidance. And the grass which is held in the mouth symbolises the nourishment and health of the nation. May all these be of holy nature and character fit for the divinities among humanity, and let all these be dedicated to the divinities that support life.

9. Yadaśvasya kraviṣo māṣikāśa yad vā svarau svadhitau riptamasti. Yaddhastayoh śamituryaṇnakheṣu sarvā tā te api deveṣvästu.
Whatever the fly eats of the sweat or ointment of the horse of rhythmic motion, i.e., the nation on the march, or whatever smears the voice or sword of the nation, and whatever soils the hands and nails of the performers of national yajna, all these things should be under control of the brilliant and generous leaders of the nation for you, i.e., the people and the nation.

Whatever the gaseous exudations or wastes from consumption in the national economy, whatever discharges from the bio-economic circulation of raw materials towards the output of finished products, all these wastes and by-products should be positively recycled by the expert managers of the economy who must also season whatever is ripe and ready for further refinement and sophistication.

O nation on the march on the highway of progress, if from your personality-body subjected to the fire of discipline and self sacrifice, a cry of pain escape your lips or a tear flow down from the eye, let it not soil the holy ground of the motherland, nor let it be lost in the straw, but let it be a precious gift for the ambitious creators and leaders of vision to turn it into a clarion call or a beautiful pearl of divine grace.
Your lips or a tear flow down from the eye, let it not soil the holy ground of the motherland, nor let it be lost in the straw, but let it be a precious gift for the ambitious creators and leaders of vision to turn it into a clarion call or a beautiful pearl of divine grace.

Those who watch the nation’s food and prosperity grow to ripeness and perfection, and those who say: Ah yes! it is fragrant, harvest it, take it, export it too! and those who contribute their share to the nation’s prosperity and also wait for their share of the food and fragrance of yajna, and in addition, their coordination, cooperation and common voice of exhortation may, we pray, be for the good and growth of us all.

other foods, all containers and reservoirs of juice and waters for irrigation, methods of heat and steam control, formations of clouds, known, controlled and created, and beauty spots and tourist resorts, these are marks of a nation’s march on top of beauty and culture.

The horse’s forward march, the nation launching on action on the highway, its halting and settling for rest on the way, the U-turn and circulation in progression, the fetter control of law and the centre-hold of values for stability, what it drinks for pleasure and excitement and what it eats for nourishment: all these should be under control of the men of vision and brilliance for you all.

Let not the fire interfused with smoke and smell obliterate your vision, let it not extinguish your enthusiasm for life. Nor let the aromatic pan on blazing fire tip over and spill out the food. (Let the nation be ripened in the cauldron of hard discipline and yajnic action placed on the right degree of heat free of smoke and blaze both). The dynamic nation which is loved, happy and peaceful, active, and sanctified by yajna, is, like a trained horse, loved, accepted and owned by the most brilliant powers of the world.

Those who provide the decorative cover for the horse, i.e., the yajnic personality of the human nation on the march, and provide the over-cover as the air cover of fire for defence and onward march, and those who create the golden beauties for it, and the control of law, and the velocity of electric energy, and the brakes of equal power: all these people, cherished powers and beauties of the nation, raise the humans to the light of divinity.

17. Yat te sāde mahasā śūkṛtasya pārsṇyā vā kaśayā vā tutoda. Srucēva tā haviṣo adhvareṣu sarvā tā te brahmaṇā südayāmi.

On your being exhausted by excessive urging on, or by hurt with the spur or the whip, I relieve you of the hurt and exhaustion and refresh you in the yajnas of love and non-violence by the fragrance of oblations offered with the ladle and chant of hymns. (The nation, after strain in a crisis, needs rest and repair.)

The innate energy of fire, electric, magnetic and of other forms, fastest form of energy co-existent with the forms and powers of nature such as earth, moves in waves in thirtyfour ways. Activate it part by part, proclaim the nature and character of each and realise the definite quality of its efficacy and application to parts of the material body with safety.

Of the dynamic energy of agni, two are the carrier currents, of which one is the active, positive agent that activates the connected objects. And I apply the power to the material forms of objects according to the needs of the seasons, and having done so I send it back into agni, thereby completing the yajnic circuit.
Mā tvā tapat priya atmāpiyantām mā svadhistanva ā tiṣṭhipat te. Mā te ґṛdhnr aviśastāti-hāya chidrā gātrāṇyasinā mithū kaḥ.

Spirit and genius of the nation, while you are on your path of progress to divinity, may your soul never cause any sense of self-guilt, nor must your own power and pride nor external force strain or terrorize your mind and body. Nor must any greedy or malicious power or person, unmindful of the hurt and cruelty, wound or mutilate your body.

21.
Na vā u etan mriyase na riṣyasi devāṅ ideṣi pathibhiḥ sugebhīḥ. Harī te yuṇjā pṛṣatī abhūtāmupāsthād vājī dhuri rāsabhasya.

Spirit of humanity, genius of the nation, soul of the individual, this you are, and such as you are, you shall not die, nor be hurt, nor hurt anyone, since you move in the direction of divinity by paths which are straight and sure. Two are the horses yoked to your resounding chariot: love of the Lord that attracts you, and Grace that holds you in stability. And the horse that is yoked to the centre-pole is faster than light and instant as the mind.
22. Sugavyaṁ no vājī svaśvyāṁ puṁsaḥ putrāḥ uta viśvāpuṣam rayim. Anāgāstvaṁ no aditiḥ kṛṇotu kṣatram no aśvo vanaṭāṁ haviśmān.

May this lightning power of agni, this nation, this great order of governance give us rich wealth of cows, fertility of land and generosity of spirit. May it give us strong and powerful horses, speed of transportation and the spirit to go ahead, manliness and brave warriors, noble children and honest wealth for universal nourishment. May the imperishable Mother Nature inspire us to create holiness free from sinfulness of thought, word and deed, and may omnipotent Agni, lord of universal wealth, help us build a mighty social order of governance.

Mandala 1/Sukta 163

Ashva (Agni) Devata, Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi

1. Yadakrandah prathamāṃ jāyamāṇa udyantsamudrāduta vā purīṣāt. Śyenasya pakṣā hariṇasya bāḥū upastutyam mahi jātaṁ te arvaṁ.

Arvan, divine racer, Agni, universal energy, first born of Lord Omnipotent, rising from the oceans of space, the sky and the sea, who roared with force at your very birth, your wings are like the wings of the celestial eagle that brings the showers of soma and the warmth of fire, and your arms are like the arms of the sun, the thunderbolt. Surely great is your birth from nature, worthy of admiration and homage.

2. Yamena dattam trita enamāyunagindra eṇam prathamo adhyatiṣṭhat. Gandharvo asya rāsanā- magṛbhṇāt sūrādaśvāṁ vasavo nirataṣṭa.

This energy is the gift of the universal controller Yama, a product of Vayu, the first elemental form of energy born of akasha, ether, in the process of primal evolution guided by the eternal law-giver, the creator. Let Trita, master of the three modes of nature, sattva, rajas and tamas, i.e., thought, energy and matter, plan the use of it in various ways. Let Indra, the electrical expert, use it as power first. Let Gandharva, specialist of earth sciences, hold the control of it in gravitational, magnetic and heat forms. And let the Vasus, graduate researchers of life sciences, extract this energy from the light of the sun.

Cosmic energy, Yama you are the mover, the condition and control of all dynamics. You are the light and the sun. You are the energy in use. You are Trita, vitality, strength and power by virtue of your unseen and mysterious character. You are integrated with the life and joy of existence and yet you are distinct and exclusive. It is said that you are bonded with the regions of light in three ways.

4. Trīṇi ta āhurdivi bandhanāni trīṇyapsu trīṇyantah samudre. Uteva me varuṇaśchantsyarvan yatrā ta āhuḥ paramam janitram.

Three are your forms, they say, in the field of light, they are causal, subtle and gross. Three are in the sphere of the waters, and three are in the region of the skies in the winds, the same three. Just as you have three formal definitions so do I too, the causal body, the subtle body and the gross body. Tell me, mysterious power, where do they say your ultimate origin is. Mine too is there itself.

5. Imā te vājinnavamarjanaṁnāma śaphānam sanitur-nidhāna. Atrā te bhadra raśanā apaśyamṛtasya yā abhirakṣanti gopāḥ.

O Vajin, tempestuous power-input of the yajna of existence, these are the stages of your refinement, contentive concentrations of the applicable values of energy which are positive gifts of wealth and well-being for humanity. I wish and pray I may see those positive lines of natural and scientific developments of yours which observe, preserve and advance the process of life’s yajnic evolution.

6. Ātmānāṁ te manasārādājanāmavā divā pata-yantam pataṅgam. Śīro apaśyaṁ pathibhiḥ sugebhīr-areṇubhir-jehamānāṁ patātri.

Agni, O flying horse, with pleasure of my heart and soul and with the thrill of my knowledge, I see from afar and know your body flying up towards heaven and down like a bird. O flying bird of our creation, I see your head striving and soaring higher and higher by paths all straight and clear and wholly free from dust.

7. Atrā te rūpam-uttamam-apaśyaṁ jīgīṣamāṇam-isa ā pade goḥ. Yadā te marto anu bhogamān-alādid grasiṣṭha oṣadhīrajjagah.

Agni, O vital fire and creativity of life, I have seen that higher form, spirit and character of yours which is eager to conquer, consume and create the food and energy on the floor of the earth since, when the mortal humanity blest with food and enjoyment, and as a result of your holy ambition, eats their fill, then, O consumer and creator, you beget the herbs and juices for rectification of the human faults and weaknesses.

अनू त्भा रथा अनू मया' अब रातु गावाच्चु भर्गः क्रनीनाम।

Agni, Arvan, energy and power of lightning motion, the chariot, the car and the flying birds of human creation depend on you and follow your laws. The mortal humanity admires and follows you. The cows and the maidens and their matrimony and joy depend on you. The wealth and honour of admirers depends on you. Devotees of sacred vows and yoga practices court your love and friendship. And divine personalities of nature and humanity both are keen to realise your energy, virility and creativity.

Golden headed and lustrous is this agni, energy and power of nature, with the wheels of metals of desired gravity for motion and speed. The noblest divinities love to win and enjoy the cherished gifts of this agni. Indra, constant, ancient and yet the latest lord of the speed of mind is the exceptional master who first of all rides and controls this dynamic energy of nature’s motive power.
10. Īrmāntāsah silikamadhyamāsah saṁ śūraṇāsō divyāsō atyāḥ. Hamsā iva śreṇīśo yatante yadā-kṣiṣurdivyamajmamaśvāḥ.

Arvan, universal energy in motion, sleek and sophisticated, vibrating with power, steadily accelerating, celestial birds of flight, like rows of cranes in formation, join, march and fly and rise over the heavenly paths of skies and space. Agni, lord of light and knowledge, Indra, lord of energy and power, such are the horses of your creation, these are your birds of power.

11. Tava śārīram ātayiśṇarvan tava cittāṁ vāta iva dhraĵīmān. Tava śrīgāṇi viśṭhitā purutrāraṇyeṣu jarbhurānā caranti.

O Arvan, tempestuous energy of the universe, your body is ever eager and agitating to fly. Your mind is restless, adventurous and vibrating as the waves of winds. Your ambitions are high soaring, various, pioneering and ever on the move. Inspiring the minds of men, bright and blazing in the forests overtaken, your thoughts, ambitions and operations spread around and cover the worlds across the spaces.
Agni, warlike courser, impetuous on the wing goes forward. It goes by all, in advance of all, moving the worlds on the march, inspiring, enlightening, elevating the divinities, thinking, meditating, shining by the light of its own intelligence. Unborn eternal is the source and centre of its power by which it is ignited, geared and steered on the way, and when it moves, poets follow singing and celebrating the beauty of existence, the glory of Divinity in action.

The same horse, Agni, mighty carrier of the universe, reaches the highest heaven and home of existence, and there joins the ultimate original and eternal mother, Prakrti, and father creator, the Lord Almighty. O mighty harbinger of life and joy, loved and blest and most admired, go and reach the divinities to-day upon this instant and bring the cherished gifts of life for the admirer and the generous giver performer of yajna.

Mandala 1/Sukta 164

Devata: Vishvedeva, Vak and Apah, Shaka-Dhuma and Soma, Keshins, Vak and Surya, Samvatsara, Sarasvati, Sadhyas, Surya, Parjanya or Agnis, Sarasvan or Surya. Dirghatama Auchathya Rshi
1. Asya vāmasya palitasya hotustasya bhrātā madhyamo astyaśnaḥ. Trīyā bhrātā ghṛtaprśṭho asyātrāpaśyaṁ viśpatim saptaputram.

Of this splendid and hoary yajaka, Sun, giver of light and energy and receiver of the waters and essences of the earth and the skies, the second, younger and middling brother is vayu, wind and electricity abiding in the middle region of the skies, the energy being voracious and present everywhere. The third and youngest brother is Agni, fire, which is sprinkled with water and ghrta in yajna. It is the sustainer of living beings and it is blest with seven children, i.e., seven rays of light in the spectrum. I wish I could know this ancient, brilliant and sustaining power and friend of life.

2. Sapta yuñjanti ratham-ekacakram-eko aśvo vahati saptanāmā. Trinābhī cakram-ajaram-anarvaṁ yatremā viśvā bhuvanādhi tasthuḥ.

Seven enjoin the one-wheel chariot, drawn by one horse of seven names. The wheel, the wheel of time, unaging and automotive, has three sub-wheels with three naves and rims, and in the orbit of this time and space abide all the worlds of the universe.

3. Imāṁ rathamadhi ye sapta tasthuḥ saptacakram sapta vahantyaśvāḥ. Sapta svasāro abhi sam navante yatra gavāṁ nihitā sapta nāma.
Seven are those who ride this chariot, seven motive powers (horses or rays of light) which draw this chariot of seven wheels, wheel within wheel. They are seven sisters who exult, roar and thunder together in reverence and worship of the father where in are hidden in depth seven names of the rays of light, the seven spheres and seven notes of language. (This is a highly mystical, symbolic, and at the same time scientific mantra. To understand the meaning and implication at different levels of correspondence we need knowledge of astronomy, cosmology, physics and astrophysics, language and grammar, music and mechanics. And still the meaning would remain open ended.)

Who saw the first material form of the universe of flesh and bone being born, which the immaterial of no flesh and bone bears? What and where was the breath and blood and soul of the earth and cosmos? Who would reach the visionary of knowledge to ask all this of the first and last question about the mystery?
5. Pākaḥ pṛcchāmi manasā-vijānan devānām-enā nihitā padānī. Vatse vaśkaye’dhi sapta tantūn

Novice, ignorant but searching for knowledge and passing through the crucibles of heat and light of discipline, I ask with sincere mind and soul about these seven divine stages of the evolution of nature and life concealed in mystery, the seven-fold warp and woof of which visionary poets have traced and described in detail for the children of light to see and know and realise.

6. Acikitvāṁ cikituśaścidatra kavīn pṛcchāmi vid-

Not knowing what I would know here as a man of knowledge should know, I ask of the men of knowledge and poets of divine vision what that single principle of power could be in the form and nature of the one unborn and eternal Supreme which holds these six higher and lower spheres and atmospheres of the universe.

7. Iha bravītu ya īmaṅga vedāsya vāmasya nihitaṁ padaṁ veḥ. Śīrṣṇaḥ kṣīram duhrate gāvo asya vavrim vasānā udakam padāpuḥ.

Dear friend, here may speak to me he who well knows the power and presence of this glorious bird ever on the wing and omnipresent, which is concealed in mystery. The holy rays of it from above yield showers of milk and water for life, and, covered in brilliant beauty they drink up the waters as they come and touch the earth with their feet.

The proud and amorous mother seeks the company of father for the waters of life and joins him with love and her innate power of motherhood. Then she receives the rain showers of life and the children of nature receive the food for the body and Word for the mind with reverence and worship.

The mother, earth, is joined to the sun and held in orbit in circumambulation of the sun on its own axis. The productive power and the seed of life stays in the clouds within its atmosphere along with it in its motion in the three orbits, i.e., on its own axis, round the sun and in the galaxy, and when it matures it roars and showers, looking at mother earth of various colour and form like a calf looking at the mother cow.
showers, looking at mother earth of various colour and form like a calf looking at the mother cow.

The one Supreme lord of the universe who abides over all sustains the three mothers, earth, sky and the heavens of light, and He sustains the three fathers, Agni, Vayu and Aditya, fire, wind and sun. These three couples tire Him not, they smear Him not. On the heights of the heaven of that lord Prajapati, they meditate on this voice of omniscience and recreate and replenish the life sustaining energy and the creative vitality and fertility of motherhood.

The twelve-spoked wheel of time in existence that goes round and round the cosmic sun never ages. O Agni, light of humanity, the seven hundred and twenty-children of nature, i.e., the three hundred and sixty day-night pairs or seven hundred and twenty forms of material composition remain till the end of chronological time.

Father time, they say, has five stages from the initial moment onward and twelve divisions in the round of the year of time extending over existence in the farther half of the universe beyond the region of light. These others speak of this other half visible this side above, below the sun, which has six spokes of the seasons in the yearly round and moves in seven rounds of wheels, wheel within wheel of time.

(This concept of time space requires deep research into the nature and passage of time including the technique of measurement and calculation with reference to the visible world and the world beyond on the other side of the sun. Parardha, the other half, for example, is equal to 50 years of Brahma, his one day being equal to the age of the current world of existence. It is a mind boggling concept in ordinary terms of calculation.)

Five are the spokes in the wheel of time-cum-prakṛti, the temporal existence of physical world.

(These are the five elements of prakṛti, akasha, vayu, agni, apah and prthivi, and their internal changes). This wheel of prakṛti in time is ever on the move. In that wheel of time and physical change abide all the worlds of the universe. The axis of that carries the immense weight of existence but it never gets heated. With its centre-hold on this axis it has been going on since eternity and it will go on till eternity, but it never wears away. It is never destroyed. (The axis of the physio-temporal wheel is the constant substratum, original Prakṛti, and the centre-hold is the Lord Supreme.)

Existent with its centre and circumference, the unaging wheel, the chariot, of the universe of physio-temporal nature goes on and on, round and round. In the expansive Prakṛti, ten motive powers move it on (those ten being the pranic energies). The light of the sun suffused with rajas, energy of universal dynamics, goes on with the worlds. Indeed, all the worlds of existence abide in that light and energy.

The seven simultaneously born of one-unborn, they call a septet, that is, seven-in-one or one-in-seven. Six of them are yamas, twin movers. They are rshis, mixers, born of devas, light and energy. Their properties and actions according to their place and character are created and ordained, and they, each in its form and character, move around for and in the unmoved mover.

(These seven are the seven lokas: Bhuh, Bhuvaḥ, Svah, Mahah, Janah, Tapah and Satyam. Sometimes the lokas are associated with seven Rshis. Sometimes they are described as seven senses and sometimes seven vital energies. All these refer, in fact point, to a theory of correspondences existing at the physical, mental and spiritual levels, or at the levels of matter, energy, thought and spirit. And this is a subject of high research and deep meditation.)

though women, I am told rightly, they are male too. One who has eyes can see this, but one who is blind, even though he has eyes, doesn't see this, doesn't know. The son who has the vision of a poet knows this well, and one who knows this has an old head on young shoulders.
In other words, he has the vision and knowledge of the father of fathers.

Bearing and sustaining her child, as a cow bears and sustains her calf, this earth by her own motion goes down with reference to that farther side and goes up with reference to this nearer side in relation to the sun, and stays up stabilized in space in its own orbit. In what direction and to which remote region of space does she go? What does she impel and energise and how? Does she receive consecration of the sun in the midst of a crowd or not?

18. Avah pareña pitaram yo asyānuveda para

Here who could be the man of poetic vision who knows this lower side of the earth with reference to that other higher side, and that higher side with reference to this lower side, and who further knows the father sun, lord sustainer of the earth, and who knows and who can say where from this brilliant and divine mind is born?

Whatever objects are near, they say, are far off, and the objects far off, they say, are close at hand. (All objects are on the move and whether they are far or near is a matter of relativity. It is nothing absolute.) O Soma, Vayu energy, whatever you and the lord omnipotent, Indra, have formed as objects or clusters of objects, ever such as stars and galaxies, carry on the worlds of the universe as horses joined to the yoke and the pole draw the chariot of existence.

20. Dvā suparṇā sayujā sakhyāyā samānaṁ vrksam pari śasvajāte. Tayoranyāḥ pippalaṁ svādvayat hostage and to be ministering to abhi cākaśiti.

Two birds of beautiful wings, the individual human soul and the Supreme Soul of the universe, both friends and companions, together nest on the same one tree of existence. Of the two, one, the individual human soul, eats the fruit with relish and enjoys as well as suffers the consequences. The other, the Supreme Soul, simply watches comprehensively all round without eating anything.

Where the blessed souls of noble action sing and celebrate their share of immortal joy in holy voice incessantly, therein, may, I pray, the constant imperishable sovereign Ruler, protector and sustainer of the entire universe, inspire and bless me, the honest soul in preparation for the consecration.

22. Yasmin vṛkṣe madhvadaṁ suparṇā niviśante suvate cādhi viśve. Tasyedāhuḥ pippalam svādvagre tannonnaśadyaḥ pitaram na veda.

To that tree over and above the mortal world whereon the super-souls of beautiful wings of blessed action nestle in a state of consecration and taste the nectar honey of divine joy, whose taste of the fruit the ancients describe as super-sweet, to that tree of immortal taste and bliss they do not attain who do not know the father.
23. Yad gāyatre adhi gāyatramāhitam traiṣṭubhād vā traiṣṭubham niratakṣata. Yad vā jagajjagatyāhitam padam ya it tad viduste amṛtatvamā-naśuḥ.

They attain to that immortal state of bliss who know and experience the Spirit which is the lord protector of the celebrants of Divinity immanent in the gayatri verses in their recitations, who rejoice in the divine presence above the trishubh verses and actualise that presence in life without break, who rise to the height of Divinity and share the dynamic presence vibrating in the universe and revealed in jagati verses, and commune with that presence.

(In scientific terms, the earth is gayatri. The fire of yajna is lit on the earth. Traishtubh is the sky. The wind is vibrant and operative there. Dyu is jagati, most dynamic. There aditya, the sun, reigns. Agni, fire is the vitality of the earth, wind is the energy of the sky, and the sun is the life of the heavens. Those who know these regions, their life and vitality and realise their vitality and the spirit of Divinity which informs them and their vitality attain to the state of immortal bliss.)

In gayatri metre the Rks are composed. With Rks, the Samans are composed. With trishtubh metre Vak, Yajus are composed. By Vak, Yajurveda, and further Vak, Atharva Veda, is composed and formed. And with two-pada and four-pada constituents of the eternal Word, all the seven forms of Vedic compositions in metric forms of verse, are composed.

(In scientific terms, gayatri is Parameshthi Prana, universal energy at the highest level, from universal energy, specific forms of energy are created. One of these specific forms is Rk, rhythmic energy operative in thought consciousness. When pranic energy passes through a particular physical structure such as the reed or the larynx, sound is produced. When rhythm is added to sound, music is produced. When elements of sound are related to particular points of the speech mechanism, then phonemes, elements of sound in language forms, are produced. And when the elements of sound are joined in correspondence with thought, then language is produced. When feeling and emotion is added to language and expressed, then song is created and composed. Thus from Rks, thought energies of consciousness composed in language, joined to celebrative joy, Samans are created. When the music and songs of joy are joined to practical situations in the holy business of living, then Yajus are created as holy formations of life’s values. And then from thought, song and practical formulae in holy living the comprehensive body of Atharva hymns is created. The classification of Vedic knowledge is thus explained in terms of knowledge, Rgveda, song, Samveda, action, Yajurveda, and comprehensive message, Atharva-veda, which is also known as Brahma Veda. In this way, from the elements of energy, sound, thought, feeling and emotion in divine consciousness, specially love and joy, all language and linguistic compositions both divine and human, sacred and secular, are created.)

25. Jagatā sindhuṁ divyastabhāyad rathantare sūryaṁ paryapaśyat. Gāyatrasya samidhastisra āhustato mahnā pra ririce mahitvā.

The Lord establishes the ocean of energy in the Dyu, the region of light, by cosmic dynamics of Jagati hymns of omnipotence. In the Antariksha, He establishes the sun, generative and radiating source of light and energy. The blazing fire-woods of divine energy, they say, are three: the sun in the highest sky, lightning, wind and electricity in the atmosphere, and fire and magnetic energy in the earth, and by His grand and adorable omnipotence the Lord transcends all these. Of Gayatra, the Samidhas are said to be three: light, lightning and fire.

26. Upa hvaye sudughāṁ dhenumetāṁ suhasto godhuguta dohadenāṁ. Śreṣṭhaṁ savaṁ savitā sāviśanno’bhīddho gharmastadu ṣu pra vocam.

I invoke and call upon this generous mother cow, Gayatri, Mother Nature, mother Sarasvati of knowledge, directly at the closest. Only an intelligent and dexterous person can distil the essence and power of her generosity. May lord Savita, the creator, the sun, the teacher, create the soma of milk, honey and the light of knowledge for us and bless us. Lit up and blazing is the fire in the yajna-vedi. The same I speak of and celebrate in song.

27. Himkṛṇvati vasupatnī vasūnāṁ vatsamicchanāṁ manasābhāyāgat. Duhāmaśvibhyāṁ payo aghneyaṁ să vardhatāṁ mahate saubhagāya.

Lowing and loving, this mother cow, sustainer of the breath and supports of life, caressing her children with her heart of tenderness, comes to bless us all round. May she, never never to be killed or hurt, distil the milk of life’s energy from the sun and wind and ever grow for the great good fortune and prosperity of life on earth.

The cow goes to the calf winking its eyes in loving expectation, lowing with love, and licks its head with caress. And lowing and loving more and more in response to the yearning affection of the calf, she overflows with milk. (The same is the response of mother earth and mother Sarasvati to the children yearning for love, nourishment and knowledge.)

29. Ayaṁ sa śīṅke yena gaurabhīvṛtā mimāti māyāṁ dhvasanāvadhi śritā. Sā cittibhirni hi cakāra martyāṁ vidyud bhavantī prati vavrimauhata.

This is that cloud which roars and by which, covered and surrounded in the vapours, the earth reverberates in response. The earth, with her own feelings of kindness and generosity sustains the mortal children of hers, and her energy, being in the form of lightning, reveals and realises her own form and character.

30. Anacchaye turagātū jīvamejad dhruvaṁ madhya ā pastyānām. Jīvo mṛtasya carati svadhābhīr-amaratyo martyenā sayoniḥ.

Living and breathing, moving at the speed of infinity yet constant and omnipresent, the Spirit of the Universe abides eternal, impelling the individual soul to move among the variety of material forms. And thus, the immortal spirit of mortal man moves around in love and company with the mortal forms of material beauty by virtue of its karma and self sacrifice.
31. Apasyam gopam-anipadyamanaam-a ca paraa ca pathibhiis-carantam. Sa sadhricih sa viisucir-vasana a varivarti bhuvanesvanta.

I pray I may see and realise that universal protector of the world of nature and the mother powers of life, who, ever infallible and immaculate, is immanent and active over the nearest and the farthest paths of existence, and, pervading the centripetal and centrifugal waves of Prakrti, eternally rolls around in the worlds of the universe.

Note: This mantra can be interpreted with reference to the individual soul: I wish and pray I may realise the essential nature of that presiding power over the mind and senses which, though in association with the mind and senses, never falls from its essence and moves over the paths and forms of existence far and near. The soul takes to the forms of Prakrti which, it feels, go with it, as well as to those forms which are various and disagreeable. And thus it goes round and round in and across the worlds of the universe, integrated with all living forms and yet essentially its own self.

32. Ya iin cakara na so asya veda ya iin dadarsa hirginnu tasmait. Sa mauryonii parivito antar-

That One that creates this universe, the other, individual soul, knows not of. This other that sees this world of existence goes off from the essence, and, enveloped in the mothers womb, covered in the folds of material form within, it is born and enters the world of mortality for ages in birth after birth.

The heaven above is my father and creator, my centre-hold, my haven and home here, my brother support to stand by. And this great earth, this universe, this nature, is my mother. tœ vipœaœcitœœ paribhœvaœ pari bhœvanti viœvœtœ.

Seven evolutes of Prakrti, i.e., five subtle elements, mind and senses (which evolve from Ahankara), and the Mahat-tattva, represent half of the divine process of creation (the other half being the creative seed or thought-sankalpa of Parameshthi Prajapati); they are half the womb of the universe the other half is the divine will. By the will of Vishnu they abide in Akasha, eternal space-and-time continuum with their distinct properties and power and comprehend and rule the entire worlds in existence.

37. \( \text{Na vi jānāmī yadivedamasmi nīṇyaḥ saṁn-addho manasā carāmī. Yadā māgaṇ pratham-ajā ṛtasyādīd vāco aśnuve bhāgamasyāḥ.} \)

I just do not know what I am like for sure, or what this world is. Self-imposed, self-bound, I move around with limited mind and understanding. But when the first evolutes of natural truth, i.e., intelligence and understanding of awareness come to me, and when the revelations of this Divine Word of truth bless me, then I realise my share of knowledge of the reality of existence that it is.

38. \( \text{Apāṇ prāṇeti svadhāyā gṛbhito’martyo martyenā sayonīḥ. Tā śaśvanta viśūcinā viyantā nyanyam cikyurna ni cikyuranyam.} \)

The immortal soul coexistent with the mortal body goes back and forth. Both, body and soul, are eternal and imperishable, the body as Prakṛti in the essence and the soul as spirit. Both are different and going apart. Those who know know one and the other, some know one but not the other, and those who don’t know know neither.

The Rks, Vedas, exist in the omniscient supreme Spirit of existence, infinite and imperishable as the eternal and ultimate space-time continuum. In That, all the divine powers of existence subsist. If one does not know or acknowledge that, what would he or she achieve with mere words of the Rks? Those who know Him, reside with Him.

40. Sūyavasād bhagavaṇī hi bhūyā atho vayaṁ bhaga-vantah syāma. Addhi tr̥magnye viśvadānīṁ piba śuddhamudakamācāranti.

Adorable lady of knowledge and wisdom, be great and illustrious with holy food for mind and spirit, and then, we pray, we too may have the honour and prosperity of knowledge and well-being. Holy and inviolable as the mother cow, living on pure food and drinking pure water, and conducting yourself with kindness and grace, bless us with the generous gift of universal knowledge and joy of life.

The lady of light in spotless white of the Word in the highest heaven of eternal Omniscience, ever keen to reveal and grow, speaks loud and bold, stirring the stillness of space in waves of consciousness in the universal mind and in the pools of the seer’s minds, and thus reveals the Word in forms and stages for humanity: One Veda as the whole knowledge, two Vedas for knowledge and action, three Vedas for knowledge, action and prayer, four Vedas as one compendium of discrete forms, eightfold knowledge of four Vedas and four Upa-Vedas of practical knowledge such as health science, military science, etc., and nine-stage knowledge, the ninth being grammar, phonetics, astronomy, etc. Indeed, this is knowledge contained in countless thousand variations of the One Imperishable Word: AUM.

ततः: एळ्यु एळ्यु तद्विश्वेधुपय जीवति ॥ ४२ ॥

42. Tasyāḥ samudrā adhi vi kṣaranti tena jīvanti pradiśaṣcatasraḥ. Tataḥ kṣaratya kṣaram tad viśvamupa jīvati.

The oceanic showers of that voice of eternal omniscience rain in torrents. With these showers the directions, all the four and their sub-directions, vibrate with life. Then from there the actual words reveal themselves to human vision and perception, and the entire world of humanity lives by that revelation with light, support and guidance.
43. Śakamayāṁ dhūmamārādaḍapaśyāṁ viśūvatā para enāväreṇa. Ukṣāṇam prśnimapacanta virāstāni dharmāṇi prathamāṇyāsan.

I have seen from close quarters the clouds of smoke and vapour laden with power. From this close by, I perceive the powerful catalytic agents of nature far off busy heating and creating the clouds of soma replete with vitality. These processes are the first operations of natural evolution and behaviour higher up in space.

44. Trayāḥ keśina ṛtuthā vi caṅṣate saṁvatsare vapata eka eśām. Viśvameko abhi caṣte śaṅbhīr-dhrājirekasya dadṛṣe na rūpam.

Three powers of nature with their distinct identities express themselves and operate according to the cycle of the seasons in the year. One of these, fire, is lit once in the year and generates and germinates the seeds of life. Another the sun, with its action and operations, illuminates the world. The third is wind, the force of it can be perceived but not its shape and form.
45. Catvāri vāk parimitā padāni tāni vidurbhr-āhmaṇā ye manīṣiṇaḥ. Guhā trīṇi nihitā neṅgayanti turīyam vāco manoṣyā vadanti.

Four are the constituent parts of speech which the wise men of learning know. Three of them are hidden in the cave of the mind, they are neither analysed, nor defined, nor understood by ordinary speakers, only the fourth part of speech, or parole, they use in communication.

(The four constituents of the structure of speech are: Nama or substantive, noun, Akhyata or roots of verbs, Upasarga or affixes, and Nipata or irregular accepted forms. These four are the subjects for grammarians and linguists. For the ordinary person, speech is the whole language, just what it is, and accepted without the understanding of structure and grammar. At a higher level, language is analysed in four layers of existence and consciousness: Para or transcendent language which is beyond thought and understanding. It may be regarded as the language-correspondence of the omniscience of God. The second is Pashyanti, one step close to us from Para. This may be understood to be the language existing in the unconscious layers of the mind. The third is Madhyama, another step closer to our consciousness. Let us say it exists in our sub-conscious mind. And the fourth is Vaikhari, existing at our conscious level of the mind. This is the language in use. Further, this language is analysed into four constituents: Nama, Akhata, Upasarga and Nipata. And of this language too the ordinary speaker uses the accepted form without knowing the structure and grammar. For the ordinary speaker, the language in use is only behaviour purely at the natural and social level. And in yet another way, language may be understood in the way of the Veda: Ila, the language of omniscience, Sarasvati, the language of Veda and learning, Mahi, the spoken language at the level of the earth, nation, region, family and the mother. Another name for this speech is Bharati. And one thing more at the end of this note: This analysis and study is for the learned and for the seekers of learning. It has no value for the ordinary speaker. He or she speaks what is spoken for the only reason that he or she speaks thus, and what is spoken is understood.)

Reality is one, Truth is one, Ishvara is one and only One, not more than one. The learned and the wise speak of It in many ways. They say: It is Indra, glorious, Mitra, universal friend, Varuna, highest adorable, Agni, light of life, Divya, heavenly, Suparna, supreme beauteous, Garutman, supreme dynamic. They say: It is Agni, life and leader of existence, Yama, supreme controller, law and justice, and the judge, and Matarishva, supreme energy of the universe.

46. Indraṁ mitraṁ varuṇam-agnim-āhuratho divyah sa suparno garutman. Ekaṁ sad viprā bahudhā vadantyagnim yamaṁ mātariśvānam-āhuḥ.

The brilliant and beautiful rays of the sun constantly touch the green earth held by the sun and, covered by vapours of water, and rise back to the region of the sun. They come down from the region of waters and the earth is soaked with the water of rain showers.

One full circle is the wheel going round. Twelve are the segments of the felly of the wheel. Three are the centres of the nave. Three hundred and sixty are the spokes fixed and yet on the move with the wheel. Who knows such a wheel? Rarely someone.

Sarasvati, divine mother of the wealth and knowledge of the world, that abundant and inexhaustible treasure of knowledge of yours which is blissful, with which you fill and replenish the cherished resources of the world, which holds the jewels of the earth and reveals and provides the wealths of existence, and which gives all the gifts and blessings of life: that treasure, O mother, pray open for your darling child, the seeker of nourishment for body, mind and soul.

The divinities, first evolutes of nature with the immanent will Divine, conducted the yajna of creation by yajna, yajnic inputs of self-sacrifice. They were the first sustainers, supporters of the divine laws, keepers of the rules of Dharma and carriers of the yajna further. They alone attain to grandeur and rise to the regions where the divine souls of the ancients dwell, who carry on the yajna and serve the Lord of Heaven.

Same is this water which goes up to the skies and comes down to the earth by days and nights. The clouds refresh and replenish the fertility of the earth, while the fires of yajna, electrical energies of the winds and sunrays serve the heavens with fragrance of the earth.

For nourishment, protection and promotion of life on earth, I invoke, adore and constantly offer libations of homage and fragrant samits and havish to the heavenly, bright and blazing angel of cosmic wings, radiating centre of liquid energy and soothing ripener of herbs and greens, ever exuberant flood of generosity, which fills the thirsting earth with rain showers of fertility from the clouds of space.

Mandala 1/Sukta 165

Indra and Maruts Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi

With what noble and equal action do the Maruts, divine complementary energies, kindred powers of equal age and home, join together, mix the yajna materials for oblations and shower the earth with rain and fragrance? With what thought and intelligence, and coming from where do they, generous powers anxious for the wealth of life, value and refine strength and competence for the realisation of wealth?
2. Kasya brahmāṇi jujūṣur-yuvānah ko adhvare maruta ā vavarta. Śyenāṁ iva dhrajato antarikṣe kena mahā manasā rīramāma.

Whose wealth do they, ever young, love and delight in? Who enjoins the Maruts to visit and join the yajna of love and non-violence? The Maruts traverse the spaces like eagles sweeping across the skies. With what great mind shall we serve and please them?

Kutastvamindra māhinaḥ sanneko yāsi satpate kim ta itthā. Šaṁ prcchase samarāṇaḥ subhānair-vocetstanno harivo yat te asme.

Indra, lord of might and grandeur, protector of truth and right, you are so great, unique, still you go all alone by yourself, without attendant, assistant or retinue? Wherefrom? Where to? This way? What does it mean? We ask you, friend and comrade, lord of sunbeams, whatever is in your mind for us, pray speak in good words.

Bṛahmaṇi ma mātṛtyuḥ śaṁ sūtasaḥ śuṣma iyarti prabhṛto me adriḥ. Ā śāṣate prati haryantyu-kthemā harī vahastā na accha.
thunderbolt deployed go forward for our good and peace. The songs of praise arise and celebrate us. May the horses of Indra, the energies of sunbeams and electrical energy, carry us onward.

5. Ato vayam-antam-ebhir-yujōṇāḥ svakṣatrebhista-tanvah śumbhamānāḥ. Mahobhireto ’n upa yujmahe nvindra svadhāmanu hi no babhūtha.

Thus possessed of our most intimate powers and the grandeur of our social order, raising the beauty and grace of our body politic, we may use these powers and energies of nature. Indra, lord of grace and power, be favourable to us in consonance with our own essential strength, power and virtue of character.

6. Kva syā vo marutah svadhāsīd yanmāme kaṁ samaddhatāhiḥatyey. Aham hyugras-taviṣa-tuviṣmān viśvasya śatror-anamaṁ vadhasnaip.

O Maruts, tempestuous powers of knowledge, speed and energy, where is that essential strength and energy of yours which you placed in me to break the clouds of rain showers by myself alone? Bright, blazing and awful of power, I bow in homage to you with all my fatal weapons of defence against the enemies of the world and humanity. (The strength and energy is everywhere in nature, in fire, water and electric and magnetic force, and in the sunbeams. Let us exploit these with knowledge and scientific technique.)

Indra, lord of power and generosity, with nature’s energy harnessed for acts of general, universal and humane value, you have done us proud with many useful, equal and valorous acts of nobility. Indra, lord of highest valour and peace, and Maruts, heroes of tempestuous speed and performance, let us too do a lot of great things and achieve what we want with noble yajnic acts of love and generosity.

O Maruts, heroes of furious energy and power, I break the clouds of darkness with my own might, being powerful by my own passion for what is right, and, holding the thunderbolt in hand, I do these acts of universal wealth and beauty for the sake of humanity, acts which clear the paths for future progress.
9. Anuttama te maghavannakirnu na tvāvāṁ asti devatā vidānah. Na jāyamano naśate na jāto yānī kariṣyā kṛṇu hi pravṛddha.

Lord of bounty, wealth and power, there is nothing initiated, inspired and made to move except by you. There is none like you who commands light, knowledge and generosity in abundance. There is none born or emerging into prominence who can attain to your grandeur. Lord thriving and exalted, do whatever things are to be done, for no one can rival you.

10. Ekasya cinme vibhavastvojo yā nu dadhrśvān kṛṇavai maniśā. Aham hugro maruto vidāno yānī cyavamindra idīśa eśām.

I am one and independent, may my vigour and splendour grow and spread all round since, bold and daring, whatever I do and want to do, I do with all my mind and soul. O Maruts, heroes of the winds and tempests, I am bright and lustrous, I am Indra, master of my own powers. I am knowledgeable, I know what I know. Wherever I move, whatever I achieve, surely I rule and govern.

11. Amandanmā marutaḥ stomo atra yanme naraḥ śrutiṃ brahma cakra. Indrāya vrṣṇe sumakhā- ya mahyaṁ sakhye sakhāyastanve tanūbhiḥ.
Friends, leaders, Maruts, may the hymns of Veda and the song of praise which you have composed for me and offered here give me joy. May the song with its body of words and music be pleasing to me and my body and mind and to Indra, generous friend of all and performer of yajna.

\[9. \text{Anuttama\,te\,maghavannakirnu\,na\,tv\textadha\,devat\textadha\,vid\textadha\,na\,j\textadha\,ma\,y\textadha\,k\textadha\,prav\textadha.} \]

Thus may these friends, leaders and you, O Maruts, golden glorious all, loving and kind toward me, holding and commanding admirable foods, energies and noble desires, wealth, honour and holy songs, holding me in high esteem, happily disposed, overwhelm me with honour and joy.

\[13. \text{Ko\,nvatra\,maruto\,mamaha\,va\,y\,y\textadha\,sakh\textadha\,sakhay.\,Manmani\,citra\,apiva\textadha-tayanta\,eso\,bh\textadha\,naveda\,ma\,ritanam.} \]

O Maruts, pioneers of knowledge and science, who offers you tributes of praise and appreciation here now? Friends, go forward to those friends who love and honour you. Heroes of wonderful action, moving on to the completion of your programmes of knowledge, be aware of my projects of truth and natural laws and waters of space to fight out want and suffering.

\[14. \text{ Ā yad duvasyād duvase na kārur-asmāṅcakre mānyasya medhā. O ṣu vartta maruto viprama- cchemā brahmāṇi jaritā vo arcat.} \]

Just as honour and celebration moves on from the honoured to the honourable in succession in the advancement of knowledge, so let the intelligence and expertise of the eminent scientist and technologist come to benefit us. O Maruts, leaders and pioneers of knowledge, turn in appreciation and recognition to the scholar expert, since the celebrant offers these hymns of praise, discovery and invention to you.

\[15. \text{Eṣa vaḥ stomo maruta iyaṁ gīrmāṅdārasya mānyasya kāroḥ. Eṣā yāśiṣṭa tanve vayāṁ vidyāmesam vṛjanam jīradānum.} \]

O Maruts, leaders, pioneers, heroes of speed and power of progress, this song of celebration is for you. It is the voice of the lyric of the honourable artist, scientist and technologist. Come with desire and commitment to advance the science and the scholar further. And let us too achieve food and energy, strength and power, and life-giving victories.
Mandala 1/Sukta 166

Maruts Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi

Tannu vocāma rabhasāya janmane pūrvāṃ maitivam vṛṣabhasya ketave. Aidheva yāman maruta-stuviśvaṇo yudheva śakrāstaviṣāṇi kartana.

O Maruts, roaring heroes of the strength and speed of the winds, for a full life of courage and enthusiasm and the distinction of leadership and overflowing generosity, we sing and celebrate your ancient and original heroism. Blazing like fire, advancing like warriors, do wondrous deeds of valour worthy of admiration.

Nityaṁ na sūnum madhu bibhrata upa krīḷanti kriḷā vidatheṣu gṛṣvayayaḥ. Nakṣanti rudrā avasā namasvināṁ na mardhanti svatavaso haviśkṛtam

They bear the honey sweets of life for all as parents bring honey to their darling child. Heroes of courage and valour but sportive as ripples of a stream, they play their part in the battles of life. Ferocious and terrible like jaws of retributive justice, yet dear as breath of life, they come to the man of reverence and humility with love and protection and, with all their innate strength and power, they never hurt the man dedicated... to yajna and charity.

\[

Just as imperishable protectors provide wealth and nourishment for the man who gives liberally in charity along with offerings of fragrant materials into the yajna fire, so do the Maruts, winds and other natural energies, kind and beneficent, like favourable helpers at the beck and call of a friend, overflow many regions of earth and skies with milk and water for the sake of the man of yajna.

\text{As you move on to reach the regions of your choice with your power and force and while your automotive and tempestuous rockets rush forth through the skies and spaces, then all the worlds and their towers shake with terror. Amazing is that mission of flight in the programmed and guided projects of yours.}
5. \textit{Yattvesayamā nadayanta parvatān divo vā pṛṣṭham naryā acucyavuh. Viśvo vo ajman bhayate vanaspati rathīyanīva pra jihīta oṣadhiḥ.}

When the man-made meteors of rockets blazing through sky and space roar through mountains of earth and clouds of dust and vapour, making them reverberate, and thus reach the top of heaven, then all the bio-world on your way shakes in fear and celestial herbs like soma shake off from the root like astronauts floating from their seat in the control chamber.

6. \textit{Yūyam na ugrā marutaḥ sucetunā’riṣṭagrāmāḥ sumatim pipartana. Yatrā vo didyud radati krivirdatī riṇāti paśvaḥ sudhiteva barhaṇā.}

Maruts, powers young, dynamic and passionately enthusiastic, bright blazing and well-harnessed is your power of energy, held and controlled like a tempered sword, cutting, lighting, digging and driving. With this electric energy and your noble intelligence, assure and augment our understanding and development without damaging the country-life.
7. Pra skambhadesṇā anavabhrarādhaso’lāṭrṇāso vidatheṣu suṣṭutāḥ. Arcantyarkaṁ maḍirasya pītaye vidurvīrasya prathamāṁi paumśyā.

Givers of settlement and sustenance, sure and secure of their wealth and power of accomplishment, victorious over their opponents, highly applauded in the yajnic battles of life, honour and invite the brilliant and the wise for a drink of inspiring soma. They know, achieve and command the first, essential heroic powers of the brave and virtuous.

8. Śatabhujibhistamabhihruteraghūt pūrbhī rakṣatā maruto yamāvata. Janam yamugrāsta-vaso virapśinaḥ pāthanā saṁśāt tanayasya puṣṭiṣu.

O Maruts, young leaders and heroes, bright, powerful and generous, whoever you promote and protect in city life with a hundred ways of comfort and security, protect him from crime and damage, and in matters of the promotion and advancement of his children, save the man from sin and scandal.

9. Viśvāni bhadrā maruto ratheṣu vo mithaspr-dhyeva taviśāṇyāhitā. Aṁsesvā vah prapatheṣu khādayo’kṣo vaścakrā samayā vi vāvrte.

O Maruts, heroic warriors like the winds, in your chariots are collected materials for universal good of the people, and on your shoulders and in the chariots are blazing weapons in position competing, as if, in effectiveness. In your paths are provided materials for food and advancement, and the axles and wheels of the chariots are well aligned and balanced for fast and rhythmic movement.

adhi vayo na pakṣān vyanu śriyo dhire.

In the arms of these heroes of the people there is abundant power for general good. On their chest are ornamented armours of strong and variegated design.
On their shoulders are bows and arrows of lightning speed. On their thunderbolt is the sharpness of the razor’s edge. And they wear the dignity and grace of the wings of celestial birds.

महान्तो मह्ना विभ्वतेः विभूतयाः दूरंदूरः य दिव्याडंब स्वृत्भिः॥

11. Mahānto mahnā vibhvo vibhūtayayo dūredrśo ye divyā iva strībhīḥ. Mandrāḥ sujihvāḥ svaritāra āsabhiḥ sammiślā indre marutaḥ pariṣṭubhāḥ.

Great are the Maruts with their own innate greatness, powerful, magnanimous, far-sighted, refulgent with brilliant stars which light the world, joyous and loved of all, sweet of tongue, true of the word of mouth, and they are sustainers of all in company with Indra, universal energy and power.

12. Tad vah sujātā maruto mahitvanāṁ dirghaṁ vo dātram-aditeriva vratam. Indraścana tyajasā vi hruṇāti tajjanāya yasmai suktre arādhvam.

O Maruts, high-born and arisen you are, great is your glory, abundant is your generosity, and deep and inviolable is your discipline of vows as that of imperishable Aditi. Whatever you grant and bestow on the man of noble action, even Indra commanding the thunderbolt does not touch.

13. Tad vo jāmitvaṁ marutaḥ pare yuge purū yacchaṁsamam-amṛtāsa āvata. Ayā dhiyā manave śruṣṭimāvyā sākaṁ naro damsanairā cikitrire.

O Maruts, immortal souls, that brotherhood of yours, that joy and suffering of yours in the last age, that high honour and reputation you earned and preserved, the same honour and reputation, protect and preserve with this intelligence and understanding of yours for humanity and further extend and preserve with your noble actions in company with men and leaders.
O Maruts, heroes of instant action and achievement, that abundance, expertise and heroism of yours by virtue of which we achieve great things of lasting significance, by which people expand in knowledge and win victories in their battles of life, that very cherished abundance, expertise and power of action, I pray, I too may achieve by these yajnic performances.

O Maruts, heroes of instant action, universal knowledge and abundant generosity, this is the song of celebration in honour of your action and achievement. This is the spontaneous voice of the happy and honoured poet artist. May it reach you for the manifestation of your form and image in existence for our benefit so that we may acquire food and energy for our body, mind and spirit, clear our paths of advancement and achieve abundance in life for a vibrant living.
Indra-Maruts Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi

   Lord of power and sustenance, Indra, thousands are your protections and ways of protection for us. Lord of sunbeams, thousand-fold are the foods and energies of the most admirable order. Thousands are your gifts of wealth for us to enjoy life. And thousands may be, we pray, the forms of knowledge, valour and victory for us.

2. Ā no’vobhirmaruto yāntvacchā jyeṣṭhebhirvā brhad divaiḥ sumāyāḥ. Adha yadeśāṁ niyutah paramāḥ samudrasya cid dhanayanta pāre.

   May the Maruts, heroes of the winds, powers of vision and wonder as they are, come well to us with their modes of protection and senior-most scholars of brilliance, and then may follow those of their most efficient modes of transport which can cross the seas and skies for the acquisition of wealth.

Seeker of knowledge, go and mix with those scholars and visionaries among whom exists that noble and comprehensive language which is fit for scientific yajnas of versatile purpose, which is fit for use in councils of governance, which is peacefully held like the dewy night by the sky, which is held like a golden sword by the warrior, which is held like lightning by the cloud, and which, like the youthful maiden of the human lover, moves in covert allays in search of the lover. (Such is living speech.)

Distant but brilliant and powerful, moving at moderate speed, the Maruts shower the earth and sky with rain, but even when they are violent, roaring with lightning, they are not repulsive, they are only impulsive, not repelling the sky and the earth away but impelling them with new life and energy, because the divines love to mix and join in a spirit of commonalty for the sake of friendship and love the growth and expansion of all in power and potential.
5.  Joṣad yadīmasuryā sacadhyai viṣitatstukā rodasī nṛmanāḥ. Ā sūryeva vidhato rathāṁ gāt tveṣa-pratīkā nabhaso netyā.

If the earth, source of pranic vitality and loving mother of mankind, were to serve the Maruts for the sake of waters, then she, with flowing hair like the lights of evening dawn, shining brilliant as child of the sun, would ride the chariot of the Lord Ordainer and sustainer, i.e., the sun, and rise as if going to sky heights of progress and abundance.

When the worshipper, rich in yajnic offerings, having distilled the soma, sings songs of praise zealously in honour of you, then, O Maruts, youthful powers of nature’s brilliance and force, you give him in marriage a young maiden, smart and dynamic, dedicated to yajnas, and a harbinger of happiness and bliss in life.

That greatness and glory of the Maruts which is worthy of celebration, I celebrate. It is real and true, since he that is virile and proud of himself, Indra, in unison with this firm earth, sustains the many happy mothers and children of the world.

Mitra and Varuna protect from sin and shame. Surely Aryama, lord of justice, raises the despicable. They shake off even the firm and fixed enemies of life. O Maruts, the gift of your generosity ever grows and grows.

O Maruts, neither from near nor from afar do they find the end of your power and force. Intrepidable and rising with inviolable strength and courage, they, i.e., the Maruts keep the enemies down and, vast as the ocean, they stay and abide far higher than jealousy and calumny of small minds.

We are the dearest children of Indra to-day. Let us be able to say the same thing tomorrow in the battles of life. And for the sake of this love and grace of Indra, let us first maintain our own greatness of character and performance day by day, and then, we pray, may Indra be kind and favourable day by day among men. Lord of thunderbolt He is.

O Maruts, this is your song of celebration, this is the voice of the happy and honoured poet artist. May it reach you for the manifestation of your image and action for us. And may we, we pray, achieve food and energy, advancement in action and the joy of life.

Mandala 1/Sukta 168

Maruts Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Yajñāyajñā vaḥ samanā tuturvanir-dhiyāṁ-dhiyāṁ vo devayā u dadhidhve. Ā vo’rvācaḥ suvitāya rodasyormahe vavṛtyāmavase suvṛktibhiḥ.
O Maruts, powers of enlightenment, generous action and well-being of the world, in every act of yajna one after another, let your will and performance be equal, fast and victorious. In every act of thought, reflection and planning, let your intelligence, understanding and imagination, and even your calculation be divinely holy. For the well-being of the earth and heaven, and for the sake of great and inviolable protection of life and life’s joy, with yajnīc oblations and songs of praise and thankfulness, we pray, turn your attention this way for our good and well-being by straight and simple speed of motion.

सहस्रस्विवासा अपां नाममेव आसा गावा वन्यासा ना गाः ॥ २ ॥

Come this way, Maruts! Powers ever on the move for protection and progress of us all, self-creative, self-strong, movers and shakers like a thousand waves of the rolling seas, they are born to provide nourishment, energy, light and happiness for others. Worthy of honour and reverence they are like generous cows who provide motherly milk for sustenance and growth, and like the sacrificing bullocks who carry the burdens of humanity. Admirable, worthy of thanks and praise with honest word of the mouth they are.
3. Somāso na ye sutāstrptāṃśavo hṛtsu pītāso duvaso nāsate. Aiśāmaṃseṣu rambhiṇīva rārabhe hasteṣu khādiścakṛtiṣcasaṃ dadhe.

Maruts, vibrant powers of enlightenment, nourishment and protection, like soma, with off-shoots spreading around, distilled and drunk to the last drop of the essence assimilated into the heart, abide with us, loved, honoured and admired as our own. I depend on their shoulders for support as a housewife depends upon the support of the head of family. And in their hands, the Maruts hold action in one and wear the band of victory on the other.

4. Ava svayuktā diva ā vṛthā yayur-amartyāḥ kaśayā codata tmanā. Areṇavastuvijātā acucyavur-draḥhāni cinmaruto bhrājadṛṣṭayaḥ.

Self-inspired, self-motivated and self-driven, Maruts descend from the heights of heaven freely, spontaneously and selflessly. Immortal are you, mighty heroes, inspire and excite the will to live with your heart and soul and use the will as a goal and an invitation to life. Pure and unsullied, born of energy and impetuous in motion, wielding weapons of light and lightning, O Maruts, you stir and move even the fixed and immovable mountains.

5. Ko vōntarmarutaivaḥvidyuto rejati tmanāḥ jihvayā. Dhanvacyuta iṃ na yōmanā purupraiḥ ahanyo naitaḥ.

O Maruts, wielders of arms blazing as light and lightning, who or what in you shakes and shines in you by itself like flames or waves of sound? Inspirers of many, augmenters of food, energy and love of life, who starts you on your mission of life like the cloud melting in the sky or like a fast horse on its daily round?

6. Kva svidasya rajaso mahasparāṇaḥ kvāvahā maruto yasminnāyaya. Yaccyavayatha vīthureva saḥitaḥ vyadriḥpatatha tveḥmarāvam.

O Maruts, what is the ultimate beyond this great region of the skies, and what is the ultimate this side wherein you move hither and shake the things concentrated here like precarious objects of no value, or fly down with the clouds to the shining seas?

7. Sūtrinā vo'mavatē svāratē tveḥvē ṣhanti. Bhadrēvo rēti pśato na dākṣiṇyā pśthujrayē asuryeva jaśatē.

Like your acquisition and distribution is your generosity and benevolence, powerful, blissful, lustrous, maturing and fruitful, abundant, auspicious, as the gift...
5. Ko vo’ntarmaruta ṛṣṭividyuto rejati tmanā hanveva jihvayā. Dhanvacyuta iṣāṁ na yāmanī purupraīṣā ahanyo naitaśaḥ.

O Maruts, wielders of arms blazing as light and lightning, who or what in you shakes and shines in you by itself like flames or waves of sound? Inspirers of many, augmenters of food, energy and love of life, who starts you on your mission of life like the cloud melting in the sky or like a fast horse on its daily round?

O Maruts, what is the ultimate beyond this great region of the skies, and what is the ultimate this side wherein you move hither and shake the things concentrated here like precarious objects of no value, or fly down with the clouds to the shining seas?

Like your acquisition and distribution is your generosity and benevolence, powerful, blissful, lustrous, maturing and fruitful, abundant, auspicious, as the gift of a philanthropist yajamana, expansive and victorious like the breeze of life’s energy.

When the Maruts ride their chariots, the wheels rumble with thunder of the clouds and oceans pant and roll in awe, and when they shower torrents or rain on the earth, flashes of lightning flaunt with pride and lights of joy.

9. Asūta prśnirmahate raṇāya tveṣamayāsāṁ marutāmanāṇikam. Te sapsaraśo’janayantābhvāmādīt svadhāmiṣirāṁ paryapaśyan.

Mother Nature creates the blazing force of the tempestuous Maruts for the great battle of the elements in the process of evolution, and they, moving and working together with the waves of creative energy, fashion forms earlier not in existence and watch the achievements of their own powers all round in the midst of the variety of creative materials.
10. Eṣa vaḥ stomo maruta iyaṁ gīrmāṇḍāryasya māṇyasya kāroḥ. Eṣā yāśiṣṭa tanve vayaṁ vidyāmeṣaṁ vrjanam jīradānum.

This is the song of the Maruts in celebration of their work and power in the world of nature and humanity in evolution. This is the voice of the poet, happy and honoured artist, maker of beautiful forms. May this, with love and homage of the poet, reach the Maruts for their manifestation in form and image, and may we too achieve food and energy, vision and will to move on clear and simple paths of progress, and may we have the bliss of the breeze of freshness and light of life.

Mandala 1/Sukta 169

Indra Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Mahaścit tvamindra yat etān mahaścidasi tyajaso varūtā. Sa no vedho marutāṁ cikitvān tsumnā vanuṣya tava hi preṣṭhā.

Indra, lord of knowledge and power, destroyer of suffering, you are great and glorious indeed, since you accept and honour and protect these great saints and scholars for the reason of their selflessness and dedication. As such, you yourself a scholar among dynamic scholars and knowing what is dearest to you and the Maruts, fastest leaders of society, pray give us the peace and comfort of perfect well-being.

Arundhati इङ्कः विपश्चरुप्रेमिकायंविद्यामानंविष्णिंविधामत्यत्रः । पुरुषोहृत्यत्वत्तमांस्वरूपःहस्यपुर्ध्यनस्यस्मातः॥ २॥
2. Ayujranta indra viśvakṛṣṭīr vidāṇāso niśṣidho martyatā. Marutām ṁṛtsutirhāsamānā svarmī-ḥasya pradhanasya sātau.

   Indra, lord of honour and glory, that dedicated force of yours consisting of the Maruts, intelligent, creative and war-like leaders among ordinary mortals, smiling, happy and joyful, may, we pray, join and engage entire humanity in the battle of creative production of wealth and well-being for the lord creator of paradisal bliss on earth.

3. Amyak sā ta indra ṇṛṣirasme sanemyabhvaṁ maruto junanti. Agniściddhi ṇmātase śuśukvā-nāpo na dvīpaṁ dadhati prayāṃsi.

   May the fruits of that loving and generous creativity of yours, by which the Maruts create perfect joyous gifts of life from pre-existing causes, which gifts, like the blazing fire in the wood and waters in the open-ended flowing rivers and space, abide in nature, and which gifts, then, the living beings enjoy as the dearest gifts of life (by virtue of the creative dynamics of the Maruts).

4. Tvaṁ tū na indra taṁ rayiṁ dā ojiṣṭhayā dakṣiṇayeva rātim. Stutaśca yāste cakananta vāyoḥ stanaṁ na madhvaḥ pīpayanta vājaiḥ.
Indra, glorious lord of wealth, give us that wealth of life as a gift with the highest generosity of heart and magnanimity of mind which is honoured by the beneficiaries, that wealth and generosity of yours and the Maruts’ which all people love, and which, like the honey sweet milk of the mother’s breast, nourishes the child with food, energy and intelligence.

5. Tve rāya indra tośatamāḥ praṇetārah kasya cidṛtāyoḥ. Te śuṇo maruto mṛlayantu ye smā purā gātūyantīva devāḥ.

Indra, in you and with you abide wealths and virtues of the world which are most satisfying saviours and redeemers, which help any lover of truth, piety and yajna keen to cross the oceans of existence to liberation. May the Maruts give us that peace and wealth. May the ancient and eternal nobilities eager to rise to divinity guide and bless us.

Indra, lord of power, knowledge and action, go forward to the great, virile and generous people, fast, intelligent and vibrant as the winds, and try experiments on the floor of this great earth. And then, just as the powers and transports of the master stand ready at his service, so would the mighty and spacious flying machines like horses would stand ready for the heroes of the skies.

I hear the echoes of the roar of awful and impetuous Maruts reaching their target and returning—Maruts which, with the creation and release of fresh energy and modes of protection, exhort and accelerate the speed of humanity on way to progress like an army advancing to victory.

8. Tvaṁ mānebhya indra viśvajanyā radā marudbhīḥ śurudho goagrāḥ. Stavaṇebhiḥ stavase deva devaṁvidyāmeṣaṁ vrjanāṁ jīradānum.

Indra, lord of light and power, adored by admirers of brilliance and generosity, for the sake of honour and prestige and in honour of the venerables, split and know the sun-light headed powers of nature such as waters and herbs with the help of the Maruts, catalytic, analytical and universally creative energy waves of nature, and let us know and acquire wealth of food, energy, onward progress and the breath and freshness of life.
Mandala 1/Sukta 170

Indra Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi

Nothing that is present is permanent, nor what shall be is constant. Who knows what, in truth, is mysterious: serial yet constant, and constant yet elusive? It is someone else’s mind and consciousness you should be with, otherwise what you know or think you know, that too would fade into the unknown.

Indra, lord of earth and ocean, master of the skies, why do you wish to forsake us? The Maruts are your brethren, they are heroes of earth and ocean and the skies. With them, plan and act with noble intentions. Do not destroy us in the battle of life.

Indra, lord of light and power, adored by admirers of brilliance and generosity, for the sake of honour and prestige and in honour of the venerables, split and know the sun-light headed powers of nature such as waters and herbs with the help of the Maruts, catalytic, analytical and universally creative energy waves of nature, and let us know and acquire wealth of food, energy, onward progress and the breath and freshness of life.
Brother Agastya, pioneer of vision, insight and foresight, you are our friend. Being a friend, why do you disdain us? Don’t you want to give us the secret of knowing your mind as it is?

Indra, let the priests prepare and decorate the vedi and light the holy fire as before. And there in the vedi you and we all, teachers and disciples, would conduct and expand your yajna of the immortal spirit, knowledge and divine consciousness.

5. Tvamīśiśe vasupate vasūnāṁ tvāṁ mitrāṇāṁ mitrapate dheṣṭhaḥ. Indra tvāṁ marudbhīṁ saṁ vadasvādha prāśāna ṛtuthā havīṁśi.

Indra, spirit of the universe, master of the worlds, lord protector of the sustainers of life, highest wielder of the wealth of the world, you rule, govern and ordain the honour and grandeur of existence. Lord protector of friends and friends of life, you rule, govern and ordain all the powers and energies that protect, preserve and promote the evolution and onward march of life and humanity. Lord of knowledge and power, speak to the Maruts, dynamic powers of nature and humanity, accept our offers of oblations, consume them in the yajna fire, and create the life-giving vapours of energy and showers of rain according to the seasons.

Mandala 1/Sukta 171

Maruts Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Prati va enā namasāhamemi sūktena bhikṣe samatiṁ turāṇām. Rarāṇatā maruto vedyābhirni heḷo dhatta vi mucadhvam-aśvān.

O Maruts, dynamic powers of nature and humanity, bearers of light, knowledge and power, with this homage and song of celebration and reverence, I come to you and pray for my share of noble thoughts and intelligence from the excellent priests and preceptors. O dynamic scholars of power and force, and of the light of life, keep you anger and passion aside and, exulting in the onward march of humanity, release the powers of progress by the freedom and initiative that comes with knowledge and conscious values of life and love.

2. Eṣa vaḥ stomo maruto namasvān hṛdā taṣṭo manasā dhāyi devāḥ. Upemā yāta manasā juṣṭāṇā yūyām hi ṣṭhā namasa id vṛdhāsaḥ.

O Maruts, vibrations of the divine in nature and humanity, this song of celebration and reverence is risen from the heart and crafted with love and beauty. O visionaries of divinity, take it with the same equal love with which it is offered. Take to the spirit of it with your heart and mind, come close bearing your gifts of life and energy, advance us onward, and stay with us, because you are the veterans of eminence and progress for the love of living with gifts of divinity.

O Maruts, veteran visionaries of life and divinity, powers of knowledge for advancement, admired and honoured as you are, pray give us peace and well-being. Indra, lord of honour and glory, listen to our prayer and worship, and bless us with peace and prosperity. Maruts, heroes of tempestuous speed and energy, let all our future days be distinguished by high ambition, cherished goals and love of victory.

O Maruts, heroes of energy, power and speed, shining with strength and power and, at the same time, conscious and moved by the awe of this blazing lord Indra and his law, I say, these holy materials of yajna are dedicated to you, these weapons and armaments are tempered and sharpened for you. We offer these right here. Accept these, we pray, and make us happy and comfortable with peace and well-being.

By the strength and courage by which the veterans of knowledge and enlightenment instruct and educate the ancient and constant citizens of the ancient and constant republics in their ancestral habitations, by the same strength and courage, O Indra, ruler of the land, generous and valorous, bright and blazing, old and venerable, giver of strength and constancy, give us food, energy, power, and honour with the help of the Maruts, mighty and formidable leaders and warriors of the land.

Indra, lord of power, honour and glory, ruler of the world, patient, constant and victorious, protect and promote the men of strength, courage and endurance.
With the help of the Maruts, lustrous guardians and watchful protectors of the people, be free from anger and disdain of impatience and despair. Wielder of power and presiding power of the social order as you are, let us have knowledge and enlightenment, strength and courage of will and morals, and the light and vision of the spirit of life and joy.

2. Āre sā vaḥ sudānavaḥ maruta ṛṇjaṭī śaruḥ.

O Maruts, courageous brothers of charity, givers of bliss and protection like winds and lightning, may that missile of yours, which you throw like thunderbolt upon the destroyers, and the deadly double edged sword you wield against the powers of darkness, be far away from us for our protection against evil.
With the help of the Maruts, lustrous guardians and watchful protectors of the people, be free from anger and disdain of impatience and despair. Wielder of power and presiding power of the social order as you are, let us have knowledge and enlightenment, strength and courage of will and morals, and the light and vision of the spirit of life and joy.

3. Trṇaskandasya nu viśaḥ pari vṛṅkta sudānavaḥ. Ürdhvān nah karta jīvase. Maruts, generous powers of charity and valour, spare the and protect men of straw, take to the rural settlements and raise us all to the heights of life.

Mandala 1/Sukta 173

Indra Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Gāyat sāma nabhanyaṁ yathā verarcāma tad vāvṛdhānam svarvat. Gāvo dhenavo barhiṣya-dabdhā ā yat sadmānam divyāṁ vivāsān. Let the holy man sing spontaneous songs of joyous Sama like the song of the bird soaring to the clouds, and we shall join that resounding melody of music overflowing with divine ecstasy, when the rays of the dawn, generous like venerable holy cows, sacred and inviolable, fill the vault of the sky and celebrate the heavenly sun rising in splendour over the world and the generous cows stir around the stalls and sit on the holy grass around the yajnic area doing homage to Indra.

Let the brilliant man of yajna, virile and generous, trying to reach his aim like a bounding deer at the fastest speed, with virile and generous yajakas, offer rich, fragrant yajnic offerings, to Indra. Let the mortal man, happy at heart with his life partner dedicated to yajna and social service, offer hymns of praise and fragrant oblations to Indra, lord of life, honour and glory.

3. _Nakṣaddhotā pari sadma mitā yan bharad garbhamā śaradaḥ prthivyāḥ_. _Krandadāśvo naya-māno ruvad gaurantardūto na rodasī carad vāk._

Let the yajakas, Indra, fire and power, divine energy, receiver and giver, receive the oblations and rise by the vedi constructed in definite design and measure, bearing the essences of the earth’s produce the year round according to the seasons, and in return replenish the earth with fertility. Let the power arise and go over spaces roaring like a steed well guided, bellowing like a bull, and moving on the rounds like a messenger between heaven and earth, echoing the voice of divinity raised from the seats of yajna.

4. _Tā karmāṣatarāsimai pra cyautnāni devayanto bharante. Jujoṣadindro dasmavarcā nāstyeva sugmyo ratheṣṭhāḥ._

Those yajnic acts, cherished offerings, and mantras vibrating with energy, which the yajakas eager... to please and empower the divinities of nature and humanity offer into the fire for Indra, may Indra, blazing catalytic power of Divinity, happily accessible, riding the chariot of sun-beams, along vibrations of the winds and waves of energy, receive with love and desire and, like the Ashvins, sun and moon, recreate, augment and return as blessings of Divinity for humanity.

5. Tamu sthūhindraṁ yo ha satvā yah śūro maghavā yo ratheśṭhāḥ. Praṅicaścid yodhīyān vrṣaṇvān vavavruṣaścit tamaso vihantā.

Praise be to Indra, celebrate Him in gratefulness. He alone is wholly pure and true. He is mighty and omnipotent. His is the power and the glory. He rides the chariot of the universe as the sole master. Right in front, He is in and with everyone and everything, the great fighter, shower of life and joy, and He is the Light, dispeller of the darkness that hides the truth.

Indra who, thus with His omnipotence, is all in all self-sufficient for the sustenance of humanity, who keeps the heaven and earth and the middle regions in orbit but not for Himself, Indra who weaves the web and wields the entire worlds of existence together, each as on its own path, and then the mighty lord of His own power and Prakrti holds the high heavens up above as the pillar in the centre.

To decorate and honour you as a mighty hero, as a pioneer and leader in the battles of life, as the highest of the best, O sagely wise Indra, lord omnipotent and omniscient, the people of the world, friends, lovers, admirers and worshippers in excitement and ecstasy celebrate you and the worlds, and celebrate with you, with all their might and main and the homage of love and faith.

O Indra, lord ruler of the world, all celebrations in your honour and all your celebrations of life and existence, thus, are for peace and well-being. Thus all waters in the oceans and all celestial waters in space and in these earths of the universe which celebrate you and rejoice in you are for peace and well-being. And when you inspire sagely people with conscious favours and divine intelligence, then all voices of the world in unison with you celebrate you and the joy of existence.

9. Asāma yathā suṣakhāya ena svabhiṣṭaya no narāṁ na śaṁsaiḥ. Asad yathā na indro vandaneṣṭhās-turo na karma nayamāna ukthā.

Lord of knowledge, divine action and human progress, guide us the way we may be blest with good friends and allies, with noble aims and intentions as with good wishes and approbations of the people around, and the way that Indra, happy with our praise and worship, be with us always, taking us forward in action like a carrier rocket in the holy field of science and technology.

vajrahastāḥ. Mitrāyuvo na pūrpatim suśīṣṭaumadhyāyuva upa śikṣanti yajñaiḥ.

As with the praise and prayers of people trying to excel and rise in life, so with our praise and prayers may Indra, lord of armaments and the thunderbolt, be with us as a friend and guide. Like men with desire for friends, and like people of experience at the middle of age who serve Indra, lord of the city, with yajnas and sit with him for the sake of auspicious learning, we too serve the lord with yajnic offerings, meditate and pray for learning in the field of science and administration.

Some yajña is good for success and glorifies Indra, social order of governance and the ruler. A tortuous path, though apparently yajnic and good, repels the seeker mentally and emotionally. A good home close by in a place of pilgrimage is good for the thirsty traveller, but a long and tortuous path is no use, it does no good toward success.

Indra, lord of power and prosperity, you are with the divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity, never with the ungenerous. Pray, do not forsake us in the battles of life. Lord of light and grandeur, this praise and prayer is for you surely, this voice of unifying love and faith which celebrates the great, generous, creative, philanthropic and dynamic powers of the divine and human world is for you.

Indra, lord of power and glory, thus our song of celebration and prayer is for you. Lord of lightning speed and force, by this song know, recognise and accept us and our ways of life and conduct. Lord of light, kind and generous, come and bless us constantly for our good and well-being so that we may be blest with food and energy, the right way of living and the inspiring spirit of life.

Indra Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi

Indra, lord of light, you are the ruler, lord of life and giver of energy. You and those powers and personalities that are generous and brilliant in nature and humanity protect us and the people. You are the protector of truth. You are the lord of wealth and glory of the world. You are our saviour, you are the truth of existence. You are the shelter and support of all that is. You are the strength and the giver of strength and constancy.

You subdue and bring under rule the people who are violent in social discourse. You open the seven cities and the homes therein locked in winter snow. Lord adorable free from scandal, you break the cloud for rain showers and let the river waters flow for the sunny world of young humanity.

Immortal Indra, destroyer of suffering, elected and invoked by all, surely you drive high up to the lights of heaven with the Maruts, tempestuous powers of nature and humanity. With the same powers, like a lion, pray protect the brave women of the land. Preserve the inextinguishable fire that moves high speed vehicles to their destination. Keep the morning fires burning and let the waters of the home flow on and on.

4. Śeṣan nu ta indra sasmin yonau praśastaye pavīraśasya mahā. Sṛjadarṇāṁsyava yad yudhā gāstiṣṭhaddharī dhṛṣata mṛṣṭa vājān.
Indra, lord of war for humanity, for your honour and glory, let the enemies fall and go to sleep on the battle-field by the awful roar of your thunderbolt, while you ride the chariot and release the floods of attack with the force of action, destroy the resistance of opposition and then hold the lands in peace and security.

Vaha kutsamindra yasmiṁścākan tsyūmanyū ṝjrā vātasyāśvā. Pra sūraścakram bṛhatādabhike 'bhi spṛdho yāsiṣad vajrabāhuḥ.

Indra, lord of world power, wielder of the force of thunder, keen for the reins and thirsting for the heart’s desire, take up the thunderbolt, ride the horses of the winds shooting straight to the target, and go to the battle you love to fight. So should the ruler, strong of arm and will, blazing as the sun, meet the contending enemies in battle and expand the wheel of the social order.

Jaghanvāṇ indra mitrerūṁ-codapravṛddho harivo adāśūn. Pra ye paśyannaryamaṇaṁ sacāyostvayā śūrtā vahamānaṁ āpayyam.

In the distribution of food and land, let the man of knowledge and insight speak fully and freely, and then Indra, lord of land, should allot fertile land to the servant class. The lord of wealth and power should fix creative and productive duties and occupations for the other three, and him who is evil of tongue, he should take on in battle of arms or words in the open field.

Indra, lord of power and glory, ruler of the world, let the latest poets and citizens know and sing of your famous acts of valour, justice and generosity with universal courage. You have suppressed the old established strongholds of violence for the elimination of war and establishment of peace. You have broken the dens of sin and crime like the citadels of ancient demons, and you have destroyed the deadly weapons of the terrorist enemies of humanity.
9. \textit{Tvam dhunirindra dhunimaśīotpūrṇorapah sīrā na sravantīḥ. Pra yat samudramati śūra parśi pārayā turvaśam yaduṁ svasti.}

Indra, lord of life and energy, you are a mover and shaker like the inspiration of soma and the speed of winds, shaking people out of lethargy and complacency. You set the waters aflow, shaking and overflowing the banks. Reach the people like roaring streams or like life-blood circulating through the veins of wealth and work. And, O lord of might and knowledge, if you swell the sea to the shores like the sun, then help the man of endeavour and the man of self-controlled speed and acceleration to cross the sea from shore to shore.

Indra, lord of power and force, honour and glory, justice and generosity, be every way the most giving, most protecting and least wolfish greedy ruler of us all. And as such, be the giver of strength, courage and constancy in all our endeavour for the good life and joint competitive and cooperative living so that we are blest with food, energy and prosperity, the right path of living and the right spirit of life.

Indra, lord of energy and paradisal bliss, rejoice. You have drunk of the great and exhilarating soma, the divinity and ecstasy of life fresh from the very flask of existence. Vibrant lord of the knights of horse, that joy of the drink of life is exciting, the very thrill of being. Lord virile and generous, you are the shower of bliss and that soma is soothing like the moon, tempestuous as waves of energy, yes, and a thousand-fold invitation to live, the call of life, for you. (The call of life is the call of existence for the human soul too to be born into this wonderful world of beauty, joy and peace.)

सुहावान्दस्या मुख्यत्तमाः: पात्रः न शाचिष्या॥ ३ ॥

MANDAL - 1 / SUKTA - 175 789 790 RGVEDA
3. Tvaṁ hi śūraḥ sanctā codayo manuṣo ratham.
   Sahāvān dasyum-avratam-oṣaḥ pātraṁ na śociṣā.

   Indra, ruler and protector of the world, great you are, valiant and generous, dispenser, disposer, giver and unifier. Inspire and accelerate the chariot of humanity. Heroic and courageous lord of challenges, burn the lawless brute with your light and lustre of justice as the blaze of fire burns an empty vessel on the hearth (because there is nothing in it except its empty self).

4. Muṣāya sūryam kave cakramiśāna ojasā.
   Vaha śuṣṇāya vadham kutsam vātasyāśvaiḥ.

   Having taken over the wheel of earth’s government with your lustre like the blazing sun, O Lord of light, vision and wisdom, wield the thunderous sceptre of power and justice with honour and hold the system of law and punishment under your control, moving on by horses flying on the wings of winds.

5. Śuṣmīntamo hi te mado dyumnintam uta kratuḥ.
   Vṛtraghnā varivovidā mamsīṣṭhā aśvasātamaḥ.

   Highly strengthening and most reassuring is your joy. Holiest and most blissful giver of wealth and prosperity is your action and conduct of government and administration. O destroyer of suffering and darkness, lord of speediest movement and communication, giver of peace, freedom and security, think, reflect and know the mind and working of others with sympathy and self-confidence.

Indra, lord of honour, power and glory, be like water to the thirsty. Be like peace and joy incarnate to the admirers of eternal knowledge and worshippers of the divine virtues of yours. In the tradition of ancient knowledge, I honour and celebrate you with this song of adoration by which, I hope and pray, we shall realise the objects of our heart’s desire, the right path of living and the spiritual light of being.

Mandala 1/Sukta 176

Indra Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Matsi no vasya iṣṭaya indramindo vrṣā viṣa. Rghāyamāṇa invasi śatrumanti na vindasi.

Indra, lord of justice and peace blissful as the moon, rejoice and rise to honour and glory for our advancement to higher and higher wealth and power. Progressive lord, you advance upon the enemy and overpower him and prevent him even from approaching us.
Send up your voices of praise and prayer with reverence and homage to him who is powerful, generous, and unique among men, in whom words bear fruit as barley sowed in the field bears fruit, and who mows down the enemies as corn is harvested from the field.

Send up your voices of praise and prayer with reverence and homage to him who is powerful, generous, and unique among men, in whom words bear fruit as barley sowed in the field bears fruit, and who mows down the enemies as corn is harvested from the field.
and joy for you and the society, and one who, being such, is difficult to change or eliminate, wipe out wholly and finally. Assign him to us, we shall find him and deal with him. Only the wise and generous carry the burdens of society and the world.

5. Āvo yasya dvibharhaso’rkeṣu sānuṣagatas. Ājāvindrasyendo prāvo vājeṣu vājinam.

Indra, lord of power, protection and progress, protect and promote the man who accords with all the praises and appreciations of the nation’s achievement and creates and grows in geometric progression. Lord of brilliance and bliss like the moon, in the plans and projects of Indra, honour and glory, progress and development, and in the battles for justice and freedom, protect and promote the man of courage, dynamism and dedication.

Indra, ruler of the world, be like water to the thirsty, a source of inspiration, incentive and comfort to the wise dedicated to the ancient and eternal knowledge and to the glory of the nation of humanity and divinity. In keeping with that tradition of knowledge and the glory of humanity and divinity, I offer my songs and prayers to you so that we may be blest with food and energy for body and mind, the right path of living and the light of life and spirit divine.

Mandala 1/Sukta 177

Indra Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi

First and foremost power among the people, virile and valorous, brilliant ruler of the living world, invoked, invited, honoured and worshipped by all, such is Indra, lord of honour, power and glory. O generous, strong and leading light of life, invoked, invited and celebrated as you are by us with song, reverence and worship, yoke the horses and come right here for the sake of our protection and your own self-fulfilment and covenant of Divinity.
action and success, universal ruler and dispenser, come in response to our invocation. Ride what are your potent and excellent chariots responsive to the mantric word of command and control at the remotest distance, come with and come by the powers that move faster than even light and come here where we pray. The time is ripe, the soma is distilled and ready for celebration of the success and divine visit.

3. Ā tiṣṭha rathaṁ vṛśaṇāṁ vṛṣā te sutaḥ somaḥ pariśiktaḥ madhūṇī. Yuktvā vṛṣabhyāṁ vṛṣabha kṣitīnāṁ haribhyāṁ yāhi pravatopa madrik.

Indra, potent lord of fertility and universal generosity, ride your celestial chariot and come. Distilled is soma, seasoned and sprinkled with the sweetest honey around the vedi, ready for the celebration. O potent and generous lord of the people, yoke the two most energetic powers of motion to the chariot and come right here to us by the shortest route at the fastest speed.

Indra, generous and powerful lord ruler of the world, this is the yajna that leads to divine heights of existential success. This is the yajna that grows by holy inputs of fragrant materials. These are the materials and mantric formulas of libation. And this is the soma of the celebration of success. The vedi is covered round with holy grass for seats. Lord of potency and generosity, come, release the horses, sit and drink of the soma of celebration and success.

Indra, lord of light and life, ruler of the world, thus happily invoked and celebrated, come here and appreciate the mantric secret and revelations of the artist and value the holy materials produced by him so that we too, singing songs of thanks and celebration, may progress with due protection day by day and be blest with food and energy, the right path of living and the breath and spirit of life and light divine.

Mandala 1/Sukta 178

Indra Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Yaddha syā ta indra śruṣṭirasti yayā babhūtha jaritṛbhya ūṭi. Mā nah kāmaṁ mahayantamā dhag viśvā te aśyāṁ paryāpa āyoḥ.
Indra, lord of power and protection, all that reputable knowledge and wealth of yours by which you become the protector and promoter of the celebrants may not, we pray, scorch and burn our exalting ambition in life. May we, instead, achieve all your blessings of life and energy for our existence and progress.

2. Na ghā rājendra ā dabhanno yā nu svasārā kṛṇavanta yonau. Āpaścidasmāi sutukā aveṣan gamanna indraḥ sakhyā vayaśca.

May Indra, lord of life, action and success, we pray, suppress us not any way, nor negate what our sisters achieve in the home or in the yajna on the vedi. Instead, let the lord of the world, we pray, make the waters of life flow free for us, and let our achievements rise high for his sake. May Indra, we pray, bless us with health and the good life and grant us the favour of divine friendship.

3. Jetā nṛbhirindraḥ pṛtsu sūraḥ śrotā havamān nādhamānasya kāroḥ. Prabhartā ratham dāśuṣa upāka udvantā giro yadi ca tmanā bhūt.

Great is Indra, mighty brave, victor in battles of life for progress, listener to the artists and scientists, demands and requests for grants and success, mover of the generous giver’s chariot loaded with gifts and replenishments, and high fructifier of the devotee’s prayers provided that everything is prayed for and pursued with sincerity of mind and soul.

4. Evā nṛbhirindraḥ suśravasyā prakhādaḥ pṛkṣo abhi mitriṇo bhūt. samaryā iṣāḥ stavate vivāci satrākaro yajamānasya śaṁsaḥ.

Thus Indra is great with human resources, lord of wealth, honour and high reputation, great consumer of materials and thereby producer of high energy, and he is always surrounded and assisted by friends and associates. In debates and discussions of variety he values food and energy as the basic wealth. He is a great organiser of sessions of yajnic conferences and appreciates and applauds the host of such sessions and conferences.

5. Tvayā vayāṁ maghavannindra śatrū nabhi śyāma mahato manyamānān. Tvāṁ trātā tvamu no vṛdhē bhūr-vidyāmeṣaṁ vrjanam jīradānum.

Indra, lord of honour, wealth and power, with you let us face and overcome our enemies, great and highly proud though they believe they are. You are our saviour and promoter. You alone, we pray, be here and everywhere for our growth and advancement. And with you alone, we pray, may we achieve food and energy, the right path of living and the breath and spirit of life.

Mandala 1/Sukta 179

Dampati Devata, Lopamudra (1-2) Agastya Maitravaruni (3-4), and Agastya disciple Brahmachari (5-6) Rshis

Working for the last many many years from dawn through the day until the dark late at night, tired and worn out, growing old and older, now old age destroys the health and beauty of the body of women. Therefore the young and virile husband should meet the wife only earlier when she is young and charming.

2. Ye ciddhi pūrva r̥tasāpa āsan tsākaṁ deve-bhiravadannṛtāṁ. Te cidavāsurnahyantamā-puḥ samū nu patnīrvṛṣabhir jagamyuh.

Those ancients who were masters and devout followers of truth spoke of the laws and truth of nature with men of divinity. They did procreate, but they too did not find the end of the mystery. Let the women go and meet their youthful and virile husbands.

The vexations of the household are not vain since nature and the divines protect and bless it. Let us together face the problems and win the battles of the world. We shall win the hundredfold battles if we, the wedded couple, were to beget progeny and fulfil our duties of the household.

Passion and desire arises in me like the waters of a river held up but rising in flood from here, there, anywhere, who knows? Hiding but not suppressing the passion, the amorous wife betakes to the husband breathing deep and calm and smothers him in embrace.

5. Imaṁ nu somamantito hṛtsu pītamupa bruve. Yat sīmāgascakṛmā tat su mṛḷatu pulukāmo hi martyah.

I have closely spoken of this soma of ecstatic passion from the inner reality of it, drunk and felt as it is in the depths of the heart. If I have committed a sin, please forbear and forgive. Man after all is subject to various passion, and desire (for self-fulfilment), mortal as he is.

Agastya, the sagely man of vision, brilliance and resolution never goes astray. Digging into the mysteries of life with the instruments of intelligence and insight he longs for strength and children and a controlled family and community. He marries by choice and looks after and promotes the duad, both sexes in the community, and thus attains complete self-fulfilment among noble people dedicated to truth and Divinity.

Ashvins Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Yuvo rajāmsi suyamāso aśvā ratho yad vāṁ paryarṇāmsi diyat. Hiraṇyayā vāṁ pavayaḥ pruṣāyan madhvaḥ pibantā uṣasah sacethe.

Men and women all, wedded couples, Ashwins, when your well controlled and guided horses soar into the skies and the chariot shoots over oceans of earth and space, your golden wheels cut through the air and drip with vapour, then both of you enjoy the honey drink of the lights of dawn.

2. Yuvamatyasāva nakṣatho yad vipatmano naryasya prayajyoḥ. Svasā yad vāṁ viśvagūrtī bharāti vājāyetī madhupāviṣe ca.

   Ashvins, men and women, universally admirable, enjoying the honey sweets of life and nature, when you take on to your horse flying over oceans of earth and space, so useful for humanity, then the sister community applauds you and the world adores you for energy, victory and success at the fastest speed.

3. Yuvaṁ paya usriyāyāmadhattam pakvamāmāyāmava pūrvam gāḥ. Antaryad vanino vāmṛtapsū ḫvāro na śucirajate haviśmān.

   Ashvins, truth incarnate, feeding on rectitude and law of nature, you create the milk in the cow’s udders, you create the milk potential in the maturing cow. The sylvan sage, pure at heart, bearing fragrant materials like a patient kindly saint offers you homage and longs for your company.
Ashvins, leaders of men and women, you brighten up the day and create the flow of water invigorating as the breath of life, all sweet as honey for the man who longs for freedom from three-fold suffering of body, mind and soul. And thus the fruits of animal husbandry and sericulture, animal wealth and honey sweets of nature move on to you as freely as the wheels of your chariot.

आ बां दूनायः चवृत्तियः दस्त्रः गाराह्णं ताङ्ग्ना च जिविः।
अपः ग्रणी संचत्त माहिना बां जूणा बामु पंहासा यज्ञः॥ ५ ॥
5. Ā vāṁ dānāya vavṛtiya dasrā goroheṇa taugṛyo na jivṛiḥ. Apaḥ kṣoṇī sacate māhinā vāṁ jūrṇo vāṁ-akṣur-amhaso yajatrā.

Ashvins, adorable friends of all, like an old and worn out person, like a strong man among the strong, by virtue of the gifts of mother earth I come to you for the gift of strength and sustenance. By virtue of your greatness and generosity the earth has the rain showers. Friends and benefactors, let me be free from sin and suffering even when I am old and tired and be with you for long.

नि यद्युवथे नियुतः सुदानूः उप स्वधाभि: सृजः पुरानिधिः।
पष्टः ह्यात्ता न सूरिरा मह दद सुवता न वाज्जम इ॥ ६ ॥

Ashvins, generous givers, when you join the materials which ought to be compounded, you create new knowledge with inputs into the fire. Let the bold schorlar dedicated to the laws of nature and his own vows be happy. Let him go round like the winds, and I would receive the gift of knowledge, energy and speed for advancement and greatness.

Ashvins, ever truthful, beyond calumny, mighty and generous, we are your admirers, in fact worshippers. We praise you as we praise a scholar among scholars who does good to all. And just as you protect and honour a scholar among scholars and worship God among divines, so may we too serve you and the divinities of nature and humanity.

O Ashvins, men and women brilliant as sun and moon, Agastya, excellent man on the path of virtue, highest of the best among people and leaders, every day celebrates you exclusively, in matters of the attainment of dynamic pranic energies of life in a hundred ways in resounding words of universal significance.
9. Pra yad vahethe mahinā rathasya pra spandrā yātho manuṣo na hotā. Dhattāṁ sūribhya uta vā svāśvyam nāsatyā rayiśācaḥ syāma.

Ashvins, dynamic powers of light, honour and prosperity, ever true and vibrating with energy, who advance by the might and majesty of your chariot and reach far forward like a yajnic hero among humanity, bear and bring, we pray, noble wealth and power of horse for the brave so that we too may be happy and prosperous.

10. Taṁ vāṁ rathaṁ vayamadyā huvema stomai-raśvinā suvitāya navyam. Ariśṭanemīṁ pari dyāmiyānam vidyāmesāṁ vṛjanaṁ jīradānum.

For the sake of peace and well-being and the beauty of life, O Ashvins, powers of progress and majesty, today we invoke and call for that latest chariot of yours which takes us far above the pain and suffering of the world and reaches the heights of heavenly light, and we pray we may attain food and energy, the right path of living and the light and peace of the soul.

Mandala 1/Sukta 181

Ashvins Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi

कदु पश्चादिविं रघीणामध्वयन्ता चर्चनानीथथा अपाम । अवं वां युध्या अक्रृत्य पश्चिमिं वसुधिती अवितारा जनानाम ॥ १ ॥

Dearest Ashvins, source and wielders of the treasures of wealth, saviours and protectors of humanity, ever keen to organise and conduct the yajnic development of water, energy and wealth, when you advance to the non-violent projects of development, you take the results to the heights of success. This yajna does honour to you both.

Ashvins, powers of might and majesty, may your horses, pure unsullied, living on drink of milk and water, moving as winds, brilliant and divine, fast as the speed of mind, strong and virile, carriers like the back of the earth, brilliant with their own lustre bear you here.

Ashvins, benevolent powers of high standing, may your chariot firmly rushing on like the earth, strongly structured and beautifully adorned, faster than mind, fully programmed and self-directed, cooperative and inviolably un-interceptible reach us for our good.

Ashvins, pure geniuses unsullied by sin and evil, risen to universal recognition here, there, everywhere, be ambitious in accordance with your body and your own name and character. One of you is ambitious for victory and advancement. Another is a mighty scholar, a very child of the benevolent light of heaven. And yet another is an auspicious favourite of fortune, a saviour just like a son. I think and deliberate upon this variety and mystery.

Ashvins, tempestuous powers like sun-rays and winds, one chariot of yours, golden of form, goes round conquering the directions of space and reaching the places of your choice. The horses of the other shear through space churning the air with the force of their speed and fill the world with reverberations of their motion.

Pra vām śaradvān vrṣabho na niśṣāt pūrvīrishaścārati madhva iṣṭan. Evairanyasya pīpayanta vājair-veśanīr-urdhvā nadyo na āguḥ.

Ashvins, one of you, mighty like the sun, lord of the seasons and the year or like the autumn cloud, challenging the winds and vapours and loving the all-time sweets of earth, travels down with the rays of light and plays with the fruits and flowers. The other, consuming and growing by the motions and energies of another moving like upward streams of fire, brings us peace and comfort.

7.

Asarji vām sthavirā vedhasā gīrvālhe aśvinā tredhā kṣaraṇī. Upastutāvavatāṁ nādhamā-naṁ yāmānayaṁaṁ-chṛṇutāṁ havam me.

Ashvins, most venerable lords of knowledge and wisdom, this ancient and expansive song of celebration flowing three ways over time for the sake of growth, physical, mental and spiritual, has been created in your honour. Sung and celebrated sincerely, listen to the voice of the celebrant while on the move or not on the move and redeem and protect the devotee.

And that voice celebrating the brilliant and charming form of your personality strengthens and energises the people performing yajna in the ceremonial hall of three sages seated on holy grass. And the same voice, holy and generous lords, while it blesses the people, may shower you with joy as showers of rain from the heavy clouds overflow the surface of the earth in the rainy season.

Ashvins, powers of light, energy and generosity, just as the sun which sustains the world nourishes the earth and her children and the yajamana bearing oblations does homage to Agni and the Dawn, so does the poet bearing the gift of homage serve and celebrate you in song. And I, dedicated to you and celebrating you, pray that we may be blest with knowledge strength and energy and a long and happy life, bountiful and generous as you are.

Mandala 1/Sukta 182

Ashvins Devata, Agastya Maitrarvunī Rshi
1. Abhūdidāṁ vayunamo su bhūsatā ratho vrṣaṇvān madatā manīśiṇah. Dhiyaṅjinā dhiṣṇyā viśpa-lāvasā divo napātā sukṛte śucivratā.

   Men of knowledge and wisdom, honour and adore those teachers and scholars and rejoice with them who give us this knowledge and create this mighty and versatile chariot of ours which is fit for the Ashvins to move at the speed of winds and light. They are the agents of intellectual and scientific evolution, strong and inviolable treasure-givers of health and wealth and home, keepers of the light of heaven on earth, and firmly committed to the paths of knowledge, action and progress along the lines of purity and rectitude.

2. Indratamā hi dhiṣṇyā maruttamā dasrā daṁsiṣṭhā rathyā rathītamā. Pūrṇam ratham vahethe madhva ācitaṁ tena dāśvāṁsamupa yātho aśvinā.

   Ashvins, noble scholars, teachers and scientists, you are the most honourable heroes, most powerful, most dynamic and energetic, destroyers of poverty and suffering, masters of will and action, creators of chariots and the most daring pioneers of progress. You design, create and drive the chariot that is perfect and laden with the collection of the richest honey sweets of life. And with that you come to the man of the chariot and say: Take this, go round the worlds, and enjoy.

Marvellous Ashvins, brilliant powers of light and wisdom, generous preservers of life and destroyers of suffering, what are you doing here? Why stay here where anyone like nobody, miserly and selfish, non-giving, non-sacrificing is honoured and flaunts as great? Bypass the bargainer whose vision, judgement and pranic vitality is draining. Give light to the noble holy man in search of the holy Word and spiritual approval.

Ashvins, crush all round those who bark like dogs. Eliminate the wars and war mongers. You know them. Richly fructify and reward every word of the devotees’ song of praise with the gift of jewels. Lords of truth, protect and promote my honour and my song of celebration.
4. Yuvametami cakrathuh sindhusu plavam-atman-vantaam paksinam taugryaya kam. Yena devatrah manasa niruhathuh supaptaani petathuh kshodaso mahaḥ.

Ashvins, scholar of science and technologist of marine engineering and aeronautics, both create the safe and comfortable winged boat, self-powered and self-propelled, moving through and over the seas for the strongest man among the strong by which you, noblest among the noble people, with your science and skill, fly like birds and cross the wide seas.

6. Avaviddham taugryam-apsvantar-nārambhaṇe tamasi praviddham. Catasro nāvo jāṭhalasya juṣṭā udaśvibhyām-iṣitāḥ pārayanti.

Confined, surrounded and plunged in impenetrable darkness is the team of the mighty marine force. Four boats powered and driven by the Ashvins assigned for the mid-ocean operation rescue the team and safely bring it ashore.

7. Kaḥ svid vṛkṣo niṣṭhito madhye arnaso yaṁ taugryo nādhitaḥ paryāsasvajat. Parṇā mṛgasya patarorivārabha udaśvinā ūhathuḥ śromatāya kam.
Ashvins, pilots of the sea and sky, what sort of tree, post, is that standing in the midst of the deep sea to which the powerful but afflicted marine team holds on? What sailing and flying machine is that which like the wings of a soaring bird you work up and down for your honour and glory?

8. Tad vāṁ narā nāsatyāvanu śyād yad vāṁ mānāsa ucatham-avocan. Asmādadya sadasaḥ somyādā vidyāmesaṁ vṛjanam jūradānum.

Ashvins, leaders of light ever committed to truth and shunning untruth, whatever words of appreciation and celebration venerable people have said in your honour, may all that be auspicious to you, being true to your character and performance. And may we today from this yajnic hall of joy and bliss receive and carry away food and energy to our heart’s desire, knowledge and strength to live along the right path, and the breath and life of the mind and spirit.

Mandala 1/Sukta 183

Ashvins Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Taṁ yuñjāthāṁ manaso yo javīyān tribandhuro vrṣaṅā yastricakraḥ. Yenopayāthaḥ sukṛto duro-ṇāṁ tridhātunā patatho virna parṇaiḥ.
Ashvins, mighty generous visionaries of science, technology and psychology, take to three-metal, three-turbine and three-stage chariot faster than the speed of mind by which you reach the house of sukrit Tvashta, holy designer and maker of chariots, armaments, implements and instruments, flying with wings like birds.

(This is a mantra of various possibilities of interpretation in the context of Physics, Astrophysics, Aeronautics, Medicine and Meditation. The meaning, can be ‘seen’ and realised by an expert who would be of the order of a Rshi, a visionary of the dynamics of Nature in his own field, and better in the unified field of comprehensive reality.)

2. $Suvṛd\ ratho\ vartate\ yannabhi\ kṣāṁ\ yat\ tiṣṭhathāḥ$ $kratumantā\ nu\ pṛkṣe.$ $Vapurvapusyā\ sacatāmiyam\ gīrdivo\ duhitroṣasā\ sacethe.$

Ashvins, committed explorers in search of fragrance for your yajnic inputs, the chariot you ride is firmly wheeled and revolves round and round approaching the earth. Believe this message of mine, an exact description of your form in words: you look like the dawn, child of the sun on the rise descending over the earth.

$आ\ तिष्ठतं\ सूब्रतं\ या\ रथं\ वायुमनु\ सतानि\ वर्ति\ हविष्मानं\।$ $यं\ नरा\ नासत्यवध्वेश्वरतियाध्यस्तर्यायं\ तम्\ च\।$
3. Ā tiṣṭhatam suvṛtāṁ yo ratho vāmanu vṛataṁ vartate haviṣmān. Yena narā nāsatyeṣayadhyai vartitṛāthastanayāya tmane ca.

Ashvins, leaders of humanity, committed to truth and exploration, well-structured, loved and accepted is the chariot you ride in pursuance of your vows of commitment and discipline which is richly loaded with wealth for the good life and by which go you over your path of exploration and come back home to inspire and fulfil the ambitions of humanity for themselves and for their children.

Let no wolfish thief or selfish devourer, man or woman, dare to challenge you or terrorise you off from your course. Destroyers of suffering and generous preservers of life, forsake us not, nor destroy us. This is your share set apart in reserve in homage. This is the voice of celebration in homage and gratitude. These are your treasures of honey sweets of honour and glory.

5. Yuvāṁ gotamāḥ purumīḥho atrirdasrā havate’ vase haviṣmān. Diśaṁ na diṣṭāmrjūyeva yantā me havamā nāsatyopa yātām.
Ashvins, destroyers of want and suffering, preservers of health and happiness, lovers of truth and science, teachers, guides and philosophers, Gotama, the man of knowledge and wisdom, Purumeedha, the man blest with prosperity, and Atri, the progressive man free from threefold pain, invokes you with offerings of homage and oblations for the sake of protection and progress. Come and accept my homage too like leaders going and leading in the direction of truth marked as destination of nature and law.

6. \textit{Atārīśma tamasas-pāramasya prati vāṁ stomo aśvināvadhāyi. Eha yātam pathibhir-devayānair-vidyāmesaṁ vrjaṁ jīradānum.}

Ashvins, let us swim across this darkness of ignorance and suffering of the world. So we bear and offer this song of celebration and gratitude to you in homage. Come to us here by the paths of divinity so that by your guidance and leadership we may be blest with food and energy, path of rectitude and breeze of health and the good life.

\textbf{Mandala 1/Sukta 184}

\textit{Ashvins Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi}

1. \textit{Tā vāmadya tāvaparam huvemocchantyāmuṣasi vahnirukthaiḥ. Nāsatyā kuha cit santāvaryo divo napātā sudāstarāya.}
Ashvins, infallible children of the light of heaven, committed to the law of truth and right, today and also later we invoke and invite you both at the rise of the glorious dawn with songs of adoration. The fire is lit, the songs are sung. Wherever you be, come like the waves of light-rays to bless the man of masterly business and noble charity.

Ashvins, mighty generous, leading lights of humanity, unfailing givers of knowledge, enjoy with rest and peace of the night in the revolving wheel of time with the fluctuations of existence. Rejoice with the celebrant for our sake and eliminate the miserliness of the petty trader. Loved and adored by people with noble words of adoration, listen to my prayers with attentive and sympathetic ears.

Ashvins, brilliant and generous givers of light and knowledge, strength and energy, dedicated to truth, in order to carry the light of the dawn, daughter of the sun, for the beauty and grace of the earth, your eminent carriers born of the waves and vapours of space, flying like arrows of light, are admired like the great and ancient horses of V aruna, born of the ocean of eternity.
carriers born of the waves and vapours of space, flying like arrows of light, are admired like the great and ancient horses of Varuna, born of the ocean of eternity.

4. Asme sā vāṁ mādhyī rātirastu stomaṁ hinotāṁ mānyasya kāroḥ. Anu yad vāṁ ūravasyā sudānū suurvīrāya ca rṣaṇayō madanti.

Ashvins, givers of light and knowledge, may that generosity with all its gifts be sweet as honey to us. Receive and accept the song of celebration created by the venerable poet, O lords of generosity, since all people in search of honour and valour enjoy and celebrate life in accordance and harmony with your life and culture.

एष वा स्तामः अश्विनावकारि मानेभिमयवाना सुवृक्ति।
यातं वृतिस्तत्तेयायु तमं चाँगस्वय नासत्या मदन्ता॥ ५ ॥

Ashvins, lords of honour, valour and generosity, this is the worshipful song of homage and celebration created and presented by the dedicated devotees revered in society. Committed to the law of truth and rectitude, go on by the inviolable path of truth and right for yourself and the children, enjoying the beauty and ecstasy of life.

अत्तरिष्यम तर्मसंस्यारमुस्य पति वा स्तामः अश्विनावधायि।

6. Atāriśma tamasaspāramasya prati vāṁ stomo aśvināvadhāyi. Eha yātāṁ pathibhirdevayānair-vidyāmeśaṁ vrjanaṁ jūradānum.

Ashvins, lords of light and love, let us swim across this darkness and ignorance to light and knowledge. Hence this song of adoration is sung in homage to you. Come to us here by the paths of divinity and we would be blest with food for life, the right path and the light of Divinity to swim across to Eternity.

Mandala 1/Sukta 185

Dyavaparthivi Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Katarā pūrvā katarāparāyoḥ kathā jāte kavyayö ko vi veda. Viśvaṁ tmanā bibhṛto yaddha nāma vi vartete ahanī cakriyeva.

Of the two, heaven and earth, which comes first? Which follows later? How were they born? O men wise and bold, who knows all this? Verily they hold this entire universe as it is by themselves and go round and round like days and nights as parts of a wheel. Answer: Ka, He the Lord Supreme, knows.

2. Bhūrim dve acaranī carantaṁ padvantam garbhamapadī dadhāte. Nityaṁ na sūnum pitrorupasthe dyāvā raksataṁ pṛthivī no abhvāt.
The two, heaven and earth, undeviating from their nature, character, law and action, and keeping to their course without moving on legs, bear, nourish and sustain like a foetus this great, moving world of humans and animals. May the heaven and earth always protect us from sin and evil like a child in the lap of parents.

3. Aneho dātramaditerananrvaṁ huve svarvadavādham namasvat. Tad rodasī janayataṁ jaritre dyāvā rakṣataṁ prthivī no abhvāt.

I invoke Mother Nature’s boundless generosity and pray for her pure and sinless gift of inviolable, brilliant and blissful, indestructible and reverential abundance of wealth of mind and material which, I crave, may heaven and earth create for the mother’s adoring child. And, I pray, may the heaven and earth save us from the violence and monstrosity of a life of materialism and sinful opulence.

Free from sufferance, causing no pain, protective by inbuilt safeguards, both heaven and earth, children of Divinity and mothers of divinities, may, we pray, protect the noble powers of nature and humanity day and night along with all that is moving and non-moving in existence. Let us be in harmony with them and may they be good to us. May heaven and earth, we pray, protect us from the ravages of nature and worldly misfortune.

5. Saṅgacchamāne yuvatī samante svasārā jāmī pitrorupasthe. Abhijighrantī bhuvanasya nābhīṁ dyāvā rakṣataṁ prthivī no abhvāt.

Heaven and earth, going together, ever youthful, contiguous and simultaneous like twin sisters, coexistent and cooperative, nestled in the lap of mother Nature and Father Supreme of existence, taste the fragrance of the omnipresent contrehold of the universe. May the heaven and earth protect us from the sin of falling off from that all-pervasive fragrance of the Divine Presence.

6. Urvī sadmanī brhatī ṛtena huve devānāmavaśa janitrī. Dadhāte ye amṛtaṁ supratīke dyāvā rakṣataṁ prthivī no abhvāt.

I invoke and celebrate in song the grand and vast heaven and earth, mother sustainers and shelter homes of the brilliant and generous divinities of nature and humanity with protection and the truth of universal law. Beautiful of form, they bear the nectar sweets of water and energy for life. May the heaven and earth save us from the sin of filial ingratitude.
moving in existence. Let us be in harmony with them and may they be good to us. May heaven and earth, we pray, protect us from the ravages of nature and worldly misfortune.

I invoke and adore the mighty heaven and earth, abundant and boundless far and wide, and sing in praise of them in this yajna of life with humility and offerings of fragrant oblations. Generous and overflowing with wealth and good fortune, bright and beatific in form and progress, they nourish and sustain the entire world of living beings. May the heaven and earth save me from the sin of sloth, greed and selfishness.

If we commit a sin to the generosities of nature by violence to the environment, or do an insult to the wise and brilliant people, or offend a friend, or ever violate the sanctity of a woman or dishonour her husband, then may this mind and intelligence of ours be the corrective and preventive antidote to such evil conduct. May heaven and earth give us good sense and save us from sin against nature and humanity.

Both heaven and earth as father and mother, both adorable and kind to humanity, save me. Both, protective and preventive, be with me with all protections and security. O divinities of nature and humanity noble men and women who command the business of life and living, be amply generous to the man of charity and broad-mindedness, and may we all, rejoicing with food and energy in abundance, be blest with self-fulfilment.

Blest with noble intelligence by heaven and earth, I pray I may speak the original Word of Truth and Divinity in honour of heaven and earth for the noble listener. May the heaven and earth, and father and mother, both loving and kind, both ever close-by, save me from calumny sin and evil and protect and promote me with their care, favour and kindness.

May this word and voice of mine, O heaven and earth, be true. O father and mother, may this word that I speak in this yajña of celebration be true and fruitful. O divinities, be ever close to the nobilities of humanity in their business of life with favours and protections. And may we, we pray, be blest with food and energy of body, mind and soul, move ahead on the right path, and enjoy the breeze of life and the bliss of Divinity.

May Savita, self-refulgent lord giver of life and light, universal guide, ever adorable and adored, come and bless us in our yajñaic performance of life with all the gifts of food, energy and vision of the eternal Word of knowledge and Divinity, so that, O youth of the world and youthful energies of Nature, you too may join us in our open-door yajña, rejoice with us and, with your conscious intelligence and wisdom, make the whole world rejoice.
2. Ā no viśva āskrā gamantu devā mitro aryamā varuṇaḥ sajośāh. Bhuvan yathā no viśve vṛdhāsah karantsusāhā vithurāṁ na śavaḥ.

Let all the divine powers of brilliance and generosity in the world, preservers of life against destruction, come to us. May Mitra, lord and friend of life and humanity, Aryama, lord and spirit of justice, and Varuna, lord supreme cherished of all, with love in unison for all come together so that they may be our preservers and promoters and, enduring and unchallengeable as they are, our courage and power no one may be able to destroy.

With songs of adoration I invoke and celebrate Agni, universal and dynamic lord of power, heat, light and knowledge, dearest of all, loving and friendly, honourably welcome like a distinguished visitor and guest, so that Varuna, lord supreme of universal choice, bright and brave, destroyer of hate and enmity, be celebrated in action with honour and glory and bring us showers of wealth and food and energy for our body, mind and soul.

O divinities of earth and humanity, generous powers of nature, I come to you with homage and offerings of food and with the desire for victory day and night as the generous earth does homage to the sun every day constantly, praying for light and seeing in the multiform and multicolour waters of the sky various kinds of wealth like all kinds of wealth and nourishment in the milk contained in the cow’s udders.

5. Uta no’hirbudhnyo mayaskāḥ śīṣun ni pipyuṣīva veti sindhuḥ. Yena napātampāṁ junāma manojuvo vrṣaṇo yam vahanti.

And let the cloud of the sky do us good. The river flows for us like the mother’s milk for the baby. Let us then control and bind the rain storm and the river flow, grand child of the spatial waters, which the lightning energies fast as mind bring to us, by which then we may produce and use heat and electric energy, child of earthly waters.
6. Uta na īṁ tvāṣṭā gantvacchā smat sūribhirabhipitve sajośāḥ. Ā vrtrahendrāścarṣaṇiprā-stuviṣṭamo narāṁ na iha gamyāḥ.

May Twashta, divine creator of forms and maker of instruments, tools and implements, and chariots, dams and controls come well and enthusiastically with other sages and scholars, loving and kind, and bring us waters of various forms. Let Indra, breaker of the clouds, leader of men and fastest power of action come and bless this noble and joint yajnic project of all together among the people of the world.

7. Uta na īṁ matayo’śvayogāḥ śiśum na gāvastaruṇāṁ rihanti. Tamāṁ girō janayo na patnīḥ surabhiṣṭamam narāṁ nasanta.

All our people, masters of thought at high speed and knights of horse, all our love and understanding, honour and esteem, devotion and prayers, determination and resolutions centre round this youthful ruler, Indra, most fragrantly lovable among men, as cows love and caress a tender calf, and all our words of praise and appreciation concentrate or him in the hope of progress as husbands concentrate on the love of the wives yearning for progeny.

Just as winds carry waters of the skies, so may the Maruts, tempestuous young warriors of a high united mind, equipped with mighty fighting forces, be ours and enthusiastically reach over earth and heaven for us. And let these warriors of strong and varied horse, riding chariots like commanders of the defence of the earths, destroyers of hate and enmity, brilliant friends of friends and the loving, be noble and generous to us all.

When with their greatness and grandeur and dexterity they focus on the target and concentrate and use their forces, then their forces like a missile at the most strategic time burn off the entire tyranny of the world and shower the rain of bliss on the desert lands.

All ye men and women of the world, for the Take to, honour and value, and worship Pusha, agents of nourishment and growth. Self-potent are the divinities of nature and humanity, all free from hate and enmity, Vishnu, all-pervasive spirit of the universe, Vayu, universal breath of the living world, Rbhukscha, Indra, universal ruling lord of power, intelligence and expertise, and knowledge. Let us all, you and I, elect, select, choose, appoint, honour and consecrate our powers of humanity and divinity well for the sake of common good.

Mandala 1/Sukta 187

Oshadhis Annam Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Pitum nu stोषम maho dharmाणाम taviśīm. Yasya trito vyōjasā vṛtram vipavam-ardayat.

   Constantly do I honour and adore food and energy, fuel of life and instruments of the observance of Dharma, and the source of strength, power and courage, by the force and splendour of which Indra, mighty energy of sun and electricity, breaks the cloud to the last drop of condensed vapour, and by which the man of power and courage too, with the exercise of thought, word and deed, acquires cherished wealth complete in every aspect of value.

2. Svādo pito madho pito vayāṁ tvā vavṛmahe. Asmākamavitā bhava.

   O the food of life! O the drink for life! Delicious are you! Honey sweet are you! We love and cherish you with thanks and gratitude to the Lord of life and giver of food and nourishment. Be our saviour, preserver, sustainer, protector and promoter.

O Lord pervasive of food and nourishment, come and bless us. Kind and gracious as you are, bless us with the protections of your benign favours. Giver of peace and comfort, free from hate and anger, friendly, lover of lovers and devotees, free from duality, conflict or contradiction, come and be with us, forsake us not.

4. \( Tava \ tye \ pito \ rasā \ rajāṁsyānu \ viṣṭhitāḥ. \)
\( Divi \ vātā \ iva \ śrītāḥ. \)

O Lord pervasive of food and nourishment of life, the taste, the pleasure, and the ecstasy of the experience of your presence is replete in the living worlds like the waves of energy and the winds and the air in the sky and the heavens.

5. \( Tava \ tye \ pito \ dadastavā \ svādiṣṭha \ te \ pito. \)
\( Pra \ svādmāno \ rasānāṁ \ tuvigrīvā \ iverate. \)

O spirit of life pervasive in food and drink and all other nutriments, you are the giver, you are the most delicious and inspiring. All those who taste of the pleasure and inspiration of your gifts of juices and vital essences move around with rightful pride, holding their head high and proclaiming their existence with self-confidence.
    Akārī cāru ketunā tavāhim-avasāvadhīt.*

   O spirit and power of existence, food of life, in you and with you abides the mind of great nobilities and divinities. By virtue of your power and presence great works are done. By your energy and rays of light the sun breaks the cloud and pours forth the rains.

7. *Yadado pito ajagan vivasva parvatānāṁ.
    Atrā cinno madho pito’ram bhakṣāya gamyāḥ.*

   O spirit pervasive and food of energy in the process of nature’s metabolism, when the clouds move, be there in them, enrich and energise them and, then, O honey sweet food of life, come here down from the clouds and be with us for us to our heart’s desire.

    Vātāpe pīva id bhava.*

   When to our heart’s content we have eaten of the gift of herbs and waters, then, O universal energy pervasive of food, be with us, kind and gracious, for our growth and advancement (not for corpulence).

9. *Yat te soma gavāśiro yavāśiro bhajāmahe.
    Vātāpe pīva id bhava.*
O Soma, lord and spirit of nourishment, health and peace, whatever we eat and drink of what is prepared with cow’s milk and barley, let us enjoy and, O universal lord pervasive in food and energy, let that be for our growth and advancement.

10. Karambha oṣadhe bhava pīvo vṛkka udārathiḥ.

Vātāpe pīva id bhava.

Lord creator of herbs, nourishment and energy, let the herbs be delicious food, destroyer of ailment and disease, a sharpener of appetite and digestion and a tonic for mind and senses. Lord universal of health and life breath, let it be for our growth and advancement in health and intelligence for a long long age of joy and bliss.

11. Tam tvā vayam pito vacobhirgāvo na havyā suṣūdima.

Devebhyastvā sadhamādam-asma-bhyam tvā sadhamādam.

Lord giver of food and nourishment, spirit pervasive of health and energy, you are the giver of divine joy to the generous powers of nature and the generous nobilities of humanity. You are the giver of health and joy to us all. We praise you with words of gratitude for your gifts, and just as cows distil the essence of herbs and bless us with milky nutriments, so do we distil the essence of nourishment from the divine gifts of herbs and food, and express our gratitude in words and songs of celebration and service.

Apris Hymn, Mantrawise Devata, Agastya
Maitravaruni Rshi

1. Samiddho adya rājasi devo devaiḥ sahasrajit.
Dūto havyā kavirvaha.

Agni, lord of light, power and generosity, lighted, consecrated, bright and blazing, today rules and shines glorious with the brilliant powers of nature and humanity, having won a thousand foes. O lord of knowledge and wisdom, creative visionary and poetic maker of past, present and future as you are, receiver, mover and harbinger of the fragrances of life in the yajnic evolution of nature and humanity, accept our homage and lead us on the march of life.

2. Tanūnapād-ṛtam yate madhvā yajñāḥ samajyate.
Dadhat sasasriṇīriṣāḥ.

Preserving and promoting the body politic, not allowing the system to slacken, the yajna of social and natural evolution goes forward on the path of truth and divine law for the man of action and endeavour with sweets of honey and wealth of soma joy, bearing and bringing a thousand gifts of food, energy and vitality.
Agni, adorable lord of light and knowledge, ruler of the world, invoked and invited to our creative endeavours, bring and proclaim the arrival of the brilliances of humanity and gems of nature worthy of celebration and advancement by yajnic research and development. You are the creator, harbinger and giver of a thousand gifts of wealth and knowledge.

That ancient and eternal seat of existence and knowledge wherein abide a thousand brave and mysterious divinities and where the suns with their blazing refulgence cover as well as reveal the face of Divinity, there, all ye men and women of the world, arise, reach and dwell.

Infinite and various is the light and power of Divinity, yet unique, one whole together and indivisible is the rule and glory of the universal power and presence.
Mightily wide and various, excellent and deep are the doors and paths to Divinity which reveal and release the flood gates of vision and the bliss of Eternity.

6.  Surukme hi supešasā’dhi śriyā virājataḥ.

Uṣāsāveha śidatām.

The dawn and dusk, the day and night, bright and beautiful of form and glory, shine with the splendour of Divinity. Let them come and grace our yajna of fragrance and vision of the Light Divine.

7.  Prathamā hi suvācasā hotāra daivyā kavī.

May two Yajakas, old and ancient, first and best, masters of noble speech, divine of nature, scholars of poetic visionaries such as the Ashvins or the teacher and preacher, come and grace this yajna of ours unto a splendid completion.

8.  Bhāratīle sarasvati yā vaḥ sarvā upabruve.

Tā naścodayata śriye.

Bharati, mother of scientific speech and knowledge, Ila, mother of eternal speech and knowledge, and Sarasvati, mother of the existential flow of universal speech and knowledge, may you all whom I invoke to grace our yajna of learning and education, inspire us, I pray, to rise to the heights of glory and the beauty and grace of life and culture.

young and new, lead us far across the challenging problems of the world with success and victories of prosperity. Let our lands and cities be wide and abundant as earth and be the harbinger of peace and joy for our children and grand children.

3. Agne tvam-asmad yuyodhyamīvā anagnitrā abhyamanta kṛṣṭīḥ. Punarasmabhyaṁ suvītāya deva kṣāṁ viśvebhīr-amṛtebhir-yajatra.

Agni, lord of light and life, reduce and remove from us suffering and disease through yajna, since, O leading power of yajna fire, those who neglect the sacred fire suffer from ailments all round. And then, O lord of love and creative generosity, for our welfare, peace and prosperity, come with the sacred flames of holy fire and bless the earth with universal nectar sweets of good health and gifts of imperishable joy.

4. Pāhi no agne pāyubhir-ajasrairuta priye sadana ā śuśukvān. Mā te bhayaṁ jaritāram yaviṣṭha nūnam vidan-māparam sahasvah.

Agni, lord of light and knowledge, protect and promote us with inviolable safeguards and relentless modes of protection, shining in our dear home with the glow of health and blaze of power. Most youthful and powerful lord of endurance and challenges, may fear never touch your admirer and worshipper or any other, for sure.

5. Mā no agne’ava srjo aghāyā’visyave ripave ducchunāyai. Mā datvate daśate mādate no mā rīṣate sahasāvan parā dāḥ.

Agni, lord of power and endurance, abandon us not, throw us not to the sinner, the irreligious, the enemy, the mischievous, the biter, the tearer, and the destroyer. Leave us not, put us not off from you.

Agni, lord manifest in truth and Dharma, let your admirer and worshipper, sharing brilliance like yours, singing in praise and homage to you, give unto himself due protection for his body and mind. And then, O lord of light and power, you are the ultimate protector against all violent and hostile maligners since you break them down or teach them a lesson to correction.

Agni, lord adorable of light, protection and correction, you know them both, men good and evil, admirers as well as maligners, and reach them just at the right time to protect and to correct as well. Lord of law and discipline, be the teacher and ruler for the man approaching in faith or even turning away in hostility, adored or remembered by all, lovers or haters, with love or in fear, like a ruling power.

Brhaspati Devata, Agastya Maitravaruni Rshi

अनर्वानं वृशभं मन्द्विज्ञं बृहस्पतिः वधया नर्वमृक्कः।

1. Anarvāṇam vrṣabham mandrajihvaṁ brhaspatim vardhayā navyamarkaiḥ. Gāthānyaḥ suruco yasya devā āśrṇvanti navamānasya martāḥ.
Welcome, entertain and exalt with offerings of respectful good cheer and hospitality Brhaspati, a very embodiment of piety, knowledge, wisdom and virtue, an adorable scholar, irresistible, generous and sweet-tongued, a master of ancient as well as modern versions of universal knowledge, whose delightful tales of heroism old and new and virtue sacred and secular, noble, intelligent and brilliant people love to hear for reflection and meditation. Welcome and entertain such a holy visitor on the rounds, an atithi, chance guest like the holy fire of yajna, fragrant and blissful.

तम्रत्वियाः उप वाच्यः सचन्तं समा न या दंवयुतामसांजि ।

2. Tamṛtyiṣya upa vācaḥ sacante sargo na yo devayatām-āsari. Brhaspatiḥ sa hyaṇjo varāṃsi vibhvābhavat samṛte mātariśvā.

Words of meaning and power come to him at his command and serve him according to the season of time, place and the subject of discourse, Brhaspati as he is, high-priest of the Divine Word. Like an extension of the Lord’s creation, he makes divinities out of dedicated humanity and brings them gifts of their choice. Thus loved, graceful and powerful like the breeze of life, he rises in the affairs of life and Dharma by the grace of the Infinite Lord of the universe.

उपस्तुति नर्मस्व उद्दक्ति च श्रलुक्क्यं यंसत्सवितव्र प बाहु । अस्त्य कल्वाहन्याः या अस्ति मूगा न भीमा अरु गस्तु- विष्णुमान ॥ ३ ॥

Let this Brhaspati, man of piety, knowledge, and wisdom, acknowledge and reciprocate the respectful host’s salutation, obeisance and words of adoration with hands upraised in benediction like the rays of the inspiring sun. Loving and non-violent, surrounded by many admirers by virtue of his holy actions, he walks like a ruling lion on his daily rounds.

The voice of this Brhaspati and his fame goes over earth and heaven like the waves of energy. Supporter of the man of yajna, master of exceptional knowledge and intelligence, let him continue to give knowledge. And then, these voices of Brhaspati, like the bounces of the deer, every day reach men of generosity such as clouds of rain.

5. Ye tvad devosrikaṁ manyamanaḥ pāpā bhadram-upajīvanti pajrāḥ. Na duṣṭhye anu dadāsi vāman brhaspate cayasa it piyarum.

There are those rigid and sinful people who accept the wise man as brilliant and good, but in reality they exploit him to live by him for self-support as parasites do. O Brhaspati, you yield not to the man of crooked intelligence but choose the man of honest desire for the gift of knowledge.

6. Supraituh sūyavaso na panthā durniyantuh pari-prīto na mitraḥ. Anarvāṇo abhi ye cakṣate no’- pīvṛtā aporṇuvanto astuḥ.

Brhaspati is like the guiding path of one who is well-provided with food and energy and one who wants to follow the simple and straight path of knowledge. He is like the all round loving friend of one caught up on a difficult highway. Men who are free from sin and every way look after us and who, with light and knowledge, uncover the ignorance of those covered in darkness, may, we pray, be our teachers.

7. Sam yam stubho’vanayo na yanti samudraṁ na sravato rodhacakrāḥ. Sa vidvāṇ ubhayāṁ caṣṭe antar-bṛhaspatistara āpaśca āṛdhraḥ.

Just as the satellites go round Brhaspati, the planet Jupiter, or as the flowing streams with whirlpools reach the sea, so that scholar whom all the praises of devoted admirers reach is Brhaspati, the divine teacher who knows both the inner reality of the spirit and the outer reality of nature and who, keen to save his pupils, calmly watches both the waters of existence and the saving ark of knowledge.

Thus is Brhaspati, the great scholar, highly revered among the learned, commanding courage and strength of body and mind, generous and brilliant master of learning and pious sage honoured and acclaimed. May he, for us, be the teacher, maker of the brave and giver of the knowledge of science and Divinity so that we may be blest with food and energy, knowledge and power and the breath and joy of life.

3. Śarāsaḥ kuśarāso darbhasaḥ sairyaḥ uta.
   Mauṇja adṛṣṭā bairināḥ sarve sākaṁ nyalipsata.

   The parasitic seeds of poison lurk in the hollow of bamboos and in inferior reeds, in the darbha grass and in reeds and grasses round tanks, lakes and streams. Unseen they lurk in the munja roots and leaves and virina plants. Together they all stick to anything as parasites.

   Ni ketavo janāṇāṁ nyadrṣṭā alipsata.

   Where the cows sit in the stalls or the forest beasts sit or hide in their habitat or humans live in the homes, and even in the brain and sense organs, the seeds of poison lurk and cluster unseen.

All these come out astir like thieves at night, unseen as they are and yet seen by all and known to all. Therefore, all ye men and women, beware of them.

O seeds, parasites, insects and other carriers of poison such as bacteria and viruses, the heaven of light is your father, creator, the earth is your mother, feeder, soma is your brother and nature’s fertility is your sister (since both nectar and poison are born of the creative power of nature). Unseen and yet universally seen and known are you all. Why move, better be still for the sake of good and comfort?

Those which creep or affect the shoulders, those which move or fly and affect all parts of the body, those which bite and burn, and those which are highly poisonous and painful, all those which are unseen or whatever, all together retire and exhaust yourselves of

There upfront rises the sun from the east, universally seen and showing the world, and destroying all that is unseen poisonous, eliminating all the negativities and all that is evil and invisible to the naked eye.

The sun rises there, lord of light, from behind the mountains and the clouds, showing to the entire world and destroying all the poisons on a large scale, invisible evils which thrive in the dark.

10. Sūrye viṣamā sajāmi dṛtim surāvato grhe. So cinnu na marāti no vayam marāmā’’re asya yojanaṁ hariṣṭhā madhu tvā mahulā cakāra.

Just as liquor is contained in the cask in the house of a liquor maker, so do I collect the earth’s poison and evaporate it to join the sun so that neither the sun would die nor would we, since the poison would join the far away sun which would drink it up. O poison, then the honey sweet chemistry of nature may turn you to nectar honey.

O man infested with poison, this little Shakuntika (kapinjali, partridge, blue jay) would consume your poison. That bird would not die, nor would we. The one that drinks up the poison unharmed would keep it far off. O poison, the life’s chemistry of nectar would turn you too to honey.

Twenty one little birds eat up and consume the flowers of poison. But they do not die for sure, nor would we. The one who would consume poison undisturbed would keep it far off. The honey-science of nature would turn the poison to honey.

Twenty one little birds eat up and consume the flowers of poison. But they do not die for sure, nor would we. The one who would consume poison undisturbed would keep it far off. The honey-science of nature would turn the poison to honey.
Let me have the names of all the ninetynine lacerations of poison and of all the ninetynine antidotes. The man who can counter poison and calmly render it ineffective would keep its effects far off without danger or fear. O poison, the science of honey nectar would turn you to honey and nectar.

May the twentyone peahens and seven sisterly streams and rivers flowing on and on collect and carry off the poison as female water carriers carry water in their jars.

This little poisonous insect that comes to me, this little mongoose, that holds the poison, I strike with a gem stone. The poison flows, and I collect and isolate the poison from the area as an antidote.

The little mongoose coming down from the mountains tells me that the taste of the scorpion’s poison is dull. For this reason, on this expansive and practical basis I say, the poison of the scorpion is tasteless.

Note: The mantras in this Sukta point to the possibilities of isolating all poisons, bacteria and viruses that cause disease. They also suggest the preparation of antidotes from those very poisons, bacteria and viruses. They also point out to the fact that in natural evolution poison and nectar are coexistent carriers of death and life. They are contradictory effects of the same one cause, but they can be converted into two complementary substances through chemical process — since all contradictions in nature are apparent, but essentially they are all complementary.

The term ‘Madhula’ is suggestive of this chemical process in nature itself. Swami Dayanand interprets it as the science of converting poison into nectar for our purposes. Elsewhere as in Sayana or in Kaushika Sutra or by Satavalekara it is interpreted as a herb, which too is true. There is a herb on the hills, for example, the touch of which bites as scorpion, giving a burning poisonous sensation all over the body, for which reason it is called the scorpion herb. And immediately close to it is another herb the juice of which turns the burning sensation into a soothing sweet feeling.

In fact every poison, it seems, carries its own antidote which has to be isolated, analysed and developed like all the vaccines in modern medicine and all the drugs in homeopathic medicine. The dose of the poison would depend upon the effect desired as in the case of all stimulants, intoxicants and painkillers.

The myth of churning of the ocean by the Devas and Asuras (gods and demons) is an all-time symbol of the contradictions alias complementarities of nature, whichever way you want to put it. It shows that both nectar and poison are born of the ocean of nature and the power that consumes and assimilates the poison for the sake of the continuance of life and existence is Shiva, lord of nature’s justice and ferocity on the one hand, and lord of the saving grace of Divinity on the other. The word for this power of turning contradiction into complementarity, and turning the poison into honey-sweet nectar in this Sukta is ‘Harishtha’. For references to Madhu Vidya or the honey science of nectar we may turn to Yajurveda and the Upanishads specially Chhandogya Upanishad 3, 1-5, and Brhadaranyaka Upanishad, 2, 5, 1-19.

MANDALAL A 2

Mandala 2/Sukta 1

Agni Devata, Angirasa Shaunahotra, Bhargava
Shaunaka Grtsamada Rshi

Agni, lord of light and knowledge, bright and blazing and ever enlightening, ruler and leader and sustainer of humanity, power of crystalline purity shining with splendour, you rise like vapours from the oceans and rain like showers from the skies. You ignite like sparks from stones and burn like fire from the forests. You thunder like lightning from clouds and overwhelm like lava from volcanoes. And you refresh like fragrance of flowers and rejuvenate like honey drinks of herbs as soma.

Agni, light of life and leader of humanity, yours is yajna and the spirit of charity, yours is piety and purity, yours is the conduct and the organisation of holy plans and projects in time and seasons, yours is the message and the mission, yours is the truth and fiery knowledge of life and advancement, yours is the teaching, law, governance and administration, yours is love and the gift of charity for the growth of all, you are the high-priest and presiding presence of nature and humanity, and you are the life within and brightness of the happy family. Lord of light and life, we pray be the light within of the individual and protector and preserver of peace and joy of the family in the home for all.

Agni, self-refulgent lord of light and life, you are Indra, lord of power and glory. You are Vrshabha, mighty and generous among the good and great. You are Vishnu, omnipresent spirit, adorable, worthy of homage by all. You are Brahma, high-priest of the universe who knows the wealth and value of existence. O Brahmanaspati, lord protector, preserver and promoter of knowledge of the Spirit and Nature, you are the treasure-hold of all that exists in the universe, and you abide by all humans and others with your knowledge, power and glory.
Agni, light of life and leader of humanity, yours is yajna and the spirit of charity, yours is piety and purity, yours is the conduct and the organisation of holy plans and projects in time and seasons, yours is the message and the mission, yours is the truth and fiery knowledge of life and advancement, yours is the teaching, law, governance and administration, yours is love and the gift of charity for the growth of all, you are the high-priest and presiding presence of nature and humanity, and you are the life within and brightness of the happy family. Lord of light and life, we pray be the light within of the individual and protector and preserver of peace and joy of the family in the home for all.

Agni, self-refulgent lord of light and life, you are Indra, lord of power and glory. You are Vrshabha, mighty and generous among the good and great. You are Vishnu, omnipresent spirit, adorable, worthy of homage by all. You are Brahma, high-priest of the universe who knows the wealth and value of existence. O Brahmanaspati, lord protector, preserver and promoter of knowledge of the Spirit and Nature, you are the treasure-hold of all that exists in the universe, and you abide by all humans and others with your knowledge, power and glory.

Agni, lord of life and light of existence, you are the glorious ruler. You are Varuna, greatest and best lord of nature and humanity, upholder of natural truth and law of life. You are Mitra, the master, dear as friend and the very breath of life, adorable and worthy of homage and worship. You are Aryama, lord giver of love and justice, preserver and promoter of truth and sustainer of the lovers of truth and justice. Lord of light blazing as the sun, generous and blissful, in the grand yajnic system of life and living, you are the giver of every one’s rights and duties, actions and rewards, according to the law of Dharma and the Karmic dispensation.

Agni, heat and light of life, universal presence, you are Tvashtā, breaker, maker and preserver of the forms of life. You bestow noble strength and courage upon the man of love and service. Lord of universal speech of love and truth, you are the greatest friend. Yours is real equality and brotherhood. You are the giver of instant inspiration calling men of action to duty and you give the noble speed of motion and advancement to the pioneers. You are the strength and power of the people, and you are the haven and home of all.

Tvamagne rudro asuro maho divastvam śardho mārutanī prkṣa īśiṣe. Tvāṁ vātairaraṇāiryāsi śaṅgayastavāṁ pūṣā vidhataḥ pāsi nu ātmānā।

Agni, vital heat and light and fire of life, you are Rudra, shatterer of evil and terror for the wicked. You are vital as breath and generous as the cloud. You are the mighty blaze of the sun in heaven and essential force of the winds. You blow with the fiery waves of energy and bring peace and joy to the living. You are Pusha, food and sustenance of life, and with your heart and soul you protect and promote those who dedicate themselves to your service.

Tvamagne dravinodā aramkṛte tvāṁ devaḥ savitā ratnadhā asi. Tvāṁ bhago nrpate vastva īśiṣe tvāṁ pāyurdame yaste’vidhat.

Agni, lord of light and creator of new life, you are the giver of wealth to the person who acts in faith and homage to you for the beauty and grace of life and culture. Self-refulgent lord of life, you are Savita, light and inspiration, the spirit of universal creation, fertilisation, refreshment and rejuvenation. You hold the entire treasure jewels of the world of existence. Ruler and sustainer of all, you are Bhaga, power and glory of humanity. You rule and command and advance the wealth and beauty and splendour of the life-sustaining abodes of nature and humanity. You are the father, mother and sustainer of the person whoever observes the law of Dharma in the family and the home.

Agni, lord of life, light and power of the world, the people in their home, in individual, familial and social discipline, do honour to you, ruler, sustainer and protector of humanity and generous giver of the wealth of life for all. Gracious lord of power and fighting force for the protection and advancement of humanity, you rule and sustain all alike with love and favour to tens and hundreds and thousands of the units of life and society — wherever they be.

Agni, lord of light and glory, ruler of the world, people come to you as father, sustainer and protector, and they do honour and homage to you with yajnic acts of creation and development. They come to you as brother with love and peace at heart for the sake of friendship and fraternity as they see in you the glow of health and grace of the body politic. You act as son of the mother earth and her people as saviour from want and suffering and protector against lawless bullies and destructive terrorists. O lord of law and power, friend of humanity, noble giver of peace and prosperity, whoever honours and obeys you and the law, you save, protect and advance in freedom, peace and prosperity against all fear and evil.

Agni, lord of light and ruler of the world, you are the master of knowledge and expertise close at hand, worthy of honour and homage. You are the ruler of knowledge, power and prosperity and all round wealth and glory of the world. You shine all that is good, and consequently, you burn all that is evil and destructive. You are the teacher and guide for the generous giver and the presiding power of expansive yajna in life and humanity.

Agni, light of life and inspiration for the world, you are the light of heaven for the generous giver of knowledge and wisdom. You are Bharati, speech of communication, a clarion call to action and invitation to knowledge, which grows with inspiration from the voice of Divinity. You are Ila, omniscient vision of Divinity which reflects in the hundred years of the scholar’s awareness. O lord of the world’s wealth of knowledge and vision and wisdom, you are the everflowing stream of knowledge, mother Sarasvati, who dispels all darkness and destroys ignorance.

Agni, lord of glory and magnanimity, you are the highest wielder and upholder of great action. Highest are your lives and roles in performance. Lovely and wondrous are your graces in form and view. Mighty great are you, high your vision and knowledge, a saving ark across the seas of sin and suffering. High and plentiful are you in wealth and knowledge, all round great and greater, in measure immeasurable of all.

Agni, lord of the fire of life, knowledge and vision, poet of nature, humanity and divinity, the Adityas, devotees of light and learning brilliant as the sun in the zodials, listen to you as the mouthpiece of omniscience. Pure and innocent souls in search of truth regard you as the very tongue of divine will and vision. Liberal powers of fragrant favours and generosity seek and follow you in yajnas of love and non-violence. And while you are there, bright and blazing, the brilliances of nature and humanity receive and enjoy the gifts of oblations offered into the fire.

Agni, immortal spirit and vital power of life, by virtue of your presence and action, all the immortal souls and brilliances of nature, full of love, free from hate and enmity, with their receptive organs receive their share of food through the oblations offered into the fire. By you only, the mortals among humanity receive their drink of soma for immortality. You are the essence and vitality of the herbs and trees, and in them and through them, you manifest and rise ever pure and brilliant.

Agni, spirit of life in existence, light of the world, brilliant, generous and universally manifestive, by virtue of your power and grandeur, you are immanent and yet transcendent. You are with all forms of existence together and with each one of them separately, and yet you are distinct and superior and rise above them all. Whatever abundance of life and wealth is there, exists here and prospers by virtue of your power and grandeur. Even the heaven and earth and the intermediate regions of the skies are great and generous by virtue of your power and splendour.

Agni, lord of light and power, master of knowledge and fire, as cows in the stalls eagerly call for their calves, so do the days and nights call upon you.
and leading horses to the masters of knowledge and singers of hymns, to these seekers, teachers and to us all, we pray, bring a peaceful and happy home for settlement so that we all, blest with the courage and knowledge of truth, sing in praise of your great gifts of light and generosity in our yajnic programmes.

Mandala 2/Sukta 2

Agni Devata, Gritsamada Rshi

1. Yajñena vardhata jātavedasamagnim yajadhvaṁ haviśā tanā girā. Samidhānaṁ suprayasam svarṇaram dyuṣaṁ hotāram vṛjaneṣu dhūrṣa-dam.

   By yajna, research and development, expand the power and gifts of Agni, treasure of knowledge and power. Ignited and shining, rich and beautiful, harbinger of wealth and comfort, brilliant, generous giver of gifts, energy and power, it moves the wheels of action on the paths of progress. Develop it with holy inputs offered with elaborate voices of vast and far-reaching meaning.

2. Abhi tvā naktiruṣaso vavāśire’gne vatsaṁ na svasareṣu dhenavaḥ. Diva ivedaratīrmanuṣā yugā kṣapo bhāsi puruṣāra samyataḥ.

   Agni, lord of light and power, master of knowledge and fire, as cows in the stalls eagerly call for their calves, so do the days and nights call upon you for action and success. Selected by many, disciplined and committed to programmes of work, you passionately shine day and night for ages of humanity, creating and giving wealth and power for progress.

That fire power of Agni, admirable among humanity, worthy to be discovered and known as a friend, mighty rich in quantity and quality of power, bright and blazing with flames of light and waves of energy, brilliant and generous scholars find abundantly present in the depths of the earth and between earth and heaven in the midst of clouds and in the lower atmosphere, and they develop it and exploit it as a chariot of speed and success for progress.

That energy of Agni, generous, creative and abundant, falling from space profusely in particles in waves of motion, concentrating in both heaven and earth through the skies, the scholars with their organs of perception, volition and intelligence collect like food for the journey of progress and store it, dear and lovely as gold, in the power homes of their own making and use it in circular and wavy motion for the production of power and vitality in simulation of both creative earth and heaven.

Sa hotā viśvam pari bhūtvadhvaram tamu havyairmanuṣa rñjate girā. Hiriśipro vṛdhasā-nāsu jarbhurad dyuarna strūbhïścitayad rodasī anu.

That Agni, self-refulgent lord of light and life, is the chief yajamana of universal yajna which He conducts, governs and transcends. Him too the whole humanity celebrates with songs of praise and they augment His yajna with holy offerings in the vedi. And He, voracious Agni, with a golden face and fiery mouth, receives, devours, burns and blazes, radiating and vibrating among the people advancing on their path of progress. May the Lord collect and radiate the light and vitality of life for us and spread it around by the shining stars, and let us too simulate and conduct the yajna in pursuance of heaven and earth.

So also let the performer of scientific yajna conduct the holy project of research and development of light, energy and vitality on a universal scale. Him the people recognise, appreciate and applaud in words of praise and gratitude with holy offerings of support. Let this yajaka with a golden face radiate the light of knowledge, and, as an illuminating power among the people moving forward on the path of progress, let him shine as stars, collecting, developing and creating new light in pursuance of the generosity of heaven and earth at our level.

6. Sa no revat samidhānah svastaye samdadasvān rayim-asmāsu didihi. Ā naḥ krṣuṇya suvitāya rodasī agne havyā manuṣo deva vītaye.

Agni, such you are, shining bright, wealthy and abundant, generous and giving, create and bestow the light of knowledge and wealth of the world on us for our good. Just as heaven and earth create light and wealth and with it bless humanity, so you too create the wealth of existence for the grace and glory of life on earth and let the earth become a happy place fit for the divinities to come and dwell.

Agni, give us liberally. Give us the grace and the glory a thousandfold. Reveal the light and, likewise, open the flood-gates of knowledge, wealth and power, and the velocity of light for the speed of progress. Let the heaven and earth be the eastern horizon of a new dawn and the dawns bring in brilliant days of holy light and creative vitality of life’s purity.

May the same Agni, bright and burning, radiate and illuminate us day and night with holy light. And may he, ruler of humanity, lovely and charming, high-priest of life’s yajna of love and non-violence, ever on the round like a beneficent visitor, with the rise of the morning sun, with holy offerings as well as gifts of food, energy and joy, add to the health, happiness and longevity of the people.

Thus, Agni, ancient light of eternal vision, knowledge and wisdom, we pray, increase and advance for us among our people, immortal lovers and seekers of universal knowledge, versatile intelligence for our human purposes, and, with your sincere mind and soul, impart a hundred fold specialist knowledge and expertise of various forms in various fields to the expert inventor, designer and worker according to the need and requirement of the situation among our dynamic people, knowledge and expertise from which may flow the wealth of food and honeyed prosperity like abundant milk of generous cow.

Agni, leading light of life and humanity, let us acquire noble strength and power with speed and transport. Let us enlighten our people with knowledge to a higher than usual degree. May our honour and splendour be high over and among all the five classes of people. Lord of light, purify, sanctify and brighten our holy joy so that our strength, honour and happiness becomes difficult to challenge and grows inviolable.

11. Sa no bodhi sahasya praśamsyo yasmintsujātā iṣayanta sūrayaḥ. Yamagne yajñamupayanti vājino nitye toke didivāmsaṁ sve dame.

Agni, adorable lord of life and majesty, leading light of humanity, mighty commander of challenge and victory, instruct and enlighten us in that struggle and everdeavour for life, living in which the bright and brave aspire for success and arise nobly reborn and seasoned leaders. Temper us in that yajnic ordeal of fire, eternal and subtle, shining and burning in everyone’s own heart and home, which the warlike heroes enter and attain the life eternal.

उभयायो सुभ्रभ्या गाँवअग्राढ्यश्वपश्चलम्सम्र्ग रूतिमुप्सुज्जान्ति सूुरयं।

12. Ubhayāso jātavedāḥ syāma te stotāro agne sūrayaścā śarmaṇi. Vasvo rāyah puruścandrasya bhūyasah prajāvataḥ svapatyasya śagdhi nah.

Agni, Jataveda who know and govern all that is born in the world of existence, bless us that we may be both your admirers and worshippers and also shine bright and brave in the household. Help us Lord, and give us the competence to have a liberal share of your gifts of happy home, health and wealth, all round peace and divine grace, plenty and prosperity, a happy family and bright children.

13. Ye stotṛbhoyo go-agraṃ-āśvapeśasam-agne rāti-mupasṛjantī sūrayah. Asmāṅca tāṁśca pra hi neṣī

Those learned, bright and brave people who create and offer gifts in homage specially of quality cows and lands and handsome horses for the worshippers of Agni and developers of the science of fire, O lord of light and life, giver of peace and happy home, you advance all these and us in life, and bless us that we may, wise and brave, sing songs of praise to celebrate you in yajnic acts of life.

Mandala 2/Sukta 3
Agni Devata, Gritsamada Rshi

Agni, light and fire of life and all existence, is established in action on and in the earth. It abides in and by all regions of the universe, each one of them, directly, immediately and positively. It is the sacred fire that carries on the yajna of the universe, giving, receiving and giving again in the cycle of cosmic dynamics. It is ‘pavaka’, refiner, purifier and sanctifier. It is bright and blazing, innately intelligent, guiding and directing the onward march of life.

May Agni, in its own right of its nature and Dharma, bright and ever giving as the Divinity, abide by all the divinities of nature and humanity, holy powers all, and, together with them, carry on the cycle of life in existence.

(Swami Dayananda interprets Agni symbolically, in an open-ended applied manner in the human context: Agni is the scholar, teacher, researcher, ruler, producer, worker, in fact any power human or natural, creatively working for life and helping humanity and the environment for the progress of all living beings in the service of God.)

2. Narāsaraṁśah prati dhāmānyañjan tisro divāḥ prati mahnā svarciḥ. Ghṛtapruśā manasā havyamundan mūrdhan yajñasya mananaktu devān.

Agni, lord of life and light of the world, adored by many people, self-refulgent with the light of his own flames, revealing the regions of the universe with his own knowledge and power and lighting the threefold fires of the sun in heaven, lightning in the sky and fire on the earth, including the three fires of the home, i.e., garhapatya, ahavaniya and daksinagni, replete with ghṛta and brilliant with his own inner light of mind, receiving the offerings into the vedi and augmenting and returning them manifold in showers of bliss, may, we pray, bless and beatify the brilliant and generous yajakas of divine order seated at the head of yajna.

3. Īlito agne manasā no arhan devān yakṣī mānuṣāt pūrvo adya. Sa ā vaha marutāṁ sardho acyuta-mindram naro barhiṣadām yajadhvam.
Agni, praised, adored and celebrated lord of light and power of knowledge, first and foremost friend of humanity, worthy of honour and pleased to listen and bless, we pray join the brilliant divinities and reward them with science and sacred knowledge now as ever. Lord, such as you are, bring us the speed and force of the Maruts, mighty winds, and the imperishable power and glory of Indra, showers of electric energy from the clouds. Come ye all members of humanity, join and honour Agni seated on the grass upfront on the holy vedi of your yajna of life.

Deva Agni, brilliant and generous lord of light and life, knowledge and bliss, come and grace this holy grass spread around the vedi manned by bright and brave young people and, with ghrta in the vedi, refine and reinforce the waters full of virility, holding power and prosperity and further expanding for the growth of life’s wealth and joy. And let the Vasu order of researchers, Aditya order of eminent scholars, all nobilities of the world and holy yajakas, the vitality of the Vasu sources and supports of life and the light of the sun on yearly rounds, too, join the programme and vitalise the waters.

5. Vi śṛṇyntāmuvijāḥ hūyamānaḥ dhrarā dūvī: sūrṇāyāṇa

vi śṛṇyntāmuvijāḥ hūyamānaḥ dhrarā dūvī: sūrṇāyāṇa

namabhī:। vyācśvástīvi pṛthuṇtāmjuṣya vṛṇṇiḥ punāna

yuvāsē sūvī-rēma।।
5. Vi śrayantāmurviyā hūyamānā dvāro devīḥ suprāyatānā namobhiḥ. Vyacasvaṁrvi prathantā-majuryā varṇam punāṁ yaśasam suvīram.

Let the sacred doors of yajnic progress, wide, expansive and easy of access, open and welcome the performers. And let the performers, youthful and unaging, take recourse to these at the call of the wide wide earth and spread around with acts of humility and gratitude, purifying and sanctifying the integrity of their form and character, honour and grace, and the heroism of their young generation.

6. Sādhvapāṁsi sanatā na ukṣite uṣāsānaktā vayyeva raṇvite. Tantuṁ tataṁ sanhvayanṭī samīcī yajñasya peśaḥ sudughe payasvaṁi.

May the night and day going together in orbit, singing in unison, replete with the waters of peace and bliss, abundant in the milk of life and profusely giving, harmoniously shaping and advancing the beauteous form of nature’s vast yajnic evolution, like two companion women weaving the warp and woof of cloth, bless us with noble competence for holy yajnic actions performed with humility and gratitude to Agni, lord of light, yajna and advancement.

(Like the night and day the husband and wife should act in unison and carry on the holy yajna of the family and the household as part of the vast yajna of life in existence.)
7. Daivyā hotārā prathamā viduṣṭara rju yakṣataḥ samṛcā vapuṣṭarā. Devān yajantāvṛtuthā samaṇjato nābhā prthivyā adhi sānuṣu triṣu.

The two divine yajakas, day and night, husband and wife, of prime nature and character, blest with innate intelligence, and handsome in form and stature, carry on the creative yajna sincerely and naturally with hymns of praise for the lord of existence. Carrying on the yajna in honour of the divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity according to the seasons on the vedi of the earth and over the three peaks of space, i.e., the earth’s atmosphere, the middle region and the region of heavenly light, or doing their best in the first, second and third quarter of life for Dharma, artha and kama, they live and act together.

8. Sarasvatī sādhayantī dhiyaṁ na iḷā devī bhāratī viśvurtiḥ. Tisro devīḥ svadhayā barhireda-macchidraṁ pāntu śaraṇaṁ niṣadya.

Ila, the transcendent Infinity of Divine Omniscience, Sarasvati, dynamic universal knowledge revealed, recorded and envisioned in meditation, and Bharati, living human speech which holds the treasure of secular knowledge ever on the move in life onward like a tempest: may these three goddesses inspire our intelligence and, with their innate and essential power, come and grace our holy seat of yajna and bless it as our perfect haven and faultless home under protection of the divinities.

9. Piśaṅgarūpaḥ subharo vayodhāḥ śrusṭi vīro jāyate devakāmaḥ. Prajām tvaṣṭā vi śyatu nābhimasme athā devānāmapyetu pāthaḥ.

The person who loves God and serves the divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity soon and sure grows handsome in form and personal splendour, generous and abundant in nature and habit, strong in health, virility and longevity, and bright and brave in performance. May Tvashta, lord creator and maker of life-forms, give us progeny, our sustenance and security for life, and then bless us with food and maintenance for the learned and the divines on way to the holy destination of life.

10. Vanaspatiravasṛjannupa sthādagnirhaviḥ sūdayāti pra dhībhiḥ. Tridhā samaktaṁ nayatu prajānan devebhyo daivyāḥ śamitopa havyam.

May Agni, ruler and life-giver, Vanaspati, giver of vitality to vegetation, stand by us. May Vanaspati, trees and all vegetation, giving fruits, flowers and life-breath, stand by us. Agni, sun and fire, prepares for us the food for life and yajna. So also may Agni, the scholar specialist of the science of yajna, knowing his subject and aware of his duty, rising high in the light of holiness, divine of nature, creator and harbinger of peace, bring in for us yajnic materials mixed, refined and sanctified three ways by thought, word and deed for threefold purpose of the health of body, mind and soul for the divinities of nature and humanity.

11.  Ghṛtam mimikṣe ghṛtamasya yonirghṛte śrito ghṛtamvasya dhāma. Anuṣvadhamā vaha mādayasva svāhākṛtam vrṣabha vakṣi havyam.

       I mix, prepare and offer ghrta into the fire. Ghrta, vitality, is the womb of fire energy. It (fire energy and vitality) exists in fertility, ghrta, which is its medium.
       And this ghrta, fertility, too abides in Ghrta, eternal creativity, Agni, Life Supreme, which is the ultimate abode of all existential energy, vitality, fertility, production and procreation. O Vrsabha, youthful and generous yajaka overflowing with the lustre and splendour of vitality, bring in the sanctified and dedicated materials committed to Svaha, the word of truth and sincerity of the oblation in yajna. Collect, prepare, commit, offer with faith and dedication, and rejoice in your act of creation.
Mandala 2/Sukta 4

Agni Devata, Somahuti Bhargava Rshi

For you all, I invoke, adore and worship Agni, lord of light and giver of life and energy, blissfully shining, selflessly generous and abundant in food and wealth of the world, ever on the round among the people like a cherished guest of honour, who may, I pray, be the sustainer and protector of all like a friend, brilliant light giver for all the people who know and understand, omnipotent as he is in the world of existence, lord omniscient as he is of all that is born.

This fire energy, uniformly present in the midst of waters in the womb of space, the Bhrgus, specialists of heat energy, collect, bring down, reproduce, and place the part available among the people for their use in two forms, one that gives heat and light and the other that is motive energy. May this agni, fire energy, dynamic and strong, fastest in motion, be vastly and universally available to all as gift of the divinities of nature’s power.
Agni, heat and light energy, brilliant scientists living among human communities in the world produce and establish like a dear favourite friend in power homes. And that power, developed and exploited by experts, as a catalytic force burning in waves of light, brightens up the nights all round with love and joy for the man of generosity.

Joyous and beautiful is the growth of this fire, satisfying as one’s own. Delightful is the holy form of it as it rises to a bright and blazing stature. Brilliant and inspiring is it while it shines in herbs and trees, and awful is its form while it raises its flames of fire like the tongues of a voracious demon or shakes them like the mane and tail of a chariot horse.
5. Ā yanme abhvaṁ vanadaḥ panantośighhyo nānimīta varṇam. Sa citreṇa cikite rāmsu bhāsā jujurvāṁ yo muhurā yuvā bhūt.

That immensity and golden glory of Agni which the scholars and admirers fail to measure, comprehend and express for me and the worshippers, He himself, joyous and blissful, reveals directly by his glorious light in meditation and through its majesty in blaze, the same which, though aging since eternity, grows young again and again every moment of time.

6. Ā yo vanā tātṛṣāṇo na bhāti vārṇa pathā rathyeva svānīt. Kṛṣṇādhvā tapūrṇaściketa dyauriva smayamāno nabhobhiḥ.

Agni, bright as sun rays, flaming with light and love, shines, radiates and roars like a flood rushing on its way, or like a war horse on the highway. Bright and burning, it goes on dispelling darkness and leaving a trail of light on its path, blazing like the light of heaven and thundering like lightning. It can be known and realised with homage of service in humility and inputs of fine foods in yajña.

7. Sa yo vyasthādabhi dakṣadurvīṁ paśurnaiti svayuragopāḥ. Agniḥ śociṣmāṁ atasānyuṣṇan kṛṣṇavyathirasvadayanna bhūma.

That is Agni which stands by us all round, heats and lights the earth, and freely at will goes forward like the light of the eye or like a cow without the shepherd — Agni, shining, blazing and cleansing, heating and moving the particles of matter and energy, attracting, propelling and dispelling, breaking up, universal presence all knowing, as if tasting everything that exists.

Agni, lord omniscient, teacher par excellence, in studies and in our third and highest order of yajnic ways of living you teach us the eternal science of all round protection and progress. Bless us, O lord, with bright and brave dedicated youth, immensely growing prosperity of food, knowledge and speed of advancement, noble progeny, and wealth, power and honour.

Agni, lord of light and life, for the wise and the brave and for the teacher and the celebrant, bring that health and age by which the people, happy and enlightened, shining within with discriminative intelligence, blest with noble youth and fighting force, challenging hate and enmity, may, by your grace, rise high and ever higher.

Mandala 2/Sukta 5

Agni Devata, Somahuti Bhargava Rshi

1. Hotajaniṣṭa cetanaḥ pitā pitṝbhya utaye.
   Prayakṣaṁjeyam vasu śakema vājino yamam.

   The yajaka, man of self, man of intelligence and self-awareness performing yajna, giving and cooperating with creative people, grows and is reborn as father, supporter, sustainer and protector for the elder generation and sustaining powers for the protection and advancement of life and society in general as part of the social and historical cycle, creating wealth, power and services worthy to be attained. Let us too, intelligent and progressive, be able to create an environment which may take us forward as a disciplined and organised society.

2. Ā yasmintsapta raśmayastatā yajñasya netari.
   Manuṣvad daiyam-aśṭamaṁ potā viśvam tadin-vati.

   In the cosmic conduct of the universal yajna, the sun is the performer, and there are seven rays in the spectrum of light acting like seven priests. There is one more, eighth, just like the human agent in the socio-natural yajnic life of the world, and that is the divine performer, Agni, universal holy power, purifier, sanctifier and sustainer who pervades and sustains the entire world of existence.

He holds and controls the waters of life, and He reveals the universal knowledge of existence, the Veda. And He knows that world of existence and comprehends the cosmic system and its working. Thus He holds and controls its working just as the centre-hold of the wheel and the rim hold the structure and control the movement of the wheel.

4. Śākam hi śucinā śucih praśāstā kratunājani. Vidvān asya vratā dhruvā vāyā īvānu rohate.

Surely he who, by the grace of the Divine Spirit of universal purity, grows pure, and, by the divine control and universal action of the Spirit of the universe, rises to a state of self-control and right action, he is reborn as the real man of knowledge, and, abiding by the immutable law and discipline of Divinity and nature, grows high and great in life like the branches of a tree (drawing and receiving the spirit and breath of life from the root at the centre of existence).
And those girls and women who abide by the nature, law and self-willed action of the Omniscient Controller of existence, and, like sister streams flowing from the same source, receive abundant and cherished showers of life and light energy from the three worlds of earth, heaven and the middle regions of the skies, rise to the beauty, grace and generosity of the divine fire and waters and bless the world around like mother cows by virtue of their knowledge, performance and devotion.
tasks for the sake of heavenly light and the self in the service of Agni, lord sustainer and controller of life and the universe. Let them offer songs of praise and yajnic action to the Lord. May we too, we pray, as participants of yajna, rejoice in the holiness and divinity of life and,
with dedicated performance, attain the abundant wealth and waters of life and the spirit divine.

Yathā viñjña ṛṣā kṛdirśvabhāya yajñatathā: ।

8. Yathā vidvān arāṁ karad viśvebhya yajatebhyaḥ.
Ayamagne tve api yāṁ yajñam caṁmat vayam.

O lord giver of light and life, Agni, what this man of knowledge and wisdom does holily and gracefully for all the saints and sagely performers of yajna, the same he does for you too in dedication. And so also whatever yajnic acts of life we perform, we dedicate to you.

Mandala 2/Sukta 6
Agni Devata, Somahuti Bhargava Rshi

1. Imāṁ me agne samidham-imāmupasadāṁ vaneḥ.
Imā u ṣu śrudhī girāḥ.

Agni, lord giver of light and knowledge, pray accept this holy fuel of mine offered with folded hands, accept this homage and allow the supplicants entry to the yajna of enlightenment, and listen graciously to these prayers of mine.
Agni, child as well as creator and preserver of energy and power, lover of speed and acceleration, brilliantly risen to eminence, with this offer and homage and by this song and celebration of light and fire, let us serve you and advance the yajnic development of knowledge and energy.
off all hate and jealousy of existence and cleanse us from within.

5.  Sa no vr̥ṣṭim divaspari sa no vājamanarvāṇam.
    Sa naḥ sahasriṇīriṣaḥ.

Agni gives us the rain showers from the regions of the sun and sky. Agni gives us the power and automotive speed of movement without the horse. Agni gives us a thousand forms of food and energy.

6.  Īlānāyāvasyave yaviṣṭha dūta no girā.

Agni, lord of light and power, youngest and unaging, harbinger of safety and destroyer of evil, power adorable and generous giver, for the supplicant and the worshipper in need seeking protection and progress, come and listen to our prayers.

7.  Antarhyagna īyase vidvān janmabhayā kave.
    Dūto janyeva mitryah.

Agni, omnipresent lord of light, you are ever present in the heart within. Lord of knowledge, poetic visionary of the universe, you know the birth and death of things past, present and future. Harbinger and giver of knowledge of life in existence, you are the friend of all living beings for the sake of entire humanity.

8. Sa vidvāň ā ca piprayo yakṣi cikitva ānuṣak. Ā cāsmintsatsi barhiṣī.

Agni, lord of knowledge, loving and kind, you give whatever we need since you know and command the wealth of the world. And, omnipresent in the quarters of the universe, you come, manifest and bless our home, sit on our vedi of yajna, this same one where we pray.

Mandala 2/Sukta 7

Agni Devata, Somahuti Bhargava Rshi

1. Šreṣṭhaṁ yaviṣṭha bhārata’gne dyumantamā bhara. Vaso puruspṛhaṁ rayim.

Agni, most youthful spirit and ruling power of the world, Bharata, lord commander of abundance and prosperity, home of life’s joy and comfort and giver of whatever wealth whoever loves to have, come bearing that best and highest and most shining wealth which entire humanity loves and aspires to create and possess. Come and bless all.

Agni, brilliant ruling lord of light and life, you are the holder and wielder of wealth and power for us by virtue of generous cows and virile bulls and with the generosity of our noble women and the industry of our brave and creative men. And you are invoked and adored with eightfold voices of holy chants in yajna.

Marvellous is Agni, child of courage and power, ancient and eternal. Fuel wood is its food and ghrta its drink. Creator, giver and receiver, it calls up everything to life and shines with light and heat, adorable, a darling of our choice.

Holy words of praise and appreciation advance and celebrate Agni, light and power of the world, self-refulgent, free and self-governing, which devours the offerings of yajna and yields the beauty and fragrance of life beyond all three kinds of physical, mental and spiritual ailments and discomfort. For that reason I bear and abide by it above all other wealth and beauty of the world.

Agni, light and life of existence, prime power and energy of the world, may we ever abide and benefit by you by virtue of the light and protection of Indra, the sun, Soma, the moon, and the divinities of nature such as earth, and the brilliant geniuses of humanity who give us the knowledge of Agni, fire, energy and electric power. And may we, unhurt and inviolable, rise in life, building our defences and fighting the battles of our growth and progress.
Mandala 2/Sukta 9
Agni Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

Agni, lord of light, life and knowledge, ever sits and abides as the chief of life’s evolution, invoking the divine powers, receiving, consuming and creating, and giving the wherewithal for life’s evolution. Let him sit in the home of the host of yajna, in and around the vedi, in the chariot, in the car, in the house of science and industry, wherever the yajna is carried on in nature and human society. He is fully knowledgeable and ever present, shining, radiating and illuminating the people around with knowledge, best creator of haven and home for peace and comfort, bearing a thousand forms of wealth and power, crystalline pure and bright of the rays of light and tongues of fire for the Word of knowledge and passion for action. Such is Agni, radiant and flaming, burning and blazing, devouring, creating, ever blessing.

Agni, lord creator and giver of light and life, high-priest of the yajna of knowledge and creative action for advancement, you are the messenger of inspiration and enlightenment, you are the saviour protector and pilot to guide us across the seas, you are our haven and home, leader and guide most generous and brave in the forward march, relentless in the continuation of the race, community, family and progeny and the expansion and advancement of our body and body-politic. Lord omniscient, you know. Giver of knowledge, enlighten us. Protector, preserver and advancer of our animal wealth and health of body, mind and senses, saviour and preserver of mother earth and her environment and animal world, help us to protect, preserve and advance ourselves and save the earth and her environment.

Agni, lord of light, giver of life and leader of our yajnic progress and advancement, let us roam around in meditation in that highest heaven of freedom where you reveal your presence in living experience. Let us send up our holy chants of Vedic hymns to celebrate you in the regions of the skies this side of the heavens of light. Let us adore you with havan and homage here on earth where the learned and the wise offer oblations of ghrta into the vedi wherefrom you rise and manifest in fire and fragrance to bless the world around.
4. Agni yajasva haviṣā yajīyāṇchrusṭī deṣṭamabhi graṇīhi rādhaḥ. Tvaṁ hyasi rayipaṭī rayīṇāṁ tvaṁ śukrasya vacaso manotā.

Agni, high-priest of cosmic yajna, perform the yajna of creation and evolution with the holiest materials in existence, go on with the performance, instantly as ever, receiving, offering, consuming and creating the wealth worthy and valuable as holy gift, and loudly proclaim the wealth you have created and the success you have achieved. Surely you alone are the lord of riches, creator as well as dispenser of the jewels of the earth. And you are the inspirer and proclaimer of the eternal Word of power, purity and truth.

5. Ubhayaṁ te na kṣīyate vasavyaṁ divedive jāyamānasya dasma. Kṛḍhi kṣumantaṁ jaritāra-magne kṛḍhi patiṁ svapatyasya rāyah.

Both your creation and dispensation of wealth never end, never diminish. Day by day your creation grows and your gifting prospers, lord of charity and destroyer of suffering as you are. Agni, lord of universal yajna, promote the worshipper of Divinity dedicated to holy work, promote the man of wealth and charity, promote the father of noble children and the defender of holy tradition, and raise the potential of the master creator of yajnic wealth.

Agni, lord of light, creator and commander of wealth, shine with this glory of yours, generous benefactor of ours, high-priest of cosmic yajna with the bounties of nature to the maximum for the good of humanity. Shine on, high-priest of yajna, fearless and inviolable, protector of the cow, mother earth and her children, our saviour and ultimate protector.

Mandala 2/Sukta 10

Agni Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

1. Johūtro agniḥ prathamah pitevāśpade manuṣā yat samiddhaḥ. Śriyāṁ vasāno amṛto vicetā marṁṛjenyah śravasyaḥ sa vājī.

Agni, heat and light of existence, first and primary power of yajnic applications, kindled and raised on earth in the vedi, both spiritual and material, is a source of comfort and protection as a paternal power. Wearing the spectral beauty of colour, indestructible, pure and purifying, it is a splendid power that can be used as fuel food for the production of energy, motion and speed like a horse.
Listen ye all to my call, proclamation and invitation to power made in universal words of science: Agni is a wonderful power that shines with the sun, indestructible, and a source of manifold knowledge, riding a chariot drawn by wave-like horses of rain-bow colours—dark brown, bay, reddish, dark red and violet, the horses bearing the two wheels forward in circuit.

Conceived and nestled like an embryo in the many coloured herbs over the wide wide earth in the womb of night but, with its splendour not suppressed even by darkness of the night, it remains awake until it comes back to light again in the morning waking up all living beings.

I light the fire and sprinkle it with ghrta all round as it pervades everything everywhere. I do so carefully, with specific knowledge and with a loving mind without hate or jealousy toward anyone. You too serve it, be with it, the same way. Agni is the wealth, beauty and grace of mortal humanity, lovely and splendid of form as it loves to be. Flaming, flickering and awfully vibrating, it brooks no touch by anyone.
I light and sprinkle the fire with ghrta and fragrant oblations, fire, pervading all regions of the universe, vast, radiating in waves, expanding with life energy and splendour, extending and comprehending, mighty and impetuous with energy in velocity, beautiful and gracious with light and illumination.

Know and abide by your share of the beauty, power and prosperity of life by the grace of Agni. Be patient, challenging and victorious at the peak of your conduct and performance. Let us all, your messengers, eloquent and rich in wealth and fire-power, speak and celebrate Agni as human power, preserver, protector and promoter of life. I invoke, enkindle, praise, serve and worship Agni, perfect power without a fault, replete with showers of honey-sweets.

And we sing the glories of your majesty like rays of the sun doing homage to the sun's power of sustenance of the solar system.

Indra, lord of light and power, ruler of the world, the circuitous rays of your glory like two horses of the solar chariot radiating, moving, energising, vitalising, fertilising, giving and receiving, proclaim your grace and majesty replete with the waters of life. Let the earth expand and grow and prosper. Let the battles of life be fought and won in unison. Arise and rejoice flowing like streams from the mountain, showering like clouds of rain, from the heavens.

Let Indra, ruler of the world, sit and reign settled as a mountain, showering as a cloud, shining with heaven and earth, revered and loved by mothers of the land, his voice resounding as thunder, his rule measured and assessed by intelligent experts who, raising the holy voice higher and farther beyond the seas may universalise the divine voice of omniscience revealed by Indra, lord omnipotent ruler of the universe.

Indra is great, mighty heroic, creates, thickens and chases the wondrous cloud overcasting the wide and bottomless skies, so that when the cloud, falling in heavy showers, roars and thunders, the heaven and earth, stricken with fear by thunder and lightning, shake and rave under terror. (So should be the ruler and the law.)

Awfully roars and resounds the thunderbolt of this mighty Indra, beyond human imagination. It is the tempestuous shower of solar energy which humanity should exploit. So does the ruler with the blaze of his power and justice crush the mischief and malevolent force of the underworld and enjoy the peace and pleasure of a noble social order, creating it for himself and the people.

Indra, mighty brave and resplendent lord of power and knowledge, ruler, scholar, physician, destroyer of evil and ill-health, drink and drink on the soma of peace, health and life’s joy. May the exhilarating essences distilled from life and nature transport you to ecstasy. May the invigorating spirits of life and nature like the drink of soma increase your creative power and the fertility of the land. O distinguished citizen and ruler of the land, thus regaled with peace, power and pleasure, preserve and promote the prosperity and honour of the earth and her children.

Indra, lord of light and power, mighty and gracious ruler of the world, may we too abide by you, cultivate our intellect and intelligence, dedicating our mind to truth and the laws of truth, nature and humanity, and thereby become noble scholars and learned professionals. Thus searching for self-protection and working for social progress, may we earn appreciation and praise for ourselves and our work, and may we speedily contribute to the honour, prosperity and glory of a generous ruler like you.
13. Syāma te ta indra ye ta ītı avasyaya ūrjam vardhayantah. Śuṁmintamaṁ yaṁ cākanāma devā’sme rayiṁ rāsi vīravantam.

Indra, generous and self-refulgent lord of light, power and honour, may we be yours, dedicated to you only, working for self-development and social progress under your kind protection and contributing to the energy and prosperity of the nation. Generous and gracious lord, you bless us with the wealth and honour which we love and cherish and which is distinguished by richest prosperity, fieriest energy and mightiest heroes of the world on the field.

Indra, gracious ruler of the world, giver of power and prosperity, you give us a home, friends, and strength and force as that of the winds. And you give us also those who, united and acting in harmony, joyous and inspired, full of vigour and enthusiasm, follow the ways and values of policy, conduct and action far in advance of their time.

Indra, lord of knowledge and power, ruler of the world, ruler of the self, the things and values in which wise and learned visionaries rejoice and find the very breath of life are those in which you too, settled, satisfied and rejoicing, find your haven and home for the joy of life for yourself and others. Therein protect and promote the beauty and joy of the soma-value of life. Promote us, we pray, help us advance in the battles of life, protector and saviour as you are, and extend the possibilities of life and life’s heavenly joy on earth as the sun illuminates the glories of heaven and augments them with its mighty rays and atomic fuel.

Indra, gracious lord of power and ruler of the world, saviour from suffering and helping us all to cross the seas of existence, those who celebrate your glories with holy chants of the Veda, rising high, enjoy your favour and grace and, under your protection, achieve food, energy, speed and prosperity and, traversing the skies like their own home, rise to space heights.

Indra, lord of knowledge and power, ruler of the world, ruler of the self, the things and values in which wise and learned visionaries rejoice and find the very breath of life are those in which you too, settled, satisfied and rejoicing, find your haven and home for the joy of life for yourself and others. Therein protect and promote the beauty and joy of the soma-value of life. Promote us, we pray, help us advance in the battles of life, protector and saviour as you are, and extend the possibilities of life and life’s heavenly joy on earth as the sun illuminates the glories of heaven and augments them with its mighty rays and atomic fuel.
Indra, lord of light and life of life, destroyer of pain and suffering, harbinger of the soma-joy of living, bright, blazing and rejoicing among the brilliant geniuses of the world, collect, create and fill soma in the three-fold vessels of our body, mind and soul. Move by the circuitous rays of the sun for a drink of the spirituous ecstasy of life and, happy at heart, vibrate in every cell through every pore of the body.

Indra, lord of knowledge and power, hold on that strength by which you break the dark cloud pregnant with waters covered as under the web of a spider. Reveal and release the light and power of the sun for the noble seekers of wisdom and virtuous life so that the wicked exploiter and demon of darkness is kept and crushed by the left wing of your law.

Indra, lord of light, power and love, let us abide by those who, by your modes of protection and advancement, surpass and subdue all the dark and exploitative forces of hate, jealousy, enmity and wicked opposition with their strength of justice and virtue, and who form and structure for us that universal character and constitution of one world order of love and friendship which is inspired by Divinity for humanity free from physical, mental and spiritual want and suffering.

अस्य सुवासनस्य मन्दिनस्मिरतस्य न्ययबुंदं वाचवधाना अस्तं ।
अवतत्त्वूया न चर्कं भिनद्वल्लमिन्ना अव्यरस्वान ॥ २० ॥

Let Indra, lord ruler of the world, settled and inspired, vibrating with energy, wind and power, developing and growing to splendour with the billion-fold nation of this mighty, joyous and free humanity, move like the sun his wheel of governance and dispel the dark and demoniac forces of evil and wickedness.

नूनं सा त पति वरं जरित्रु दुहीयदिन्त्र दी रणा मधानी ।
शि गै स्तातृत्वा मार्ति धर्भणा ना बृहद्वद्म विद्वर्षे सुवीराः ॥ २१ ॥

21. Nūnam sā te prati varam jaritre duhīyadindra dakṣiṇā maghonī. Śikṣā stotṛbhyo māti dhag-bhago no bṛhad vadema vidathe suvīrāḥ.

Indra, glorious lord ruler of light and life, mighty powerful, may that generous power and liberality of yours ever flow with the highest good for the admirer and worshipper of Divinity. Give knowledge and enlightenment to the singers and celebrants. Pray do not strain them, hurt them not, nor burn them to naught.
Bless us with unbounded wealth and honour. Bless us with brave and noble heroes. Inspire us to sing and celebrate the divine glory in our battles of life.

Mandala 2/Sukta 12

Indra Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

1. Yo jāta eva prathamo manasvān devo devān kratunā paryabhūṣat. Yasya śūsmād rodasī abhyasetāṁ nṛmṇasya mahnā sa janāsā indraḥ.

Ye men and women of the world, Indra is the generous self-refulgent lord omnipotent and omniscient who, first manifested, creates and adorns the generous earth and brilliant stars. It is by the grandeur of his mighty wealth and power of action that the heaven and earth and the middle regions of the skies move around in orbit.

2. Yah prthivīṁ vyathamānāmadṛśṇhad yah parvatān prakupitān aramṇāt. Yo antarikṣam vimame varīyo yo dyāmastabhnāt sa janāsā indraḥ.

O people of the world, it is Indra, lord omnipotent, who establishes the moving earth in balance in orbit and silences the angry volcanoes and roaring clouds, who encompasses the vast skies and holds up the high heavens of light. (Such is Indra, universal energy.)

People of the world, it is Indra who breaks the cloud into showers and makes the seven rivers and seven seas flow, who makes the moving stars and planets such as earth and satellites such as moon dance around in order, who wields and controls the entire energy of the universe, who creates the fire at the centre of the stone and the cloud and controls the making and breaking of the elements in the cosmic dynamics.

4. Yanemā viśvā cyavanā kṛtāni yo dāsaṁ varṇama-dharam guhākāh. Śvaghnīva yo jīgīvāṁ lakṣa-mādadaryāḥ puṣṭāni sa janāsa indraḥ.

Who makes all these moving objects of the moving world of existence, who conceives and fixes the emergent form deep in the cavern of the mind, who takes on the target like an unfailing hunter, all those in course of time which are created and nurtured by him: Such is Indra, O people of the world.
5. Yamā smā pṛchchanti kuha seti ghoramutemā-hurnaiṣo astītyenam. So aryāḥ puṣṭirvija īvā mināti śradasmai dhatta sa janāsa indraḥ.

Of whom they often ask: Where is he? He is terrible, say they. He is everywhere, say some. He is nowhere, say others. He is the master and lord of all, creates, evolves and devolves, elevates with a heave and, “like a victor” he shoots down the thriving ones: Such, O people, is Indra. Know him well in truth, and have faith.

6. Yo radhrasya coditā yaḥ kṛśasya yo brahmaṇo nādhamānasya kīreh. Yuktagrāvṇo yo’vitā susipraḥ sutasosasya sa janāsa indraḥ.

He is inspirer of the obedient worshipper, support of the weak and emaciated, promoter of knowledge and Veda, saviour of the poor and destitute, and strength of the celebrant; he is protector of the person who is dedicated to learning and soma-yajna, commands knowledge and creates the joy of soma in society: Such is Indra O people of the world.
7. Yasyāśvāsah pradiśi yasya gāvo yasya grāmā yasya viśve rathāsah. Yaḥ sūryam ya uṣasam jajāna yo apāṃ netā sa janāsa indraḥ.

His are the waves of energy pervading in the directions and sub-directions of space. His are the horses and the cows, his the earths and the rays of light. His are the habitations and all the starry chariots of the world. He creates the sun and the dawn, revealing them every day anew. He is the mover and guide of the waters and spatial energy. Such, O people, is Indra, universal energy.

8. Yam krandasī sanīyatī vihvayete pare’vara ubhayā amitrāh. Samānaṁ cid ratham ātasthi-vāṁsā nānā havete sa janāsa indraḥ.

Whom the heaven and earth wheeling, whirling, humming the celestial music of the spheres together and vying each other in homage, invoke, whom the highest and farthest as well as lowest and nearest, all, friends and non-friends, worship alike as riding the same chariot, invoke and worship in various ways: that, O people of the world, is Indra, lord of power over all.

Without whom the people win no victories, on whom the warriors depend for protection, who is the comprehending measure of the universe and the unmoved mover of the cosmic dynamics: he, O people of the world, is Indra.

10. Yaḥ śaśvato mahyeno dadhānān-amanyamā-nāṁcharvā jaghāna. Yaḥ śardhate nānudadāti śṛdhyāṁ yo dasyorhantā sa janāsa indraḥ.

He who holds and governs the eternal constituents of existence, who with his power of justice and punishment destroys the disreputables taking recourse to great sins and crimes, who disapproves, scotches and silences the evil tongue of the maligner, and who eliminates the wicked exploiter: such, O people, is Indra.

11. Yaḥ śambaram parvataśu kṣiyantāṁ catvāriṁśyāṁ śaradyanvavindat. Ojāyamānam yo ahiṁ jaghāna dānum śayānam sa janāsa indraḥ.

He who finds the vapours of water hidden in the cloud on the fortieth day of autumn (or in the fortieth autumn) and breaks the cloud, heavy with water for showers yet sleeping like a giant, thus releasing the rain-showers: such, O people, is Indra, the mighty Sun.
Who shines bright with seven-colour rays of light, mightily generous, immensely full of energy and power, and, breaking the clouds to rain showers, releases the seven floods of water, rivers and seas rolling and flowing, and who energises the moon and the cloud ascending towards the sun under the Rohini asterism, that, dear people, is Indra, the mighty Sun.

Heaven and earth bow to him in homage. Clouds cower and mountains quake for fear of his power. He is the creator, preserver and promoter of the soma nectar and ecstasy of life, knowledge concentrate and power both, thunder-armed for punishment and protection, flower-handed with kusha grass for blessing and benediction. Such is Indra, lord of light and might and life of life, O children of the earth.

He who protects the creative man of yajnic action, who promotes the man struggling for perfection, and who, with all his modes of protection and progress, advances the prayerful celebrant pilgrim on way to Dharma, piety and charity, He is Indra, know ye all children of the earth. The Veda glorifies him, the soma-joy of the world celebrates him, the beauty and perfection of this creation proclaims his art and presence. Such is Indra, dear children of Divinity.

15. Yaḥ sunvate pacate dudhra ā cid vājaṁ dardarṣi sa kilāsi satyāḥ. Vayaṁ ta indra viśvaha priyāsaḥ suvīrāso vidathamā vadema.

Indra, lord of light and life, potent and inviolable, you provide all power and protection with speed of advancement for the creative and struggling perfectionist, and you ward off all force of opposition from him. Lord of existence, surely you are the ultimate Truth, you are eternal. Lord giver of life and potency, we love you, we are your dear darlings. We pray that confident and brave, blest with noble progeny, we may always honour you with holy songs of celebration and creative action in yajna.
Mandala 2/Sukta 13

Indra Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

1. Ṛturjanitrī tasyā apasparī makṣū jāta āviśad yāsu vardhate. Tadāhanā abhavat piyyūṣī payom’śoh pīyūṣam prathamam tadukthyam.

(There is a season for the birth of life, for everything.) The season is the mother’s womb. Whatever is born, the seed enters the waters of the womb, the season, and therein it grows. The receiving mother becomes the first recipient, taster and giver of the nectar of life to the seed, which nectar is the life-nursing energy of the sun. That nectar, that original essence of living energy, is worth knowing and celebration.

To the same one end flow the streams of life all round, holding the nectar of life for nourishment of the world, carrying food for everything living and growing. Similar and equal is the path of the streams so that they may flow for the same purpose. The one, the first original creator who created these streams of life, is worth knowing and celebration.

Whatever that one lord of power, Indra, creates and gives solely by himself, the same he reveals by himself. He creates all the forms and he destroys them all. That’s the lord’s power and karma in which he is solely manifested. All these universal karmas of the one, the one manages by himself. That one sole lord, the first and original doer who does all these is he, Indra, and he is worth knowing and celebration.

The house holders sit at the yajna working, serving and giving for the health, growth and advancement of the people, and while their wealth, property and possessions are rising in assets, they sit and abide by the yajna, sealing and securing the back bone of the nation, a firm foundation and a launching pad for the coming generations of humanity for further progress. And all the while the sagely scholar scientist visionary enjoys yajnic food musticating every particle of it with his teeth. Indra, it is you who plan, ordain and execute all these dispensations, you are adorable in words of celebration.

And you develop the earth to a festival of lights for all to see and celebrate, O breaker of the cloud of rain showers of wealth, and you open the various channels of wealth for the streams to flow. Such as you are, Indra, lord of light, wealth and power, brilliant and generous, dynamic and tempestuous as wind and energy, brilliant scholars of the world anoint you with holy waters, and celebrate you with citations and presentations, and raise you to eminence. Adorable you are, indeed.

Indra, lord of light, wealth and power, you are the one who organise and control consumption and production, growth and allotment and, with your liquid creativity and energising waters, convert the deserts into honeyed gardens to milk the wealth from the holy earth. O people of the earth, he holds the wealth of the world in the sun and rules the universe solely by himself, alone. Such as you are, O lord of creation and sustenance, you are worthy of celebration in song and yajnic action.

Who, with his law and power, in his profuse generosity, holds and sustains the various lands of flowers and fertility, who is vast and potent and creates the infinite variety of lights and blazing energies in their entirety, he, lord worthy of homage and celebration, is Indra.

8. Yo nārmaram sahavasum nihantave prkṣāya ca dāsaveśāya cāvahah. Ūrjayantyā apariviṣṭam-āsyamutaivādyā purukṛt sāsyukthyah.

Who for the elimination of antihuman forces, even though they might command wealth and power, and for the expansion of the powers of generosity and creativity and for the working forces, rules and provides the unbounded face of the fertile and energising mother earth, he is Indra, lord of manifold action and he is worthy of adoration today.

Ten, hundred or thousands are with Indra, sole lord of the world, ready for service at his bidding, unbounded his favours and incentives, a thousand-ways his inspirations and exhortations, he knows. He binds the wicked exploiters, criminals and sinners with unfettered chains to break them down. Supreme protector is he just at hand everywhere. So is he adorable in holy chant.

Indra, mighty lord of light and life, noble and powerful is your eloquence, since with a single act of will and divinity you win and command the wealth of the world. Eternal and inviolable, ancient and ever youthful, patient yet potent and victorious, for all the acts of existence and creation you do, you are divine, supremely holy, and adorable in acts and words of piety.

Indra, you change the dire discipline of holiness to a pleasure path for the sinners to cross the seas and leap to the freedom of Moksha. You accelerate the speed and success of the parent and teacher to continue the family line and the tradition of knowledge. You raise the fallen from the depth, you own and console the rejected and destitute, you give eyes to the blind and ears to the deaf with knowledge to the ignorant. As such, the celebrants adore you in songs of faith and joy.

Indra, lord of light, power, honour and generosity, giver of peace, progress and prosperity, great and manifold is that wealth of yours which is your parental gift to us as a home and haven to live in joy. Give us the strength and capacity for charity and generosity like yours. Listening, celebrating, we pray, that brave and blest with brave heroic progeny, honoured and glorious, we may profusely praise and spontaneously celebrate your wondrous and heavenly gifts and glory day by day in song and yajna and justify your gifts of life and honour to humanity.

Indra Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

High priest of the yajna of love and non-violent creation, bear potfuls of soma juice for Indra, brave and youthful hero of the world. Collect and serve exciting food and drink for him in celebration. Eminent, valiant and victorious is he and loves a drink of this soma.
Always call for and prepare the drink for the mighty hero. He loves to live the vigour and ecstasy of life, create the strength and rise in joy.

2. Adhvaryo yo apo vavrivāṁsaṁ vṛtraṁ jaghānā-śanyeva vṛkṣam. Tasmā etāṁ bharata tadvaśā-yañ eṣa indro arhati pītimasya.

   High priests of the yajna of life, just as a stroke of lightning breaks and shatters a tree into bits, so does Indra, solar hero of the world, break the dark cloud concealing and hoarding the waters of life and thereby releases the showers of rain and joy of life. For him, bear and bring this soma of joy and celebration. He loves it intensely, and this Indra deserves to drink of it to his heart’s content.

3. Adhvaryayo yo dṛbhīkaṁ jaghāna yo gā udāja-dapa hi valam vaiḥ. Tasmā etamantarikṣe na vāta-min-draṁ somairornuṭa jūrṇa vastraiḥ.

   Yajnic leaders of the people, Indra, lord ruler of humanity and the world, is he who, like the brilliant sun, dispels the forces of fear and darkness, develops the cows and animal wealth, preserves and replenishes the earth and her environment, opens up flood-gates of power and energy for you and, like the wind in the sky, drives life onward. Carry on this yajna and the creation of soma-joy and vigour for him, celebrate him like the wind in the sky, felicitate him with drinks of soma and honour him with robes of distinction as you would honour a veteran hero and senior scholar of eminence.

High priests and participants of the progressive yajna of love and creative advancement, invoke, applaud and advance Indra, leader and commander of humanity, who exposes and punishes the hoarder, eliminates the saboteur, overthrows nine and ninety handed demons, and binds and chains down hundred millions of enemy forces. Honour him and celebrate with oblations of love and offer of soma for the creation of vigour and life’s joy.

5. Adhvaryayo yaḥ svāṣnāṁ jaghāna yaḥ śuṣṇama-śuṣāṁ yo vyansam. Yaḥ piprum namucim yo rudhikrāṁ tasmā indrāyāndhaso juhota.

High priests of yajna, invoke, invite, honour and offer homage with food and love to Indra who breaks through the clouds of ignorance, who prevents the thriving social suckers and converts deserts into fertile fields, who breaks the shoulders of lawless powers, who fights and defeats the self-server and the persistent evil doer, and who brings to book those who cross the bounds of preventive law. Do him honour in the yajna of love and dedication.

High priests of yajna, offer soma yajna to Indra who shatters with a lightning stone blow a hundred well-established strongholds of the demon of darkness who arrests and prevents the joyous waters of life from their natural flow, Indra who digs out and uproots a hundred thousand sins and crimes of the blazing powers of evil and buries them for ever. Regale him with a drink of soma, the universal joy of life.

High priests of yajna, bring soma drinks in honour of Indra who sows the seeds and creates a hundred thousand heroes of yajna on the face of the earth, while on the other hand he destroys another hundred thousand warriors of evil and wards off the forces of the opponents of generosity and hospitality.
8. Adhvaryavo yannarahā kāmāyādhve śṛṣṭi vahanto naśathā tadinre. Gabhastipūtam bharata śrutāyendrāya somaṁ yajyavo juhota.

High priests of yajna, faithful performers, leaders of humanity, whatever you love and desire, whatever you achieve and attain, always with a will in obedience to Divinity carry that forward and hold it in the service of Indra, lord ruler of the world, and bear and bring it up soma, purified and sanctified by the rays of the sun, as an offering in homage to him who is universally heard, praised and celebrated. Enjoy the bliss and ecstasy of soma with him.

9. Adhvaryavah kartanā śṛuṣṭimasmai vane nipūtam vana unnayadhvam. Juśāno hastya-mabhi vāvaše va indrāya somaṁ madirāṁ juhota.

Leaders and participants of the yajnic developments of humanity, do your best willingly and spontaneously for this mighty and brilliant Indra. Do that and let it be sanctified and consecrated in the light and purity of the sun and raise the social order in the holy light. Join Indra and do his will, whatever he loves and desires of your art and industry. And when you have accomplished that with the expertise of your hand and imagination, then invoke, invite and honour him and celebrate the exciting pleasure and ecstasy of the soma of success.

10.  Adhvaryavah payasodharyathā goḥ somebhīrīṁ pṛṇatā bhojamindram. Vedāhamasya nibhṛtaṁ ma etad ditsantāṁ bhūyo yajātāściketa.

  High priests of the yajna of white revolution and herbal essences, let the streams of soma flow for health and joy and surfeit Indra, the mighty order of humanity. Let the order overflow with food and drink like the cow’s udders with milk. I know him and the wealth he holds for me. Join him, let everyone know and serve him for his creation and generosity, and let all carry on the effort in unison.

11.  Adhvaryavo yo divyasya vasvo yaḥ pārthivasya kṣamyasya rājā. Tamūrdaram na pṛṇatā yavene ndraṁ somebhistadapo vo astu.

  High priests of yajnic action and advancement, citizens of the world, serve Indra who is ruler of the light of heaven, the wealth of earth and the sweets of love and tolerance. Fill his kingdom to overflowing as farmers fill the stores with food and drink. Let the life on earth sparkle with streams of soma and shine with the glow of health and joy. Let that be your karma of divine dedication. Let that be the dynamics of human society.
12. Asmabhyaṁ tad vaso dānāya rādhaḥ samarthaya-yasva bahu te vasavyam. Indra yaccitram śravasyā anu dyūn bṛhad vadema vidathea suvīrāḥ.

Indra, lord ruler and master of the wealth of the universe, bless us with that wealth and honour, light and power, and strengthen us that we may be generous, tolerant and forgiving. Great and infinite is your power and glory of the worlds in existence. Wondrous and various is your wealth of life. May we, O lord, blest with that honour, power and splendour, brave and rising with the brave, every day and night sing of your glory and justify your gifts of yajna in our actions and endeavours.

Mandala 2/Sukta 15

Indra Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

I would set forth and sing in celebration of the great and true actions and achievements of this great and eternal lord Indra, ruler of the world, brilliant and blazing as the sun who drinks up the distilled essences of earth, heaven and the middle regions in three ways and radiates and matures exhilarating soma in three orders of nature, herbs of the earth, waters of the sky and light of the solar regions, and who, in the power and ecstasy of this soma process, strikes and breaks the dark cloud of showers for rain on the earth.

2. Avainśe dyāmastabhāyad brhantamā rodasī aprṇadantarikṣam. Sa dhārayat prthivīṁ paprathacca somasya tā mada indraścakāra.

Indra, lord of existence, sustains the mighty heaven of light in space without a supporting column. He fills the heaven and earth and the skies of the middle regions with light and fertility for life and holds the earth in orbit. And thus the lord manifests his power and glory in the expansive universe across the spaces. In the ecstasy and Ananda of the soma of creation, the lord performs all these actions for life and humanity.

Like a sacred house of prayer, Indra, lord creator, makes the worlds of existence since eternity with exact measures and perfect knowledge of their form, function and purpose. He splits open the upsurge of waters from river sources, digs the beds of flow with a natural and spontaneous stroke of the thunderbolt and releases the floods by paths deep and wide for us to move and navigate. Indra does all these in joy and ecstasy for his love of creation and for the soma pleasure of his children.

4. Sa pravolhīn parigatyā dabhīter-viśvam-adhāg-āyudham-iddhe agnau. Sam gobhir-aśvair-asṛjad rathebhiḥ somasya tā mada indraścakāra.

Having overcome all the weapons of violence, fear and terror, he burns them in the blazing fire of his cosmic yajna and creates modes of transport and communication with bullocks, horses, chariots and waves of energy and motive power. He does all these in his ecstasy of creativity for the joy of his creation. This is the glory of Indra.

5. Sa īṁ mahīṁ dhunim-eteor-aramṇāt so asnātṝnapārayat svasti. Ta utsnāya rayimabhi pra tashṭuḥ somasya tā mada indraścakāra.

He gives motion to the waters, and the earth, in fact to all things on the move, and he controls, stabilizes, arrests and ultimately stills that movement to rest. He helps the uninitiates to move and cross the seas for their good, and they rise and, having bathed in the waters, abide in the wealth of divine bliss. Indra does all these in the ecstasy of creation for the joy of his creation.

With his blazing might he reaches and raises the rising sea. With his light he adorns the chariot of the dawn. Moving and shaking the motionless with his own forces of velocity, Indra goes on with his actions in the joy of his creation for the joy of his children.

He, self-refulgent lord of knowledge, removing the veil of darkness from the lights, manifests himself and stays high and above all. Listening to the prayerful, he abides by all, reveals himself and speaks to the faithful. Thus does Indra perform his actions of divinity in his own ecstasy of soma for the joy of the people.

Indra, blazing ruler of the world, proclaiming his power and presence, dispels the dark and distressive forces of life with the rays of his light and knowledge. He breaks open the deep caverns of mountains and the clouds and opens their gates for sun and shower. He shatters the artificial walls of division in humanity for their progress. These are the acts of Indra done in his ecstasy of soma for his people.

He alerts the man yawning with sleepy sloth, silences the agitator, destroys the robber, suppresses the fearful devil, and, under his rule, the honest worker gets his wages in gold. Such are the acts of performance which Indra accomplishes in the ecstasy of soma for the joy of the people.

10. Nūnām sā te prati varam jaritre duhīyadindra dakṣiṇā maghonī. Śikṣā stotṛbhyo mātī dhag-bhago no bṛhad vadema vidathe suvīrāḥ.

Indra, lord ruler of the world, giver of light and joy, may that magnificent generosity of yours award the highest fulfilment to the celebrant, and cherished knowledge to the worshipper. Lord of power and splendour, may your glory shine and blaze for us but not burn our gifts of your magnanimity. And may we, brave and blest with the brave, celebrate your glory in our yajnic acts of piety and obedience to your will.

Mandala 2/Sukta 16

Indra Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

O worshippers and dedicated devotees of Indra, for your sake I offer the sweetest song of celebration in honour of the highest lord of life and energy as I bear and offer oblations of holy fragrant havish into the lighted fire of yajna. We invoke and serve Indra, unaging lord of imperishable energy, full of inexhaustible power and eternally youthful, consuming and converting matter into energy. We develop the lord’s energy for our protection and advancement.

Without this great lord Indra, eternal power and energy, there is nothing that is great, indeed anything at all. In this supreme presence are held all the courage, valour and virility. In his oceanic potential lies all the power, peace and pleasure. In his body, he holds challenge, patience and fortitude, grandeur and splendour, in his hand, thunder and lightning, in his head, vision, intelligence and noblest yajnic action.

Not by heaven and earth is your wealth and power contained, much less surpassed. Nor can your chariot be exhausted and out-distanced by the expansive seas and high mountains or even by the spatial clouds. Nor can any weapon even remotely approach the invincible terror of your thunderbolt. All this because you shoot like an arrow with the tempestuous rays of light and waves of energy and currents of winds many many miles and yojans distance instantly.

All bear noble thoughts and perform holy acts of yajna in honour of this lord Indra, cosmic yajamana, bold and daring, overwhelming and generous, and universal friend and constant companion. Generous yajaka, you are very wise and highly knowledgeable. Offer yajna with homage and fragrant havis. O lord Indra, participate in our yajna alongwith the generous sun and like the sun, drink the soma of joy and grant us the bliss.

5. Vṛṣṇaḥ kośaḥ pavate madhva ūrmirvṛṣa-bhānnāya vṛṣabhāya pātave. Vṛṣaṇādhvaryū vṛṣabhāso adrayo vṛṣaṇāṁ somaṁ vṛṣabhāya susvati.

Treasure clouds of liquid energy explode from the sun and radiate all round, honey streams of light and power flow from the sun, in waves, for the nourishment and maturation of the vibrant life in existence as food and drink for the mighty humanity and other living beings. Roaring clouds rain down living waters for the health and joy of the children of earth. Generous high-priests of the yajna of love and non-violence press out soma and distil the exciting drink of life and ecstasy from the herbs and raise it in flaming waves of fragrance.

6. Pra te nāva na samane vacasyuva brahmaṁ savanehi dādhāhi. Kuvinno askya vacasno nobodhi adindrās te na vasunaṁ sīrmahe.

Loud and bold in inspiration for the challenges of the business of living, with all my wealth of power and prayer I come to you, lord of light and knowledge, and take on to you as to a boat in the struggle for survival and success across the seas, eloquent as you are with the Word of the Veda and light of Divinity. Indra, lord of knowledge, listen to this word of prayer, know what we need and desire. We come to you, associate with you, serve you, and study and develop divine energy and power with you as a treasure-house of the wealth of the world.
6. Vṛṣā te vajra uta te vṛṣā ratho vṛṣaṇā harī vṛṣabhānīyāyudhā. Vṛṣṇo madasya vṛṣabha tvamīṣiṣa indra somasya vṛṣabhasya tṛṇuhi.

   Indra, generous and potent lord of life and joy, mighty is your thunderbolt, tempestuous your chariot, fast as winds are your horses, and blazing are your arms and weapons of justice, reward and punishment. Generous and mighty lord, you create and govern the infinite treasures of life, vigour and joy. O lord of power and energy, drink of this invigorating soma of joy and give us too the drink of it to the depth of surfeit and heights of sobriety.

7. Pra te nāvaṁ na samane vacasyuvam brahmaṇā yāmi savaneṣu dādhṛṣih. Kuvinno asya vacaso nobodhiṣadindramutsam na vasunah sicāmahe.

   Loud and bold in inspiration for the challenges of the business of living, with all my wealth of power and prayer I come to you, lord of light and knowledge, and take on to you as to a boat in the struggle for survival and success across the seas, eloquent as you are with the Word of the Veda and light of Divinity. Indra, lord of knowledge, listen to this word of prayer, know what we need and desire. We come to you, associate with you, serve you, and study and develop divine energy and power with you as a treasure-house of the wealth of the world.
8. Purā saṁbādhādabhyā vāvṛtsva no dhenuṃna vatsaṁ yavasasya pipyuṣī. Sakṛtsu te sumatibhiḥ śatakrate saṁ patnībhiraṇa vrṣaṇo naśimahi.

Indra, lord of a hundred noble acts of yajna, by virtue of our ancient and eternal relation as father and son, mother and child, creator and creature, pervader and pervaded, teacher and disciple, come to us like the abundant mother cow overflowing with the milk of life for her darling calf on the pasture, and be with us always, never forsake us, lord, so that we too, with all noble thoughts and intentions, reach you and ever be with you like generous, loving and prayerful men abiding in the company of intelligent and life-sustaining wives and mothers.

9. Nūnaṁ sā te prati varāṁ jaritre duḥśīyadindra daksīṇā maghonī. Śikṣā stotṛbhyo māti dhaga-bhago no bṛhad vadema vidathe suvīrāḥ.

Indra, lord giver of light and the wealth of life, may that magnificent bounty of yours flow and shower the desired excellence upon your singer and celebrant, sure, instantly and incessantly. May the light of knowledge and wealth of power given to the devotee ever shine for us but never blaze to excess, never burn, so that, bright and brave, blest with the brave, we may sing in praise and homage to you in our yajnic acts of life and the music may rise and ring across the spaces.

Mandala 2/Sukta 17

Indra Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

Offer homage of praise in worship to this adorable lord Indra, light of the world, like the breath of life, since his powers operate in life as of old and eternally and who in his ecstasy of soma-yaga of creation, with a stroke of his omnipotence, opened forth and activated all the clouds of dark energies which lay asleep all round during the night of the universe.

May that Indra, lord creator, be good and kind to us, Indra who first for the creation and sustenance of the universe manifests his creative energy in Prakrti and then expands his own power and potential across the world of nature. Mighty is he who in the battlesome-interaction of the elements creates the grand structure of the universe and then, as the pervasive spirit of life, veils himself in the body of the universe. It is he who, by his own essential might raised the heaven of light on high and stayed it there.

3. Adhākṛṇaḥ prathamaṁ vīryaṁ mahad yadasyāgre brahmaṁ śuṣmamairayaḥ. Ratheṣṭhena haryaśvena vicyutāḥ pra jīrayah sistrate sadhryak prthak.

And thereafter, first of all, he creates the prime universal fertility and creative vitality, mighty energy forces, which he with his omnipotence and omniscience, sets in motion. They, great lokas and regions of the universe, released and accelerated by Indra, master of the chariot as well as of the horses, roll and revolve and rotate youthfully, all together and separately too, each by itself.

4. Adhā yo viśvā bhunābhi majmaneśanakṛt pravayā abhyavardhata. Ād rodasī jyotiśā vahniṛātanot śīvyan tamāmsi dudhitā samavyayat.

Indra, lord creator, who is master controller and ruler of the worlds of the universe by his omnipotence, pervades the expansive universe, and, wielding and sustaining the creation, fills the heaven and earth with light and, binding and integrating the far off regions together, dispels the darkness from the regions and covers them with the light of divinity.

He strengthens and firms up the ancient high clouds with his might and splendour and creates the lower ones this side of time and also creates the waters of the middle regions of the skies. He wields and sustains the earth mother of all the living life and holds and sustains with his marvellous power the heaven of light above, steady, secure, and extensive.

That is for this: The sun which the father creator has created and fashioned forth in beauty with his own hands over all that is born and all that know, that mighty catalytic power by which he breaks and burns the atoms and, with a stroke of thunder and lightning, melts the cloud in rain showers to flow on earth and rest in the oceans. That sun is for this lord Indra and his pleasure. And the sun is for this darling Indra of the world of creation, the human soul which the father creator has fashioned forth in body and adorned with his own hands and which is over and above all that is born, by virtue of its knowledge and intelligence. And this darling child too, this humanity, is for the sun and earth and for the father creator to be ever in service for preservation of the earth and environment and for dedication to Divinity.

Like a dedicated maiden abiding in the father’s home I pray: Le me rise from this physical house of life to the glory of divinity. Indra, lord of light and knowledge, raise me to knowledge. O Sun, bring me to light and lustre month by month. Bless me with the best that is mine, my share of life, by which I may rise to the highest that I can be, my own real self.

Indra, bountiful lord of the beauty and joy of... life, we invoke you and pray: Lord of wealth, honour and power, give us the strength and courage to do our karma. Give us the light of your knowledge and vision. Lord destroyer of hate, jealousy and enmity, save us, protect us with your wondrous ways of protection. Lord of generosity, make us profusely rich and generous with the gifts of life.

नूनं सा त पति वरं जसिन्त्र दुस्हीयदिन्दु दर्शण मृदानी।

9. Nūnāṁ sā te prati varam jariṭre duḥiyadindra dakṣiṇā maghonī. Śikṣā stotṛbhya māti dhag-bhago no bṛhad vadema vidathe suvīrāḥ.

Indra, lord of light and knowledge, power and glory, may that munificent generosity of yours, and may that knowledge and divine teaching of yours bring unto the singer celebrant and the disciples holy gifts of their heart’s desire for sure and at the earliest. Give us the strength and vision that we, brave and blest with the brave, be great celebrants of your glory in our holy and yajnic acts of life in your service. Let the light shine, let the fire blaze, but not burn any of the gifts of Divinity.

Mandala 2/Sukta 18

Indra Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

पाता रथा नवो योजि सस्निश्चतुर्युगस्त्रिक्रक्षा: ससरक्रिमिः।
दर्शारिन्त्रा मनुष्यं स्तव: स इश्तिभर्मतिभी रंग्न्हं भूत॥ १ ॥

1. Prātāratho navo yoji sasniścaturyugstrikrakṣāh saptaraśmīḥ. Daśāritro manusyaḥ svarśāḥ sa iṣṭibhirmatibhi raṇhyo bhūt.
Let the latest new chariot be harnessed this morning, winsome, bountiful and strongly structured, four powered, three geared, seven steered, with ten propellers, manmade chariot for humanity, self-generative for power which may be navigable with inbuilt intelligence, controlled and monitored by men.

2.  \textit{Sāśmā arañ prathamaṁ sa dviśīyamuto trīśyaṁ manuṣāḥ sa hotā. Anyasyā garbhāhamanya ū jananta so anyebhiḥ sacate jenyo viṛṣā.}

That chariot is perfectly suitable and comfortable for this lord Indra, creator and ruler of power. Harbinger of knowledge, comfort and power for humanity, it covers the first stage of the earth, second stage of the sky, and the third stage of space. The product of one is taken over by others who move it further so that, victorious and highly productive, it joins with the other heavenly bodies.

3.  \textit{Harī nu kam ratha indrasya yojamāyai sūktena vacasā navena. Mo ṣu tvāmatra bahavo hi viprā ni rīraman yajamānāso anye.}

In this versatile chariot of Indra, lord of power and humanity, I use twofold power of electric energy in a circuit to move it according to the latest word of the formula of automotion. The many scholars and participants in the yajnic programme of research and science please and celebrate you, O creator, not the others.

4. Ā dvābhyaṁ haribhyāmindra yāhyā caturbhirā śaḍbhirhūyamānaḥ. Āṣṭabhirdaśabhiḥ soma-peya-mayam sutaḥ sumakha mā mṛdhaskah.

Indra, lord of knowledge and power, come conducted by two, four, and six powers of motion, even by eight or ten for a drink of soma of success which, O high priest of noble yajna, is ready right here. Pray do not engage in any programme of violence and war.

5. Ā vimśatya triṁśatā yāhyarvānā catvarimśatā haribhiryujānaḥ. Ā pañcāśatā surathebhirindrā śaṣṭyā saptatya somapeyam.

Indra, come hither equipped with twenty, thirty, forty, fifty, sixty, seventy excellent horse powers of chariot for a drink of soma.

Indra, come hither conducted by a chariot of eighty, ninety and a hundred horse power. Here is this soma distilled and sanctified for your pleasure in the auspicious programmes of yajna of your choice.

7. Mama brahmendra yāhyacchā viśvā hariḥ dhuri dhiṣvā rathasya. Purutrā hi vihavyo bahhūthā-smiṁchūra savane mādayasva.

Indra, lord of power and honour, listen well to our song of praise and prayer. Take to the chariot, yoke the circuitous motive energies to the chariot pole and come post haste to receive our homage and yajna fragrance. Be responsive to the invocation and invitation of many, O generous lord, join in this auspicious celebration and rejoice with us.

8. Na ma indreṇa sakhyāṁ vi yośadasmabhyama-sya daksinā duhīta. Upa jyeṣṭhe varūthe gabha-stau prāyeprāye jīgīvāmsah syāma.

Never may my love and friendship with Indra be snapped, and may his kindness and generosity ever keep it flowing for us abundantly. And may we, closely under his high protection and divine light, be inspired for victory in every project of life at the very start of the expedition.
9. \(Nūnamū sā te prati varamj ari tre dūhīyadindra dakṣiṇā maghonī. Sikṣā stotṛbhyo māti dha-gbhago no bṛhad vadema vidathe suvīrāḥ.\)

Indra, generous lord of wealth and power, honour and victory, may that magnificent generosity and kindness of your grace ever flow abundantly for us and bestow upon the singer celebrant and the disciples sure gifts of their favourite choice. And may your teaching and knowledge and your grandeur ever shine for the admirers but never burn the love, desire and self-confidence of the devotees. And may we, brave and blest with the brave, ever celebrate your heavenly glory in our noblest yajnic projects of life.

Mandala 2/Sukta 19

\textit{Indra Devata, Grtsamada Rshi}

1. \(Apāyyasyāṇdhaso madāya maniśīnaḥ svānasya prayasaḥ. Yasminnindraḥ pradivi vāvṛdhāne oko dadhe brahmanyaṁtaśca naraḥ.\)

Ye saints and sages all, masters of mind and thought, lovers of Divinity and leaders of humanity, you have tasted of the food and drunk deep of the honey sweets of nectar for the beauty and ecstasy of life at that fount of light divine where Indra, the Sun, ever abiding, rising and waxing, holds his place in the light of heaven! O for a draught of that nectar, a morsel of that food, a glimpse of that light!
2. Asya mandāno madhvo vajrahasto’himindro arṇovrtam vi vrścat. Pra yad vayo na svasarāṇ-yacchā prayāṃsi ca naḍināṃ cakramanta.

Tasting of the nectar sweets of this divinity in eccstasy, Indra, the Sun, armed with light and thunder, breaks open the clouds of darkness holding floods and oceans of water, and thence flow, flying like birds of life, bright days of light and sparkling streams of water.

3. Sa māhina indro arṇo apāṁ prairayad-ahihācchā samudram. Ajanayat sūryam vidad gā aktunāhnāṁ vayunāni sādhat.

That great Indra, lord omnipotent, activates the waters in the midst of space and he, breaker of darkness into light and life, then creates the oceans. He creates the solar system, reveals the stars, planets and satellites, shows the days by nights and directs the daily round of world’s activities.

4. So apratīni manave purūṇindro dāśad dāśuṣe hanti vrtraṁ. Sadyo yo nṛbhyo atasāyyo bhūt pasprdhānebhyāḥ sūryasya sātau.
The same omnipotent lord Indra who breaks the clouds of darkness bestows on the generous man of noble thought and meditation many gifts of immeasurable value. May the lord ever be friends with people who struggle forward in life for sun and shower of the light and peace of Divinity.

5. Sa sunvata indraḥ sūryamā’’devo riṇāṁ-artyāya stavān. Ā yad rayim guhadavadyamasmai bhavadamśaṁ naitaśo daśasyan.

That Indra, lord of universal energy, light and wealth, brilliant and generous, releases for the creative man of research and development the light and power of the sun in addition to songs of praise and appreciation and, bringing unknown and indescribable wealth for this man, never destroys the share that is his due.

Indra, lord of light and energy of the sun in heaven, for the good of the guide and leader of humanity and for the man of piety, charity and dedication to Divinity, breaks the intensity of drought and the pestilence of good harvest, overcomes ninety and nine defensive walls of the dark cloud for rain and converts drought into showers and famine into plenty and fertility.
Thus the lord accomplishes the purposes of Divinity for humanity.

Thus we, O lord Indra, on our way to Divinity by our mind and soul with speed and sincerity, may, we pray, hear the word of your glory and have a glimpse of your admirable action. And may we, acting and thus struggling, cross that seven stage path to Divinity whereby we may eliminate from within and without the words and weapons of the impious reviler and destroyer of faith and reach our destination.

O lord of light and divine action, thus do your admirers and celebrants in ecstasy, like children seeking protection of the parent, sing in praise of your thought and marvellous actions. And thus may they, praying and working for the gifts of Divinity, attain the blessings of your eternal and ever new food and energy, peaceable haven and home, and joy and comfort in the shade of Divinity.
Thus the lord accomplishes the purposes of Divinity for humanity.

7. Evōta indrocatham-ahema Üravasyōna tmanō vōjayanta¬. AÜyōma tat sōptam-ŒÜu¬nanamo vadharadevasya p¶yo¬.

Thus we, O lord Indra, on our way to Divinity by our mind and soul with speed and sincerity, may, we pray, hear the word of your glory and have a glimpse of your admirable action. And may we, acting and thus struggling, cross that seven stage path to Divinity whereby we may eliminate from within and without the words and weapons of the impious reviler and destroyer of faith and reach our destination.

8. Evōte g¾tsamadŒ¬ ܵura manmŒvasyavo na

i¦amµurjaÅ suk¦itiÅ sumnamaÜyu¬.

O lord of light and divine action, thus do your admirers and celebrants in ecstasy, like children seeking protection of the parent, sing in praise of your thought and marvellous actions. And thus may they, praying and working for the gifts of Divinity, attain the blessings of your eternal and ever new food and energy, peaceable haven and home, and joy and comfort in the shade of Divinity.

9. Nūnam sā te prati varam jaritre duhīyadindra dakṣiṇā maghonī. Śiksā stotṛbhyo māti dhag-bhago no bṛhad vadema vidathe suvīrāḥ .

Indra, lord of universal generosity, may that munificent hand of your liberality and grace deliver unto the celebrant the gift of his heart’s desire. O lord of glory, may your word of knowledge ever ring and shine for the disciples but never burn off their love and desire and the prosperity of us all. And may we, brave and blest with the brave, celebrate your glory in our holy yajnic actions.

Mandala 2/Sukta 20

Indra Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

1. Vayaṁ ta vaya indra viddhi ṣu ṅaḥ pra bharāmahe vājayurna ratham. Vipanyavo didhyato manīṣā sumnam-iyakṣantas-tvāvato nṛṇ.
for peace of mind and all round comfort.

Indra, lord of love, power and protection, you are our own, protector of the life and interests of our people who are yours, you are committed to us with all your means of protection and advancement. You are the mighty lord and master, saviour and promoter of the man of charity and of anyone who approaches you sincerely in faith that you are the real and ultimate master and saviour.

3. Sa no yuvendra johūtraḥ sakā śivo narāmastu pātā. Yaḥ saṁsantarāṁ yaḥ saśamāṇamūtī pacantarāṁ ca stuvantarāṁ ca praṇeṣat.

Indra, lord of life, ever young, generous giver invoked and invited, our friend, giver of peace and bliss, may he be the guardian and protector of the people. May he guide and enlighten the admirer, zealous worshipper, self-developing devotee and the singer celebrant.

O man, I worship that lord Indra, celebrate, in song, him in whose protective shade humanity has grown and advanced since eternity and fought out the evil and the wicked. He, reaching out to the lover of wealth, fulfils his desire and blesses the new initiate in search of Vedic knowledge and spiritual enlightenment.

That same Indra, lord of light and power, delighting in the admirable wealth and knowledge of the people, watching and loving the wide earth, taking over the beauty of the dawn with the splendour of the sun, and silencing the roar of clouds, augments and advances the songs of the celebrants since eternity and releases them from their bonds.

Indra, omnipotent lord of light and generosity, is surely the supreme power heard and celebrated in the Revelation, self-refulgent giver, highest above all, who is the ultimate saviour and destroyer of suffering for humanity. Dear and loving to anyone who approaches him, bold and patient and tolerant, highest on top of the world of existence, commanding absolute power and sustenance, he brings total joy and fulfilment to his servant and supplicant.

Such is Indra, breaker of the clouds of rain showers. He opens up the wombs of energies, dark and deep, to let out the floods of existence into positive paths of generation, creating the earth mother and the waters of life for humanity. He is breaker of the walls of hoarders’ cities to release the flow of wealth in human history. May the lord raise the honour and wealth of the host of yajna by virtue, truth and creative generosity.

To that omnipotent Indra, in the battles of creation for the waters of life and generation of the wealth of existence, mighty offerings are made into the fire of yajna in truth and sequence by the divine powers of nature and the noblest of humanity who hold on to their part in obedience and response to this wielder of the thunderbolt in arms who destroys the evil and the negatives to overcome the cities of gold and steel in existence.

Indra, lord of the universe and wealth of existence, may that oceanic generosity of your love bless the singer celebrant with the choicest gifts of his desire, and may your light of knowledge ever shine on the disciples but never burn our greatness and grandeur so that we and our children may boldly celebrate you in our yajnas.

Mandala 2/Sukta 21

Indra Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

Ye men and women of the world, bear and bring the sweetest soma in honour of Indra, conquerer, ruler and controller of the universe, wealth and power of existence, joy beyond suffering, truth of life, humanity, earth and her fertility, horses, cows, and waters of the universe—Indra who carries on the yajna of the universe and, for his sake, bear the soma of joy in your lives too.

Let us celebrate the mighty actions and achievements of Indra, lord upholder of truth, adorable to people, patient lover of humanity, mover and promoter, warrior, giver of showers in response to prayer, integrative creator and organiser, tolerant and merciful, accessible to all people.
existence, joy beyond suffering, truth of life, humanity, earth and her fertility, horses, cows, and waters of the universe—Indra who carries on the yajna of the universe and, for his sake, bear the soma of joy in your lives too.

Say, 'Hail your worship', bow and surrender in homage to Indra, all creator and conqueror, all destroyer, all lover and dispenser, unchallengeable, inviolable, all knower, universal teacher, sole bearer of the burdens of existence, unconquerable, upholder of truth and universal law, the be-all and end-all of creation and existence.

Let us celebrate the mighty actions and achievements of Indra, lord upholder of truth, adorable to people, patient lover of humanity, mover and promoter, warrior, giver of showers in response to prayer, integrative creator and organiser, tolerant and merciful, accessible to all people.

Unmoved mover, mighty generous, destroyer of destroyers, deep and grave, instant inspirer to the sublime, beyond definition in poetry and himself the poet of Infinity, inspirer of the diffident and depressed, breaker of the stumbling blocks and the violent, versatile in virtue, vast in presence and performance, Indra is the highest high-priest of cosmic yajna who lights the daily fire with the heavenly light of the dawn.

5. Yajñena gŒtumapturo vividrire dhiyo hinvŒnŒ uÜijo man¶¦iÄa¬. AbhisvarŒ ni¦adŒ gŒ avasyava indre hinvŒnŒ draviČnyŒÜata.

Inspired pioneers, aspiring warriors and wise visionaries applying their thought, imagination and will in association, working with cooperation and united action in sustained yajna carve new paths of progress across the earth. Speaking together with a united voice, sitting together in assembly, acting together on the field for preservation and progress, exploiting natural energy and invoking the blessings of Indra in yajna, they reclaim lands of the earth and win wealths of the world.

Indra, lord of the world, bless us with the best of strength and power, high intelligence and awareness, beauty and delicacy of art and expertise, abundance of wealth and prosperity, health and security of senses and body, sweetness of speech and style, and peace and brightness of days and nights.

Mandala 2/Sukta 22

Indra Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

The great and powerful sun drinks up the soma, essence of vital juices reinforced with herbal elixir, matured in three containers, i.e., the earth, the sky and the heaven of light, and distilled by light and wind while it shines and energises the essences.

He who delights in energising this sun, greatest of the great in nature, to do great things, who blesses and continues to bless this blazing power of light is the eternal, ever true, self-refulgent Lord Supreme, blissful as the moon.

And he who would love to do great things vast and worthy of the great, he, true and bright as the moon, should serve and meditate on this lord of unbounded light and energy.

2. Adha tvīṣīmāṇ abhyojasā kriviṁ yudhābhavadā rodasī aprṇadasya majmanā pra vāvṛdhe. Adhattānyāṁ jāṭhare premaricyata saināṁ saścad devo devaṁ satyamindrāṁ satya induḥ.

The mighty universal energy with its own electric force and its action fills up the heaven and earth with universal water vapours full like a reservoir, and it continues to grow by the omnipotence of the omnipresent lord Indra, the self-refulgent Indra. It holds within its womb the other, wealth of waters, releases the waters and stays larger and mightier. The lord self-refulgent who creates and blesses this mighty bright universal yajnic energy of electricity is Indra, eternal and ever blissful as the moon.

The jiva, individual soul, born in human form with the potential to know and act, courage and splendour, carries on the business of life and grows with vigour and valour, challenging, victorious and brilliant with vision and judgement. Indra, lord of life, all giver, provides whatever wealth and power is loved and valued by the pious and worshipful soul. May the soul of man, blessed and true as the moon, join and serve this supreme lord Indra, self-refulgent, eternal and true, in prayer, worship and meditation.

Indra, lord of light, life and generosity, director of the cosmic dance of creation, that original, ancient act of yours admirable in the light and language of heaven performed for the sake of humanity which, by the omnipotence of Divinity, moves the pranic energies and causes the waters of life to flow may, we pray, with the power and splendour of Divinity, inspire the entire world of matter and energy, conquer impiety and bring us, O lord of a hundred yajnic gifts and actions, food and energy for body, mind and soul.
The jiva, individual soul, born in human form with the potential to know and act, courage and splendour, carries on the business of life and grows with vigour and valour, challenging, victorious and brilliant with vision and judgement. Indra, lord of life, all giver, provides whatever wealth and power is loved and valued by the pious and worshipful soul. May the soul of man, blessed and true as the moon, join and serve this supreme lord Indra, self-refulgent, eternal and true, in prayer, worship and meditation.

We invoke, invite and honour you Brahmanaspati, as lord president of all classes, nations and republics of the peoples of the world, as highest visionary of the men of supreme vision, most renowned of all beyond comparison and imagination, highest of the brilliant rulers, lord of the knowledge and commonwealth of the world in existence. Listen to our prayer, come with all powers of protection, preservation and promotion of the peace and prosperity of the world and grace the presidential seat in the hall of nations.

Lord of spirit and prana, ruler of the grand universal order, master of supreme knowledge, the divinities too of the world in your honour receive their share of the yajnic fragrance of life. As sun is the...
progenitor of sun-rays, so you are the great creator of all knowledge, wealth and grandeur of the universe with your light of omniscience.

Brhaspati, lord of the grand universe and light of the world, having chained all sin and darkness by the rule of light and law, you ride the chariot of the dynamics of nature and rectitude, blazing with light and fire, awful to the lawless, shatterer of the enemies, destroyer of the wicked, breaker of the clouds and bringer of the showers of rain and bliss.

You lead us by the right path and policy. You protect and save humanity. Whoever surrenders himself to you and gives in charity in your service is safe, sin and crime touch him not, nor hurt him ever. You are the scorcher of the haters of humanity, divinity and knowledge. You are the destroyer of hostile passion.
Brhaspati, lord of this grand universe, great is that grandeur of yours, blazing with majesty.

न तमंद्रा न दुःरितं कुस्तश्रुण नारात्यत्वस्तितः द्वैयाविनः ।

5. Na tamamho na duritam kutascana nairatayaasti-

Brahmanaspati, ruler of the mighty universe, saviour of the good and great, neither sin nor evil conduct from anywhere, nor enemies nor those who try to tread the parallel paths of good and evil at the same time can ever surpass or evade or escape you. You prevent and rule out all violence from him whosoever, O noble protector and saviour, you guide, guard and protect.

6. Tvaṁ no gopāḥ pathikṛd vicakṣaṇastava vratāya

You are our protector and saviour. You are our guide along the paths of right. You are the wise visionary, judge and teacher. We worship you with all our mind and intelligence so that we may abide by your divine rule of conduct. O lord of the great universe, whoever entertains and bears hate and enmity, anger and jealousy toward us may face the self-defeating forces of his own corrosive mind from within himself.

And whoever seize us and injure us, innocent and sinless as we move on, whoever the man-wolf with a train of allies, enemies in the garb of fellow travellers, O Brhaspati, lord saviour of the great and protector from the awesome, remove all such from the path so that it is easy to follow for the attainment of our divine destination.

Brhaspati, lord of the universe, master of supreme knowledge, ruler and defender of the world, we invoke you, protector and preserver of our bodies, senses and minds, saviour and protector from sin and evil acts, our pilot across suffering, lord supreme of our own, teacher and supreme commander. Brhaspati, uproot the revilers of divinity, nobility, brilliance and generosity of people. Let not the evil doers destroy the future peace and well-being of humanity.

Brahmanaspati, lord of the universe, promoter of life and knowledge, supreme power worthy of love and homage, may we, people of the world, with your care and protection, develop and promote the wealth of the world, and we pray, crush whatever forms of violence, adversity, frustration, malignity, meanness and fruitless efforts be there far or near or around us.

Brhaspati, lord of the universe, ruler of the world, master of supreme knowledge, giver of fulfilment, purifier and sanctifier, ever helpful, may we, we pray, develop and promote the best life on earth. May no disreputable reviler or deceitful saboteur or destroyer rule over us. And may we, we pray, be righteous, faithful and honourable, and with our intelligent people swim across our problems of life.

Brahmanaspati, lord of universal knowledge and ruler of the grand social order, uncompromising, mighty generous, responsive to the call for action, subduer of the enemy, unyielding and victorious in battles, ever true, insistent on obligation and fulfilment, you are controller of the fierce and restrainer of the passionate carouser.

Whoever with a sinful mind injures or sabotages or wants to destroy the rulers, commanders, administrators, teachers and the devotees of Divinity and admirers of the human nation, fierce and proud though he be, O Brhaspati, lord of the realm, we pray and hereby determine, his weapon of attack must not reach us, nor shall the mean action of the evil minded ever bully and weaken our morale.

In the battles of production, defence and progress, O lord, worthy of access, invocation and invitation with gifts of homage for participation, leader in the battles of advancement, and dispenser of wealth and reward in every field of activity, Brhaspati, lord of the realm, father of all, we pray, take on all the strongholds of the proud intimidators and rout them all like their chariots.

Brhaspati, lord of the great realm, with the splendid power of your blazing power, scorch those who take you on with malignant criticism and columny, although your honour and courage is proven. Proclaim openly what your commendable policy is and heat up, shake off and evaporate all those who are steeped in sin and crime.

Brhaspati, lord of the great realm of life and nature, ruler and sustainer of the great, omnipotent master, lord of light by your own innate virtue, who shine among people while you do your acts of holiness and make others shine with your power and grandeur, lord manifested and manifesting in truth, rectitude and law, bless us too with that wondrous wealth of divinity by which you enlighten others.

Save us, lord of the great world, right and universal law, from the thieves and enemies who hate all and delight in positions of power, who covet nothing but food and luxury, who hold nothing in their heart but disdainful superiority complex toward the learned, wise and virtuous and who know nothing of value beyond money and property.

17. Viśvebhyo hi tvā bhuvanebhyaaspari tvāstaṭaṇaṭatvamāṇaḥ sāmnaḥ sāmnaḥ kaviḥ. Sa ṛṣacidṛṇayā brahma-ñaspatir-druho hantā maha ṛtasya dhartāri.

Lord of the great world, master of the Veda, the omniscient maker, Tvashta, made you all round wise and visionary as a poet for the sake of the entire world of humanity across divinity and the world of materiality. You are consolidator of the public debt and the debt of gratitude to Divinity and the wise, and you fulfil the obligations of the debt. Established in the presence of
For your grace and glory, O lord and sustainer of the great world, does the cloud collect the flood of sun-rays which you, dear as breath of life, release. In association with Indra, the sun, O lord of the wide realm, open and release the oceanic flood of the waters of life suppressed and enveloped in darkness and let it flow freely.

Brahmanaśpate tvamasya yantā sūktasya bodhi tanayaṁ ca jinva. Viśvaṁ tad bhadraṁ yadavanti devā bṛhad vadema vidathe suvīrāḥ.

Brahmanaspati, lord protector and sustainer of the universe, you are the hero as well as creator of this song of Divinity which you graciously know and accept as your very child, and bless your creation with life and joy, all that good of entire humanity and the world which the divinities protect and promote, so that we, brave and blest with the brave, in our acts of yajnic piety, may celebrate your gifts highly and ecstatically.
Mandala 2/Sukta 24

Indra Brahmanaspati, Brhspani Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

Brhaspati, lord and master of knowledge and the great realm of the earth which you rule and command, please to accept this offer of celebration which we dedicate with this great new voice of homage in honour of Indra so that he, our lord, generous as the sun and cloud, your friend, may enlighten our mind and intelligence.

Semāmaviḍḍhi prabhṛtīṁ ya īśiṣe’yā vidhema navayā mahā girā. Yathā no miḍhvāntstavate sakhā tava brhaspate sīṣadhaḥ sota no matim.

Brhaspati, lord and master of knowledge and the great realm of the earth which you rule and command, please to accept this offer of celebration which we dedicate with this great new voice of homage in honour of Indra so that he, our lord, generous as the sun and cloud, your friend, may enlighten our mind and intelligence.

2.

Yo nantvāṇyanamannyojasotādardar-manyunā śambarāṇi vi. Prācyāvayadayutā brahmaṇa-spatisa cāviṣad vasumantaṁ vi parvatam.

Indra, lord ruler and sustainer of the mighty human race, is he who with his might and majesty bends those who deserve to be bent, who with his thunder and terror breaks and scatters the clouds into showers, who shakes the apparently unshakables, and who breaks open the mountain ranges of the treasure jewels of the earth.

Brhaspati, lord and master of knowledge and the great realm of the earth which you rule and command, please to accept this offer of celebration which we dedicate with this great new voice of homage in honour of Indra so that he, our lord, generous as the

2. Yo nantvŒnyanamannyojasotŒdardar-manyunŒ ÜambarŒÄi vi. PrŒcyŒvayadacyutŒ brahmaÄa-

Indra, lord ruler and sustainer of the mighty human race, is he who with his might and majesty bends those who deserve to be bent, who with his thunder and terror breaks and scatters the clouds into showers, who shakes the apparently unshakables, and who breaks open the mountain ranges of the treasure jewels of the earth.

drîlãvravadanta vîlãtã. Ud gã äjadabhinad brahmañã valam-agûhat tamo vyacakãsayat svaã.

That exceptional wonder of Karma is worthy of the most brilliant of the divinities of the universe, Indra, refulgent as the sun. He disarms the most obstinate, softens the hardest, releases the rays of light, breaks the cloud with his divine might, dispels the darkness, and reveals the light of heaven.

4. Ásmãsyaamavataã brahmaÁaspatir-madhudhã-ramabhi yamojasããtrãnãt. Tameva viñve papire svardr‰o bahu sãkãm sisicur-utsam-udriñam.

The lord of the universe and master of the universal Word breaks open the flood gates of the hanging cloud and the dark caverns of the mountain holding showers and streams of honey sweet waters.
The same showers and streams all those who see the light and joy of heaven in the sun and water drink to their heart’s content with all living beings as a gift of the ocean, and the same they sprinkle around for the gift and growth of life in abundance.

The acts which Brahmanaspati, lord of the wide world, has performed and the knowledge which he has revealed open by months and years the doors of eternal light and the past and future worlds for you from which the people naturally benefit and spontaneously enjoy without any effort, all in their own ways.

Those saints and scholars who go forward all round in search of the treasures of admirable humanity hidden in the cavern of time find the jewel treasures of wealth and knowledge. But having seen the falsehood and untruth discovered there in the cave go back by the same door by which they came and then come again to propagate the truth and contradict and expose the untruth.

7. Rtāvānah pratīca-kṣyāṇṛtā punarāta ā tasthuḥ kavayo mahaspathaḥ. Te bāhubhyāṁ dhamitam-agnimaśmani nakiḥ so astyaraṇo jahurhi tam.
Men of truth and rectitude, poets and visionaries, pioneers of action, having perceived, challenged and fought out untruth and evil, come and stand firm by the great paths of right and universal law. By force of arms they keep the fire burning on the rock, in the cave, over the cloud and in the sky. None is a man of truth and knowledge, nor brave, none of them who abandon the fire and desert the truth of life and rectitude.

By the stretch of natural truth and justice and by instant action, the mighty lord of the realm wielding the bow and arrow of law and rectitude reaches wherever he wants and achieves whatever he targets. Accurate and unfailing are the arrows of this watchful ruler and guide of humanity, stretched unto the ear, reaching to the ear and taking the aim even by a whisper and vibration, which the lord shoots and by which he uproots the plants and plans of evil and crime, having seen what is right and what is wrong.
Right and true are his policies, unassailable. Correct and firm are his paths of planning and leadership. Front leader is he, ever commanding, and elected first and foremost. Admired is he and admirable, adorable ruler, protector and promoter of the wealth of nations. Clear is his sight and vision, bold his voice and speech, by virtue of which he holds and rules energy and the speed of progress, intelligence and education, and the power and prosperity of the social order through the battles of life. He blazes as the sun and would naturally and without effort heat and season and temper the wastours and wrong-doers.

Infinite, omnipotent and eternal, first and original is Brhaspati, lord of existence and knowledge. Noble and blissful are the gifts of this generous and powerful lord, givers of knowledge, competence and success, all. It is the gifts and blessings of this pervasive and warlike lord adorable by which all people of the world, high or low, simple or sophisticated, intelligent or illiterate enjoy life and its wealth.

Brahmanaspati, lord ruler and sustainer of this mighty universe, is immanent and transcendent, who by virtue of his own omnipotence pervades this world of creation, every particle of it, and is the most joyous and blissful over all the worlds of existence. By him only, try to abide and live. He, self-refulgent generous lord, vast and great, rules and expands all the divine abodes of life, pervades them and reveals his presence therein.

Indra and Brahmanaspati, lord ruler of majesty and lord ruler of the wealth of the nation, yours is the truth of the world and yours is the law. Not the actions of anyone, not even the flowing waters, can violate your law and discipline. Both ruler and the teacher of divinity may kindly grace our seat of yajna and, like the motive forces of the chariot of the nation, may accept our proffered homage.

Fast driving forces of the nation listen carefully to the ruler and the people. The sagely scholar member of the council intelligently holds and manages the wealth and assets of the nation. A match for the strong and unruly, the collector collects the taxes according to law and discretion. Such is the dispensation of Brahmanaspati, lord ruler of the common wealth of humanity, fast, sensitive and instant of movement in the business of governance.

Let the righteous passion, even anger, of Brahmanaspati, lord of great action in governance, be true to the purpose of Dharma, and controlled according to the state of affairs, as it is he who directs the vibrations of the nation up and down in the light of heaven and, with his own strength and power, moves forward by himself and abides by custom, tradition and law like the earth in orbit.

15. Brahmaṇaspatat tvamasya yantē suyamasya bodhi tanayaḥ ca jinva. Viṉvaḥ tad bhadraḥ yadavanti devē bhad vade me havam.

Brahmanaspati, lord protector of the wealth of the nation of humanity, master of the universal knowledge of existence, you are the hero of the chariot, knower and friend of the whole world. Ruler supreme as you are of the entire existence, come to us in response to my Vedic invocation and join the brave with the brave and eminent with the eminent so that we may be masters and protectors of well-begotten and life-giving wealth and develop it further by noble conduct and development.
15. Brahmaṇaspati suyamasya viśvahā rāyaḥ syāma rathyo vayasvataḥ. Vīreṣu vīrāṇ upa pṛṇgdhi nastvāṁ yadīśāno brahmaṇā veṣi me havam.

Brahmanaspati, lord protector of the wealth of the nation of humanity, master of the universal knowledge of existence, you are the hero of the chariot, knower and friend of the whole world. Ruler supreme as you are of the entire existence, come to us in response to my Vedic invocation and join the brave with the brave and eminent with the eminent so that we may be masters and protectors of well-begotten and life-giving wealth and develop it further by noble conduct and development.

Brahmanaspati, lord of the great world of humanity, you are the inspiration, guide, leader and hero of this holy song of celebration. Please to know its meaning, intention and purpose, and give life and joy to the child and the devotee. Give us all that good which the poets and divines preserve, protect and promote so that we, brave and blest with the brave, sing and celebrate you highly in our yajnic projects of life.
1. Indhāno agnim vanavad vanuṣyataḥ kṛtabrahmā śūṣuvad rātahavya it. Jātena jātamati sa pra sarsṛte yam yam yujāṁ kṛṇute brahmaṇaspatiḥ.

Brahmanaspati, lord ruler, protector, and promoter of wealth and nature, maker of forms of food, energy and power, giver of yajnic materials and fragrances for natural and human activities of creation and production, lighting the fire and burning the requisite materials like forest wood, creates new forms with what it has already created and thus moves on in cyclic motion at electric velocity whatever it takes on as its friendly associate for the progress of humanity.

2. Virebhirvīrāṇ vanavad vanuṣyato gobhī rayim paprathad bodhati tmanā. Tokaṁ ca tasya tanayaṁ ca vardhate yamyam yujam kṛṇute brahmaṇaspatiḥ.

Spending up one loving parental generation like forest wood and creating another like forest greenery, extending the community of the brave from the brave seeking immortality, expanding the community wealth with cows, lands and the light and power of energy, Brahmanaspati, lord of the evolution of existence, advances the race of humanity from father to son and from son to grandson. Who ever or whatever the lord takes up as his instrument and creative associate, he knows at heart with his very soul.

Just as the deep sea receives and stills the impetuous river in flood, as the mighty man of action subdues the forces of violence, and as the strong and virile bull overthrows the old broken bullock with its strength, so does the man whom Brahmanaspati chooses as his friend and associate for his purpose overcome opposition with his valour and lustre. Like the rising flames of fire there is no looking back for him, no resistance against him.

To him and for him flow celestial powers and virtues pure and free. First and foremost, front leader, with his powers and intelligence he develops the cows, goes over the lands and rises into the lights in the skies. With the irresistible blaze of his lustre and valour he smashes all opposition of the negatives. Such is the man whom Brahmanaspati chooses as his friend and instrument for the divine purpose.

Tasmā id viśve dhunayanta sindhavo’cchidrā śarma dadhire purūṇi. Devānāṁ sumne subhagah sa edhate yaṁ yaṁ yujāṁ kṛṣute brahmaṇaṣ-patīḥ.

For him the oceans roll, for him the rivers flow, boundless, incessant and universal across the world, bearing grace divine, cosmic energy and infinite joy of the heart. And he, happy and blest with fortune, grows on and on in peace and favour of the divinities of nature and humanity. Such is the man whom Brahmanaspati chooses for a friend and instrument for fulfilment and the divine purpose.
Brahmanaspati, lord of the wide world and the wealth of life, let the man of simple, natural and faithful character, like the rays of the sun, be superior to the forces of violence. Let the man rising to piety and divinity face the powers that oppose the divine purpose. Let the brave warrior who protects and promotes light and life like the rays of the sun fight out formidable evil in the battles of life, because, ultimately, it is the man of yajna, dedicated to humanity, environment and Divinity who is the dispenser of the share of the selfish and uncreative.

Brave young man, do yajnic acts of creation and service, meet men of thought and wisdom, elevate your mind to goodness and virtue to fight out the forces of darkness and evil, prepare the fragrant oblations for yajna, be great and gracious as you should be. Let us all choose and pray for the protection of Brahmanaspati, lord of the world’s glory and wisdom.

3.

Sa ijjanena sa viśa sa janmanā sa putraivājam bharate dhanā nṛbhiḥ. Devānām yaḥ pitaramā-vivāsati śraddhāmanā haviṣā brahmaṇaspatim.
He for sure bears and wields power, progress and prosperity of life with the people, with settlements of working communities, by birth and with children, and he creates and enjoys the wealth of life with his men who serves and lives with the maker of noble scholars and sages and who, faithful at heart, offers worship and sacrifice with fragrant oblations to Brahmaṇaspati, lord creator and sustainer of the world and its wealth of humanity.

Who ever worships and honours the lord with oblations of fragrant materials seasoned with ghrta, Brahmaṇaspati advances him far ahead and high. He saves him from sin, protects him from the violent and safeguards him against the perpetrators of evil. Wondrous are the ways of Brahmaṇaspati, mighty and awful are his deeds on earth.

Mandala 2/Sukta 27

Aditya Devata, Kurma Gartsamada or Grtsamada Rshi

1.  Imā gira ādityebhyo ghṛtasnūḥ sanād rājabhyo juhvā juhomī. Śṛṇotu mitro aryamā bhago nastuvijāto varuṇo dakṣo aṁśaḥ.
I offer these words of worship and prayer, adoration and admiration, sprinkled with the showers of ghṛta from above dedicated to the Adityas, cosmic stars and children of Mother Infinity, self-refulgent like the sun in the zodiacs of his galactic round. I offer these words as ever with the ladle of love and whispers of faith into the fire of light and life. May the Adityas listen: Mitra, friend and darling companion of life, Aryama, lord of justice and dispensation, Bhaga, lord of glory and majesty, Tuvijata, lord manifest in power and splendour, Varuna, lord of light supreme of our choice, Daksha, lord of dexterity in the art of creation, and Ansha, divine reflection of Infinity in the world of existence, all for us all our own.

2. Imaṁ stomaṁ sakratavo me adya mitro aryamā varuṇo juṣanta. Ādityāsah śucayo dhārapūtā avṛjinā anavadyā arisīḥ.

This song of adoration may the lords of vision and holy action hear, accept and bless with love and favour: friendly Mitra, just Aryama, and Varuna, lord supreme of universal choice, Adityas all, reflections of the lights of omniscience, purifying and sanctifying showers of the holy voice of Divinity, free from the sins of negativities, irreproachable and inviolable all.

The Adityas, children of light, are brilliant, profound, irrepressible. They brook no nonsense, no violence, no bullying or black-mail. With many many eyes all round they see within and without all that is good, or evil that must be rejected. Supremely good are they and their actions for the shining rulers for whom they stand ever at the closest.

Brilliant Adityas sustain the moving and the stable world of existence. Generously giving, they are preservers of the entire world of existence. Far-reaching is their intelligence, they love truth and rectitude, they protect the breath of life and they augment whatever or whoever extends the vision and knowledge of life for others. (Aditya-like should the teachers be.)
Adityas, powers of light and knowledge, Aryaman, lord of justice and dispensation, if ever I face a state of insecurity, then, in that state of fear, I pray, I may have the gift of this divine protection of yours, of this divine peace and comfort. O Mitra and Varuna, friends of humanity, dear and just, I pray, that under the protection of your ethics and guidance I may give up all evils and avoid them as dangerous pitfalls on the paths of life.

Aryaman, lord of noble action, Mitra, friend and companion, simple and straight is your path, easy to tread. O Varuna, lord of our choice and best teacher, thornless and good is the path you show. Adityas, lords of enlightenment, teach us to follow and go forward by that path. And give us a home which is difficult to disrupt.

May Aditi, mother queen of inviolable unity and abundance with her brilliant children of regal character give us total fulfilment of life. May Aryama, just and dependable ruler, friend of the intelligent and the wise, lead us across and beyond the jealous and the hostile by simple and clear paths of action. May we all, mighty brave blest with vibrant progeny, ever live unhurt and happy by the great household of peace and well-being, a perpetual gift of Mitra, lord of friend-ship and fraternity, and Varuna, lord of freedom and justice.
MANDAL - 2 / SUKTA - 27

Tisro bhūmīrdhārayan triñruta dyūn trīṇi vratā vidathe antaresām. Ṛtenādityā mahī vo mahitvāṁ tadaryaman varuṇa mitra cāru.

Adityas, brilliant children of Aditi, radiant centres of indestructible energy, by the universal Law of Rtam, hold and sustain three terrestrial regions and three heavenly regions in the midst of which they observe threefold dynamics of existential energy in the field of karmic order. Aryaman, lord of action and justice, Varuna, lord of love and peace, and Mitra, friend of fraternity, that too is your holy grandeur and greatness in the mighty social order, threefold, three-level, for the body, mind and spirit of the human nation.

Tṛi rocanā divyā dhārayanta hiranyayāḥ śucayo dhārapūtāḥ. Asvapnajo animiśā adabdhā uruśaṁsā ṛjave martyāya.

Three charming gifts of Divinity the Adityas, scholar celibates, hold for humanity. Golden great are they, blazing brilliant, sanctified in the showers of knowledge and piety. Ever wakeful, they never sleep, nor dream, nor even wink their eye for a moment. Firm and inviolable are they, adorable, for the simple, honest and pious order of humanity, holding and preserving the knowledge of Divinity, karmic dexterity and sincerity of worship for survival and fulfilment in the world of mortality.

10. Tvam viśveṣāṁ varuṇāśi rājā ye ca devā asura ye ca marṭāḥ. Śataṁ no rāśva śarado vicakṣe 'śyāmāyūṁṣi sudhitāni pūrvā.

Varuna, spirit of life and breath of energy, first of love, choice and justice, you are the ruler of all, whether they are divine or ordinary mortals by nature. Give us a full hundred years of life for the vision and realisation of the light of Divinity and our own immortality. May we, we pray, enjoy a full and perfect span of life and age, sweet and satisfying as ever.

Vasus, planets of the first order of life, I know not wholly what is on the right, or on the left, or in front, or behind, as the man of ripe intelligence and settled mind among scholars does. However, with his guidance and led by your light, leadership and generosity, I pray, may I attain freedom from fear and the light of knowledge.

The ruler who liberally gives for the illustrious men of justice and for the leading lights of truth and righteousness, and whom strength and nourishment of body, mind and character constantly advance towards perfection, grows first in power and prestige and, well-provided with wealth and the spirit of generosity, admired and exhorted universally, moves forward in his chariot of fame as a leader in yajnic projects of humanity.

The ruler, pure at heart, courageous and indomitable, who abides by the values, policies and guidance of Adityas, men of light, truth and justice, rules a long age, blest with noble children and followed by brave warriors, well-provided with plenty of food and water and doing noble acts of fame. None can hurt or damage or destroy him or his dominion either from far or near at hand.

The enlightened woman and the noble husband, the people and the noble ruler, conjoined in unison grow together for the sake of this Rashtra, the great social order of humanity, augmenting through yajna the showers of rain from heaven. Both live brave warriors, well-provided with plenty of food and water and doing noble acts of fame. None can hurt or damage or destroy him or his dominion either from far or near at hand.

Aditi, Nature, mother earth and spirit of the human nation, Mitra, lord of love and friendship, Varuna, lord of justice, relent, be kind and gracious to us even if we happen to transgress and commit a sin of error. Indra, lord of power and ruler over the nation, grant us ample freedom from fear and lots of light and knowledge so that long nights of darkness, sin and suffering may never afflic us.

Both the enlightened woman and the noble husband, the people and the noble ruler, conjoined in unison grow together for the sake of this Rashtra, the great social order of humanity, augmenting through yajna the showers of rain from heaven. Both live together and move forward, winning victories in the battles of life. Both are indispensable for the social order, complementing each other like two halves of a sphere in the interest of progress and prosperity for the sake of the family and the nation.

16. Yā vo māyā abhidruhe yajatrāḥ pāśā ādityā ripave vicṛttāḥ. Āsvīva tāṁ ati yeṣaṁ rathenā-riṣṭā urāvā śarmantsyāma.

Adityas, powers of light and law, dedicated to yajnic advancement of life and nature, whatever your bonds of power and law, sinless and inviolable, spread across the earth, which are like chains of arrest and prisons of punishment for the lawless and the enemies of humanity, let me, I pray, cross them over with ease and pleasure by the chariot of knowledge and action like a knight of horse, so that we may live at peace in bliss on this vast earth, common home of the human family.

17. Māham maghono varuṇa priyasya bhūridāvna ā vidam śūnamāpeḥ. Mā rāyo rājantsuyam-ādava sthāṁ bṛhad vadema vidathe suvīrāḥ.

Varuna, lord of justice, highest and best of our choice, I pray I may attain to the progress and prosperity of a dear and generous man of wealth and dignity, but not to the swelling pride of a man of easy money. Brilliant lord ruler of the nation, may I never be deprived of wealth well-earned with honesty. And let us all, blest with noble progeny, speak well and highly in thanks and praise of the lord ruler of the world in all our yajnic performances.

Mandala 2/Sukta 28

Varuna Devata, Grtsamada or Kurma Gartsamada Rshi

This is the song of honour for Aditya, self-refulgent lord of light eternal and poetic vision of omniscience who, with his might, rules over and transcends all forms of existence and karma. Lord of brilliance and generosity is he, extremely kind and pleased with the liberal man of yajna. I pray for a vision of the glory of Varuna, magnificent lord of abundance, love and justice and crave for his mercy and pleasure.
justice, may we, under your inviolable discipline, be blest with good fortune and all round prosperity and, singing in praise and admiration of Divinity, be rewarded with noble intelligence and scientific knowledge of existence. And when the dawns arise with their wealth of light rays and the cows stir in their stalls, let us, like holy fires of yajna, celebrate the glory of the morning sun every day.

3. \( Tava syāma puruvīrasya śarmannuruśarinsasya varuṇa praṇetaḥ. Yuṣyaṁ naḥ putrā aditeradadbhā abhi kṣamadhvaṁ yuyāya devāḥ. \)

Varuna, great leader of humanity, universally admired and followed by hosts of brave warriors, let us live in peace and bliss under your protection as in our heaven and home. And ye, all our children, be brilliant and generous, inviolable and indomitable, be strong and brilliant as children of eternity and prepare yourselves for action and cooperation in the service of the Lord.

4. \( Pra śimādityyo asṛjad vidhartāṁ ṛtāṁ sindhavo varuṇāsyasya yanti. Na śrāmyanti na vi mucantyete vayo na paptū raghuyā pariṣjman. \)

Aditya, the sun, sustainer of the regions of the world, creates the waters all round and then the streams of Varuna, the cloud, shower down and flow. They tire not, nor ever stop. Like flying birds they flow all round on the earth at their top speed.
5. Vi macchrathāya raśanāmivāga ṛdhyaṁa te varuṇa khāṁṛtasya. Mā tantuśchedi vayato dhiyāṁ me mā mātrā śāryapasah pūra ṛtoḥ.

Like the chain of slavery, loosen the hold of sin and evil from me. O Varuna, lord of law and justice, let us prosper and promote the stream of virtuous living in your service. While I weave the web of my life, snap not the bond of nature and intelligence with my mother. Snap not my bond of karma before the time is ripe.

Varuna, lord of love and justice, keep off fear from me. Illustrious ruler and defender of truth and rectitude, take me as your own for protection, and, as a calf is freed from the rope, release me from sin. Other than you no one far or near can rule over me even for a moment.

Varuna, lord of life and giver of pranic energy, save us from the blows which strike to punish those who commit sin against your yajnic law. Let us not go astray from light to the dens of darkness. For our life and holy living reduce and eliminate the forces of hate and violence.

नर्मः पुरा ते बरुणातु नूनमुतापरं तुविजात ब्रवाम ।
त्व हि कं पवर्त न श्रितान्यपर्च्युतानि दूलभ व्रतानि ॥ ८ ॥

Lord unassailable and ever powerful of all, we raise our voice of homage and offer words of salutation to you in the past, at present and in the future. O Varuna, as herbs grow on the mountain and vapours rest in the cloud, so peace and comfort rest in you, and in you abide the imperishable laws of existence and inviolable rules of life’s discipline and conduct.

परं ऋषणा सावीरथ्य मत्त्रतानि माहं राज युक्ततन भाजम ।
अन्व्युशा इ भूयसीसिनास आ नां जीवान्वर्ण तासुं शाधि ॥ ९ ॥

Varuna, lord of light and law, acquit me of the highest liabilities, and obligations undertaken by me. Never let me live on the fruits of others’ labour. And in the many days of light not yet come, in which you would be there to protect us, teach us, all the living souls, to Varuna, lord of life and giver of pranic energy, save us from the blows which strike to punish those who commit sin against your yajnic law. Let us not go astray from light to the dens of darkness. For our life and holy living reduce and eliminate the forces of hate and violence.

Varuna, lord of light and law, acquit me of the highest liabilities, and obligations undertaken by me. Never let me live on the fruits of others' labour. And in the many days of light not yet come, in which you would be there to protect us, teach us, all the living souls, to live the way we should.

Varuna, lord of light and law, brilliant ruler, if a friend or companion threatens me with fear and I feel afraid in a state of sleep or wakefulness, or if a thief or a wolfish robber terrorizes us, save us from such fear and terror.

Varuna, refulgent lord ruler of the world, I pray, I may never suffer the empty pride and morbid swelling from the wealth of a dear, prosperous, generous man of power and honour. Nor may I suffer the want of wealth well earned with honest labour. And, blest with noble progeny and brave warrior heroes, may we ever sing songs of thanks and praise for the Lord in all our yajnic performances.
Mandala 2/Sukta 29

Vishvedevah Devata, Kurma Gartsamada or Grtsamada Rshi

1. Dhṛtavratā ādityā īṣirā āre mat karta rahasū-rivāgahaḥ. Śṛṇvato vo varuṇa mitra devā bha-drasya vidvān avase huve vah.

Ye lights of the world of life and spirit, brilliant as the suns, upholders of law and pious vows of discipline, dynamic masters of refreshing knowledge and wisdom, remove from me far and near sin and pollution like a fallen woman’s. Ye divine souls of the world, Varuna, lord supreme, Mitra, friend of life and humanity, brilliant scholar and teacher, all you who listen, I invoke and call upon you for the protection of truth and goodness in life.

2. Yuyāṁ devāḥ pramatiryūyamojō yūyāṁ dveśāṁsi sanutaryuyota. Abhikṣattāro abhi ca kṣamadhvamadā ca no mṛlayatāparaim ca.

Ye divine spirits and noble personalities of the world, you uphold, protect and promote wisdom. You constantly advance the light and splendour of life. You quietly challenge and fight out hate and jealousy. All round shelters and protectors of the good, destroyers of evil, be kind and gracious, relent now, strengthen us and save us ever after.
1. Dharmatvarat ōdityo, īdityaṁ re karta rahasµu¬rivagavato vo varuçā mitrado hīrasya vidva¬n avase huve va¬.

Ye lights of the world of life and spirit, brilliant as the suns, upholders of law and pious vows of discipline, dynamic masters of refreshing knowledge and wisdom, remove from me far and near sin and pollution like a fallen woman's. Ye divine souls of the world, Varuna, lord supreme, Mitra, friend of life and humanity, brilliant scholar and teacher, all you who listen, I invoke and call upon you for the protection of truth and goodness in life.

2. YuyaÅ deva¬ pramatiryµuyamojo yµuyaÅ dve¬si sanutaryuyota . Abhi¬kaṭṭaro abhi ca k¬amadhvamadya¬ ca no m¾üayatpara¬ ca.

Ye divine spirits and noble personalities of the world, you uphold, protect and promote wisdom. You constantly advance the light and splendour of life. You quietly challenge and fight out hate and jealousy. All round shelters and protectors of the good, destroyers of evil, be kind and gracious, relent now, strengthen us and save us ever after.

O Vasus, shelter homes of life and humanity, teachers and scholars generous as mother earth, what shall we do for you with our share of karma and competence now and whatever potential we might have later? O Mitra and Varuna, friends and lovers of humanity dear as the breath of life, Aditi, generous mother sustainer like earth and nature, Indra and Maruts, winds and vital energies of life, bear and bring us the good and best of life, intelligence and knowledge of existence.

Ye Devas, teachers and scholars, noble powers of the world and nature, you are our own, friends and kinsmen, the very soul of our virtues. Be kind and gracious to me, the seeker and the supplicant. May your chariot never move at slow or medium speed in yajnic projects on earth or in water. Nor must we tire or slacken in our service to you in virtuous and scholarly projects.
5. Pra va eko mimaya bhūryāgo yanmā piteva kitavaṁ śaśāsa. Āre pāśā āre aghanī devā mā mādhī putre vimiva grabhīṣṭa.

Ye Devas, teachers, scholars, noble seniors, I am one, alone and helpless, but let me throw off all sin and evil since you teach and enlighten me as a father teaches and corrects a prodigal son. Let all snares of bondage be off! Let all sin and trespasses be off! A child as I am of yours, seize me not as a hunter catches a bird.
No one seizes a child.

6. Arvāńco adyā bhavatā yajatā ā vo hārdi bhayamāno vyayeyam. Trādhvam no devā nijuro vr̥kasya trādhvam kartādavapado yajatrāh.

Devas, noble and generous powers of the world, yajnic teachers and enlightened seniors, advance in knowledge and generosity, come, be kind and gracious right front. Obedient with awe and reverence, let me do what is dear to you at heart. Protect us against the violent wolf and the greedy robber. Worshipful and dedicated to yajna as you are, save us from evil time and violence.

Varuna, lord of light, law and justice, let me never come to that state of sufferance when a dear, mighty generous man of honour and power either suffers from empty pride of easy achievement or suffers want and penury. O brilliant ruler and law-giver of the world, let me never suffer the want of well earned wealth of money and materials. And let us all, blest with noble children and followers, sing in praise of the Lord for his gracious gifts of righteous prosperity.

Mandala 2/Sukta 30

Indra, Indra-Soma, Sarasvati-Indra, Brhaspati, Maruts Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

The streams of the existential flow of divine action stop not, nor do they play for fun, for the creator of waters and the executor of laws, self-refulgent Savita, the sun who inspires Prakṛti with life, nor for Indra who breaks the clouds for rain. The light of his actions radiates continuously day by day. When did the first flow of these actions of creation originate? (Let us know.)
2. Yo vrtrāya sinamatrābhariṣyat pra tam janitrī viduṣa uvāca. Patho radantīranu jośamasmai divedive dhunayo yantyartham.

   The one (sun) who for the cloud of darkness bears the food (of vapours) as well as the bond (of structure and formation), of him the mother Nature speaks to the man of knowledge. And in accordance with the will divine the streams of light and action flow to their destined goal carving out their paths of motion day by day.

3. Ūrdhvo hyasthādadyantarikṣe’dhā vrtrāya pra vadham jabhāra. Mihām vasāna upa hīmadudrot tigmāyudho ajayacchatrumindraḥ.

   The sun abides high up in heaven far above the middle region of the sky. And then it bears, raises and strikes the deadly weapon of the thunderbolt upon the cloud and, taking the vapours on all round, it melts the waters to rain. Thus it is that Indra, sunny wielder of the lightning weapon, who conquers the adversary, the dark and deep cloud of rain.
Indra, destroyer of enemies, Brhaspati, lord sustainer of the vast world, just as with your mighty blazing thunderous weapon you broke through the front gates of the stronghold of the cloud and destroyed the forces of the demon of darkness and drought earlier, so now destroy our enemy (and throw open the gates of light and prosperity).

5. Ava kṣipa divo aśmānamuccā yena śatrum mandasāno nijūrvāḥ. Tokasya sātau tanayasya bhūrerasmāṁ ardham kṛṇutādindra gonām.

Indra, lord of light and power, ruler of the world, admirable, joyous and fiery, hurl the thunderbolt from high up regions of light and destroy the enemy, the same thunderbolt by which you struck and broke the cloud, and for the progress and prosperity of our children and grand children and for the growth and development of our land and cows, grant us plenty of means and materials.

प हि कतुं वृहत्ता यं वृन्दृथा रूथस्य स्था यज्ञमानस्य चादावः
इन्द्रासाय स्यूवमुरस्मां अविष्टस्मिनंभयस्य कृष्णुतमु

6. Pra hi kratuṁ vṛhatho yaṁ vanuṭha radhrasya stho yajamānasya codau. Indrāsomā yuvamasmāṁ aviṣṭamasmīn bhayasthe kṛṇutamu lokam .

Indra, lord of power, and Soma, lord of peace, expand the yajna of development and progress which you love. Abide as inspirers and promoters of the obedient worshipful yajamana. Favour us, protect and promote us, and in this land which is stricken with fear, create a social order free and fearless, full of joy.

7. Na mā tamanna śramannota tandranna vocāma mā sunoteti somam. Yo me pṛṇād yo dadad yo nibodhād yo mā sunvantamupa gobhirāyat.

Indra, who gives me fulfilment, who gives me wealth and happiness, who gives me enlightenment, and who blesses me with the gift of cows and health of mind and senses, while I offer homage to the lord, may, I pray, never vex me, nor tire me, nor make me feel languid with lassitude. And may we never (with ingratitude) say: “Do not offer homage of soma to the lord.”

Sarasvati, mother of knowledge and divine speech, inspire and protect us. Loud and bold with a troop of stormy commandos you overthrow the enemies. Indra, ruling lord of light and power, too, destroys the defiant and violent intrepidable leader of the forces of damage and darkness.

Brhaspati, lord of knowledge and sustainer of the grand social order, expose and fix with pointed steel the surreptitious foe in hiding and the saboteur who plans to destroy us. O brilliant ruler, conquer the enemies with weapons of offence and defence, and surround and seal the force of the jealous and the destructive along with their counterparts.

10. Asmākebhiḥ satvabhiḥ śūra śūrairvīryā kṛdhi yāni te kartvāni. Jyogabhūvannanudhūpitāso hatvī teṣāmā bharā no vasūni.

O Indra, valiant hero and ruler of the world, with our resolute heroes of real mettle, do the deeds worthy of your character and majesty. And if there be adversaries long puffed up with pride and arrogance, break them down to their reality and hold and manage their assets and ours for the nation.

That mighty manpower of yours, divine and stormy, I, seeker of peace and well-being, sing and celebrate in words of humility and reverence and address the song to you so that day by day we may attain wealth and honour which may be worthy of the valiance of all our heroes, the pride of our children, and worthy of celebration in song for the future generations.

Vishvedeva Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

Asmākāṁ mitrāvaruṇāvatam rathamādityai rudrairvasubhiḥ sacābhuvā. Pra yad vayo na paptanvasmanaspari śravasyavo hṛṣīvanto vanarṣadah.

O Mitra and Varuna, brilliant light and life breath of the universe, friendly ruler and vibrant people of the world, vested with innate virtues, working with Adityas, scholars brilliant as yearly phases of the sun, Rudras, forces of strength vital as life breath, and Vasus, people generous as mother earth, come with all these, programme, protect, impel, drive and guide our chariot by which we, in search of food for knowledge and fame, joyous and inspired, rested in our sylvan home, may fly like birds flying freely from their nest.

And now you, brilliant Devas, scholars and scientists working together as a team, direct our stormy and victorious chariot towards the people since the motive forces fast traversing the spaces by their paths are heading with their wings to the surface of the earth.

And may that Indra, lord of power and the people, who watches the world and does noble acts of yajna with stormy powers of the winds for great wealth and victory across the skies, descend from the regions of space and, with safe and simple protective operations land and abide by our chariot.

And that refulgent generous Deva Tvashta, universal designer and maker of forms, co-existent and co-operative associate of all, may, we wish and pray, accelerate our chariot with divine voice of exhortation. And so may Ila, divine speech, Bhaga, lord of power and prosperity, Brhat, vast space, earth and heaven, Pusha, lord of vitality and sustenance, Purandhi, wielder of the ancient stars, and both the Ashvins, lord sustainers of health and vital energy, energise, sustain and accelerate our project of the chariot.

5. Uta te devī subhage mithūḍrśośāśānaktā jagatā-

And those two refulgent and generous divinities, dawn and night, twins in mutual sight, which inspire the moving and non-moving worlds of being, I praise, with new words of adoration when, O earth and heaven, I cover the vedi with three orders of holy grass and offer three orders of holy fragrance, praise, prayer and meditation.

6. Uta vah śaṁsamuśījāmiva śmasyahirbudhn-yo’ja ekapāduta. Trita rhuksāḥ savitā cano dadhe’pāṁ napādāśuhemā dhiyā śami.
We love to adore you, O divine powers of nature and humanity, as those who love and are inspired. Ahirbuddhnya, cloud of waters in the skies, Aja, unborn nature and the soul, Ekapat, constant powers of bliss, Ribhuksha, lord of universal art and artists, Savita, refulgent lord of creation and inspiration, and Apam Napat, infallible energy born of waters, bear the food of life for us. And I, Ribhuksha, in search of intelligence, strength and knowledge, with all effort of intellect and passion in holy action, growing fast and faster, receive the food for body, mind and soul.

7. Etā vo vaśmyudyatā yajatrā atakṣannāyavo navyase sam. Śravasyavo vājaṁ cakānāḥ saptirna rathyo aha dhītimasyāḥ.

These acts and higher gifts of yours, O powers and performers of yajnic creation in love and association, I crave and pray for, which men of desire in search of knowledge and fame, progress and prosperity, beautifully refine and advance, and which progress in knowledge, power and piety, O man of devotion and endeavour, you too, like a pioneer of the chariot caravan of humanity, may attain.
1. \textit{Asya me dyāvāprthrīvī rāyato bhūtamanvitrī vacasāḥ siśasataḥ. Yayorāyuḥ prataram te idam pura upastute vasūyurvāṁ maho dadhe.}

May the heaven and earth be saviours and protectors of this voice of mine, who follow the universal law of Dharma and crave their love in unison. Excellent and elevating is their power and action. Hence in search of food for body, mind and soul, I present this prayer since I hold them adorable as great blissful powers of Divinity.

2. \textit{Mā no guhyā ripa āyorahan dabhan mā na ābhyo rīradho ducchunābhyaḥ. Mā no vi yauḥ sakhyā viddhi tasya naḥ sumnāyatā manasā tat tvemahe.}

May the secret intrigues of hostile men never hurt us in the day or night, nor may the earth hurt the joy of humanity with calamities. Nor must anyone alienate us from our friends. Indra, know our friends and our friendships with a gracious mind. For this reason of peace, friendship, and well-being, we offer our worship and prayers to you, O lord of earth and heaven.

3. \textit{Aheḷatā manasā śrusṭimā vaha duhānāṁ dhenunḥ pipyuṣīmasāscatam. Padyābhīrāśun vacasā ca vājināṁ tvāṁ hinomi puruhūta viśvahā.}
Indra, lord of light and power, with a kind and gracious mind bring us instantly a gift of that comprehensive speech of Divinity which, like the mother earth and generous cow and an imaginative mind and sense, gives us the milk of mental and spiritual nourishment. Every day, O lord universally invoked and adored, ruler of the dynamics of existence, with the holy Word and successive steps of meditation, I knock at your door.

Yāske rāke sumatayaḥ supeśaso yābhirdadāsi dāśuṣe vasūni. Tābhirno adya sumanā upāgahi sahasrapoṣam subhage rāṛṇā.

O Lady of the Moon, those visions of yours, of wisdom and beauty, with which you bless the generous giver with the wealths of conjugal life, with all those today, O mistress of noble and lovely mind, harbinger of good fortune, overflowing with a thousand blessings, come close to us and bless.

O Sinivali, lady of love and beauty, you are the sister of the gods of nature’s bounty. Accept and cherish the fragrance offered into the fire and, O lady of light and bliss, give us lovely progeny.

Her arms are beautiful, delicate, and lovely her fingers. Fertile and passionate is she and generous nurse of life. Mother of many and lovely lady of love and beauty, offer her the oblations of life into the fire.

8. Ya guṅgūryā sinīvālī yā rākā yā sarasvatī. Indrāṇīmahva ūtaye varuṇānim svastaye.

She is the first night of the new moon, cooing with amour, she is lovely and passionate, she is night of the full moon, she is the mistress of exuberant speech and noble knowledge, she is the lady of power and prosperity, and she is the love of my first choice. I invoke her, I solicit her, I love her for safety, security and all round well-being.

Mandala 2/Sukta 33

Rudra Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

1. Ā te pitarmārūtāṁ sumnametu mā naḥ sūryasya saṁdṛśo yuyothāḥ. Abhi no vīro arvati kṣameta pra jāyemahi rudra praǰābhiḥ.

Rudra, lord of the laws of nature for universal health, justice and punishment, father sustainer of the people, may your blessings of well-being ever come to us. Deprive us not of the light and benign eye of the sun. May our brave children be strong on horse back to challenge the enemies. May we rise and advance with our future generations.

O Rudra, lord of health and well-being, with your soothing and invigorating herbs given by you, may we live a full hundred years. May hate and jealousy and sinful actions be off from us so that we may be free from all chronic diseases.

3. Śreṣṭho jātasya rudra śriyāsi tavastamas-tavasāṁ vajrabāho. Parṣiṣṭah pāramāṇahāṣāḥ svastī viśvā abhūti rapaso yuyodhi.

Rudra, lord of adamantine arms by virtue of your own knowledge and power, you are the best of the world of humanity and strongest of the strong. Take us across the seas of sin and disease to our good and well being. Fight out all the roads to infirmity and block them against ill-health.

Rudra, O physician, mighty brave and generous, may we never irritate or provoke you by neglect or turning away, or by disappraisal, or by pestering you. With herbs and tonics raise a generation of brave, heroic young people. I hear that you are the most eminent physician among physicians.
The physician who helps, inspires and advances us with exhortations, herbs and tonics, him I serve and please with offers of presents and appreciation. And he too, soft and kind at heart, invited with reverence, benevolent and pleasant of manners, should not, in the interest of the patient’s mind and morale, hurt us.

And the divine physician, Rudra, bold and generous, commanding the energies of the elements, restores me, poor patient in need of strength, to glowing health and energy and I, like one taking shelter in the shade from the scorching heat, feel relieved, and I pray that I may continue to enjoy Rudra’s gift of comfort and joy free from sin and disease.

O Rudra, divine physician, where is that merciful hand of yours which is the healing balm (for the restoration of health), which is an antidote to the ravages of the elements of nature? O lord, potent and generous, save me, spare me, and bless me with

I offer the highest of the high songs of praise in honour of Rudra, potent, generous and brilliant sustainer of health and life. Celebrate and serve this illustrious Rudra with salutations and presentations. We invoke and praise the name and splendour of Rudra with honour and reverence.

Rudra, divine physician, brilliant sustainer of versatile form and character, shines forth with his sturdy constitution and purest golden virtues. May his essential vitality and life-giving power never part from this Rudra, universal and versatile ruler of this world.

Rudra, potent and illustrious lord of the world, scourge of the evil and the wicked, in your own right with your own essential power, you wield the bow and arrows. Rightfully you bear and hold the adorable gold of universal form and lustre. With your essential strength and power, you protect this grand and mighty universe. O Rudra, never and none is greater than you in might and majesty.

11. Stuhi śrutam gartasadam yuvānam mṛgam na bhīmam-upahatnum-ugram. Mr̥itä jaritre rudra stavāṇo’nyam te asmānī vapantu senāḥ.

O Rudra, scourge of the evil and the wicked, praise and cherish the eminent young man of action seated in the war chariot, fearful as a tiger, destroyer of enemies and illustrious of merit. Be kind and gracious to the admirer and worshipper who sings in praise of you. And let your forces throw off from us the others who are ungrateful and negative.

Rudra, lord giver of good health and joy, just as the son bows to the father worthy of reverence and adoration while the father approaches, so do I praise and offer obeisance to you, generous giver and leader... and sustainer of the good and the truthful, and as we offer reverence and obeisance, you bless us with healing cures for health and joy.

O Maruts, energies of the winds and vital breath of prana, whatever your healing powers, pure, purifying and without adverse effects, O powers of rain and water, whatever your cures most sanative and tranquillising, which Manu, the wise and imaginative scholar, father figure, collects, selects and refines for us, all those sanative cures and restoratives of benevolent Rudra’s I love and desire.

May the stroke of fatal illness stay far from us. May the serious error of judgement of the brilliant specialist be far from us. Ward off and remove the chronic diseases from the people of wealth and power. O potent and generous lord of health and power, be kind and gracious to our children and our grand children.
Rudra, lord sustainer of the world with health and life, mighty potent and generous, lord of knowledge and enlightenment, brilliant and illustrious, be kind and gracious so as not to deprive us of our comfort and joy nor to strike us with illness or untimely death. O lord listener to our invocation and prayer, enlighten us here and now, enlighten us so that, blest with brave and noble children, we sing and celebrate your mighty magnificence in our battles of yajnic life.

Mandala 2/Sukta 34

Maruts Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

Maruts, pioneers of humanity on top of the wave, sharp as razor’s edge and vibrant as the winds, irresistible with might and majesty, terrible as the tiger, bright with light and culture, blazing as flames of fire, soft and sophisticated at heart and fond of soma to the last drop, blow off the whirlwinds of time and circumstance and open out the light and language of Divinity for the progress of humanity.

Ye Maruts, tempestuous pioneers of the world, blest with a heart of gold with light and love, be bright like the heavens with stars and, with the blaze of honour and distinction on your person, shine and roar like thunder and lightning of the clouds, since Rudra, bold and generous lord of justice, generous as showers of rain, generated you from the holiest womb of earth and the rays of heaven’s light.

Maruts, passionate heroes of action, shining in golden helmets, ride and goad their horses in battles like rockets in constant motion and shoot forward like sailors conquering the waves of the sea with instant oars. O Maruts, commanders of the winds, shaking and storming the adversaries in battle contests, go forward and achieve your cherished goal, fast like wind shears shaking, ripping and scattering the clouds.
4. Āṣṭāṅga śāstra svādhyaṁ cakraṇaṁ jñānaṁ dhyāyāṁ

As the battles of action are won and the earth is sprinkled with showers of peace, all the regions of the world grow strong and powerful as one restful home for a friendly humanity. And Maruts, brilliant and generous heroes of victory and givers of nourishment and the breath of fresh life, possessed of mighty means of advancement, without diminishing the wealth of nations, shooting up straight to their goals and values, sit steadfast on the helm of affairs along the simple paths of peace and progress.

The Maruts, leaders and pioneers, impassioned with enthusiasm and love of life, bright and blazing with arms and words pregnant with meaning, advance on inviolable paths of peace and progress, like swans flying to their own resorts of water, for celebration of the boundless ecstasy of the honey sweets of success and victory.

6. Ā no brahmāṇi marutaḥ samanyavo narāṁ na śaṁsaḥ saveṇāni gantana. Aśvāmiva pipyata dhenumūdhani kartā dhiyāṁ jaritre vājape-śasam.

   O Maruts, heroes of mankind, impassioned with the will to act and equanimity of mind to think, come and grace our sessions of yajnic celebrations, admired universally as you are among people. Come for the development of wealth and prosperity. Develop the mare for speed as well as the cow for plenty of milk. And for the admirer and celebrant, create and award ample wealth of intelligence and knowledge with noble language and competence for karma with precious gifts.

7. Taṁ no dāta maruto vājinaṁ ratha āpānaṁ brahma citayad divedive. Ḡaṁ stotṛbhyo vṛjaneṣu kārave saniṁ medhāmariṣṭam duṣṭaraṁ sahaḥ.

   O Maruts, heroes dear as breath of life, give us that power and speed for our nation’s chariot, that wealth and vitality of life and that universal knowledge which may awaken and enlighten us day by day. Give us that food and energy for the admirers and celebrants in the yajnic programmes of development which is inexhaustible, and, for the poet, singer, scientist, technologist and the architect of the human nation, bring ample reward of fulfilment, high intelligence, freedom from sin and ill-health and inviolable courage, patience, and fortitude.

8. \textit{Yad yuñjate maruto rukmavakşaso’śvān ratheṣu bhaga ā sudānavaḥ. Dhenurna śiśve svasareṣu pinvate janāya rātahaviṣe mahīmiṣam.}

Maruts, leaders with heart of gold and brilliant person, generous givers of knowledge and advancement, as they yoke the power and horses to the chariots of the nation, and as success in progress and prosperity is achieved, then, every day for every home, like the mother cow overflowing with milk for the calf, they provide and augment ample food and freshness for high fulfilment of the people who give and have given their share of service and self-sacrifice in the national yajna.

9. \textit{Yo no maruto vrkatāti martyo ripurdadhe vasavo raksatā riṣaḥ. Vartayata tapuśa cakriyābhi tamava rudrā aśaso hantanā vadhaḥ. }

Whoever be the person who, like a wolfish thief or robber or deadly enemy, targets us with anger and torture, O Maruts, shelter home for all and universal saviours, protect us against the violence of the enemy. Whosoever raises the fatal weapon upon us, bind and seal him with punishment and circle him round with vigilance. O Rudras, scholars of the middle order, defenders of law and scourge of the lawless, hurt not, destroy not, those who are non-violent, peace loving and law abiding.

Maruts, defenders and pioneers of the social order, friends of humanity, wondrous is that yajnic exploit of yours so well known, when from heights of the skies and depths of the earth you churn out and distil the nectar of life which again, O friends of Rudra, lord of light and justice, and indomitable warriors, becomes a fatal antidote against the maligners of your celebrants and the weary weakness of the aging.

Such as you are, O great Maruts, who thus venture out to exploit the earth and the skies in search of knowledge and life's energy, we invoke and exhort you for the fulfilment of the omnipresent lord Vishnu's love and desire for the progress and prosperity for his children. And thus do we, having raised our ladles of yajna as our share in our effort for piety, honour and prosperity, pray for the gifts of the Maruts, heroes of the golden hue great and, marvellous in their own right.

12. Te daśagvāḥ prathamā jajñamūhīre te no hinantūśaso vyuṣṭīṣu. Uśā na rāmir-aruṇair-aporṇute maho jyotiśā śucatā goarṇasā.

They, the Maruts, masters of their mind and ten senses of perception and action, first in intelligence and imagination, organise the yajna and take it to success. May they, we pray, give us the clarion call with the light of the dawn, and, like the lady of light which removes the veil of darkness from over the restful night with radiant rays of the sun, may they, we pray, remove our veil of darkness and ignorance with the great and sacred light of the rising sun of divine knowledge.

13. *Te kṣoṇībhir-aruṇebhir-nāñjibhī rudrā ṛtasya

sadaneṣu vāyṛdhuḥ. Nimēghamānā atyena pājasā suścandram varṇam dadhire supeśasam.*

Those Rudras, stormy winds and roaring clouds, tempestuous pioneers of humanity, leaders of science and knowledge, act and grow within the dynamics of the laws of nature along with the earths, planets and the atmosphere, with the golden light of dawn and the various beauties of nature, and, showering gifts of living energy and wearing the grace of the full moon and majesty of form, they grow and advance with the strength and speed of the brilliance of light.

Wanting a great home for the sake of safety, security and advancement, we praise and, with humble salutations, do homage to those great and noblest yajakas, i.e., five pranic energies, which Trita, the man commander of those five yajakas, deploys for his safety, security and good fortune, since they are ever fresh, dynamic and ever on the move like a wheel in constant motion.

15. Yayā radhraṁ pārayathātyaṁho yayā nido mūṇcatha vanditaṁ. Arvācīṁ sā maruto ya va ūtiroṣu vāśreva sumatirjīgātu.

O Maruts, pioneering guides of humanity, divine powers of knowledge and holy intelligence, that virtuous mind and power of protection by which you save the devotee from the taint of sin and let him cross the ocean, by which you save the celebrant from the calumny of maligners, may that power of protection, that noble intelligence, like a loving mother, come hither to me and bring me divine grace.

Mandala 2/Sukta 35

Apam-napat Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

1. Upemasṛkṣi vājayurvacasyaṁ cano dadhīta nādyo giro me. Apāṁ napādāśuhemā kuvit sa supeśasaskarati jośisaddhi.

   Close to the waters in search of food, energy, vitality and fast speed of action, I create this song related to water energy and subsequent water wealth. May these holy words of mine, loud and bold, flowing like a stream, be delightful and bear fruit and fulfilment. May that divine energy born of waters, instant and imperishable, be in accord with the holy voice and help us create many beautiful forms of life and various wealth for us.

2. Imaṁ svasmai hṛda ā sutaṣṭaṁ mantraṁ vocema kuvidasya vedat. Apāṁ napād-asuryasya mahnā viśvanyaryo bhuvanā jajāna.

   Let us chant this mantra conscientiously created and composed from depths of the heart in honour and celebration of this magnificent power. May the great lord of the wide world know of it. Indeed this mighty energy born of the waters, replete with wealth and power, with the great omnipotence of divine nature, creates the entire worlds of existence.

Some of these streams of water and currents of energy flow together. Some others flow close by them, and all of them together join and flow into the ocean to fullness. And these clear and purest streams of water and water energy all round abide by that pure, bright and blazing child of the waters, imperishable agni, fire and electric energy of the water power. (This mantra describes the dynamic circuit flow of energy and its imperishable form in the state of conservation.)

Just as young maidens in crystalline purity of body and mind and fragrant modesty anxiously yet bashfully approach the youthful man, feeding his fire and receiving the shower of life and love, so do crystalline streams of water murmuring with exciting energy approach from all round that Apam-napat, fiery energy of the essence of waters, and he, overflowing with vitalising energy, fertilises their thirst for life and creativity. May that, the eternal elan vital distilled from waters by nature, bright and blazing like flames of fire fed with ghrta in yajna, shine on by itself in the waters of life for us.

5. Asmai tisro avyathyāya nārīrdevāya devīrdidhi-ṣantyannam. Kṛtā ivopa hi prasarsre apsu sa piyūṣam dhayati pūrvasūnām.

For this Apam-napat, liquid and fiery energy of waters, brilliant, generous and inviolable divinity, three brilliant and generous streams of dynamic energy, Ila, Sarasvati, Mahi, eternal, universal and specific forms of divine energy, flow and bear food for his sustenance and growth. They move like young maidens approaching their man for the continuance of life and vital energy. They move on and on like three divinities, reflections of the divine will in the cosmic oceans of time and space, and he, the fiery creative energy, drinks the milk of life from the three motherly powers.

6. Asvasyātra janimāsya ca svardruho riṣaḥ saṃprcaḥ pāhi sūrīn. Āmāsu pūrṣu paro apramṛṣyaṁ nārātayo vi naṣannānṛtāni.
In the dynamics of water, fire and vital energy lies the source of virility, fertility and generation of the species. Herein lies the source of pleasure and happiness. O brilliant lord of generosity, protect the good and the pious people from the hateful, violent and destructive associates and encounters. It is perfect, beyond all stages short of ripeness in nature. Nothing false, opposed or negative can pollute or destroy it.

He whose home is blest with a fertile cow, abundant holy speech in communication, and noble knowledge, drinks holy water and eats consecrated food. He, inviolable in pranic energies, enveloped in the folds of nature’s vitalities is ‘apam-napat’, as such he grows for the sake of the generous man of charity, wields power and prosperity, and shines with might and majesty.

Abiding in the holy waters of nature’s liquid bounty, dedicated to nature’s law and blest with her consecrating power, vast and constant with the earth, he shines with immaculate purity of character and the majesty of light divine. The other regions of the world are like the branches of his family tree where, too, further, grow the trees with their own farther branches.

Apam-napat, essential energy born of the waters of space, wearing the mantle of lightning power, electricity, abides close above the wavy and curvy motions of the clouds. And streams of energy, wearing the lustre of gold, carrying its highest power, flow all round.

हिरण्यात्परियांनिषिद्धा हिरण्यदा दंतुव्य मिस्माण १०॥

Golden of form, Apam-napat, the child of waters, golden eyed revealing its gold, golden coloured, abides higher than the golden seat of its origin, and the golden feeder energies of physical existence provide the food for its growth.

That lustrous power of this child of the waters and its essential name arising from its innate properties is beautiful, and it grows while the youthful maidens raise it in its golden glory like the flames of fire with ghṛta, ghṛta being its favourite food.

We serve this Apam-napat, golden energy, with yajnas and feed it with food and sacrifices in the midst of many powers of nature for the good of our closest friends. I refine it in the vedi, sustain it by degrees with fuel, feed it with food and sacrifices and celebrate it with exalting songs of Rks.

That potent and generous Apam-napat, vital heat of life, creates the fetus in the waters. The same baby
11. That lustrous power of this child of the waters and its essential name arising from its innate properties is beautiful, and it grows while the youthful maidens raise it in its golden glory like the flames of fire with ghrta, ghrta being its favourite food.

12. We serve this Apam-napat, golden energy, with yajnas and feed it with food and sacrifices in the midst of many powers of nature for the good of our closest friends. I refine it in the vedi, sustain it by degrees with fuel, feed it with food and sacrifices and celebrate it with exalting songs of Rks.

13. That potent and generous Apam-napat, vital heat of life, creates the fetus in the waters. The same baby sucks the same vitality of the waters. The same water energies then kiss and caress the baby. The same, then, in bright, unfaded effulgence shines in the youthful body as it shines in other body forms too.

14. Mighty streams of cosmic energy, with their own imperishable velocity, flow all round bearing ghrta and anna-food for their grand child, Apam-napat, abiding all-time effulgent in this highest state of existence.

15. Agni, vital spirit of life in existence, I pray, may I attain a blessed home for the people. May I receive a glorious hymn of divine worship for our people of power and honour from our poets of power and imagination. May we attain all that good and glory which Devas protect and promote. And may we, blest with the brave, sing songs of Divinity in our yajnic projects.
Mandala 2/Sukta 36

Indra-madhu, Maruts-madhava, Tvashta-shukra, Agni-shuchi, Indra-nabha, Mitra-Varuna nabhasya Devatah, Grtsamada Rshi

Indra, yajnapati, first and prime power who rule the world, let the person invoking you and rising in life settle down in peace and security for your sake. May the people like children of Aditi, mother Earth, receive the best of cows, lands and the holy Word and the best of water and energy with protective showers of the clouds. Indra, drink up the libations of soma, offered with dedication with the words ‘Svaha’ and ‘vashat’ from our yajna.

2. Yajñaiḥ saṁmiślāḥ prṣaṭibhir-rṣṭibhir-yāmañ-chubhṛāso aṇjiṣu priyā uta. Āsadyā barhir-bharatasya sūnavaḥ potrādā somāṁ pibatā divo naraḥ.

Maruts, children of the Lord sustainer of the world, powers natural and divine, leaders of humanity united by yajna, moving by the right path at the right time by speed of the winds, creating and achieving the objects of desire, crystalline pure and lovely in colours of beauty, seating yourselves on the holy grass of the vedi, drink the soma distilled from the purest light of heaven.

Maruts, invoked and invited with love and respect, come to us as to your own home, ride the skies and raise the voice of victory. Tvashta, lord maker of forms and institutions, leader of the republics, commanding high intelligence and wisdom, come with the brilliant creators and experts of production, taste the sweets of our yajnic food and celebrate the victory with us.

4. Ā vakṣi devān iha vipra yakṣi coṣan hotarni ṣadā yoniṣu triṣu. Prati vihi prasthitam somaṃ madhu pibāṅnidhrāt tava bhāgasya tṛṇuḥi.

Agni, ‘vipra’, brilliant lord of the dynamics of nature and human society, speak of the laws of nature and psycho-social dynamics and inaugurate and direct the yajna of creation and production here. Inspired and passionate for holy action, be seated on the vedi, establish yourself in the three fields of earth, sky and space and be sure and specific on description, application and valuation of knowledge human and divine with prayer and gratitude to the Lord Omniscient. Achieve the planned targets of blissful creativity and development, taste the sweets of yajnic success and be happy that you have played your part of life’s action for your people.

Indra, lord of wealth and power, ruler of the world, this soma is such that it would strengthen and augment the wealth and power of your body and soul. It is the very patience and fortitude and the lustre of your personality, as broad and clear as daylight, collected and consecrated in your very arms. It is distilled, seasoned, preserved and served for you only. Drink of it as a gift from the Brahmana, expert of science and bio-technology, and be happy.

O brilliant Mitra and Varuna, friendly lord of the rule of law, administrators and people of the earth, join and participate in my yajna for the nation in honour of the Lord. Listen and appreciate the revealing voices of knowledge gifted by the saints and scholars old and new. Just as the yajaka seated and established in yajnic acts of creation and development receives the gifts of food and sustenance from yajna well-preserved, so you too receive the gifts of peace and prosperity from the scholars of Shastras and enjoy the honey sweets of the good life.

Mandala 2/Sukta 37

Dravinoda, Ashvins, Agni Devatah, Grtsamada Rshi

O lord giver beatific, rejoice and thrive on the food of libations to your heart’s desire. O yajakas, he loves the libations, full and profuse, offered with love in faith. Bear this sacred ‘havi’ and offer it liberally to him. He is loving and kind, eagerly awaiting the offering, and he is the abundant giver. O lord giver of the wealth of existence, drink up the fragrant soma from the fire of yajna in accordance with the seasons.
2. Yamu pūrvamahuve tamidāṁ huve sedu havyo dadiryo nāma patyate. Adhvaryubhiḥ prasthitam somyāṁ madhu potrāṁ somaṁ draviṇodah piba ṛtubhiḥ.

Whom I ever invoke and worship, him alone I invoke and serve and worship now. He alone is the giver, he alone is the master, he alone is the ruler, he alone for sure is the lord worthy of invocation, invitation, service, yajña and worship. O lord giver of the wealth of life, abundant and infinite, receive and drink this honey sweet of soma prepared and refined by the loving, faithful and non-violent priests according to the seasons. Take it from the sacred cup and drink to your heart’s desire.

May they be happy and may they prosper with whom you go, whom you support, who bear your burdens and carry forward your programmes for you. O lord controller of light and growth, wanting nothing for yourself and hurting none, be strong and firm, make your devotees strong and firm. Joining all, acting all round, lustrous, intrepidable and inviolable, please to accept the soma yajna of all seasons from the hand of the yajakas, drink and rejoice with love and for beneficence.

May the lord giver receive the food brought by the yajaka and offered from the ladle and the vedi and may the lord relish and rejoice and shower the yajaka with love. And may the lord giver of wealth and bliss bless the yajaka’s fourth estate of existence and protect his bowl of bliss unhurt and immortal.

5. Arvāṅcam-adya yayyaṁ nṛvāhaṇaṁ rathaṁ yuñjāthāmiha vāṁ vimocanam. Pṛṅktaiṁ havimṣi madhunā hi kaṁ gatamathā somāṁ pibatamāṁ vājinīvasū.

Ashvins, agents of nature for the lord of omnipotence, leaders of humanity and pioneers of peace and prosperity for the people, start your chariot and direct it hitherward to us, the chariot which transports you to our yajna and takes us to the land of freedom and bliss. Come to the land of joy, season our havi with honey, and drink the soma of immortal bliss.
6. Joṣyagne samidham joṣyāhutin josi brahma janya josi susṭutim. Viśvēbhīr-viśvān ṛtunā vaso maha uśan devān uśataḥ pāyayā havih.

Agni, lord of light, leader of humanity, giver of life’s vitality, accept the fuel offered, receive the havi offered in oblations, accept the creative chant of holy mantras, accept the praise and prayer. With all the powers of nature, serve the generous divinities. Lord giver of haven and home and the wealth of life, great, happy and rejoicing, yourself eager for the food of yajna and excitement, let all other great divinities, eager for food and fulfilment, receive and enjoy the offerings according to the seasons.

Mandala 2/Sukta 38

* Savita Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

1. Udu śya devah savātā savāya śaśvattamaṁ tadapā vahnirasthāt. Nūnam devabhya vi hi dāti ratnamathābhajad vītihotram svastau.

That self-refulgent lord Savita, creator and inspirer of the universe, omnipotent lord of action, holds, rules and sustains the universe and abides supreme over the eternal Prakrti. Indeed, he alone wields, orders and sustains the magnificent universe for the sake of living beings and carries on the sacred yajna of creation for the well-being of all.

For the good of the world alone the generous and self-refulgent lord Savita of long and mighty arms abides over all and extends his rays of light across the spaces. The waters too, pure and purifying, flow within his rule of law, and so do the winds play around every where under the same law.

Savita, lord of light, the Sun, with its radiant rays releases the moving planets from the shadow of another planet as it removes the shadow of darkness and causes the planet to shine. And for the sake of protection it also controls the movement of the winds coming to the clouds as also other serpentine movements either freakish or destructive. Thus the night and release from darkness comes according to the rule and movement of the Sun’s light, and that is the divine law.

The earth, traversing the wide wide space, revolves again and again in orbit in the solar region wielding her force and power to do the rounds assigned to her, and, leaving one place, moving on, comes back to the same and remains stable in the orbit. The constant and sleepless lord Savita, the Sun, self-refulgent and divine, creates the seasons of the year in the distinct order.

Many are the forms and abodes of life, many doors, exits and entrances, where universal life abides, the light and life of Agni, the birth and death of the flame, the lustre, the desire and passion of the will divine to live and to be. The mother bears the highest share of it for the son, the flower in bloom inspired by Savita, father creator in accordance with his law of existence.
6. Samāvavarti viṣṭhito jīgīṣur-viśveśāṁ kāmaś-\text{caratāmamābhūt. Šāsvān apo vikṛtam hitvyā-gādanu vrataṁ saviturdaivyasya.}

   Happy is the man who is well settled in the home, prays for the well-being of all living beings and is fast and eager to win the battles of life. Such a man shuns all crooked ways of living and keeps to the pious ways of living in accordance with the laws and discipline of the brilliant and generous lord Savita, creator and ruler of the world.

7. Tvayā hitamapya\text{m}apsu bhāgaṁ dhanvānvā mṛgayaso vi tasthuḥ. Vanāni vibhyo nakirasya tāṇi vratā devasya saviturminanti.

   O lord creator and ruler of existence, by you is created and provided life-giving energy in the waters. By you is created the sky, by you the forests, for the birds and the deer to fly, to roam and play. Those rules and laws of divine Savita they never violate, who can? No one does.

8. Yādṛādhyaṁ varuṇo yonim-apyam-aniśitaṁ nimiṣi jarbhurāṇah. Viśvo mārtāṇḍo vrajamā paśurgāt sthaśo janmāṇi savitā vyākāḥ.
Savita, lord creator of the universe, sustaining it in the succession of moments in the time continuum, creates various forms for various births of the souls according to their state of karma, and the same lord as Varuna, lord of love and justice, assigns the form desired and deserved by the soul the moment its eye is closed on death. Thus do all living beings under the sun come back to their ultimate home from where they had gone out on their existential journey.

None can violate, nor circumvent the law and justice of Savita, Supreme Lord Creator: Neither Indra, the sun and cosmic electric force, nor Varuna, the waters, nor Mitra, the winds, nor Aryama, life breath of air, nor even Rudra, the soul by itself or in alliance with any power of nature, no enemies, that is, any imaginable counter forces can violate the divine law. This Lord Savita, for well-being and salvation, do I invoke with homage and salutations. Self-refulgent is He, generous and gracious.

Glorious is Savita, worthy of thought and meditation, sustainer of the universe, celebrated by humanity, lord protector of all. We know the lord and do homage to Him with prayer, submission and yajna, and we earnestly wish that in our battles of life and in our success in the achievement of the wealth of life we may ever be blest with His love and grace.

O Lord, whatever wealth has been given to us by you from the regions of light and the enlightened people, from the waters and the generous people, from the earth and motherly figures, whatever desired be achieved, may all that be good and blissful for the celebrants, the learned, the praiseworthy and, O Lord Savita, for the worshipful.

Mandala 2/Sukta 39
Ashvinau Devata, Grtsamada Rshi

Ashvins, harbingers of life’s heat and light, breath of being and energy, spirit of passion and action, complementary currents of the circuit of existence, you approach the earth like two clouds of rain to augment her wealth. You come like two eager birds and sit on the tree of life laden with fruit to enjoy yourselves to the full. In the yajna of development, you are two priests who chant the hymns of celebration and prayer. And in life in general, you are like two welcome harbingers who create and help us create the abundance of earth.

2. Prātaryāvāṇā rathyeva vīrā’jeva yamā varamā sacethe. Mene iva tanvā śumbhamāne dampaṭīva kratuvidā janeṣu.

You come like two heroic warriors of the chariot in the morning. You join us like two leaders of the flock to lead us on in the right direction. You descend like two fairies of celestial form full of bliss. And you are like a wedded couple who know their sacred obligations among the people.

3. Śrīṅgeva nah prathamā gantamarvāk chaphāviva jarbhurāṇā tarobhiḥ. Cakrāvākeva prati vasto-rusrā’rvāṅcā yātaṁ rathyeva śakrā.

You come first and foremost for us like horns of defence, like bright war horses panting for action, with strength and patience for victory, like the chakravaka bird couple which are harbingers of light and love every morning. Thus mighty and powerful, you move and lead us forward like the pioneers of battle.

4. Naiveva naḥ pārayataṁ yugeva nabhyeva na upadhiḥa pradhīva. Śvāneva no ariṣṭaṁ saṁtanāṁ khṛgaleva visrāsaḥ pātāmasmān.

Take us across like a boat, like two chariot horses; hold us strong and stable like the nave, the axle and the chassis of the chariot; keep us wide awake like watch dogs for the safety of our body and society and, like the coat of mail, save us from falling down battered and broken.

5. Vātevājurya nadyeva rītiraśī iva caksuśā yāta-marvāk. Hastāviva tanve śambhaviṣṭhā pādeva no nayataṁ vasyo accha.

Unaging like winds, ever flowing like river waters, watchful as with open eyes, come upfront and, like the hands giving protection and security to the body, and like the feet, take us forward to the holy wealth of life.

Like the lips, speaking honey sweet for the mouth, help us to be sweet. Like the mother’s breast, nourish and sustain us to live. Like the nostrils, sustain our body with the breath of life. And like the ears, be listeners for us to give us the voice divine.

Like the arms, give us noble strength. Like the earth, give us wide spaces for expansion. These words, O Ashvins, addressed to you, may, like a whetstone, energise and sharpen our communication and raise it to the voice of thunder.

These words of homage, this holy song of celebration, the seekers of life’s joy and excitement offer to you. Ashvins, O leaders of humanity, accept these with love and grace, and come to bless us so that, blest with the brave, we speak and celebrate you highly and...
advance far ahead in our projects of life.

Mandala 2/Sukta 40

Soma, Pusha and Aditi Devatah, Grtsamada Rshi

Soma and Pusha, universal energies of peace and stability and nourishment and growth, are creators of all forms of wealth, creators of light and creators of earth. Born as complementary powers, they are protectors of the entire universe. O Devas, divinities of nature, scholars and leaders, feed, know and reveal this creative centre and power of immortality.
ripeness in the developing fields of generation such as earth, cows and women.

Soma and Pusha, fire and air, all-invigorating powers, create, animate and refresh that aerial chariot with seven chakras (circles and centres of energy) and five controls for the people it traverses the spaces and goes all over in all directions but is not perceived everywhere and it can be controlled with the mind.

One of them as sun has made his home high up in heaven, the other on the earth and over in the sky as generative heat and electric energy. May the two create for us wealth and growth loved and admired universally, and may they strengthen the natural bond between themselves and us like the natal cord between mother and child.
5. Visvānyanyo bhuvaṇa jajāna visvamanyo abhi-cakṣāṇa eti. Somāpūṣaṇāvavataṁ dhiyam me yuvābhyaṁ visvāḥ prītanā jayema.

One of them creates the entire worlds of existence, and the other goes on and on watching the world and watched and admired by the world. O Soma and Pusha, I pray, protect and promote my intelligence.
We pray that with the help and kindness of both of you we may help and promote the entire humanity and win the battles of life.

6. Dhiyam pūṣā jinvatu visvaminvyo rayim somo rayipatirdadhātu. Avatu devyaditiranarvā bṛhad vadema vidathe suvīrāḥ.

May Pusha, all-pervading spirit of growth and refinement, inspire our will and intelligence. May Soma, lord of wealth, bless us with wealth. May mother Aditi, divine intelligence, moving in unseen currents, inspire our intelligence. And may we, blest with brave warriors and noble children, sing ecstatic songs of thanks and praise in celebration of Soma and Pusha.
Mandala 2/Sukta 41

Vayu, Indra-Vayu, Mitra-Varuna, Ashvins, Indra, Vishvedeva, Sarasvati, Dyava-Prthivi, or Havirdhane Devatah, Grtsamada Rshi

वायु य तं सहस्रिणा रथास्तभिरा गाहि ।
नियुत्वान्त्यार्म्पीतय ॥ १ ॥

Vayu, tempestuous power of divine nature, intelligence of the learned, commanding a thousand chariots and laws of motion, come with all those powers and laws to drink of the soma of life’s joy.

नियुत्वान्त्यायवा गंध्रयं शुकका अंयामि त ।
गन्तासि सुन्वता ग्रहम ॥ २ ॥

Vayu, scholar of the dynamics of the winds, self-controlled with your disciplined mind and senses, drying up the mists of ignorance and confusion with the brilliant light of knowledge, come to the brilliant light of knowledge, come to the house of the yajamana who has distilled the soma. Universally moving you are, I invite you come in person. This soma is for you.

शुककस्याद्य गवाशिरे इन्द्रवायू नियुत्यत: ।
आ यातं पिबतं नरा ॥ ३ ॥

3. Śukrasyādyā gavāśira indravāyū nuyutvataḥ. Ā yātam pibatam narā.
O Indra, O Vayu, power dynamic as electric energy, scholar vibrant as wind, sages dedicated to love and Dharma, come to the yajamana, pure, brilliant, disciplined and dedicated, and drink of the soma distilled and prepared.

O Mitra and Varuna, dear as breath of life and soothing as morning mist, eminent in dedication to truth and law, the soma of life is distilled and prepared for you. Listen to this call and invitation of mine and come here and now.

Indra and Vayu, power and progress, Mitra and Varuna, love and justice in freedom of choice, all embracing and hating none, abide in the house of inviolable peace and stability firmly resting on a thousand pillars.

The brilliant Adityas, inviolable ruling lords of light and peace, the sun and moon of the world, who distil the very essence of life like ghṛta and aqua pura, protect and promote the generous charitable people who follow the simple, straight and natural paths of life free from crookedness.

Gomādūṣu nāsātyā’śvāvad yātamaśvinā. Vartī rudrā nrpāyyam.

Ashvins, complementarities of nature and humanity, spirits of love and justice, dedicated to truth and Dharma, rich and prosperous with cows and horses, that is, plenty of wealth and enlightenment and speed of progress, you are Rudras, wielding the sceptre of law and power and the rod of punishment, come to bless all by simple and straight paths of naturalness which are protective and promotive for all people.

Na yat paro nāntara ādadharaśad vṛṣaṇvasu. Duḥṣaṁso martyo ripuḥ.

Generous are the Ashvins’ showers of wealth, joy and protection, so strong that no mortal man, no maligner, no enemy internal or external, dare challenge, much less hurt, violate or surpass and overcome them. (Let us all abide by them.)

Ta na aha hāmśivina rūvāṁ piṣāḍaṁśaṁ.

Ashvins, pious and resolute lords of generosity, fire and air of life in existence, bring us that wealth of golden hue which creates further wealth and gives us freedom and space for progress and expansion.

10.  Indro aṅga mahad bhayamabhiṣadap cucyavat. Sa hi sthiro vicarṣaṇih.

Indra, light of life, dear as breath of vitality, mighty great, blazing as the sun which is stable in its orbit and enlightens and watches us all as it moves, may, we pray, remove all fear and give us freedom.

May Indra, lord omnipotent, and the sun bless us with peace and comfort, and may sin and evil, we pray, never touch us either before or after, and may good alone be our share and fortune for all time.

May Indra, lord omnipotent beyond all fear and violence, grant us freedom from all quarters of space. He watches all and he is the supreme victor over all enemies and contrarieties.

विश्व दवासु आ गंत श्रृणुता मे हर्षम्
एवं बहिनि यीदत ॥ १३ ॥

13. Viśve devāsa ā gata śṛṇutā ma imaṁ havam.
Edaṁ barhirni śīdata.

All brilliant greats of the world, divinities of nature and humanity, sages and scholars, listen to this voice and prayer of mine: come and grace the holy seats of our yajna.

तीव्र वा मधुरः अयं शुनहात्रशु मत्सरः
एतं पिबतं काम्यम् ॥ १४ ॥

14. Tīvra vo madhumāṁ ayaṁ śunahotreṣu matsaraḥ.
Etaṁ pibata kāmyam.

Intense, honey sweet and exhilarating is the pleasure gifted by saints and scholars in our soma-yajna for the promotion of science. It is for you, divinities of the world. Come and drink of this pleasure to your heart’s content.

इन्द्रज्ञेष्ठा मरुद्रणा दवासु: पूर्वरात्यः विश्व मर्म श्रुता हर्षम् ॥ १५ ॥

15. Indrajyeṣṭhā marudgaṇā devāsah pūṣarātayah.
Viśve mama śrutiḥ havam.

Indra supreme, ruling light and power of the world, and all those divinities whose presiding priest is he, republics of the people, saints and sages, and all those people and organisations who generously contribute to and for the advancement of science and culture, listen to this call and prayer of mine and come.

अभिविस्मः नदीतमः दर्वितमः सर्वस्वतः।
अपशास्तः ईव स्मसि पशस्तमम्ब नस्कृतिः॥ १६॥

16.  Ambitame nadītame devitame sarasvati.
Apraśastā iva smasi prāṣastimamba naskṛdhi.

Sarasvati, mother dearest, most fluent and eloquent giver of vision and wisdom, liberal and most brilliant, eternal fount of knowledge and speech, we are just like simple, natural, innocent, unknown children. Mother spirit of nature and humanity, give us the light of knowledge and culture with the grace of Divinity and make us worthy of acceptance, appreciation and rightful praise.

त्व विश्वास सर्वस्वति ध्रुवायुष्मि दुव्याम्। शुनहात्रशु मत्स्व पूजां दिव्व दिदिम्हि नः॥ १७॥

17.  Te viśvā sarasvati śrītāyūmśi devyām.
Śunahotreśu matsva prajāṁ devi didīḍåhi naḥ.

In you, O generous mother giver of vision and wisdom, lie all the health and age and wealth of knowledge for the world. Come brilliant mother Sarasvati, grace our yajna of education and science, rejoice and create for us a new generation of healthy, educated and refined children.

इङ्गम बह्न्ति सर्वस्वति जुष्म्व वाजिनीवति ।
या तु मन्म गृस्तमदाद्रैं ताहारि पिया दुव्यशु जुहृति॥ १८॥

18.  Imā brahma sarasvati juṣasva vājinīvati.
Yā te manma grātsamadā rātāvari priyā deveṣu juhvati.
Sarasvati, mother of universal knowledge and speech, commanding the food, energy and speed of the advancement of humanity moving on the paths of truth and rectitude, listen to these chants of homage and accept with delight and homage these your favourite oblations of scientific knowledge which the ecstatic performers in the yajna of education offer to you in honour of the bounties of nature, divinity and humanity for the benefit of the faithful seekers.

पतां युज्ज्वलं श्रंभुवं युवामिदा वृणिमहां।
अग्निः च हन्यवाहैनम् ॥ १९ ॥

Dyavaprthivi, heaven and earth, generative treasures of yajnic wealth, creators and givers of peace, prosperity and well-being, come and grace our yajna. We opt for you and invoke and invite you. And we invoke and invite Agni who carries the fragrance of the holy yajna offered into the fire.

द्वारा नः पृथिवी इमां सिद्धमय्य दिविस्प्रशांम। युज्ञं दुवर्षूं यच्चताम् ॥ २० ॥

Heaven and earth, teachers enlightened as the sun and generous as mother earth, let this perfect yajna of ours, this planned yajnic programme of education and enlightenment, which touches the skies and the regions of light now rise high to the divinities and reach the saints and scholars of brilliance across the earth.
1. Kanikradajjanuṣam prabruvāṇa iyarti vācamariteva nāvam. Sumaṅgalaśca śakune bhavāsi mā tvā kā cidabhibhā viśvyā vidat.

Speaking loud and bold, addressing humanity, you take the Word forward like a mariner who takes his vessel forward on the waters. O master of the Word, flying like the eagle, you are the harbinger of good fortune. No superior force from any quarter whatsoever would approach you to disturb your mission.

May none like the hawk smite you, nor like the vulture violate you. Nor must the hunter with the bow shoot you down with the arrow. Reverberating with your voice loud and bold across the lands of your forefathers, harbinger of good fortune, speak to us here of the good things to come.

3. * Ava kranda dakṣiṇato gṛhāṇāṁ sumaṅgalo bhadravāḍī śakunte. Mā nah stena īśata māghaśamso bṛhad vadema vidathe suvīrāḥ.*

Speak aloud, proclaim from the house tops on the right the good things to come. Speak of good fortune, man of power and the Word as you are. May no thief rule over us, no sinner, no maligner boss over us. And we would all, blest with the brave, sing aloud in praise of you and celebrant.

Going round clockwise from left to right in obeisance, poets and artists sing in homage to Indra, lord of light and power. So do birds of beauty and majesty sing in praise of the lord according to the seasons. So does Indra, poet of power, like a Soma-singer chant the Word of both material and spiritual significance as he chants and reveals the significance of other mantras in Gayatri, Tristubh and other metres.

2. Udgāteva śakune sāma gāyasi brahmaṁputra iva savaneṣu sāṁsasi. Vṛṣeva vāji śiśumaṁtrapītya sarvato naḥ śakune bhadramā vada viśvato naḥ śakune puṇyamā vada.

Shakuni, poet of power and homage to Indra, like the Sama-singer in yajna, you sing the songs of ecstasy. Like the disciple of a Vedic scholar Brahamana, you sing in homage to the lord in holy rites. Like a virile and passionate bull approaching youthful females, speak to us with enthusiasm of all round good things. All round, speak to us of noble and blissful things.
3. Āvadaṇḍstvam śakune bhadramā vada tūṣṭīṁśaṁśinaḥ sumatim cikiddhi naḥ. Yadutpatan vadasi karkariryathā bṛhad vadema vidathe suvīrāḥ.

Shakuni, poet of power and imagination, while speaking, speak to us of good. Silent and sitting, enlighten our mind with noble thoughts. While flying on the wings of imagination, you speak of the way you do good. Let us then, blest with good and brave children, sing songs of high praise for the lord.
MANDALA 3

Mandala 3/Sukta 1

Agni Devata, Gathina Vishvamitra Rshi

सामर्थ्य मा तवसं व चंगु वहिन्हं चकथ विद्धं यजृञ्ज्यङ्क
दुव्रूं अच्छा दीयदुःख्ज आदिःश्रमाय अंग तन्वं जुषस्व

Agni, brilliant scholar and fiery leader, you speak to me of the strength and power of soma, the elixir of life. You have prepared me, like the fire that carries the fragrance of yajna from the vedi over earth and skies, to join and conduct the yajnic business of life and play my part in the battles of progress. Shining forth, I join the brilliant best of generous humanity and, as fire moves the cloud to break into showers, we move the nation to release its potential into showers of peace and prosperity. O leading spirit of life and humanity, Agni, protect, promote and sustain the body politic of the world community and move it forward.

Joining all together, we carry the yajna forward.
Let the voices of celebration and joy of the people rise to the skies. Feeding the fire with fuel and fragrance, doing homage to the lord of light with salutations in dedication they conduct and control the yajna of social order by virtue of the vision and wisdom of the sages and the grace of Divinity. And they seek the highways of further advancement for the sake of safety, security and the joy of peace and enlightenment.

Agni, the yajnic power, as also the man of clear vision, essentially pure and dedicated to yajna, by nature a friend and brother of heaven and earth, holds the treasure of comfort and joy. Brilliant and generous souls and the divine powers of nature discover this golden power, Agni, at the heart of currents of waters and vapours, in the flow of pranic energies, and in the sister streams of sparkling water flowing free, and the yajnics find it in their own karma and in the waters.

4. Avardhayantsubhagaṁ sapta yahvīṁ śvetāṁ jajñānamarūsaṁ mahitvā. Śīṣuṁ na jātamabhya-ruraśvā devāso agnim janiman vapuṣyan.

Seven flames of fire as seven streams of water with power and grandeur raise and elevate this glorious effulgence emerging red and white in majesty. While this Agni arises assuming a wondrous form, high-priests of brilliance and generous ambition rush to develop and adorn it as a new born baby.

5. Šukrebhirâṅgai raja ātatänvān kratun pūnānah kavibhiḥ pavitraiḥ. Śocirvasânah paryāyur-apāṁ śriyo mimīte bṛhaśirānunāḥ.

Overspreading the vast spaces with beams of blazing heat and light, raising and sanctifying the holy programmes of yajnic development by poets and priests and visionary experts of purest mind and heart, clothed in purity and majesty, Agni as the brilliant yajaka goes round and round creating and showering great unbounded gifts of health, age and prosperity on all across the flow of life in the world of nature.

Agni, light of the universe, takes to and abides in the subtle unconsuming, pure unhurt streams, close together, open yet not exposed, flowing unbroken from the Light Divine. These seven streams of light and speech flow here, constant, ever young, together and they hold but one eternal meaning like a fetus in their unfathomable womb.
(The mantra applies to light and Vak, Speech, flowing in seven streams of the spectrum.)

स्त्रीणाः अस्य संहता विश्ववर्त्ता घृतस्य वानांद्रवधु मधूनाम। अस्त्रुत्रेत्र ध्रुवं। पिन्न्वा माही दस्मस्य मातरा समीची।

7. Stūrṇā asya samhato viśvarūpā ghṛtasya yonau sravathe madhūnām. Asthuratra dhenavah pinvamānā mahī dasmasya mātārā samīcī.

Expansive yet covered, united yet universal and various are the gifts of this Agni abiding in the womb of the waters of life and abounding in the flow of the honey sweets of existence. The heaven and earth both one and together are the manifestive mothers of this lord of bliss and power.

बब्रण: सूना सहसा व्यद्राद्धर्म: शुका रेभुसा वर्पूषि।
श्चारत्तिच धारा मधुना घृतस्य वृषा यत्र वावृध काव्यन।

Agni, child of omnipotence, growing in power and generosity, bearing and wearing beautiful forms of versatility by virtue of passion and purity and the zeal of light and lustre you are ever expanding and advancing with equipoise. Wherever the honey streams of light and waters of life shower and flow, there the potent man of generosity grows in might and moves forward by the poetry of divinity created by poets of vision and imagination.

O Man, child of Manu, you too watch, follow and grow by the poetry of power and purity created by the poets of vision and imagination in honour of Agni.

9. Pitūścidūḍhārjanaṇuṣā víveda vyasya dhārā āsṛjad vi dhenāḥ. Guha carantaṁ sakhibhiḥ śivebhīrdīvo yahvībhirna guhā babhūva.

Agni, light and vitality of life, knows the creator’s gift of life and life’s home by its very nature from the very birth, and that home is the cloud, the mother’s womb, the night’s darkness and the mother’s breast from where the streams of water, milk, speech and intelligence immediately flow. This Agni, living and growing in the cave of life, the mother’s womb, moving with its blessed companions and with the streams of energy flowing from heaven, doesn’t remain hidden in the cave. One who knows life moving as such knows the secret of life. One who doesn’t doesn’t.

10. Pitūśca garbhaṁ janituśca babhre pūrvīreko adhayat pīpyānāḥ. Vṛṣṇe sapatnī śucaye sabandhū ubhe asmai manusye ni pāhi.

Agni, spirit and vitality of life, nurses the one life-embryo of both father and mother, and the one receives nourishment from the mother as well as from other universal sources of nature, abundant and swelling all since time immemorial. Heaven and earth, father and mother, both bound by nature to life in the embryo, bear, nurse and support it to continue. O Agni, lord of life, light of the world, protect and support both, father and mother, heaven and earth, for the sake of this virile and sacred humanity, for the continuance of this holy life, this sacred humanity in the embryo.

Agni, mighty spirit and vitality of life, grows in the lap of nature, vast and irresistible creative power of Divinity, where the streams of ancient waters flowing together feed it to bloom, expand and continue. Agni, the fire of life, lies in the womb of nature and her cosmic laws of evolution, assertive and inviolable yet subject to the laws, a darling of the karmic flow of the twin powers of heaven and earth, father and mother of the baby in the process of procreation.

Agni, like an unbreakable wall of a fort is the commander and defender of his mighty forces in the battles of life. Auspicious and blissful of sight he is self-refulgent and a simple and natural source of light for his children. Creator of the rays of light and knowledge, born of the womb of the currents of primordial energy, it manifests as the great sun and most human leader of humanity.

13. Agni, mighty spirit and vitality of life, grows in the lap of nature, vast and irresistible creative power of Divinity, where the streams of ancient waters flowing together feed it to bloom, expand and continue. Agni, the fire of life, lies in the womb of nature and her cosmic laws of evolution, assertive and inviolable yet subject to the laws, a darling of the karmic flow of the twin powers of heaven and earth, father and mother of the baby in the process of procreation.

The vital fire and light energy abiding in the waters and pranic vitality creates the woods of herbs and trees, and the clusters of wood such as arani generate this fire which is beautiful to see, full of wealth and power and versatile in form. Scholars of heat and light energy, conscientiously with their heart and soul, study it practically and comprehensively. It is highly valuable, manifest everywhere and a tremendous source of power.

गुहेव वृक्क्षं स्तरसिं स्व अन्तरर्पार ऋव अन्तुतं दुहाना: ॥ १४ ॥

14. Agni, like an unbreakable wall of a fort is the commander and defender of his mighty forces in the battles of life. Auspicious and blissful of sight he is self-refulgent and a simple and natural source of light for his children. Creator of the rays of light and knowledge, born of the womb of the currents of primordial energy, it manifests as the great sun and most human leader of humanity.

Resplendent rays of light as dazzling flashes of lightning serve and derive their power from Agni, simple and natural refulgent power. They milk the nectar of immortal light energy in the midst of vast spaces of earth and heaven in the same way in which the individual soul draws its light and joy from the Supreme Soul immanent in the cave of the heart in the individual body itself.

As a dedicated devotee performing yajna, I praise, worship and pray to you, Agni, light of life, with the offer of fragrant materials. With honest mind and sincere desire, I worship you and pray for friendship and comradeship and for holy understanding and vision.
Lord of light and power, bring shelter and protection for the celebrant alongwith devas, brilliancies of nature and humanity. Save us all with the inviolable glory of your light and lustre.

Agni, lord of light and life, noble leader pursuing right values in society, we are your devotees abiding by you, residing close to you. We hold and command all the wealth of food for sustenance and other materials.
Virile we are and strong. We pray that in our battles of life we may defeat and win over our impious adversaries and enjoy a happy and pious life.

17. Ā devānāmabhavaḥ keturagne mandro viśvāni

Agni, lord of the light of knowledge, noble scholar, you are brilliant among the leading lights, happy and rejoicing, master of all the poetry of divinity and humanity. Be like a restful shelter for common humanity. Self-confident and self-controlled, master of your chariot and freedom of movement, you go forward to your goal in association with noble scholars and in conformity with the powers of nature and the environment.

18. Ni duroṇe amṛto martyānāṁ rājā sasāda

Immortal Agni, lord of light and ruler of the world, abides in the home of immortal humanity, guiding and directing their yajnic programmes to success. Fed with ghrta and rising high, he shines bright as far and wide as the earth. Agni, leader of the people, is lord of knowledge who knows the entire poetry of existence.
Agni, lord of knowledge and power, come to us with friendly acts of grace and benevolence. Lord of universal movement and freedom, mighty great, come with grand provisions of protection and promotion. Lead us to honour and success and render us our share of abundant wealth and power, mutual and ultimate peace and saving grace worthy of poetic celebration.
21. Janman janman nihito jātavedā viśvāmitrebhiridhyate ajasraḥ. Tasya vayaṁ sumatau yajñya-syā'pi bhadre saumananase syāma.

Jataveda, Agni, immanent and omnipresent in every particle of creation, is constantly and eternally lighted, served and celebrated by the sagely friends of the world. We pray that we too may ever abide in the kind and gracious heart and mind of the venerable lord worshipped in yajna and social gatherings and ever enjoy the benefit of his benevolence.

20. Etṁ te agne janimṁ sanṁni paurvyo yaṁ vasanto janman janman nihito jatavedo.

Agni, lord of light, knowledge and creative power, these are your various and universal manifestations in action old and new. Great are these acts of power and grace for the bold and generous humanity in every manifestation of yours which, O power immanent and omnipresent, I sing and celebrate in honour of your excellence and which, O lord, be gracious to hear.

22. Imaṁ yajñam sahasāvan tvam no devatrā dhehi sukrado raraṇāḥ. Pra yamsi hotarbrhatīriṣo no ’gne mahi draviṇamā yajasva.

This yajna of ours, of celebration and worship, O lord of power and grandeur, send up unto nature’s powers of Divinity, and establish among the generous and brilliant celebrities of humanity, wise lord of holy acts of creation and development as you are, generous and rejoicing in the holy yajnic performances of ours. Agni, lord yajaka of the universe yourself, you give abundantly to the devotees. Give us generously of great food and energy and of extensive wealth and knowledge of life.

23. Ilāmagne purudamsaṁ saniṁ goḥ saśvattamaṁ havamāṇāya sāḥda. Syānnaḥ sūnustanayo vijāvā’gne sā te sumatirbhūtvāsme.
Agni, lord of light and life and knowledge, bless the yajnic worshipper with a generous gift of Ila, that eternal and infinite speech of Divinity which reveals the knowledge of universal action and confirms him in the practice of it in universal action. Bless us with intelligent sons and grandsons specially to continue the family line. Agni, may your gifts of love and holy intelligence be showered on us.

Mandala 3/Sukta 2
Vaishvanara Agni Devata, Gathina Vishvamitra Rshi

Like refined and fortified ghrta offered in yajna to the fire of the vedi, we generate, refine and sharpen our courage and intelligence and compose hymns of praise in honour of Vaishvanara Agni, fiery ruler of the world and protector and promoter of the universal yajna of Truth and Law. And the people as well as the leading priest both join in developmental yajna and, with the application of intelligence and action, produce a refined version of the chariot and the thunderbolt and surrender it to Agni, divine high priest of the universal yajna of creation as a hymn of tribute and celebration.
2. Sa rocayajjanuṣā rodasī ubhe se mātrorabhavat putra īḍyaḥ. Havyavāḷagnirajaraścanohito dūḷabho viśāmatithirvibhāvasuḥ.

That Agni, Vaishvanara, fiery life of the world, by nature, illuminates both earth and heaven and rises as the darling admirable favourite of his motherly generators. He is the carrier of the fragrances of yajna, unaging treasure of food, energy and universal wealth, indomitable, brilliant sun and most welcome visiting guest of the people.

With yajna, holy application of mind and will, and contribution with the spirit of yajna to the various dharmic programmes of the man of power and expertise, who is dedicated to the service of the divine saviour father, the creative pioneers of brilliance and generosity generate and develop Agni, heat and light energy, with organised planning and corporate action. And desiring to join this programme and have the benefit, I whisper and discuss, and invoke this Agni power shining with the light of the sun, great with its own light, and fast as the energy of nature itself.
4. Ā mandrasya saniśyanto vareṇyaṁ vr̥ṇīmahe ahrayaṁ vājāṃrgmiyam. Rātiṁ bhṛgūṇāṁuśijāṁ kavikrātu-magnīṁ rājantāṁ divyena śociśā.

To share and enjoy the beauty, ecstasy and magnificence of life, we choose what is worthy of choice: Agni, lord and power of light, boldly free and abundant, tempestuous power revealed by the Rks, excellent gift of the Bhrgus, generous and celestial artists and scientists far reaching in poetic imagination, wisdom and creation, loving, and radiant with the light of heaven.

5. Agniṁ sumnāya dadhire puro janā vājaśravasamiha vṛktabarhiṣaḥ. Yatasrucaḥ surucam visvadevyāṁ rudraṁ yajñānāṁ sādhadiṣṭim-apasām.

For the attainment of peace and prosperity, people here since eternity have lighted the fire of Agni, rich in matter, mind and motion, lovely brilliant, radiant divine across the worlds, mighty just and corrective, leader of yajnic programmes to success and giver of karmic joy and satisfaction. Having collected the holy grass for the vedi and lighted the fire, they raise the ladle to feed the fire and open the secrets of the skies.
6. Pāvakaśoce tava hi kṣayam pari hotaryajñēṣu vr̥ktabarhiṣo narāḥ. Agni duva icchamānāsā āpyam-upāsate draviṇāṃ dhehi tebhyaḥ.

Agni, lord of light and fire, infinite giver, having collected the grass and sitting around the vedi in yajnas, the performers are but seekers of service and lasting peace and they pray for a haven under your dominion only. O lord and presiding power of yajna, bless them with the wealth and well-being of their heart’s desire.

7. Ā rodasī aprṇadā svarmahajjātaṁ yaden-amapaso adhāraya. So adhvarāya pari niyate kaviratyo na vājasātaye canohitaḥ.

When people of yajnic karma take to this Agni for service, light up the fire, raise it and feed the rising power, then it fills the earth and skies and the vast and high heavens with light and fragrance of bliss. And thus this power and presence of Agni, lord of power and bliss, poetic omniscient, treasure home of food, energy and light, is extended far and wide across the universe for the speed and success of yajna, human acts of love, non-violence and creative self-sacrifice.
Offer salutations and service in homage to Agni. Creator of food for yajna and enjoyment, leader of yajna to success, supreme giver, knower of all that is born, omnipresent lord ever on the move, watching and superintending the universal operation of law and yajna, Agni is the foremost high-priest of the dynamics of Divinity working through the forces of nature.

Three are the flames of mighty Agni shining everywhere, beautiful are they and immortal, purging, purifying and sanctifying everything. One of these they, the immortal powers of Divinity, place in the world of the mortals for their sustenance: this one is the fire and magnetic energy. The other two, electric energy and light, they carry up above to the heights of the twins, sky and the region of light and place them there.

The oblations of fragrant food offered by yajnic people into the fire intensify and sharpen like razor’s edge the catalytic and creative power of Agni, protector and promoter of the people and the imaginative visionary among them, for the refinement of their valour and brilliance. The same Agni as the fire and passion of virility goes up and down everywhere, inspires every heart and, in these worlds, bears the fetus in the womb of existence for continuance.
and promoter of the people and the imaginative visionary among them, for the refinement of their valour and brilliance. The same Agni as the fire and passion of virility goes up and down everywhere, inspires every heart and, in these worlds, bears the fetus in the womb of existence for continuance.

11. Sa jinvate jaṭhareṣu prajāṇīvān vrṣā citreṣu nānaddannaṁ siṁhaḥ. Vaiśvānaraḥ pṛthupājā amartyo vasu ratnā dayamāno vi dāśūṣe.

That Agni grows in the vital fire of living beings, germinating, evolving, mighty virile in various wonderful forms, roaring for expression like the irrepressible lion as Vaishvanara, immanent as the vital heat of living energy, fiery leader, illustrious, immortal, treasure home of life’s wealth and will to live, all round giving the jewels of existence to the generous person of yajnic performance.

Vaishvanara, vital fire of life and immanent will, ancient and eternal, rises to paradisal bliss over the heights of heaven sung and celebrated by poets of faith and imagination. Creating as ever the wealth of life for living beings, the illustrious leader goes all round by the highways of existence ever awake, without a wink of sleep.

That Agni, Vaishvanara, universal fire of life, going by the ways of Truth and universal Law, venerable, intelligent, admirable, existing and operating in the lights of spaces, which is held and sustained by the universal Vayu energy, that same Agni, wonderful in movement and achievement, bright in flames, radiant with holy light, we love, admire and worship for the sake of latest success and well-being.

We invoke, admire, worship and pray with homage and oblations to that Agni which is pure and purifying, vigorous and lovely, brilliant as light of the sun, banner of heaven, established in beauty, rising as the dawn, shining on top of heaven, irresistible and impetuous lord of majesty. We follow this lord as a torch-bearer over untrodden paths of infinity to the Sublime and the Divine.
sun, banner of heaven, established in beauty, rising as the dawn, shining on top of heaven, irresistible and impetuous lord of majesty. We follow this lord as a torch bearer over untrodden paths of infinity to the Sublime and the Divine.

Emanating the ecstasy of Ananda, universal yajna, purest power, clarion call to life unambiguous, self-controlled and all-controlling, adorable, all watching eye, infinitely various in colour and motion yet constant as light and steady as a chariot, beauty crystallized in form, inexhaustible fount of bliss for humanity, the ultimate haven of peace, the real treasure of existence: that is Agni, that we worship with homage and yajnic offerings.

Vaishvanara Agni Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

To move forward on heavenly paths of progress on firm ground, the wise offer the best of jewels as offering in the service of Vaishvanara Agni, brilliant light and blazing fire pioneer of the world and leader of the most potent order. It is Agni alone, constant and immortal power, which honours and inspires the excellencies of nature and humanity so that the eternal order and laws of existence may not be vitiating.

Agni, magnificent and powerful, moves around as a messenger of energy in heaven and earth. Creative performer and consecrated leader of humanity, it beautifies and beatifies the wide world with rays of light. It is loved and honoured by the brilliancies of nature and humanity as the very treasure home of light and intelligence.

Pious scholars and wise yajakas praise and celebrate Agni as the symbol of yajnas and yajnic success of all creative and constructive programmes of life with their thoughts, devotion and acts of worship. They dedicate their holy chants and their holy acts to Agni and the yajamana realises his ambitions of success and well-being in it and through it.

4. Pitā yajñānāmasuro vipaścitāṁ vimānamagnir-vayunam ca vāghatām. Ā viveśa rodasi bhūrivar-pasā purupriyo bhandate dhāmabhiḥ kaviḥ.

Agni is the father, generator and promoter of yajnas. It is life breath of the wise and motive power of the stars and planets. It is the aerial car of the scholars and path to bliss for the celebrants. It pervades and energises heaven and earth in many forms and, as universal favourite and illuminative light of the imagination, it is sung and celebrated in worship by virtue of its own might and majesty.

Devas, mighty powers of nature, bear Agni, and holy yajakas light and establish it here: Agni that is beautiful as the golden orb of the moon, majestic in bearing, splendid in its own law and function, omnipresent in the world, abiding in the waters and breath of air, all penetrative, instantly and constantly moving, covered in its own rays of light and lustre, all sustaining, pure crystalline concentration of beauty and wealth of existence.

6. Agnir-devebhir-manuśaśca jantubhis-tanvāno yajñam purupeśamaṁ dhiyā. Rathīr-antarīyate sādhad-iṣṭibhirjīro damūna abhiśasticātanaḥ.

Agni goes on and ever in the world on the chariot of time conducting and expanding the yajna of existence by the powers of nature and pious human beings with their karma and intelligence executing its auspicious commands. It is tempestuous, self-controlled and all-controlling, driving off opposition, calumny and negative criticism.

7. Agne jarasva svapatya āyunyurjā pinvasva samiṣo didīhi nah.Vayāṃsi jinva brhataśca jāgrva uṣigdevānāmāṃsi sukṛturvipām.

Agni, lord giver of light, life and energy, come and bless our young progeny with full age and let them abound in strength and overflow with vigour and energy.
Let us all shine with plenty to our heart’s desires. Inspire our life and age to fullness and grandeur. O lord ever wakeful and watchful, you are the darling of the brilliant and the wise for veneration and worship and the lord of yajnic good works for the scholars.

For the sake of elevation and exaltation, with food and homage, abandon and ecstasy, people praise, admire and worship Agni, lord of the common wealth of humanity, great, honourable and welcome like a learned visitor, guide and leader, inspirer of the wise and worshipful performers of the yajna of love and non-violence, eminent among the learned and the lord who knows all that is born and exists.

Agni, lord refulgent and generous, happy-warrior riding a magnificent chariot rules over lands and people by virtue of his might and majesty. We wish and pray that with our acts and conduct in the home, sustained by him, we may honour and obey the rules and laws of his making in the land ruled and sustained by him in every way.

Vaiśvānara tava dhāmānyā cake yebhiḥ svarvīdabhavo vicakṣaṇa. Jāta āprṇo bhuvaṇāni rodasī agne tā viśvā paribhūrasi tmanā.

Vaishvanara Agni, lord of light omnipresent, I love and pray for your light and splendour by which, O lord of omniscient vision, you rise to be the lord of bliss and freedom. As you rise to manifestation, you fill up and pervade the regions of earth and heaven. Agni, by virtue of your own power and presence, you are the lord supreme of all the worlds.

Vaiśvānarasya damsanābhyo brhadariṇādekaḥ svapasyayā kaviḥ. Ubbā pitarā mahayannajā- yatāgnirdyāvāpṛthivī bhūrireṣā.

By one’s earnest desire to act and rise freely, anyone of poetic vision and creative imagination attains the infinite light of heaven by virtue of the gracious power and actions of Vaishvanara, light and life of the world, anyone by the self alone, independent. Agni, lord of light and power, doing honour to both his parents and generators, rises and manifests, radiating and filling both earth and heaven with abundant light and expansive vitality.

Mandala 3/Sukta 4

Abris, Graces, Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

Agni, fire of life, lord of light, master of knowledge, guide and leader, kind and benevolent at heart, rise for us with every piece of sacred fuel offered, rise with every libation from the ladle, shine with every flame of fire and purity, and bless us with life’s wealth and generous disposition of mind and heart. Lord of brilliance and benevolence, you call the divine powers of nature and brilliant people to the yajna to meet and cooperate in creative and constructive action. You are a friend, we are friends, come with your heart and soul, join us in the yajna, and raise us to the light divine.

That yajna of ours, performed with reverence in faith and rising with the libations of ghrta, which the best of humanity and divinities of nature join thrice in the day and which Varuna the moon, Mitra the wind, and Agni the fire of life bless every day with peace, power and light, that same yajna, O Tanunapat, lord protector of physical and material world, raise to the honey sweetness and fragrance of love and kindness in society.

That universal Agni, inspiration of awareness and reflection for action, first arises in the cosmic yajaka, lord creator, and then flows in streams of awareness, universal intelligence and divine speech, to the first yajakas on earth to join in holy yajna and to worship the generous omnipotent creator with homage and yajna in faith. May that Agni, light of universal awareness, intelligence and the holy Word, conducting the cosmic yajna, loved and prayed for, flow and bless the noble humanity.

The singer is appointed in your creative yajna of love and non-violence, and the path upward is selected and taken. The flames of fire rise and touch the skies. The yajaka is seated in the centre of the vedi by the life string of heaven clothed in light and fragrance.
The light and fragrance spread over the spaces and fill the divine planes of nature.

5.  Sapta hotrāṇi manasā vrñānaṁ invanto viśvam prati yannṛtena. Nrpeśaso vidatheṣu pra jātā abhīmanāṁ yajñam vi caranta pūrvīṁ.

Seven rituals of yajna consciously and judiciously selected spread out, go round and round and fill up the world with the light of truth and cool of vapours. Born of nature in yajnas with human vitality, ancient as ever, they emanate from the vedi and roam around at their own freedom giving fresh life to yajna.

6.  Ā bhandamāne uṣasā upāke uta smayete tanvā viriupe. Yathā no mitro varuṇo jujoṣadindro marutvāṁ uta vā mahobhiḥ.

Loved and greeted by all, the twins, night and day, though different in form, come and manifest in their smiling beauty, so that Mitra, vibrations of air, Varuna, waves of water, and the mighty Indra, currents of energy, with their acts and qualities of nature, give us the pleasure of experience, (soothing, energising and exciting, but all enlightening).

7. Daivyā hotārā prathamā nyṛaṇje sapta prkṣāsah svadhayā madanti. Ṛtaṁ śaṁsanta ṛtamit ta āhurānu vratamī vrataṃ dīdyānāḥ.

I celebrate the first and foremost divine highpriests of nature in the universe, the sun and the fire. The seven ministering priests of yajna, too, together, with offers of ghrta and fragrant materials, feed and propitiate the same two. Praising and celebrating the universal Law of Nature and the waters of life, they proclaim the Law and the joy of life and, observing the rules of the Law and shining in accordance with the Law and the Truth, they exult with heavenly joy.

Come Bharati, speech bearing knowledge and education, loving and kind, with all forms of living languages and lessons for learning; come Ila, Eternal Speech Divine, the inner Light Divine, with potential knowledge of all attributes of divine and human existence; come Sarasvati, universal stream of the existential flow of eternal awareness with all the knowledge of existence. Come all three divine modes of Word and Knowledge and grace the sacred vedi of our yajna. Come here and now, threefold mother of human knowledge and speech.

O Tvashta, lord maker and refiner of forms in existence, brilliant and generous divinity, rejoicing in acts of creation and development, give us and internalise in us instant and developmental forms of that yajna which gives us the vitality of life and the science of development and sustenance through which is born a generation of youth, brave men of practical action, creative and generous, dedicated to yajnic programmes and the love of Divinity.

10. Vanaspati'va sṛjopa devānagnirhaviḥ śamitā sūdayāti. Sedu hotā satyataro yajāti yathā devānāṁ janimāni veda.

O Vanaspati, O sun, lord of light and preserver of forests, release the lights of brilliance, let the showers of light, energy and freshness come close to us and the powers of nature. Agni is the giver of peace and ripeness. It matures to fullness the sacred materials of yajna. It truly is the yajaka and the clarion call. It is true and truer to the divine law and integrates with all objects of creation since it knows the origin and character of all the bountiful powers of nature and humanity.

Agni, lord of light and fire and knowledge, guide and leader, come to us bright and blazing at the speed of energy with Indra, lord of might, and the devas, divine virtues of spirit and character on the chariot powered by sun-rays. Stay firm on our holy seats unshaken like space. Let mother earth be blest with noble children of noble action. Let the bright scholars of immortal spirit, knowledge and action rejoice with holy chant of divine speech.

Mandala 3/Sukta 5

Agni Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

Just as Agni, fire divine, light of the dawn, awakes, arises and awakens every morning, so does the man of knowledge, dynamic scholar, attaining to the positions of the men of light and vision, rise high and higher day by day and awaken the sleeping humanity.
Agni, mighty powerful, lighted and raised in the vedi by lovers of divinity, throws open the doors of light against darkness. So does the scholar, bearer and harbinger of the light of knowledge, dispel the darkness of ignorance and reveal the light of knowledge to a nation in slumber.

II. Pratyagniruṣasauscitaḥ bodhi viprasya padavāṁ kavāṁ. Prāṇavṛttaḥ devayadbhiḥ samiddho'pa dvārāvahāravahāraṇām. Prēνvērēνtasya samāḍrśāscakāṇāh sām dūto adyaudusasasā virāko. 2. 2

Just as the adorable Agni grows in heat, light and power by the chant of songs and celebration of the devotees and then this harbinger of light adorns the morning with the bright and beautiful light of the dawn, so does the sagely scholar, dedicated to the light of eternal truth, shine in the lovely light of Revelation as the messenger of light and life divine for the people.

II. Adhāyyagnirmāṇuṣīṣu vikṣvapāṁ garbho mitra ṛtena sādhan. Ā haryato yajataḥ sānvasthādabhuḍu vīpuro havyo maṁinām. 3. 3

Agni, heat and light of life, concentration of the power of action, born of the waters of space and currents of cosmic energy, friendly saviour, leader and guide to success by the laws of Truth and flow of the will to live, is established in the heart of human communities.
Bright and beautiful, loved and adored, it abides on top of values in human history. It is the sagely scholar and the dynamic leader worthy of homage and reverence for all intelligent people.

Agni rises as a friend when it is lighted and raised. As a yajaka conducting the yajna of evolution and development it is a friend. As the omniscient lord of existence and as presiding power of justice it is a friend. As the highpriest of the yajna of love and non-violence it is a friend, and as the power of inspiration and self-control it is a friend. And it is a friend as it flows with the rivers and rolls with the oceans. And finally it is a friend as it sits on top of mountains and sustains their steadiness.

Agni protects the friend and favourite, it protects the amplitude of the earth in orbit, and the flight of birds. Mighty powerful, it protects the rainbow colours of light in space and the orbit of the sun in the galaxy. Noble, elevated and sublime, it protects the pleasure and amusement of the noble people who are brilliant and generous.

\[\text{र्हुभुश्चक्रं इद्यम् चारु नाम विश्वानि दुवा वयुनानि विद्वान् ।}
\[\text{ससस्य च घृतवर्त्तंदं वस्तदिदुग्री रं गत्यर्घुच्छन् ॥ ६ ॥}

6. \(\text{र्हुश्चक्रको इद्यम्} \text{ चारु नाम विश्वानि दुवा वयुनानि विद्वान्.} \text{Sasasya carma गह्रतव्यपदा} \text{वस्तदिदानी रक्षतयप्रत्युच्छकः.}

Mighty and versatile lord of light, omnipresent in all facts, motions and laws of the universe, Agni creates the soothing and adorable fluents such as speech and waters, and guards them all wholly, without reservation, and without let up. And whether it is manifest or latent it shines charming in form like the liquid flow of water or the rising flames of ghrta from the vedi.

\[\text{आ यार्तिश्चिंग्रृह्तवर्त्तमस्थात पृथुप्रगाणमुश्चत्यमुश्चन्त: ।}
\[\text{दीर्घान्त: शुचिचित्वम् वार्तकः पुरु:पुनमातवर नव्यसी कः ॥ ७ ॥}

7. \(\text{Ā yonimaghrtavantamasthāt} \text{प्रथुप्रगाणमुश्चत्यमुश्चन्त:।} \text{Didyānaḥ} \text{सुचिर्षवः पवाकः पुनः पुनमातवर नव्यसी कः।}

Loving and brilliant Agni, as the eminent scholar, blazing pure and radiating fire, abides in the seat since birth itself, overflowing with ghrta and celestial waters, worthy of extensive songs of praise and celebration, loving and glorious, and constantly, again and again, renews, refreshes and reinforces its generators, loving parents, earth and sky.
8. Sadyo jāta oṣadhibhīravavakṣe yadī vardhanti prasvo ghṛtena. Āpa iva pravatā śumbhamānā uruṣyadagniḥ pitrorupasthe.

As soon as Agni is born, it is borne and grows, in, with, and by, the herbs which, like nursing mothers, increase it and themselves grow bright and green with the waters and sunrays flowing down. Thus does Agni, flowing like streams of life’s vitality, grow and evolve in the lap of its parents, earth and sky, the mother and the father, and thus does it preserve, protect and continue the onward flow of life.

9. Udu śṭutah samidhā yahvo adyaud varśman divo adhi nābhā prthivyāḥ. Mitro agnirīḍyo mātari-śvā’’dūto vakṣad yajathāya devān.

Agni, mighty spirit of life, raised, praised and worshipped with holy food shines over heaven and earth raining in showers from heaven on the vedi of mother earth. Friend and saviour, adorable Agni breathes in and collects the vitality of life from nature’s currents of energy and, as the very messenger of Divinity, brings the light and virtues of nature’s bounties for the lover and performer of yajna.
10. Udastambhīt samidhā nākamṛṣvo’gnirbhavana-\nnuttammo rocanānām. Yadī bhṛgubhyaḥ pari\nmātariśvā guhā santām havyāvāham samīdhe.

Mighty Agni being the highest of luminaries, living, breathing, shining and abiding as the very breath of life in the middle regions of space, holds and sustains the heavenly regions of light and bliss with its blazing light and power, for the sake of the wise and brilliant scholars of science, art and technology. It abides in the heart of every soul and in the centre of every particle of matter and every wave of energy. I pray I may also light this power that brings all the fragrant bounties of life to its devotees.

11. Iḷāmagne purudāṃsaṁ saniṁ goḥ śaśvattamaṁ\nhavamānāya sādha. Syānnaḥ sūnustanayo\nvijāvā’gne sā te sumatirbhūtvasme.

Agni, refulgent lord of light and universal breath of life, give us that transcendent vision and wisdom, that divine speech and power of action which makes everything possible in life. Give us ample land, knowledge and earthly speech of the Divine Word, most blissful which brings success to the devotee dedicated to yajna so that an exceptional generation of children and grand children may rise in the community. Agni, lord of light, we pray, such may be your favour, such may be your benign eye and goodwill toward us.
Mandala 3/Sukta 6

Agni Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

Artists, scientists, workers and experts of yajnic work of creation and development, inspired by the voice of thought and deep reflection, dedicated to the bounties of nature and Divinity, take up the yajnic activity that would lead to the divine goal of your imagination. Take up the ghrtachi, the ladle of yajnic offering full of ghrta bearing the fragrant materials to be offered into the fire of yajna as inputs, let it be potent and procreative, the abundant giver of holy reward moving in full gear and take the project forward.

2. Ā rodasī aprṇā jāyamāna uta pra rikthā adha nu prayajyo. Divaścidagne mahinā prTHivyā vacyantāṁ te vahnayaḥ saptajīhvāḥ.

O fire of cosmic yajna rising from the vedi, fill the heaven and earth with fragrance, fertility and prosperity. O yajaka, eliminate the weaknesses, exhaust the possibilities of excellence, and then retire and call it a day. And with the glory of heaven and majesty of the earth, the seven flames of fire with tongues of gold would speak for you in words loud and bold ringing across the spaces.

3. Dyauṣca tvā prthivī yajñiyāso ni hotāram sādayante damāya. Yadī viśo mānuṣīrdevayantīḥ prayasvaṭiṛiḥate sukramarciḥ.

   When the human communities in pursuit of the service and bounties of nature and the divinities of heaven and earth, worship Agni, pure, powerful and radiant in their state of abundance, prosperity and generosity, then heaven and earth, and the divinities and the yajjakas consecrate and dedicate the high-priest of the yajnic commonwealth to the law of peace and self-sacrifice.

4. Mahāntsadhaṣṭhe dhruva ā niṣatto’ntardyāvā māhine haryamāṇah. Āskre sapatnī ajare amṛkte sabardughe urugāyasya dhenū.

   Agni, the high-priest of cosmic yajna, great and gracious, is happily and firmly established in his seat in the vast and joyous dominion between heaven and earth, which both, united and cooperative rivals, unaging and uninjured, yielding the nectar-milk of the world are his generous cows.
5. Vratā te agne mahāto mahāni tava kr.tvā rodasī ā tatantha. Tvaṁ dūto abhavo jāyamāṅstvamī netā vṛṣabha carṣanīnām.

Agni, lord great and gracious, your laws and ordinances, your acts and self-discipline are greater than the greatest. By virtue of your creative and yajnic action the heaven and earth expand in glory and prosperity. Instantly on your rise you become the harbinger of peace, progress and happiness, messenger of bliss. Lord generous and potent, you are the guide and leader of the people of the world.

6. Ṛtasya vā keśinā yogābhirghṛtasnuvā rohitā dhuri dhiśva. Athā vaha devān deva viśvāntsvadhvara kṛṇuhi jātavedaḥ.

And to the steer of your chariot of the flow of existence and the Law, yoke the flaming currents of energy with the operative reins of centrifugal and centripetal forces of nature, blazing with light, and thus, O Jataveda, lord of light, knowing as you do all that is born and exists, bring in all the devas, divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity together and make them participate in the yajnic programme of the world.

7. Divāścidā te rucayanta rokā uṣo vibhāṭīranaḥ bhāsi pūrvīḥ. Apo yadagna uśadhagvaneṣu hoturmandrasya panayanta devāḥ.

Bright and blissful are your lights of heaven. You shine in the radiance of the eternal dawns of the morning. And as you blaze upon the forests with might and splendour and the vapours arise in steamy fragrance, divinities burst into song in praise of the cosmic sacrificer beaming with joy.

8. \(\text{Urau vã ye antarikše madanti divo vã ye rocane santi devãh. Õmã vã ye suhavãso yajatrã ãyemire rathyo agne aśvãh.}\)

And those who rejoice in the wide wide skies, or the shining ones who exult in the glory of the highest heavens of light, or those friendly, protective, adorable companions whose culture is cooperation and self-sacrifice, may they all, O lord of light and joy, Agni, direct their beams of light and chariot horses, like senses and intelligence, hitherward under full control.

9. \(\text{Aibhiragne sarathaÅ yœhyarvãñ nãnãrathaÅ vã vibhavo hyaśvãh. PatnãvatastrimšataÅ trïmšca devananuṣvadhamã vah mûdayasva} \) II 9 II

With these devas, come hither to us, Agni, Spirit of light and fire, knowledge and power and the ecstasy of life, come by one chariot or many. Exalted and omnipresent and expansive are your beams of light which transport your chariot over the quarters of space.
Bring along the thirty-three devas, divinities of nature and spirit, all bountiful, with all their virtues and attributes and rejoice in the beauty of life with us.

He is Agni, the cosmic sacrificer in whose honour and for whose exaltation the vast earth and high heaven sing in celebration and prayer at every yajnic programme of evolution and progress. Prime powers of the universe, both of them, like two yajna-vedis of the yajna of love and non-violence, stay and abide beautifully established in the cosmic order dedicated to truth and overflowing with vitality in the universal law of the lord himself manifested in the truth and law of eternal mother Prakrti.

Agni, lord of heaven and earth, give us, we pray, the abundance of mother earth which overflows with possibilities of action and achievement. Give us liberal gifts of cows and the universal form of speech and knowledge and lasting wealth. Make it possible for the performer of yajna. Bless us with brave and heroic children and grand children. Bless us with the favour of your kindness and benevolence under your benign eye.

Mandala 3/Sukta 7
Agni Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

Seven penetrative currents of the golden fire of divine energy radiate carrying the seven streams of sound waves and fill their generative parents, all pervasive heaven and earth. Pervaded, the generators, heaven and earth, cooperate and, to keep on the fire and flow of the voice of cosmic yajna, they sustain the life and energy of the currents a long age without end for the devotee.
of meaning and life’s wealth. In this world of truth and eternal law, O lord protector of all life and light, Agni, one energy, like a cow or the earth, goes round and round in orbit doing homage to you.

Agni, sustainer of life, lord of light and knowledge of the physical world, wielder of universal wealth, the sun, ruler of the day, rides the waves of light and energy well directed and controlled in the world of existence. And he of the blue back, the corona, multifarious of form and colour, sustains the various species of life and helps them to settle and enjoy themselves.

Strengthening and refreshing the great, creative, shaping, unaging and sustaining power of the sun, lustrous bearer of the solar system, the currents of Agni’s energy flow. Radiant in the regions of light, illuminating and invigorating with its various powers, the sun operates in heaven and earth as in one united, integrated of meaning and life's wealth. In this world of truth and eternal law, O lord protector of all life and light, Agni, one energy, like a cow or the earth, goes round and round in orbit doing homage to you.

4. महिं त्रूणमुर्जयंति रायं। व्याजेब्हिर्दियुत्सन। सधस्तो एकोब्रोडस्तो। वीव्वा।

Strengthening and refreshing the great, creative, shaping, unaging and sustaining power of the sun, lustrous bearer of the solar system, the currents of Agni's energy flow. Radiant in the regions of light, illuminating and invigorating with its various powers, the sun operates in heaven and earth as in one united, integrated organismic system in the cosmic body of the Lord Supreme.

They know the peace, comfort and joy of living under the rule and order of the generous, radiant and mighty ruler of the world, and they rejoice and sing in ecstasy, whose songs of Divinity are great and worshipful, radiant and illuminative as the light of heaven, and sublime and deep as eternity.

7. Adhvaryubhiḥ pañcabhiḥ sapta viprāḥ priyaṁ rakṣante nihitam padam veh. Prāṇco madantyukṣaṇo ajuryā devā devānāmanu hi vratā guhā.

Along with five highpriests, seven sages, divinely inspired scholars secure and maintain Agni’s dear and favourite place of worship on the vedi. The generous and powerful sagely performers, confident and untiring, facing the east, rejoice in the ritual and act in accordance with the laws and ordinances of the divinities of nature and humanity and the will of the lord of cosmic law.

8. Daivyā hotārā prathamā nyṛṇje sapta prkṣāsah svadhayā madanti. Ṛtam śaṁsanta ṛtamit ta āhuranu vratam vratapā didhyānāḥ.

I honour and reverence the two pioneer priests of divinity. Seven priests, sprinkling the vedi with water and ghrta, rejoice with the holy freedom and fragrance and their own ecstasy. Celebrating and speaking of the divine law of truth and nature, they say that the real version of law and truth is: know it, act it, this is It. And observing the law strictly in accordance with the dictates of law, rejoicing in the law, they shine in life, illuminating others too.

Eternal rays of light and bliss, controlled and well directed, rain in showers rising in power and generosity in homage to the lord sublime, transcendent, potent and most wonderful. O lord of light and wealth, high-priest of cosmic yajna, joyous and blissful, all aware and ever wakeful, bring us the light and glory and the bounties of heaven and earth here and now.

Munificent yajakas, blest with wealth of energy, blissfully vocal and highly expressive, refulgent with holy light, the dawns of divinity, rise and shine bearing the wealth of nature. And you, O lord of cosmic yajna, Agni, for the sake of the great earth and her children, with the mighty blaze of majesty, eliminate from the world whatever sin or crime or evil has ever been committed.

The holy Word and vision of Eternity, all-giving, abundance of the earth, everlasting of value, O lord of light and might of the universe, Agni, create and bless upon the supplicant yajaka. May there arise for us a generation of youth and children, dynamic and potent, and may we ever enjoy, we pray, the favours of your love and benevolence, living under your benign eye.

Mandala 3/Sukta 8

Vishvedeva Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

   Vanaspatī, lord of sunbeams and earth’s greenery, aspiring lovers of divinity celebrate you in their yajnic programmes of education, governance and administration, and economic management and production, and they honour you with the celestial presentation of honeyed words in faith. Whether you abide higher up in the heavens or lie here nestled in the folds of this mother earth’s bosom, bear and bring, we pray, the riches of existence for the supplicants.

2. Samiddhasya śrayamāṇah purastād brahma vanvāno ajaram suvīram. Āre asmadamatim bādhamāna ucchrayasva mahate saubhagāya.

   Vanaspatī, lord of light and wealth of greenery and earth’s fertility, staying firm forward and sharing the refreshing fragrance of the lighted fire, loving food and energy growth and exaltation of the spirit, keeping off vitiation of mind and intelligence far away from us, abide by us, we pray, constantly for the bliss of great good fortune and all round prosperity.

3. Ucchrayasva vanaspate varṣman pṛthivyā adhi. Sumitī miyamāno varco dhā yajñavāhase.

Guardian and protector of all round wealth of life, Vanaspati, generous giver of showers of rain and wealth of the world, abide by us, we pray, and stand guard high and firm on the earth, mapping, measuring, valuing noble intelligence, and bear and bring the light and lustre of life for the guardian and promoter of yajna.

4. Yuvā suvāsāḥ parivītas āgāt sa u śreyān bhavati jāyamānāḥ. Tam dhīrāsaḥ kavaya unnayanti svādhyo manasā devayantah.

Let the young graduate come back home, decently robed, graceful, brilliant as the rising sun, auspicious, reborn through education as a scholar. Eminent and sagely scholars, creative minds of sublime imagination, highly learned, seekers of divinity with sincere mind and soul may continue to guide and lead the scholar onward.
5. \( Jātō jāyate sudinatve aḥnāṁ samarya ā vidathe \\ vardhamānaḥ. Punanti dhīrā apaso maniṣā \\ devayā vipra udiyarti vācam. \)

The one who is born and then reborn in the holy light of auspicious days rises to eminence in the yajnic programmes and conscientious battles of practical life in action. Noble leading lights, wise and grave, veterans of action, with thought, reflection and meditation, purify and sanctify the vibrant scholar, and he rises and attains to the life and meaning of the holy Word with dedication to the pursuit of divinity among humanity.

6. \( Yān vo naro devayanto nimimyurvanaspate \\ svadhitirvā tatakṣā. Te devāsah svaravastasthivāmsaḥ prajāvadāsmē didhiṣantu ratnam. \)

O leading lights of society, those pious people in pursuit of divine virtue who love you, honour and value you, and O Vanaspati, lord of light, those whom the shaping power of Divinity has refined with knowledge and culture, may all those magnificent scholars, self-luminous in their own words, balanced and firm in judgement and wisdom, blest with people and progeny, bear and bring the jewels of life for us.

7. \( Ye vṛkñāso adhi kṣami nimitāso yatasrucaḥ. \\ Te no vyantu vāryām devatrā kṣetrasādhasaḥ. \)
Those who are exceptionally distinguished on the earth, masters of eternal and measured knowledge, devoted yajnics with the holy ladle upraised and successful in any field of knowledge and action — may those lovers of Divinity achieve and bring the most cherished wealth and values of life for us.

May the twelve Adityas, sun in the zodiacs, Rudras, ten pranic energies and the individual soul, and the eight Vasus, abodes and supports of life, heaven and earth, and the regions of the middle space, all wide and generous as earth, all divine powers of mother nature and agents of Divinity, protect and promote the yajna of life and raise our knowledge, practice and awareness of Dharma, love and non-violence.

Just as hansa birds, pure white in beautiful plume, flying in line formation, singing and rejoicing, traverse the skies, so do the Devas, brilliant scholars and generous yajna performers raised and guided by poetic teachers since ancient times, working, singing and rejoicing together, bless us and go forward by the paths of divines.

Like the horns of animals they look good and beautiful, protective. Enjoying many good things of life, hearing hymns of adoration, performing yajna with singing priests in the assembly, may holy men and distinguished scholars protect us in the battles of life on the earth.

Vanaspate, lord of sunbeams and greenery of the earth, yajnic scholar, generous giver, just as a tree grows into a hundred shoots and branches and then to a thousand, so may you grow a hundred-fold, and let us grow too into a thousand shoots and branches. And may this divine thunderbolt of fire and lightning power help you to rise and grow manifold in grandeur and all round prosperity.
Mandala 3/Sukta 9

Agni Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

Agni, lord of brilliance, friends we are, human, mortals all. We choose you as our guide and leader for the sake of protection and victory. You are immortal, imperishable in the flow of existence and the flux of karma, treasure home of good fortune, auspicious flame of inspiration, faster than light and free from sin and violence.

Agni, lord and lover of light and knowledge, giver of light and knowledge, when you go to the waters, vibrant mother sources of light and energy, that going away is not to be endured, nor to be forgotten or neglected, because while you are away, you are still near at hand with your light. Hence I have the best that is worthy of love and value from you.

The one who is very keen, thirsting for knowledge and other things of value, you speak to and bear across. Hence you are good at heart, happy and cheerful. Of those you sit with in a spirit of friendship, some go forward, others sit at peace and meditate. Yet others just sit still with you and do nothing else.

4. Īyivāṁsamati sridhaḥ śaśvatīrati saścataḥ. Anvīmavindan nicirāso adruho’psu simhamiva śritam.

Extremely patient, deeply dedicated to eternal energies, O seekers, working together without a trace of jealousy, find the fire and electric energy existing vibrantly in the currents of waters and winds and vapours in space hidden like a lion in the forest.

5. Sasṛvāṁsamiva tmanā’gnimitthā tirohitam. Enaṁ nayanmātariśvā parāvato devebhyo mathitam pari.

Active by its very nature but hidden, this Agni-energy is thus present in space. Matarishva, mighty currents of celestial and terrestrial wind from far around churn and bring this fire and electric energy to the brilliant and dedicated scholars for noble humanity.

Such as you are, Agni, carrier and harbinger of holy materials for the good life, the mortals thus receive the power through yajnic scholars for yajnic humanity, and thus do you, O youthful energy, feed and promote all creative and productive yajnic programmes of humanity with your power and operation.

That is your holy action, precious gift, O power of fire, which gratifies and advances humanity to maturity and the good life, and as even the animals in winter nights come and sit round the burning fire for relief from the cold, so do humans, O brilliant and fiery scholar, come to you and receive the light of knowledge and warmth of life against the cold and dark winter nights of ignorance.

8. Ā juhotā svadhvaram śīraṁ pāvakaśociṣam. Āśuṁ dūtamajirāṁ pratnamīḍyaṁ śṛṣṭi devaṁ saparyata.
Invoke, enlight, adore and enthusiastically serve, and immediately receive the gifts of Agni, light, energy and power of nature and Divinity: loving, nonviolent and giving, latent and omnipresent energy, pure and purifying light and fire, instantly operative, universal carrier and messenger, fast as lightning, eternal, adorable and divine.

Three hundred, three thousand, thirty, and nine Devas, principles of nature, serve this Agni. They sprinkle it with ghṛta, cover the vedi with holy grass and then afterward consecrate this high-priest of cosmic yajna on the seat for the conduct and completion of the yajna.

Mandala 3/Sukta 10

Agni Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

1. Tvāmagne maniśinaḥ samrājam carṣañiṇām. Devam marśasa indhate samadhvare.

Agni, lord self-refulgent, benign and majestic ruler supreme of the world and her children, thoughtful, reflective and meditative people light, raise and worship you in their yajnic programmes of love and non-violence in the service of humanity and the environment.
Invoke, enlight, adore and enthusiastically serve, and immediately receive the gifts of Agni, light, energy and power of nature and Divinity: loving, nonviolent and giving, latent and omnipresent energy, pure and purifying light and fire, instantly operative, universal carrier and messenger, fast as lightning, eternal, adorable and divine.

Trāṇa śaḥ sahasrāṇāya yagnā ṣaḥ sahasrāṇāya yagnin. Aṅkuṁ ghṛtaṁ rajasthān barhitrasmā diddhhotram nyasādayantat.

Three hundred, three thousand, thirty, and nine Devas, principles of nature, serve this Agni. They sprinkle it with ghrta, cover the vedi with holy grass and then afterward consecrate this high-priest of cosmic yajna on the seat for the conduct and completion of the yajna.

Mandala 3/Sukta 10

Agni Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

2.

Tvāṁ yajñeshvrtvijamagnē hotāramīlate.
Gopaḥ ṛtasya ādihi sva dame.

Agni, holy men, observers and guardians of Rtam, the cosmic law of truth, worship you in their yajna and celebrate you as the high-priest and performer of the universal yajna of creation. O lord, bless them to shine with the light of knowledge in the world which is the very home of the law of truth and rectitude.

3.

Sa ghā yaste dadāśati samidhā jātavedase.
So agne dhatte suvīryam sa puṣyati.

Agni, lord self-refulgent, benign and majestic ruler supreme of the world and her children, thoughtful, reflective and meditative people light, raise and worship you in their yajnic programmes of love and non-violence in the service of humanity and the environment.

4.

Sa keturadhvarāṇāmagnirdevebhīrā gamat.
Aṅjānah sapta hotṛbhīrhāvishmate.

Agni, that rising fire of the yajnas of love and non-violent creation, raised by seven divine performers, i.e., five pranas, one mind and one intellect, or, five priests and the yajamana couple, comes as a flaming messenger proclaiming the liberal gifts of yajna for the person who offers fragrant libations of holy materials into the fire. Agni comes with gifts and the devas, divinities of nature and humanity.

5. Pra hotre pūrvyaṁ vaco ’gnaye bharatā bṛhat.
   Vipāṁ jyotīṁṣi bibhrate na vedhase.

   O wise saints and scholars, just as you offer fragrant oblations to Agni, lord ordainer of the world who wields the wide spaces and bears the lights of brilliant stars inspired with the spirit of divinity, so offer the gift of the supreme eternal voice of Divinity to the yajamana performer who bears in faith the lights of inspired sages.

6. Agniṁ vardhantu no giro yato jāyata ukthyaḥ.
   Mahe vājāya draviṇāya darśataḥ.

   For the sake of great energy and wealth of life, let our voices rise, and exalt and celebrate Agni, lord of light and omniscience, blissful vision of Eternity, whence arises the sagely scholar, admirable gift of Agni’s, whose very sight is holy and auspicious for the attainment of strength and real wealth of life.

7. Agne yajiṣṭho adhvare devān devayate yaja.
   Hotā mandro vi rājasyati sridhaḥ.

   Agni, in the yajna, creative programme of love and non-violence, you are the most adorable. Bring the devas, holy divinities, for the yajamana who loves to be with the divinities. You are the giver and performer, happy giver of happiness, over-shining and over-winning the stingy and selfish uncreators.

Agni, fire of yajna, such as you are, give us the light and make us shine. Bring us valour and lustrous energy with the light of wisdom and knowledge. For the celebrants, be at the closest for the sake of well-being and the bliss of life.

Thus do the sagely scholars, holy celebrants, ever wide awake, light, raise and exalt Agni, carrier and harbinger of holy fragrances of life and yajna, immortal power, creator and giver of greater and ever higher strength and courage and patience.

Mandala 3/Sukta 11
Agni Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi
1. Agnirhotā purohitō’dhvarasya vicarṣaṇīḥ.
   Sa veda yajñamānuṣak.

One who invokes, lights and raises the fire of yajna, leads the yajna with love for the welfare of all, closely watches the yajna free from violence, jealousy and ill-will, conducts the yajna continuously, and persistently, he knows the secret, mystery and benefits of yajna. He is Agni, brilliant, fiery, and a pioneer.

2. Sa havyavālamartya uṣigdītaścanohitaḥ.
   Agnirdhiyā samṛṇvati.

He, carrier of holy yajnic offerings, immortal, charming, messenger of fragrance, lover of the food of yajna for all, Agni, moves forward by virtue of his own light and intelligence.

3. Agnirdhiyā sa cetati keturyajñasya pūrvyāḥ.
   Arthaṁ hyasya taraṇī.

That Agni knows and is known by his own intelligence and action. He is the most ancient banner of yajna. His sole aim and purpose is to be a saviour, a redeemer.

4. Agnim sūnumi sanuśrutam sahaso jātavedasam.
   Vahnim deva akṛṇvata.
All ye noble and brilliant sages and scholars, Agni is potent, child of courage and patience, famous of old, and he knows all that is born. Elect him as the leader, bearer of the yajnic business of the world to carry the fragrance of yajna all round.

5. Adābhyaḥ pura etā viśamagnirmānuṣīṇām. Tūrṇī rathaḥ sadā navah.

Irrepressible and indestructible, going forward in front of the people, fiery leader of the nation, instant starter, torch bearer of humanity and warrior, ever new: such is Agni, pioneer and leader.

Patient yet most irresistible of all the front rank people, most enlightened of the noble and generous, inviolable, Agni is well read and most renowned leading light.

By virtue of the leading light of Agni, the generous man who gives in yajnic action gets his objects of desire, and from the rising flames of holy fire as by virtue of the scholar’s brilliance of knowledge, he gets a haven of peace.

May we, inspired and enlightened yajakas, with sincere prayers, worship and do yajna to get all the benevolent and gracious gifts of Agni, lord omniscient of existence.

Agni, lord of light and yajna fire, may we receive and share, we pray, all the chosen objects of desire and wealth of the world in our battles of life. Holy men of knowledge and dedication inspire us to pray and worship you.

Mandala 3/Sukta 12

Indragni Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

1. Indrāgni ā gataṁ sutāṁ gīrhirnabho vareṇyam. Asya pātaṁ dhiyeṣītā.

Indra and Agni, lord of might and lord of light, brilliant and blazing like thunder and lightning, come to this child worthy of love and choice, come with voices from the heavens and inspire the darling with intelligence and passion for action.

\[
\text{Indrāgni jārituḥ sacā yajñō jīgāti cetanaḥ.}
\]
\[
\text{Ayu pātamimīṃ sutam.}
\]

2. Indrāgni jārituḥ sacā yajñō jīgāti cetanaḥ.
   Ayu pātamimāṃ sutam.

   Indra, lord of wealth and power, Agni, lord of light and knowledge, friends of the supplicant celebrant, the child is yajña, worthy of love, dedication and consecration, sensitive and intelligent, and moves forward to learn. Nurture him with the holy voice and the Word.

\[
\]
\[
\text{Ta śāmśyanāḥ tṛṃpatām.}
\]

3. Indramagnīṃ kavičchādā yajñasya jūtya vrūṇa.
   Ta śāmśyanāḥ tṛṃpatām.

   I choose Indra and Agni, both patrons and promoters of poets, with holy enthusiasm such as the fire of yajña. May they both come here, have a drink of soma, and bless the child.

\]
\[
\]

4. Tośā vṛtraḥpanā huve sajitvānāparājītā.
   Indrāgni vājasātamā.
unconquered, winners of the highest order of prizes.

5.  Pra vāmarcantyukthino nīthāvido jaritāraḥ.

Indrāgni iṣa ā vṛṇe.

Indra and Agni, the singers of hymns, pioneers of highways and celebrants honour and worship you. I choose to celebrate you for the sake of sustenance, support and energy.

6.  Indrāgni navatīṁ puro dāsapatnīrathūnūtam.

Indra and Agni, shake up, inspire and arouse with a single clarion call the ninety fortresses yonder of the allied and supporting forces of the benevolent ruler of the republics.

7.  Indrāgni apasasparyupa pra yanti dhītayah.

Indra and Agni, lord of power and lord of light and law, the pioneer forces of action and reflection go forward, all round, and close to the target, following the paths of truth and law of rectitude. (Swami Dayanand interprets Indra and Agni as wind and electric energy of space, and the movements of this energy in waves directed to the targets of purpose).
Indrāgni taviṣāṇi vāṃ sadhasthāni prayāṃsi ca. Yuvoraptūryam hitam.

Indra and Agni, your forces, strategic concentrations of the forces deployed and collective resources, are well disposed, and integrated, and your zeal for making a move is instantaneous, everything being just at hand.

Indrāgni rocanā divaḥ pari vājeṣu bhūṣathaḥ. Tad vāṃ ceti pra vīryam.

Indra and Agni, you are the light and fire of heaven and you shine all round in the battles of life. And that brilliance proclaims your power and splendour.

Mandala 3/Sukta 13

Agni Devata, Rshabha Vaishvamitra Rshi

Pra vo devāyāgnaye barhiṣṭhamarcāsmai. Gamad deverbhīrā sa no yajiṣṭho barhīrā sadat.

Offer honour and yajnic oblations in worship to Agni, this lord of light and knowledge, who pervades the spaces of the universe, so that he, the lord most adorable, may come with the bounties of nature for you and us all, and he may grace the seats of our yajna and help us rise to the heights of heavenly virtue.

2. Rtāvā yasya rodasī dakṣam sacanta ītayah. Haviśmantas-tamīłate tam sanīṣyanto’vase.

   Devotees human and divine dedicated to the law of the universe, Rtam, and even the heaven and earth and protective forces of nature, obey and participate in the expertise and perfection of systemic existence. Hence the devotees bearing fragrant offerings for yajna and seekers of protection, all these, worship him, i.e., Agni, for favour of joy and fulfilment.

3. Sa yantā vipra eśām sa yajñānāmathā hi śaḥ. Agniṁ tam vo dvusvayata dātā yo vanitā magham.

   All wise, Agni is the guide of all these seekers and devotees. And he alone is the guide of the yajnas and yajnic programmes of humanity, he is the giver of fulfilment. That Agni, all of you serve and worship. He only is the giver: his is the wealth of the universe, he gives the wealth of honour, prosperity and fulfilment.

4. Sa nah śarmāṇi vītaye’gniryacchatu śaṅtamā. Yato nah pruṣṇavad vasu divi kṣitibhyo apsvā.

   Agni, lord of light and knowledge, peace and bliss, may, we pray, lead us all to havens of peace for well being and the joy of life, to homes wherein and where from may flow for the people of the world showers of wealth all round abounding in the light of the sun, streams of waters, currents of energy in space and the vibrations of pranas.

Devotees of the Rks, divine revelations and human reflections of light and knowledge, with creative imagination and productive efforts in action, research into the gifts of Agni and light the fire, radiant energy, inexhaustible and ever new, master performer of cosmic yajna and sustainer of the people of the world.

6. Uta no brahmannaviṣa uktheṣu devahūtataṁ. Šaṁ no śocā marudvṛdho ’gne sahasrasātataṁ.

Agni, lord and light of infinity, let us flow with infinity. Lord most invoked by brilliant people and adored by divine powers of nature, let us advance into celebrations and service of Divinity. Lord adored and exalted by the Maruts, dynamic people and the winds, let peace shine on us and let us shine in peace. Agni, you are the giver of a thousand blessings.

Agni, lord of a thousandfold energy, power, progeny, growth and wealth, and light of knowledge, give us manly vigour, valour and honour in showers of undiminishing abundance without reserve.

Mandala 3/Sukta 14

Agni Devata, Rshabha Vaishvamitra Rshi

Versatile leader, messenger of joy, Agni sustains the projects of creation and production. Truest of the true, master of unifying applications, he is an imaginative thinker and a skillful creator. Child of energy itself, he travels by chariots run by electricity. His hair radiate fire and he brings the light of heaven to illuminate the planes of earth.

1. Ā hotā mandro vidathānyasthāt satyo yajvā kavitamah sa vedhāḥ. Vidyudrathah sahasasputro agnih śociśkeśaḥ pṛthivyāṁ pājo aśret.

O scholar of the laws of nature and natural energy, lord of knowledge, power, courage and patience, I come to you, accept my homage and salutations. Venerable yajaka, you speak to the scholars, and you reach and stay in the midst of the skies for the sake of protection and progress.

2. Ayāmi te namauktim juṣasva rtāvastubhyāṁ cetate sahasvaḥ. Vidvāṁ ā vaksi viduşo ni ṣatsi madhya ā barhirūtaye yajatra.

O scholar of the laws of nature and natural energy, lord of knowledge, power, courage and patience, I come to you, accept my homage and salutations. Venerable yajaka, you speak to the scholars, and you reach and stay in the midst of the skies for the sake of protection and progress.

3. Dravatāṁ ta uṣāsā vājayanī agne vātasya pathyābhiraccha. Yat sīmañjanti pūrvyāṁ havir-bhirā bandhureva tasthaturduroṇe.

Agni, brilliant scholar, the lights of the dawn bearing fresh energy and power radiate to you by beautiful paths of the winds and shine in the house where, like experts of design and structure, with new materials, they refine the earlier model of the chariot for you.

Agni, lord of might, child of energy, valour and patience, friends, best people of judgement and leading lights and powers of the world offer homage to you and wish you all well since, a very sun among humanity, raising regions of the earth to the heights and promoting the nations’ joy and welfare, you shine with your brilliance and abide with them, radiating light.
5. Vayaṁ te adya rarimā hi kāmam-uttānahastā nāmasopasadayā. Yajiṣṭhena manasā yaksi deva-nasredhatā manmanā vipro agne.

Agni, vibrant master of knowledge, with hands raised in respect and bearing cherished gifts of homage, we come and offer our reverence and adorations to you since you join the brilliant leaders and scholars of humanity with your reverential mind and share your unerring knowledge of arts and sciences with pleasure with all of them.

From you alone, O lord sanctifier of the power of knowledge, flow all round eternal sciences, forces and ways of protection revealed by the Lord Omniscient and Omnipotent. And you give us, we pray, the real knowledge, sure and true, of a thousand things and values with words and a disposition of mind full of love, untouched by jealousy.

7. Tubhyaṁ dakṣa kavikrato yānīmā deva martāso adhvare akarma. Tvaṁ viśvasya surathasya bodhi sarvam tadagne amṛta svadeha.
Immortal Agni, brilliant scholar, expert scientist, imaginative creator and master of pious action, whatever we mortal do and offer you in this holy yajnic programme of creation, construction and development, taste the pleasure of all that here and now. Awake, arise and know this entire world riding the beautiful chariot, and let all that be known to the entire world on the wheels of progress.

Mandala 3/Sukta 15

Agni Devata, Utkeela Katya Rshi

1. Vi pājasā prthunā śośucāno bādhasva dviṣo rakṣaso amīvāh. Suśarmaṇo bṛhataḥ śarmanī syāmagnerahaṁ suhavasya praṅitau.

   Agni, lord of light and fire, radiant purifier with intense expansive heat and light of lustre, resist, repel and keep off all infections and cancerous evils of jealousy and destructive force of enmity, so that I may live at ease in comfort in a happy home under the blessed rule and order of the great lord of peace, protection and yajnic progress across the wide world.

2. Tvam no asyā uṣasos vyuṣṭau tvam sūra udite bodhi gopāh. Janmeva nityam tanayam juṣasva stomam me agne tanvā sujāta.
At the break of dawn and sun rise, let me awake into light and life anew, O lord protector and sustainer. Like a father and sustainer, ever love and protect the child as a baby at birth. Agni, blest of body-form, and nobly risen as you are, listen to my prayer and accept my song of praise and worship.

3. Tvaṁ nṛcaksā vṛṣabhānu pūrvīḥ krṣṇāsvagne aruṣo vi bhāhi. Vaso nesi ca parṣi cātyaṁhāḥ kṛdhī no rāya uśijo yaviśṭha.

Agni, bright and benevolent in flames of fire, all watchful over humanity and their performance, radiant, virile and generous, shine in the darkest of the dark and enlighten even the most primitive children of nature. Lord most youthful in command of light and virtue who lead and purge us of sin and impurity, take the aspirants to the noblest wealth they love.

4. Aṣālho agne vṛṣabho didīhi puro viśvāḥ saubhagā saṁjigīvān. Yajñasya netā pratha-masya pāyor-jātavedo brhataḥ supraṇīte.

Invincible Agni, generous and brave, shine and be victorious, and let all the cities of good fortune and prosperity shine and proclaim your acts of glory, being, as you are, leader, conductor and guardian of the first great, protective and promotive yajna of the Brahmacharya period of education and preparation for life, master of the knowledge of existence, teacher and pioneer of the noblest ways of living.

5. Acchidrā śarma jaritaḥ purūṇi devāṁ acchā didyānaḥ sumedhāḥ. Ratho na sasnirabhi vakṣi vājamagne tvamī rodasī naḥ sumeke.

   Agni, lover, admirer and worshipper of Truth, Divinity and virtues and divinities of existence, wise and shining with knowledge, just as the sun illuminates the earth and regions of space, so, like a well-built chariot, bring us the knowledge of science and speed and bless us with brilliant scholars and faultless homes of peace and prosperity.

6. Pra pīpaya vṛṣabha jinva vājānagme tvamī rodasī naḥ sudoghe. Devebhirdeva surucā rucāno mā no martasya durmatiḥ pariṣhat.

   Agni, generous lord of science and power, fill our life to the full, inspire our strength and vigour, speed and energy to overflowing just as the sun fills the heaven and earth with light. O lord of light resplendent with the stars, bless us with light so that no ill-will of the mortals, no dark intention and motive may ever touch us, much less abide with us.
Agni, lord of light and power, wealth and vitality of existence, master of science and divinity, bless the celebrant yajaka with that divine speech and vision, and that abundant share of earthly prosperity which is versatile and of eternal value. Make that possible for us so that we may be blest with youthful and victorious generations of children and grand children and we may ever enjoy the favour of your benign eye and gracious disposition.

Mandala 3/Sukta 16
Agni Devata, Utkeela Katya Rshi

Agni, the ruler, rules strength and power, heroes and warriors of the world, rules the greatness and grandeur of good fortune, rules the wealth of nations, rules the families blest with children of noble character, rules the master of cows, land, and knowledge and language, and rules and controls those who destroy the darkness of ignorance and hoarders of wealth.
2. Imam naro marutah saścatā vṛdham yasmin rāyah ševṛdhāsaḥ. Abhi ye santi pṛtanāsu duḍhyo viśvāhā śatrumadabhuh.

Ye leaders of the good and noble citizens, heroes vibrant as winds and people of the land, join, serve and cooperate with this eminent and exalted ruler and support his order in which exist abounding wealths of the nation, and in which warriors unchallengeable in battle who rout and humiliate the enemies are ever standing on guard.

Agni, generous ruler, blessed lord of power and glory, increase, refine and govern the wealth and power of the virile, generous, powerfully manned, healthy and prosperous nation.

4. Cakriryō viśvā bhuvanābhi sāsahiscakrirdevesvā duvah. Ā deveṣu yatata ā suvīrya ā śaṁsa uṭa nṛṇām.

The lord of action wields and governs all regions of the world, he is the adorable sustainer among all the divine powers, he inspires life and passion among the noblest of humanity, and he is the object of admiration and the very life of the courage and valour of the people.

5. Mā no agne’mataye māvīratāyai rīradhāḥ.
Māgotāyai sahasasputra mā nide’pa dveṣāṁsyā kṛdhi.

Agni, lord of light and power, abandon us not to poverty and intellectual disability, leave us not to cowardice, let us not suffer from debility of the senses, and subject us not to insult and calumny. Ward off all jealousy and enmity from us.

Sām rāyā bhūyasā sṛja mayobhunā tuvidyumna yaśasvatā.

Agni, lord of knowledge, wealth and power, gracious and prosperous, rise high in extensive programmes for the growth of food and energy, and human and social development, and enable us too to rise and be strong. O lord of prosperity and honour, grace us with plentiful, honourable and blissful wealth and help us rise on and on.
1. Samidhyāmānāḥ prathamānu dharmaṁ samaktu-bhirajyate visvavārah. Śocīskeśo ghṛtanirṇik pāva kah̄ suyajño agniryajathāya devān.

Agni, the holy fire that purifies and sanctifies, lighted and raised in accordance with ancient original Dharma, served in conjunction with morning and evening, becomes universally adorable. And radiant in flames in shining robes of ghrta-light, splendid metaphor of yajna, it rises as a clarion call to the divine bounties of Nature.

2. Yathāyajo hotramagnē pṛthivyā yathā divo jātavedāścikītvān. Evānena haviśa yakṣi devān manuṣvad yajñam pra tiremamadya.

O universal fire of life, living light of cosmic intelligence, Agni, coexistent with everything that is born, O high-priest of yajna, as you enact the yajna and offer the havi to call and invite the bounties of earth and heaven, similarly by this offer of oblations call the bounties of heaven and earth and invite the brilliances of humanity, and let this yajna of ours be accomplished as the yajna of a thoughtful and conscientious person.

Agni, omnipresent lord of knowledge and life’s vitality, co-eval with existence, three are your lives: magnetic energy and fire on earth, electric energy and wind in the skies, and light in the solar region. You are the vital heat of the body, will, passion and thought of the mind, and vision and imagination of the soul. Three are your motherly seats of existence and operation: earth, sky and heaven of the cosmos, and the body, mind and soul of the individual. And three are the times of your operation: day and light, night and cold, and twilights of the morning and evening. With these orders of three, O master of knowledge, bring life and protection to the noble and generous people, and then be the harbinger of peace and joy to the yajamana.

We celebrants and devotees of the lord of light and refulgence offer our homage and salutations to you, Agni, fire of cosmic yajna, splendid light, beautiful of form, adorable and coeval of all that is born in existence.
Noble, generous and brilliant sages and scholars reveal you, Agni, as the messenger of good news, harbinger of good fortune, carrier of the fragrance of life, and the very generative seat and sustaining column of the nectar of life and the freedom of Moksha. And the creative scholars and scientists recreate you as the power and energy source of wealth and the comfort and welfare of life.

5. Yastvaddhotā pūrvo agne yajiyān dvitā ca sattā svadhayā ca sāmbhuh. Tasyānu dharma prā yajā cikitvo ’thā no dhā adhvaram devavītau.

O primeval fire, Agni, creative vitality of Prakṛti, as the first Lord of bliss and well being, original and eternal Creator, performing the yajna of creation, manifesting as consort with you, at the cosmic vedi conducts the yajna, similarly, O intelligent sacrificer, in pursuance of the same creator’s law of Dharma, carry on the yajna and take it high to the state of divine beauty and joy of life for us.

Mandala 3/Sukta 18
Agni Devata, Kata Vaishvamitra Rshi

MANDAL - 3 / SUKTA - 17 1133 1134 RGVEDA

Agni, master of yajna, sagely scholar, high-priest of social dynamics, be kind at heart to come to us, like a friend in company, good as a father and mother, and with the heat of love and creativity, burn off the negativities, contradictions and adversities of humanity, the various forces of jealousy and enmity acting against the people.

Agni, bright and blazing lord of discipline and austerity, burn off the enemies within, season and purify the praise and appreciation of the non-violent devotee of higher order. O scorcher of evil and shelter of the good, lord of light and knowledge, arouse the unaware and ignorant, and may your dynamic yajakas live a long age strong and youthful.

Agni, lord of light and knowledge, desirous of having superlative strength of body, mind and soul, I offer libations of yajna with holy fuel and ghrta, singing in praise of the lord with holy mantras and praying, as far as I can, for this divine light of intelligence for the attainment of a hundredfold good fortune.

उच्चोचिष्ठा सहस्सपुत्र स्तुता बृहद्वर्यः शाशामान्तु धाहि। रवद्वर विश्वामित्रशु शं यामृत्युष्या ते तन्वं प्रभृति कृत्वेः। ॥ ४ ॥

Agni, spirit of power and courage, holding immense wealth of life, rising with light and lustre and served and worshipped with divine verses, bear, bring and in-vest good health, long age and ample wealth, peace and freedom among the zealous celebrants and lovers and favourites of entire humanity. Lord of great action, we refine and brighten your form and potential more and ever more.

कृद्धि रत्नं सुसमन्तरानां स घर्द्ध्र भवसि यत्समिर्द्धः।
स्तातुदृशरण सुभागस्य रवत्सृपा करस्ता दधिष्ठि वपूर्षिः। ॥ ५ ॥

Agni, lord of wealth, give us the jewel of wealth, generous giver as you are specially when lighted up in yajna. O lord of the wealth of existence, bearing a brilliant form in the house of the prosperous worshipper, you extend your generous hand to the supplicants.
Mandala 3/Sukta 19

Agni Devata, Gathi Kaushika Rshi

In this yajna of creation and development I chose to elect Agni as the highpriest and guide yajaka, adoring worshipper, revolutionary thinker, eminent scholar, and wise, who, while organising the yajna, would invoke the brilliancies of humanity and bounties of nature and, for the seeker of wealth and knowledge, create and provide the wealth and prosperity desired.

Agni, lord and highpriest of yajna, I come forward to you in peace and faith and raise the holy ladle full of fragrant havi, rich and splendid, overflowing with ghrta, just as a faithful performer, extending divine service to expand nature’s bounties, takes to yajna going round the fire with excellent liberal offerings.

Devas, noble people, consecrate you in your

Lord of light, Agni, happy is the person that loves you, comes to you with a brilliant mind thirsting for knowledge and protection. Master of knowledge, impart the knowledge as to your own dear child. Lord of wealth, leader of the best people, may we live happy and prosperous, worshipfully under your kind dispensation.

Agni, lord of light, many are the flames of fire which devout celebrants have raised in the vedi, many the fighting forces which dedicated followers have raised under your governance. As such, O lord most youthful, bear and bring that divine beneficence of protection and security for which today you call and conduct a yajnic team of scholars in pursuit of a noble force and power of defence.

6. Yat tvā hotāramanajan miyedhe niśādayanto yajathāya devāḥ. Sa tvam no agne’viteha bodhya-dhi śravāṁsi dhehi nastanūṣu.

Devas, noble people, consecrate you in your rightful seat for the conduct of yajna and celebrate you as the highpriest and chief performer. So you, Agni, lord of light and knowledge, leader of the people, guide and protector, lead us to light and awakening, and bless us and our descendants with food, energy and channels of progress for our body, mind and soul.

Mandala 3/Sukta 20

Agni, Vishvedeva Devata, Gathi Kaushika Rshi

In the lights of the morning, Vayu, cosmic energy that holds the universe, calls up and awakens the fire of Agni, light of the dawn, the Ashvins, complementary currents of solar and lunar energy, and the gravitational force with songs of the morning hymns vibrating in spaces. So does the highpriest, conductor of morning yajna, invoke and serve Agni, divine fire, the lights of the dawn, pranic energies and the earth’s gravitation with hymns of the Veda. May the Devas, bounties of nature and brilliances of humanity, all of holy light and knowledge, loving and shining the yajna, listen to our prayers.

Note: The allegory of cosmic fire energy is beautifully explained in Chhandogya Upanishad 5, 4-8, and in Brhadaranyaka Upanishad 6, 9-13.

Swami Dayananda also interprets Agni as the sagely scholar whose three media of existence are jnana, gamana and prapti, i.e., knowledge, expression and movement, and attainment and acquisition. We might add in the same vein that his three seats of origin are the parental home of natural birth, the teacher’s home of educational and cultural birth and the family home of professional birth. Of course, after retirement his life is lived in an open social and universal home of no dimensions and no boundaries.

Agni, divine energy of the cosmos, three are your media: radiation, conduction and gravitation; three your seats: solar region, middle region and the earthly region (dyu loka, antariksha loka and prthivi loka); three your tongues: light, thunder and greenery; O power eternal, risen from the cosmic law of Rtam. Three are your forms: day, lightning and night, energised by nature; and three your sacred fuels: solar particles of energy, vapours and fertility of the earth. Agni, divine fire, protect and nourish our tongue and speech seriously without relent or reserve.

Agni is the leader and mover, like the sun, of the living beings and the planets such as the earth and other regions of the universe. He is the lord of all divine powers and forms of existence. He is the ordainer and sustainer of the cycle of the seasons, and the creator, controller and sustainer of the laws of nature, truth and rectitude. He is the destroyer of darkness, ignorance and evil and eternal omniscient lord of existence. May the lord purge the celebrant worshipper of all the dirt of thought and action of the material world.

1. Imaṁ no yajñamamṛteṣu dhehīma havyā jātavedo juṣasva. Stokānāmagne medaso ghṛtasya hotaḥ prāśāna prathamo niṣadya.

Agni, lord of light, accept this yajnic performance of our knowledge, action and meditation, charity and social action, take it high up and establish it among the immortals. O lord omniscient of all in existence, take and taste these offerings of ours and bless us. First, foremost and most excellent lord of knowledge, Agni, seated on the vedi, chief yajaka and generous giver, taste of the fragrance of the delicacies, ghrta and oils offered into the fire.
Pavaka, purifying fire of yajna, the finest delicacies soaked in ghṛta, tender and unctuous, stream forth and rise in fragrance. Taste these, bring us the loveliest gifts of our choice and let us be established in our universal Dharma for the company of the divinities of nature and humanity.

Agni, intelligent and vibrant scholar of distinction between truth and untruth, right and wrong, Dharma and adharma, Shraddha and ashraddha, yajnic delicacies sprinkled with ghṛta trickle and stream forth for you. Seer, visionary diviner into the truth of Veda, best of scholars, you light the fire and are inspired by the fire. Be the saviour of yajna, take it to success for us.

Agni, vital heat and support of life, we offer you in the centre of the vedī the most lustrous delicacies held high in care and esteem. The finest delicacies trickle and stream on your flames. Take these and raise them to the divine powers of nature wherever each should rise.

Agni, seer of mantras, genius scholar of divine vision, for you stream forth the juices and fragrances of yajnic delicacies of ghṛta and creams. Celebrated by poets, going by the sublimity of the sun, adorable in yajna, accept and taste the honey sweets of our yajna.

Agni, vital electric energy, in which Indra, lord of power and passion, thirsting for the joy of living, concentrates soma, essence of peace, power and joy, distilled and placed in the heat of the stomach,

Mandala 3/Sukta 22

Purushya Agni Devata, Gathi Kaushika Rshi

This is that Agni, vital electric energy, in which Indra, lord of power and passion, thirsting for the joy of living, concentrates soma, essence of peace, power and joy, distilled and placed in the heat of the stomach, navel of the body system. O Jataveda, vital fire of energy present in everything that is born in the world of existence, holding and sharing a thousandfold power, moving and reaching anywhere like a tempestuous horse, you are loved and adored everywhere.

Agni, lord of light and power, loving, emanating and sharing the life of everything in existence, your splendour that shines in the light of heaven, breathes on the earth, reflects in the greenery of the herbs, and rolls in the waters of space and oceans, and by which the skies and spaces grow far and farther, that splendour and glory is the blazing sun, the deep ocean and the light of the eye for humanity.

Agni, you move and magnificently pervade the particles of the light of heaven. You rise and do honour to the divinely pious and benevolent people and the generous powers of nature. And you pervade and energise the oceans of vapour in the light beyond the sun and those oceans which are below in the sky.

May the Bharatas, the producer and the manager of mighty generous Agni, fire and electric power, treasure giver of wealth, inspired by vibrations of the imagination and listening to the noble senior scholars, produce, develop and manage the light, power and gifts of Agni. O lord of light, power and fire, Agni, look after us with a benign eye and with vast and abundant wealth and values of life, and be our guide and leader of the productive yajnas for food and energy every day as we advance in research and endeavour.

Devashrava, scholar in conference with eminent pioneers of research, honour and advance the eternal energy, agni, which ten rapidly successive movements of action, like the nimble fingers, ever generate. It is lovely and nobly born, latent in motherly sources such as wood and streams of water, produced and developed by sagely scholars, and under the management and control of the people.

Agni, lover of light and master of knowledge, along with all the brilliant saints and sages of the world, love, respect and exalt the voices of Divine Revelation and honour those who abide by these with reverence and faith in yajnic acts of creation and self-sacrifice.

5. Agne dā dāśuṣae rayinī vīravantam pariṇasam. Śiśīhi naḥ sūnumataḥ.

Agni, lord of light and life of life, give to the man of charity and yajna wealth of the world in abundance and bless him with brave children. And, we pray, blest with children as we are, strengthen, sharpen and brighten us in our life.

Mandala 3/Sukta 25

Agni, Indragni Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

1. Agne divaḥ sūnurasi pracetāstanā prthivyā uta viśvavedāḥ. Rdhag-devān iha yajā cikitvah.
Agni, brilliant lord of knowledge, you are a child of the light of heaven, wide awake and universally aware, future of the extensive earth, scholar of world knowledge. Master of encyclopaedic learning, bring together the eminent and generous scholars of the world and distinctively serve and develop each one of the gifts of nature.

2. Agniḥ sanoti vīryāṇi vidvāntsanoti vājamamṛtāya bhūṣan. Sa no devāṇ eha vahā purukṣo.

O generous and versatile lord of light and knowledge, just as Agni provides valour and honour for creativity and, enlightening the world, provides the spirit and energy for the attainment of immortality, may you, we pray, bring us here the company and gifts of the brilliant, generous and wise sagely scholars.

3. Agnirdyāvāpṛthivī viśvajanye ā bhāti devī amṛte amūraḥ. Kṣayan vājaiḥ puruścandro namobhiḥ.

Agni, lord all wise, free from darkness and ignorance, giver of immense bliss, illuminates the heaven and earth, mother sustainer of the world, divine and immortal, providing food and sustenance, spirit and energy, and living space for the children of the earth.

Agni, lord and light of knowledge, you and Indra, lord of vigour and energy, noble and generous, both, guarding and promoting the yajnic human endeavours for creation and production, may, we pray, come to the house of the generous yajaka, creating the soma of joy and prosperity and sit at the yajna to enjoy the fragrance and flavour of the soma. Come, lords, without delay.

We Kushikas, i.e., teachers and researchers in search of the wealth and values of nature and life, bearing fragrant offerings for yajna and inputs for the programme, having analysed and determined the specific nature, character and action of Vaishvanara Agni, with our mind and reason, invoke, invite, enkindle and raise this global power, divine fire and life’s vitality of the earth and her children, universally operative in accordance with the laws of cosmic truth, source of infinite happiness and comfort, generous giver, brilliant light, fast as the bright-rays of energy, loud and bold, and delightful for any seeker to perceive, and we celebrate this Agni with our holiest voices of faith and joy.

We, people dedicated to research and yajnic meditation, invoke, enkindle, raise and develop Agni for the sake of divine virtues for noble humanity, Agni which is bright and blazing, vitality of the world, breath of the winds, worthy of celebration. It is Brhaspati, lord of mighty stars and planets. It is Vipra, vibrant voice of the universe: It is intelligent and omniscient, listening to prayers, worthy as a learned visitor, and it is ever in motion faster than the fastest.
We Kushikas, i.e., teachers and researchers in search of the wealth and values of nature and life, bearing fragrant offerings for yajna and inputs for the programme, having analysed and determined the specific nature, character and action of Vāishvanara Agni, with our mind and reason, invoke, invite, enkindle and raise this global power, divine fire and life's vitality of the earth and her children, universally operative in accordance with the laws of cosmic truth, source of infinite happiness and comfort, generous giver, brilliant light, fast as the bright-rays of energy, loud and bold, and delightful for any seeker to perceive, and we celebrate this Agni with our holiest voices of faith and joy.

Valuable and self-proclaiming radiant Vaishvanara Agni, vital fire of the world, ever awake in the immortal brilliances of the world of existence, roused like a horse by the mates, is kindled and raised by holy celebrants from age to age, year by year. May this radiant energy bear and bring for us the jewels of heroic vigour and tempestuous speed of the winds.

Let the tempestuous fires go up with blazing flames, join and integrate with the rich vapours of water in the oceans of the skies, and then the indomitable winds blowing across in spaces, deeply rich in showers of fertility, shake up and drive the clouds for rain.
5. Agniśriyo maruto viśvakṛṣṭaya ā tveṣamugramava īmahe vayam. Te svānino rudriyā varṣanirṇijah simhā na heṣakratavaḥ sudānavah.

Maruts, the winds, are blest with the beauty and vitality of fire. They are friends of humanity, turbulent, impetuous, laden with clouds of rain, roaring like lions and highly generous. We beseech them for light, lustre and our protection.

From time to time and stage to stage, from place to place and from one group to another of themes and programmes, we invoke and investigate with best of efforts and appraisals the nature of Agni and Vayu and realise the heat and light of Agni and the force and vitality of Vayu, the winds and air. Laden with clouds of rain, and rainbow coloured, are they, riding the cosmic waves of energy and yielding inexhaustible wealth. And patient and persistent are we, moving to the yajna and committed to the sacred programmes of life’s development.

Agniśriyam jñānam jātaṁ ghatam pūrṇaṁ vajñam pūrṇaṁ maṁ āsas. Akṣatādaṁ rajasa viṣamačcajñeyo yama hṛtvāṁśī namaṁ.

I am Agni, by birth present in all that is born in existence. My eye is the light of yajna fed on ghṛta, and my mouth is nectar as I speak the Word. I am the refulgence of the sun. I hold the earth and skies and the heavens and three principles of nature, Sattva, Rajas and Tamas of Prakṛti. I pervade and transcend the spaces.
I am eternal, I am the heat and vitality of life, and I am the fragrant havi of the cosmic yajna (since I am in nature and nature is in me).

With threefold cleansing of body, mind and soul, through the purity of thought, word and deed, by inculcation of right knowledge (jnana), right conduct (karma) and right prayer and meditation (upasana), I purify the holy light of the self, thereby lighting the flame of the spirit in the intelligence with honesty and sincerity of the heart, and with these foods and fortifications of the spirit, I redeem the diamond purity and generosity of the soul, and then watch the immensity of heaven and earth participating in the Infinity of the Supreme Self.
9. Śatadhāram-utsamakṣīyamāṇam vipaścitam pitaram vaktvānām. Melīṁ madantām pitrorupasthe tam rodasī pipṛtam satyavācam.

O heaven and earth, fulfil the aspirations of that sagely person to perfection who is generous and inexhaustible in giving like a fountain of hundred streams, who is wise, protects and promotes the holy words, speaks loud and bold only what is true, and rejoices in the bosom of his parents.

Ye devout yajakas, your foods, energies, and excellencies are brilliant and overflowing with abundance of havi and ready with the ladle poised for the offer. And with these the yajakas eager for heavenly bliss goes to the divinities and celebrates.

2. īle agnīṁ vipaścitam girā yajñasya sādhanam. Śrūṣṭivānam dhitāvānam.

With holy voice and song I celebrate Agni, lord of light and knowledge, vision and wisdom and abundant giver of happiness and prosperity who leads the yajna to instant success.

destinations far and wide.

6. \textit{Tam sabādho yatasruca itthā dhiyā yajñavan-tah. Ā cakruragnimūtaye.}

Those who ward off the impediments of yajna, raise the ladle of offering and hands in action truly with will and intelligence and dedicate themselves to yajna for the sake of protection and promotion, light the fire and raise it for well being and prosperity.

7. \textit{Hotā devo amartyaḥ purastādeti māyayā. Vidathāni pracodayan.}

The brilliant performers of yajna, immortal and indestructible, goes forward with his innate power and intelligence, inspiring, advancing and accelerating yajnic programmes of creative and productive corporate action.

8. \textit{Vājī vājeṣu dhīyate’dhvaresu pra niyate. Vipro yajnasya sādhanaḥ.}

Agni, tempestuous power and vibrant accomplisher of yajnic creation, is adopted, lighted and accelerated in top gear in scientific and technological programmes of friendly and cooperative nature.

sahasah sūnurasyadhvare hitaḥ.

Agni, light and power of life, accept this food of homage, prepared, seasoned, amply matured and offered in the first session of the day’s yajna. Spirit of omnipotence you are, invoked, invited, lover and diversifier of yajna.

Agni, lord of vision and imagination, omniscient and omnipotent, ever vigilant on the move, come and share your part of the delicacies in the middle session of the day’s yajna. Yajakas of constant devotion never transgress their dedication and commitment to you, they never fail to make the offering.

Agni, lover, inspirer and source of strength and vigour, please to accept this sacred offering of purodāsha in the third session of yajna and, with our sacred hymns of praise and prayer, carry this stimulating and exciting oblation and the whole yajna of love and non-violence overflowing with jewels of life, and reach it among the immortal divinities of nature and humanity.

Agni, ever growing, rising and expanding creative power, intelligent, awake and pervading in all that manifests in existence, accept and enjoy this delicious purodāsha oblation, soma and prayer offered by the end of the day.

अस्तिदंदिर्मण्डिर्मण्डिर्मण्डिर्मण्डिर्मण्डि प्राणनं कृतम् ।
एतां विरिणार्था भरणश्रीम मन्थ्यां पूवधा ॥ १ ॥

This is the arani-wood, churner of fire. This is the act of churning. And this is the fire generated. Hold on this apparatus of fire generation, sustainer of humanity, so that we may produce the fire as ever before.

अरण्यानिनिता जातवदु गर्भाइव सुरुंग्रता गृथिता गुभिणीषु ।
दिविदिव इडया जागृविंद्रिहितविष्णुमन्थ्याभिरप्रियः ॥ २ ॥

Agni, immanent in everything in existence, it is hidden in the two arani woods (the lower base and the upper churner), like the embryo neatly nestled in the womb of pregnant mothers. Agni is worthy of love and reverence, and it ought to be generated by people who are alert and awake and possess the right inputs and apparatuses in plenty.

O man of knowledge, specialist of fire and energy, put the upper arani on the lower properly positioned, churn, and, through friction, the lower one would produce the bright flame, current of energy, like a column of light. Mighty is its force and speed, which, like the child of earth and knowledge, takes birth and comes to life in the dark recesses of the earth mother’s womb and rises in the knowledge of man and human yajna.

Agni, immanent fire energy, we place you and light you in the vedi on the floor of the earth in order that our oblations into the fire of yajna be carried across the globe and into the midst of the sky.

All ye leaders of humanity, explore and research into Agni full of latent possibilities of life, unique power, profusely revealing, indestructible, beautiful of form, lighthouse of yajnic production and immensely useful. O pioneers of science and fire power, generate this prime energy as your first priority of research and development.

6. Yadī manthanti bāhubhirvi rocate’śvo na vājya-

Arisen, Agni shines, warm and soothing and beautiful as flames of fire, illuminating as light, energy and strong horse power, traversing, reaching vibrant, sensitive and even bearing intelligence, rich with lovely gifts, sung and celebrated by wise visionaries: which sacred and universal power, carrier and creator of life’s fragrance, brilliant people serve, create and use in yajnic programmes of love and non-violence for the general good.

8. Sīda hotaḥ sva u loke cikitvānτśādayā yajñam sukṛtasya yonau. Devāvīrdevān haviṣā yajāṣyage bhṛhad yajamāne vayo dhāḥ.

High priest of yajna, expert performer, be seated in your own place of performance. Set up and conduct the yajna in the house of the man of noble creative action. Agni, lord of light and fire and energy you are the protector and promoter of good and benevolent people and you serve the powers of nature. Create and bring abundant gifts of food and energy, good health and long age, and bless the yajamana.

Friends, comrades of yajna, create the clouds of vapours and steam, laden with rain showers of wealth and fertility, immediately, unerringly, enthusiastically. Move forward and rise to the heights of strength, energy and power. This fire of yajna is the winner of battles, heroic, by which good people challenge and win over the forces of evil.

10. Ayaṁ te yonirṛtviiyo yato jāto arocathāḥ. Taṁ jānannagnā aṁ sidāthā no vardhayā girāḥ.

Agni, master of knowledge, light and fire, and energy, this vedi, this fire, this arani wood, the deep dense earth, the laboratory, seat and source of energy, is your home and identity from where, according to the seasons, you arise and shine. Knowing that, come, sit on the vedi, and then let our hymns of divine adoration rise to the heights of heaven.

When Agni is pervasive and immanent in space, it is called ‘garbha’, the foetus in the womb of space. When it pervades and energises the wind, it is called ‘Narashansa’ which rises as the object of admiration by the people. When it expands its power and presence in the sky, it is called ‘matarishva’, lying and breathing in the lap of the mother. And when it moves in fast motion, then it means ‘the blowing of the storm’.

Agni, brilliant light, fire and power, well produced with powerful tools and apparatuses, safely stored, well preserved in concentrations as in batteries, is a revolutionary illuminative power. O master of light and power of energy, Agni, develop and expand our yajnas of production and call up, advance, concentrate and conserve the wonderful powers of nature for the devotees of peace and progress.

Men of science and technology produce the immortal, imperishable and forceful motive power of Agni, and ten moving streams of water, ten fingers of the hands, moving forward in nimble work, all working
When Agni is pervasive and immanent in space, it is called ‘garbha’, the foetus in the womb of space. When it pervades and energises the wind, it is called ‘Narashansa’ which rises as the object of admiration by the people. When it expands its power and presence in the sky, it is called ‘matarishva’, lying and breathing in the lap of the mother. And when it moves in fast motion, then it means ‘the blowing of the storm’.

Served by seven priests and seven pranic energies, Agni arises from its eternal cause and shines bright and beautiful in the lap of its mother source, earth, wind and sky, and the solar region, illuminant in the dark night as well, proclaiming itself as the victor of battles day by day, day and night, without a wink of let up, since it is born of a powerful mother source, Vayu, eternal energy of existence.

Those who, like the forward forces of the winds, fight against the enemies, who are first born favourites of the Lord, and highly ambitious, who light the fire in the home, each one of them, and who know the whole world of the Lord’s creation: they are blest with the joy of wealth, power and honour in life.

O master of the science of yajna, in this corporate programme of yajnic creation being organised to-day, we elect you to the office of the highpriest and chief yajaka. Be firm herein, and let peace and Dharma prevail all round firmly, and O scholar of eminence, creating the soma joy of life, come, enjoy the eminence yourself.

Mandala 3/Sukta 30

Indra Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

इच्छन्ति त्वा साम्यासः सख्यायः सुन्वन्ति सामं दर्धति पयांसि। तिर्ति गद्व अभिविश्वित्तं जनानामिन्तु त्वदा कश्चन हि परक्तः॥ १ ॥

1. Icchanti tvā somyāsah sakāyah sunvantī somam dadhati prayāṃsi. Titikṣante abhiśastim janā-nāmindra tvadā kaścana hi praketaḥ.

Indra, lord of honour, power and glory, friends and lovers of soma, excellence and joy of life, crave your love and friendship. They distil the soma, the very essence of life’s meaning and value, and command the honour and prosperity of living. They forbear the calumny, malignity and even the violence of society, for they know that none is wiser than you, nothing is of higher value than your love and friendship.

The farthest of spaces are not too far for you, O lord commander of the waves of super energy. Come by the circuit of the vibrations of light, instant carriers of yours. These yajnas are enacted for the lord omnipotent and omnificent on the move without motion, (being omnipresent, immanent and pervasive in every particle of matter, energy and thought). Come, the fire is kindled and blazing, the crush is ready for soma, and the clouds are laden with showers.

3. Indraḥ suśipro maghavā tarutro mahāvrātastuvikūrmirṛghāvān. Yadugro dhā bādhito martyeṣu kvatyā te vṛṣabha vīryāṇī.

Indra, lord of honour and majesty, self-protected and strongly helmeted, abundant in wealth, saviour and pilot over the seas, commander of disciplined and committed soldiers, lord of instant action, destroyer of enemies, when opposed among mortals, you rise with blazing power and passion. O lord of valour and generosity, where are those acts and heroic powers of yours?
4. Tvain hi śmā cyāvayannacyutānyeko vṛtrā carasi jighnamānah. Tava dyāvāprthivī parvatāso’nu vratāya nimiteva tasthuḥ.

Indra, ruling lord of humanity, you roam around with dignity shaking and breaking firm and otherwise unshakable clouds, hoarders, strongholds of darkness and ignorance and other enemies of humanity all by yourself. The earth and heaven, clouds and mountains, all in measured movement devoutly committed to your law and discipline abide and act in obedience to your will.

5. Utābhaye puruhūta śravobhireko dṛḥhamavado vṛtrahā san. Ime cidindra rodasī apāre yat saṁ-grbhṇā maghavan kāśirīt te.

Also, O lord ruler of humanity and the world, Indra, invoked, invited and celebrated by many, in your glory, being free from fear, destroyer of demonic darkness and breaker of mountainous clouds all by yourself, whatever you firmly speak with your awful voice of thunder, and the way you hold and sustain these measureless earths and heavens, O lord of power and grandeur, is but a reflection of your majesty.

Indra, may your chariot going forward by the speed of winds and sunrays move on majestically. May your thunderbolt, destroying the enemies, shoot forward victorious. Destroy the opposition at the back, close at hand in secret, and upfront in action. Let truth reign in the world and let it prevail everywhere.

Indra, lord of abundance, wealth and honour, the mortal man, for whom you hold and bring the gifts of life and grace he has never had so far, gets and enjoys all that as his homely blessings of everyday. O lord invoked, served and celebrated by all people of the world, blissful is your love and kindness, abundant and overflowing your generosity, thousandfold your charity.

Indra, lord of power, justice and majesty, universally invoked, served and celebrated, just as the sun, with its blaze, strikes the dark demon of the cloud, thundering, growing, flying with the winds, breaks it and crushes it into gladdening showers, so do you, with your power and justice, strike the dark hoarding demons of society coexisting camouflaged with the rich and liberal progressive people, vociferous, fattening, and scoffing at the poor, make them ineffective to grab with the hands and rush around robbing the innocent, break open the hoarded wealth and let it out in showers for the joy of general society.

Lord ruler of the world, seat yourself in the house of yajna on the dear green earth, abundant, peaceful, mighty and measureless. Indra, lord omnipotent and generous sustains the heavens of light and the middle regions of the skies. Let the waters created by you in heaven and skies reach here on the earth. O lord ruler, let the actions performed by you on the seat of yajna reach the skies and the heavens with the fragrance.

10. \textit{Alāṭrṇo vala indra vrajo goḥ purā hantorbhaya-yamāno vyāra. Sugān patho akṛṇonniraje gāḥ prāvan vāṇiḥ puruhūtaiṁ dhamantīḥ.}
Indra, lord of the universe, omnipotent you are, destroyer of the enemies. You protect the cow stalls, the earth’s orbit and the flow of speech, and the enemy, stricken with fear, retreats even before the blow of the thunderbolt is struck. You create safe and straight highways for the cows to move, for the earths and stars to revolve and for the Divine Speech to flow in the vibrations of nature and the mind of humanity so that songs of celebration arise and resound in space in homage to the Lord invoked and worshipped by the universe.

Indra, lord of light, riding the chariot of glory, all by himself fulfils with his lustre both heaven and earth together full of wealth. May you, O lord of valour and lustre, and our friends bring us from the skies food and energy and wealth of knowledge all in one.

The sun traverses and illuminates the directions of space day by day indicated and roused to activity by the rays of light but does not transgress them, and when it reaches a particular stage of the journey, it withdraws the light and releases the region to rest for the night. This too is a reflection of the power and glory of Indra, Lord Almighty.

When the night is on the way out, all the inmates of the living world love to see the great and glorious light of the dawn proclaiming the majesty of the rising sun, and, when the dawn arises, they realise the holiness and grace of Indra’s infinite acts of omnipotence.

The moving world moves on bearing the great and glorious light of the lord and whatever mature and maturing vitality is held in the flowing streams of nature’s matter and energy, and whatever delicious delicacies are treasured in the earth and in the cow’s udders, all these Indra creates and holds therein for the sustenance of life in existence.
15. Indra dṛhya yāmakośā abhūvan yajñāya śikṣa ṣṛṇate sakhibhyah. Durmāyavo durevā martyāso niṣaṅgiṇo ripavo hantvāsaḥ.

Indra, lord giver of light, knowledge and the beauty and prosperity of life, be firm, advance and grow higher and stronger. There are treasures on the way, highways and byways, impediments and obstructions. Enlighten and warn friends and admirers about these for the sake of yajnic living and advancement. There are people crafty, malignant, armed robbers, enemies and killers in ambush. Warn of these and protect the disciple.

Indra, lord of majesty, I hear the tumult of the covert enemies below. Strike on them the fieriest thunderbolt. Pluck them off from the root. Challenge and beat them down, destroy them, annihilate them, eliminate the demons.
Indra, lord of power and justice, sustainer of life and its progress, pluck off the evil from the root, break it at the middle, nip it in the bud and at every shoot, and, having cast the fiery thunderbolt upon the saboteurs of truth and justice, life and law of existence, destroy their hate and enmity to the farthest end of their reach.

18. Svastaye vājibhiśca praṇetaḥ sam yanmahīriśa āsatsi pūrvih. Rāyo vantāro brhataḥ syāmā’sme astu bhaga indra prajāvān.

Indra, discriminative leader and pioneer in the pursuit of truth and excellence, as for the good and well-being of life, with your warlike heroes and powers of science and technology, you sit on the seat of the earth’s yajna, preside over the wealth of the nations and guide the ambitions of humanity revealed and pursued of old. May we, we pray, be sharers in the vast wealth and prosperity of the world and may the blessings of generations of man power and honour, prosperity and excellence shower upon us all under your leadership.

Indra, lord of wealth, honour and majesty, bring us the honour and excellence of prosperity full of light and wisdom. Let us abide and persevere in the abundance of your grace and kindness. Let our aspirations rise high and higher like the flames of yajna fire. O lord ordainer of the wealth of existence, ruler and protector of our hearth and home, let our aspirations and ambitions for total fulfilment be realised.

Let this prayer and aspiration be fulfilled in joy with the attainment of cows, lands and the light of words divine at the speed of light, and let it expand with the golden beauty of the moon and accomplishment of life’s end and aim, a prayer and aspiration such as lovers of joy, intelligent celebrants, with the best of their wit and imagination, construct and compose in poetry and express in loud voice for you, lord Indra. They are carriers of the divine message as we are, waiting for fulfilment.

Indra, generous lord of honour and valour, protector and promoter of lands and cows, strengthen and advance our families, expand our lands and shine our speech. May knowledge of science and divinity, speed and power come to us peacefully as our share of good fortune. Lord of light and knowledge you are, virile and generous, commanding real strength, lord of power and prosperity, giver of lands and cows. Give us the light, give us the knowledge, let us awake into new life.

We invoke, sing and celebrate Indra, lord giver of light and wisdom, commander of honour and prosperity, highest guide and leader of humanity, in this battle of life. Instantly does he listen to our prayers, bright and blazing is he in the battles and contests of life for protection, killer where he must be, breaker of the clouds of darkness, ignorance and poverty, and he is the winner, collector and consolidator of the wealths of life. We invoke him for protection, progress and victory in our battles of life.
Indra, generous lord of honour and valour, protector and promoter of lands and cows, strengthen and advance our families, expand our lands and shine our speech. May knowledge of science and divinity, speed and power come to us peacefully as our share of good fortune. Lord of light and knowledge you are, virile and generous, commanding real strength, lord of power giver of lands and cows. Give us the light, give us the knowledge, let us awake into new life.

Let the scholar dedicated to the cosmic law of solar radiation approach and study the morning rays of the sun, grand children of the sun, being children of the dawn which is the sun’s daughter, and let him study the light and communicate the knowledge to his disciples — even to control and apply the light in practical use.
And just as a father clothes and beautifies his grand child, the daughter’s baby, and feels happy and proud at heart, so would the scholar augment the beauty and power of sun rays born of the sun, converting darkness into day light, and feel happy and proud.

The son does not set apart the patrimony for the son-in-law, he prepares the sister and accomplishes her with education, culture and presents for his wife, the mother of his children. The parents give birth to children, son and daughter, one for the filial rites and duties for themselves and family, the other as beneficiary of the sanctities and accomplishments.

3. Agnirjñē juhvā rejamāno mahasputrāṇ aruṣa-sya prayakṣe. Mahān garbho mayhā jātameṣāṁ mahī pravrddharyaśvasya yajñaiḥ.

Agni arises in flames of fire fed with the ladle of ghrta in the service of the sun in order to press forward the children, i.e., rays of the sun. Great is the offspring, i.e., the day, of this great power born of the refulgence of the rays, and great is the movement of the sun by virtue of the cosmic yajna.

4. Abhi jaitṛirasacanta sprdhānam mahī jyotistamaso nirajānan. Tam jānatīḥ pratyudāyannu-śāsah patir-gavām-abhavad-eka indraḥ.

Victorious Maruts, currents of cosmic energy, join and serve the sun, fighting the forces of darkness, thereby manifesting the mighty light rising out of the night’s darkness. Similarly, manifesting the sun rise, they serve the dawns in consequence. And Indra, lord self-refulgent, the sun, is the generator of the dawns and the rays of light which bring about the day.
5. Vīḷau saīrabhi dhīrā atṝndan prācāhinvan manasā sapta viprāḥ. Viśvāmavindan pathyā- mṛtasya prajānannittā namasā viveśa.

When the seven faculties of the mind and senses grow too strong and rigid in their natural carnality, then saints and sages of patience and courage, knowledge and wisdom, calling up their original strength of the spirit, control their senses, mind and intellect and recover their vision of the path to universal truth and the Divine Law. And the soul, with homage and humility, enters the cave of the heart and discovers the light of Indra, lord of the universe.

6. Vidad yādī saramā rugnamadrermaḥi pāthah pūrvyaṁ sadhryakkaḥ. Agraṁ nayat supadya-kṣarāṅāmacchaḥ ravam prathamā jānatī gāt.

O lady of dynamic thought and action, assessor of the fast moving things of life, if you know the great but broken path of the mountain and have it repaired at once as carved by the ancients, if you know the breach of the cloud known to the ancients and bring it down in showers, if you realise the noble voice of the ancients’ words of divinity and lead it forward, you would be the first in knowledge and advancement.

7. Agacchadu vipratamaḥ sakhiyannasūdayat sukṛte garbhamadriḥ. Sasāna maryo yuvabhirmakha-syannathābhavadaṅgirāḥ sadyo arcan.
Let the man of knowledge and wisdom, inspired for action go forward with friends and comrades and break the cloud to bring down the held up showers of rain for the people of yajnic action. Let the man, himself desirous of yajna, share life and action with the youth and, always loving and respecting others, be one with them like the life-blood flowing in the nation’s veins.

The man on top, friend and comrade of the nation, first among all, who knows the models, equals and adversaries existing from moment to moment, who knows everything that is born on earth, who removes drought and poverty, who rises higher step by step to the light of heaven, who loves friends and respects seniors, may, we pray, save us from calumny, malignity and ill-will.

Let those who carve a path to immortality for themselves sit on the holy seats of yajna with earnest desire and sincere mind offering hymns of praise and prayer to Indra. For sure, this yajna is their expansive seat of action by which, through observance of right conduct and self-sacrifice, they can try to realise their year round objective of spirituality over the months in succession.

Watching and realising their own selves they rejoice, tasting the sweets of light and life eternal. The voice of the ecstasy of these settled celebrants rises and shines across earth and heaven and they confirm their faith in the world of Indra’s creation and install their faithful heroes on guard over earths and divine voices of love and faith.

11. Sa jātebhīrtrahā sedu havyairudusriyā aśrja-dindo ro arkaiḥ. Urūcyasmāi ghṛtavād bharantī madhu svādma duduhe jenyā gauḥ.

He, Indra, destroyer of darkness, dispeller of ignorance and breaker of the cloud, with simultaneous creations, yajnic materials and yajnic processes of consumption and formation, creates the rays of light in the solar region, planets in the firmament and cows on earth. The wide earth, a very generous mother cow full of wealth, bearing precious ghrta, water and honey sweets of herbs distils the nectar foods and other delicious materials from nature for this Indra in the service of living beings.

Divine experts of cosmic action build for this father creator and ruler, Indra, a great home, bright and beautiful, illuminate it and proclaim it wide. Themselves sitting firm on the vedi, holding and supporting it as Prakṛti, nature’s creative and sustaining force of cosmic gravity, they cast it up in orbit, measuring the force upward and the force of gravity.

O seeker and celebrant of Indra, nature and divinity, if in the act of exploration, your great intelligence and penetrative vision were to hold on to the ever expansive spirit of heaven and earth, in which the entire light, words and vision of existence, irreproachable and invincible, lie embedded for Indra, then that is the state of sovereignty in research and meditation.

Indra, lord refulgent, commanding knowledge and wisdom, brings for his devotees and friends vast field and opportunities for action, immense wealth of gold, knowledge and inspiration, movement and expansion. With men, leaders and the force of winds, he provides the light of the sun, beauty of the dawns, inspiration of the Divine Word, the passion of fire, and he creates the paths of progress for them.

And this lord omnipresent and infinite, fiery controller and guardian of human households, creates the waters and the world’s golden wealth of materials, knowledge and culture and joy all together. And these waters, honey sweet and purifying, highly productive of food and wealth and joy, inspiring poets with their purest streams, thereby inspire and excite the people day and night for advancement.

(Swami Dayananda interprets ‘Apah’ metaphorically as intelligent, educated and cultured people of dynamic nature who inspire the nation with their knowledge and conduct.)

The green earth and the bright heaven, holding the wealth of existence, mutually sustained by the force and grandeur of the sun, go round in concord like the dark night and bright day going on and on in unison, both doing homage to the sun. The same force and grandeur, Indra, lustrous lord ruler of the world, your loving friends, going by the simple paths of truth and law, follow in order to collect the holy grass for cosmic yajna and avert untoward accidents and oppositions.

18. Patirbhava vṛtaḥantsūnrtānāṁ girāṁ viśvāyur-vṛṣabho vayodhāḥ. Ā no gahi sakhyebhiḥ śivebhir-mahān mahībhirūtibhiḥ saranyan.

Be the protector, sustainer, and promoter of the voices of truth and cosmic laws of existence, O dispeller of darkness, breaker of the cloud and destroyer of evil. You are great, life eternal, generous and virile, universal giver of good health and full age. Come, take us on, moving, reaching, inspiring, with friendship, kindness and benevolence, and bless us with divine modes of protection and progress.

That Indra, ruler of the world, ancient yet ever new, I honour and serve with homage and salutations in order to join him in the governance and administration of the common wealth. O lord of power, plenty and majesty, throw off and eliminate all hostile, impious and uncreative elements of society, and bear and bring us peace, prosperity and joy for the sake of victory and progress.

20. Mihāḥ pāvakāḥ pratatā abhūvantsvasti naḥ pipṛhi pāramāsām. Indra tvamin rathiraḥ pāhi no riṣo makṣūmakṣū kṛṇuhi gojito naḥ.

Showers of rain, pure and purifying, pour down and spread around far and wide. Take us across these, lead us to life’s well-being and total fulfilment. Indra, lord of the world, warrior of the chariot you are, protect us from violence, and at every step, at every moment, make us victors of lands and cows, sense-control and self-discipline with the voice divine.

Just as the sun, lord of light and breaker of the cloud of darkness, shoots its rays of light with its power and splendour, penetrates to the centre of dark energy and dispels the darkness releasing the energy, similarly, O lord of light and power, commanding and revealing your own lights and words of knowledge and the truth of reality, open out all the doors and reveal the secrets of universal knowledge with the power and force of universal law which sustains the world of existence.

22. Šunam huvema maghavānamindramasmin bhare nṛtamam vājasātau. Šrṇvantamugra-mūtaye samatsu ghanantam vṛtrāṇi samjitam dhanānām.

Fighting for victory in this battle of life, for the sake of defence, protection and advance in the engagements of action, we invoke and call upon Indra, auspicious lord of power and prosperity, first and highest among leaders, careful listener, fierce, passionate and noble winner of wealth and victory.

Mandala 3/Sukta 32

Indra Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

1. Indra somāṁ somapate pibemaṁ mādhyam-dinam savanaṁ cāru yat te. Prapruthyā śipre maghava-nnerjiśin vīmucyā harī iha mādayasva.

Indra, creator giver of honour, excellence and prosperity, creator, preserver and promoter of the soma success of life, accept and enjoy this soma drink of homage which is your delicious share of the mid-day session of our yajna of struggle and success in creative action. Breathe deeply, rest your limbs, relax your muscles, lord of wealth and connoisseur of the purest delicacies. Unharness your horses and enjoy yourself here on the vedi.

Gavāśiraṁ manthinamindra śukram pibā somam ratrimā te madāya. Brahmakṛtā mārutenā gaṇena sajoṣā rudraistṛpadā vṛṣasva.

Indra, destroyer of suffering and poverty, have a drink of this pure exhilarating soma, well churned, distilled and blended with milk and seasoned in sun. We offer it to you for your joy and exhilaration. Enjoy it to the full in the company of divine scholars and producers and refiners of gold, and scholars of the Rudra order. Drink and rejoice and be virile and generous as a cloud of showers.

Ye te śuṣmaṁ ye taviśīmavardhannarcanta indra marutasta ojaḥ. Mādhyamāṁ savane vajrahasta pibā rudrebhīḥ saganāḥ susipra.

Indra, lord destroyer of evil, of impressive visor, holding the thunder-bolt in hand, those who augment your strength, your forces, and your lustre and valour, and those who admire and serve you to the degree of worship, are Maruts, heroes as tempestuous as the winds in storm. In the company of all these and with the Rudras who rout the wicked, drink the soma in the mid-day session of the national yajna of defence.
4. Ta invasya madhumad vivipra indrasya śardho maruto ya āsan. Yebhirvṛtrasyeṣito vivedāmarmaṇo manyamānasya marma.

Indeed the Maruts stir the honey sweets of soma for Indra, lord ruler and commander of the world, and they, heroic brave like the winds of storm, are his force who rouse his passion against the evil. Stirred by these he knows and reaches the fatal core of Vrtra, the demon, who believes he is invulnerable.

Indra, lord giver of honour and glory, eager for yajnic action and fond of yajnic gifts of fragrant delicacies, come like a man of thought and meditation, join our yajna and have a drink of soma for lasting strength and inspiration. You move the vapours and waters to the skies by performance of yajna and currents of wind and rays of the sun. As such, O rider of the horses of light and waves of energy, turn round and come to enjoy the fragrances.

Indra, when with the wielded weapon of the thunderbolt in battle, you destroy Vṛtra, demonic cloud of darkness lying asleep in stolid state, covering and with-holding the blissful waters of vital rain showers, you release the waters of life and joy to flow, and the streams rush forth in freedom like horses released from the stables.

We love, join and worship Indra, lord of glory and majesty, with homage and holy food: Indra, lord most ancient beyond calculation, great and sublime, unaging and ever youthful, the bounds of which Lord worthiest of reverence in yajna, no near and dear heaven and earth ever measure, nor can they ever measure or contain.

Indra, Lord Almighty, His acts, innumerable gifts and graces, and His laws, none among the noblest humanity do ever violate, nor the mightiest powers of nature ever transgress: Indra, lord of generosity and holiest action, who sustains this earth and heaven, and Indra, when with the wielded weapon of the thunderbolt in battle, you destroy Vrtra, demonic cloud of darkness lying asleep in stolid state, covering and withholding the blissful waters of vital rain showers, you release the waters of life and joy to flow, and the streams rush forth in freedom like horses released from the stables.

Indra, lord of love free from jealousy, negativity, discrimination or hypocrisy, ever true, inviolable and eternal is that greatness and glory of yours, that sun which, as it arises, drinks up the soma of nature to recreate, augment and return it to nature. Neither the heavens of light, nor days, nor months, nor seasons, nor years can evade or prevent or exceed or transgress the might and majesty of yours, omnipotent as you are.

Indra, mighty lord of light and senses and mind, as soon as you arise and manifest, you drink up the soma vitalities of the holiest regions of life and nature for pleasure and growth, since then, you pervade the heaven and earth and then you grow to be the maker and sustainer of the artists of beauty and singers of divinity.

Indra, potent lord of light universally manifest in existence and supremely generous, you break up the serpentine cloud of darkness waxing and overshadowing the oceans of air and vapours in the firmament and cover the earth with rain and light. Even the region of light cannot equal and contain your might because (while you strike the cover of darkness with the thunderbolt in one hand) with the other you hold and sustain the earth.

Indra, ruler of the world and giver of honour and excellence, your yajnic action, social and generous programme, is the mode of progress and promotion: It creates joy and prosperity, eliminates poverty and suffering, and promotes love and social cohesion. Be the leader of yajna, protect and promote yajna by yajna, and let your yajna protect and promote your thunder-arm in breaking the cloud of darkness for the rain showers of prosperity and joy in plenty.

The person who creates honour and excellence, peace and prosperity for humanity by yajna, creative action of the corporate community and promotes it by protection, preservation and further yajnic action, who rises by the appreciation and praise of the seniors, cooperation of the middle classes and the hopes, aspirations and dreams of the new generation, to such a person let me turn as front leader, as Indra, ruler and law-giver for humanity.

When thought is stirred and words arise in me in praise of Indra before the end of the day with gratitude how he would take us over across the world of sin and evil, then people too on both sides of the flood call upon him as captain of the ship on the move to take them over the seas to the shores of life beyond.
15. Āpūrṇo asya kalaśaḥ svāhā sekteva kośaṁ sisice pibadhyai. Samu priyā āvavṛtran madāya prada-kṣīṇidabhi somāsa indram.

Full to the brim is the cup of life for Indra to drink, filled with the best of thought, perception and action, like the dense cloud of vapours poured in by the sun. Dear friends and admirers, lovers of the soma-joy of life, come close and stand round Indra in homage to join and celebrate the Lord’s gift of life.

Indra, mighty lord of light as the sun, invoked by one and all, neither the deep sea nor the dense clouds nor the high mountains all round can contain or hold you back when inspired by friends for friends you strike and break the formidable cloud, impenetrable except for the thunderbolt.

17. Śunam huvema maghavānamindrahamasmin bhare nṛtamaṁ vājasātau. Śṛṇvantamugram-ūtaye samatsu ghanantāṁ vṛtrāṇi saṁjitaṁ dhanānāṁ.

For protection, victory and well-being, in this battle of life, we invoke Indra, auspicious lord of power.
and prosperity, highest leader, careful listener, fierce fighter, destroyer of enemies, and winner of wealths.

Mandala 3/Sukta 33

_Nadis, Streams, Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi_

प पवर्तानामुशति उपस्थाद्वंवव विरिषि हासमान।
गार्वः शुभ मातरी रिहाण विरिषां छुतुदी पर्यसा जवत॥ १ ॥

1. _Pra parvatānāmuśatī upasthādaśve iva viṣite hāsamāne. Gāveva śubhre mātarā rihaṇe vipātchutudṛī payasā javete._

From the lap of mountains, arising brilliant and passionate like the dawn, laughing and sparkling, and bolting like a horse and mare, like two beautiful mother cows yearning to meet their calves, two streams, one expansive and divided (vipat), the other deep and concentrated, fast and overflowing the banks (shutudri), flow in unison rapidly to meet the sea with their water.

Note: Swami Dayananda interprets this mantra as a metaphor of two brilliant women teachers issuing forth from a mighty source of learning and going to meet their disciples. He does not accept the interpretation that Vipat and Shutudri refer to two particular streams of these names. He does not accept the historical comparative method of Vedic interpretation which says that these mantras were composed on the banks of Vipat and Shutudri streams. On the contrary, he says that the words of the Veda should be interpreted etymologically as translated above.

Why these names in the Veda then? That’s the Swamiji says that words of the Veda are independent of history and geography. Particulars names in history such as Rama, Krishna, and others, for example, and names in geography such as Vipat and Shutudri and Ganga were taken from the Veda and not vice versa. There is no history nor geography of persons and places in the Veda. All such words, which appear to be name-words, should be interpreted etymologically, that’s the scientific method, just like the technical terms of science which are structured and interpreted etymologically.

2. Indreśite prasavaṁ bhikṣamāṇe acchā samudraṁ rathyeva yāthaḥ. Samārāṇe ūrmibhiḥ pinvamāne anyā vāmanyāmapyeti śubhare.

Moved and inspired by Indra, lord of light and rain, sharing and receiving the impulse to grow, you flow with crystalline waters, like beautiful chariot mares, towards the sea. Meeting and growing together with rising waves, feeding the environs, brilliant and graceful, each of you meets and augments the other.

(The metaphor of learned women, meeting, cooperating and beautifying the life around with education and the graces of culture continues to apply.)

I go to the river, I go to the sea, dearest mother generator and receiver of the rivers.

We go to the river, free, wide and auspicious.

The streams flow to the sea like mother cows hastening to the stalls to meet the calf, loving and caressing, reaching together in equal love and joy living together in one home.

We rivers rising with water and fertilizing the land move on by the same course appointed by the divine maker, never relenting in the flow, our birth itself and flow is never meant to stop.

(The mantra refers to the stream of life, continuance of the race, the family and the tradition of education and culture.)

5. Ramadhvam me vacase somyāya rtāvarīrupa mūhūrtaṃvaiḥ. Pra sindhumacchā bṛhatī maṇiṣā'vasyurahve kuśikasya sūnuḥ.
Bide a while, listen, pray consider and enjoy my word of peace, prayer and beauty. Relax, why rush on like a storm to the bottom mysterious deep. Son and disciple of a self-realised soul, I invoke and call upon the river and the sea from the core of my heart and mind, I need the vision and the protection.

(The mantra points to the irresistible flow of existence and the soul’s cry for a moment’s vision of constancy against the flux of mutability.)

Indra, lord of thunder, carved for us the paths we follow when he broke the ocean of dark energy in which the streams of existence lay confined. Into those channels the lord creator, Savita, cosmic sun of omnipotent arm, made us flow. In his channels we flow on and on, wide and deep, without rest.

(Mutability does not stop. The flux goes on and on, but you can stop the flow of your experience of the flow.)

That omnipotence of Indra, that cosmic act by which he breaks the dark energy of the state of annihilation (Pralaya) is worthy of song and celebration. With his voice of thunder he breaks the silence of the inert forces of Prakrti, and the waves and waters of cosmic energy flow into existence, invested with the divine will.

O singer and celebrant, neglect not, nor forget these holy words of yours which the ages to come will honour and resound. O poet of divinity, master maker and artist of eminence, love us and serve us with faith in your yajnic programmes. Be not arrogant to us or to noble people in general. Salutations to you!

O sister streams of existence in cosmic flow, powers of dynamic action, listen to the prayer and exhortations of the artist maker and poet. He has come to you from afar by a fast moving chariot. Lower your depth and turbulence, flow below the axle of his chariot wheels, bow to him, and help him to cross the flood.
O poet artist and maker, we listen to your words, you come from afar with a cart and chariot, and we greet you with salutations eagerly as a woman overflowing with love meets her child, and a maiden meets her lover with embraces.

O dear streams of water and national economy, as the producers and managers of the nation may cross and manage you with your consent, so may the people of the settlement too, desirous of crossing you, when impassioned and inspired by Indra, ruling light of the world, cross and manage the waters. And then, for sure, may the flood rush on. O managers and planners of the nation’s yajna, worthy of love and reverence, I admire and pray for the vision and wisdom and the good-will of friends and creators like you.

May the producers, managers and rulers seeking and developing lands, and cows, and animal husbandry manage water resources. Let the intellectuals study and share the secret of river power. O people of the land, develop the rich and productive streams and rivers and fill the fields and canals with water for irrigation. Come all, go far, be quick and effective.

उद्र ऋभि: शम्या हृत्वापा याक्त्राणिण मुञ्जचत।
मादुष्कृताक्यनस्त्रेच्याय्यूनमार्ताम॥ १३ ॥

O streams and rivers, may your flow, the waves, touch and sanctify the flagpole of yajna. May the waters relieve the yoke of bullocks. May the streams, fast, wide and free, never destructive but blissful, unhurt, protected and developed, auspicious as a boon, bring us peace, prosperity and joy. (Life is a flow, inspiring, energising, sanctifying. Manage it, develop it, live it as a divine gift.)

Mandala 3/Sukta 34

Indra Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

इन्द्र: पूर्भिदातिरद्वारसमुक्तविद्वसुदर्मणाना विश्रूण।
वर्हाजुस्तरवत्वावारुष्णानां भूरिदात्रा आपृणादात्सं उभ॥ १ ॥

1. Indraḥ pūrbhidātirad dāsamarkairvidad vasurdayamāno vi śatrūn. Brahmajūtastanvā vāvr-dhāno bhūridātra āprṇad rodasi ubhe.
Indra, lord ruler of the world, overcomes the hostile forces with light and thought and the power of persuasion. He opens and expands the cities bound in the dark and, abundant and charitable as he is, relieves and rehabilitates the helpless poor. Inspired by divinity and universal vision, rising and expanding in body and mind with plenty and prosperity, merciful and freely giving, he fills both heaven and earth with light and joy.

Indra, lord of life and giver of light, I arise and receive the inspiration of the power and generosity of your yajna, glorifying the divine voice for the sake of immortality. Lord of power and ruler of the world, you are the leader and pioneer of the nations of the world, ordinary people, specialized groups and exceptional people of brilliance and generosity.

Indra, heroic warrior of exploits, master of tactics, overwhelms the demon of darkness and, passionate for action, counters the magical moves of the crafty enemies and overthrows the crippled monster. Thus does he set free the cows confined in the forests, voices suppressed in silence, and the streams of water locked up in the cloud and sunrays.

Indra, lord of the showers of joy, reveals and brightens the days, fights the battles along with his commandos, and comes out victorious. May he then unfurl the flag of the day’s light and victory and win the light for the mighty battle of life as a whole in the flow of existence.

5. Indraṣtujo barhaṇā ā viveṣa nṛvad dadhāno naryā purūṇi. Acetayad dhiya imā jaritre premaṁ vṛṇamatiracchukramāsām.

Indra, like a manly hero, commanding overwhelming the forces of battle, blazing with the mighty thunderbolt, breaks through the thick of enemy lines. He enlightens these thoughts and minds for the celebrant and augments this pure and unsullied light of these within.

Many great and good acts of this mighty Indra, ruler and warrior, are worthy of admiration. Lord of might and splendour, hero of victory, he crushes the guiles and evils of the wicked with his strength, and eliminates the thieves and robbers of society by the force of his tactics and intelligence.

Indra, lover and favourite of humanity, protector and promoter of truth, reality and the good people, with his fight and force of strength and intelligence does great good deeds for the noble powers of nature and humanity. And those great exploits of his, brilliant poets and scholars celebrate with their songs of homage, the waves and echoes of which rise and resound in the house of the sun.

People of intelligence, patience and intelligence may please and share the pleasure with Indra, lord of the world, who upholds truth and challenges untruth, who is worthy of choice, giver of strength and courage, who distinguishes between good and evil, and gives happiness, pranic energy and divine bliss, and who creates, gives and shares the gifts and beauty of this earth and heaven with us.

Indra gives us the horses and other modes of fast travel. He gives us the sun and enlightenment. He gives us the cow for milk, land and speech, and golden wealth for the sustenance of all. He destroys evil and the wicked and protects the good and virtuous people for the joy of all.

10. Indra oṣadhiṇrasanodahāṁ vanaspaṭiṁrasanosadantarikṣam. Bibheda valam nunude vivāco’thā-bhavad damithabdhiḥkratūnām.

Indra gives us herbs and tonics everyday. He gives us waters of the firmament. He opens up the sources of strength and energy. He stimulates the organs of speech and inspires articulation and the growth of various languages. And he is the controller of the men of impetuous action to a steady state of balance in thought and will.

We invoke, invite and celebrate Indra, auspicious lord of wealth, honour and excellence, friend of the good and controller of the wicked. In this battle of life, we call upon him, best and highest of men and leaders, for victory. We call upon him in all our struggles for protection, promotion and progress, for he listens to us, destroys the evils of darkness and ignorance, and wins, preserves and promotes the wealth, honour and excellence of life and culture. Great is he, mighty lustrous, terribly irresistible, blazing, victorious.

Mandala 3/Sukta 35

Indra Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

Indra, lord ruler of the world, ride the chariot drawn by horse power of water and fire and come straight to us like the wind in all your glory in good company. Come and partake of the holy food we offer in faith and truth of word and deed in homage for your joy and entertainment.

उपाजिज्ञा पृथुगुरताय समी हरी रथस्य धृष्टा युनञ्जि।

2. Upājirā puruhūtāya sapṭi harī rathasya dhūṛṣvā yunajmi. Dravad yathā sambhṛtam viśvataścic-upēmām yajñamā vahāta indram.

   I yoke the fastest horses, fast as sun-rays, to the centre pole of the chariot of Indra, lord universally invoked, praised and called upon for action, so that they may rush, bear him and carry wealth and honour from all round and bring it to this yajna of knowledge and science.

3. Upo nayasva vrṣanā tapuspotemava tvāṁ vrṣabha svadhāvah. Grasetāmaśvā vi muceha śoṇā divedive sadṛśiraddhi dhānāḥ.

   Indra, bold and generous lord commanding food and energy, take the two mighty fiery steeds of sun-rays close together, protect and take water too, let the horses free, consume the food and fuel of flames, and you too consume the food prepared and seasoned by fire every day in the bowels of the earth.

By word I yoke the horses which sense and obey the word of command. Friendly they are, extremely fast to reach the yajnic destination. Indra, lord of knowledge and power, riding the chariot which is steady and comfortable, knowing and discovering further, go close to the moon and bring the nectar of magical powers.

5. Mā te harī vṛṣanā vītapṛṣṭhā ni rīraman yajamānāso anye. Atyāyāhi śaśvato vayaṁ te’ram sutebhiḥ krṇavāma somaiḥ.

Indra, may your motive chariot powers, of wide and extensive back never slacken, exhaust or stop. We are the other collaborators in your yajna, ever and constant, who do all for you with the distilled yajnic essences of what you need. Go far to the target and come back to us victorious.

Indra, this soma is yours, come you hither, happy at heart, partake of it, lasting and constant as it is in power and energy. Sit on the holy grass in this yajna and hold it in the strong interior of the chariot.
4. Brahma te brahmayujœ yunajmi harœ sadhämœda ŒÖµu. SthiraÅ rathaÅ sukhamindrœ- dhiti¦¢han prajœnan vidvœ~n upa yœhi somam. By word I yoke the horses which sense and obey the word of command. Friendly they are, extremely fast to reach the yajnic destination. Indra, lord of knowledge and power, riding the chariot which is steady and comfortable, knowing and discovering further, go close to the moon and bring the nectar of magical powers.

7. StœrœaÅ te barhi¬ suta indra somah kœtâ dhœänœ attave te haribhyœm. Tadokase purušakœya vrœñe marutvate tubhyœm rœtœ havœmœ. The liquid fuel, distilled and packed, is ready for you. The foods for the consumption of your motive forces are prepared and ready. All the inputs for you too are ready and reserved for the lord of the chariot, mighty helpful, creative and generous, lord of the wings of winds.

8. Imamœ narœ parvatœstubhyamœpaœ samindra gobhirœmadhumantamakran. Tasyœgatyœ suma-nœ řœva pœhi prajœnan vidvœn pathœœ anu svœh. Indra, lord of honour and excellence, the best of men, mountains and clouds, waters and vapours in unison have prepared this nectar sweet of soma for you with currents of solar energy and treasures of the earth. Lord of glory, happy at heart, scholar and discoverer, take the soma, and protect and promote the product and your partners on the way.
9. Yāñ ābhajo maruta indra some ye tvāmavar-dhannabhavan gaṇaste. Tebhiretaṁ sajoṣā vāva-śāno’gneḥ pība jihvaya somamindra.

Indra, lord of knowledge, power and glory, the winds and men you engage in your soma project of science and development, who lead you to honour and advancement, and who become your force and allies: with them, celebrating in joy, shining and resounding, drink of the soma with the tongue of fire.

10. Indra pība svadhāya cit sutasya’gnervā pāhi jihvaya yajatra. Adhvaryorvā prayataṁ śakra hastāddhoturvā yajñāṁ haviṣo juṣasva.

Indra, glorious ruler of the world, drink of the soma distilled with the tongue of fire. O lord venerable, drink of it and protect it with your strength and power. Lord of power and honour, join and develop the yajna instituted and conducted by the yajamana and the highpriest with oblations of fragrant materials offered with their own hands.

11. Śunāṁ huvema maghavānamindramasmin bhare nṛtamaṁ vājasātau. Śṛṇvantamugr-amūtaye samatsu ghnantāṁ vṛtrāṇi samjitam dhanānām.

For victory in this battle of life, we invoke, invite and call upon Indra, lord auspicious of bliss, commander of honour, power and prosperity, and the best of men and leaders. For defence, protection, preservation and progress in the struggles of life for development, we look up to him, responsive listener, mighty lustrous destroyer of the demons of darkness and ignorance, and a winner of all round wealth of the nations.

Indra Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina (1-9, 11) and Ghora Angirasa (10) Rshi

1. Imāmū ṣu prabhṛṭiṁ sātaye dhāḥ śaśvaccha-śvadūṭibhiryādamānaḥ. Sutesute vāvṛdhe vardha-nebhiryāḥ karmabhīrmahadbhīḥ suśruto bhūt.

   Indra, O lord united with friends and devotees by continuous modes of protection, who rise by admirable acts of promotive generosity and advance in honour and reputation by greater and higher actions in one yajna after another, accept this praise and prayer for the gifts of success and acquisitions of value.

2. Indrāya somāḥ pradivo vidānā rdbhuryebhīr-vṛṣaparvā vihāyāḥ. Prayamyamānān prati ṣū ṣrībhāyendra pība vṛṣadhūtasya vṛṣṇāḥ.

   Indra, the somas, essences of energy and enlightenment, are distilled from the heavens by enlightened people for advancement of the honour and excellence of life, by which Rbhu, master of intelligence and expertise in social affairs, grows strong in every aspect of development and destroys the evil which must be destroyed.

Indra, lord ruler, drink of this powerful, inspiring, elevating vitality of strength and enlightenment, and hold and govern the elements under control for the protection, promotion and advancement of honour and excellence.

Indra, lord of honour and excellence, drink of the soma and grow in honour and power. For sure, the somas distilled earlier as well as these new ones distilled today are yours. As you drank of the earlier ones, so drink the new ones today and protect the honour and excellence of life, admirable leader as you are.

Great, master of knowledge and power, overwhelming in the battle of life and lord of terrible splendour, Indra possesses and commands formidable prowess and heroism. Even the whole humanity on earth does not comprehend the grandeur of this wondrous power commanding the winds whom the creators of soma, light of the sun, beauty of the moon and fragrances of yajna inspire and enlighten.

Indra, lord ruler, drink of this powerful, inspiring, elevating vitality of strength and enlightenment, and hold and govern the elements under control for the protection, promotion and advancement of honour and excellence.

Indra, lord ruler of the world, is great, illustrious, generous and gracious giver of honour and excellence of prosperity. He rises to valorous and virtuous action and achieves every success by the word and vision of Divinity. His lands, cows and lights of knowledge are creative and profuse, and his gifts are always blissful more and ever more.

Just as rivers originate and pursue their course to the sea, and as vapours rise to the firmament like chariots going by highways to their destination, so does soma mixed with milk and seasoned in sunlight offered in homage to Indra, supreme power of earth and heaven, inspires, and Indra sits over the assembly as first and presiding power, cream of the nation, bright as sunrays.

7. Samudreṇa sindhavo yādamānā indrāya somaṁ suśutaṁ bharantaḥ. Amśum duhanti hastino bharitair-madhvaḥ punanti dhārayā pavitraiḥ.

Just as rivers join the sea bearing distilled soma from the essences of nature for Indra, lord of the world, so do the performers of yajna, men of generous hands, joining the scholars of oceanic depth of learning, distil the soma vitalities of nature and, with hands full of fragrant offerings, sanctify the honey sweets of life with streams of pure and holy showers of piety for honour and glory.

Like lakes and mountain valleys are the generous treasure holds of the bearers of soma. Many are the yajnic processes of the creation and reinforcement of the soma nectars. Indra, lord of knowledge and brilliance, when he creates the first foods and nourishments for life and tastes and approves of these, then he, breaker of the clouds, selects soma as the first and most invigorating power.

Ā tū bhara mākiretat pari śṭhād vidmā hi tvā vasupatim vasūnām. Indra yat te māhinain datramastyasambhyain taddharyaśva pra yandhi.

Indra, lord of light and life, bear and bring us the soma, fill our treasures, fulfil us wholly. Let no one withhold it from us. We know you are the creator and protector of the wealths of life. O lord of the winds and velocities of energy, bless us with that which is the greatest and highest of your gifts.

10. Asme pra yandhi maghavannṛjīśinnindra rāyo viśvavārasya bhūreh. Asme śataṁ sarado jīvase dhā asme vīrāṅcchaśvata indra śiprin.

Indra, lord of honour and excellence of prosperity, lover of purity and excellence of naturalness, ruler and protector of the world, give us abundance of the wealth of universal character and value. O lord of grandeur and handsomeness, bear and bring for us a full life of hundred years, and bless us with an unbroken line of brave progeny.
11. Śunam huvema maghavānamindramasmin bhare nṛtamanā vājasātāu. Śṛṇvantamugram-ūtaye samatsu ghnantaṁ vrtrāṇi sanjitaṁ dhanānāṁ.

In this yajnic struggle of life for peace and plenty and the achievement of speed and excellence, we invoke and call upon Indra, lord of honour, power and innocence of naturalness, giver of joy and best of men and leaders, who listens to us, is lustrous and terrible, and destroys the demons of darkness in the battles for progress and who is the creator, protector and promoter of the wealths of universal value.

Mandala 3/Sukta 37

Indra Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

1. Vātrahatyāya śavase pṛtanāśāhyāya ca.
   Indra tvā vartayāmasi.

   Indra, lord of honour and valour, commander of the forces of life and freedom, we pledge to abide by you and exhort you for breaking of the clouds of rain, for the destruction of darkness and evil, for rousing courage and valour, and for challenging and beating back the enemy in battle. And we pray, inspire and exhort us too with full power and preparation.
2. Arvācīnamu te mana uta cakṣuḥ śatakrate.
Indra kṛṇvantu vāghataḥ.

Indra, lord destroyer of evil and enemies, hero of a hundred acts of yajnic creation and development, may the sages of vision, imagination and effective communication refresh and update your mind and eye with foresight so that you face the challenges of the present time successfully.

3. Nāmāni te śatakrate viśvābhīrgīrbhirīmahe.
Indrābhimātiṣahye.

Indra, lord ruler excellent and honourable, hero of a hundred acts of imaginative vision, with all our best words, thoughts and resolutions, we pray and exhort you to realise your names and attributes in action so that under your leadership we may face the challenges of the time successfully against the arrogant and proud enemies.

4. Puruṣṭutasya dhāmabhiḥ śatena mahayāmasi.
Indrasya carṣaṇīdṛṭaḥ.

We exhort and exalt Indra, universally admired ruler of the world and sustainer of his people, by hundredfold celebrations of his names, attributes and brilliant exploits of heroism.

I invoke Indra, invoked and worshipped by all, for the destruction of evil and victory in life’s battles for food, energy, prosperity and progress.

Indra, be the challenger, warrior and winner of battles for prosperity and progress. O lord of a hundred creative actions, we invoke, exhort and exhalt you for breakup of the cloud into rain and elimination of the demon of darkness, ignorance, injustice and poverty.

8. Dyumneṣu pṛtanājye pṛtsu tūrṣu śravaḥṣu ca. Indra somaḥ śatakrate.

In the battles of forces in plans and programmes of development for prosperity and excellence, in the contests of forces positive and negative for good and evil, in the onslaughts of stormy troops of hostility, in the efforts for growth in food, energy and enlightenment, in the struggles for self-realisation against pride and arrogance, Indra, O spirit of the soul, voice of conscience, genius of the nation, and invincible strength of character, tolerate, endure, challenge, fight and throw out the enemies of life’s light and joy.

Indra, ruler of the world, master of a hundred noble acts of governance, your powers and organs of perception operating among all the five classes of people, i.e., teachers and intellectuals, ruling powers and defence forces, producers and business men, ancillaries, and others, I accept and honour all these as powers and forces of yours.

MANDAL - 3 / SUKTA - 37 1223 1224 RGVEDA
10. Agannindra śravo bṛhad dyumnamāṃ dadhiśva duṣṭaram. Ut te śuṣmamāṃ tirāmasi.

Indra, ruler and protector of the world, the assets of the dominion are high and rising. Hold and govern this formidable wealth, honour and excellence of the nation. And let us all, we pray, raise and exalt your courage and power, honour and glory.

11. Arvāvato na ā gahyatho śakra parāvataḥ. U loko yaste adriva indreha tata ā gahi.

Indra, lord of might, ruler of the clouds, wielder of the thunderbolt and refulgent as the sun, come to us from far and from near, wherever you are. And whatever or wherever your abode, from there come to us here and now.

Mandala 3/Sukta 38

Indra Devata, Prajapati Vaishvamitra, or Prajapati Vachya, or both, or Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

Just as a wood carver sculpts out a beautiful form of art from a piece of wood, so you shine and sharpen your intelligence, and, thinking and contemplating the farthest favourite places of space, reach there like a ray of light well joined to the sun’s chariot. Such men of intelligence and poets of wisdom I wish to see, intelligent as I am by the grace of Indra.

Just as a wood carver sculpts out a beautiful form of art from a piece of wood, so you shine and sharpen your intelligence, and, thinking and contemplating the farthest favourite places of space, reach there like a ray of light well joined to the sun’s chariot. Such men of intelligence and poets of wisdom I wish to see, intelligent as I am by the grace of Indra.

O seeker of knowledge and light divine, ask these men of vision and wisdom about the life and birth of the poets who possess a treasure of knowledge in their mind, do great noble deeds, create knowledge and fashion it forth in heavenly words. And then, may these favourite vibrations of your mind, rising and elevating you, explore and pursue the paths of higher knowledge and Dharma of the universal order.

3. Ni śîmidatra guhya ŏ dhrãnã ŏta kṣatrãya rodasî samañjan. Sam mātrābhirmamire yemururvi antarmañhi samrte dhãyase dhuḥ.
Bearing vibrations of the mysterious in their mind here itself in the world, going over the spaces between heaven and earth for the cosmic order, they visualise and measure the world with definitive operations of the imagination, go over and within the earth, and traverse the joining firmament and space between heaven and earth, and realise the cosmic relations in the service of the supreme lord who wields all these together in law.

4. Ātiṣṭhantāṁ pari viśve abhūṣaṅcchriyo vasāna-ścarati svarocīḥ. Mahat tad vṛṣṇo asurasya nāmā ’’iśvarūpo amṛtāṇi tasthau.

All the visionary sages realise and celebrate the one lord supreme, robed in his own glory, who pervades the world of existence. Great and glorious are his names and attributes: self-refulgent, omniform, generous and potent, life of life, who sustains the immortals of existence.

5. Asūta pūrvo vṛṣabho jyāyānimā asyā śurudhaḥ santi pūrvīḥ. Divo napātā vidathasya dhībhiḥ kṣatram rājānā pradivo dadhāthe.

Indra, first and eternal lord, supreme, generous and omnipotent, creates these forms of existence. These ancient forms of this world are life-inspired and life-giving. Two immortal powers, both ruling and brilliant, Indra and Varuna, Spirit and Energy, ruler and people, with their will and action from the light of heaven hold and sustain the divine yajnic order of nature and humanity and promote the light of knowledge.

Asµuta purµvo abhµu¦aÛcchriyo vasŒna-Ücarati svaroci¬. Mahat tad v¾¦Äo asurasya nŒmŒ ''iÜvarµupo am¾tŒni tasthau.

Indra, first and eternal lord, supreme, generous and omnipotent, creates these forms of existence. These ancient forms of this world are life-inspired and life-giving. Two immortal powers, both ruling and brilliant, Indra and V aruna, Spirit and Energy, ruler and people, with their will and action from the light of heaven hold and sustain the divine yajnic order of nature and humanity and promote the light of knowledge.

O brilliant powers of divinity, Indra and Varuna, spirit and energy, ruler and the people, both of you sustain and adorn the three houses of the social order: Executive, Legislature, and Education (Rajarya Sabha, Dharmarya Sabha and Vidyarya Sabha), and you maintain all the various ancient values, forms and institutions of the society. Moving with thought and imagination here itself, I have seen the gandharvas, leaders gifted with speech and ideas flying on the wings of the winds, committed to the sanctity of duty in the holy social order of yajna, serving and sustaining the earth and her environment.

7. Tadinnvasya vrñhabhasya dhenorã nãmahbir- mamire sakmyam go»h. Anyadanyadasuryam vasã»a ni mâyino mamire rûpamas»min.

Sages of vision and imagination measure and describe the nature, character and forms of the earth by the speech and words of this divine and generous Indra, lord of light and knowledge and speech. And these sages and poets, wondrous makers of forms in words and materials, watching the light and energy of divinity in different earthly forms, recreate and re-enact the forms in this social order on this earth.
8. Tadinnvasya saviturnakirme hiranyayimamatim yamaśīśret. Ā suṣṭutī rodasī viśvaminve Apīva yoṣā janimāni vavre.

No one can deny nor destroy the light and beauty of the golden gifts of this lord Savita, creator of this beautiful world, or of my recreation of it in word or material or institutional form. Whoever takes to it for support or sustenance wins the showers of universal joy from all pervading heaven and earth just as a young mother receives the pleasure and bliss of the birth of her baby.

Both of you, Indra and Varuna, Spirit and energy, power and justice, ruler and people, bring us straight that great and celestial gift of joy and well being which is the gift of tradition and eternity. May that great and heavenly joy be ours from all sides. Wonderful artists of word and form see and realise all the creations of the constant lord of infinite forms who is the protector of eternal speech and divine consciousness.
10. Šunaṁ huvema maghavānamindramasmin bhare nṛtamāṁ vājasātau. Śṛṇvantamugram-ūtaye samatsu ghnantaṁ vṛtrāṇi sarījitam dhanānām.

We invoke Indra, lord of power and majesty for protection and victory in this battle of life. Auspicious is he and blissful, and the best among men and leaders, for the achievement of food, energy and advancement of body, mind and soul for the individual and the nation. He listens. He rises lustrous and blazing at the call for defence and victory, destroys the demons of darkness, violence and poverty in the strifes, breaks the clouds of rain showers and collects the trophies of excellence and glory for his people.

Mandala 3/Sukta 39

Indra Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

The song that arises from the heart, which is composed and sung in honour of Indra, father protector and sustainer of the world, reaches him well and directly. Indra, lord of power, love and majesty, accept that song of adoration raised in full consciousness, inspiring in the yajna of life and knowledge, and know it is the song of a devotee.

Indra, O worshipful soul, know the nature, character and actions of the Lord Supreme by this song.

Coming from the light of Divinity, ancient and eternal, ever rising, ever wakeful and awakening the mind and soul into divine awareness, celebrated in yajna and the sacred ways of life, blessed and blissful, like the dawn, adorned in the purest garb of immaculate words and verses, coexistent with Divine consciousness and abiding with fatherly sages, may that holy light of the Vedic Word be ours.

Just as cosmic energy creates the twin lights of the sun and moon, and just as the sun radiates the circuit of light energy that creates the Ashvins, which then bring forth the dawn, which inspires the tip of the tongue in adoration, and the twin flow of light currents dispelling darkness serves to reveal the objects of the world, so does Indra, lord omniscient create the twins of Revelation, word and meaning of the Vedic speech, which both activate the tip of the tongue in spontaneous articulation and stay there. They both together, dispelling the darkness of ignorance in the light of knowledge, stay, serve the world of created objects and stay there in the memory.

4. _Nakireśāṁ ninditā matryeṣu ye asmākaṁ pitaro goṣu yodhāḥ_. Indra eṣāṁ dṛṁhitā māhināvānud gotraṇi sasṛje damsanāvān.

None among living humanity is reviler and maligner of those who are our ancestors, parents and teachers, who are veterans, warriors, in the battles of speech, knowledge and wisdom. Indra, lord of majesty, power and generosity, hero of divine actions, strengthens them with firmness of will and action and creates fortifications for their traditions, institutions and familial lines.

5. _Sakhā ha yatra sakhibhirnavagvairabhijñvā satvabhirgā anugman_. Satyaṁ tadindro daśabhir- daśāgavaiḥ sūryaṁ viveda tamasi kṣiyantam.

Where, in the human body, when the soul is anxious to know the mystery of truth and light divine, does it find the holy cows of the Lord Supreme, words and meanings of ultimate reality, the light? Surely then, there in the body itself, with nine friendly faculties of freshest powers (five pranic energies and mind, intellect, memory and self-awareness), and with another team of ten friends (five pranic energies and five senses), following the path of truth in meditation, the soul discovers the sun, Light Divine, self-refulgent, existing in the depth of the self, otherwise covered under existential darkness of ignorance.

Indra, the soul in pursuit of knowledge and meditation, discovers the honey sweets of the mystery of existence revealed in the light of divinity in the cave of the heart and in the Voice Divine voluble in the folds of memory. It discovers the secrets of motion and velocity and of production and generosity in the Word and in the Light.

Let man bow in reverence, be humble and generous, and hold the secret, deeper than the deepest within, on the palm of the right hand. (No pride, no arrogance!)

The man of knowledge discriminates and separates light from darkness. Let us be fearless, far from sin and evil. Indra, O man elevated by the light and inspiration of the spirit of divinity, O defender of truth and piety, listen and live by these words of the learned poet and artist.

Let there be light radiating from heaven to earth, and let the fragrance of fire rise from earth to heaven to join the three worlds for the yajna of human existence. Let us be far from sin prevalent around through the light of intelligence. And may the Vasus, sustainers of life on earth and the sages who command the light of knowledge as saviours and redeemers, be generous like celestial oceans with showers of bliss for the man of might and high charity.

We invoke Indra, generous lord of light and majesty, and best of men and leaders, for success in this battle of life. He listens to our call and prayer, rises lustrous and blazing, for our protection and progress, destroying the forces of darkness and winning us the wealths of light and prosperity in our struggles for excellence.

Mandala 3/Sukta 40

Indra Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

In this soma-yajna of the creative business of life when the time is ripe, O lord of honour and majesty, Indra, we invoke and invite you, lord of bliss, mighty brave and generous as rain showers. Come, grace the yajna, and protect and promote the honey sweets of food, energy and the joy of life.

1. Indra tvā vrṣabhaṁ vayaṁ sute some havāmahe.
   Sa pāhi madhvo andhasaḥ.

   In this soma-yajna of the creative business of life when the time is ripe, O lord of honour and majesty, Indra, we invoke and invite you, lord of bliss, mighty brave and generous as rain showers. Come, grace the yajna, and protect and promote the honey sweets of food, energy and the joy of life.

2. Indra kratuvidaṁ sutaṁ somāṁ harya puruṣṭuta.
   Pibā vrṣasva tāṭrpim.

   Indra, lover of life and excellence, sung and celebrated by many, cherish the nectar-sweet of soma distilled and inspiring for the completion of yajna. Drink of the delight of life to the lees, to your heart’s content, grow strong and vigorous, and shower the blessings of divinity on the celebrants.
In this soma-yajna of the creative business of life when the time is ripe, O lord of honour and majesty, Indra, we invoke and invite you, lord of bliss, mighty brave and generous as rain showers. Come, grace the yajna, and protect and promote the honey sweets of food, energy and the joy of life.

Indra, lover of life and excellence, sung and celebrated by many, cherish the nectar-sweet of soma distilled and inspiring for the completion of yajna. Drink of the delight of life to the lees, to your heart's content, grow strong and vigorous, and shower the blessings of divinity on the celebrants.

Indra, lord of might and majesty, ruler and protector of the people, celebrated defender of truth and rectitude, destroyer of darkness and evil, come with all the nobilities of humanity and promote and perfect this yajna of ours so that it overflows with the bounties of life and nature for all.

Indra, lord of knowledge, protector of truth and lovers of rectitude, all these soma essences of nature, distilled, seasoned and reinforced, soothing sweet and inspiring, trickling in drops and flowing in streams, come to your abode.

Indra, lover of life and health a long age, the soma distilled drop by drop in sunlight is selected for you. Take it, bear it in the stomach, and it will give you the vigour and joy of a full life.
6. Girvāṇah pāhi naḥ sutāṁ madhordharabhīr-ajyase. Indra tvādātamid yaśaḥ.

Indra, lord of honour, excellence and majesty, honoured by songs of celebration, served and pleased with streams of sweet soma in homage, pray protect and promote our soma-yajna of life and endeavour. By you alone is acknowledged the honour, joy and value of life and karma.

7. Abhi dyumnāni vanina indraṁ sacante aksītā. pīvī somasya vāṛḍhe.

Seekers and celebrants, serve Indra and pray for honour, excellence and prosperity of imperishable value, and as I drink of the soma of his grace, so he too waxes in divine joy as he accepts our homage.

8. Arvāvato na ā gahi parāvastaśca vrtrahan. Imā juṣasva no girah.

Indra, lord destroyer of the clouds of darkness, giver of the showers of joy and prosperity, come to us, dynamic celebrants of life and divinity, come from far and near, receive, acknowledge and cherish these songs of ours offered in homage.
9. Yadantarā parāvatamarvāvatam ca hūyase.
Indreha tata ā gahi.

Indra, lord giver of prosperity, invoked from within, from far and from near, come from there, anywhere, take us and bless us with grace.

Mandala 3/Sukta 41

Indra Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

1. Ā tū ā indra madryagghuvānaḥ somapītaye.
Haribhyām yāhyadrivalḥ.

Come lord of clouds and mountains, Indra, illustrious as the sun, invoked and invited, come straight to us, wholly without reserve, come for a drink of soma by horses fast as wings of the winds.

2. Satto hotā na rtviyastistire barhirānuṣak. ayujran prātaradrayaḥ.

The yajaka is seated for our yajna according to the season, the seats are fixed and spread in order, the stones have been used for the morning libations.
3. Imā brahma brahmavāhaḥ kriyanta ā barhiḥ sīda.
Vihi śūra puroḷāśam.

These hymns are sung in honour of Divinity. O Spirit Divine, come and grace the sacred grass. O lord of power and majesty, come and enjoy the delicious offering.

4. Rārandhi savaneṣu ṇa eṣu stomeṣu vṛtrahan.
Uktheṣvindra girvaṇaḥ.

Indra, lord of honour and excellence, destroyer of darkness and evil, breaker of clouds and harbinger of showers, celebrated in song, abide and rejoice in these celebrations of the season’s prosperity in our yajnas, in these hymns of divinity and in these holy chants of mantras.

5. Matayaḥ somapāmurum rihanti śavasaspatim.
Indraṁ vatsam na mātaraḥ.

Intelligent people love Indra, great and broad minded, lover of soma and protector of honour and prosperity, and commander of strength and power, just the same way as cows love their calf.

6. Sa mandasvā hyandhaso rādhase tanvā mahe.
Na stotāram nide karaḥ.
Indra, lord lover of soma and commander of power, rejoice at heart with your whole personality for the realisation of food, energy and wealth of life. Let not your devotee and celebrant face an occasion of embarrassment, blame, insult or contempt.

7. Vayamindra tvāyavo haviṣmanto jarāmahe.
   Uta tvam-asmayurvaso.

Indra, lord of love and power, we, your devotees and admirers, bearing gifts of homage, sing and celebrate your honour. And you love us too, our very shelter and home.

8. Māre asmad vi mumuco haripriyārvān yāhi.
   Indra svadhāvo matsveha.

Indra, lord lover of speed and progress, forsake us not, leave us not, go not far away, come hither close to us. Lord self-sufficient and self-refulgent, be here with us. Rejoice.

   Gṛtaṇśu barhirāsade.

May two carriers with flames of fire, fed on clarified and bright burning fuel, carry you forward, up and down, in a comfortable car and reach you to the heights of the sky.

Mandala 3/Sukta 42

Indra Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

   Indra, lord of power and honour, come hither to our soma yajna and taste our soma seasoned with cow’s milk. Come by your chariot drawn by horses, self-programmed to reach us.

   Indra, lord of power, honour and prosperity, come taste this pleasure of soma floating in the skies and distilled by the clouds. Great are the virtues of this soma, highly soothing, satisfying and inspiring.

3. Indramitthā giro mamācchāguriṣitā itaḥ. Āvrte somapītaye.

   Let my words of adoration thus inspired rise up from here and reach across the sky beyond the clouds to share the ecstasy of soma with Indra.
4. Indraṁ somasya pītaye stomairiha havāmahe. ukthebhīḥ kuvidāgamat.

We invoke and invite Indra, lord of energy and knowledge, here, with songs of adoration and words of sacred speech, to have a drink of soma, and we pray he may come again and again.

5. Indra somāḥ sutā ime tān dadhiṣva śatakrato. Jaṭhare vājinīvaso.

Indra, father of morning freshness, lord of a hundred acts of yajna, distilled are these soma essences. Take these, hold them safe in the treasury of this world for a fresh lease of life’s energy.

We know you for sure, O lord of knowledge and vision, winner of wealth and bold fighter of battles for health and energy. And now we pray to you for the gift of peace and comfort of well-being.
7. Imamindra gavāśiram yavāśiram ca nah pība. Āgatyā vrṣabhiḥ sutam.

Indra, lord of power, honour and energy, come and have a drink of this soma of ours filtered with the shower of clouds, reinforced with rays of the sun and accompanied by a diet of barley milk.

Indra, lord lover of power and energy, for your drink I distil and reinforce this soma in my own yajnic house of science. It would inspire, strengthen and delight your heart.

Indra, veteran lord and ruler of the world, we children of knowledge and humility invoke and invite you to have a drink of the soma of our own making for the sake of protection and progress.

Mandala 3/Sukta 43

Indra, lord of honour and power, riding your chariot, come to us for a drink of soma, brilliant and exhilarating, distilled from the light of the sun. Leave your favourite horses behind. These yajakas bearing fragrant offers of homage invite you to the yajna vedi.

2. Ā yāhi pūrvirati carṣanirāṇ aryā āśiṣa upa no haribhyām. Imā hi tvā matayaḥ stomataṣṭā indra havante sakhyāṁ juṣāṇāḥ.

Indra, lord and leader of the nation, come to us across the multitude of people by your chariot of horse power to receive our blessings of old and our good wishes. These worshipful people all with songs of adoration invoke and invite you, they love to be friends with you.

3. Ā no yajñam namovṛdhaṁ sajośā indra deva haribhiryāhi tūyam. Aham hi tvā matibhir-

Indra, brilliant creator of wealth and master of development, come fast by your car of motive power as a friend to join our yajnic programme of development for the growth of food, energy and overall prosperity. With the best of people, in the best of words and thought, I invite you and welcome you with the best of delicious offerings to our house of honey sweets.

And while these mighty friendly powers of light and wind, well employed in a beautiful car immaculately built, transport you to join the session of developmental programme as a partner, I pray, O friend, listen to the adorations of a friend.

O lord, make me a great protector of the cow, the earth and the holy Word. Lord of wealth and power, lover of simple and natural ways of living, make me a brilliant guardian of the people. Make me a man of sagely vision, a seer of divine mantras, and bless me with knowledge and immense wealth of imperishable value.

Indra, adorable lord giver of honour, excellence and prosperity, the motive powers of your chariot, mighty and harnessed together like fire and wind, impetuous forces of potent and generative nature, rise and fly to the heights of the sky, dividing the space, as if, into two. May these powers, well refined, reinforced and accelerated, complementarily exhilarated, carry you forward and transport you to our house of yajnic development.

Indra, lord of power and passion for life, drink of the potent soma created by the vibrations of generous nature and brought down from the sky by the eagle flights of your car for you, lord of love and ambition, for your people. It is in the ecstasy of soma that you inspire the children of the earth with energy, and it is in the ecstasy of that energy that the earth abides and turns round and round.
8. Śunaṁ huvema maghavānām indramasmin bhāre nṛtamaṁ vājasaṭau. Śṛṇvantamugr-āmūtaye samatsu ghanantaṁ vṛtrāṇi samjitaṁ dhanānāṁ.

We invoke, invite and call upon Indra, lord creator and giver of knowledge, best of the leaders of humanity, in this battle between the learned and the ignorant, for success in discrimination between knowledge of truth and ignorance, for initiation and completion of our search for knowledge and in our battles between the good and evil forces. We call upon Indra, destroyer of conflict, winner of wealth and knowledge, sympathetic listener and lustrous lord of judgement and discrimination, and above all commander of wealth, power and honour for the good of humanity.

Mandala 3/Sukta 44

Indra Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

and the horses are sun-rays.)

   Lord of love and beauty, you shine the dawn.
   Lord of light, you illuminate the sun.
   Lord omniscient, light of the world, Indra, riding the sun-rays, you create and augment all the beauty and wealth of the world.

   The heaven which holds the light of the sun,
   the earth which wears the green apparel of light, and the middle regions between heaven and earth in which the light shines and the winds blow and where food for life abounds in plenty, Indra, lord of light and life holds it all and sustains.

   Rising and manifesting, the potent lord of light and showers of generosity illuminates the beautiful world of existence. The lord of sunrays in his arms wields the blazing weapon of thunder and lightning. And he holds and sustains the sun and shines self-refulgent.

Indra, the sun, with its brilliant rays, uncovers and manifests his glorious form of light girdled round by the radiant halo and with his light reaches and reveals the earth and her environment sprinkled over by cloud showers.

Mandala 3/Sukta 45

Indra Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

Indra, lord of honour and excellence, come by the rays of light, beautiful and colourful as the feathers of the peacock. May none, as fowlers ensnare birds, catch you. Outskirt the fowlers as a rainbow and come.
2. Vṛtrakhādo valāṁrujaḥ purāṁ darmo apāmajaḥ.
   Sthātā rathasya haryorabhisvara indro ṅṛīṁ hūṁ cidārvaḥ.

   Indra is the breaker of the clouds. He shatters the caverns of the demons, routs the cities of sin and releases the flow of waters. Sitting firm in the middle of the chariot behind the horses in the uproar like the sun on the back of the rays, he breaks even the unbreakables.

   Pra sugopā yavasam ḍhenavo yathā ḍharaṁ kulyā evāśata.

   Indra, lord of life, power and prosperity, you promote and overfill the yajna and bless the yajamana like the deep sea and protect the earths, cows and the grass for them. As a good cowherd protects and feeds the cows and guards the fodder for the cows, so do you, O man, protect and promote the yajna. And as the cows gain the food, and as the rivers and rivulets reach the sea for self-fulfilment, so would you enjoy the delicacies of life and reach the Lord, Indra, for self-fulfilment.

4. Ā nastuvaṁ rayiṁ bharāṁśaṁ na pratijānate.
   Vṛkṣaṁ pakvaṁ phalaṁkīva dhūnuṁhīndra samāraṇaṁ vasu.

   Bring us wealth of the world, brilliant and indestructible, as our share, for the devotees in a bond of covenant. As a gardener with his hook shakes a tree laden with ripe fruit, so shake for us the auspicious tree of life and bring down the fruits of wealth and light from the heights of heaven to help us cross the seas of the material world.

Indra, you are self-sufficient, self-refulgent, sovereign, innately honourable, self-growing with your own lustre, universally admired and celebrated. Be most kind and benevolent to us, we pray.

Mandala 3/Sukta 46

Indra Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

Indra, great are the acts and achievements of yours, Indra, mighty fighter, virile and generous, self-refulgent, lustrous and blazing, young, firm and senior, fierce challenger, unaging youthful, hero of thunder and lightning, famous and great.
Mahān asi mahiśa vrṣṭyebhirdhanasprṛdugra sahamāno anyān. Eko viśvasya bhuvanasya rājā sa yodhayā ca kṣayayā ca janān.

Great you are, adorable high, mighty winner of wealth with showers of generosity, fierce and potent, challenger and vanquisher of adversaries. You alone are the sole ruler of the world. Go, move the people, make them fight the adversities and settle them in peaceful homes.

P maṃrābhī ririch rācharmānā: p durbhbhūvibhūvata apṛtatāt: ā p mūṣyamānā dvāvāvāvāvā vijñānā: pāramā̄hā anantānta gātrān- jīṣī: ̄ 3 ̄

Self-refulgent, Indra exceeds all measures of definition and description. With his own majesty, he is uncomprehended by all the brilliances of the world. With his own omnipotence, he is greater than heaven and earth. And simple and natural in character and function, he is greater than the mighty space and time in existence.
4. Uruṁ gabhīram januṣābhyugram viśvavya-casamavataṁ maṅgaṁ. Indraṁ somāsah pardivi sutāsah samudram na sravata ā viṣanti.

Men of peace and vision, fed on the light of divinity and nectar from heaven, attain and enter the presence of Indra, vast and deep, potent and lustrous by nature, all-world comprehensive, guardian of humanity and promoter of collective vision and intelligence, in the same way as streams of water flow and reach and enter the ocean.

5. Yaṁ somamindra prthividyāvā garbham na mātā bibhṛtastvāyā. Taṁ te hinvanti tamu te mṛjantya-dhvaryavo vrṣabha pātavā u.

Indra, lord of power, honour and generosity, the soma, life’s joy and ecstasy, which by virtue of your love and law, earth and heaven bear as a mother bears the baby in her womb, the highpriests of the yajna of love and nonviolence purify and promote as homage in service to you.

Mandala 3/Sukta 47

Indra Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

1. Marutvāṁ indra vrṣabho raṇāya pibā somam-anuṣvadham madāya. Ā siṅcasva jaṭhare madhva ūrmim tvam rājāsi pradivah sutānām.
Indra, lord of the winds and showers of favour from heaven, drink the soma of the light of divinity and life’s joy and ecstasy to your heart’s content for inspiration and exhilaration. Let the waves of the honey sweets of soma quench your thirst and exhilarate your ambition. You are the ruler and protector of the light and joy distilled from heaven on earth.

Indra, friend of humanity, companion at the table, commander of the winds and forces of your auxiliaries, breaker of the cloud and dispeller of darkness, wise and brave, destroy the enemies, initiate and push on the battles, and create fearlessness all round for us.

Indra, ordainer, preserver and sustainer of the cycle of seasons, protect and promote the soma distilled by divines and friends for us according to the seasons. Protect and promote the Maruts, storm troops of yours who, in your service, destroy adversaries, dispel darkness to bring in the light of reason and divinity, bring showers of rain and, for you, win and bear the honour and grandeur of majesty.

Indra, lord of honour, prosperity and majesty, drink the soma with your friends and stormy troops of the Maruts who did you proud in battle against the darkness of serpentine forces, and, O lord of sunrays, who fight on in the battle for waters, light and cows, and celebrate with those wise scholars and sages who exhilarate, exalt and enlighten you in the joy of victory.
Mandala 3/Sukta 48

Indra Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

The newly risen sun, mighty generous and beautiful, protects the essence of food in order to sustain and promote it for life. Indra, O sun, drink first the good and delicious essence of soma mixed with milk as it suits your desire, and protect and promote the soma for life.

(The mantra also applies to the brilliant ruler of the social order, and every new authority of taxation and the defence, protection, promotion and development of the people and the order, the primary aim being happiness and progress of society with taxes as the means and not the end strictly, with reference to the needs of the system.

The mantra can also apply to the birth of human life, its growth and maturity. It can be applied to the birth of the sun itself in the process of creative evolution. In short, Indra should be interpreted as the sun, the human soul, i.e., jivatma, the creative energy and the ruler.)

2. Yajjāyathāstadararasya kameṁ’soh pīyūṣama-pibo giristham. Tam te maṭā pari yoṣā janitrī mahaḥ piturdama āśiṅcadagre.

As you were born, that same day, in the desire for life and sustenance, you drank the nectar sweet of soma abiding and maturing in the cloud and on the mountain, which your loving mother, as life’s creative spirit, inspired with love, recreated and nourished for you in the house of your great father much in advance of your birth.

Having approached the mother, he yearned for food and saw her breast overflowing with exhilarating soma of milky food and fiery energy. Growing, going forward, moving and leading others, strong and wise, versatile in form and action, he performs great deeds.

Blazing brave, lustrous and impetuous victor over fastest forces, overwhelming in strength, he is a versatile master of his manifestation in action. By nature and birth he commands and controls the creative energy for development and, drawing it in from nature, he drinks the soma from all sources of nature and humanity.

We invoke, invite and call upon Indra, auspicious and benevolent giver, commander of wealth, power and honour, best of men and leaders, for protection, defence and victory in this battle of life. He listens to prayer for protection in battles and rises, a fierce fighter, destroyer of demons and dark clouds, and winner of the wealths of life.

Mandala 3/Sukta 49

Indra Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

1. \(\text{Śaṁśa mahāmindram yasmin viśvā ā krṣṭayah}
\text{somapāḥ kāmamavyan. Yaṁ sukratum dhiṣaṇe}
\text{vibhvataśtaṁ ghanam vṛtrāṇāṁ janayanta devāḥ.}

Celebrate and glorify Indra, ruler of the world, great, hero of noble actions, fashioned by all pervading divinity, breaker of the clouds and dispeller of the forces darkness, whom the brilliances of the world elect and heaven and earth consecrate as ruler, and in whom all soma-makers and soma-lovers of the world find fulfilment of their heart’s desire.

Yamn nu nakh pṛtañāsu svarājam dvitā tarati nṛtamaṁ hariṣṭhām. Inatamaḥ satvabhīrīyō ha śūṣaiḥ pṛthūjrayā aminādāyudasyoḥ.

In battles, none for certain can surpass Indra, self-refulgent and blazing by his manifold strength. Best of men and leaders is he, abiding with humanity in command of his impetuous forces. Most potent is he and most determined, widest in reach and effect, and with his essential purity of mind and strength of character, he frustrates the life and age of the wicked to naught.

3.

Sahāvā prutsu taraṇīnāva vyānaśi rodasi meha-nāvān. Bhago na kāre havyo matīnāṁ piteva cāruḥ suhavo vayodhāḥ.

Undeterred and victorious in battles, instant in action, going forward like a current of energy, he vibrates through heaven and earth. Rich and generous, lord of power and prosperity, he is to be invoked and invited in yajnic programmes of enlightened people like a very shower of rain. And he is kind and generous, ever gracious, ready like a father with gifts of life and sustenance for his children.
4. Dhartā divo rajasaspṛṣṭa ērdhvo ratho na vāyurvasubhir-niyutvān. Kṣapām vastā janitā sūryasya vibhaktā bhāgam dhiṣaṇeva vājam.

Sustainer of the light of heaven and earth and the skies, all pervasive, going high and higher like a chariot, mighty as the wind, controller and ruler of the people by the people, he is the light of dawn after the night of darkness, creator and harbinger of new and higher light, and, like the generous heaven and earth, giver of our share of food, energy and success in life.

5. Śunām huvema maghavāṇamindramasmin bhare

In this battle of our life for food, energy and victory in the struggle, we invoke, invite and call upon Indra, best and highest of men and leaders, auspicious and generous lord of power and prosperity. Bright and blazing is he, listens graciously when we call upon him in the battles for defence, protection and success, destroys the demons of darkness, and wins the wealths of life for his children and celebrants.
Mandala 3/Sukta 50

Indra Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

1. Indraḥ svāhā pibatu yasya soma āgatyā tumro vrṣabho marutvān. Öruvyacāḥ prṇatāmehbirannairāsyā havistanvah kāmamṛdhyaḥ.

   Indra, strong, virile and generous, lord creator and giver of power, prosperity and excellence of life, commanding the force of the winds and stormy troops over the wide world, may, we pray, come, and having come enjoy the offerings made in truth of word and deed with faith and humility and, pleased with these offerings, grant fulfilment of the devotee’s mission of earthly existence.

2. Ā te saparyū javase yunajmi yayoranu pradivaḥ śruṣṭimāvah. Iha tvā dheyurharayaḥ suśipra pibā tvasya suṣutasya cāroḥ.

   For your fast movement in work and travel I employ the fastest vehicles and appoint the most dynamic people in your service by which you come fast and protect the light of the world for us. O warrior of the helmet, lord of beauty and grace, may the intelligent and industrious people help you on here where you may drink this delicious soma of our making with them.
1. Indra, strong, virile and generous, lord creator and giver of power, prosperity and excellence of life, commanding the force of the winds and stormy troops over the wide world, may, we pray, come, and having come enjoy the offerings made in truth of word and deed with faith and humility and, pleased with these offerings, grant fulfilment of the devotee's mission of earthly existence.

2. For your fast movement in work and travel I employ the fastest vehicles and appoint the most dynamic people in your service by which you come fast and protect the light of the world for us. O warrior of the helmet, lord of beauty and grace, may the intelligent and industrious people help you on here where you may drink this delicious soma of our making with them.

3. With words of welcome and praise, the celebrants install and consecrate Indra, the ruler, generous as showers and saviour promoter of the common wealth, in the highest office of governance. O lord ruler, drink and enjoy the soma of the nation's prosperity and happiness, and, moving on the simple and natural paths of progress, initiate, inspire, and bring us many ways the knowledge, lands and cows required for the people.

4. This desire, prayer and programme, O lord of power and prosperity, fulfil to our heart's desire over the earth and extend it to the heights of heaven, with abundance of cows, horses, golden prosperity and celebrated means of success and advancement. May there be glory to you and joy come to the earth. In search of light and joy, earnest sages and scholars of holy Shastras with their understanding, imagination and resolution, together with the will of the people, compose this prayer and exhortation for you, lord ruler of the world, and present it to you for the honour and excellence of life.

5. Śūnāṁ huvema maghavānāmin drāmasmin bhare nṛtamaṁ vājasātau. Śṛṇvantamugr-amūtaye samatsu ghnaṁ vṛtrāṁ samjitaṁ dhanānām.

In this battle of existence, for the sake of success and victory, we invoke, invite and call upon Indra, best and highest of humanity, auspicious creator and commander of power, prosperity, honour and excellence of life. Blazing glorious is he, intent listener to prayers of his people, a fierce fighter for protection and progress, a destroyer of the demons of darkness, evil and poverty, harbinger of the showers of prosperity and a victor of trophies and treasures of corporate life.

Mandala 3/Sukta 51

Indra Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

Address these comprehensive words of prayer and celebration with offers of yajna to Indra, lord ruler and sustainer of the people, munificent, honourable, growing in power and prosperity, universally acclaimed and celebrated, immortal in fame and glory, close and closer day by day in love and exhortation of the people. Let the songs glorify the lord.

1. शातक्रतुमणवं शाकिनं नरं गिरा म इन्द्रमुर्य यन्ति विश्वतः।

2. सताक्रतुम-अर्णावं शाकिनं नरं गीर्मा इन्द्रम-उपा यांति विश्वतः।

My words of prayer and praise constantly reach Indra, lord of a hundred great acts of yajna, deep and munificent as the sea, mighty powerful, leader, source of sustenance and light, winsome warrior and victor, shatterer of the strongholds of evil, instant starter and instantaneous reacher, sanctifier of the home, presiding presence and ceaseless shower of bliss.

3. Ākare vasorjaritā panasyate’nehasaḥ stubha indro duvasyati. Vivasvataḥ sadana ā hi pipriye satrāsāham-abhimātihanam stuhi.

In the house of wealth, the celebrant of Indra is praised. Indra loves and appreciates the simple and honest prayers and celebrations of the innocents. In the house of light and splendour, he feels pleased. O man, praise and pray to the challenger of evil forces and the destroyer of adversity.

4. नष्टामु त्वा नृत्तमं गिर्भिरुक्ताक्तथादि प वीरमचता सुबार्धः।
सं सहस्स सुरुम्या जिहीतं नम्मं अस्य पदिवं एकं इशं॥ ४ ॥

Indra, let all honour and adore you with holy words and songs of worship, you who are mighty brave and best of men and leaders.

Indra is irresistibly brave, strong against the violent, highly meritorious, and he goes forward for a test of victory. All alone he rules over the heavens and the enlightened children of the earth. Salutations to the sole lord ruler of his world of light and life.

5. पुर्विरस्य निषिद्धा मत्येषु पुरुसं वसुनि पृथिवी विभिन्ति।
इन्द्रव्य द्वाय आर्षधीरूतापम् रूथियं र्र नृत्तं जीर्यर्वं वर्णनं॥ ५ ॥

Many and ancient are his blessings and defences among the people. Abundant wealth does the earth hold. The regions of light, the sun light, the greenery, the flowing waters and vapours, the veteran citizens, the forests, all these hold, preserve and protect many forms of wealth for Indra, ruler of the world.

Indra, lord of excellence, accept and cherish the songs of the celebrants which bear the wealth of divine praise in your honour, which bear the truth of existence with gratitude. O lord omnipresent, lord of vitalities, friend and shelter of all, know this, and bring for the celebrants the latest methods of protection and good health and long age.

7. Indra marutva iha pāhi somāṁ yathā śāryāte apibaḥ sutasya. Tava praṇīti tava śūra śarme-nnā vivāsanti kavayaḥ suyajñāḥ.

Indra, leader of heroic warriors, in this business of the world, protect the joy and excellence of life as you protect the joy of those who resist danger and violence to their lives. O lord commander of the brave, intelligent people of imagination and yajnic action adore and pray for your ways of conduct and restful haven for home.

Indra, lord of love and majesty, invoked and invited by many, come with the storm troops of the winds and vitalities, and, here in the world, taste, protect and promote our soma of life’s joy and excellence distilled by our friends and vibrant youth, since as you arose and manifested to view, all the brilliances of the world adored and investiture you with power and honour for the sake of grandeur and glory in life.

This lord Indra is a friend and universal ally. The Maruts, vibrant youth and stormy troops of the nation, stand by him and exhort and exalt him in the speedy march of the nation to victory. With these, may Indra, consuming, absorbing and transforming the dark energies of life to light and joy, drink the soma distilled in the generous yajamana’s own house.

10. Idam hyanvojasā sutam rādhānāṁ pate. pibā tvasya girvaṇaḥ.

O lord and ruler of wealth, power and potential, drink the exciting soma of this generous yajamana, elaborately distilled with vigour and splendour and offered with the voice of homage and reverence.

11. \textit{Yaste anusvadhāmasat sute ni yaccha tanvam.}
\textit{Sa tvā mamattu somyam.}

Indra, lord ruler of the world, whatever and whoever be in accord with your power and pleasure, pray control, direct, administer and order the body-polite into settled form, and may all that give you pleasure and satisfaction, lover and creator of soma peace as you are.

12. \textit{Pra te aśnotu kukṣyoh prendra brahmaṇā śiraḥ.}
\textit{pra bāhū śūra rādhase.}

Indra, heroic lord ruler of the world, whatever you receive into the body of your treasury for asset and energy, may that wealth and energy inspire your mind with knowledge and enlightenment, and strengthen your arms for potential development of the wealth of nations.

Mandala 3/Sukta 52

\textit{Indra Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi}

1. \textit{Dhānāvantāṁ karambhiṇamapūpavantam-ukthinam. Indra prātarjuṣasva naḥ.}
Indra, lord of wealth, honour and excellence, accept and enjoy in the morning our gift of homage and yajna mixed with roasted rice and curds and sanctified and offered with the chant of holy words.

1. पुराणां पचाश्यं जुषस्वन्दा गुरस्व च।

   Indra, accept and enjoy the purodasha cooked and seasoned with soma, relish and grow strong. The sweets of offerings flow to you.

3. पुरोषाश्चं च ना घसा जाष्यास गिररश्च नः।
   वध्यूरित्व याष्णाम॥ ३ ॥

   Accept and eat the purodasha and cherish the voices of exhortation offered by us like one impassioned for the love of his wife.

4. पुरोषाश्चं सनन्ध्रुत पातः साव जुषस्व नः।
   इन्द्र कतुहि त्य ब्रह्म॥ ४ ॥

   Indra, lord of universal word of wisdom and discrimination, accept and enjoy our purodasha offered in the morning session of yajna. Great is your word and light and creative action of cosmic dimensions.
Indra, lord of wealth, honour and excellence, accept and enjoy in the morning our gift of homage and yajna mixed with roasted rice and curds and sanctified and offered with the chant of holy words.

Indra, accept and enjoy the purodasha cooked and seasoned with soma, relish and grow strong. The sweets of offerings flow to you.

Accept and eat the purodasha and cherish the voices of exhortation offered by us like one impassioned for the love of his wife.

Indra, lord of universal word of wisdom and discrimination, accept and enjoy our purodasha offered in the morning session of yajna. Great is your word and light and creative action of cosmic dimensions.

Indra, lord of light and power, accept, enjoy and sanctify the taste and joy of the yajnic rice and pudding of the mid-day session of the yajnic business of life which the singer, celebrant and generous devotee eager for the success of his endeavour profusely offers in worship and homage to you with words of love and faith.

O lord of knowledge and poetic imagination admired and revered by many, in the third and closing session of the day’s programme of yajnic action, accept, enjoy and exalt the value of our gift of rice and pudding which we, doing our best in thought and action, bring and offer to you, lord in command of food, energy, knowledge and expertise of the art of living.

We prepare the roasted grain and curds for you, giver of health and nourishment, lord of sunbeams possessing the fastest means of motion. O breaker of the clouds of rain and dispeller of the shades of darkness, heroic brave, master of knowledge, relish the cake and drink the soma with your friends and supporters and commandos of the speed of winds.

Bear and bring roasted rice and purodasha in homage fast and full for this hero of the best of leaders and warriors. Indra, fierce and fiery hero of arm and speech, may the forces of equal form and performance rise for you, dedicated as you are to the soma of life’s dignity and excellence, and may they exalt you with glory day by day.

Indra-parvata, Indra, Vak, Rathanga Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi
1. Indrāparvatā brhatā rathena vāmīrīṣa ā vahatam suvīrāḥ. Vītam havyānyadhvareṣu devā vardhethāṁ gīrbhirīlayā madantā.

Indra and Parvata, sun and cloud, come on the grand chariot of light, wind and rain, bring us lovely foods and drinks of energy for the heroic people, O powers divine and generous, receive the offerings in the yajnas of love, faith and non-violence, feed on the music of the songs, and wax with the hymns of celebration.

2. Tiṣṭhā su kam maghavan mā parā gāḥ somasya nu tvā suṣutasya yaksi. Piturna putraḥ sicamā rabhe ta indra svādiṣṭhayā girā śacīvah.

Maghavan, lord of wealth, power and prosperity, come and stay at peace in comfort, do not go away, feed yourself at pleasure in company with us on the soma joy of excellence. Indra, lord ruler of a noble people as you are, as a child clings to the hem of the father’s cloak for love and security, so do I, with sweet words and prayer, seek shelter and support in you for security and peace.
3.  Śaṁśāvādhvaryo prati me grñihīndrāya vāhaḥ kṛṇavāva juṣṭam. Edam barhiryajamānasya sidā’thā ca bhūdukthamindrāya śastam.

Let us sing in praise of Indra, O high-priest of non-violent yajna, join me in response to my voice and we’ll create a lovely song of exaltation for Indra. Come, sit on the holy grass of the yajamana and then let there be an excellent song of jubilation in honour of Indra.

Indra, maghavan, lord of power, prosperity, peace and passion of life, the wife is the real spirit of the home. She is the haven of conjugal bliss. There may the horses yoked to your chariot bear you. And whenever we prepare the soma, then let Agni, the fire of life, be the messenger of passion and inspiration for you.

5.  Parā yāhi maghavannā ca yāhīndra bhrātaru-bhayatrā te artham. Yatrā rathasya bṛhato nidhānaṁ vimocanam vājino rāsabhasya.

Maghavan, lord of power and prosperity, go far, and come back home. Brother, both ways there is a meaning and purpose for you, here as well as there, where there is the start (with harnessing of the horses) or the finish of your grand chariot of power and speed (with unharnessing of the horses at the terminal).

Indra, lord of peace and joy and brilliance, drink the soma, go home, the delightful haven, there is your blessed love, there is the start and finish of your grand chariot journey for the brilliant battle, there is the harnessing and unharnessing of the horses. And there you are abundant with charity.

9. Mahāṁ ṛṣirdevajā devajūto’stabhnāt sindhum-arnavaṁ nṛcaksāh. Viśvāmitro yadavahat sudā-samapriyāyata kuśikebhirindraḥ.

Great and glorious is Indra, Rshi, all-seeing, all-revealing, generator of all forces of nature and, manifested in all these, vibrates in and by all these and in great minds. He wields and sustains the river and the ocean, the flow of nature’s energy as well as the ocean of nature’s particles of matter and energy. And he watches all humans for what they do and what they ought to do. He is the friend and well-wisher of the world since he showers his gifts of generosity on all. Universal is his love since he blesses us with guides and teachers who know and show us the right ways of successful living.

10. HaÅsŒ iva k्रµutha ślokamadribhirmadanto girbhiradhvare sute sacŒ. DevebhirviprŒ řšayo nµcakšaso vi pibadhvaṁ kušikāḥ somyam madhu. Like hansa birds singing and rejoicing by the beauty and majesty of cloud showers, O Kushikas, vibrant sages and scholars, seers of nature and divinity, divining into the mysteries of omniscience, watching the ways of vast humanity, joining together with the divinities of nature and brilliances of humanity, in the non-violent yajnas of love and faith enacted and conducted, sing songs of Divinity in celebrative words of holy joy and drink the nectar sweets of soma replete with the power of peace and divine ecstasy.

11. Upa preta kušikāś-cetayadhvam-aśvaṁ rāye pra muñcatā sudāsah. Rājā vṛtraṁ jaṅghanat prā-gapāgudagathā yajāte vara ā prthivyāḥ. O brilliant scholars and sages, teachers and preachers, heroes of action, dedicated to Divinity, yajnic charity and fraternal expansion, go forward together, awake and awaken the community, release vibrant energy and motive powers for the attainment of wealth, honour and excellence. Let the refulgent ruler break the clouds of rain, dispel the darkness all round, east, west, north, south, up and down below, and then perform the yajna of unison on the wide earth.

   I serve and worship Indra who protects both heaven and earth and the firmament between the two, the people of this all bearing mother earth and the wealth and power of the friendly world of humanity.

   Friends of the world, sing songs of exaltation and gratitude for Indra, lord of thunderous arm and power who blesses us with wealth and all round potential for success.

   What do the cows do for you in the country of the selfish! They yield no milk, nor do they raise the flames of yajna fire. Bear and bring up the hoard of the miserly and the avaricious in the open, subject them to law and control those who cower under pretence of squalor and poverty.

15. Sasarpārīramatīṁ bādhāmānā bṛhanmimāya jamagadnidattā. Ā sūryasya duhitā tatāna śravo deveṣvamṛtamajuryam.

Living knowledge and language flowing from Eternity given through direct experience of the eye, physical, mental and spiritual, preventing ignorance and superstition, is daughter of the sun, gift of the omniscient lord, which, like the dawn, revealing the vast reality of existence, brings in and extends an immortal and imperishable stream of awareness and experience among the brilliant devotees of Divinity.

That stream of language and knowledge, flowing ever anew from the lord of light, bearing new life and age with fresh energy is the same which the grey-haired veteran scholars of cosmic vitality earlier gave to me, and the stream bears superior kind of food and nourishment for body, mind and soul for the seekers among all the five classes of dynamic people.

Let the oxen of the chariot be strong and steady, let the axle be strong, let the shaft never break, may the yoke never be damaged. May Indra, lord of inviolable chariot and action, be friendly with us to give us strength and to renew whatever is wearing out.

Indra, Spirit of life and vitality, give strength to our bodies, put strength into our animals. Give strength and vital energy to our children and our youth. You alone are the giver of strength, energy and vitality.

Aksha, centre hold of knowledge, vision and power, bring us the centre strength of the Khadira wood for our chariot of life. In our body and mind, as in the motion of a chariot, infuse light and lustre. O master of strength and light, universally admired, inspire us with strength and courage of the conviction, forsake us not in the streaming flow of life and time.

20. अयामस्मान वनस्पतिर्माचा हा मा का रिरिषत।
Svastyā gṛhebhya āvasā ā vimocanāt.

May Vanaspati, lord of the light of life, never forsake us. May the chariot of life never hurt us. May the lord and life be good and kind to us and our homes while we are riding the chariot until we reach the terminal and the horses are released.

इन्द्रितिभिषबुलाभिनां अच्छ्य योच्छ्याभिर्मघवव्यं जिन्व।
या ना हुष्टनुद्रुः सर्पदीप्य यमु द्विष्मस्तमु पाणा ज्ञहातु॥ २१॥

Indra, potent lord of honour and prosperity, come to us today with ample modes of best and highest modes of protection and give us the joy of life. Whosoever hate us may, we pray, fall down, and whatsoever we all hate, that, we pray, may the breath of life forsake.

परण्यं चिंद्र्य तपति शिम्बलं चिंद्र्य वृक्षचत।

22. Paraśuṁ cid vi tapati śimbalamḥ cid vi vr̥ścati.
Ukha cidindra yeṣanṭi prayastā phenamasyati.
Indra, lord ruler of the realm, just as the arm-smith heats the steel and tempers the axe, or the gardener plucks off the shimbala flower, or the boiling pan, bubbling over, throws out the froth and foam, so does the commander of the army throw out the enemies.

The brave take no cognition of the pain of arrows. They lead the greedy opponent anywhere, feeling that he is just a human animal. They do not demean the weak foot-soldier by a bold horse-warrior, nor do they lead the horses by an ass in the forefront.

Indra, these boys, followers of the veteran commander, know retreat as well as advance, spur on the horse like a spirit inspired and send out the twang of the bow string in battles and contests always without exception.
Indra, lord ruler of the realm, just as the arm-smith heats the steel and tempers the axe, or the gardener plucks off the shimbala flower, or the boiling pan, bubbling over, throws out the froth and foam, so does the commander of the army throw out the enemies.

The brave take no cognition of the pain of arrows. They lead the greedy opponent anywhere, feeling that he is just a human animal. They do not demean the weak foot-soldier by a bold horse-warrior, nor do they lead the horses by an ass in the forefront.

The celebrants create and raise this inspiring song of praise again and again for all time in honour of the great adorable lord of mighty yajnic cosmic action. May Agni listen to our prayer with all the controllable blazing lights and forces. May Agni, eternal light of life, with all divine powers listen to us.

Offer ecstatic songs of celebration in honour of high heaven and vast earth. Knowing these, and desiring fulfilment, man goes forward for the light of heaven and dominion over the earth. Surely in the songs of heaven and earth, the divine powers of nature and the best of humanity join together and rejoice in the yajnic battles of life.
3. Yovorṛtaṁ rodasī satyamastu mahe śu ṇaḥ suvitāya pra bhūtam. Idaṁ dive namo agne pṛthivyai saparyāmi prayasā yāmi ratnam.

O heaven and earth, may your universal law of divinity be realised in truth in our human world across the globe. Be good and kind to advance us to greatness and glory in comfort and well-being. Agni, O lord of the dominion, this song and yajnic offering is in honour of heaven and earth. I serve with the best of effort and thereby move on to the jewels of life.

O heaven and earth, abiding in and by the universal law of existence, veteran sages of knowledge and voice of truth know you and obtain the fruit of their desire. O mother earth, the pioneers and leaders of humanity too, knowing both of you, in the battles of the brave and struggle for life’s prizes, achieve the jewels of their heart’s desire.
5. Ko addhā veda ka iha pra vocad devāṇ acchā pathyā kā sameti. Dadṛśra eṣāmavamā sadāmsī pareṣu yā guhyeṣu vrateṣu.

Who knows here for certain, who can say, which path for sure leads to the lights of the Divine? (He knows.) Who can divine into the secret laws of the farthest mysteries? Who actually see even the nearest and closest operations of these? (He.)

The one omniscient poet creator watching the entire world of humanity comprehends, illuminates and oversees the two worlds of heaven and earth, both rejoicing in accord yet sustained apart by one law of existence, in the cosmic womb of nature’s divinity, making one but various home as the birds’ on the same one tree.

7. Samānyā viyute dūre ante dhruve pade tastha-turjāgarūke. Uta svasārā yuvaṭi bhavanṭi ādu bruvāte mithunāni nāma.

Alike yet apart far off at the end, they abide in orbit ever awake and youthful, strong and stable, and moreover they are called twin sisters since their very birth, dyava-prthivi, heaven and earth, by name.

These two, heaven and earth, one together for sure, yet separate and distinct in identity, holding and sustaining all the great earthly and celestial created objects, do not deviate from their orbit. Vibrating yet constant and stable, the one universe, existence born in all its variety, moving, flying, expanding all round, is sustained (by its sole lord and master creator).

I study the ancient and eternal, yet ever new, heaven and earth, twin creation of our great father creator, just like our brother and sister, wherein brilliant forces of nature, celebrants of the Divine creator, with their powers and attributes abide and operate in the wide open paths of space in existence.

O heaven and earth, I sing this song of divine praise and celebration for you. May simple and noble hearted people of natural truth and honesty, Mitra, universal friends, brilliant rulers and administrators, Varuna, powers of justice and discrimination, youth, Adityas, enlightened people of blazing genius, and poets of open and expansive mind and intelligence may hear this and proclaim the truth with a tongue of fire.

Savita, creator and giver of light and life, lord with the golden arms of sunrays and a noble tongue of fire, descends from the heavens thrice, protecting, sustaining and advancing us in our yajnic programmes of life. O lord of light, Savita, hear our song of celebration and exaltation, diffuse the light, sweetness and fragrance among the nobilities of humanity over earth and divinities of nature in space, and create and then bring us all round prosperity and well being.
10. \( \text{Imam stomam rodasi pra bravimyrdudarah srnavannagnijihvah. Mitrah samrajo varuno yuvana adityasa kavaya paprathana} \).

O heaven and earth, I sing this song of divine praise and celebration for you. May simple and noble hearted people of natural truth and honesty, Mitra, universal friends, brilliant rulers and administrators, Varuna, powers of justice and discrimination, youth, Adityas, enlightened people of blazing genius, and poets of open and expansive mind and intelligence may hear this and proclaim the truth with a tongue of fire.

11. \( \text{Hiranyapanih savita sujihvastrir divo vidathe paryamanah. Devesu ca savita slokamaashre-radasmabhyma suva sarvatim.} \)

Savita, creator and giver of light and life, lord with the golden arms of sunrays and a noble tongue of fire, descends from the heavens thrice, protecting, sustaining and advancing us in our yajnic programmes of life. O lord of light, Savita, hear our song of celebration and exaltation, diffuse the light, sweetness and fragrance among the nobilities of humanity over earth and divinities of nature in space, and create and then bring us all round prosperity and well being.

May the brilliant Tvashta, divine creator and maker of forms and institutions, noble of action and generous of hands, self-possessed of light and wealth, and keeper and observer of the laws of truth and science of yajna, bring us all those gifts of prosperity and well being for our protection and advancement. Rejoice ye Rbhus, experts of yajna, and yajakas rich with food and fragrance for nourishment. The clouds on high, the mighty mountains and the soma stones are up and ready, the yajna is organised, conducted and accomplished.

Stormy troops of Marut commandos riding electric chariots, strongly armed, brilliant, mortal fighters, truly disciplined, prompt and powerful, worthy of honour and reverence, lightning smart, and mother Sarasvati, mother of knowledge and language of command, may, we pray, listen and bring us wealth alongwith brave progeny.

May our songs and yajakas, following the divine path of the creator of life’s honour and excellence, reach Vishnu, omnipresent lord of marvellous actions. Great is he, mighty his deeds and gifts. Even heaven and earth, dyavaprthivi, ancient and eternal, ever youthful mothers of life, cannot violate him.

15. Indro Viśvairvīryaiḥ patyamāna ubhe a paprau rodasī mahitvā. Purandaro vytrahā dhṛṣṇuṣe-ṇaḥ saṅgṛbhyaḥ na a bharā bhūri paśvaḥ.

Indra, sustaining and preserving both heaven and earth with universal vitalities like a father and guardian, pervades and fills both with his divine power. O lord commander of terrible forces, breaker of clouds and destroyer of darkness, shatterer of enemy forts, create and develop a lot of wealth and bless us all with that wealth, power and honour.

Ashvins, imperishable complementarities of nature and humanity such as heaven and earth, sun and moon, heat and cold, father and mother, working in cooperation, together as in a circuit of energy, are my sustainers like parents and care givers like brothers and sisters. Their kinship itself by birth and nature is worthy and venerable.

Ashvins, you always abide strong and stable as givers of our wealth, honour and fame and, intrepidable as you are, you protect and promote the gift and the giver by acts and means which are not selfish nor ungenerous but which are liberal and philanthropic.

Poets, scholars and visionary sages, great and auspicious is that name and reputation of yours since you rise to be world renowned celebrities in the roll of honour of the social order of Indra. O lord, Indra, approved, invited and invoked by many, friends with these dear enlightened experts and sagely scholars, refine this corporate intelligence and sharpen this vision of ours for common progress and prosperity of the nation of humanity.
18. Aryamā no aditiryajñīyāsō’dabdhanī varuṇasya vratānī. Yuyota no anapatyānī gantoḥ prajavān nah paśumān astu gātuḥ.

May Aryama, lord of justice, Aditi, unimpaired fertility of Mother Nature, and sages dedicated to yajna protect and promote our vows of the discipline of Varuna, lord of rectitude, intact and unviolated. O Spirit of Divinity, ward off the causes of childlessness and sterility from our path of life so that our course of home life may be blest with progeny and cattle wealth.

19. Devānāṁ dūtāḥ purudha prasūto’nāgān no vocatu sarvatātā. Śrṇotu nah prthivī dyaurutāpah sūryo nakṣatrairurvantarikṣam.

Agni, messenger of the devas, i.e., vibrations of the forces of nature and voice of the visionary teachers of the wisest of humanity, arisen many ways and bearing all-round knowledge, may speak to us in our state of open, uncoloured and unvitiated mind and bring us the tolerance and forgiveness of the earth, enlightenment of heaven, peace and coolness of waters, light and life giving vitality of the sun, and the vastness of expansive space with stars and planets. And may all these forces and personalities listen and perceive our signals and be in contact with us.
20. Šṛṇvantu no vrṣaṇaḥ parvatāso dhruvākṣemāsa iḷayā madantaḥ.  Adityairno aditiḥ śṛṇotu yacchantu no marutaḥ śarma bhadram.

Let the raining clouds, mighty mountains and constant stars at peace, ecstatic participants with the earth and cosmic energy, receive our signals. Let the constant inviolable energy of the cosmos with light of the stars radiate and reach us. Let the winds provide us the joy of well being and peaceful shelter.

May the path be straight and clear, full of wealth and prosperity. O brilliant and generous powers of nature, fill the herbs with honey to the full. Agni, brilliant and generous power, may honour and prosperity forsake me never, nor my friends, during our friendship that is abiding. And may I be blest with wealth and a house of plenty and generosity.
Agni taste and relish the oblations offered, shine and illuminate knowledge and energy all together, and let food, energy and knowledge flow towards us. You win all those, and those enemies in battles for victory. Be happy and kind at heart and let all the days of life be bright for us.

Mandala 3/Sukta 55

Vishvedeva Devata, Prajapati Vaishvamitra or Prajapati Vachya Rshi

उषसः पूवा अध यद व्यूषुपमहदि जज्ञ अ गरं पद गा: ।
वाता दुवानामुपु नु पुभूर्षन्महद्वानीमसुर्वमकर्मम् ॥ १ ॥

Before the dawns of primeval time, which arose and shone bright, later reflecting and illuminating the ordained tasks of the forces of nature, arose Mahat, the first manifest principle of imperishable Prakṛti in the depth of oceanic space. Great and One is the living spirit and glory of the divine refulgent forces of the universe.

माषूणा अत्र जुहर्न्त दुवा मा पूवर्य अग्य पितर्यः पद्यम्: ।
पुराण्या: सच्चना: कतुरूत्नमहद्वानिमसुर्वमकर्मम् ॥ २ ॥

Agni, lord and light of the world, in this universe and its business of knowing and doing, we pray, may the brilliant forces of nature and humanity never oppose and hurt us, may the primal pranic energies of parental sustenance never neglect and damage us, may the one great principal bright and breathing spirit in the primal forms of existence never hurt us. Great and one is the life and glory of the multiple divinities of the universe.

My desire and ambitions are great and many, they soar high and far in search of holy fulfilment. I pray I may realise them well in solemn yajnic action, shine myself and illuminate the ancient traditions. Let us all speak the truth, sing songs of Divinity when the fire is rising in flames of yajna, and let us exalt the universal law of Divinity operative in the universe. Great, glorious and one is the life and spirit of the divinities of natural force.

One self-refulgent ruler, constant and unvariable spirit and presence pervades the inexhaustible forms of Prakṛti, dormant in inert matters and energies, and moving and extending with waves and currents of water, light and other energy forms to the sunrays and green forests. One mother Prakrti, bears the individual form such as the baby, the other, Divine Spirit, rules and sustains it. Great and glorious is the one living, breathing, omnipresent and omnipotent spirit of the inexhaustible variations of nature’s divinities.

5. Ākṣit pūrvāsvaparā anūrūt sadyo jātāsu taruṇi-ṣvantaḥ. Antarvatīḥ suvate apravītā mahad devānām-asuratvam-ekam.

Life abides in the ancient forms and in others, later ones, asserting with the desire to be, in the new born ones and in the mature youthful ones, and fertilising the unfertilised. Great is the glory of the generous and refulgent powers of nature’s Divinity, one and only one.

6. Śayuḥ parastādadha nu dvimātā’bandhan-aścarati vatsa ekaḥ. Mitrasya tā varuṇasya vratāṁ mahad devānām-asuratvam-ekam.

Agni, vital heat of life, pervades far and farthest, dormant or manifest, child of two mothers, akasha and vayu, space and cosmic energy, moving and operating freely without bonds, by itself. All this is within the laws of the one supreme lord, universal friend and controller of the universe. Great and glorious is the life and action of the living forces of nature, one and indivisible.

Agni, self-refulgent child of two mothers, cosmic space and cosmic energy, universal yajaka in cosmic yajna and, on the seats of yajna such as earth, moves on in its orbit fixed by the Divine and shines and abides in the vast space. Happy celebrants bear and offer joyous songs of homage to the sun and the cosmic energy of Agni. Great and glorious is the life and refulgence of the divinities of nature, one and only one.

All that comes into the light of the brave refulgent sun ever on the move and striking everything at the closest and farthest seems on the left side of the light, inferior. Source of light and intelligence for the world, it moves through and across the objects in the womb of cosmic space. Great and glorious is the life and vital power of the divinities of nature, one and only one.

He that pervades all, ancient and eternal self-refulgent creator and harbinger of light and knowledge, great and glorious, vibrates wide awake in all these modes of Prakṛti by his beauty and majesty. Wielder and sustainer of all forms and institutions, ever manifest and eloquent, speaks to us in the soul, that is the great and glorious life breath of all the divinities of nature and humanity, one and absolute without a second.

Vishnu, lord omnipresent, all pervasive, all protective, wielding and sustaining all the dear immortal homes of existence, preserves and promotes the highest food and agents of life such as heat, water, air and the earth. Agni, vital heat and light of life’s vitality, knows, reaches and maintains all the regions of the universe. Great is the glory of the life breath of the divinities of nature and humanity, one and only one.
11. Nānā cakrāte yamyā vapūṃṣi tayoranyad rocate krṣṇamanyat. Śyāvī ca yadaruṣī ca svasārau mahad devānām-asuratvam-ekam.

Two twins, night and day, manifest in many forms and reveal all those many forms. One of them shines bright, the other is dark. The dark one and that which is bright are sisters. Great is the glory and power of the divinities of nature, one and undivided.

Where mother and daughter, day and night, heaven and earth, generous as cows, yielding nourishments sweet as nectar, together feed each other, there I offer worship, O lord ruler of the world, to you in the house of universal truth and law. Great and glorious is the life and action of the divinities of the universe, one, undivided and absolute.

Kissing and caressing the other’s child, i.e., the cloud, which is a concentration of vapours from the earth, the mother sky waxes with joy and laughs with thunder. By which process of nature’s, by which region of space, does she hold the milk of life in the breast? She receives it from the waters of the universal order and waxes, and the earth grows with nourishment from the nectar waters of the sky. Great and one is the glory of the divinities of nature.

(The earth too, as one of the mothers, kisses and caress the heavens’ child, sunlight, and waxes with joy. She fills her breasts with nourishment with rain from the skies and feeds both human life and nature. The vapours then rise and shower down, completing the cycle of nature’s law.)

Padyā vaste pururūpā vapūṁṣyūrdhvā tasthau tryavim rerhāṇā. Ṛtasya sadma vi carāmi vidvān mahad devānām-āsuraṇam-ekam.

The earth bears and sustains many forms of innumerable variety. The high heaven, caressing the sun, sustainer of the three regions of the earth, middle region and the region of light, stays above. Knowing this, I move freely in the house of Rtam, the cosmic order. Great is the glory and one the variety of the Lord’s omnipotent Infinity.

Pade iva nihite dasme antastayoranyad guhyamā-viranyat. Sadhrīcīnā pathyā sā viśūcī mahad devānām-āsuraṇam-ekam.
 Positioned both inside the same one wonderful house of space, one of them is hidden in the dark, the other is manifest in open day light. Their path of movement and their goal is one and the same, universal, and yet it is different and separate, (they meet and yet they never meet). Great is the glory of the Infinite Divine, one and yet different.

16. Ā dhenavo dhunayantāmaśśivīḥ sabardughāḥ śaśayā apradugdhāḥ. navyānivyā yuvatayo bhavanīrmahad devānām-asuratvam-ekam.

Let the ‘cows’, day and night, heaven and earth, stars and planets, move and shake and shower the nectar milk of light and life, vibrant and full, abundant and inexhaustible, like youthful maidens ancient yet ever fresh anew. Great is the glory and gifts of Divinity, various, infinite, yet one, undivided, indivisible.

17. Yadanyāsu vṛṣabho roravīti so anyasmin yūthe ni dadhāti retaḥ. Sa hi āryāvantā yāgaḥ sa rājā mahad devānām-asuratvam-ekam.

The one omnipotent lord, sun and shower of the days and nights, roars with creative passion in all regions and directions of skies and space, and he plants the seed of life in the multitudinous variety of the forms of the other, Prakṛti. He alone is the beauty and majesty of the nights as the moon, he is the blazing splendour of the day as the sun and the ruling law and lord of the universe. Great is the glory and life breath of the inexhaustible divinities of nature, one, inviolable, absolute.

Come ye all people, let us sing and celebrate the wondrous valour and vibrancy of this great hero, Indra, the soul. Sages and scholars know of him. Six and six, five and five horses draw his chariot, (these being five perceptive faculties and one intellect, five volitional faculties and one mind, five principal pranic energies and five subordinate pranic energies). Great is the glory and majesty of the lord of divine variety, one and only one.

19.

Self-refulgent and generous lord of existence as Tvashta, maker of forms, and as Savita, generator and giver of light and vitality, inspiring and pervading the universe, creates, nourishes and sustains his children and all these worlds of the universe in many ways and thus manifests himself in infinite forms and ways. Great is the glory and unity of the divine forms of his creation and of the divine breath of life in them.

Indra, omnipotent lord creator, inspires the great and united heaven and earth with light and life, and they both are blest with the splendour and generosity of this lord. And I, brave and free, blest with honour and prosperity of the divine gifts of heaven and earth, hear of the glory and generosity of the lord. Great is the glory and great the gifts of the lord’s divinities, all one and united.

Like a brilliant ruler who is a benevolent friend of his people, and like the warlike heroes, leaders, pioneers and citizens who bring victory and prosperity to their motherland, Indra, omnipotent lord creator, abides by the heavens and by this mother earth of ours which contains all our wealth and sustains all her children. Great is the glory and great the gifts of the lord’s divinities, all one and united.
thus manifests himself in infinite forms and ways. Great is the glory and unity of the divine forms of his creation and of the divine breath of life in them.

Indra, omnipotent lord creator, inspires the great and united heaven and earth with light and life, and they both are blest with the splendour and generosity of this lord. And I, brave and free, blest with honour and prosperity of the divine gifts of heaven and earth, hear of the glory and generosity of the lord. Great is the glory and great the gifts of the lord's divinities, all one and united.

Indra, lord of honour and excellence, auspicious and generous is the world of your creation, soothing are the herbs, energising the waters, wondrous the wealth earth bears and sustains. O lord of beauty and majesty, let us be friends with you, sharers of your honour and excellence. Great is the glory, one the spirit, and absolute the power and spirit of your divine manifestations. Let us be one with glory and divinity.

Mandala 3/Sukta 56

Vishvedeva Devata, Prajapati Vaishvamitra or Prajapati Vachya Rshi

Original and inviolable are the laws and observances of divine forces in nature and in humanity. Enchanters cannot transgress them, wise men of steady mind do not violate them. Neither heaven and earth, nor scholars free from hate and jealousy with all their knowledge, nor the fixed mountains can break or bend the strong and resolute.
2.  Śaḍ bhārāṁ eko acaran bibhartyaṁ varṣiṣṭhamupa gāva āguḥ. Tisro mahīruperāstas-thuratyā guhā dve nihite darśyekā.

One constant and unmoving bears six burdens. The moving ones go round the one which is sun and shower and the universal law. Three great regions go round in space in constancy. Two remain hidden in the cave of mystery. One is apparently seen.

(The one unmoving is Ishvara who creates Mahat and five elements from Prakṛti. Three great ones are Bhu, earth, Bhuvah, the middle region of the sky, and Svah, the region of light, of which the higher two are unseen while the earth is seen. Another interpretation is that the one unmoving is the sun, the six are the seasons. The one constant can be interpreted as Prakṛti also which bears Mahat and the elements and the three greats as sattva, rajas and tamas. The mantra is mystical and mysterious and the beauty is deep in mystery.)

3.  Tripājasya vrśabhō viśvarūpa utra tryudhā purudha praṇāvān. Tryanīkaḥ patyate māhināvāntsa retodhā vrśabhaḥ sāsvātināṁ.

The sun and shower and the Law is lord of three worlds, bears the forms of the universe, feeds the three worlds like the mother cow, sustains all and fathers the children of existence. Three are his beautiful forces, sattva, rajas and tamas. Lord of highest power, he rules and sustains all. Lord of power, sun and shower, he bears the seed of all the universal forms of existence.

Immanent in these stages of the evolution of forms such as stars and living beings, the lord knows them all and I, in love and devotion, invoke and chant his gracious name. The celestial currents of water and ergy love to flow for him, each in its separate path, to him and from him.

5. Trī śadhasṭhā sindhavastriḥ kaviṇāmūta trimātā vidatheśu samrāṭ. Rūtāvarīryoṣaṇāstisro apyastrirā divo vidathe patyamānāḥ.

Self-refulgent creator is the ruling lord of light and life in all cosmic acts of creation and sustenance.
Three are the rolling floods of light, air and waters, in heaven and skies and on the earth. Of the vision, thought and expression of the sagely poets and Rshis, he is the origin and inspiration. Three are the streams of causal, subtle and physical energy with cosmic truth and law flowing to the life on earth like youthful maidens rushing to meet their lover. Three are the regions and three the lights, agni (fire) on earth, vayu (air and electricity) in the sky, and aditya (light) in heaven, sustaining life in the cosmic yajna in three sessions.

6. Trirā divāḥ savitarvāryāṇi divediva ā suva trirno ahaṁ. Tridhātu rāya ā suvā vasūni bhaga trātardhiśaṇe sātaye dhāḥ.

   Savita, lord creator and giver of light and life and inspiration, bring us three of the choicest blessings of wealth and excellence day by day in three sessions of daily yajna. Create and give us the wealth of three metals of excellent order. O lord of honour and excellence, saviour and sustainer, O heaven and earth, O mother Sarasvati, bear and bring us the patience, courage and fighting strength for winning the victories of life.

7. Trirā divāḥ savitā soṣavīti rājānā mitrāvaruṇā supāṇi. Āpaścidasya rodasī cidurvī ratnam bhikṣanta savituh savāya.

   Thrice does Savita shower us with inspiration and energy from the light of heaven, so do Mitra and Varuna, refulgent powers of nature and humanity, friendly, just, and generous of hands. Indeed, the flowing waters, heaven and earth and the wide firmament, all pray for the gifts of light, wealth and power from this lord Savita for yajnic advancement in life.

8. Triruttamā dūṇaśā rocanāni trayo rājantya-surasya vīrāḥ. Rātāvāna iṣirā dūḷabhāsastrirā divo vidathe santu devāḥ.

Three are the best and highest lights, formidable and indestructible: fire, electricity and the solar energy. These three brave and heroic powers of the lord of light and life’s energy shine in the world. Heroes of truth and cosmic law and the fluent light of rectitude, vibrant and tempestuous, blazing brilliant far and wide, may, we pray, shine like divinities thrice and threefold in the yajnic battles of life by virtue of the lights of heaven.

Mandala 3/Sukta 57

Vishvedeva Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

1. Pra me vivikvāṅ avidanmanīśāṁ dhenum caranīṁ prayutāmagopāṁ. Sadyaścid yā duduhe bhūri dhāser-indras-tadagniḥ panitāro asyāḥ.

Let the man of discrimination know and appreciate my language and intelligence, rich and versatile, freely moving like a cow over the wide wide pasture, i.e., field of knowledge, which always readily yields the abundant milk of knowledge. Agni and Indra, the powerful and the brilliant, are great admirers of this understanding and language of knowledge.

2. Indraḥ su pūṣā vṛṣaṇā suhastā diva na pṛītāḥ duduhre. Viśve yadasyāṁ raṇayanta devāḥ pra vo’tra vasavāḥ sumnam-asyām.

Indra and Pusha, the power and the pranic energy of divine nature, generous and inexhaustible with open hands like happy friends, shower the gifts of the light of heaven and reveal it in the language of divinity. Brilliances of the world rejoice in the acquisition of this light of knowledge and language. O Vasus, scholars of the first order, I wish and pray I may benefit from the pleasure and peace of your gifts of light, knowledge and the language of divinity.

3. Ya jāmayo vṛṣaṇa icchanti śaktim namasyanīrjanate garbhhamasmin. Acchā putraṁ dhenavo vāvasānā mahaścaranti bibhrataṁ vapūṃṣi.

Those young women who love and desire the virility and vitality of a youthful husband, knowing that they have come to maturity and there is full vitality of impregnation therein, approach the man in marriage with reverence and love in a graceful manner and, like cows in season, receive and bear and rear the great gift of a baby having a handsome body of full and perfect parts.

(The image in this mantra describes not only the relationship of man and woman in married life but also the relationship of heaven and earth and the rain of fertility from the clouds in the process of natural procreation.)

4. Acchā vivikmi rodasī sumeke grāvno yujāno adhvare manīśā. Imā u te manave bhūrivārā ūrdhvā bhavanti darśatā yajatrāḥ.

O men and women abundant and generous as clouds, joined together in home yajna, with the best of mind in the best of words, I revere and celebrate heaven and earth, man and woman joined together with heart and mind in marriage as two-in-one. O men, these women are showers of love and joy and prosperity for you. They rise high, sweet and soothing and beautiful, equal partners in the family yajna and divine procreation, worthy of respect and reverence as the flames of yajna fire.

5. Yā te jihvā madhumati sumētha agne deveśūcyata urūcī. Tayeha viśvān avase yajatranāsādaya pāyayā cā madhūni.

O Agni, fire of home yajna, gracious lady of the house, honey sweet is your tongue like the beautiful flame of light which radiates intelligence and wisdom far and wide and wins admiration among the noblest people. With this sweetness and light of speech and grace of manner, bring in on the vedi of home yajna all the sagely souls worthy of reverence and let them drink of the nectar sweets of a blessed home.

(The mantra also implies the women’s contribution to the material prosperity and cultural grace of a happy home.)

6. Yā te agne parvatasya eva dhārāsāscāntī pīpayad deva citrā. Tāmasmabhyaṁ pramatiṁ jātavedo vaso rāsva sumatiṁ viśvajanyām.

Agni, presiding power and light divine of the yajnic home, wonderful is the flame and fragrant flow of your generosity which swells and showers like the streams of a cloud without reserve or fear or favour. With that same abundant flow, pioneer intelligence, noble wisdom and universal mother fertility, O treasure home of prosperity and power omniscient and omnipresent, we pray, bless us.

Mandala 3/Sukta 58

Ashvinau Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi
1. Dhenuḥ pratnasya kāmyaṁ duhānā’ntaḥ putra-ścarati dakṣiṇāyāḥ. Ā dyotaniṁ vahati śubhrayāmoṣasah stomo aśvināvaḡaḥ.

The holy cow, dawn of the Voice Divine, overflowing with love and beauty of Eternity, the light and meaning of the Voice like the calf borne in the womb of exuberant mystery, moves around at freedom. The dawn riding a radiant chariot, harbinger of a new day, she bears and brings the light of truth, and the song of the dawn is awake, O Ashvins, teacher and disciple, the light and life of the world is live.

2. Suyug vahanti prati vāmṛtenordhvā bhavanti pitareva medhāḥ. Jarethāmasmad vi paṇermanīśāṁ yuvoravaścakṛmā yātamarvāk.

O Ashvins, harbingers of the light of life, right thoughts and intelligence, vision and wisdom move towards you by the paths of universal truth and law and rise higher as children look up to the parents and rise. Come up front, ward off from us the disposition of greed and poor calculation, teach us the right ways of dealing with the business of living, and we shall do what your pleasure is.

3. Suyugbhiraśvaiḥ suvṛtā ratheṇa dasrāvimāṁ ṣṛṇutam ślokamadreḥ. Kimaṅga vāṁ pratyavar-tiṁ gamiṣṭhā’’hurviprāso aśvinā purājāḥ.
Ashvins, harbingers of light and life, destroyers of suffering and poverty, listen to this prayer of the yajamana liberal as the cloud: Come by fastest horses well yoked to the chariot of the wheels of whirlwinds. O dear friends, our breath of life, haven’t the sages of yore said of you that you are instant fighters against want and deprivation?

4. Ā manyethāmāgataṁ kaccidevairviśve janāsō aśvinā havante. Imā hi vāṁ gorjīkā madhūṇī pra mitrāso na dadurusro agre.

Ashvins, scholars, teachers, specialists, come by whatever fastest means of transport you can at the earliest and study our plans and projects. All the best people of the world invite and call upon you. These cherished programmes and achievements on earth and plans of solar energy are for your consideration which, as friends, they dedicate to you for approval and application in advance of the sunrise.

Ashvins, experts of arts and sciences, equal friends, ever youthful, constantly true, readily helpful to the distressed, abundantly generous, come you both by the winds yoked as horses to the chariot, without delay, without injury to yourselves, join us and drink the soma of joy.
let your songs of praise ring among the people. Reach here by paths of brilliant sun-rays. O destroyers of suffering and poverty, all the treasures of sweets and pleasure are for you.

Ashvins, leaders of the human nation, old and constant is your friendship, blissful, restful and pleasing as a holiday home. Your wealth and power lies in the culture and philosophy of the self-sacrificing pioneers. Let us together, equal and alike, doing friendly and benevolent acts, again and again, join, sing and celebrate.

Ashvins, experts of arts and sciences, equal friends, ever youthful, constantly true, readily helpful to the distressed, abundantly generous, come you both by the winds yoked as horses to the chariot, without delay, without injury to yourselves, join us and drink the soma of joy.
Ashvins, scholars and masters of science and technology, may abundant energy and maintenance and comprehensive success come to you to your heart’s desire. May conscientious people, self-controlled, indefatigable in effort, with words of thanks and praise, approach and assist you. Your chariot built with the materials of nature on the principles of natural force and law, powered with solar energy, spatial electricity and vapours of the clouds, and accelerated by thunderous friction of gears goes round earth and heaven at instant speed.

Ashvins, leaders of the nation’s defence and governance, the power and glory of the soma of our success is overflowing, with the highest sweetness of honey, pure as well as shared by you and all. Come, taste of it and enjoy and celebrate, and protect it in the home. Your chariot indeed is wondrous of form and perennial in performance. Surely the action and effort of the creator and builder and of the maker of soma is come to success. Let us call it a day!

Mandala 3/Sukta 59

Mitra Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

Mitra, Lord omnipotent, self-refulgent sun, speaking to people, and directing them through their direct experience, inspires and moves them to act and exert. Mitra holds and sustains the heaven and earth and the children of the earth. Mitra fully watches the people and their actions without a wink of the eye.

Mitra, lord of universal love, Aditya, lord self-refulgent, may that person be active and alert in action, blest with ample food and drink and the joy of life who abides by your divine law and learns and makes others learn the ways of divine discipline and action. O lord, the person under your gracious protection is neither conquered nor killed by any mortal. Sin and evil reach him not, much less touch and pollute, either from far or...
from near.

Anamîvāsa ilayā madanto mitajñavo varimannā prthivyāh. Ādityasya vratamup-akṣıyanto vayaṁ mitrasya sumatau syāma.

Free from physical and mental sickness and disease, all rejoicing by virtue of the wide earth, under instructions of the divine Word, strongly organised and moving freely over the vast expanse of mother earth, abiding by the rule and discipline of the self-refulgent sun, may we, we pray, live under the benign eye of Mitra, lord of universal light and love, and have the benefit of his favour and pleasure.

Mitra, lord of universal love and friendship, is worthy of reverence and worship. He is worthy of service and giver of peace and comfort. He is the brilliant ruler of the vast social order of the world, all wise by nature and manifestation. Let us act and conduct ourselves so as to have the benefit of the love and favour of this lord worthy of homage and service in yajna and enjoy the bliss of his kindness and grace.

Aditya, lord self-refulgent and inviolable, is great, approachable with humility and faithful offerings in yajna. Inspiring people with courage and self-confidence to act and exert themselves, he is the giver of peace and joy to the thankful celebrant. For such a friendly lord most adorable, offer this cherished stream of oblations of havi into the holy fire.

6. Mitrasya carṣaṇīdhṛto’vo devasya sānasi. Dyumnaṁ citaśravastamam

The care and protection, wealth and enlightenment of the self-refulgent sustainer and ordainer of humanity is eternal and omnificent, most wonderful and inexhaustible, glorious and infinite.

Mitra, lord of universal love, light and friendship, having created the heaven and earth along with their light, food and energy, manifests himself by the expansive universe, and transcends them both by his supreme omnipotence.

All the five classes of people offer service and oblations to Mitra, radiant lord of love and friendship, who commands all desirable power and protection. That lord sustains all the brilliant and generous powers and forces of nature and humanity.

Among the brilliant and generous people and among the average people too, Mitra, radiant lord of universal love and friendship, creates and provides for fulfilment of the desires of the man of renunciation dedicated to yajnic offerings, in response to his observance of the chosen vows of holy discipline.

Mandala 3/Sukta 60

Rbhus, Indra Rhbus Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

1. Iheha vo manasā bandhutā nara uśijo jagmurabhi tāni vedasā. Yābhirmāyābhiḥ prati jūti varpasāḥ saudhanvānā yajñīyaṁ bhāgamānāsa.
O Rbhus, leaders of science and technology, your intelligent fraternity is right here and here only, where men of passion and determination advance and reach those goals by that art and those techniques, miraculous ones, by which you, warriors of the bow and children of the skies, instantly changing roles and taking tempestuous forms, achieve your rightful share of the fruits of yajnic endevour.

1. Iheha vo manasā bandhutā nara uṇijo jagmurah. Yabhirmāyabhāhi pratijāutivarpasa-naudhanavanā yajūiyaā bhāgamānaśa.

O Rbhus, by the knowledge and powers with which you make and break the clouds, by the skill with which you resuscitate and rejuvenate the cow from a skeleton and win back the earth with the shield of protection, and by the mind with which you create the energies and design circuitous movement, by these you rise to the brilliance of divinity.

Men of intelligence, wisdom and vision, enjoy the love and friendship of Indra, lord omnipotent of the world. They perform actions worthy of the son of infallible man. Warriors of the bow, dedicated to noble action with good intention and righteous resolution, doing acts of goodness leading to peace and joy, attain the state of immortality.

4. Indreṇa yātha sarathāṁ sute sacāṁ atho vaśānāṁ bhavathā saha śriyā. Na vah āpratimai sukṛtāṁ vāghataḥ saudhanvanā ṛḥavo vīryāṇi ca.

O Rbhus, leaders and pioneers of humanity, commanders of knowledge, science and power, warriors of the bow and rovers of the skies, when the soma is distilled and the nation is on top, go forward and rejoice with the honour and splendour of the land, sharing the chariot as friends with Indra, and then be one with the plenty, prosperity and grace of the people who love you. There is nothing equal to your valour, courage and noble achievements.

5. Indra ṛhubhirvājavadbhiḥ samuṣitaṁ sutam somamā vr̥ṣasvā gabhastyoh. Dhiyeśito maghavan dāśuṣo grhe saudhanvanebhiḥ saha matsvā nṛbhiḥ.

Indra, lord of power and splendour, come with the Rbhus, commanders of plenty and energy of the winds, and shower the soma distilled and supervitalised into the bowls of the suppliants. Lord of magnificence, inspired with love and gifts of intelligence, come to the house of the generous giver and rejoice with the people and the pioneers.

6. Indra ṛbhumaṇān vājavāṇ matsveha no’smint-savane śacyā puruṣṭuta. Imāni tubhyaṁ svasarāṇi yemire vratā devānāṁ manuṣaśca dharmabhiḥ.

Indra, lord commander of the intelligent and energetic wielders of power, sung and celebrated by many, give us the gift of joy and the grace of holy vision and action in this session of yajna. These daily sessions, and the laws of nature along with the dharmic and karmic observances of humanity move but only in your service.

7. Indra ṛbhubhir-vājibhir-vājayanniha stomam jariturupa yāhi yajñiyam. Śatam ketabhir-iṣire-bhir-āyave sahasraṇītho adhvarasya homani.

Indra, giver of life’s honour and excellence, come with the visionaries of light and intelligence, come with leaders of dynamic action, hastening, strengthening, vitalising, come here and listen to the celebrant’s song of thanks and praise offered in the yajna. Come with fulfilments of a hundred cherished desires, leading men by hundred ways of knowing and doing in the business of yajnic living.

Mandala 3/Sukta 61

Usha Devata, Vishvamitra Gathina Rshi

उषा वाजन वाजिनि परचता: स्तामं जुषस्व गृणाता मंधानि।

1. ुषो वाजेन वाजिनि राजतः स्तोमं जुशस्वा
गृणता मघो। पुराणी दंब्य युक्ति: पूर्विन्धिरनुं वृतं चरसि विश्ववार॥ १ ॥

O Dawn, lady of light, mighty with spirit and energy, replete with intelligence and revelation, mistress of grandeur, accept and enjoy the celebrative address of the admirer. Queen of splendour and generosity, old yet ever youthful, versatile sustainer of many, loved and adored by the whole world, you go on the rounds in accordance with the laws of truth in pursuit of your own discipline.

O Dawn, brilliant and generous harbinger of the day, immortal divinity, shine and illuminate. Come riding the chariot of the beauty and majesty of the moon, inspiring mind and speech with the truth of life and nature. May the well directed horses, which are the resplendent rays of the sun, bring you here on earth.

उर्षः पतीची भुर्वनामिनि विश्वाध्वा तिष्ठस्यमृतस्य कतुः।

3. Uṣaḥ praṭīcī bhuvaṇāni viśvordhvā tiṣṭhasya-mṛtasya ketuḥ. Samānamarthaṁ caraṇīyamānā cakramiva navyasyā vavṛtsva.

O Dawn, breath of nectar and torchlight of immortality, you rise upfront and shine above all the worlds of the universe. Ever new and ever young, serving one master and one purpose, you go round and round as the wheel of time.

अवः स्यूमच छिन्नति पुर्णाच्च यति स्यसरस्य पती।

Come ye celebrants, bear and bring songs of praise with offers of homage to the dawn over there, radiant and inspiring queen of light. Up there in high heaven she holds the nectar sweets and splendour of life, glorious, sublime, and blissful to the sight of mortals.

6. Rūtavāri diva arkaīrabodhyā revaṭī rodasī citramasthāt. Āyatīmagna uṣasāṁ vibhāṭīm vāma-meṣī dravīṇam bhikṣamāṇah.

Observing the Law of Divinity, descending from the heights of heaven, the dawn is revealed by the showers of light, rich in wealth and splendour, illuminating the earth and skies with wondrous beauty.

Agni, enlightened performer of yajna, watching the rising dawn shining in glory, and praying to the Almighty, you attain the wealth of your heart’s desire.

7. Rūtasya budhna uṣasāmiṣānyan vṛṣā mahī rodasī dā viveṣa. Mahī mitrasya varuṇasya māyā candre-va bhānum vi dadhe purutrā.
In observance of the laws of nature, moving the rise of the dawns, the sun, mighty cause of energy showers, pervades and illuminates heaven and earth. The supernal energy of nature, powers of attraction and repulsion, sustains both heaven and earth and the sun as well as the golden moon, in various ways.

Mandala 3/Sukta 62

Devata: Indra-Varuna (1-3), Brhaspati (4-6), Pusha (7-9), Savita (10-12), Soma (13-15), Mitra-Varuna (16-18), Vishvamitra Rshi, or Jamadagni (16-18)

1. Imā u vāṁ bhṛmayo manyamānā yuvāvate na tujuyā abhūvan. Kva tyadindrāvarunā yaśo vāṁ yena smā sināṁ bharathāḥ sakhibhyah.

Indra and Varuna, powers of energy and water, these circuitous revolutions of your energy, highly valuable and undeniable, are not to be opposed or damaged for both of you in the interest of protection and progress, for, if they are damaged, where would be that honour and reputation of yours by which you bear and bring food and comfort for your friends?

This first and most eminent yajaka of all, desirous of wealth, honour and excellence of permanent nature, invokes and calls upon you. Hence you, Indra and Varuna, harbingers of power and peace, together with the winds, heaven and earth, triple energies of wind, light and earth, listen to the call and prayer of mine.

Indra and Varuna, may that wealth of power and peace be for us. O Maruts, heroes of the winds, may that man power of all-heroic order be ours. May the highest powers of nature and humanity protect us with shelter and modes of defence, and may our joint programmes of developmental yajna, and mother earth, and divine knowledge and speech bless us with imperishable gifts of honour, excellence and prosperity.

4. Brhaspate juṣasva no havyāni viśvadevyā.
Rāsva ratnāni dāśuṣe.

Brhaspati, ruler and sustainer of the wide world, master of universal vision and wisdom and guardian of holy speech and yajaka, be pleased to accept our gifts of homage and yajaka. O lord universally adorable, grant us the jewels of wealth and honour in favour of the
This first and most eminent yajaka of all, desirous of wealth, honour and excellence of permanent nature, invokes and calls upon you. Hence you, Indra and Varuna, harbingers of power and peace, together with the winds, heaven and earth, triple energies of wind, light and earth, listen to the call and prayer of mine.

O lovers and seekers of knowledge and the holy Word, in your programmes of education and development, bow in homage with words of gratitude and offers of yajna to Brhaspati, master and guardian of universal knowledge and human speech, with a pure, unsullied mind and intellect.

O lord and master, I love and pray for indomitable courage and valour (to follow the path of universal truth and righteousness).

I bow in homage to Brhaspati, master of knowledge and speech, mighty generous and creative, indomitably brave, exponent of all forms and variations of world knowledge and world language, most eminent and brilliant of scholars among men, the one and only one worthy of choice and homage.

I love and pray for indomitable courage and valour (to follow the path of universal truth and righteousness).
O brilliant master, giver of mental and spiritual nourishment, this is the latest song of homage and reverence composed and sung by us for you in honour of your light of knowledge and flames of fire (for world enlightenment).

Please to accept, appreciate and cherish this song of mine, inspired, true and exciting, and protect the love, thought and beauty of imagination enshrined in it like a suitor’s courting his youthful lady love.

The One who sees all the things and living beings and all the worlds directly and instantly in all their variety, and watches all of them together as one, in truth, that lord giver of life and sustenance, we pray, be our saviour and protector.

We concentrate and meditate on the radiant glory... of self-refulgent lord Savita, lord giver of light and life, who may, we pray, inspire and energise our mind and intelligence. That glory alone is worthy of choice and meditation.

11. \textit{Devasya saviturvayaṁ vājayantaḥ purandhyā. Bhagasya rātimīmahe.}

Inspired, energised and enlightened with far-sighted vision and intelligence, we pray for the divine gifts of generous, gracious and glorious Savita, lord giver of life, light and inspiration.

12. \textit{Devam narah savitāraṁ viprā yajñaiḥ suvṛkти-Bhīḥ. Namasyanti dhiyeṣitāḥ.}

Men of piety, knowledge and intelligence, inspired with will and light divine, who control and direct their mind and sense, bow to generous and self-refulgent Savita in meditation, adore him with songs of ecstasy and offer him thanks and homage with yajnas and self-sacrifice.

13. \textit{Somo jīgāti gātuvīd devānāmeti niṣkṛtam. Ṛtasya yonimāsadam.}

The stream of peace and joy in meditation flows on by the paths of the mind and reaches where the senses and mind terminate, the very seat of light divine and origin of the spirit’s will to move into the existential flow.

सामः अस्माथ्यं द्विपदु चतुष्पदेः च पुषावः।
अनुमीव इष्टस्करत्॥ १४ ॥

Anamīvā iṣaskarat.

May Soma, spirit of peace and joy in nature, blissful as the moon, create healthful foods and drinks, free from disease, for us humans, bipeds, quadrupeds and other animals and fulfil our physical and material needs and desires.

अस्माकमायुवधय्य अभिमाति: सहःमानः।
सामः स्वद्ध्वमार्सद्वत॥ १५ ॥

May Soma, stream of life’s vigour and joy, invigorating health, prolonging life, and resisting, challenging and eliminating devitalising toxins and diseases, all enemies of health and age, abide in our home, our seat of yajna, and our body.

आ नाम भित्रास्वरुपयात्रत्वमूलमु तम।
मध्यः राजासि सुक्रं ॥ १६ ॥

16. Ā no mitrāvaruṇā ghrtaigavyūtimukṣatam.
Madhyā rajāmśi sukratū.

May Mitra and Varuna, sun and shower, heat and cold, fire and water, and friends of the nation inspired with justice and rectitude, fertilise and energise our lands and environment with waters and yajnic enrichments, protect and promote our cows and other cattle wealth, develop our milk products, and make the earth flow with streams of milk and honey. May all these powers do good to humanity, our lands and our homes.

\[
\text{उरुसांसः नमावृद्धा महो द्राज्य राजयः।}
\text{दार्शिष्ठाभि: शुचिवता। १७।।}

17. Uruśaṁṣā namavyādhā mahāna dakṣasya rājathaḥ. Drāghiṣṭhābhiḥ sucivrataḥ.

Mitra and Varuna, friends of humanity, dedicated to justice and values of rectitude, universally adored and exalted with homage, dedicated to observance of truth and purity of life and conduct, you shine and reign by the strength of your will and vision, dexterity of your art and expertise and the acts of persistent patience and endurance.

\text{गृणाना जमदग्निना यान्त्वृतस्य सीदतम।} \text{पातं सार्वमृतावृधा। १८।।}
\]

Mitra and Varuna, friends of humanity dedicated to love and justice, exalted by life and acts of truth, exalting universal law and the flow of existence, celebrated by men of vision dedicated to rational and empirical experience of reality, abide in the house of truth and righteousness on the vedi of yajna, protect, promote and enjoy the beauty, peace and ecstasy of life.

Agni, light and fire of life, brilliant and impassioned people always kindle you to action. Quick, relentless and refulgent, a very home of rest and peace and light as you are, they kindle and raise you with their best and noblest effort and action. O men, join, honour and respect this divine and imperishable power among humanity to full force of illumination, generate this holy power, intelligent, universal and living light for all, generate and develop it to full beauty and delight over the wide earth.

Sa bhrātaraṁ varuṇamagna ā vavṛtsva devāṁ acchā sumatī yajñavanasaṁ jyeṣṭham yajñavanasam. Rātāvānāmādityāṁ carṣaṇīdhṛtam rājānāṁ carṣaṇīdhṛtam.

And O light and fire of life, Agni, bring in your brother and complementary power, Varuna, the very spirit of cool, peace and justice of life, and direct him toward the noble and brilliant performers of yajna. Bring him well with best thoughts and intentions, bring the lover of yajna, highest and most venerable, partner in social organisation, observer of the laws and operations of universal truth and goodness, refulgent as the sun, sustainer of humanity, brilliant ruler, universally accepted and consecrated by the people.

Agni, O friend, loving and gracious, destroyer of enemies, just as a swift horse by a fast moving chariot on the highway and the wheel of Time drives the master to the destination, so come, hasten your friend Varuna, power of peace and justice, to us. O refulgent master of knowledge, being friends with Varuna, the winds and the solar lights of the world, the people and brilliant eminences of the world, reach us, bring us the peace and joy of life. Blazing brilliant and gracious, bring peace and well-being for our children and grand children. O lord of light and knowledge, love and justice, peace and beauty, destroyer of evil, bring us peace, beauty and the graces of life.

4. \[Tvəm no agne varuṇasya vidvān devasya heolo’va yāsisīṣṭhāh. Yajiṣṭho vahnitamaḥ śośucāno viśvā dveśāṁsi pra mumugdhyasmat.\]

Agni, O lord and master of knowledge and enlightenment, we pray, you keep off from us the displeasure of Varuna, highest authority of justice. Lord blazing brilliant and purifying power worthy of invocation, harbinger and disseminator of divine gifts and fragrances, ward away from us the entire hate and enmity the world might have toward us.

5. \[Sa tvəm no agne’vamo bhavotī nediṣṭho asyā uṣaso vyuṣṭau. Ava yaksya no varuṇaṁ raraṇo vihī mṛlikaṁ suhavo na edhi.\]

Agni, lord of light, knowledge and power, pray be our first and last preserver and protector, closest at this rise of the glorious dawn. Delighting, rejoicing and giving, join Varuna at the yajna and bring us peace and joy. Noble yajaka, responsive to our call, come and bless us with goodwill and well-being.
6. Asya śreṣṭhā subhagasya samādg devasya citramā martyēṣu. Śuci ghṛtam na taptamaghyāyāḥ spārhā devasya manihaneva dhenoḥ.

Open, highest and most wonderful among mortals are the gifts and actions of this brilliant, generous and glorious ruler, pure and bright like the heated clarified ghṛta of the inviolable cow, lovely and profuse like the liberality of the abundant cow, mother earth, and the inexhaustible speech of self-refulgent lord of omniscience. He watches all and his gifts are directly visible.

Three are the supreme manifestations of the generous refulgent Agni, true, lovely and universally cherished which arise and shine. Pervasive everywhere in endless space in the presence of the infinite divine lord of the universe, he shines pure, refulgent, generous and beautiful.

(This mantra refers to the various manifestations of cosmic energy which is the existential potential of the Supreme Lord Creator operating at different levels in different modes. In other words, we may call it the manifestations of Adi-Shakti, the Lord’s consort Prakṛti, originally manifesting as sattva, rajas, and tamas.
On earth, Bhuloka, it is fire and magnetic energy, which is agni. In the middle regions of the sky, Bhuvahloka, it is electrical energy, which is vayu. In the higher regions of light, Svahloka, it is aditya, solar energy. The sun too manifests in three different phases, at dawn, at noon and in the evening when it is setting. The efficacy of the sun in these three phases is different.

At the individual human level, it is physical energy, mental energy and spiritual energy. In yet another way it is the vital heat which maintains the physical body, i.e., annamaya kosha; it is pranic energy which maintains the pranamaya kosha and the manomaya kosha; and it is the higher psychic energy which maintains the vijnanamaya kosha and the anandamaya kosha. Of these three, one feeds, the other energises, and the third illumines.

However, mantras such as this have to be interpreted in a state of meditation, and since meditation is the birth-right of every human being, we are free to divine into the mystery of the mantric vision in our experiential way.)

That Agni, harbinger of light and warmth of life, destroyer of darkness and evil, loves, pervades, illuminates and rules over all the forms and places of the world. He is the yajamana, receiver and giver of sweets and fragrances. Riding a golden chariot drawn by ruddy horses and waves of light, delightful of tongue as well as flames of fire, majestic in body form, always rejoicing and emanating joy, he is a very treasure home of prosperity, happiness and excellence like an assembly house of power, governance and wealth of a nation in symbolic form.

A brother yajaka on the yajna vedi of creation and governance, he awakens and enlightens the people. To him they move on to consecrate him in the seat of power and yajna with a long rope of powers, obligations and controls for balance. He abides in the seat of governance and justice fulfilling his roles, generous and brilliant, achieving the dreams and realities of the nation’s imagination.

And may that Agni, leader and lord ruler, knowing everything full well, lead us to that valuable jewel wealth of this world, loved, coveted and enjoyed by the brilliant divinities which the immortals of all the world with their skill and intelligence created and which the heaven and father creator showered and consecrated as real and true.

11. Sa jāyata prathamaḥ pastyāsu maho budhne rajaso asya yonau. Apādaśīrṣā guhamāno antā’’-yoyuvāno vrṣabhasya niṣe.

That Agni, which brings us the jewel wealth of the world, first arises from its original cause in the Mahat-tattva, the first existential evolute of Prakrti. Then it manifests in the sun as light, and then in the middle regions of space as vayu, electricity. Moving without head and feet, concealed yet joining youthfully the inmates of various regions, light in the sun, cloud in the sky, homes of people and depth of the earth, it operates everywhere.

With study and appraisal discover and find energy and power in the original source of cosmic waters and the abode of fire, i.e., the solar energy, currents of wind in the sky and magnetic energy of the earth, energy and power which is lovely, youthful and unaging, energising body systems and giver of beauty and joy. For the generous human soul, seven darling yajakas, i.e., five pranas, mind and intellect create this vital energy in the body.

Here in our human world, in this programme of energy discovery, our parental seniors and thinkers dedicated to the yajna of natural and psychic energy sit at peace in a state of tranquillity, searching and invoking the light of the dawn and discover and open out the showers of energy waves locked up inside the clouds and mountains.

practical apparatuses, dedicated to their mission, they discover the light and thus, with their intelligence and sentiment, strengthen and do good to humanity.

They, best of men, leaders and impassioned pioneers, with a searching mind pursuing the light concentrate and meditate on the sun, all pervasive, ocean deep, strong and bottomless treasure hold of infinite light, language and knowledge, holding and at the same time controlling and directing the radiation of light rays, and they, with words of divine vision and mysterious meaning open up and reveal the wealth of light, word and knowledge.

First they study, reflect and meditate on the seven ultimate forms of mother speech and thus realise and know it in the essence through word, meaning and the self-existent reality behind the word. And having realised the content of divine speech, they celebrate the red lights of the dawn bearing and revealing that lord of speech manifesting by the splendour of the dawn of knowledge.

17. Neśat tamo dudhitaṁ rocata dyaurud devyā uṣhaso bhānurarta. Ā sūryo bṛhatastiṣṭhadajrāṁ rju mar-teṣu vṛjinā ca paśyan.

The dense darkness of the night is dispelled, the solar region shines and the light of the dawn ascends in all her splendour. The sun rises and shines on over the fields and plains of the wide world, watching the acts and ways of right and wrong among the mortal inhabitants of the earth.

आदित्युपचा बुबुधाना व्यक्त्यार्थो गाठिदत्नं धारणन् बुद्धत्तम।

18. Ādit paścā bubudhāna vyakhyannādid ratnam dhārayanta dyubahktam. Viśve viśvāsu duryāsu devā mitrā dhiye varuṇa satyamastu.

And then men of vision, wisdom and knowledge light, celebrate and proclaim the might and splendour of Agni, bearing and enjoying the jewels of wealth gifted by the light and energy of the sun, fire and electricity. May all the divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity, and Mitra, the sun, friend of life, and Varuna, the spatial waters, givers of love, peace and justice, be good and true to the wish and desire and intellectual efforts of humanity in all homes and over all the paths of life.

19. Acchā voceya śuśucānamagnim hotāram viśva-bharasaṁ yajiṣṭham. Śucyūdho atṛṇanna gavāmandho na pūtam pariṣktamaṁśoḥ.

Let us sing and celebrate Agni in hymns of praise, Agni bright and pure and purifying, yajaka who invokes and awakens the bounties of nature for us, sustains the world and is most worthy of love and reverence, who fills the udder of the cows with milk without injury and augments the holy acts of humanity like the food purified and sanctified by the sun.

20. Viśeṣāmaditiryajñīyānāṁ viśeṣāmatithir-mānuṣāṇām. Agnirdevānāmava āvṛṇānah sumṛ-ļiko bhavatu jātavedāḥ.

Like the indivisible and inviolable sky for all the performers of yajna, like the welcome guest for all the householders, Agni, universal light and lord omnipresent and omniscient, may, we pray, taking up the protection and promotion of noble humanity and renewal and refreshment of the environment, be the harbinger of peace and prosperity for children of the earth. (So may be the teacher and the scholar.)

Mandala 4/Sukta 2
Agni Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

Agni which is immortal among mortals and refulgent among divinities of world and nature, itself ever true and dynamic destroyer of evil, is fixed in the cosmic order of law and rectitude. By virtue of its own greatness it is the invoker and harbinger of natural bounties, most worthy of reverence with homage of oblations for the purification, illumination and inspiration of mankind. And Agni is held, recognised and realised in the heart.

2. Iha tvāṁ sūno sahaso no adya jāto jātāṁ ubhayāṁ antaragane. Dūta īyase yuyujāna rṣva rjumuskān vrśaṇah śukrāṁśca.

Agni, lord giver of light, child of omnipotence, great and sublime, giver of mighty strength, here in this world of ours, risen today to full glory among both divines and humans born and initiated, you move as the light and energy of yajna, carrying the fragrance, inspiring and engaging all who are pure and generous and move by the brilliant paths of nature and rectitude.

Agni, light of the world, I know and realise your waves of cosmic energy ever moving in circuit at the fastest with the energy of the cosmic mind, creating and increasing, sprinkling and showering with water and energy of ghṛtā, red as rays of the dawn, blazing as the sun, with which you move across the world of existence, inspiring and engaging the mortals, immortals and the human children of the earth.

Agni, lord of light and power, commanding instant waves of communication, fastest modes of transport, immense wealth and infrastructure for development and prosperity, come and, for these people dedicated to the yajna of corporate programmes of common development and progress, bring Aryaman, power of justice, Varuna, spirit of freedom, choice and excellence, Mitra, love and friendship for all these people, Indra, energy of the clouds and electricity, Vishnu, universal spirit of cosmic unity, Maruts, energy of the winds, and the Ashvins, light of the sun and soothing beauty of the moon.

5. Gomōnaṁ agne'vimetaṁ aśvastasya surajyata uruṣya.
5. Gomāṇ agne’vimāṇ aśvī yajño nṝvatsakhā sadamidapramṛṣyaḥ. Ilāvāṇ eṣo asura pra傑āvān dīrhgo rayiḥ pṛthubudhnaḥ sabhāvān.

Agni, giver of light, power and prosperity, peace and justice, commanding wealth of cows, sheep and goats, horses, and unity and productive cooperation in yajna you are friend of the people, leaders and pioneers, blest with lands, knowledge and holy speech of divinity, possessed of vital strength, destroyer of the wicked, supported by the people and assistants. Presiding over the assembly, you know great and long lasting is this wealth of the nation, broad based and rising high and vast. Come, take over the house of government which is beyond pollution, corruption and destruction.

Whoever bears the sacred fuel for your fire of yajna by the sweat of his brow, or tires himself out, not sparing himself while coming to you to serve, Agni, come to your own, and rising, be the protector of his land and person against all violent bullies and sinners.

Agni, giver of light and wealth, ruler of the world, in the home where the generous house holder spares food and bears it to you for the hungry, where he welcomes, appreciates and regales the happy guest, where, dedicated to the divinities and brilliant people, he lights the fire and worships Ishwara in full faith, in that house, O lord, let there be abundant wealth, peace and stability.

Whoever sings in praise of you night and day, who with gifts in homage does you proud with things dear to you, save that man of generosity in his home from sin, come like a knight of golden horse and rescue him from evil.

Agni, youthful light of yajnic human action, brilliant and generous giver as you are, whatever mortal offers you the yajna of service, with spirit of sacrifice, love and non-violence, well performed with reverence and faith, you accept and enjoy. May that service and spirit of charity bring him the grace of heaven. May we too be performers and promoters of that yajna, and may that grace be ours too.

Agni, giver of light and wealth of life, whoever offers you honour and service in faith, ever ready, holding up the ladle full of holy ghrta and offering oblations to the imperishable fire, overflows with wealth without fear of deprivation, and the sin of the evil doer
Agni, giver of light and wealth, ruler of the world, in the home where the generous householder spares food and bears it to you for the hungry, where he welcomes, appreciates and regales the happy guest, where, dedicated to the divinities and brilliant people, he lights the fire and worships Ishwara in full faith, in that house, O lord, let there be abundant wealth, peace and stability.

May that service and spirit of charity bring him the grace of heaven. May we too be performers and promoters of that yajna, and may that grace be ours too.

Let the man of knowledge and discrimination distinguish between sense and wisdom on the one hand and non-sense and ignorance on the other, between the broad open paths of right living and the covert ways of wickedness, and between mortals and mortals. And O giver of knowledge and light of discrimination, Agni, for the sake of honour and well being and for our children give us worldly wealth and liquid assets and protect our immortal merit of rectitude.

Wise visionaries, bold intrepid scholars and sagely teachers, maintaining the inmates, disciples and seekers of knowledge in their home schools, teach them the knowledge and discipline of life. Therefore, O master and ruler, Agni, by practical steps you go, observe and assess these wonderful schools and their people. They are all open and worth seeing.

Agni, giver of light, knowledge and power, ever fresh and youthful, noble guide in proper ways of living, ruler of the wide world, friend of the people, bear and bring the beauty, peace and jewel wealth of life for the protection and advancement of the intelligent admirer who has distilled the soma of life’s joy, confidently conducts the business of life to success, conquers suffering unto overflowing happiness and refines the manners and graces of life.

And Agni, O ruler of the world, as we, dedicated to you, work for you with our hands and feet and indeed with our body and soul, so may all the intelligent people, cooperating with you with the work of their dexterous hands, move together as by a chariot car and take you and all to the destination of truth and rectitude toward perfection.

15. Adhā māturuṣasah sapta viprā jāyemahi prathamā vedhaso nṛn. Divasputrā aṅgiraso bhavemā’drīṁ rujema dhanīnaṁ śucantaḥ.

And then, like the seven rainbow colours of the lights of mother dawn, let us raise ourselves to seven classes of intelligent and dynamic functionaries: ruler, presidents of councils, army, commanders, people, services and ancillaries. Let us create leaders and visionary pioneers of knowledge and education. Let us all rise to be the children of light, dexterous as divine architects, dear as vital breath of life, and then, cleansing and brightening up the well provided prosperous people who are wealth of the motherland, let us break the clouds for rain and shatter the mountains of difficulty converting them to opportunities.

Agni, ruler of light and humanity, let us all together, dedicated to truth and rectitude, rise and shine as did our forefathers, earliest and later ones, and pure and sanctified, singing songs of divine praise, breaking new ground upon the earth, let us rise to the heights of power and discover new lights of existence, and so may rise our future generations too.

17. Sukarmāṇaḥ suruco devayanto’yo na devā janimā dhamantaḥ. Śucanto agnīṁ vavṛdhanta indramūr- vanaṁ gavyaṁ pariṣadanto agman.

Brilliant people of noble action, deeply committed to holy pursuits and aspiring to rise to the stars, fanning their life to light and purity in the crucibles of knowledge and experience as they refine gold and temper steel in the furnace, raising the flames of fire and exalting the honour and excellence of the nation, sitting and discussing in conferences, extend the bounds of terrific energy and knowledge of the earth and skies unto the stars.

18. Ā yūtheva kṣumati paśvo akhyad devānāṁ yajjanimāntyugra. Martānāṁ cidurvaśīrakṛpran vṛdhe cidarya uparasyāyoḥ.
As the master proclaims the material wealth of his house of prosperity, as the commander proclaims the forces under his command, so do you, O lustrous ruler, reflect the presence around you of noble and brilliant leaders and scholars. And thus do the multitudes of people, like the rise of dawns, plan and prepare for the rise and progress of the land just as the producer master prays for the generous cloud and wishes for the health and age of life’s longevity.

We act in service to you, O Lord Agni, giver of light and life to the world, by which alone we can be called good performers. The brilliant dawns, wearing the divine mantle of truth and showers of light, perfectly and variously adorn the fire-divine, perfect and glorious eye of the self-refulgent Lord of the universe, which is the sun.

These are the words of thanks and praise we poets speak for you, Lord Omniscient Agni. Please to accept these, consider, shine and rise to reveal the light of your glory to our vision. Make us rich with the wealth of divinity. Lord universal friend of the many who choose, lead us to glorious honour and excellence in existence.

Mandala 4/Sukta 3

Agni Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

All ye people of the land, before the unexpected and inconceivable thunder and lightning, light the fire and, for the protection and advancement of your peaceful, non-violent yajnic social order in the midst of heaven and earth, appoint the golden gloried ruler, a very Rudra, saviour of the good, a terror for the evil, hota, a yajaka and not a grabber or hoarder, but one inviolably dedicated to truth and Dharma.

2. Ayāṁ yoniścakṛmā yaṁ vayaṁ te jāyeva patya uśaṁ suvāsāḥ. Arvācinaḥ parivīto ni śidemā u te svapāka praṭīcīḥ.

This is the seat of office we create and offer to you. It is offered as a young loving wife dressed in her best finery offers her love to her husband and protector. O ruler most modern, all round well provided, self made and self prepared, take this seat and see these are the people looking up to you.

\[\text{देवाया सस्तिम-अमर्ताया साम्सा ग्रावेवा सोता मधुशुद्याये।}

I offer a hymn of praise and appreciation as an expression of my thought, O wise and virtuous ruler of the world, to you, brilliant, immortal and divinely blissful, who listen attentively and politely without pride and arrogance, watching the human situation all round in the interest of common good. Accept and approve of the hymn I present, be gracious as a cloud of showers, a maker of soma and a creator of honeyed joy.

Agni, ruler of humanity, you know the truth and law of existence, you think freely and rightly too. Know the truth and character of this nation of ours. Let them know too of the truth and law of right knowledge and conduct for the sake of right action. When will there be proper and friendly discussions of yours and assemblies in your yajnic house of law and government?
5. Kathā ha tad varuṇāya tvamagne kathā dive prthivyai bravaḥ kadaryamne kad bhagāya.

“What is our sin, or crime or misconduct?” Agni, ruler of the world, when and why would you speak thus to Varuna, lord of justice and rectitude? to the lord of light and knowledge? to the bountiful? to the earth and the dear motherly woman? to the chief of law? to the man of power and prosperity?

6. Kad dhiṣṇyāsu vṛdhasāno agne kad vātāya bravaḥ kadagye rudrāya nṛghne.

Agni, ruler of the world, when would you be growing with and among the intellectuals? And growing with and among them, when would you speak to and about the eminent in knowledge, strength, peace and good will, all round goers, truthful and the landed farmers? to the chief of justice about the killers of humanity?
Agni, when and how would you speak to and about the great creator and producer for nourishment and growth, Pushan, to and about Rudra, destroyer of enemies, the generous yajaka, the giver of holy materials for yajna? How would you pray to Vishnu, universally celebrated lord sustainer of the world? Lord generous and peaceful at heart, how would you speak to and about the great forces of defence against violence and destruction?

Agni, O Jataveda, lord ruler and master of knowledge of things in existence, how would you speak to and about the sacred law of truth, about the forces swift as the winds? And when asked, what and how would you speak about the mighty great leaders bright as the sun among people? How would you speak to and about the excellent, abundant and inviolable sky? O master of knowledge, rising higher and higher in awareness, achieve the light, reaching unto the solar regions.

Agni, O lord giver of the light and life of the world, I honour and respect the truth and law of existence by observance of the truth and law of life on earth as required and determined by the demands of life on earth and set out in the language of the earth, while I live on earth one with the honey sweets of the ripe and raw treasures of the earth. May the mother earth, being green and bright with nourishments, grow with food and drink for the sustenance of her children by the efforts of her children.

Sustained in tune by the truth of life and law of existence, nourished on food and drink from spaces above, the virile bull, manly man and lustrous Agni, creator of light and life on earth, ruler of the world, moves around with majesty, unagitated, bearing the dignity and vitality of health and age, replete with energy and generosity like the cloud, and distils the fire and lustre of life from the skies as milk from the mother cow.

Agni, giver of the light of intelligence, let us not go to the meeting place of a deceitful person, nor to the door of a violent grabber, nor take the debt or obligation of a crooked brother, and may we, we pray, never try to benefit from, much less depend on, the strength and expertise of an enemy in the garb of a Ye leaders of the world, by the force of Rtam, nature’s law, when the cosmic fire of energy is awake, then the roaring winds, breaking the cloud with their currents, rain down the showers, mankind on earth find peace and prosperity, and the light, riding the dawn, rises to view as the radiant sun.

Agni, light of life, ruler of the world, by Rtam, force of eternal truth and nature’s law, do the celestial waters of life, immortal, unhurt, with currents of spatial oceans bearing honey sweets of life’s energy, ceaselessly flow on like a war horse flying on to battles, in order to move life on and on with energy without end or exhaustion.

Agni, giver of the light of intelligence, let us not go to the meeting place of a deceitful person, nor to the door of a violent grabber, nor take the debt or obligation of a crooked brother, and may we, we pray, never try to benefit from, much less depend on, the strength and expertise of an enemy in the garb of a friend.

Agni, ruler of the earth, blissful giver of happiness, all protector, presiding genius of yajna, social justice and noble conduct, protect us with all your methods and forces of protection and defence, shine and inspire us to good action, eliminate the blackest sin and hardest crime, destroy the wicked, even powerful ones and on the increase.

Agni, giver of light and life, with these songs of prayer and these learned devotees, be pleased and happy at heart. Accept and approve of these dedicated people of thought and action. Brave and heroic leader dear as breath of life, accept and enjoy these gifts of homage and reverence. May this song of praise offered by the holy celebrants be pleasing to you and exalting.
16. Etā viśvā viduṣe tubhyāṁ vedho nīthānyyagne niṣyā vacāmsī. Nivacanā kavaye kāvyānyāśaṁsiṣāṁ matibhirvipra ukthaiḥ.

Agni, giver of life and light, lord of knowledge, vision and wisdom, leader, ruler, pioneer, all these songs of adoration, creative, deep and grave, meaningful and fruitful, fluent and poetic, are sincere expressions of the heart which I, inspired and moved to ecstasy, present to you, poet and scholar, with divine hymns of holiness in the company of the wise and dedicated celebrants.

Mandala 4/Sukta 4

Agni Rakshoha Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

1. Kṛṇuṣva pājaḥ prasitiṁ na pṛthvīṁ yāhi rājevā-mavāṁ ibhena. Trṣvīmanu prasitiṁ drūṇāno’s-tāsi vidhyā rakṣasastapiṣṭhaiḥ.

Arise, be strong and brilliant, go over and round the earth in orbit, spread your network over the dominion and, firm and powerful, move as a king by the elephant. Impetuous and terrible, shoot like a rocket all round wherever needed for thirsting and ensnared earth as it could be, and, like an archer as you are, fix the demons of violence with your blazing arrows.

2. Tava bhramāsa āśuyā patantyanu sprāṣa dhṛṣatā śoṣucānah. Patūṃśyagne juhvā pataṅgānasam-dito vi srjā viṣvagulkāḥ.
Your roving rockets whirl round impetuously. Shining and blazing with power and force, strike off the enemies wherever they be. Unhurt, whole and unopposed, shoot out all round burning rockets of defence like sparks of fire fed on ladlefuls of ghrta offered into the fire of the vedi.

Agni, brilliant ruler and blazing power, shoot out detectors, appoint detectives and spies, and send out ambassadors, be swift in action and response, and, bold, unhurtful and undeceived, be the protector and sustainer of this human nation, and whoever be the sinner or supporter of the wicked far or near us must not insult, impair or violate your rule and order.

Agni, mighty and brilliant power, rise in flames and shine on, let the light spread around. O wielder of blazing weapons, burn off the unfriendly and the enemies. Shining and rising power, whoever creates enemies and causes adversity, burn down like a dry fibre of flax.

5. Ūrdhvo bhava prati vidhyādhyasmadāviśkṛṇu-śva daiyānyagne. Ava sthirā tanuhi yātujūnāṁ jāmimajāmīṁ pra mṛṇīhi śatrūn.

Rise high and shine there, having fixed the enemies far from us, and thus reveal the divine actions of your own and of the enlightened. Loosen and reduce the firm establishments of the gate crashers and the gogetters whether related or unrelated, and destroy the enemies of the order of enlightenment.

6. Sa te jānāti sumatiṁ yaviśtha ya īvate brahmaṇe gātumairat. Viśvānyasmai sudināni rāyo dyumnā-yaryo vi duro abhi dyaut.

Agni, most youthful power of enlightenment, that person knows and enjoys your love and good will who directs his voice and actions toward the magnificent lord supreme of the universe, who dedicates all his happy days and his wealth and good fortune to his service, and who, being master of himself and his fortune, wide opens and lights up his doors for his devotees.

Agni, refulgent lord ruler of the world, he would be highly prosperous and generously charitable who loves to serve you with unfailing oblations of havi and songs of praise and prayer. And surely for such a person, in his own life, within his own home, all his days would be happy and his yajna and all desired acts would be fruitful.

Agni, mighty ruler of the world, I pray for your favour and blessings of love and good will. May these words of my favourite voice address you and this adoration of mine glorify you. Blest with noble horses and beautiful chariots, may we exalt you, and may you, day by day, hold and sustain our social order and its systems of governance and administration.

Let man amply and wholly serve you, refulgent ruler of the world, sincerely by heart and soul, day and night, day after day. Let us all, guardians of the total wealth and honour of the people, rejoicing at heart as playing with arms for defence of the nation, serve Agni, father protector of humanity.

Whoever possessing noble horses and golden gold approaches you by a chariot loaded with treasures of wealth, and offers service and hospitality readily and ceaselessly without reserve, without question, you accept and own as a friend, protect him as a guardian and save him as a redeemer.

I shatter great evils and open deep mysteries by kinship with Divinity and words of eternity which I inherit from my father guardian who commands all knowledge of existence and the language of omniscience. Agni, cosmic yajaka, ever youthful light, master of universal dynamics, self controlled controller, give us the vision and knowledge of the ultimate reality and the Word imperishable.

Agni, life of life, light eternal, universal intelligence, your streams of life, your rays of light and waves of cosmic energy, sleepless, continuous, gracious, relentless, inviolent, and indefatigable, which ever flow integrated and together may, we pray, bless our yajnic home and give us a fresh lease of life every moment.

Agni, lord of universal knowledge and power, all those defensive powers of yours which, ever watchful and protective, save people from sin and protect them from evil and crime as their own kith and kin who cannot by themselves see, all those holy yajnic powers of noble action, O lord, protect and promote, so that the repressive enemies may not be able to terrorise the poor and the ignorant.

master of universal dynamics, self controlled controller, give us the vision and knowledge of the ultimate reality and the Word imperishable.

Agni, life of life, light eternal, universal intelligence, your streams of life, your rays of light and waves of cosmic energy, sleepless, continuous, gracious, relentless, inviolent, and indefatigable, which ever flow integrated and together may, we pray, bless our yajnic home and give us a fresh lease of life every moment.

Agni, lord of universal knowledge and power, all those defensive powers of yours which, ever watchful and protective, save people from sin and protect them from evil and crime as their own kith and kin who cannot by themselves see, all those holy yajnic powers of noble action, O lord, protect and promote, so that the repressive enemies may not be able to terrorise the poor and the ignorant.

Agni, ruler of the world, defender of truth and holiness, may we, protected by you and blest with knowledge and power, follow your guidance and noble policy and win the honour and excellence of the world. Guide aright, order and control both the eulogiser and the calumniator far and near, and, with appropriate measures, take us out of timidity and make us bold in defence of truth and rectitude without embarrassment or hesitation.

Agni, greatest friend, adorable lord and ruler of the world, with this lighted fuel and enlightened contribution to the yajna of the social and cosmic order, we offer the song of homage to you. Be gracious to accept it. Burn down the revilers and the evil perpetrators of destruction and protect us against the jealousy, calumny and scandalous actions of the enemies.
Mandala 4/Sukta 5

Vaishvanara Agni Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

1. Vaiśvānarāya mīḥhuṣe sajośāḥ kathā dāśemā-gnaye bṛhadbhāḥ. Anūnena bṛhatā vakṣathe-nopa stabhāyadupaminna rodhaḥ.

   How shall we, in accord with Agni, happy and rejoicing, offer homage, service and support to the great, generous Vaishvanara Agni, vital fire sustaining the earth, leader and ruler of humanity who, with his awful might and unbounded reach, mighty lustrous as he is, holds up this vast world like a column bearing the burden of a mighty structure.

   Never blame, censure or revile Vaishvanara Agni, self-refulgent and generous self-existent lord of his infinite wealth and power, who has given us this great gift of food, energy and wealth of abundant nature for the simple, growing, maturing world of mortal humanity, Agni, who is self-revealing through the beauty of his own creation, immortal, omniscient teacher, best leader of men and awfully great.
1. Vāishvanara Agni Devata, Vāmadeva Gautama Rṣi

2. How shall we, in accord with Agni, happy and rejoicing, offer homage, service and support to the great, generous Vāishvanara Agni, vital fire sustaining the earth, leader and ruler of humanity who, with his awful might and unbounded reach, mighty lustrous as he is, holds up this vast world like a column bearing the burden of a mighty structure.

Agni, refulgent lord immanent in earth and heaven, commanding blazing heat and light, abundant a thousandfold, generous and virile as sun and cloud, mighty powerful, master of knowledge, may, we pray, speak to me of the great and deep knowledge and karma pertaining to earth and heaven, body and soul, deep as the mystery of sun and stars.

May Agni, blazing lord of power and stern rule of law, commanding the wealth, power and prosperity of the world with his splendour and magnificence, crush with the heat of his power and force of his justice the dear favourites and strongholds of those who sabotage and destroy the stability of the systems and institutions of the noble and friendly powers of enlightenment, justice, peace, unity and cooperation.

As maidens without brothers and guardians to care for them, as wives who deceive their husbands, go astray from the right path and follow a wrong course of life, so the misguided people, self-deceived evil doers, false and untrue, go astray and, following the wrong course, create this hellish state of life in society.

6. Idaṁ me agne kiyate pāvakā’minate gurum bhāram na manma. Brhad dadḥatha dhrṣatā gabhīram yahvam prṣṭham prayasā saptadhātu.

Agni, master of knowledge and power, purifier of body, mind and soul, I pray, bear and bring for me sevenfold knowledge of matter, mind and motion, knowledge which is universal, deep and grave, greatly powerful and wide in range and application. Bless me with the knowledge along with the gift of love and courage as a burden of great responsibility. I assure you I am a humble seeker and I shall bear the burden well without arrogance and violence.

That equal, beautiful, constant and vital zone of light and heat of Vaishvanara Agni fixed round and over the surface of the dormant and colourful earth, separated and condensed from the solar sphere in earlier times before life emerged, may our noble intelligence, purifying and sanctifying us by the light of the Lord, reach and reveal through our holy acts of study, prayer and holy action.

What is worthy of being proclaimed, hidden in the secret cave of this word of mine, and what the scholars and visionaries, purifying and sanctifying, mysteriously whisper closely to you is That Orb of light and heat which, like a liquid zone of vapours, covers, vitalises, sustains and reveals the dear, first, highest life and beauty of the dawn, of cows and the flying earth.

This same orb of light and zone of vitality, greatest of the great, glorious, ancient and eternal, blazing over the regions of the waters of space and the facts and laws of existence, which the productive earths serve and follow and join as partners of the system, which vibrates in the depths of the heart and vibrates in the depths of the soul, I know, you know, all perceive.

10. \textit{Adha dyūtānāḥ pitroḥ sacāsā’manuta guhyāṁ cāru prśneḥ. Mātuspade parame anti śad gor-vṛṣṇaḥ śociṣaḥ prayatasya jihvā.}

And the light shines between heaven and earth, one with all, vibrating in the highest regions of Mother Nature at the closest and within, directly watching and knowing the raining clouds, the blazing sun, and the blowing wind and flowing waters. All ye men and women, know that lovely and wondrous mystery of the spirit of colourful reality of existence hidden in the cave of the heart.

11. \textit{Ṛtaṁ voce namasā prṛchhyamānastavaśasā jātavedo yādīdam. Tvamasya kṣayasi yaddha viśvam divi yadu draviṇaṁ yat prthivyāṁ.}

O Jataveda, omniscient and omnipresent Agni, if I were asked, I would speak the truth in all humility by your grace: All this that is, all that exists in heaven, all that is in and on earth, all that is the wealth, power and excellence, all is yours, it abides in you, you pervade it all, you govern it all and, ultimately, you absorb it all by drawing in and reducing it to the point of zero.

12. Kim no asya draviniṃ kaddha ratnam vi no voco jātavedaścikītvān. Guhādhvanaḥ paramaṃ yanno asya reku padam na nidānā aganma.

O Jataveda, you know all and everything in existence. Speak to us and guide us: Of all this world, what wealth is ours? What jewels? Speak to us of that, so that going by the light of divine vision and intelligence we may achieve the best and reach the highest goal that is ours, and we at the end don’t have to go empty handed, reviled and exposed.

What are the rules of the game of karma? What ultimate bounds? Speak to us, enlighten us: When could we, racing like a courser, moving like waves of energy, creditably reach our cherished goal? When would the sun, the dawns and the celestial vibrations of immortality like life-giving nurses inspire us with light and lustre to rise to perfection?
14. Anireṇa vacasā phalgvena praītyena kṛdhunātrpāsaḥ. Adhā te agne kimihā vadantyanāyudhāsa āsatā sacantām.

Agni, light and spirit of knowledge and master of the language of knowledge, listeners remain unsatisfied, their thirst for knowledge unquenched, with lifeless, unsubstantial, ambiguous and deficient words.
Then what do the speakers speak of you, or to you, or about you, here? Being like warriors without arms, they should come to you, speakers as well as listeners, for light, knowledge and words for effective and living communication.

15. Asya śriye samidhānasya vṛṣṇo vasoranīkaṁ dama ā ruroca. Ruṣad vasānahā sudṛśikarūpah kṣitirna rāyā puruvāro adyaut.

For the expression of the grace and majesty of this Agni, lord of light and ruler of the world, bright and blazing, generous, home and haven of all like mother earth, his force and splendour shines in his home.
And he himself, refulgent giver of radiance, magnificent in form, treasure home and universal giver of heavenly and earthly gifts for all, shines with regal magnificence and wealth of the world like mother earth shining with the greenery of her abundance and generosity.
Mandala 4/Sukta 6

Agni Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

1. \[\text{Urdhva ī śu ṇo adhvarasya hotaragne tiṣṭha devatātā yajīyān. Tvaṁ hi viśvamabhyasi manma pra vedhasaścit tirasi maniśām.}\]

Agni, lord of light, ruler of the world, cosmic yajamana, sit on top of our yajna of love and non-violence among the divine yajakas of nature and humanity. You alone know the world and all our thoughts, intentions and will, and you, at the heart of all performers, comprehend and transcend the knowledge, intelligence and awareness of the scholar.

2. \[\text{Amūro hotā nyasādi vikṣvagnirmandro vidatheṣu pracetāḥ. Urdhvam bhānuṁ savitevāśrenmeteva dhūmamā stabhāyadupa dyām.}\]

Agni, all wise, universal yajamana, receiver and giver, creator of joy, brilliant in knowledge, sits and abides among the people in their yajnic social endeavours, diffuses the light and fragrance of yajna above close to the heavens like the sun and, like a builder and a column, holds the dark away.

The night is come on her round vibrating with the wealth of rest and peace, applying a soothing balm to the hours of holy time and ushering in the approach of dawn, and the sun, harbinger of fresh energy, new born like a baby, self-proclaiming and enlightening the world, rising fast, watching all, shining beautiful, showering the nectar of soma, anoints the morning time of the day.

The sacred grass is spread over the vedi, the fire is lit and rises, the adhvaryu, chief priest organiser, is up and doing, having started the yajna. Agni, the sun, like the shepherd of the waking world, celestial yajaka, goes over the three regions of heaven, earth and sky radiating the light and illuminating the world.

Agni, performer of yajna, happy and exhilarating, honey sweet of expression, moves and expands at its own self-controlled speed and will, keeping within the laws of existence. The rays of its light and the flames of fire rise and radiate like the waves of energy, and when it shines and blazes, all the worlds in existence feel the pressure of its force and power.

Agni, lord blissful of light, love and justice, commanding divine force and power, fearsome, eternally true and manifesting in infinite variety of the world of change, equal, kind and gracious is your eye by which you watch every living being. No evil forces can cover with darkness the light that is yours, nor can any devil and destroyer attribute any sin or smear or partiality to your body of law and justice.

7. Na yasya sāturjanitoravāri na mātarāpiṣṭarā nū chinditrādhādṛtaṃ

Agni is the generous giver whose gifts cannot be denied or hidden as the gifts of father and mother, too, toward fulfilment of life’s desire cannot be denied.
since Agni as a friend, blazing with light and glowing with generosity, blissful and sanctifying, shines among the people over everything that concerns humanity.

Twice do the five classes of people among all human communities, living happily together, moving on together like running streams and working together like fingers of the hand, kindle and raise Agni, vital energy waking up at dawn, voracious, blazing bright and beautiful, and thunderous as a bolt against darkness and suffering.

Agni, ruling power of light and liberality, those rainbow colours of your light and seven streams of energy are replete with the grace and power of ghṛta, red with the passion of life, straight and simple, natural and free, bright, generous, strong and right, destroyers of evil and harbingers of the benedictions of Divinity.
10. Ye ha tye-te sahamānā ayāsas-tvaṃso agne arcayaścaranti. Śyenāso na duvasanāso artham tuviśvanāso mārutam na śardhaḥ.

Agni, ruling power of the world, your flames of fire, blazing rays of light and electric waves of energy are patient and forbearing, yet challenging and victorious, awful and deeply perceptive and penetrative. Instant in action, they fall upon their object like falcons from the sky, and their force is like that of a roaring storm of wind shears.

Sung is the song of prayer and praise for you, O lord refulgent, the yajaka raises his voice in adoration which, pray, graciously accept for the good of the devotee, and bring him the object of his desire. Let people, loving and inspired, bearing fragrant homage with humility, come and sit round the vedi in worship of Agni, universal yajamana, loved and admired by humanity.

Mandala 4/Sukta 7
Agni Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

अयमिह पश्मा धार्य धातुर्भिहाता यत्जिह्न अध्वरण्वीर्यमः ।
यमप्रवाना भूर्गवा विरूचुर्वन्धुपु चित्रं विव्वं विशिव्विश ॥ १ ॥

This Agni here is the first and foremost power felt, lighted, installed and glorified by the pioneers of knowledge and yajnic action. It is the first performer of the cosmic yajna of creation, most adorable, worshipped in yajnas and all other programmes of love and non-violent development. The same wonderful and all embracing light and power, men of science and Divinity blest with descendants and disciples develop and glorify in the forests and every household for the benefit of every community.

2. Agne kadā ta ānuṣag bhuvad devasya cetanam. Adhā hi tvā jagṛbhrire martāso vikṣvīdyam.

O Lord, when would people be in tune with the divine light, omniscience and generosity of yours in their consciousness? And when would the mortals hold your presence as adorable in every moment, in every thought and action, in every home?

When would the mortals in every home adore the universal Agni, watching and realising in yajna the presence of the lord of the order of universal law, commanding the cosmic intelligence of existence and lighting up all the yajnas of the world in evolutionary development with vital fire as he lights up the heavens with stars?

This Agni here is the first and foremost power felt, lighted, installed and glorified by the pioneers of knowledge and yajnic action. It is the first performer of the cosmic yajna of creation, most adorable, worshipped in yajnas and all other programmes of love and non-violent development. The same wonderful and all embracing light and power, men of science and Divinity blest with descendants and disciples develop and glorify in the forests and every household for the benefit of every community.

The one that sustains all people of the world, that vital fire, instant carrier of sunlight, the very sign of life, maturing everything existent, the people of the earth and their descendants, when would it be received and installed in every home?

The one that sustains all people of the world, that vital fire, instant carrier of sunlight, the very sign of life, maturing everything existent, the people of the earth and their descendants, when would it be received and installed in every home?

Fully and appropriately they install, maintain and sit by that Agni, receiver and giver of gifts in yajna, enlightening, bright and happy, drying, maturing and vitalising things like light and fire, most lovable and adorable. They maintain, serve and benefit from it seven ways through five senses, five pranas, and mind and intellect, and worship the power in every home of every community.

That Agni, present in permanent sources, in forests, immanent everywhere, independent and free, wonderful as hidden in a cave, knowledgeable and deeply meaningful, they maintain and serve.

Far from sleep, the bounties of nature rejoice in the entire spaces of the skies and over the celebrations of yajna. We pray that the great Agni, light and lord of yajna, fed on offerings and rich in gifts, commanding the laws of truth and showers of bliss may pervade our home for the performance and completion of yajna.

Agni, omnipresent lord of yajna fire, you know the motions and vibrations of yajna rising and pervading in both earth and skies since, being carrier of the fragrance, ancient and all mobile, inviolable and unconquerable, you rise and reach even the heights and caverns of secret heavens.
6. That Agni, present in permanent sources, in forests, immanent everywhere, independent and free, wonderful as hidden in a cave, knowledgeable and deeply meaningful, they maintain and serve.

7. Far from sleep, the bounties of nature rejoice in the entire spaces of the skies and over the celebrations of yajna. We pray that the great Agni, light and lord of yajna, fed on offerings and rich in gifts, commanding the laws of truth and showers of bliss may pervade our home for the performance and completion of yajna.

8. Let us know the motive force and paths of your brilliant light, both centripetal and centrifugal, the light and fire moving ahead, all round, blazing bright, unique among all forms of light. Just as an unpregnated female receives and carries the new embryo, so held in the unkindled vedi you light up immediately on ignition and rise to the heights as carrier of flames and fragrance.

9. Let us know the motive force and paths of your brilliant light, both centripetal and centrifugal, the light and fire moving ahead, all round, blazing bright, unique among all forms of light. Just as an unpregnated female receives and carries the new embryo, so held in the unkindled vedi you light up immediately on ignition and rise to the heights as carrier of flames and fragrance.

10. The light and lustre of the flames of this Agni instantly risen becomes worth seeing when the wind fans its flames and spreads the blaze into the forests and uproots strong and firm trees and, with the flames as jaws it crushes and devours the strong as food. And when with the breeze and vital heat it fans the vegetation with its currents, it protects, matures and provides the foods for life.

Mighty Agni, fire and energy, fast and quick, speedily bears and brings food, and functions as instant carrier of communications. Running and rising fast, it joins the company of the winds and, like a galloping horse and current of energy, it travels over vast distances. I invoke Agni (for light, food and communications).

Mandala 4/Sukta 8
Agni Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

1.  Dūtaṁ vo viṣvavedasam havyavāhamamartyam. Yajiṣṭhamṛṇjase girā.

O scholar and master of the science of fire and energy, with your words and thought you study and develop the power of Agni, carrier of communications, all round operative in the universe, bearer of food and fragrances, imperishable, and most creative, productive, cooperative and valuable catalytic agent of the natural and human world. O men and women of the world, the scientist develops it for you all.

2.  Sa hi vedā vasudhitīṁ mahāṁ ārodhanam divaḥ. Sa devāṁ eha vakṣati.

Ye men and women of the world, that knower alone knows Agni, treasure hold of heavenly light and divine beneficence of universal wealth. That Agni is great, that alone brings us here the light and graces of nature and divinity.

That brilliant scholar knows the operative powers of nature and knows how to respect and value them. He inspires the learned and noble people, and he energises and moves nature’s gifts for the creation of wealth and power in the house of yajna. Agni thus bestows the cherished gifts of wealth and comfort for the good life.

Agni is Chikitvan, all immanent brilliant presence that wields and holds and knows. It is the yajamana as well as deity of the yajamana, which internally energises all motion, communication and activity of life and nature. The knower knows the treasure hold of light, energy and universal intelligence in concentration as well as in expansion.
5.  Te syāma ye agnye dadāśurhavyadātibhiḥ.
    Ya īṁ puṣyanta indhate.

Let us dedicate ourselves to you, Agni, like those who, with liberal offers of havi, give themselves unto you in devotion for the gifts and powers of universal energy, light the fire and make the streams of the waters of life flow free across the globe.

    Ye agnā dadhire duvah.

They enjoy life in peace and comfort with plenty of wealth and noble strength and powers who study fire, learn about its properties and pursue it with reverence and self sacrifice through the yajna of research and development.

7.  Asme rāyo divedive sam carantu puruspr̥haḥ.
    Asme vājāsa īratām.

Let wealths of various kinds and universal value come and abound among us, let food and energy of all varieties flow and arise among us (as divine gifts of Agni, lord of heat and light and cosmic energy).

8.  Sa vipraścarṣaṅīnāṁ śavasā mānuṣaṁānām.
    Ati kṣipreva vidhyati.
He, Agni, is the most dynamic of brilliant visionaries of the world who, with his power and force, like a flying arrow, shoots off the sufferance and ailments of the people.

Mandala 4/Sukta 9

Agni Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

1. Agne mṛla mahān asi ya ēma devayum janam.
   Iyetha barhirāsadam.

   Agni, be kind and gracious. Great you are as you come to these divinely dedicated people sitting round the fire of yajna and you bless them all round without reserve.

2. Sa mānuṣīṣu dūlabho vikṣu prāvīramartyah.
   Dūto viśveśāṁ bhuvat.

   He is rare among the human people of the world who is kind, protective, pioneer, exceptional and immortal giver of light and knowledge. May this power be the destroyer of the suffering of entire humanity.

3. Sa sadma pari niyate hotā mandro diviṣīṣu.
   Uta potā ni śidati.

   3. That light and power, Agni, sacrificing, sanctifying, happy and rejoicing, is investigated, discovered and worshipped in all holy programmes of life, and everywhere in yajnic homes where it sits as the prime and central presence.

उत ग्रा अग्निरध्वर उता गृहपतिदम्।
उत ब्रह्मा नि षीदति॥ ४ ॥

4. Uta gnā agniradhvara uto grhapatirdame.
Uta brahmā ni śīdati.

And Agni joins the yajna of love and non-violence as master of divine voice, in the home where he abides as the head of family, and in the yajna he presides over as the high priest, having mastered all the Vedas.

वषी द्वध्वरीयतामुपवक्त्का जनानाम।
हव्या च मानुषाणाम॥ ५ ॥

5. Veśi hyadhvariṇyatām-upavaktā janānām.
Havyā ca mānuṣāṇām.

You are the guide of the performers of yajna and teacher of the people in general, and you receive the respect and yajnic gifts and fragrances offered by humanity.

वषीद्वस्य दूत्यं यस्य जुजाप्ता अध्यरम।
हव्यं मर्तस्य वाङ हव॥ ६ ॥

Havyaṁ martasya voḷhavae.

You accept the message of this devotee whose yajna of love and social cooperation you join without violence, and you receive the inputs of holy fuel to communicate the meaning, message and fragrance to the destination where it is meant for.

अर्स्माके जाप्वध्वरपस्माके यज्ञमंज्जरः ।
अर्स्माके श्रुणुधी हर्षम् ॥ ७ ॥

You join and accomplish the ends of our holy acts. You expedite our yajna of love and non-violence for social cohesion, O life breath of humanity, Agni, O power omnipresent and omniscient, listen to our call and prayer and bless us with success.

परिः त दृउःब्या रथाचस्माः अर्ःनातु विश्वतः ।
युते र चेसि दाशुष्यः ॥ ८ ॥

Agni, ruler of the world, may that rare invincible chariot of your power by which you protect the generous givers in yajna, we pray, be directed to us and promote us all round.

Mandala 4/Sukta 10
Agni Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

अग्नि तपस्याचतुं न स्तामङ्कंतु न भुद्य गृहद्यृश्यां । ऋधयामां त आहें ॥ ९ ॥

1. Agne tamadyā’śvam na stomaiḥ kratuṁ na bhadram hṛdispṛśam. Ṛdhyāmā ta ohaiḥ.

Agni, mighty power of light and motion, with songs of praise and prayer and with holy acts of service offered in homage to you today, we augment, celebrate and glorify you, fast as nature’s waves of energy, bright as intelligence and blissful as yajna, and dear as love closest to the heart.

अधा ह्वस्य कर्तारभद्रस्य दरस्य साधा: ।
रथिर्नतस्य वृहता बधृष्ट ॥ ॥

And now Agni, O light and ruler of the world, be the rider and commander of the chariot of the plan and programme of our creative and developmental yajna of the human nation, a yajna which is blissfully fruitful, expertly organised and sophisticated, truthfully in consonance with the laws of nature and the environment and positively good, great and far reaching in consequence for life.

एभिनाह अक्षयवा ना अबाद स्वपुरण ज्याति: ।
अग्नि विश्वविभ: सुमन्या अस्पैक्यण ॥ ॥

Agni, light and life of the world, majestic as the sun’s refulgent glory, good and loving at heart, in response to these our songs of praise and prayer and acts of piety, come straight and bless us with all your forces of protection and promotion and give us, lead us to, the success of our heart’s desire.

आभित्रण्या अन्य गीष्ठगुणान्ताच्च दाशाम ।

4. Ābhīṣṭe adya gīrbhir-ग्रंщanto’gne dāśema.
_Pra te divo na stanayanti śuṣmāḥ._

Agni, brilliant ruling power of the world, speaking in these words of ours to you, we would pay homage to you in appreciation, thanks and praise for your gifts of protection and promotion for us. And see, the people, happy and bold, raise shouts of joy like the roar of thunder from the skies in celebration of your majesty.

5. _Tava svādiṣṭhā’gne saṃdṛṣṭiridā cidahna idā cidaktoh. Śriye rukmo na rocata upāke._

Agni, glorious ruler of the world, your gracious eye, equal and beneficent for all, all time whether it is day or night, shines all round like radiance itself expressive of your regality.

6. _Ghṛtaṁ na pūtam tanūrarepāḥ śuci hiraṇyam. Tat te rukmo na rocata svadhāvah._

Agni, lord self-refulgent and potent in your own essence, the light of your presence manifesting in the world body is immaculate, pure as ghṛta and sacred as celestial water, and it is unalloyed as gold which shines and pleases like light of the moon and dazzles as radiance of the sun.
7.
\[ \text{Kṛtam ciddhi śmā sanemi dveśo 'gna inoṣi martāṭ.} \]
\[ \text{Itthā yajamānādṛṭāvaḥ.} \]

Agni, lord giver, observer and commander of the law of natural truth and justice, you drive away from mortal humanity and from the man of yajnic performance all sin, hate and enmity even if it has been done and has existed since time immemorial.

8.
\[ \text{Śivā nah sakhyā santu bhrātrā'gne deveṣu yuṣme.} \]
\[ \text{Sā no nābhiḥ sadane sasminnūdhan.} \]

Agni, lord of light and ruler of the world, may our friendship and fraternity among the nobilities and divine personalities of your rule and order be auspicious and blessed, and may that sacred relationship be the anchor and centrehold of our conduct and action in the entire social order of governance, administration and economy of the system.

Mandala 4/Sukta 11

Agni Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

Agni, mighty presiding power of the world, holy and blissful is your splendour at the dawn of sunrise as it shines in majesty, and while it shines, it is seen by night also, as glorious to the sight as by day. And in that bright and blissful form of beauty and majesty I see delicious food for life and energy for mind and soul.

2. Vi ṣāhyagre grnate maniśāṁ kham vepasā tuviṸita stavānāḥ. Viśvebhiryad vāvanaḥ śukra devaistanno rāsva sumaho bhūri manma.

Agni, lord of light and majesty, universally manifest and acknowledged, while you are praised and honoured by the devotee with the action and inspiration of your light and glory, break open the locks of the mind and intellect of the devotee since, O lord of brilliance and purity, commanding the grandeur of the world and giving with and through all the divine powers of nature and humanity, you bless us with the knowledge and wisdom of the living world.

\[
\text{त्वदैः काव्या त्वन्ति:निषास्त्वदुक्तथा जौयन्ति राध्योऽनि।}
\text{त्वदैः दविणं वीरपशा इत्थाधिय दाशुष मत्याय॥ ३ ॥}

Agni, lord of light, energy and intelligence, by you are great poems inspired. From you flows genius and intelligence. By you are revealed hymns of celebration and holy action. From you arise the resources of life for development. O lord of valour and beauteous form, from you flow the wealths of existence in circulation for the mortal man of versatile intelligence and generosity.

4. \(Tvad \, vājī \, vājambharo \, vihāyā \, abīṣṭikṛjjāyate \, satyaśūṣmaḥ. \) \(Tvad \, raiyirdevajūto \, mayobhustvadāśur-jūjuvān \, agne \, arvā.\)

From you arises heroic energy, victorious power, all expansive and unfailingly true which wins the desired object of all round success. From you is created the wealth produced, expanded and multiplied by noble experts which is full of blessings. From you is created the self-driven transport of high velocity which reaches the destination instantly. Such you are, Agni, tremendous source of inexhaustible energy.

5. \(Tvāmagne \, prathamaṁ \, devayanto \, devaṁ \, martā \, amṛta \, mandrajiḥvam. \) \(Dveśoyutamā \, vivāsanti \, dhībhīr-damūnasam \, gṛhapatim-amūram.\)

You, Agni, lord and master of light and knowledge, energy and power, mortal men in search of joy and beauty, light and immortality seek, serve and develop you with their acts and intelligence, as first and foremost power of life, brilliant and generous, immortal, sweet and joyous of tongue, free from hate and enmity, self-controlled and all-controller, wise and perfect master of the household.
6. Āre asmadamatimāre añha āre viśvāṁ durmatim yannipāsi. Doṣā śivaḥ sahasah sūno agne yan deva ā cit sacase svasti.

Agni, child of omnipotence and patience, take off from us callousness, take away sin, take away all hate and enmity from the world. Whosoever you protect, you promote, lord generous and refulgent, you are good and kind to him night and day. He is blest. May all be good and gracious!

Mandala 4/Sukta 12
Agni Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

1. Yastvāmagna inadhate yatasruk triste annam kṛṇavat sasminnahan. Sa su dyumnairabhyaṣtu prasakṣat tava kratvā jātavedaścikītvān.

Agni, lord and master of light, knowledge and wealth, he who lights and serves you with ladlefuls of ghrta for the offering of food thrice every day will be blest with wealth, honour and well being all round by virtue of his service to you and noble works, O Jataveda, lord of universal knowledge, and he will be enlightened with knowledge and self-awareness.
2. \textit{Idhama\textasciitilde yaste jabharaccha\textasciitilde ram\textasciitilde no maho agne an\textasciitilde kam\textasciitilde saparyan. Sa idh\textasciitilde na\textasciitilde prati do\textasciitilde mu\textasciitilde \textasciitilde s\textasciitilde as\textasciitilde pu\textasciitilde \textasciitilde yan rayi\textasciitilde sacate ghnannamitr\textasciitilde n.}

Agni, lord sublime commanding power and force, any person of high endeavour who bears and takes you forward, serving your great force and splendour, he/she is blest with wealth and grandeur, rising in strength and power, blazing with light and fire and eliminating hate and enmity every day and night.

3. \textit{Agnir\textasciitilde se \textasciitilde r\textasciitilde ha\textasciitilde k\textasciitilde atr\textasciitilde yasy\textasciitilde gnirv\textasciitilde jasya para\textasciitilde masya r\textasciitilde a\textasciitilde h. Dadh\textasciitilde ti ratnam vidhate yavi\textasciitilde tho vy\textasciitilde nu\textasciitilde san\textasciitilde marty\textasciitilde yaya svadh\textasciitilde v\textasciitilde n.}

Agni rules and commands the great order of defence, governance and law of society. Agni rules over the highest wealth of food, energy and movement. Strongest and most youthful, Agni, holding and commanding his own essential sustenance, food, energy and power, ever in unison with the celebrant, bears and secures the jewel assets of life for mortal humanity all round.

4. \textit{Yacciddhi te puru\textasciitilde satra\textasciitilde yavi\textasciitilde th\textasciitilde a\textasciitilde cittibhi\textasciitilde cak\textasciitilde rm\textasciitilde kaccid\textasciitilde ga\textasciitilde h. Krdhi\textasciitilde vasma\textasciitilde n aditeran\textasciitilde g\textasciitilde n vye\textasciitilde n\textasciitilde msi \textasciitilde s\textasciitilde ratho vi\textasciitilde svagagne.}
Agni, youthful lord of light and the world of light, if we, unawares or out of ignorance, happen to commit something sinful, whatever it be, among your devoted people, then free us from that sin and render us sinless children of the good earth. Relax the hold of all sin and evil from over us.

Agni, lord of light and purity of power, save us even from great and extensive sin committed or suffered either close to or among the noblest powers or the ordinary mortals, let us never be hurt or injured. We are your friends. Give us peace and well being for our children and further future generations.

Vasus, holy divines of knowledge and speech dedicated to Dharma and education, just as you release language, bonded in word, meaning and object all integrated, free into expression and communication, similarly loosen the bonds of sin from us to set us free and take us across the seas of life which must be crossed with merit and virtue.

Mandala 4/Sukta 13

_Agni Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi_

Agni, brilliant as sun, vibrant as wind and potent as electric energy, stirs in advance of the lights of rising dawns happy at heart, and the Ashvins, currents of elevating energy, move on to the house of the man of noble acts, a house blest with the jewels of life, while the refulgent sun, generous giver of the breath of life, moves on (on its daily round) with its light.

2. Ūrdhvaṁ bhānuṁ savitā devo aśred drapsaṁ davidhvad gaviṣo na satvā. Anu vratam varuṇo yanti mitro yat sūryaṁ divyārohayanti.

The refulgent sun, giver of light and life’s energy, radiates the light on high and, as if in love with the earth, diffuses the particles of light around in space with passion. And according to the laws of Nature, Varuna and Mitra, waters and winds, and all other causes which elevate the sun rise to activity by the sun on their appointed course.
3. Yam śīmakṛṣṇvan tamase viprche dhruvakṣemā anavasyanto artham. Tam sūryam haritah sapta yahvīḥ spaśaṁ viśvasya jagato vahanti.

One of the objects which for sure the fixed centres of cosmic energy for sustenance dedicated to their appointed task create for the dispulsion of darkness is the sun. That sun, centre, eye and light of the entire moving world of the solar system, seven mighty forces of nature carry and conduct and seven blazing rays of light radiate for the appointed purpose.

O Deva, refulgent sun, borne by seven mighty carriers of light, you go round in orbit radiating your rays and dispelling the cover of darkness. The vibrating rays of the sun in the middle regions of the sky remove the mantle of darkness.

Unsupported and unbound, high up above yet looking downward, how is it sustained? Why doesn’t it fall down? By what strength of its own does it go on? Who sees it thus behave? The pillar sustainer of the vault of heaven with the cosmic law of Rtam sustains it too. Who sees that pillar of the universe which sustains this giver of bliss?

Mandala 4/Sukta 14
Agni Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

1. Pratyagnirusāso jātavedā akhyad devo rocamānā mahobhiḥ. Ā nāsatyorugāyā rathenemaṁ yajñamupā no yātamaccha.

Refulgent Agni, omnipresent in the world of existence, with his own grandeur and lustre lights up the bright and beautiful dawns. Hey Ashvins, ever true and beautiful, universally praised harbingers of light, twofold breath of energy, teacher and preacher, come well by the chariot and grace this yajna of ours.

2. Urdhvaṁ ketun savitā devo aśrejjyotirviśvasmai bhuvanāya kṛṣṇan. Āprā dyāvāprthivi antarikṣaṁ vi sūryo raśmibhiścekitānaḥ.

May Savita, brilliant and generous, giver of light and life’s energy, create light and radiate energy high up and give enlightenment to the whole world, as the refulgent sun, with its rays, illuminates the heaven and earth and the skies.

Crimson clad in brilliance, great and glorious, bright with morning rays, comes the blessed dawn by the chariot in top-notch harness, awaking the world to the joy and bliss of the new day.

4. Ā vāṁ vahiṣṭhā iha te vahantu rathā aśvāsa uṣaso vyuṣṭau. Ime hi vāṁ madhupeyāya somā asmin yajñe vrṣaṇā mādayethām.

Come ye Ashvins, harbingers of the dawn, breath and beauty of the morning, men and women dedicated to Divinity, may these strong chariots and horses bring you here in the light of the dawn. These honey drinks of soma, vital energy of life, are for you. Come, virile ones, and rejoice in this yajna (of the creation of a new day).

So close and unsupported, unbound and free, so wide and high looking down, as it is, what is that power which holds it up from falling down? By what force of its own does it go on as it does? Who sees that power, pillar sustainer of the vault of heaven, which sustains it with the cosmic law of Rtam, blissful as it is? Agni.

Mandala 4/Sukta 15

Agni, Somaka Sahadevya and Ashvinau Devata,\nVamadeva Gautama Rshi

1. Agnirhotā no adhvare vājī san pari ṇīyate.\nDevo deveṣu yajñīyaḥ.

Agni, brilliant leader, sustainer, yajaka and the clarion call of our yajna, most refulgent of the brilliants, most adorable of the adorables, being potent and warlike as a missile, is conducted all round and followed in the corporate business of our life.

2. Pari tvivīṣṭyaḥdhvaram yātyagnī rathīriva.\nĀ deveṣu prayo dadhat.

Agni, leader and pioneer, like a hero of the war chariot goes thrice round and round the yajna of our corporate life, bearing the wealth of peace and well-being among the noble powers and peoples of the world.

Agni, lord of food, energy and the dynamics of life and society, commanding a full poetic vision of corporate life, comprehends the gifts and oblations of the holy fire of the nation, bearing the jewels of life’s wealth for the generous giver.

This is he, that fiery and brilliant Agni, leader of yajna, vanquisher of the enemies of life and society, who is lighted and joined first of all in corporate struggles for the attainment of the holy gifts of Divinity.

Only that brave man among mortals can command the wealth and power of the world who is a yajnic follower of this Agni, dynamic leader, generous giver and unflinchingly just and powerful.
6. Tamarvantair na sānasimarūṣaṁ na divaḥ śiśum.
   Marmrjayante divedive.

   Him the followers serve, adorn and adore day by day who is lovable and victorious like a war horse and brilliant as a very child of heavenly light.

7. Bodhadyanmā haribhyāṁ kumāraḥ sāhadevyāḥ. Acchā na hūta udaram.

   Neither well informed nor inspired nor fully prepared as I am, may the youthful Agni, companion power of divinity, awaken and inform me by the gifts of Ashvins, light and knowledge of the teacher and the preacher, breath and beauty of nature and the light and fragrance of yajna.

8. Uta tyā yajatā hari kumārāt sāhadevyāt.
   Prayatā sadya a dade.

   I readily accept the breath and beauty of nature and the light and fragrance of yajna, gifts of the Ashvins, teachers and preachers, adorable messengers of life coming from Agni, youthful brilliance of Divinity.

_Dīrghāyuṣastu somakah._

Divine Ashvins, teachers and preachers, may this youth, your celebate disciple, dedicated to Divinity, be blest with long life, blest with the light of peace and well-being.

_Dīrghāyuṣam kṛṇotana._

Divine Ashvins, messengers of the light of Divinity, brilliant and generous teachers and preachers, both of you bless this youth, devotee of Divinity, with long life.

Mandala 4/Sukta 16

Indra Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

1. Ā satyo yātu maghavāṁ rajīśī dravantvasya haraya upa naḥ. Tasmā idandhāḥ suṣumā sudakṣami- hābhīpitvāṁ karate gṛṇānaḥ.

May Indra, lord ruler of the world, ever true, mighty bounteous and ever righteous in natural ways, come to us. May his men and powers hasten to us to help and bless. For his sake we produce energising food and distil exciting soma. Praised and appreciated and praising and appreciating, he provides us all with sustenance and protection in this world order.

2. Ava sya śūrādhvano nānte’smin no adya savane mandadhyai. Śaṁsātyukthamuśaneva vedhā-ścikituse asuryāya manma.

Indra, such as you are, guard us in this yajnic programme of holy living so that we may enjoy life and you too be happy with us. Guard us, pray, O Ruler, as you would the boundaries of the path of progress. Forsake us not till the end. The wise celebrant like a poet and lover sings songs of adoration and speaks words of wisdom to enlighten the simple innocents eager to learn and pray.

The generous man of might and vision accomplishing the performance of various yajnas of science, like a poet, receiving mysteriously but surely the shower of light from above, preserving it with reverence and advancing it, creates knowledge from the light above, and then the scholars, admiring and pursuing it further by day, create seven kinds of science and technology and raise seven orders of scientists and technologists. (The mantra suggests the science of spectrum and development of light technology.)

4. \textit{Svaryad vedi sudrśikamarkairmahī jyoṭī ruru-curyaddha vastoḥ. Andhā tamāmsi dudhitā vicaksendṛbhyaścakāra nṛtamo abhiṣṭau.}

The heavenly light and paradisal bliss that is revealed by the reflections of knowledge and radiations of the sun, the greatness and sublimity of ultimate reality that is revealed and shines as the dawn of the day, the impenetrable layers of darkness that are laid open and bare, all that, Indra, the best of men and highest of leaders and divinities, does for the sake of humanity for their highest good so that all may see and admire.

5. \textit{Vavakṣa indro amitamṛśīṣyubhe ā paprau radasī mahītvā. Ataścidasya mahimā vi recyabhī yo viśvā bhuvanā babhūva.}

Indra, lord supreme of nature and Rtam, the law of nature, wields and sustains both heaven and earth, immeasurable though they are. He pervades both and transcends them with his power and grandeur. For this very reason, his power and grandeur too exceeds everything else of the universe since he pervades, transcends and presides over all the regions of the universe in existence.

Indra, world ruler, commanding knowledge and power, exhausts all the possibilities of human action with his dedicated friends who, even with words of command, break down adamantine resistance and, passionate for action, open up and reveal the hidden treasures of wealth and energy of nations, like cowherds releasing cows from the stalls or winds breaking the clouds and releasing the waters.

Indra, ruler of the world, just as, when thunderous rays of the sun break the dark cloud holding waters of rain, the earth rejoices and rivers flow to the sea, so O mighty one, all-aware and intrepidable hero, be the master protector and promoter ruler with your strength and power and, by virtue of the centrifugal force of your power and law, break open the dark strongholds of energy and action, and let the freedom and vitality of humanity flow in action unto the ocean of eternal Divinity.
8. Apo yadadrim puruhūta dardarāvirbhuvat saramā pūrvyaṁ te. Sa no netā vājamā darśi bhūri gotrā rujann-aṅgirobhīr-grṇānaḥ.

Indra, universal celebrity, when you break the cloud of hoarded potentials and your simple and straight policy of governance and administration comes into full view on earth, then you, such leader and commander of ours, sung and celebrated by scholars and scientists, manifest your power and policy further and break open the many centre-holds of human intelligence and social energy.

9. Acchā kaviṁ nṛmaṇo gā abhiṣṭau svarśātā maghavan-nādhamānām. Útibhis-tamīśanō dyumnahūtāu ni māyāvānabrahmā dasyurarta.

Indra, winner of the light of heaven and harbinger of light on earth, lover of humanity, lord of glory, for the sake of desired goals and for the achievement of honour, wealth and excellence, inspire the poet, promote language and education, advance the seeker, scientist and researcher, with protection and incentive, and whoever be the clever exploiter opposed to knowledge, social good and general well being, let him be defeated.
10. Ā dasyughnā manasā yāhyastam bhuvat te kutsaḥ sakhye nikāmaḥ. Sve yonau ni śadatam sarūpāvi vāṃ cikitsadṛtaciddha nārī.

O destroyer of the wicked, come home to your own with your heart and soul. May the sage and the warrior be eager for your friendship. May both of you, being of equal mind, sit together in the home. May the woman, discriminative and expert in the sacred law of Dharma, know you well and cooperate.

You advance with the thunderbolt, O protector of the people, destroyer of enemies, riding the chariot, commanding the house like currents of the winds, a very team of energy and velocity in hand, the lord of vision and creation who destroys the wicked and wins the glory of victory.

For the sake of the wise and discriminate, you root out persistent want and drought. On the rise of the day you overthrow a thousand forms of pettiness and stinginess. You destroy the evil and the wicked by your thunderous force and, like the solar orb, scatter the enemy forces all round.

13. \[Tvam\ piprum mṛgayāṁ śūśvāṁsam-ṛjiśv-ine vaidathināya randhīh. Paṅcāsat kṛṣṇā ni vapaḥ sahasrā 'tkāṁ na puro jarimā vi dardah.\]

For the sake of the man of rectitude and continuance of law abiding generations of the pious yajnics, you subdue the swollen and wide spread wastours, hunters of forest wealth and destroyers of social good. Create a new force of fifty thousand warriors and like a storm of wind blow off the enemy strongholds, changing the old outmoded forms for the new.

14. \[Sūra upāke tanvāṁ dadhāno vi yat te cetya- mṛtasya varpaḥ. Mrgo na hastī taviṣīmuṣāṇah siṅho na bhīma āyūdhani bibhrat.\]

Indra, warrior hero blazing as the sun, around you the new form of your immortal self manifesting a new character wielding new arms appears like a mighty elephant, a ferocious lion, awfully burning off the lustre of enemy forces.
15. Indraṁ kāmā vasūyanto agmantsvarmīḥhe na savane cakānāḥ. Śravasyavāḥ śaśamānāsā ukthairoko na raṅvā sudṛśīva puṣṭih.

Those who love life, wish for the wealth of life, strive for the bliss of heaven on earth through yajnic action, desire for food, energy and victory in the battle of living, and with songs of praise and faith wish to achieve delightful health and nourishment in a paradisal home, all should go and join Indra, brilliant and potent ruler of the world.

16. Tamidva indraṁ suhavaṁ huvema yastā cakāra naryā purūṇi. Yo māvate jaritre gadhyaṁ cinma-kṣū vājam bharati spārharādhāḥ.

For sure that Indra, holily invoked and honoured, we invoke, join and celebrate, Indra who does all those many wondrous things for humanity, who, for the celebrant like me, bears and provides all the many desired kinds of food, energy and victory, and who is the source giver of things we love for all mankind.

17. Tigmā yadantaraśaniḥ patāti kasmiṇcicchūra muhuke janānām. Ghorā yadarya samṛtir-bhavā-tyadha smā nastanvo bodhi gopāḥ.

Indra, lord of excellence and glory, mighty brave hero, if a blazing thunderous missile falls like lightning upon the people in the midst of some battle, or, O celebrated lord, some terrible battle conflicts arise on the earth, then you alone, O world ruler, are the protector of our body of humanity you know.

18. Bhuvo’vitā vamdevasya dhīnāṁ bhuvaḥ sakā-vṛko vājasātau. Tvāmanu prmtimā jaganmoru-śamso jaritre viśvadha syāḥ.

Indra, ruler of the world, be protector of the holy and graceful scholar and promoter of arts and sciences. Be our friend and supporter, free from greed and violence in the battles of life for victory so that, O lord universally celebrated, we may follow our good sense and your guidance. Be the bearer and giver of the world’s wealth for the faithful celebrant.

19. Ebhirnṛbhirindra tyāyubhiṣṭvā maghvadbhir-maghavan viśva ājau. Dyāvo na dhumnairabhi santo aryah kṣapo madema śaradaśca pūrvīḥ.

Indra, lord of glory, commander of the world’s honour and excellence, lord of wealth and grace, with all these leaders of men, your lovers and celebrants all, wealthy, powerful and honourable, and with all our wealth and power, we pray, let us all shine being brilliant as sunrays in the battle of life and let us enjoy and celebrate life and the lord all nights and days and seasons...
all the year round on top of the world.

Evedindrāya vrshabhāya vrṣṇe brahmākarma bhṛgavo na ratham. Nū cidyathā naḥ sakhyā viyoṣadasanāna ugrov’vītā tanūpāḥ.

Thus for Indra, lord of glory, virile and generous, let us create wealth and offer songs of homage and celebration just as the Bhṛgus, scientists and engineers, create and offer the chariot, so that he may not forsake us but firmly retain our friendship, and, bright and blazing as he is, he may continue to be our protector and saviour of our body and the social order.

Nū ṣṭūta indra nū gṛṇāna iṣaṁ jaritre nadyo na pīpeḥ. Akāri te harivo brahma navyaṁ dhiyā syāma rathyah sadāsāḥ.

Indra, appreciated, praised and worshipped, appreciating, approving and praising your devotees, create and give ample food and energy to the celebrants, like rivers flowing and swelling with waters. O lord of speed and transport, with the best of our intellect and imagination, the new homage and new song is created and offered to you. And, we pray, with the same intellect and imagination may we be chariot champions blest with divine gifts of prosperity and spirituality.
Mandala 4/Sukta 17

Indra Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

Indra, lord ruler of the world, you are great and glorious. The earths do homage to your divine order as do the heavens. By virtue of your glory alone are the earths and heavens reverenced as great. By your power and prowess you break the cloud and release the floods of water locked up and devoured by the dark and deep of the clouds.

1. Tvaṁ mahan indra tubhyaṁ ha kṣā anu kṣatraṁ maṁhanā manyata dyauḥ. Tvaṁ vrtraṁ śavasā jaghanvāntsrajaḥ sindhubrahminā jagrasānān.

Indra, appreciated, praised and worshipped, appreciating, approving and praising your devotees, create and give ample food and energy to the celebrants, like rivers flowing and swelling with waters. O lord of speed and transport, with the best of our intellect and imagination, the new homage and new song is created and offered to you. And, we pray, with the same intellect and imagination may we be chariot champions blest with divine gifts of prosperity and spirituality.

2. Tava tviṣo janimanrejata dyaurejadbhūmir-bhiyasā svasya manyoh. Rdhāyanta subhvāḥ parvatāsa ārdandhanvāṇi sarayanta āpah.

By your blazing glory, O lord manifest, does the heaven shine and dazzle. By force and fear of your essential law and power does the earth move in order and the deep clouds and mighty mountains, excellent all bound in law, shower rain on deserts and make the floods of water flow.

Indra, hero bold and invincible, happy and joyous, striking thunder and lightning with his mighty force, thereby manifesting his lustrous blaze of power, destroys the cloud of darkness with the thunderbolt, making the floods of water flow with rapidity after the vapours have been unlocked and released.

(The mantra is a metaphor of the energies of life, of nature as well as of humanity, being unlocked and released by the ruling power with a strike of the force of law and justice against the strongholds of darkness, evil and selfishness which lock up those energies and prevent them from flowing into channels of progress and evolution.)

Magnificent and brave is your creator, your maker, to be honoured with reverence and awe, and let the creator, maker, of Indra, the ruler, be brilliant, the very light of the world, doer of great and holy deeds, the very epitome of the world, who gives rise to the great, omnificent, heavily armed and excellently empowered ruler, unswerving and unrelenting from his position, powers and obligations.
5. Ya eka iccāvayati pra bhūmā rājā krṣṭināṁ puruhūta indraḥ. Satyamenamanu viśve madanti rātim devasya grṇato maghonah.

The ruler of the people, Indra, invoked and celebrated by many, all by himself, alone, shakes and stirs many a great one, and surely all his admirers, in response to the munificence and generosity of the brilliant lord of magnificence and majesty, approve and support him, celebrate and rejoice with him.

May all the members and sessions of his assembly be good and true and successful. May all the sessions of the joyous celebrations of this great ruling order be happier than the happiest. Indra, O ruling lord president of the wealth of nations, be true to the entire body of people in the state of prosperity and rule with a mind above everything you rule and possess.

Indra, lord ruler of the world and destroyer of evil and ignorance, rising high as the first born of the home land, you take over the entire body of the people as presiding power, and then the lowest sections of the people and the sleeping sloth of the population, and then, O lord of fire and power, strike and shake up the sleeping giant with the thunderbolt and root out the serpentine ignorance and darkness.

Accept, honour and exalt Indra, ruler of the world, destroyer of untruth by the rule of truth and righteousness, bold, inspiring, great, unbounded, mighty generous, wielder of the thunderbolt of law and force, who is destroyer of the dark cloud of evil and selfishness, provider of food, energy and advancement, giver of honour and excellence, magnanimous and all-ways successful achiever of glory.

This ruler, elected, accepted and exalted, inspires and enlightens, he stirs and moves and leads trained armies to the battles of life, is excellent and magnanimous, listens to people and wins fame, and decides and acts with unique self-confidence. He creates and bears food and energy and leads forward in progress whoever approaches and cooperates with him. Let us all be friends with him and win his love and confidence.

10. Ayaṁ śrīve adha jayannuta ghnannayamutapra kṛṇute yudhā gāḥ. Yadā satyam kṛṇute manyumindro viśvaṁ dṝṅham bhayata ejadasmāt.

  This ruler is Indra, of resounding fame is he, winner of victories, destroyer of the killers and destroyers of the world, fights, and by fighting expands the lands of noble rule by the laws of peace. And when he expresses his righteous anger in action against misrule, the entire world, whether firm or unsettled, fears and shakes in awe.

  By his strength and nobility, Indra wins over lands rich in the wealth of cows, precious gold and noble horses. Liberal and excellent he is and wins over the people ancient and far off who may be. And with these best of men and leaders, and by the power and talent of these, while he shares the gains of expansion with others, he also continues to wield and command the wealths of the world.

How far does Indra reflect on the debt he owes to his mother? How far on that he owes to his father? How does he gratefully acknowledge the gift of his makers? He who refreshes and renews his power and influence repeatedly by virtue of these makers and rejuvenators and moves on like the wind pressed on with thundering clouds?

Indra settles the unsettled, gives a home to the homeless. Commanding power and glory, wielding thunder and lightning like radiance of the sun, he advances to battle and crushes the enemy to dust. And commanding wealth and honour of the world, he establishes the celebrant in a state of excellence and prosperity.
These, while he shares the gains of expansion with others, he also continues to wield and command the wealths of the world.

This Indra, lord ruler of cosmic energy, moves the wheel of the sun in orbit and then stops the continuance of the day’s activity for rest. By virtue of the same energy the dark cloud in its tortuous motions holds and releases the waters to shower and flow. And the same Indra holds the great defining dark concentrations of energy in its cosmic womb at the deepest.
birth and progeny and unfailing provider of protection and well-being. We move and exhort him as we lower a bucket into a well, shake it, fill it up with water and draw it up for our benefit.

\[Trātā no bodhi dadṛśāna āpirabhikhyātā maṛditā somyānām. Sakhā pitā pitṛtamaḥ pitṛṇāṁ kartemu lokamuśate vayodhāḥ.\]

Know that, O people, who is our saviour and protector, ever watching, always present with us as brother, teacher and benefactor of loving peaceful devotees, friend, father and progenitor of our forefathers and sustainer guardians, all doer and all giver of life, health and age to the lovers of life on earth.

18.

\[Sakhīyatāmavitā bodhi sakhā grṇāna indra stuvate vayo dhāḥ. Vyaṁ hyā te cakṛmā sabādha ābhiḥ śamībhirmahayanta indra.\]

Indra, friend and protector of friends you are, know us and enlighten us. Lord admired and celebrated, bless the devotee with health, wealth and long age. Lord of power, honour and excellence, Indra, with all our limitations, we admire, honour and celebrate you only, exalting you with these our acts of love, devotion and worship.
19. Stuata indro maghavā yaddha ṛtrā bhūrīṇyeko apratīmi hanti. Asya priyo jaritā yasya śarna-nnakirdevā vārayante na martah.

Indra, lord of honour, power and excellence, ruler of the world, admired and worshipped, is the one who all by himself breaks and destroys many irresistible clouds of vapours, darkness and evil. Whoever is dear to him, a celebrant of this lord, and takes shelter under his protection, no one, no human or divine, can obstruct or oppose.

20. Evā na indro maghavā virapṣī karat satyā carṣṇidhrdananvā. Tvaṁ rājā januṣāṁ dhe-hyasme adhi śravo māhināṁ yajjaritre.

Thus does Indra, lord of wealth, power and excellence, free and irresistible, abounding and generous sustainer of the people, do and achieve what is good and true for the world. O lord of light ruling over the living beings, who create and bear great food, sustenance and honour for the celebrant, the same honour and excellence, pray, create and give for us all and bless us.
21.  \(\text{Nū śṭuta indra nū grñāna iśam jaritre nadyo na pīpeḥ. Akāri te harivo brahma navyam dhiyā syāma rathyaḥ sadāsāḥ.}\)

Indra, lord supreme of honour and excellence, praised and worshipped in holy voice, create and augment food, energy and sustenance for the celebrant like streams overflowing with water for all. O lord omnipresent, moving yet unmoving, we create and offer ever new songs of praise and homage in your honour, and pray, give us the will and intelligence by which we may be masters of chariots and be thankful and obedient servants of Divinity.

Mandala 4/Sukta 18

Indraditī Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

\(\text{Ayaṃ panthā anuvittāḥ purāṇo yato devā udajāyanta viśve. Ataścadā janīsiṣṭa pravṛddho mā mātaramamuyā pattave kah.}\)

This is the path ancient and eternal, known and followed, by which all saints and sages and divine facts and forces are born to grow and rise, from which the whole world comes into being and evolves to greatness and grandeur. Therefore, do not do anything by that way to insult or desecrate the mother, nature, earth, human mother or animal, or any source of generation.

\(\text{नाहमता निर्रया दुगहहकंतिरश्चता पश्वाणिरगमाणि।} \)
\(\text{बहूनिं म अक्रुरता कर्त्तविनि युध्यक्ष्ण सं त्वन पृच्छेऽः २।} \)

This path is dark and deep, unfathomable, yet it is unavoidable. Therefore, I won’t evade it, nor trespass it either by another tortuous route or by a wayside alley. Many are my jobs yet unaccomplished, many the battles to be fought by many, many the questions to be asked of many.

3. Parāyatēṁ mātaramanvacaṣṭa na nānu gāṇyanu nū gamāni. Tvaṣṭurgrāhe apibat somamindraḥ satadhanyāṁ camvoḥ sutasya.

I see the mother passing away, neither anyone going with nor anyone following after. Indra, the spirit of life, by itself in the house of Tvashta, divine artificer, receives a hundredfold joy of earthly form and drinks the soma of the ecstasy of living in the cup of existence fashioned by the maker.
exactly like or equal to him, no copy, either among those who have been born so far or among those who would be born in future.

The mother, worthy of reverence and full of the pride and joy of motherhood, bears Indra, living foetus, in the womb as a silent secret nourished with her vital blood. This Indra, nestled by itself as a living form, nourished, growing and wearing its own form as a garment, abides, and when it is born it fulfils the purpose of heaven and earth (as it fulfils the purpose of father and mother).

These streams of water, flowing, murmuring, ecstatically singing, rush on like beauteous rays of the dawn. Ask them what they say thus, what mounts they strike and circle, what banks they overflow, what limitations they overcome, what clouds they touch.

7. Kimu ādidasmatarunītā bhunāntra-vyāvhaṁ dīnādhyāntu āapā. Mābhān-poutra māhūta vādhaṁ vruṭṭe jñānānāṁ apraṇājā jājanāṅ।"

What do the ripples, murmurs and songs of excitement of the streams, imaging the immanent power of Indra, say to the mount they hit, the cloud they touch and to this humanity? They speak for Mother Nature, Aditi: My son Indra, breaking the cloud with the mighty thunderbolt of solar energy released the waters and made the streams to flow.

Once Mother Nature, a youthful female, in a state of passion conceives you and brings you to life and birth. Then another, a voracious raging demoniac swallows you. Yet another, cool and kind, overflowing with love, caresses and comforts you as a child. And then Indra, grown mature as a new born soul, arrives with his own essential strength.

Maghavan, lord of might and excellence, when the self-deluded fool, though arms and shoulders broken, in a state of madness, striking right and left attacks your forces, then though attacked, recover, rise later higher and crush the head of the wicked opponent with a deadly strike of the thunderbolt.

Just as a young cow gives birth to the calf, so does the mother, Mother Nature, give birth to Indra, jiva, the blessed soul, essentially a lover of life, inspired with the will to love and live, to act, to move around and to know the Divine Word. A divine child is man, strong, unshakable, intrepidable, generous, inspiring, lover and winner of honour and excellence, and invincible, blest with the human body.

Then (having given birth to the soul) Mother Nature (inspired with divinity), loving, longing and yearning for the well being of the child, softly speaks, warning the great off-spring: Dear child, the devas, senses, mind and all, are neglecting, forsaking, misleading you (in your state of darkness, ignorance and unawareness). Indra, the born soul, dispelling darkness and destroying Vrtra, demon of ignorance, speaks loud and bold to Vishnu, intelligent spiritual self: Dear friend, arise and act for self redemption (through existence with the devas, senses, mind and the discriminative intelligence).

\[\text{Kaste mātaraṁ vidhavāmacakracchayum kastvā-}
\text{majighāṁsaccaran} \text{tam. Kaste devo adhi mārdika}

Indra, obedient soul, holding on to the feet of the father, who can render your mother a widow? Who can hurt you while asleep or moving about? What is that supernormal power over and above your state of grace which can corrupt you? (Answer: None.)

\[\text{Avar} \text{t} \text{ya śuna ān} \text{trāṇ} \text{e} \text{p} \text{e} \text{c} \text{n} \text{a de} \text{vēṣu vivide}
\text{marditār} \text{a} \text{m. Apaśyam jāyāmamahīyamānā-} \text{madhā me śyeno madhvā jabhāra.}
\]

At peace beyond fluctuations of the mind, I ripen and refine the inner visions. I see no saviour either in the experience of the senses or among the external powers of nature. Indeed, I have seen even Mother Nature insulted and desecrated. Ultimately it is the bird of heaven that brings me the divine message, nectar sweets of the honey of real life.

Mandala 4/Sukta 19

Indra Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

   Indra, lord ruler of power and excellence, wielder of the thunderbolt of law, justice and protection, all the scholars of the world, nobles and divines, defenders, holy yajakas and both earth and heaven elect and invite you alone, great, vast and high in grandeur, lord sublime, unique and incomparable. They invoke you for the destruction of Vṛtra, demon of darkness, ignorance and selfishness.

   Indra, lord of the world, men of age, experience and wisdom, firm in their values and conduct of life, as also the brilliant nobles and divines of the world, create and consecrate the ruler of the earth dedicated to truth as the very being and purpose of his existence. And like the sun, light of the world dedicated to his eternal task and nature, breaking the cloud sleeping over the locked up vapours, and releasing the streams of water to flow and feed the world, the ruler destroys the demons of darkness and their strongholds to make the waters of life to flow and give new energy and freshness of life to the people.

3. Atrpṇuvantam viyatamabudhyamabudhyamānaṁ suṣupāṇamindra. Sapta prati pravata āśayānamahiṁ vjreṇa vi riṇā aparvan.

Indra, lord of light, power and excellence, ruler of the world, with a stroke of the thunderbolt destroy without relent the serpentine demon, Vṛtra, insatiable, uncontrollable, unawakened, incorrigible, inebriated, blocking up and sleeping over seven streams of the onward flow of life.

Indra, with his own strength and courage and by his blazing forces, shakes the earths and skies just as the winds beat and shear the currents of water flows and concentrations of vapour. Lustrous, passionate and inspired, he crushes mighty strongholds of the enemy
5. Abhi pra dadurjanayo na garbham rathā iva pra yayuḥ sākamadrayaḥ. Atarpayo visṛta ubja ūrmīntvam vrṭāṁ arinā indra sindhūn.

As mothers rush to the child to protect it, so do the multitudinous armies rush forward to defend you alongside the chariots. You break the clouds, fill the rivers with water and make them flow and thus, O lord Indra, you set the locked up seas rolling.

Indra, lord ruler of the world, with thanks and homage to nature and her maker, serve the earth, great protective mother of her children, universal sustainer of life overflowing with nourishment for the defender of humanity and destroyer of enmity for the sake of peace and well being of all. Fill the earth with food and plenty, make her a lovely place for living, let the streams ripple and flow, make the seas roll, inviting all to surf and swim and navigate, and cross the storms of existence.
7. Prāgruvo nabhanvo na vakvā dhvasrā apinvad-yuvaśīrta jñāḥ. Dhanvānyajrāṇ ṣaṃnākṣaṭā-ṇāṇ adhogindraḥ staryo dāṁsūpatnīḥ.

Like the winding streams of rushing waters, let Indra, ruler of the world, develop the fatal armour as the destructive and defensive force. Let him enlist young and intelligent women dedicated to truth and progress. Let him plan and provide irrigation projects for the desert lands to restore their fertility. Similarly let him develop the cattle wealth and take care of the wives of the warriors and make them play a creative role in development.

8. Pūrviṣuṣasāḥ śaradaśca gūrtā vrṭaṁ jaghanvān asṛjadvi sindhūn. Pariṣṭhitā atṛṇad badbadhānāḥ sīrā indraḥ sravitave pṛthivyā.

Just as the sun causes the ancient dawns to rise and moves the cycle of the seasons such as winter and others and move them on and on, and just as solar energy breaks the clouds and makes the rivers flow, so let Indra, ruler of the world, break open the locked up energy of still waters and make it flow in streams for the development and progress of the earth and her children.

Indra, master of motive energies and controller of the speed and direction of resources, by rising hills hold the unused and unusable water of the streams emerging from the source from further flow, collect and lift the flows together, redirect the water so that the fields and crops receiving the water proclaim the gift as it flows out from the reservoir filling the canals.

Rajan, glorious ruler of the world, the deeds of ancient and eternal value you have done, the programmes you have accomplished, and the self-proclaiming acts of generosity and noble adventures you have performed, the noble scholar and poet sings and celebrates in your honour, O wise leader and master, exactly as you have performed in the interest of humanity.

Sung and celebrated thus, Indra, O ruler of the world, create, bear and bring food, energy and knowledge for the celebrants just as the rivers flow for us all. And thus, this the latest song of homage and adoration is offered to you to the best of our knowledge and intelligence. Bless us, we pray, with intelligence and knowledge so that we may be warriors of the chariot in the service of Divinity and humanity.

Mandala 4/Sukta 20

Indra Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

1. Ā na indro dūrādā na āsādabhiṣṭikṛdavase yāsadugrah. Ojiṣṭhebhīṁrpatirvajrabāhuḥ saṅge samatsu turvaṇīḥ pṛatanyūn.

   May Indra, strong and blazing hero, impetuous and impassioned warrior of the arms of thunder, ruler and sustainer of the people, harbinger of the cherished fruits of noble desire and peace, come to us from far and near for our defence and protection. Lovers of the battles of life as we are, join us in our heats and meets and battles of action for progress with the most powerful weapons and warriors of the time.

2. Ā na indro haribhīrīyātvacchā’rvācino’vase rādhase ca. Tiṣṭhāti vajrī maghavā virapśimāṁ yajñamanu no vājasātāu.

   May Indra, lord great and glorious, commanding wealth, honour and excellence, wielding thunderous arms of latest design and power, come to us with his forces, come well at the fastest for our protection and all round success, and may he, we pray, stand by us in the conduct of this yajna of ours for victory in our battle of peace and progress in the field of production, development of energy, and advancement in arts and sciences.

_Imaṁ yajñam tvamasmākamindra puro dadhat-saniṣyasi kratūṁ naḥ. Śvaghnīva vajrintsanaye dhanānāṁ tvayā vayamarya ājimḥ jayema._

This yajna of our social order, Indra, lord commander of wealth and power, honour and excellence, ruling, guiding and sharing the governance of our cities, you would join and share with us in our plans and discussions throughout the holy programme of ours. And we hope, O wielder of the thunderbolt, that with you as the leader and pioneer we shall fight like hunters of the wild and win the battle for the achievement of the wealth and values of the good life.

_Uśannu ṣu ṇah somanā upāke somasya nu suṣu-tasya svadāvah. Pā indra pratibhṛtasya madhv-vaḥ samandhasā mamadaḥ prṣṭhyena._

Indra, brilliant ruler, wielding your own essential wealth and strength and power, glowing with love and wealth, honour and excellence, wielding thunderous arms of latest design and power, come to us with his forces, come well at the fastest for our protection and all round success, and may he, we pray, stand by us in the conduct of this yajna of ours for victory in our battle of peace and progress in the field of production, development of energy, and advancement in arts and sciences.

5. Vi yo rarapṣa ṛṣibhirnavēbhīrvṛkṣo na pakvah sṛṇyoho na jetā. Maryo na yośāmabhi manyamāno’cchā vivakmi puruhūtamindram.

Mighty and full abundant is Indra who is praised and celebrated by the latest sages and scholars like a tree laden with ripe fruit, like a victor putting the enemy to flight. Like a man loving and honouring his beloved, knowing, loving and respecting Indra at the closest and highest, I too celebrate and exalt Indra invoked and glorified by the whole humanity.

6. Girirna yaḥ svatavāṁ ṛṣva indraḥ sanādeva sahase jāta ugraḥ. Ādartā vajraṁ sthaviraṁ na bhīma udneva kośaṁ vasunā nyṛśṭam.

Inherently mighty like a cloud and a mountain, dynamic and sublime, Indra is blazing glorious, ever known for his power and patience, destroyer of enemies, thunderous of arms, awful as an invincible warrior, abundant as the sea and overflowing with the wealth of kindness for us, happy and joyous at heart close by us, preserve, protect and promote the plenty and prosperity of the nation’s honour fought for and won for every partner and then, after the battle and struggle, enjoy the honey sweets of life with a taste of the food and pleasure of peace and progress.
Na yasya vartā januṣā nvasti na rādhasa āmarītā maghasya. Udvāṛṣaṇastaviṣīva ugrā’smabhyam daddhi puruhūta rāyah.

By birth and by nature, there is none to resist him and to turn his back, none to destroy the wealth and power of his glory and majesty. Ever pouring forth the showers of favours, blazing with forces under command, O lord of might and passion, universally invoked and exalted, bear and bring for us the wealths and honours of the good life.

I see you watch over the treasures of the wealth and home of the people and open up the treasures of the languages and learning of the earths. You are the leader of knowledge and education, warrior and victor of wars, and director of the circulation of the collective wealth and assets of the world in many ways.

What is that knowledge and expertise, what sort after all, by which, let me hear, you, mighty majestic and most versatile, somehow achieve success and victory again and again, and by which, being the greatest breaker and destroyer of sin and evil and crime, you bear and bring plenty of wealth for the generous celebrant?

Indra, lord of majesty and generosity, we pray, forsake us not, bear and bring and give us that plenty and variety of wealth which is yours meant for a gift to the generous devotee in this new, productive, admirable and well directed yajnic song of celebration in your honour, and may we, we pray, continue to speak and sing in praise of your glory.
honour and excellence, sung and celebrated thus by the devotees, bear and bring and increase your gift of the wealth of food, energy and knowledge of arts and sciences for the celebrants like the overflowing streams of water across the earth. This new homage of song and adoration is created and offered to your honour so that, O lord of horse and armour, we pray, we may rise as a nation of chariot warriors, generous and obedient to Divinity.

Mandala 4/Sukta 21

Indra Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

1. ॐ यात्विन्द्रचर्चसं उपर्यं न इह स्तुतः संध्वमादेस्तु शौरः ।
   वातुधानस्तविप्रीयस्य पूर्वीद्याक् त्रयमध्यभूतिः पुष्यात् ॥ १ ॥

   May Indra, ruler and protector of the people, come here to us for our protection and advancement and, praised and sung, may the brave hero share our joy of celebration. Exalted and ascending he is, time tested his forces, bright and blazing as light of the sun. May he, we pray, strengthen our social order and raise it to the heights of prosperity.

2. ॐ सत्यदिह स्तूवाथ वृण्याणि तुविदुमस्य तुविराधमाः नून ।
   यस्य कर्तौविदुद्धां न समात साहवान्तरत्रा अभ्यस्ति कृष्ठी ॥ २ ॥

   In the holiest programmes of our daily business of life, we honour and celebrate Indra who rules the great and permanent assets of the nation, who wins victories by the winds in the battles of the lands and movable wealth and who, with bold and intrepide
Here on this earth praise Indra, celebrate his acts of bravery and generosity, appreciate and honour the leaders and commanders of the mighty and majestic glorious achiever, whose yajnic rule over the social order is worth knowing and holy as an umbrella over the people like the cover of universal and effulgent sunlight, challenging, fighting, winning, forbearing and redeeming.

Let Indra, with vision, power and energy to rule, come instantly from the heavens, from the earth, from the sea or from the orb of the sun and from the ethereal spaces for our protection and promotion. Let the lord of the winds come from afar or from the vedi of cosmic yajna and from the centre of truth and rectitude.

In the holiest programmes of our daily business of life, we honour and celebrate Indra who rules the great and permanent assets of the nation, who wins victories by the winds in the battles of the lands and movable wealth and who, with bold and intrepidable confidence and initiative, wholly and faultlessly directs the circulation of the nation’s wealth for development.

He who moves forward, who creates and holds food stocks for the sake of consumption in emergency and establishes courtesy and mutual respect as a value of social culture, who creates and uses the language of cooperation and social cohesion for the unity and cooperation of the common wealth of order, who is accepted and celebrated by many many people with words of reverence, and who, by all these ways, creates honour and prestige for the nation of humanity, calls for the shots in world assemblies and rises higher as ruler, as Indra above all.

6. Dhiṣā yadi dhīṣnyantah saranyān tsadanto adrimāuśijasya gohe. Ā duroṣāḥ pāstyasya hotā yo

If the wise people sitting in the house of a loving and nobly ambitious man of yajna, were to do homage with their intelligence and wisdom to the generous giver and yajaka and to those who are realised souls worthy of company, then the one, Indra himself, really great, beyond anger and fear, would come and join there as the leader and high priest, as indeed the very fire, winner and carrier of fragrance, in the battles of life in the house of the yajamana taking it as his own affair in his own house.

7. Satrā yadīṁ bhārvarasya vṛṣṇah siṣakti śuṣmah

When truly in yajnic session in honour of the lord sustainer of humanity, Indra, the light and power of the generous lord showers upon the celebrant for his fulfilment, then the hidden wealth and potential in the mind and home of the loving and faithful yajamana blooms forth for the fruition of his intelligence, advancement and life’s joy.

8. Vi yad varāṁsi parvatasya vṛṇve payobhirjinve

When I open the flood gates of the cloud and break open the path of the mountain, I augment the flow of the rivers with fresh reservoirs. And then the wise pioneers diving deep and reaching the depths of the brilliance and generosity of nature’s resources carry on researches for the food, energy and speed of life’s progress.
9. Bhdrā te hastā sukṛtota pāṇī prayantārā stuvate rādha indra. Kā te niṣattīḥ kimu no mamatsi kim noduḥu harṣase dātavā u.

Noble are your arms, O lord Indra, as instruments of noble deeds, gracious your hands generously giving the wealth of life to the celebrant. What and where is the seat of your dispensation? Why not bless us with joy? Why not rejoice and give us the thrill and the ecstasy?

10. Evā vasva indraḥ satyāḥ samrāḍḍhantā vrtraṁ varivah pūrave kah. Puruṣṭuta kravā nah śagdhi rāyo bhakṣīya te’vaso daivyasya.

Thus does Indra, ruler of the world, brilliant and ever true, destroyer of the demons of darkness and enmity, give us abundant wealth for the devotee. O lord praised and universally celebrated, give us the wealth of the world by virtue of noble and creative actions. Pray give us the privilege of your divine protection so that we may enjoy the gift of life.
11. Nū śṭuta indra nū grṇāna iṣaṁ jāritre nadyo na pīpeḥ. Akāri te harivo brahma navyaṁ dhiyā syāma rathyaḥ sadāśāḥ.

Indra, lord of knowledge, honour and excellence of wealth and well being, praised and celebrated, bear and bring the wealth of food, energy, knowledge and progress for the devotee like the flowing streams of living waters. This new song of homage is offered to you, O lord of speed and advancement, so that with action and intelligence we may be masters of chariots and noble servants of Divinity.

Mandala 4/Sukta 22

Indra Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

1. Yanna indro jujuşe yacca vaṣṭi tanno mahān karati śuṣmyā cit. Brahma stomaṁ maghavā somamukthā yo aśmānaṁ śavasā bibhradeti.

Indra, lord of light and power, supreme ruler of the world, commanding honour and majesty, who is ever with us as a friend, who loves us, who does great things for us and, bearing the awful might of thunder and generosity of the cloud, and bestowing on us food, energy and knowledge, honour and fame, greatness of wealth and grandeur, peace of mind and joy of health, and admirable art and poetry, goes on and on with his glory and majesty.
2. Vṛṣaḥ vṛṣandhim caturaśrimasyannugro bāhu-bhyāṁ nṛtamah śacivāṁ. Śriye paruṣṇīmuṣamāṇaṁ īrṇāṁ yasyāṁ parvāṇi sakhyāya vivye.

Indra, brave and generous, fierce and mighty brilliant but kind and generous, best and highest of leaders, blazing with his majesty and shooting out the vibrations of his four-winged forceful power of thunder directed all round by his arms of protection and progress, interweaves the harsh and variegated regions of the earth into a unified pattern under the warm cover of a single umbrella for the sake of mutual harmony and beauty of life.

Indra is the leader who, brilliant ruler, most majestic among brilliant ones, newly rising, great, wielding the blazing thunderbolt in hands, makes the earth and skies shine with his grandeur, and, with his great forces and dynamic intelligence, makes the proud and passionate tremble and the loving and shining ones shine more brilliant.
4. Viśvā rodhāṃsi pravataśca pūrvīrdyaaurṣvājja-niman-rejata kṣāh. Ā mātarā bharati śuṣmyā gor-nṛvat-parijman-nonuvanta vātāh.

All the solid spheres and mountains of the world, the floods and waves of liquid motions, the regions of light ancient as time, the earths, all born of the dynamics of Prakṛti, the source mothers of the earth such as heat and water and oceans of space, or the roaring winds of the interspaces, all these like the world of humanity, the lord of omnipotence, Indra, bears, moves and sustains.

5. Tā tū ta indra mahato mahāni viśveṣvitsavaneṣu pravācyā. Yacchūra dhṛṣṇa dhṛṣatā dadhṛṣvānih ahim vajreṇa śavasāviveṣīḥ.

Indra, lord and presence omnipotent, invincible and intrepidable, those acts of yours greater than the greatest are worth admiration and exaltation in all celebrations of the world which, with your might, bearing and sustaining the fixed stars and moving forces of the universe, you perform with your power and force of thunder to break the clouds holding up the process of evolution.

6. Tā tū te satyā tuvinṛṃṇā viśvā pra dhenavaḥ sisrate vṛṣṇa ūdhnaḥ. Adhā ha tvad-vṛṣamaṇo bhiyānāḥ pra sindhavo javasā cakramanta.
Indra, lord of great valour and magnificence, generous as rain showers and magnanimous at heart, all those universal acts of yours are great and true. The cows, the earths and the words of vision stream forth with nourishment, energy and inspiration. And by your fear and force of law the rivers rush on with rapidity and the seas roll round with awe.

And surely, O lord of horse and armour and speed of progress, Indra, those sisterly and forward looking dynamic forces of yours in the land, noble and brilliant all, managing the resources along disciplined and determined lines, forces which you released to move forward at freedom on the long and high road to their goal, rush on with pleasure, favour and hopes for protection and exhort and exalt you.

Distilled is the soma of exciting joy of life’s action as homage to you. May it reach you like the sea.
And O lord, bring us the peace and power of the omnipotent and self-refulgent Divinity at the fastest like a driver controlling the reins of a tempestuous courser.

   O lord of peace, patience, power and victory, bless us with all those gifts of yours which are permanent, challenging, highest and most generous. For us, destroy the demons of darkness and enmity which deserve to be destroyed, and ward off and annihilate the onslaugths on the worshipful humanity.

10. Asmākamitsu śṛṇuhi tvamindrā’smabhyaṁ citrāṅ upa māhi vājān. Asmabhyaṁ viśvā iṣaṇah purandhīrasmākaṁ su maghavan bodhi godāḥ.

   Indra, ruler of the world, commanding wealth and valour and honour, giver of the speech of wisdom, lands and cows, listen to our voice, measure, mark out, plan, and apportion for us vast and wondrous successes in the field of food, energy and victory. Inspire us with all the possibilities of intellectual and scientific achievement, and let us awake into a heaven of light and freedom.
11. \( \textit{Nū śṭuta indra nū grṇāna iṣāṁ jaritre nadyo na pīpeḥ. Akāri te harivo brahma navyaṁ dhiyā syāma rathyaḥ sadāsāḥ.} \)

Thus faithfully praised, celebrated and worshipped in song, O lord of power and progress, Indra, bless the supplicant worshipper with food, energy and advancement like the streams that flow abundant. This homage of worship is created and offered with the best of our intention and intelligence praying that with the divine gift of latest genius we may be warriors of the chariot and obedient servants of Divinity.

Mandala 4/Sukta 23

Indra, Indra Rtađeva Devata, Vamadava Gautama Rshi

1. \( \textit{Kathā mahāmavṛdhakasya hoturyajñāṁ juṣāṇo abhi somamūdhaḥ. Pibannūśāno juṣam-āṇo andho vavakṣa ṛṣvah sucate dhanāya.} \)

How to evolve and exalt the grandeur of life? Which creative yajaka’s holy programme of yajnic instruction and evolution to join? Which milky drink of soma to drink from the mother’s breast?

The great, generous and protective lord of sublimity, Indra, commanding knowledge, wealth, honour and excellence, loving and owning up the devoted disciple supplicant, cherishing his offer of homage, blesses him with the gift of refinement and exaltation of his innate wealth of honour and grandeur.

Katha śūrṇatā hūyamāṇamānḍrāḥ: katha śūrṇa vṛcchāsāmasya veda. Kā asya pūrṇirupamātayo ha kathainamāhūḥ papurim jārītre.

Who is the brave who reaches the ecstasy of the lord’s company? Who attains to him and shares the manifestations of his vision and intelligence? When does he know and realise the wonder and variety of this lord’s benediction? When does the lord’s grace flow for the protection and advancement of the supplicant in yajna?

Katha śūrṇatā hūyamāṇamānḍrāḥ: katha śūrṇa vṛcchāsāmasya veda. Kā asya pūrṇirupamātayo ha kathainamāhūḥ papurim jārītre.

3. Kathā śṛṇoti hūyamāṇamāndraḥ kathā śṛṇvannavasāmasya veda. Kā asya pūrṇirupamātayo ha kathainamāhūḥ papurim jārītre.

When does Indra listen to the supplicant? And while he listens, when does he grant that the time for his liberation and ultimate protection is come? What are, for sure, the ultimate bounds (if any) of the lord’s gifts of grace? How do the celebrants sing of the gracious lord for the supplicant?
4. Kathā sabādhaḥ śaśamāno asya naśadabhi dravināṁ dīdhyānaḥ. Devo bhuvaṁvedā ma ṛtānāṁ namo jagṛbhvāṁ abhi yajjuoṣat.

When does the supplicant, though bound in his limitations yet intent upon his search for Divinity, attain to the wealth of the lord’s grace?

When the lord self-refulgent and infinitely generous becomes cognizant of my yajnas of service and devotion, accepts my offers of food and fragrance in the vedi, and owns me as his child and disciple in faith, then does his grace shower on me.

5. Kathā kadasyā uṣaso vyuṣṭau devo martasya sakhyāṁ jujoṣa. Kathā kadasya sakhyāṁ sakhibhyo ye asmin kāmaṁ suyujāṁ tatasre.

When would the refulgent and generous lord in this light of the dawn accept and cherish the devotion and friendship of mortal humanity? When would his love and friendship extend to the human friends who in this yajna of love and covenant extend their love and ambition over practical work in divine service?

6. Kimādāmatram sakhyāṁ sakhībhyaḥ kadā nu te bhrātraṁ pra bravāma. Śriye sudṛśo vapurasya sargāḥ svarṇa citratamamīṣa ā goḥ.
O lord, when and how shall we describe your firm and protective love and friendship and your brotherly affection to our friends?

The cosmic body of this gracious lord and the various stages of his creation are for the beauty and glory of existence, blissful as heaven, various and most wondrous. So also are the beauties and generosities of the sun for the love and sustenance of life.

Keen to eliminate the hateful, destructive and rebellious elements, Indra sharpens his blazing armies to greater force, and where the existing forces thus grow fiercer, our ruler, awesome and bold as terror, like a man under pressure of an obligation, wipes out unknown fears like the dawns dispelling darkness.

The protective forces of truth are everlasting. The vision and understanding rooted in truth removes all hurdles and breaks the clouds of darkness. The word and message of truth clears up the ears of the deaf, awakening and brightening up the man who hears, giving him the light of Divinity.

9. Ṛtasya dṛñhā dharuñāni santi purūṇi candrā vapuṣe vapūṃṣi. Rtena dīrgham-īṣānta prkṣa ṛtena gāva ṛtamā viveśuḥ.

The foundations of Truth and Eternal Law are unshakable, boundless and beautiful, the very embodiments of truth, beauty and Dharma for life forms. By the Law of truth do people enjoy long life and showers of joy. By the Law of truth do our voice and senses follow truth and reach the very source of reality and the seat of the law of eternal truth.

10. Ṛtaṁ yemāṇa ṛtamidvanotṛtasya sūmamasturayā u gavyuḥ. Ṛtāya prthvī bahule gabhīre ṛtāya dhenū parame duhāte.

The pursuant of truth attains to truth. The operation of the eternal law of truth is fast, instantaneous, so fast that it is omnipresent, all operative. The abundant earth, deep interspaces and the high heavens all like the mother cow yield the milk of life in service of the eternal law of truth.

Indra, world ruler, omnipotent lord of universal truth and abundance, thus praised and worshipped, bear and bring food, energy, and the sustaining power of life for the celebrant in abundance like the rivers overflowing with life giving waters. This new song of homage and fragrant yajna is offered in worship, O lord of the universal dynamics of nature, in hope with prayer that with vision and intelligence we may be masters of the chariot and dedicated workers in your service of the law of truth.

Mandala 4/Sukta 24

Indra Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

1. Kā suṣṭutih śavasah sūnumindramarvācīnaṁ rādhasa ā vavartat. Dadirhi vīro grṇate vasūni sa gopatirnīṣṣidhāṁ no janāsah.

O citizens of the land, what is that order of praise and approbation which would persuade and move Indra toward us for our joint success and prosperity? A very child of might is he, inspirer of the brave, most youthful hero of latest knowledge and modern tactic, eminent warrior, creator and munificent giver of wealth for his supporters, manager and promoter of the earth and its resources, and leader and commander of the generous producers, our own pioneers.
2. Sa vṛtrahatyā havyah sa īdyah sa suṣṭuta indrāh satyarādhāh. Sa yāmannā maghavā martyāya brahmañyate suṣvaye varivo dhāt.

He is to be invoked in the battles against darkness, evil and crime, lord adorable as he is, profusely adored, Indra, lord of honour and excellence, achiever of truth and giver of noble riches. He, lord of wealth, might and majesty, bears and bestows choice gifts of honour and freedom upon the mortals who dedicate themselves to the lord of existence and pray for success and divine grace in the ways of life.

People and leaders both call upon him in their battles of life in search of freedom, those who seek release and those who look to him for the protection of their bodies. Together, men and women, men and leaders, go to him for freedom from suffering as well as for the well being of their children and grand children.

People of the land, both bright and blazing as well as impetuous in action, together, joining in the pursuit of knowledge and yajnic action do their best and holiest in faith in their own fields of social development freely, and when all the citizens thus engage in battle against the demons of darkness, evil and poverty and conduct themselves with discipline on a war footing, they unitedly and unanimously choose Indra as their guide and leader in action.

And then the warriors all work for the honour and excellence of the nation through joint action. And then let the fruit of the action and struggle, like delicious pudding seasoned, be consolidated and reserved. And then when the present and future is secured, let the soma of joy be prepared and ripened for the warriors of courage and valour, and then let all join Indra, virile and generous leader, in the celebration.

One who thus does honour and distinguished service for Indra, ruler of the world, and distils the soma of excellence and joy for him who, of course, loves honour and excellence and joy for humanity, and one who, with an undivided dedicated mind, without any selfish axe to grind, acts as a friend and supportive warrior for him in the battles of humanity: Indra too for such a person creates and awards rare and choicest gifts of honour and dignity like a friend.

Whoever for Indra, today, distils and ripens the soma of honour and excellence, confirms and consolidates the gains of victory over darkness, evil and want, and perfects the production for national consumption: to such a person Indra responds, loving and listening to his songs of praise arising from the heart, and the lord invests him with inner strength of valour and showers of unbounded generosity.

When the ruler of the land and noble head of his people and destroyer of the enemies perceives a tumult of battle around and afar, he displays his long range deployment of arms and armies, while the citizenry at home, as a sustaining and supportive force, exhorts him and proclaims aloud his internal strength of morale created and sharpened by the creators and refiners of national energy.

Whoever for Indra, today, distils and ripens the soma of honour and excellence, confirms and consolidates the gains of victory over darkness, evil and want, and perfects the production for national consumption: to such a person Indra responds, loving and listening to his songs of praise arising from the heart, and the lord in-vests him with inner strength of valour and showers of unbounded generosity.

When the ruler of the land and noble head of his people and destroyer of the enemies perceives a range deployment of arms and armies, while the citizenry at home, as a sustaining and supportive force, exhorts him and proclaims aloud his internal strength

of morale created and sharpened by the creators and refiners of national energy.

9.  *Bhûyasã vasnamacarat kanîyo’vikrïto akânišaṁ

The poor ignorant trader buys the pleasure of glitter and sense at the great price of the spirit. Drained out, exhausted and disvalued, he goes back: “I want back what I had parted with in exchange for what I had got.” No, not now. With all that he can surrender, he cannot redeem even a little of what he has lost. The poor as well as the intelligent get back only what they bargain for in word and action.

10.  *Ka imaṁ daśabhirmamendram krîṇâti dhenuvbhiḥ.
Yadâ vṛtrâṇi jaṅghanadathainam me punardadat.*

Who can buy this Indra, this spiritual glory, from me for all time with the ten senses and their pleasure?
None. Yes, when one dispels the evils of darkness, ignorance and indulgence, then the lord gives it back to Indra, lord of glory, thus praised and celebrated, bless the supplicant with food, energy and enlightenment just as overflowing streams bring living waters for humanity. O lord of power and progress at high speed, thus is the song of celebration and yajnic homage offered to you, the newest presentation, so that with your blessings of intelligence and action we may be master warriors of the chariot and great servants of Divinity.

Mandala 4/Sukta 25

Indra Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

Who today among noble humanity, lover of the light of divinity, inspired with holy ambition and enthusiasm, enjoys the favour and friendship of Indra? Or, who, having offered oblations of distilled soma into the lighted fire for the achievement of great redeeming divine protection, enjoys the honour and excellence of life? Answer: The friend and lover of humanity who is dedicated to Indra, the supreme ruler.

Who bows with words of prayer to Indra for the gift of peace, pleasure, honour and excellence of body, mind and soul? And who submits to him in search of knowledge and self-awareness? Who loves the lights of the dawn and the lovely cows in the morning? Who waits on Indra for help and protection? Who feels anxious for friendship and fraternity with him? Who prays for security and poetic vision to the lord of omniscience? Answer: Who ever wants to do good unto all including the self as servant of Divinity.

Who these days opts for and wins the protection and benedictions of the divine powers of nature? Who pursues and prays for the light of the suns in orbital phases, the generosity of nature and mother earth, and the secrets and mysteries of light? Whose achievement of knowledge and contribution to life’s peace and joy is favourably in tune with the nature and operation of the laws and properties of the Ashvins, earth and the skies, Indra, the sun, and Agni, heat and magnetic energy of the earth? Answer: One who acts in cooperation with nature for life and in the service of Divinity.

To him Agni, the cosmic power and presence that holds, sustains and governs the world of nature and humanity, provides a happy home, and he would watch the rising sun for a long long time who is able to say this with confidence: We pursue knowledge and create the means of comfort and happiness for humanity, the world of human interests, and the highest qualities and attainments of human values among the people of the world, and this we do for Indra, Lord of humanity and the entire world of existence.

Neither many nor few, nor even the fiercest, can overpower him who acts in the service of Indra, governing power and presence of the universe. Indeed mother earth, in fact mother nature of imperishable wealth, blesses him with abundant peace and joy in a happy home, for, to Indra, the one who does good is dear, the lover of Divinity is dear, the follower of the path of rectitude is dear, and the creator of comfort, joy and enlightenment for life is dear to this lord.

6. Suprāvyāḥ prāsusālesa vīrah suṣveḥ paktiṁ krṣute kevalendraḥ. Nāsusverāpirna sakhā na jāmirdusprāvyo’vahantedavācaḥ.

Indra, leader and ruler, instant destroyer of enmity, is openly accessible to the person who creates and produces good things and thus contributes positively to the peace, progress and happiness of life, and he fully protects and promotes such people and raises them to maturity as the sun ripens grain. But to the person who is uncreative, and malignant scandalizer, he is not accessible, not a friend, or a brother, or protector, in fact he is awfully opposed to such negatives.

(Creativity and a positive, contributive attitude to life is a value, while uncreativeness and a negative, destructive attitude is a dangerous disvalue. The former is to be protected and promoted, but the latter has to be opposed and eliminated.)

7. Na revatā paṇinā sakhyindro’suvatā sutapāḥ saim grāṇīte. Āsyā vedāḥ khidati hanti nagnāṁ vi suṣvaye paktaye kevalo bhūt.
Not with the miserly man of wealth does Indra bargain any friendship since he is the master creator of peace and joy and lover of honour and excellence. He does not acknowledge, much less approve of the wealth of the ungenerous. In fact, he exposes the wealth of the hoarder until, exposed and ashamed, he is reduced to nullity, because, basically and exclusively he is for the creative and generous who produce and mature the wealth of the nation to the state of honour and dignity.

People at the farthest and at the nearest, highest and lowest, and people at the middle, all call upon Indra, lord of honour and excellence. People on the move and those at the end of the journey call upon Indra, lord of peace and security. People settled in the home and warriors on the battle field call upon Indra, lord of prosperity and victory. And the leaders of the people and the men fighting for food, struggling for energy and panting for speed and progress call upon Indra, lord giver of food, energy and advancement.

Mandala 4/Sukta 26

Indra Suparna Brahma Devata,
Vamadeva Gautama Rshi
I am the thinker and law-giver of existence, I am the light of life, I comprehend the time and space of the universe, I am the visionary, I am the centre and shaker at the core. I create the thunder and light and I make the thunderbolt. I am the poet of omniscience and passionate lover of my creation. Come ye all and see.

I give the earth for noble humanity, and I bring rain and rolling oceans and waves of energy for the mortals who give in charity, and, in consequence, saints and sages who love are blest with light divine.

In the state of perfect bliss, I first move ninty and nine streams of cloud showers together, and as I protect and promote the man of hospitality and the giver of enlightenment, I open hundred-fold gates of delight and prosperity for the whole world.
4. Pra su ṣa vibhyyo maruto virastu pra ṣyenah ṣyenebhyya āśupatvā. Acakrayā yatsvadhayā suparno havyām bharamanave devajūṣṭam.

Just as the eagle bird is the fastest of all the birds of prey in flight and descent so may that glorious heavenly bird of light wings, the sun, which moves by its own mighty force without wheels and which is prime among the powers of nature, the Maruts, may bring for humanity food and energy blest by the best and brilliant bounties of Divinity.

5. Bharadyadi virato vevijānati pathoruṇā manojavā asarjī. Tūyāṁ yayau madhunā somyenota śrava vivide śyeno atra.

When the bird of the wings of light, vibrating as sunrays, flying fast as thought by the wide paths of space brings and releases food and energy here, and then from here itself flies back fast with earthly, sweets of soma juices (to bring them back, reinvigorated), thus this eagle wins thanks and praise from earthly humanity.
The eagle bird of light, enjoying the company of heavenly planets, coming from far off country by simple paths, having taken from that distant region of light sweet celestial delights of soma energies of life, gives us that nectar and, taking the soma sweets of earth grows stronger and more generous.

7. Ādāya śyeno abhart somāṁ sahasram savāṁ ayutāṁ ca sākam. Atrā purandhir-ajahād-arāṭīrmade somasya mūrā ōmūrah.

The eagle bird of light, ruler and illuminator of the world, bears and brings a thousand delights of soma for life with unbounded yajnic creations of organic tonics for health and, in the ecstasy of the drink of soma on earth, doing noble actions and maintaining human habitations with wisdom and equanimity of mind, eliminates all stupidity and negativities!

Mandala 4/Sukta 27

Indra Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

Having been in the mother’s womb, I have witnessed and known the birth and growth of all these divine creations (such as the elements, earth, water, senses, and mind, etc.). Hundreds of golden cities and iron walls have protected me. And having lived all this, I have got out to freedom like a falcon bird of the winds with impetuous speed.

(The mantra describes the soul’s journey through births and death’s across the body forms and then the release to the freedom of Moksha.)

2. \( \text{Na ghæ sa mæmapa joæam jabhæræ’bhæmæsa } \)
\( \text{tvææsaæ vîryæna. Ærmæ purandhirajahædarætær- } \)
\( \text{uta vææn ataracchæšuvænah.} \)

That womb of nature couldn’t hold me against my will and pleasure. I sat in there with all my vigour and penetrative vision. And when the Lord inspirer who sustains the hundreds of golden cities and iron walls of prison wards off the contraries of flesh and blood, then the falcon bird of the spirit, rising up and high, crosses the storms and shears of winds to freedom.

3. \( \text{Ava yæcchyøno asvanædadha dyorvi yadyæi vææn } \)
\( \text{ûhæh purændhim. Særæjæadasæ ava ha kæpa- } \)
\( \text{jæyæm kræænuræstæ manæsa bhæraæyan.} \)

When the falcon bird of the spirit descends from heaven singing and roaring with energy, then if the winds and storms of existence hijack the master of the golden city, then, just as the warrior draws the string of the bows and shoots off the arrow, so the soul, archer subduer of contraries, with the light radiating from the flame of the heart, draws up the string of yoga meditation and shoots away the fluctuations.

The falcon bird of the spirit, going by the path of rectitude always under the protection of Indra, lord of life, bears the sacred vessel of the body like a prize from the vast regions of joy and energy and, at the end, flying up, the bird on the wing jettisons the sacred vessel like the plume of a bird bound down to the nest.

Let Indra, the brave soul, blest with and commanding honour and prosperity, bear, in response to the Lord’s grace, the bright and beauteous body vessel nourished by mother earth and cows, satisfying, pure and powerful, and let him enjoy the food seasoned and sanctified by holy yajakas, and prime delicious drink for realising the beauty and ecstasy of existence. Yes, let the fearless brave spirit bear the body vessel to drink of the joy of life and to celebrate the gift of divine rapture.

Mandala 4/Sukta 28

Indra-Soma Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

With you and for your friendship, O Soma, power, pleasure and excellence of life, did Indra, resplendent ruler of the world, set the spatial waters afloat, broke the cloud, made the seven streams of water flow and opened up the hidden treasures of life.

Soma, power of cool and bliss of nature’s cosmic energy, with force, constantly counters the cycle of solar radiations operating with mighty catalysis and coming from higher regions, and thus the great all round negativity of sun rays against life is warded off.

Indu, Soma, cool and bliss of mind, nature and people of the land and forces of peace, with your balancing action, Indra, powerful and blazing, destroys darkness and evil, as fire burns off the demoniac forces before the mid-day yajña in the battle of life. Thus does the spirit of life, with Indra and Soma, hot and cold in the existential circuit of nature, destroy and ward off a thousand onslaughts of impending dangers and attacks. And so do the acts of yajña in the home of the family and fortress of the ruler.

Indra, ruler of the world blazing as the sun, reduce the evil and wicked to nullity all round, and save the people and the forces of generosity from ignominy. Indra and Soma, power and peace of the land, ruler and people, bind down the enemy forces, give peace and security to the good, and thus win honour and fame with your weapons of protection.

It is true, O potent commanders of honour and excellence, Indra and Soma, destroyer of evil and creator of peace and prosperity, together you release the earth’s vast energy and progressive forces, break open the resources of wealth and fertility, and release the lands from oppression into freedom.

Mandala 4/Sukta 29

Indra Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

1. अ नах सुता उप वाजिभिरूति इन्द्र याहि हरिभिरी-मन्दसानाह। तिरिष्ठिदयं सवर्ना पुरुणांगुरूषभिमृणान् सत्यराधा।

2. अ हि श्मा याति नयोशिचिकित्वान्हूदंपन्नः सातृभिरूपं युज्यं।

Indra, lord ruler of honour and excellence, spirit incarnate of power and prosperity, come with all the vigour and velocity for our protection and progress. Invoked and invited, happy and rejoicing, come with the fastest achievements. You are the wealth of the nation incarnate, truly the harbinger of success. Praised, appraised and pursued by the highpriests of knowledge and action, come directly and indirectly by all paths of centripetal movement to bless our manifold yajnic programmes of creation and production.
And he does come, lord of men and master of knowledge all-aware, when he is invoked and invited to the yajna by those who distil the soma for yajna and sprinkle the vedi with holy water and ghrta. Then, commanding the horse and speed of the chariot, brave and fearless, self-confident and honoured, he rejoices with the heroes who create the soma, honour, grandeur and the joy of life for humanity.
thousand horses to his chariot, wielding the thunderbolt for creation and protection, he hastens to the devotees.

Under your protection, O lord of power and glory, Indra, lord ruler and giver of honour and excellence, let us be earnest seekers of knowledge, brave and brilliant celebrants of Divinity, so that we may be dedicated sharers of the abundance of the lord of light, wealth, and generosity of sustenance incarnate.

Mandala 4/Sukta 30

Indra, Indra and Usha Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

Indra, lord ruler of the world, destroyer of evil and breaker of the cloud like the sun, there is none higher than you, none beyond, none greater, none even equal to you as you are.
In truth and honour of conduct, all the people together move around you in orbit, harmoniously, as do the wheels of the chariot revolve round the axle. Truly you are great, commanding honour and universal fame.

Indra, lord ruler of the world, all the nobilities of humanity and divinities of nature, with all their wisdom and resolution, relentlessly fight for you day and night so that you are always victorious over the enmities and negativities of life.

Where the battle rages in support of the warriors fighting in defence of the oppressed and the wise, there Indra, O lord of honour, power and justice, take up the solar disc of thunder and crush the wicked.

5. Yatra devān ṛghāyato viśvān ayudhya eka it. Tvamindra vanūṇrahan.

Where in the battle against the evil and the violent oppressing and fighting against all the nobilities of the world you take up arms, you destroy the wicked forces all alone.

6. Yatrota martyāya kamariṇā indra sūryam.

Prāvaḥ śacībhiretaśam.

Where you set in motion the streams and breezes of comfort and joy for humanity, there also you move and protect the sun orbiting at terrible speed with your actions of omnipotence.

And what more! You are, O lord ruler and commander of the wealth and power of the world, you are the most passionate lover of rectitude and fiercest destroyer of evil. And lo! you are the top redeemer of the generous and shatterer of the selfish.

8. Etad gheduta vīryamindra cakartha pauṁsyam.

Strīyāṁ yaddurhaṇāyuvāṁ vadhiṛduhitaram divaḥ.

This truly is the manly valour you display in action. In addition, this too is your wonder that you dispel and ward off the rays of the malevolent star which, though, is the daughter of heaven like the dawn, the light of which, too, you overcome.

Indra, great you are. Surely the dawn is glorious, daughter of heaven, which you refine, adorn and glorify, and then make her disappear when she waxes with pride.

Indra, mighty ruler of heavens, breaks the chariot of the dawn as she waxes, but when the chariot is broken, she withdraws from the broken chariot in fear and awe. (So do the forces of gate-crashing pride withdraw under the blazing power of the ruler.)

When the chariot of this dawn is broken and lies in unobstructed path ways of space and the dawn is gone far away, then the sun, coming from afar, radiates its glory far and wide.

Indra, lord of the elements, with your inexhaustible force and power, you sustain the flow of full and overflowing turbulent rivers on the earth.

And when with your force and power you break down the strongholds of this demon of drought and sprinkle the land with water, then you acquire the wealth of the land and the knowledge of science for the people.

Indra, ruler of the elements and vast spaces on earth, you break the dark cloud of rain from the vast skies on high and make the rivers flow from the mountains, thereby rendering the generous people and venerable families stronger and more generous.
15. *Uta dāsasya varcinaḥ sahasrāṇi śatāvadhīḥ.
   Adhi pañca pradhīṅriva.*

   But destroy the hundreds and thousands of the violent demons who are fixed in society like five fellies fixed round the spokes of a wheel.

    Uktṛesvindra ābhajat.*

   And Indra, who performs hundreds of yajnic acts of creation and generosity with his knowledge of the Shastras, invites the formidable children of leading pioneers of the nation to participate in the theoretical and practical affairs of the state.

17. *Uta tyāṁ turvaśāyadū asnātārā śacīpatiḥ.
    Indro vidvān apārayat.*

   Indra, lord of the people and the sacred voice, ruler of the world and master of knowledge, helps the man of efficiency, the man of effort, and also the simple folk who do not know how to swim and enables them all to cross the hurdles of life over to the shore.

18. *Uta tyāṁ sadya āryā sarayorindra pārataḥ.

Indra, lord ruler of the world, for sure whatever deeds of courage and valour and of manly honour and excellence you do for the good or against the wicked, none can deny, resist or undo.

Indra, lord of glory, ruler of the world, destroyer of evil, may Aryama, ordainer of the world’s law and justice, give you the highest and most admirable gifts of honour. May Pusha, lord of health and sustenance

   When would the Lord, sublime and wondrous, ever greater, ever friendly, shine in our consciousness and bless us? With what gifts of protection and promotion? What highest favour of our choice? What order of grace?

न च्यािञ्जानि करिष्यतः।॥ ९ ॥

Na cyautnāni kariṣyataḥ.

Indra, lord omnipotent of infinite wealth and generosity, the violent and the destroyers can never get, nor do they choose to receive, the hundreds of gifts and successes you bestow upon humanity, nor can they ever stall the wondrous deeds you do for the devotee.
10. Asmāṉ avantu te ṣatam-asmānt-sahasram-ūtayah. Asmāṉ-viśvā abhiṣṭayah.

Indra, lord of beauty and grace, power, intelligence and will, sages of vision and devotion celebrate you as lord of infinite honour and excellence in existence, boundless giver and self-refulgent beyond imagination.

11. Asmāṉ ihā vrṇīśva sakhyāya svastaye. Maho rāye divitmate.

Take us up, O lord, and receive us under your divine protection for friendship, all round well being, and for the great gift of the immense wealth of this heavenly world right here.

12. Asmāṉ aviḍḍhi viśvahendra rāyā parīṇasā. Asmāṉ viśvābhir-ūtibhiḥ.

Ruler of the world, Indra, lead us on day and night with abundant wealth of all kinds, lead us on and on with all the protection and favours of divinity.

13. AsmabhyaÅ tāṇ apā vṛdhi vrajāṇ asteva gomataḥ. Navābhirindrotibhiḥ.
Indra, lord ruler of the wealth of the world, open for us the gates of the cow stalls like the cow herd, open the secrets of the Divine Word like the Omniscient, open the treasures of the earth like the earth’s ruler and protector, open the doors for us with the latest safeguards and methods of protection.

Indra, unchallengeable ruler of the world, our chariot of progress goes on advancing, bold and unobstructed, blazing bright, irresistible and imperishable, winning the wealth of the holy earth with unbounded speed and energy.

Indra, refulgent sun, ruler of the world, lead us to the highest heights of glory, our fame resounding among the divinities, as in the most generous heavens far above.

Mandala 4/Sukta 32

Indra, Indra-Ashva Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

आ तू नें इन्द्र वृद्ध्रह गृहात्मकांध्रयां गंग्हि।

महान्महीबिभ्रुप्रतिभि: । १ ।।
1. Ā tū na indra vrtrahannasmākamardhamā gahi. Mahān mhībhirūtibhiḥ.

   Indra, lord and ruler of the world, mighty destroyer of darkness and evil, come with all great powers and protections, join and guide our progress.

   You are ever on the move, harbinger of good, instant promoter, wondrous great in the fighting forces of awful power, and you do wonders in matters of protection and all round human progress.

3. Dabhrebhiścicchaśtītyāṁsaṁ haṁsi vrādhantamojasā. Sakhibhirye tve sacā.

   You stand by friends who are dedicated to you even though they be the humblest and few, and with your mighty power and lustre punish the violator of the law and values of Dharma howsoever strong and powerful he be.

   Indra, ruler of the world, we are with you, wholly dedicated in word and deed. We bow to you in obedience, without reserve. Help us all, save us all, protect us all.

5. Sa naścitābhiradrivo’navadyābhirūtibhiḥ.
   Anādhrṣṭābhirā gahi.

Wielder of the thunderbolt of law and justice, come and join us with marvellous, irreproachable, and irresistible modes of defence, protection and promotion.

   Yujo vājāya ghrṣvaye.

   Indra, mighty ruler, let us be well protected friends of yours, loyal and dedicated to you, blest with cows and lands, knowledge and culture for the sake of strength and speed of progress to resist and crush the negative forces.

7. Tvāṁ hyeka īśīṣa indra vājasya gomataḥ.

   Indra, you alone rule over power and prosperity and the speed of progress. Pray bring us ample food and energy and the high speed of progress.

The supplicants do not ask of you anything otherwise since, O lord of power and world’s wealth, Indra, praised and celebrated, you liberally grant ample wealth of power and prosperity, honour and excellence to the celebrants and devotees.

Indra, lord ruler of the world and its wealth and power, the most enlightened scholars and celebrants praise and pray to you in the holiest words for the gift of food and energy, power and progress beyond challenge.

Indra, lord of might, joyous and brilliant victor, we sing and celebrate those warlike exploits of yours in which you stormed the fortresses of slavery and broke them open into freedom.
11. \textit{Tā te grṇanti vedhaso yāni cakartha pauṁsyā. Suteśvindra girvaṇaḥ.}

Indra, lord of victorious might, in those lands which you awakened into the joy of freedom, the celebrants, men of knowledge and wisdom all, sing in praise of you and celebrate those valorous deeds of yours which you performed in there as for your children.

12. \textit{Avīṛdhanta gotamā indra tve stomavāhasaḥ. Aiṣu dhā vīravad yāśaḥ.}

Indra, lord of light and splendour, men of light and wisdom, best of them all, and the singers of song sing in praise of you and exalt your honour and fame. Pray bless them all with honour and excellence worthy of the brave.

13. \textit{Yacciddhi śaśvatāmasīndra sādharaṇastvatvam. Tam tvā vayam havāmahe.}

Indra, lord of love and justice, fatherly omnipresence for all, since you are general and universal power of all the eternal presences, equal and universal for all, we invoke and pray to you as the one father figure for our good.

14. \textit{Arvōcāno vaso bhavō'sme su matsvōndhasaḥ. Somōnōmindra somapō.}

Indra, ancient, eternal and latest and immediate power and presence, haven and home for all, turn to us with divine favours, rejoice with us as guardian of the honour and excellence of humanity, giver and augmenter of food and freshness of energy and the creator and protector of the joy of life and ecstasy of living.
14. Arvācīno vaso bhavā’śme su matsvāṇḍhasah. Somānāmindra somapāḥ.

Indra, ancient, eternal and latest and immediate power and presence, haven and home for all, turn to us with divine favours, rejoice with us as guardian of the honour and excellence of humanity, giver and augmenter of food and freshness of energy and the creator and protector of the joy of life and ecstasy of living.

15. Asmākaṁ tvā matīnāmā stoma indra yacchatu. Arvāgā vartayā harī.

Indra, may the song of praise and prayer composed by our wise poets rise and reach you, and then, we pray, turn the horses of your chariot hitherward to us.

16. Purolāśaṁ ca no ghaso jośayāse girāscā naḥ. Vadhūyuriva yoṣaṁ.

And then taste the delicious sweets of our yajnic hospitality and enjoy the music of our song like a lover cherishing the company of his beloved.

17. Sahasraṁ vyatīnaṁ yuktānāmindramāmahe. Śataṁ somasya khāryaḥ.
Indra, leader of power, pleasure and excellence, we pray for a thousand top speed generalists and a thousand intensive specialists and a hundred barrels of the soma of national excellence and celebrative joy.

18. Sahasrā te śatā vayam gavāmā cyāvayaṁmāsī.

Asmatrā rādha etu te.

Indra, lord of excellence and beneficence, we activate and accelerate a hundred and thousand schemes of development of research and extension of knowledge, enrichment and fertility of lands and improvement of cows, other cattle wealth and milk products, and hope that the wealth and prosperity of your social order would benefit us all.

19. Daśa te kalaśānaṁ hiraṇyānaṁadhimahi.

Bhūridā asī vṛtrahan.

We study, research and produce tens of jars of liquid gold. Destroyer of ignorance and poverty, you are the giver and creator of unbounded wealth.

20. Bhūridā bhūri dehi no mā dabhraṁ bhūryā bhara.

Bhūri ghedindra ditsasi.

Indra, giver of unbounded wealth, give us immense wealth, withhold not, give us not little, bear

We study, research and produce tens of jars of liquid gold. Destroyer of ignorance and poverty, you are the giver and creator of unbounded wealth.

Indra, giver of unbounded wealth, give us immense wealth, withhold not, give us not little, bear and bring us profuse amounts of wealth. For you give and wish to give nothing less than immensity.

Indra, destroyer of want and darkness, for sure you are the giver of immensity. Brave and magnificent, you command universal fame and glory. Come, we pray, bless us, you are the giver of success and glory.

Lord of omniscience and the universal eye, giver of the Divine Word and the earth and her wealth, power and presence imperishable, I praise and celebrate your divine agencies that bear and bring us the wealth of life. Let these divinities keep it up, and allow not the earths and inspirations to slacken.

Like the two pupils of the eyes, overly strong and lasting, ever new, ever cherished and subtle divine harbingers of the truth, goodness and beauty of existence, let nature’s complementaries ever shine and bring us profuse amounts of wealth. For you give and wish to give nothing less than immensity.
blissfully in the hours of human yajna.

अरम् उद्यामण्चारमनुद्यामणः बभु यामवेस्तिथा ॥ २४ ॥

May the waves of divine energy, instant, constant and never failing, never hurtful, travelling in the day and in the night, to the upper solstice and the nether solstice, be ever blissful to me in the hours of yajnic life.

Mandala 4/Sukta 33

Rbhavah Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

I send up my words to the Rbhus, scientists, as a messenger, in order that they be broadcast around, and I hope that they would be converted into a subtle, clearer and more powerful message—words which, carried up by currents of energy by their own floating vibrations, immediately rise to the upper layers of space and become acts of nature to come back in the finer form I want.

२. Yadāramakrannṛbhavah pitṛbhyaṁ parivisṭī veṣaṁ daṁsanābhiḥ. Āditdevānāmupa sakhyamāyan dhīrāsaḥ puṣṭimavahan manāyai.
When the Rhbus, sages and scientists, through service and action, receive instruction from parents and teachers, and have done enough to their own satisfaction and satisfaction of the seniors, they graduate to join the fraternity of the enlightened, and then, constant in study and meditation, bring about maturity and fullness of mind and spirit for independent work.

And then they, the Rhbus, who, with their knowledge and dedicated service, rejuvenate their parents and senior generation grown old, nerveless and almost lying like a broken pillar, and bring them back to their youthful time, thus keeping the tradition young and alive: may they, vigorous geniuses, far reaching in imagination, marvellous in invention, mighty and majestic in achievement, and brilliant and blissful in conduct, come to our yajna of science and research, protect us and promote our progress and advancement far ahead.

The Rbhus, sages and scholars of genius and knowledge, bold and blissful, who protect the cow, mother knowledge and the speech of knowledge, and also the mother earth like nursing a holy child, those who serve the mother tradition and rejuvenate and strengthen every part of its body like a darling love, who bring new vigour and new lights to its body of science and knowledge, they, the Rbhus, attain to immortality in the living history of the advancement of human civilisation by these noble acts of holiness.

The eldest of the Rbhus says: Let us make two cups for the drink of soma for the celebration of life’s enlightenment. The younger, more brilliant, says: Let us make three. The youngest, most brilliant, says: Let us make four. Tvashta, the teacher, universal lord maker of forms, O Rbhus, honours and praises these words of yours. (Thus knowledge, science and technology grows from one generation of scholars to another.)

The four cups of life may be interpreted as Dharma, righteousness, artha, material goods, ‘kama’, material and mental fulfilment, and Moksha, ultimate purpose of living and ultimate freedom.

6. RathaÅ ye cakru¬ suv¾taÅ nare¦¢hŒÅ ye dhenuÅ viÜvajuvaÅ viÜvarupŒm. Ta Œ tak¦antv¾bhavo rayiÅ na¬ svavasa¬ svapasa¬ suhastŒ¬.

The Rbhus, brave and blessed, speak true what they speak, then they accomplish what they say, and then they achieve this reward of their action. Tvashta, the divine maker, wise and all-seeing eye of the world, who sees the Rbhus’ cups of life shining as daylight sees them, loves them and blesses the makers. Thus should men do in life.

When the scholars and sages of the science of yajna remain on holiday for twelve days in the years, resting and refreshing themselves, enjoying the hospitality of a prominent host, then the sky is overcast, the showers pour, fields are made fertile, the rivers flow and vegetation grows on barren lands, (and this by rain yajna).

The Rbhus, who design and manufacture a strong built chariot for people to travel by, create a universal language of universal knowledge for the world prevailing all over the world. May they create universal wealth for us all — heroes of noble action, noble protection, and dexterous of hand as they are.

The wonderful acts and products of these Rbhus, exceptional scientists, later, the younger intellectuals, themselves brilliant with their mind and work, honour and apply for further development: thus the food and energy becomes the favourite input for the ‘devas’, following researchers, for higher outputs of finer food and energy, the powerful thunderbolt becomes the arm for Indra, ruler and defender, and the extensive waves of subtle transmission become the perceptive and active agencies of Varuna, the presiding power.

10. Ye harī medhayokthā madanta indrāya cakruḥ suyujā ye aśvā. Te rāyaspoṣaṁ draviṇānyasme dhatta ṛbhavaḥ kṣemayanto na mitram.

The Rbhus, holy thinkers, creators and makers, who, using their intellect and imagination and rejoicing with the revelations of the chants of sacred verses, create the circuit of energies, produce the motive powers, and construct the chariot for Indra, ruler and the nation, may, we pray, bring us health and nourishment and wealth and build permanent assets for us as protective and promotive friends doing good to friends.

11.  \[\text{Idāḥnaḥ pītimita vo madam dhurna ōte śrāntasya sakhyāya devāḥ. Te nūnamasme ṛbhavo vasūni trīye asmintsavane dadhāta.}\]

O Rbhus, noble creators and makers, today the holy men bring you soma to celebrate and enjoy. The divines favour not the slothfuls, they extend no hand of friendship unless you are tested in the crucibles of hard work and self sacrifice. May the Rbhus bring us, in truth, the wealths of life in the third session of yajna.

Mandala 4/Sukta 34

Rbhavah Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

1.  \[\text{Rbhurvibhvā vāja indro no acchemam yajñam ratnadheyopa yāta. Idā hi vo dhiṣaṇā devyahnā- madhāt pītiṁ saṁ madā agmatā vaḥ.}\]

Rbhu, the technologist, Vibhva, specialist of natural energy, Vaja, specialist of food and vitality, and Indra, specialist of electricity and power, all harbingers of the jewels of wealth, may come and grace this science yajna of ours. Today, the divinity of intelligence brings you the nectar of joy and celebration of success for a drink. May the joy of the occasion inspire you.

2. Vidānāsā janmano vājrabhāta uta ṛtubhirṛbhavā mādayadhvam. Saṁ vo madā agmata saṁ purandhiḥ suvīrāmasme rayimerayadhvam.

O Rbhus, blest from your very birth with the love of knowledge, commanding knowledge and the power of knowledge, work and rejoice with the scholars according to the seasons. May the peace and pleasure of life reach you, may divine intelligence and the ruling powers of the world with munificence bless you. And may you, for our sake, arouse the wealth of the nations, brave citizens and the coming generations.

O Rbhus, this yajna is enacted for you which, come and take over like the best of men inspired with the bright light of knowledge and expertise. Friends and devotees would stand by you, and you would be the front leaders of the world at the speed of winds.
4. Abhūdu vo vidhate ratnadheyamidā naro dāśuṣe martyāya. Pibata vājā ṛbhavo dade vo mahi trī-yaṁ savanaṁ madāya.

O Rbhus, leaders of humanity, may the yajna of yours be a source of jewel wealth for the common man, for the generous giver and for the organiser and sustainer of the programme. O leaders and pioneers of the speed of winds, carry on with joy, let all enjoy the fruits. I dedicate the final session of the yajna to the ecstatic joy of you all.

5. Ā vājā yātopa na ṛabhukṣā maho naro draviṇasā grṇānāh. Ā vaḥ pītayo’bhipitve aihnāmimā astaṁ navasva iva gman.

Come, O potent, brilliant and great Rbhus, best of the leaders of men, commanding the wealth and knowledge of the world, praised and celebrated, come as a rising glowing youth comes home at the end of the day, and may these exhilarating drinks offered to you delight you.

6. Ā napātaḥ śavaso yātanopemaṁ yajñāṁ namasā hūyamanāh. Sajoṣasah sūrayo yasya ca stha madhvaḥ pāta ratnadhā indravantaḥ.
Rbhus, strong, imperishable heroes and leaders of science and knowledge, invoked and invited with reverence, come and join this yajnic programme of development and production. Loved and loving, eminent scholars, commanding wealth, honour and power, come and accept the delicious treat of the host and protect and promote the good fortune of the community.

Sajoṣā indra varuṇena somam sajoṣāḥ pāhi girvāṇo marudbhiḥ. Agrepābhīrṛtupābhiḥ sajoṣā gnāspatnībhī ratnadēbhiḥ sajoṣāḥ.

Loved and loving Indra, lord of power and honour, come, share and promote the joy of the soma celebration of honour with Varuna, men of high endeavour and success. Loving friend, praised and celebrated, come, celebrate with the Rudras, people of justice and rectitude in the land, and protect and promote their honour and prestige. Loving, joining, socialising and celebrating with the leading pioneers, planning guardians of the nation according to the change of seasons, wedded couples, households and trustees of the jewel wealth of the land, protect and promote the honour and excellence of life with soma celebrations of joy.

Sajoṣasa ādityairmādayadhvam sajoṣasa ṛbhavāḥ parvatebhiḥ. Sajoṣaso daivyenā savitrā sajoṣasah sindhubhī ratnadēbhiḥ.
O Rbhush, scientists and intellectuals, create joy and rejoice: Rejoice with the Adityas, scholars of the top order of brilliance in accord with the various phases of the sun, rejoice in harmony with the clouds and the mountains, rejoice together with the divine energy of nature and the life-sustaining light of the sun, and rejoice in confluence with the flowing rivers and the rolling seas and the treasures of the jewel wealth of nature, and share the joy with us too.

Who are the Rbhush? Those who create and activate complementary circuits of energies, who serve the parents and sustain and rejuvenate health anew, who provide protection and promotion, who refine and extend knowledge and the language of knowledge, develop cattle wealth and renew the earth resources, who design and structure fast modes of travel and communication, who design and construct armour against external attacks, who cross the globe unto the sky and space and who command universal knowledge: pioneers and leaders of the best of men who can raise, train and organise a noble younger generation.

Who are the Rbhush? Those who create and activate complementary circuits of energies, who serve the parents and sustain and rejuvenate health anew, who provide protection and promotion, who refine and extend knowledge and the language of knowledge, develop cattle wealth and renew the earth resources, who design and structure fast modes of travel and communication, who design and construct armour against external attacks, who cross the globe unto the sky and space and who command universal knowledge: pioneers and leaders of the best of men who can raise, train and organise a noble younger generation.
10. Ye gomantam vājavantam suvīram rayim dhattha vasumantam purukṣum. Te agrepā ṛḥhavo mandasānā asme dhatta ye ca rātimi gṛṇanti.

Those who create, bear and bring life’s wealth full of cows and horses, food and energy, knowledge and speed of progress, all round prosperity, all round sustenance and security, and a brave new generation, and who create, praise and celebrate all such wealth of the world, such Rbhus, heroic scholars, leaders and pioneers, happy creators of joy, may bear and bring such wealth, honour and prosperity for us.

O Rbhus, never go away, never feel depreciated, never depressed. We shall never let you feel deprived, never thirsty for anything, you will ever feel praised and appreciated in this yajnic programme of creative life. Rejoice with Indra, ruler and commander of honour and power, rejoice with the Maruts, dynamic youthful citizens, and with the brilliant ruling leaders, O generous and refulgent creators of joy and prosperity, rejoice for the creation of the jewels of life’s beauty more and ever more.

   O Rbhus, mighty strong, imperishable warriors of the bow, come here close to us, do not stay away, never feel disparaged. In this yajna enacted for you, let the honour and joy of creation and celebration be as much for you as for Indra, resplendent lord giver of wealth.

   Let the jewel wealth of the Rbhus’ performance come and let the joy of the soma success distilled from nature be here for the people to share who deserve the prize, since with their admirable action and brilliant intelligence and will they have designed and manufactured one chariot fourfold in performance.

   You develop the cup of life to fourfold success of completion and perfection: Dharma, artha (material development), kama (self-fulfilment), and Moksha (ultimate freedom). O friend, teach and say: This is it, this is the art of living. And then, O eminent scholars, dynamic scientists, dexterous technologists, join the fraternity of divines and move on to the path of immortality.

What in truth is this cup of life which, with your wisdom, you analyse, specify and realise as four-in-one? O sages of vision and imagination, distil the soma-essence of it for the joy of life and drink as well as protect and promote the nectar sweet of honey.

5. Śacyākarta pitarā yuvānā śacyākarta camasaṁ devapānam. Śacyā hariṁ dhanutarāvataṣṭendra- vāhāivrebhavo vājaratnāḥ.

O Rbhus, with your truth of knowledge and holy science, you rejuvenate your parents to youthful health. With truth of vision and imagination, you reveal the fourfold cup of life’s beauty and joy for the drink of divinities. With your truth of science and technology you create the power and construct the chariot faster than bullet speed for the ride of Indra, world’s presiding power of rule and law. You are really the master creators and controllers of the speed and jewels of life on earth.

Whoever for you distils at the end of the day the exciting soma juice of the beauty and joy of life for the celebration of the holiness of existence, for him, O Rbhus, thinkers and wonder workers of the speed of winds, generous as showers from the clouds, spirits of ecstasy, create and give the wealth of an all round brave progeny for times to come.

7. Prātaḥ sutamapibo haryaśva mādhyandināṁ savanaṁ kevalam te. Samṛbhuhūḥ pibasva ratnadhebhiḥ sakhiṁ yāṁ indra cakrṣe sukṛtyā.

Indra, world ruler of honour and majesty, rider of the chariot of sun rays, drink the soma distilled in the morning. Drink the soma distilled at midday only for you. Drink with the Rbhus, men of science and wisdom, creators of the jewels of wealth, whom you have drafted as friends by your noble action.

8. Ye devāso abhavatā sukṛtyā śyenā ivedadhi divi niṣeda. Te ratnam dhāta śavaso napātaḥ saudhan-vanā abhavatāmṛtāsah.
The Rbhus who rise to divine virtues by noble actions and, like the eagle, soar to the skies, create and bestow jewels of life on others and, bold and courageous, infallible and imperishable warriors of the bow, they rise on and become immortal.

O Rbhus, generous at heart and dexterous of hand, the third yajnic session and creation of soma replete with the jewel wealth of life’s essence which you have accomplished with your noble action, that nectar sweet of soma seasoned and reinforced is here for you. Drink it with the exciting pleasure of your senses, mind and soul.

Mandala 4/Sukta 36

_Rbhavah Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi_

O Rbhus, divine engineers of superhuman order, that admirable three wheel, three engine, three stage chariot of yours, powered without horse, controlled without reins, created as your grand realisation of the divine formula, goes round and round over the earth, across the skies unto the regions of space without erring, and the same you control and feed.

रथ्यं च चरकः सुचतसाचविहर्तं मनसस्मयरि ध्ययाः।
ताँ ऋ न्यात्स्य सर्वनय्स्य पीतयाः आ वा वाजा ऋश्ववा

2. Rathaṁ ye cakruḥ suvṛtaṁ suce tas'o vihvarantam manasaśpari dhyayā. Tāṁ u nvasya savanasya pītaya ā vo vājā ṛbhavo vedayāmasi.

Those Rbhus, scientists and engineers of exceptional genius, alert of mind and vision, who created the well structured, well controlled unerring chariot with their thought, imagination and meditation beyond the mind, we recognise and invite to this soma session of scientific yajna for the order of national honour.

तद्वा वाजा ऋश्ववः सुपवाचनं दूवषु विभवः अभवन्य-हित्वनम। जिवी यत्सन्तां पितरं सनाजुरा पुनयुवाना
चरात्युम त रथं॥ ३ ॥

3. Tadvo vājā ṛbhavaḥ supravācanāṁ deveṣu vibhvo abhavanmahitvanam. Jivrī yatsantā pitarā sanājurā punaryuvānā carathāya takṣatha.

O Rbhus, fast and imaginative scientists and engineers universally recognised and honoured, that practical realisation of yours of the divine word and formula becomes a great news for the brilliant leaders and scholars, since by that you rejuvenate the parental ancestors old and worn out for long and equip them with new life and energy of youth to go about and onward in time.

4. Ekaṁ vi cakra camasaṁ caturvayaṁ niścarmaṇo gāmariṇīta dhitibhiḥ. Athā deveṣvamṛtavamā- naśa śrūṣṭī vājā ṛhavas-tadva ukthyam.

You develop one cup of soma into four, make one versatile chariot into fourfold efficiency, and reclaim and develop barren and eroded land back to fertility with your thought and imagination, and thus immediately you attain to a status of immortality among the divine benefactors of humanity. Rbhus of world fame and high speed of action, such achievement of yours is admirable.

5. Ṛbhuto rayiḥ prathamaśravastamo vājaśrutāso yamajījanannaraḥ. Vibhvaṣṭo vidatheseṣu pravācyo yanm devāso’vathā sa vicarṣanīḥ.

The wealth most meritorious, received through the Rbhus, that which is created by the most famous and dynamic leaders, that which is created by the world famous Rbhus themselves, the person wide awake and perceptive whom the wise and generous divinities protect and promote: this is worthy of honour and celebration at public assemblies.
Sa vājyarvā sa ṛṣirvacasyayā sa śūro astā prta-nāsu duṣṭaraḥ. Sa rāyaspoṣam sa suvīryaṅ dadhe yam vājo vibhvāṁ ṛbhavo yamāviṣuḥ.

He is the hero, he is the pioneer, he is the visionary prophet by eloquence, he is the brave, he is the warrior, unchallengeable in battle contests, he wins health and wealth, and he wins strength and prowess whom the Rbhus, world heroes of the speed of winds, protect and patronise.

Most distinguished and elevating is the form and position held by you, Rbhus, masters of art and science and pioneers of progress. Accept and appreciate the song of celebration. Stay constant, poets and visionaries, scholars of high wisdom. Such we recognise and honour you by this holy song of praise.
8. \(Yūyamasmabhyaṁ dhiśaṇābhyaspari vidvāṁso\) viśvā naryāṇi bhojanā. Dyumantāṁ vājam vṛṣaṇusmanuttamamā no rayimṛbhavastakṣatā vayaḥ.

O Rbhus, scholars and scientists of high order, with your knowledge, art and wisdom, create and provide for us the food, energy and modes of care and comfort we need for the sustenance of humanity. Create and bring us the light of science and progress of technology, strength and power coupled with generosity, highest form of life’s wealth and health and age.

\[\text{उप्य ना जाजा अध्यारमृभु ग व्रती चात पथिर्भिद्वयाने मर्जा यथार्थ मनुष्या वि वाञ्चसु दधिध्वं रण्वा: सुदिन्त्व-हृक्ष्}

9. \(Iha prajāmiha rayim rarāṇā iha śravo vīravattakṣatā naḥ. Yena vayaṁ citayemātyanyān tam vājam citramṛbhavo dadā naḥ.\)

Happy, joyous and generous, O Rbhus, create and prepare for us here a noble progeny and a prosperous nation, create wealth here, food, knowledge and honour worthy of the brave here itself by which we may enlighten others too full well. O scholars of science and wisdom, give us that wonderful art and knowledge and all round progress.

Mandala 4/Sukta 37

\textit{Rbhavah Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi}
1. Upa no vājā adhvaramṛbhukṣā devā yāta pathi-bhirdevayānaiḥ. Yathā yajñāṁ manuṣo vikṣvāsu dadhidhve raṇvāḥ sudineśvahnām.

O generous Rbhus, brilliant sages, eminent scholars and leaders of science and progress, come and grace our yajnic programme of non-violent development, come by the paths of divinity so that, happy and joyous, you may take over the humanistic project of the people in these happy days of the season.

2. Te vo hṛde manase santu yajñā juṣṭāso adya ghṛtanirṇijo guḥ. Pra vah sutāso harayanta pūrṇāḥ kratve daksāya harṣayanta pūtāḥ.

May those yajnic projects of yours for the creation of happiness and prosperity be satisfying and delightful to your heart and mind, and may the fruits of yajnas served by holy men and fed with ghrta flow to you with fragrance. May the soma cups of joy full to the brim enrapture you and, drunk to the leas, excite and exhilarate you to your best performance.

3. Tryudāyaṁ devahitaṁ yathā vah stomo vājā rbhuksaṇo dade vah. Juhve manusvaduparāsū vikṣu yuṣme sacā bhṛhaddiveṣu somam.

Rbhus, eminent scholars and miraculous makers, as your threefold gift of science, technology and wealth of power and excellence for the highest of people is a source of bliss and comfort, so do I as one among the same people high and low, dedicated to the vast divinities, offer you the treat of soma, best of wealth and joy as gift, in truth of thought, word and deed, offering loved by the noblest divine souls, the Rbhus.

O Rbhus, commanding mighty horse power, riding brilliant chariots, clad in corselets of steel, be golden great, tempestuous as winds. Consequently, O children of Indra, universal energy, unassailable images of strength and power, for your joy and celebration, the first and foremost tribute of soma yajna is selected and offered.

O Rbhus, in the struggle of life we invoke and call upon the wonder visionary man of art and science, wealth of all kinds, most heroic warrior, cooperative ally, most powerful leader, and furious fighting force ever dependable, inalienable. (That is the Rbhu we want.)
O Rbhus, visionaries of science, power and action, whoever the man you and the ruler, Índra, protect and promote, would be the man of dedication and discrimination with actions and intelligence, an admirable ally in the business of life with the fastest modes of movement and progress.

O Rbhus, visionaries and craftsmen of the art and science of life, leaders of the speed of winds, teachers and pioneers bright and brave, open and reveal for us our paths of progress in our yajna of corporate living. We rightfully admire you and humbly pray to you so that we may realise all our hopes and ambitions and ultimately cross the ocean of life.

O Rbhus, leaders and pioneers of vision and progress, O lord ruler of the world, Índra, never failing, ever true, teach us, give us that order of wealth and speedy progress with power and horse which leads the people to honour and prosperity in life to the full.

Mandala 4/Sukta 38

_Dyavaprthivi, Dadhikra Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi_

1. _Uto hi vām dātrā santi pūrā vā pūrubbyāstra- sadasyurnitoṣe. Kṣetrāsāṁ dadathururvarāsāṁ ghanāṁ dasyubhyo abhibhūtimugram._

O heaven and earth, ruler and commander, generous givers, whatever the gifts of munificence earlier than the earliest for the many recipients, they are all yours: whether they are gifts of fields and fertile lands with generous grants or, as terror for the wicked, you give to the evil doer the crushing bolt and intense fall from grace.

2. _Uta vājināṁ puruniṣṣidhvānam dadhikrāmu dadathurviśvakṛṣṭim. Ṛjipyāṁ śyenāṁ pruṣita-psumāśuṁ carkṛtyamaryo nrpatim na śūram._

Or, like the brave parental master, you give the war horse, destroyer of many enemies, or the roaring war craft, winner of victories for many people of the world, and the refulgent hero like the rising sun, supporter and defender of humanity, or the simple man of rectitude, or the eagle like fighter that pounces upon the target, or the instant flier and pilot or the relentless doer of the master’s order.

3. \( \text{Yahn simanu pravateva dravantam viıśvah pūrurmadati harśamānaḥ. Padbhirgrdhvantam medhayauṁ na śuraṁ rathaturam vātamiva dhrajantam.} \)

War horse or the aircraft which, rushing like turbulent waters to the sea, the people of the world admire and celebrate with joy, which, like a brave and tempestuous warrior, advances to the heat of battle by leaps and bounds and grabs the enemy and which, rushing like a wind sheer tears the enemy force apart.

4. \( \text{Yah smārundhāno gadhyā samatsu sanutaraścarati gośu gacchan. Āvirjīko vidathā nicikyat tiro aratiṁ paryāpa āyoḥ.} \)

Which in battles stems the united force of the enemy and goes over lands and seas of the earth in majesty, which openly displays its strength of arms and thrust openly, and watches over the grand yajnic programmes of humanity and wards off the enemies and adversities from the life of noble people.

Just as people cry out for help when a thief attacks their cloth and hearth and home, so do people call out to the fighter warrior in battles for the safety of their hearth and home and herds of cattle wealth when they see the terrible enemy descending like a hawk intending to attack.

Keen to be the first and prime leader in front of these battle formations of the war chariots, creating a garland pattern, graceful like a bridegroom in procession, he goes like the wind raising a cloud of dust and radiating beams of light like the sun.

And that hero, mighty and brilliant, dedicated to truth, keen for service in battle in his own person, commanding the strong and smart warriors on fronts, going up and forward by straight paths, tossing up dust in battle, shaking it off from the eyebrows, goes on making things straight and favourable for all.

And when the hero in passion takes up arms in battle, those who face him shake in fear as from the thunder of lightning from the skies, and then when he engages thousands of adversaries he grows terrible and irresistible and comes out victorious.

And people praise the drive and superior power of this hero of human endeavour and accomplishment for humanity, and the warriors going to battle describe him as the roaring war horse, the booming war craft of the skies and the supreme of arms going with but ahead of thousands.

Just as the sun with its rays fills the skies and space, so does Dadhikra, the roaring war horse, the booming war-craft and the superior war hero with characteristic power and majesty fascinate all the five classes of people. May this hero, tempestuous mover, giver of a hundred and thousand favours to the people bring our words of praise to golden honey sweets of success and fulfilment.

Mandala 4/Sukta 39

_Dadhikra Devata, Vamadava Gautama Rshi_

1. आशुः दधिकां तमु नु ठूवाम दिवस्पृथिव्या उत चकिराम।
उच्छन्तीमामुप्रस: सूदयन्तवति विश्वानि दुरितानि पशन॥ १ ॥

Varily we praise the swift Dadhikra, the war horse of earth and skies, and we sing in praise of earth and heaven too. May the glorious dawns inspire and mature me, cleansing me of all the evils and weaknesses of earthly existence.

2. _MahaŚcarkarmyarthataḥ kratupraḥ dadhikravṇaḥ puruvārasya vrśṇaḥ._ Yaṁ pūrūbhyo dīdivām-saṁ nāginiṁ dadathur-mitrāvaruṇā taturim॥ २ ॥

O Mitra and Varuna, President of the Council and commander of the army, dear as pranic energies of life, inspired and enlightened, I praise the mighty war horse, Dadhikra, sustainer of sustainers, a shower of blessings, saviour of the people, a gift swift and blazing as fire, which you have given for the sake of noble humanity.

3. Yo aśvasya dadhikrāvṇo akārīt samiddhe aṅgā uṣaso vyuṣṭau. Anāgasarīn tamaditiḥ kṛṣṇotu sa mitreṇa varuṇenā sajoṣāḥ.

Whoever does honour and worship to Dadhikra, mighty life sustaining energy of the Divine and offers oblations into the burning fire at the rise of dawn, him Aditi, mother earth and the skies and space, lead to a state of purity from sin and evil and elevate him to a state of love and friendship with Mitra and Varuna, friend and highest authority of humanity.

While we study and discover the food, energy and power gifts of the great Dadhikra, cosmic sustainer of sustaining energies and of the good that the Maruts, powerful people, for sure do for our good and advancement, we at the same time study with devotion Varuna, water energy, Mitra, solar energy, Agni, fire power, and Indra, electricity which wields the arms of thunder.

5. Indramivedubhaye vi hvayanta udīrāṇā yajñamupaprayantah. Dadhikrāmu sūdanasā martyāya dadathurmitrāvaruṇā no aśvam.

Science researchers and engineers and technologists going to centres of production, and both the rulers and the people, all invoke and develop Indra, electrical energy, Dadhikra, basic energy, flow of waters, and awareness of the modes of comfort which the friendly and generous powers, Mitra and Varuna, at national and international levels, give us as gifts for the people.

We sing in praise of Dadhikra, divine energy, victorious, all achieving spirit and power, who may, we pray, refine our sense of taste and other refinements and may help us live a full and healthy life across the floods of existence.

Mandala 4/Sukta 40

Dadhikra, Surya Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi
1. Dadhikrāvṇa idu nu carkirāma viśvā inmā- muśasah śūdayantuh. Apāmagneruśasah sūryasya brhaspaterāṅgirasasya jiṣnoḥ.

   We study and develop for human purposes the forces of Dadhikra, all victorious cosmic energy which impels various forms of natural energy, and we tap and develop the power sources of water, fire, dawns, sun, Brhaspati and pranas. May all the lights of the dawns and new revelations inspire me and mature my projects.

2. Satvā bhariśo gaviśo duvanyasacchravasyādiśa uṣasasturaṃyasat. Satyo dravo dravaraḥ pataṅ- garo dadhikrāveṣamūrjamāvitarjanat.

   Dadhikrava, cosmic energy, potent and omnipresent, all sustaining, all inspiring of sense and mind, responsive to the dedicated enquirer, acting fast in foods, power sources and light of the dawns, true and imperishable, dynamic, flowing, heating, flying, may respond and create food, energy and the joy of life.

3. Uta smāsa ya dravatasturanyataḥ parṇam na veranavāti pragardhinah. Śyenasyeva dhrajato aṅkasaṃ pari dadhikravṇah sahorjā taritrataḥ.

   And like the wings of an arrow, everything follows the curves and waves of the motion of this Dadhikra, cosmic energy, flowing, running, accelerating, flying, driving and pressing forward like an eagle, and traversing the spaces with terrific power and velocity.

And that flying horse, missile of terrific power, Dadhikra, tied and programmed at the mouth, neck and the flanks, carries a warhead at terrific speed, and, following its programmed action, crosses the marks of its course to the target.

Hansa, the divine bird, soul unpolluted, resides in purity in biological forms in the skies, and, as yajnic doer, sits on the vedi in family home among people, the best ones, and rises up to the heights of heavens. It is born of the waters on the earth from the Law of existence and from the clouds. That is the truth, the Law.
Mandala 4/Sukta 41

Indra-Varuna Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

1. Indrā ko vāṁ varuṇā sumnamāpa stomo havi-śmāṇ amṛto na hotā. Yo vāṁ hṛdi kratumāṇ asmaduktah pasparśadindrāvaruṇā namasvān.

Indra, O lord of power and glory, O Varuna, lord of justice and rectitude, who could win the favour of your blessing, which song of praise and prayer, expressive of yajnic reverence like an immortal yajaka would win your favour? Which song and tribute, O Indra and Varuna, sung in your honour, expressing humility and surrender as holy offering would touch your heart?

2. Indrā ha yo varuṇā cakra āpī devau martaḥ sakhyāya prayasvān. Sa hanti vṛtrā samitheṣu śatrūn-avobhirvā mahadbhiḥ sa pra śrīve.

Indra and Varuna, lord of power and of justice, abounding in strength and grace, generous and refulgent, the man who tries in honest action to win your friendship destroys darkness and evil and wins over enemies in battles with great weapons of defence and protection.
2. Indrā ha ratnam varuṇā dheṣṭhetthā nṛbhyah śaśamānēbhyastā. Yadi sakhāyā sakhyāya somaiḥ sutebhiḥ suprayasā mādayaite.

Indra and Varuna, ruler and the elected people in power, if they hold and govern the jewel wealth of the nation in trust for the people, and the people would then appreciate, approve and admire them, then this way, they, both friends in agreement, for friendship of the people, would be happy and rejoice with the honour and prosperity of the law created with the honest effort of all in unison.

Indra, ruler, and Varuna, chief of justice, mighty impassioned powers in this system, wield the light of knowledge and law in the social order. Who ever is malignant, evil doer and terror monger against us, strike the shattering blow of justice and punishment on him and create faith and confidence in the light and lustrous power of the law.

5. Indrā yuvaṁ varuṇā bhūtamasā dhiyāḥ pretārā vṛṣabheva dhenoh. Sā no duhiyadyava-seva gatvē sahasradhārā payasā mahī gauḥ.
Indra, leader and giver of knowledge and power, and Varuna, embodiment of cherished virtue and intelligence, as Indra, lord of clouds sends down rain showers on earth and fertilises her, so, be the promoters of the intelligence and enlightenment of the children of the earth so that, as the earth, rich in vegetation, overflows with food in a thousand ways, so the knowledge, language and enlightenment of the community may grow a thousandfold and overflow with creative work on the great moving earth.

Indra and Varuna, ruler and administrator, for the good of our children and grand children on these fertile lands on this moving and progressive earth, be the sun for the health and beauty of life, be the cloud for the fertility and virility of the nation. Indra, giver of light and energy, Varuna, lord of law and justice, with all your protections and promotions, be the destroyers of want and suffering, be the harbingers of health and plenty and enlightenment.
Indra and Varuna, ruler and sustainer, lord of life and power, giver of freedom and justice, we choose to dedicate ourselves to you for the sake of protection and progress as ever before, great and beneficent friends like brothers, brave and fearless, greatest majestic, and kind as parents as you are. Lovers of the earth and cows, knowledge and the language of Divinity as we are, we opt for you in freedom for the sake of love and friendship.

Indra and Varuna, benevolent energy and inspiration of nature and Divinity, all senses, mind and intelligence in search of efficiency and refinement in the business of life flow to you for the sake of protection and promotion. So may my mind, senses, vision and voices of exploration and celebration turn to Indra and Varuna for light and inspiration and abide by them for beauty and delicacy like the earth and other planets relating to the moon for the sweetness and beauty of their products.
These senses and mind of mine keenly desiring to win the wealth and vision of life may proceed to Indra and Varuna, light and power and inspiration of nature and Divinity, and abide thereby, awaiting, getting and enjoying the wealth and wisdom of life like little Brahmacharinis of a girls’ institution of education waiting upon their teacher mother.

10. Aśvyasya tmanā rathyasya puṣṭernityasya rāyah patayah syāma. Tā cakrāṇā ūtibhirnavyasībhīrasmatrā rāyo niyutaḥ sacantām.

May we, with our mind and soul, be masters of the lasting wealth of horses and chariots, of achievement and further progress, of health and nourishment, and may those two, Indra and Varuna, ruler and administrator, teacher and preacher, ever active with their latest modes of protection, promotion and progress join us and share our health.

11. Ā no bṛhantā bṛhaībhirūtī indra yātam varuṇa vājasātāu. Yad didyavaḥ prtanāsu prakṛīlān tasya vāṃ syāma sanitāra ājeḥ.

Indra ruler, and Varuna, administrator and commander, great and majestic, come to us with the best of protection, promotion, progress and welfare and join our battle of life so that, participating in the struggles of that battle, joining and shining together with you, we may play our game with the best of capacities.

Mandala 4/Sukta 42

Atma, Indra-Varuna Devata,
Trasadasyu Paurukutsya Rshi

I am Indra, sovereign spirit of the universe. Twofold is my kingdom: heaven and earth, or, the world of nature and the world of humanity. I am Varuna, highest Intelligence and the Ruling Power of the universe. All the Immortals, divine forces in the service of Varuna are ours, they comprise and conduct the mighty yajna system of the universe. Thus I rule all: the world of humanity, all that is highest and closest in the world of forms, and all that is hidden.

(This mantra is a metaphor of the living, breathing, intelligent, self-organising, autonomous and sovereign system of the universe as macrocosm as well as microcosm. At the macrocosmic level, Indra is the Supreme Sovereign, immanent and transcendent Spirit, and Varuna is the immanent ruling force, intelligence and the law of Rtam. Indra-varuna is a functional version of the Supreme Spirit which is both immanent and transcendent. At the microcosmic level, Indra-Varuna is the individual soul with all its faculties of awareness, intelligence, mind and senses. At the world level too, Indra-Varuna may be interpreted as the Ruler and the President-in-council.)

1. Mama dvitė rūdra katriyasā viśvarūpya amātā yathā na¬. Kratuḥ sacante varuṇasya devaj rūjmi kṣērupamasya vavre¬.

I am Indra, sovereign spirit of the universe.

2. Ahaṁ rājā varuṇo mahyaṁ tānyasuryāni pra-thamā dhārayanta. Kratuṁ sacante varuṇasya devā rājāmi kṛṣṭerupamasya vavreḥ.

   I am Varuna, ruling spirit of the world, best and highest. For me do the first manifestations of the spirit in nature hold the wealth and power of existence. They are the divine immortals who comprise and conduct the creative yajna, the spirit in body form. I rule the world of humanity, the phenomenal forms and all that is hidden in potentiality.

3. Ahamindro varuṇaste mahitvorvī gabhīre rajasī sumeke. Tvaṣṭeva viśvā bhuvaṇāni vidvāntsamairayam rodasī dhārayam ca.

   I am Indra, the highest, omnipotent, and transcendent. I am Varuna, highest and best immanent and omniscient. Happy and exalted, having created the vast and deep and firm heaven and earth as Tvashta, cosmic maker, I hold and move in unison the sun and earth and all other regions of the universe.

I shower the rains of energising and fertilising waters. I hold and rule the sun and cosmic energy in the space of nature within eternal law. By the same eternal law of mine, the child of eternity, the threefold world of natural constituents, sattva, rajas and tamas (thought, energy and matter) manifests and expands and keeps to the law. Thus do I create, hold and rule the universe.

The best of men and leaders, equipped with good horses and modes of transport and communication, fighting for strength and sustenance, the chosen ones, knowing me and struggling to attain to me call upon me in the battle of existence. I, Indra, commanding the wealth and power of the world, highest of the lustre and glory in existence, create the battle for their victory and raise the heat of action.

I do all those acts of creation, sustenance and vinduṣṭḥ kriśvā bhūvaṇāni tasya tā p bāṃvīṣi vārūṇaṇāy vaddhā.

tvaṃ vṛtraṇi śṛṇviṣe jaghaṇvān tvaṃ vṛtān ariṇā indra sindhūn.

That greatness and grandeur of yours all the scholars of the worlds know. O lord omniscient, you yourself speak of it to the selected men of vision. You are the breaker of the clouds, we hear, and you set the rivers aflow and release the waters locked up in lakes and clouds.

āsmpaṇākmatra pitarastā āsansaptā vṛtān indrāṁ na vṛtraturam-ardhadevam.

When the seven sages, senses, pranic energies and flowing streams, which are our feeding and sustaining powers like father and mother, are locked up in darkness then, as they join Indra, so they join the sun (wakefulness), who is superior to the darkness of Vṛtra and presides over half of this world with his light (until light and life is restored).
9. Purukutsāni hi vāmadāśaddhayebhirindrā-varuṇā namobhiḥ. Athā rājānaṁ trasada-syuma-syā vṛtrahaṇañām dadathur-ardhadevam.

O Indra and Varuna, the abundant power of the thunderbolt, light and showers offer you the homage of yajnic inputs of food for consumption and holistic expansion of creative nourishment. And thence, further, you give it on to this earth’s ruler, destroyer of darkness and evil, who presides over half the world (and rises in majesty with the break of dawn).

10. Rāyā vayāṁ sasavāṁso madema havyena devā yavasena gāvaḥ. Tāṁ dhenum-indrā-varuṇā yuvāṁ no viśvāḥaḥ dhattam-anapasphurāntīṁ.

Let us rejoice with the wealth of peace and refreshment with energy while we sleep, just as the devas, divine powers of nature, are replenished with spirit and joy by the offer of yajnic homage, and cows rejoice with grass. That vibrating energy of life, Indra and Varuna, you bear and bring for us day and night without break. Reveal that language of enlightenment, all calm and undisturbed.

Mandala 4/Sukta 43

Ashvinau Devate, Purumidhajamidhau Sauhotrau Rshis

Who listens? Which of the adorables? Which brilliant divinity loves and entertains the song of prayer and adoration? To whose heart shall we dedicate this eulogy, divine, highly presentable, and dearest to the immortals.

Who is kind and blissful? Which one comes at the fastest and earliest? Which one of the adorable divinities is the most benevolent? Which one is the chariot, power driven, which moves instantly at the fastest, they say, which the daughter of the sun, the Dawn, chooses for the ride?

Ashvins, complementary powers of nature and humanity, magnificent on the move, you come instantly at the call of time like rays of the sun displaying his power over the smiling earth at the end of night. Coming from the heavens, divine with wings of light, by which one of nature’s immaculate forces do you become the most powerful and eloquent?

का वां भूदुपमाति: कया न आश्विना गमथा हूयमान।
का वां महाशिवत्यंजसा अभीरक उरुखयंत माध्वी दस्त्रा न उत्ती। ४ ॥

Ashvins, what could be the simile or metaphor to describe or define you? On whose invocation and invitation would you come to us? Even though someone might be great, who could be as great and selfless around as you? Sweet powers, destroyers of evil, rise higher and higher for our defence and protection.

उरु वां रथः परि न गति द्यामा यत्समुदादुभि वर्त्तं वाम।
मध्वा माध्वी मधुं वां पुष्यायन्यतसैं वां पूं गा भुरजान्ति पुक्वा। ५ ॥

5. Uru vāṃ rathaḥ pari nakṣati dhyāmā yatsamudrādabhi vartate vām. Madhvā mādhvī madhu vāṃ pruṣāyan yat sūṁ vāṃ prkṣo bhurajanta pakvāḥ.

Great and grand is your chariot that goes round the regions of light, it comes to you from the oceans and from the oceans of spatial waters. Honey sweet you are, honey sweet is your wisdom. You and your wisdom shower us with sweetness of honey when your people at the stage of ripeness reach you for company and advice.
The waters of the flowing rivers and rolling seas evaporate and lend moisture to your horses of sun rays which rise like birds bright and red, and then your chariot, quick and soaring, coming and rising, is seen and known by which you become masters of the dawns.

Here itself in this world, O Ashvins, both of you, ever correct and true as you are, of equal mind and rich with the treasures of wealth and speed of light, may that holy and dynamic intelligence and wisdom which attends on you may, we pray, be for us too and may it bless and promote the celebrant who, looking to you with surrender and faith, may achieve the desire of his heart. Our ambition and fulfilment is centred on you only.

Mandala 4/Sukta 44

Ashvinau Devate, Purumidhajamidhau Sauhotrau Rshis

Ashvins, complementary currents of cosmic energy of the Divine, today we invoke you and call for that chariot of yours which is wide extended, joins earth and heaven, carries the light and energy of sunrays, ages not, carries the sound and which is abundant in various wealth which never diminishes but continuously enriches the earth.

2. Yuvaṁ śriyam-aśvinā devatā tāṁ divaṁ napātā vanathah śacībhiḥ. Yuvor-vapur-abhi prkṣaḥ sacante vahanti yatkakuhāso rathe vāṁ.

Ashvins, children of light, infallible and imperishable, generous and brilliant divinities, with your intelligence, power and expertise, you win that treasure of wealth which the spaces conduct and concentrate in your chariot and thereby provide food and nourishment for your body and mind.

Ashvins, who with the offer of homage today directs his thoughts and prayers to you for the sake of protection and advancement, or for the drink of soma in celebration of success, or to learn and win the truth of eternal Dharma of existence, Rtam? Who with salutations and liberal hospitality prays for favour of your attention toward him?

Hiranyakyaṇa puṣrāḥ rāthāṇm yujnāṃ nāṣatyaṇaḥ yātām. Pībātha inmadhunaḥ somyasya dadhato ratnaṁ vidhate janāya.

Ashvins, twin powers of the Divine, universal of form and presence, ever constant in thought and action, come by the golden chariot to join this yajna of ours, drink of this honey sweet of the soma of success and bring the jewels of wealth for the supplicant people of action and endeavour.

Ā no yātām devo acchā pṛthivyā hiranyakyaṇa suvrīrā rathena. Mā vāmanye ni yaman deva-yantah saṁ yaddade nābhīḥ pūrvyā vām.

Come well and soon to us by the paths of heaven and earth riding your well structured chariot of gold. Let not others detain you, nor divert you from the natural life link which the forefathers and teachers of old gave you in pursuit of Divinity.

Ashivns, destroyers of evil and misery, brilliant as the sun and gracious cool as the moon, give us the wealth of life comprising brave children, great and vast prosperity for all of us, rulers as well as the people, since the leaders of the nation offer you songs of adoration and teachers of the people shower you with words of prayer in praise of Divinity.

7. Iheha yadvāṁ samanā papṛkṣe seyamasme sumatir-vājaratnā. Uruṣyataṁ jaritārāṁ yuvāṁ ha śritaḥ kāmo nāsatyaṁ yuvadrik.

Ashvins, ever constant and true, here itself in this world, may this holy wisdom and knowledge of yours which is peaceable and procurative of science and speed of prosperity and progress, bless us, we pray. Both of you, we pray, protect, promote and elevate the celebrant. Our desire and ambition depends on you and we look forward up to you alone.

Mandala 4/Sukta 45

Ashivns Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

There rises the sun, chariot of the Ashvins in motion. It goes high up on top of the heavens, gaining heights and leaving the regions below. In this are three analogous kinds of food and energy: wind, water and electricity. And there is the fourth, the cloud on top of all, laden with the honey sweets of showers.

On the rise of dawns, honey sweets of foods and energies and the horses and the chariots raise you high up, Ashvins, while they remove the veil of darkness and spread the brilliance of morning light like the glory of heaven all round.

Ashvins, drink the sweets with lips addicted to the taste of honey. Start the chariot to reach the dear sweets of life. Take to the high road on the way home by the chariot bearing the sweet of success as the sun and wind bear the cloud of showers.

Flying gracefully like hansa birds, pleasant and agreeable, fleet and comfortable, golden winged morning birds floating across mists and waters, giving the luxurious feel of breezy ecstasy: such are your horses which transport you across the spaces like bees flying to the honey cups of flowers, by which you proceed to the yajnic programmes of humanity creating the honour and excellence of life.

Holy yajnic performers, creating and bearing honey sweets of vitality, leaders and pioneers brilliant as fire, every morning, welcome and praise the first rays of the sun, while the clean handed, clear eyed, wise priest, saviour from sin and disease, grinds with stones the holy plant of soma for honey juice and all wait for your arrival, O Ashvins, harbingers of morning joy.

6. Ākenipāso ahabhir-davidhvataḥ svarṇa śukraṁ tanvanta ā rajaḥ. Suraścidaśvān yuyujāna āyate viśvāṁ anu svadhayā cetathaspathaḥ.

While the approaching and vitalising morning rays everyday dispel the darkness and spread the brilliant light across the skies like regions of heaven, and the sun, using the rays as chariot horses, goes in majesty, you show the paths of the world by virtue of your own power.

7. Pra vāṁ-avocam-aśvinā dhiyandhā rathah svaśvo ajaro yo asti. Yena sadyaḥ pari rajāṁsi yātho haviśmantam taraṇīṁ bhojamaccha.

Ashvins, path makers of the world, having the knowledge and intelligence that I have attained, I speak to you of the chariot that’s yours, which is imperishable, equipped with unfailing horse power, by which you instantly and all time go over the skies and spaces and by which you bear and bring excellent food and energy full of sacrificial vitality that carries us across the seas of life.
Mandala 4/Sukta 46

Indra-Vayu Devate, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

(Indra and Vayu are open-ended symbols to be interpreted according to the context of life which the mantra shows: Indra may be interpreted as power and protection, and Vayu as power in motion, energy for motion and advancement.)

1. Agraṁ pibā madhūnāṁ sutam vāyo diviśiṣu. Tuṁ hi pūrvapā asi.

Vayu, fast as waves of energy, drink the first and best of honeyed drinks distilled in the best of our heavenly acts, since you are the protector and promoter of the earliest arts, acts and nobilities of humanity.

Vayu, strong in command of vast forces with Indra as your charioteer, come with hundreds of choice acts and gifts, and enjoy a drink of the best of our preparations to your heart’s content.

Indra and Vayu, may a thousand horses moving to the choice delicacies transport you hither for a drink of soma.

रथ्यं हिरण्यवन्धुर्मिन्द्रवायु स्वध्वरम्।
अहि स्थाथः दिविस्पृशम्॥ ४ ॥

Indra and Vayu, strong in command of vast forces with Indra as your charioteer, come with hundreds of choice acts and gifts, and enjoy a drink of the best of our preparations to your heart's content.

रथर्य पृथुपार्जनं दाःवांसम्पुर्ण गच्छतम्।
इन्द्रवायु इह गतम्॥ ५ ॥

5. Rathena prthupājasaṁ dāśvāṁsamupas gaccha-tam.

Indra and Vayu, friends with the devas, generous brilliances of nature and humanity, distilled is this soma, the best in the house of the generous yajaka, drink to your heart’s content.

इन्द्रवायु अयः सुतस्तं दुवभि: सुजार्जसा।
पिबन्तं दाृष्णा गृहं॥ ६ ॥

6. Indravāyū ayaṁ stutastam devebhiḥ sajoṣasā.

Indra and Vayu, come, take to the chariot of golden frame, rising and touching the heavens, serviced and heading to a holy yajnic programme, be there.

इन्द्रवायु अर्थ्य सुतस्तं दुवभि: सुजार्जसा।
पिबन्तं दाृष्णा गृहं॥ ७ ॥

Rgveda
7. \textit{Iha prayāṇamastu vāmindravāyū vimocanam.}
\textit{Iha vāṁ somapītaye.}

Indra and Vayu, here may be the end of your journey for the drink of soma and here may the chariot and the horses be released so that you may drink the soma of Moksha.

(This sutra may be interpreted in another way in the light of this mantra: Indra as the soul, Vayu as the prana energy of breath and blood circulation, the chariot as the body and horses as the organs of perception and volition, distillation of soma as creative yajnic action, drinking as the fruit of action, and release of chariot and horses as the freedom of the soul from the body and senses.)

\textbf{Mandala 4/Sukta 47}

\textit{Indra, Indra-Vayu Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi}

\begin{enumerate}
\item \textit{Vāyo śukro ayāmi te madhvo agraṁ diviśiṣṭu.
Ā yāhi somapītaye spārho deva niyutvatā.}

Vayu, lord omnipotent, self-refulgent and generous centre object of universal love, I come to the top of the honey sweets of yajnic creations of light and joy for the life divine, cleansed and pure as I am now. Come for a drink of soma by the chariot and the team of horses.

\item \textit{इन्द्रः वायवष्कासम्मानं पीतिमंहथः।
युवां हि यन्तीन्द्रवः निम्ममाप्य न सध्यक।} \end{enumerate}
2. \textit{Indraśca vāyaveśāṁ somānāṁ pītimarhathaḥ.}
\textit{Yuvāṁ hi yanḍīndavo nimnamāpo na sadhryak.}

Indra and Vayu, you two love and deserve the drink of these somas distilled in yajnas. Just as waters all together flow to the sea, so do all flows of soma and all movements of dedicated devotees end up when they join you.

3. \textit{Vāyavindraśca suṣmiṇā saratham śavasaspaṭī.}
\textit{Niyuttānta na ātaya ā yātam somapītaye.}

Vayu and Indra, most powerful, commander and ruler of the power and force of existence, controllers of the dynamics of energy, come hither together by the same chariot as two in one for the protection and promotion of our yajna of production, honour and excellence.

4. \textit{Yā vāṁ santi purusprho niyuto dāśuṣe narā.}
\textit{Asme tā yajñavāhasendravāyū ni yacchatam.}

Indra and Vayu, omnipotent power and most dynamics Divinity, power and energy of nature, ruler and controller of humanity, leaders and pioneers of the community, and lords of the accomplishment of yajnas, loved and honoured of all, bless us with all those acts and gifts of yours which are surely and certainly divine for the sake of the generous and charitable devotees.

2. Niryuvāṇo aśastīniyutvāṇ indrasārathih.
Vāyavā candreṇa rathena yāhi sutasya pītaye.

Perennial young, ineffable, constant in motion and velocity, mover of fire, electricity and the sun, Vayu, highpriest of cosmic yajna, come by the golden chariot of the moon for a drink of soma and for protection and promotion of the finest creations of humanity.

अनु वृष्ण वसुधिति सुमाति विशवपर्शसा।
वायुवा चन्द्रण रथन याहि सुतस्य पीतयः॥ ३॥

3. Anu kṛṣṇe vasudhiṣṭi yemāte viśvapeśasā.
Vāyavā candreṇa rathena yāhi sutasya pītaye.

Vayu, both heaven and earth, sustained by your cosmic energy, hold and sustain the wealth of the world and are themselves the form and wielders of the forms of the world, moving in accord with your force and law. Come by the chariot of the golden beauty of the moon and drink the soma distilled by us in our yajna.

4. Vahantu tvā manoyujo yuktāso navatirnava.
   Vāyavā candreṇa rathena yāhi sutasya pītaye.

   Vayu, may the ninety nine forces of cosmic energy yoked to your chariot transport you by the golden chariot of the moon controlled by thought of the mind. Come to our yajna for a drink of soma.

5. Vāyo śataṁ harīṇāṁ yuvasva poṣyāṇām.
   Uta vā te sahasrīṇo ratha ā yātum pājasā.

   Vayu, vibrant ruler of power, force and yajnic development, use a hundred of the best of force and people in your project of development, and let your chariot of a thousandfold wealth and power come to us for our yajna.

Mandala 4/Sukta 49

Indra-Brhaspati Devate, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

1. Idaṁ vāmāsyē havīḥ priyamindrābhṛhaspatī.
   Ukthāṁ madaśca śasyate.
Indra, O lord intrepidable of ruling power, Brhaspati, O lord protector and promoter of the wide world and its comprehensive knowledge, this is the holy offering of food and this the heartfelt offering of happy tribute made for your acceptance and enjoyment.

अयं चाँ परिं विच्यत सामं इन्द्राभ्रस्तिः।
चारुमदाय पीतव्यः॥ २ ॥

Indra and Brhaspati, ruler and scholar of eminence, this soma for you is offered as a drink of pleasure and ecstasy of the highest order.

आ नं इन्द्राभृहस्ति गृहमिन्दश्रच गच्छतम।
सामपा सामपीतव्यः॥ ३ ॥

3. Ā na indrābhṛspaṭi grhamindraśca gacchatam. Somapā somapītaye.

May Indra-Brhaspati, ruler scholar of eminence, and Indra, controller and defender of power, honour and excellence, connoisseurs of the delight of soma, come to our home for a drink of soma. May they protect and promote the honour and prestige of the land.

अस्म इन्द्राभृस्तिः रूप्यं धर्तं शतग्विन्म। अश्रावन्तं सहस्त्रीणम॥ ४ ॥

May Indra and Brhaspati bear and bring for us a hundredfold wealth of cows, lands and knowledge, and may they bring us a thousandfold wealth of horses, transport and progress in science and technology.

5. \textit{Indrābrhraṣpaṭi vayaṁ sute gīrbhirhavāmahe.}
   \textit{Asya somasya pītaye.}

   Indra and Brhaspati, the soma is extracted and distilled. We invoke and invite you for a drink of this soma.

6. \textit{Somamindrābrhraṣpaṭi pibatanā dāśuṣo grhe.}
   \textit{Mādayethāṁ tadokasā.}

   Indra and Brhaspati of the house of honour and power, drink the soma in the home of the generous yajamana as your own and give us the honour and pleasure of your company.

\textbf{Mandala 4/Sukta 50}

\textit{Brhaspati, Indra-Brhaspati Devate, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi}

1. \textit{Yastastambha sahasā vi jmo antān bṛhaspatitriṣadāstho ravena. Taṁ pratnāsa rṣayo didhyānāḥ puro viprā dadhire mandrajivam.}

   Brhaspati, the sun, which, positioned in the midst of the three regions of earth, skies and heaven, sustains the earth and other planets to the ends with its force and its rays of light and gravitation;

Or, the Lord of mighty universe who is omnipresent in the worlds of earth, skies and the heavens of light and rules the universe to the ends of it with his omnipotence and Word of revelation;

Or, the ruler, who, self-established in knowledge, action, and prayer, rules the world to the ends of the earth with his power and word and force of law;

Or, the eminent scholar, who, master of the three realms of knowledge, Divinity, Prakrti, and the soul with the word of the Veda, rules the heart and intellect of the people to the ends of the earth with his knowledge that is power and his word:

Him, lord of sweet voice and vibrations of communication and gravitation, the ancient seers, shining since the first moments of human existence, vibrant with living knowledge and holy desire, sing, celebrate and advance in human consciousness.

Him, lord of sweet voice and vibrations of communication and gravitation, the ancient seers, shining since the first moments of human existence, vibrant with living knowledge and holy desire, sing, celebrate and advance in human consciousness.

2. Dhunetayaḥ supraketaṁ mandanto bṛhaspate aghi ye nastatasre. Pṛṣantaṁ srpramadabdhamūrvan bṛhaspate rakṣatādasya yonim.

O Brhaspati, vibrant scholars and heroes are they who inspire the holy and brilliant man of knowledge and centres of advancement, and help us progress in culture and achievement. O lord of progress and advancement, protect and promote the home and profession of every such person and institution, creative, brilliant, fearless, and generous and extensive in possibilities.

3. Brhaspate yā paramā parāvadata ā ta ṛtasprāso ni śeduḥ. Tubhyāṁ khātā avatā adridugdhā madhvāḥ scotantyabhito virapśam.

Brhaspati, far off and most high is your seat of majesty whence travel and ever abide your rays of light and Law which then touch the oceans of water to break them into vapours so that, like deep dug wells and clouds laden with milky showers of honey sweets, they pour down in abundant rain in your service for you and your people.

4. Brhaspatiḥ prathamaṁ jāyamāno maho jyotiṣaḥ parame vyoman. Saptāsyas-tuvijāto raveṇa vi saptarasmir-adhamat-tamāmsi.

Brhaspati, the cosmic sun, first born of the supreme light of existence in the highest heaven, with seven mouths for consumption of materials and seven rays of light for creation of energy, born among many the mightiest, dispels the darknesses from the world with the thunder and lightning power of its majesty.
(So should the ruler and the scholar be in knowledge and power.)

With a mighty jubilant roar of thunder and terrible shower of electric energy, Brhaspati breaks the crooked cloud, releases the showers, activates the production of food for holy offerings and wins the gratitude of the green earth, fertile cows and rejoicing humanity.

Thus do we, O lord Brhaspati, offer homage to the father, divine giver of light and rain showers, with food, and salutations, yajnas and oblations of fragrant havis, and we pray that we may be blest with noble and brave progeny, and we may be masters of the wealths of life.
7. Sa id rājā pratijanyāṇī viśvā śuṣmeṇā tasthāvabhī vīryeṇa. Brhaspatim yāḥ subhṛtam bibharti valgūyati vandate pūrvabhājam.

He surely is ruler of the world who faces all the practical battles of life with his own strength and courage, and who holds in faith, honours and worships Brhaspati, lord supreme sustainer of the universe, most cherished and the first immanent lord of life.

8. Sa itkṣeti sudhita okasi tasmā ilā pinvate viśvadānīm. Tasmai viśaḥ svayamevā namante yasmin brahmā rājani pūrva eti.

Surely he dwells with peace and contentment in his own home, and him nature favours with all her gifts as her loving all-generous child, and to him all people spontaneously bow in reverence, whom Brahma, Lord Supreme as well as visionary of the Vedas, prime Spirit and prime person, favours and blesses as the brilliant ruler with the divine presence.

9. Apraṭīto jayati saṁ dhanāṇi pratijanyāṇyuta yā sajanyā. Avasyave yo varivaḥ kṛṇoti brahmaṇe rājā tamavanti devāḥ.

Unchallenged, unopposed, that ruler wins over and rules all the wealth and powers, assets and liabilities, whether they belong to the opposition or to his own supporters, who does honour and service to the holy man of Vedic knowledge, who feels he needs protection and support and offers worship and support to the lord omniscient and omnipotent in support of his people. Indeed all the nobilities of humanity and all powers of nature strengthen, support and protect that ruler as the man of God for all his people.

10. Indrašca somam pibatam brhaspate’smin yajñe mandsānā vrṣaṇvasū. Ā vām viśantvindavaḥ svābhuvavo’sme rayim sarvavīram ni yacchatam.

Brhaspati, master of the knowledge of omniscience, and Indra, lord ruler of the world, both rejoicing and giving showers of wealth and comfort to the people, drink the soma of bliss in this yajna of human excellence. O lords of glory in your own right, may the majesty and sublimity of divinity bless you both and may you create and give us the wealth and honour of a brave and perfect nation with a brave young generation.

Brhaspati and Indra, scholar teacher of science and Divinity, ruler of the world, lead us on to advancement, we pray, be with us as our own, and may your vision and wisdom be ours for ourselves. Inspire and protect our mind and soul, awaken our thought and action. Lord and master, kind and favourable, help us exhaust and eliminate our weaknesses, want and poverty, dedicated supplicants as we are.

Mandala 4/Sukta 51

Usha Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

   Yonder in the east arises and shines that glorious light of the dawn revealing itself from the depths of night’s darkness and inspiring us to wake up and see the light of knowledge. Surely daughters of heaven, the sublime lights of the dawn illuminate the earth for us to see the paths of the day’s action.

   The lights of the dawn, various wondrous, shine magnificent in the east like daughters of omniscience, bright and bold like flag posts of yajnas of the day, pure and purifying as flames of fire, opening the doors of light from the deep folds of the night’s darkness.

Brilliant and blissful magnificent lights of the dawn now in the early hours of the morning wake up and inspire liberal yajakas for the gifts of charity and performance of the morning yajna, while deep down in the folds of impenetrable darkness the slothful misers sleep on, unconscious, unaware and lost in the state of ignorance.

O divinities of the dawn, let that ancient chariot of yours which is ever new every morning be ever so great and magnificent by which, rich and luxurious in wealth and grace of beauty, you come and shine for your darling, dear as breath of life, who has nine cows or ten, i.e., earthly virtues, and seven mouths for consumption and many more for creation.

O divine lights of dawn, you always move over and across regions of the world by the rays of light travelling by the straight paths of truth and natural law across the oceans of space, waking up and inspiring the sleeping world of life, humans and animals, to rise and move for the day’s activity.

6. Kva sivadāsāṁ katamā purāṇī yayā vidhānaṁ vidadhur-ṛbhūnāṁ. Śubham yacchubhrā uṣasa-ścaranti na vi jñāyante sadṛśir-ajuryāḥ.

Where and which of these dawns is that ancient one by which the wonder works of the Rbhus, miraculous artists and experts, were accomplished? Which one of these glorious dawns that go about so blissfully, all alike and unaging? No, not known.

For sure those were the dawns of ancient time, givers of abundant wealth of one’s heart’s desire, born of the law of Divinity, rooted in eternal truth and rectitude, in which the holy yajaka, worshipping the Divine with songs of praise and celebration, always and immediately achieved the wealth of his choice and desire. They are the same even now, the old ever new.

They are the celestial lights of Divinity, part of cosmic dynamics, waking up the homesteads to activity and proceeding like streams of cows going to the pastures. Thus do the dawns arise, radiate, wake up life and celebrate the Divine. They rise and act the same way in the east since eternity, radiate equally the same way, illuminating the same way, eternal, ever new, old yet ever young.

Thus do the dawns, equal, alike, unobstructed and inviolable, radiate and roam around, covering the vast spatial darkness with light and vesting things with beautiful forms of their own by their catalytic rays of light and blaze, penetrating, pure, purifying, beautiful and edifying.

O daughters of the light of heaven, angelic damsels of divinity, bear and bless us with the wealth of progeny so that, illuminative as you are, edified into a state of wakefulness and enlightenment through the peace and bliss of your love and beauty, we, awake and enlightened, may command a blessed force of warlike heroes.

O lights of dawn, daughters of the glory of heaven, brilliant, radiating and illuminative as you are, I sing of you as you are, symbol of cosmic yajna, and I pray we may be blest with the glory of divinity, splendour of humanity and the honour and wealth of excellence which the heaven and earth and the daughters of heaven and earth may bear and bring for us.

(Swami Dayananda extends the meaning of the dawns from ‘daughters of heaven’ to heavenly daughters of humanity’, enlightened women, makers of happy homes. A happy home is a very heaven, he says.)
Mandala 4/Sukta 52

Usha Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

1. Prati sya sūnaī jani vyucchantī pari svasuḥ. Divo adarśi duhitā.

That joyous dawn, pioneer of the sun, harbinger of the new day, shining at the departure of her sister, the night, rises to view every morning as the daughter of heaven, arousing the world to fresh life.

Like a graceful mare, crimson red, wondrous bright, mother pioneer of sunrays, shower of nature’s light and bliss, the dawn is a friend of the Ashvins, the sun and moon.

O Dawn, while you are a friend of the sun and moon and mother of sunrays, you also command the wealths of the world.
4. Yāvayaddveṣasaṁ tvā cikitvitsūṅrtāvare.
Prati stomairabhutsmahei.

O bright and illuminative dawn, spirit and beauty of truth and holiness, while you dispel hate and anger and inspire love and admiration, let us know and celebrate you with songs of praise and honour.

5. Prati bhadrā adṛkṣata gavāṁ sargā na raśmayaḥ.
Ośā aprā uru jrayah.

The bright and blessed light rays of the dawn appear moving like herds of cows, like showers of solar energy and like clusters of galaxies: the refulgent dawns filling the wide spaces with light and splendour.

6. Āpapruṣī vibhāvari vyāvarjyotisā tamaḥ.
Uśa anu svadhāmava.

Bright and wide awake, inspiring the world with light and awareness, replete with the virtue of divinity, removing the veil of darkness with light, O dawn, protect us, protect and promote all, as you have the power and wakefulness.

7. Ā dyāṁ tanosi raśmibhir-āntarikṣamuru priyam.
Uśaḥ śukreṇa śociṣā.
O dawn, with your rays of light, you radiate and fill the wide heavens and the skies, and the regions of universal love, so do you bless your loved one with the purest light of love and bliss.

(Swami Dayananda interprets the dawn literally as well as metaphorically: The dawn is not only the light of the morning, daughter of the sun, but also the light of the home, blessed and beautiful lady of the house who fills the home with light and virtue and inspires her beloved husband with love and bliss.)

Mandala 4/Sukta 53

_Savita Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi_

1. _Tad devasya saviturvāryaṁ mahad vṛṇīmahe asurasya pracetasaḥ. Chardiryena dāṣuṣe yachati tmanā tanno mahāṁ udayānḍevo aktubhīḥ._

We love, choose and pray for that great, lovable and cherished energy and refulgence of Savita, self-refulgent, all observant, giver of light, life and breath of energy by which, all by himself, he gives the peace and shelter of a blessed home to the generous yajnic devotee. May the same lord of light and life arise for us day by day and bless us with the bliss of a sweet home.

Upholder of the heaven of light, sustainer of the universe, Prajapati Savita, lord of light and vision, wears the refulgent mantle of many forms and colours and, all watching, illuminative, radiating and expansive, filling all regions with the life breath of energy, creates and inspires adorable peace and joy of living.

3. Āprā rajāmsi divyāni pārthivā ślokam devah

Savita, self-refulgent creator, giver of light and life, pervades the highest regions of light, the middle regions of the skies and the regions of the earth and creates the poetry of omniscience for the revelation and communication of his own divine law. He extends the arms of his omnipotential power and presence thereby in-vesting and advancing the world of his creation into the honour and excellence of life day and night.

4. Adābhyo bhuvanani pracākaśad vratāni devah savitābhi rakṣate. Prāsrāgbāhū bhuvanasya prajābyo dhṛtavrato maho ajmasya rājati.
Undaunted and intrepidable, the self-refulgent lord of infinite generosity, Savita, illuminates the worlds of existence and guards and superintends the laws of nature and holy resolutions of humanity. He extends his arms of help and protection for the children of the earth and, wielding his omnipotence of the laws of existence, he shines and rules over the wide regions of the mighty universe.

Lord Savita with his power and presence pervades and inspires threefold middle regions, threefold regions of firmament and spatial oceans, threefold lights of fire, lightning and the sun, three orders of heaven and threefold regions of earth, and with his love and power he guides, protects and fulfils us by the threefold laws of creation, sustenance and dissolution of the world.

Lord giver of abundant peace and joy, creator sustainer, mainstay of the moving and unmoving world and controller of both, may the self-refulgent lord Savita of infinite generosity grant us peace and prosperity of an excellent home for threefold protection of body, mind and soul, elimination of sin and evil and rest in tranquillity.

Lord giver of abundant light and joy, is adorable for all of us, the lord who is now praised and sustainer, mainstay of the moving and unmoving world and controller of both, may the self-refulgent lord Savita of infinite generosity grant us peace and prosperity of an excellent home for threefold protection of body, mind and soul, elimination of sin and evil and rest in tranquillity.

7. Āgandeva ṛtubhir-vardhatu kṣayaṁ dadhātu naḥ savitā suprajāmiṣam. Sa naḥ kṣapābhirahabhiśca jinvatu prajāvantam rayimasme saminvatū.

May the self-refulgent lord Savita arise, promote the peace and prosperity of our home by every season and bring us abundant food and energy with the bliss of noble progeny. May he inspire us day and night to higher honour and achievement and advance us all round to a settled state of homely wealth for generations to come.

Mandala 4/Sukta 54

Savitā Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

1. Abhūḍdevaṁ savitā vandyo nu na idānīmahna upavācyo nṛbhiḥ. Vi yo ratnā bhajati mānave-bhyāḥ śreṣṭham no atra draviṇaṁ yathā dadhat.

Lord Savita, giver of abundant light and joy, is adorabe for all of us, the lord who is now praised and worshipped day in and day out by the best of men and leaders of humanity, and who gives for the people abundant good fortune of the jewels of wealth just as he creates and gives the best and highest of wealth for us.

2. Devebhyo hi prathamam yajñīyebhyo’mr tatvaṁ suvasi bhāgamuttamam. Ādiddāmānaṁ savitar-vyūrṇuše’nucinā jīvitā mānuṣebyah.

Savita, lord creator of life, you alone first of all create and inspire the immortal bliss of freedom, the highest gift of divinity for mankind, awarded to the devotees of yajna and divine worship, and then you alone reveal yourself and open up the treasures of divine gifts for the generous people followed by children who keep up the family tradition of piety.

3. Acitti yaccakṛmā daiyve jane dinairdakṣaiḥ prabhūṭi pūruṣatvatā. Devesu ca savitarnūṣesu ca tvam no atra suvatādaṅgasaḥ.

Whatever our trespass whether out of ignorance, or helplessness, or pride, or arrogance, or sense of power, either among or toward the divine people, or the generous and brilliant, or even ordinary people, for that trespass, O lord Savita, giver of light and inspiration, give us the strength and inspiration to correct ourselves and be free from sin and evil here itself in this life we are human, after all.

Never shall the grandeur of divine Savita be violated and destroyed, grandeur by which he wields and shall ever wield the whole universe, by which he creates the wide expanse of the earth and the glory of high heaven whereon is seen the imprint of his fingers. That grandeur is ever true, imperishable.

5. Indrajyeṣṭhān brhadbhyaḥ parvatebhyah kṣayān ebhyaḥ suvasi pastyāvataḥ. Yathāyathā patayanto viyemira evaiva tasthuḥ savitaḥ savāya te.

Savita, O lord creator, you create the stars and forces great as the sun and cosmic energy, greater than the mighty mountains and the thunderous clouds, and you create the regions and orbits for these wherein they abide like home dwellers. And as these fly around and observe the cosmic law, so they abide for your honour and grandeur doing homage to your glory.

Savita, lord creator, the created ones such as sun and moon and the human beings, who daily do homage to you thrice every day, may all these, earth and heaven, the sea with waters, mother nature with her solar lights, and Indra, the sun, and lord omnipotent create for us homely sweetness and give us a peaceful home for rest.

Mandala 4/Sukta 55

Vishvedeva Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

O Vasus, shelter homes of life, which one of you is our saviour, our protector? O heaven and earth, O mother nature, safeguard us. O Mitra and Varuna, friend and lord of justice, who is our protector and defender against the powerful challenging man? O noble people, who bears and brings us the best gifts in yajna?

Those who love and respect and have realised the primal seats and sources of divine bliss, who dispel the darkness and illuminate them, wise destroyers of suffering, creators and sustainers of boons of divine bliss, bear and bring immortal bliss without relent, they are the destroyers of want and misery, and they abide by and sustain the laws of truth and shine in glory.

I praise the divine Aditi, Mother Nature and imperishable Eternity, blessed home of existence and the ocean, with songs of celebration for the sake of friendship and the gift of welfare and happiness, and I pray that just as the two protect and sustain us day and night, so may the night and the dawns, both intrepidable, nourish and sustain us.

commander of power, and Vishnu, sustainer and protector of a steady state of law and order, both praised and celebrated as leaders of excellence, provide us a life of peace, freedom and security and a sweet home of conjugal bliss and promising progeny.

आ परवतस्य मृतामवांसि दुस्वत्य त्रातुरवि भरगस्य।

5. Ā parvatasya marutāmavāṁsi devasya trāturavri bhagasya. Pātpatirjanyādaṁhaso no mitro mitri-yāduta na uruṣyet.

I pray for protections of the cloud, the mountain and the winds and warriors, and for the gifts of Bhaga, generous giver of power and prosperity, the lord protector and promoter of all. May the ruler of the land save us from sin and crime that might arise, and Mitra, friends, like real friends, protect and advance us in life.

नू रादसी अहिना बुधन्यन स्तुवीत दंवी अप्यभिरिष्ठ्या
समुदं न संचरं मन्दिरवाष्ट्रस नदाँते अप्य वन ॥ ६ ॥

As the sailors who desire to cross the sea study and appraise the sea and sea conditions to sail over, so, O dedicated performers of yajna, study the earth and heaven along with thunder and clouds and the desired water gifts of the skies so that streams of vapour and showers of rain be released for the rivers to flow over land to the sea.
commander of power, and Vishnu, sustainer and protector of a steady state of law and order, both praised and celebrated as leaders of excellence, provide us a life of peace, freedom and security and a sweet home of conjugal bliss and promising progeny.

May divine Aditi, Mother Nature, with all her generous forces nourish and sustain us. May divine saviour save, protect and sustain us without relent and neglect. (So may our mother and father guide, protect and sustain us.) And we must not try, much less even feel, that we can hurt or compromise the high position and favour of Mitra, the friend, Varuna, senior guide and judge, and Agni, leader, fire and vital energy.

Agni, ruler of action and endeavour, rules the wealth, power and honours of life. Agni, fire, commands the prosperity, good fortune and grandeur of humanity. Agni provides all these for us.

Usha, O lady of morning light, beauty of the home, blest with holy speech of inspiration, commanding wealth and honour, mistress of intelligence and speed of progress in action and endeavour, bring us manifold wealth and honour of our cherished desire.

Divine dyavaprthivi, sun and earth with their divine forces—the sun with light and the earth with her motherly nurture and noble people — both worthy of love and study with dedication, loving and non-violent, abide constant in the universe. They are generous with showers of light and vitality, firm in the cosmic law of truth, replete with waters of life, loving all and hating none, blest with bright and creative progeny — the sun with planets and satellites and the earth with vegetation — carrying on and leading the process of cosmic yajna with their pure and purifying rays of light and vibrations of creative generosity.

That One alone, lord of omnipotent holy action omnipresent in these worlds of the universe, is the lord who creates the heaven and earth wide and deep with concentrations of particles together in beautiful forms self-sustained without external support. He is the lord eternal and omniscient who moves these with his vision and holy power.

May the heaven and earth, vast, together loving, kind, favourable and fertile, revered and admired by the world, bless us with vast homes managed by dedicated ladies and may we, with our will and intelligence, achieve and command many chariots and assistants under their protection.

5. Pra vāṁ mahi dyavī abhyupastutim bharāmahe. Śucī upa praśastayē.

O resplendent heaven and earth, pure and unsullied, we offer earnest praise in honour to you and approach you with prayers.

Divine and pure heaven and earth, together in body with your innate power and potential, you shine in glory and observe the laws of eternal truth in existence.

O mighty heaven and earth, helping friends and devotees to cross the hurdles to attainment, fulfilling the laws of truth to bliss, you preside over the yajnas of life to perfection of success.

Mandala 4/Sukta 57

Kshetrapati, Shuna, Shunasira, Sita Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

1. Kṣetrasya patinā vayāṁ hiteneva jayāmasi.
   Gāmaśvāṁ poṣayitnvā sa no mrīḍādirṣe.

   We prosper in life by virtue of the master of the field as by a benefactor or a friendly army. May he, giver of good health and nutriments, develop fertile fields, cows and horses and, in this way, provide peace and joy for us all.

   Master of the field, as the cow produces milk and you milk the nectar for us, so produce the rippling sweets of honey for us, and so may the masters of running waters, laws of nature and holy action discover the sacred knowledge of science like sanctified ghṛta seasoned with honey for the peace and joy of us all.

May the herbs and trees, all vegetation indeed, be full of honey for us. May the heavens of light, the skies and the oceans of earth and space be full of honey for us. May the farmer, master of the field, be gracious with honey for us. And let us join, serve and cooperate with the farmer as well as with nature as we should without hurting, injuring and polluting.

4. Śunāṁ vāhāḥ śunāṁ naraḥ śunāṁ krṣatu lāṅgam. Śunāṁ varatrā badhyantāṁ śunamaṣṭrā-mudiṅgaya.

Let the oxen and horses draw the plough and carry the burdens happily for growth and prosperity. Let the men work happily, let the plough furrow the field neatly, and let the whole process move on happily and effectively for growth and prosperity.

5. Śunāśīrāvimāṁ vācaṁ juṣethāṁ yad divi cakra-thuḥ payaḥ. Tenemāmupā siṅcatam.

O Vayu and Aditya, wind and sun, farmer and helpers, listen to this word and follow: the water which you create in the regions of light, and which you move in the light of science, pray bring down to irrigate this holy land of the fields.

अवाची सुभण्ड भव सीतः वन्दनमह त्या।
यथा न: सुभण्डस्यस्य यथा न: सुफलास्सिः।!

   Yathā naḥ subhagāsasi yathā naḥ suphalāsasi.*

   O charming furrow, be straight and deeply well drawn. We love and celebrate you so that you bring us good fortune, so that you bring us the best fruit of our labour and endeavour.

इन्दु: सीतान नि ग्रृटु तां पूषानु यच्छतु।

7. *Indraḥ sitāni ni gṛhṇātu tāṁ pūśānā yacchatu.
   Sā naḥ payasvati duhām-uttarāmuttarāṁ samām.*

   Let Indra, the farmer, take over and look after the furrow with seed, and may the sun shine warmly over the seed. Let Pusha, fertility of nature, feed and energise the grain. And let the earth mother, full of the milk of life, produce more and more of pure foods year by year for us.

श्रुंन न: फाल्ग वि कृष्णतु भूर्मिं श्रुंनं कीनाशा। kīnāśā abhi yantu vāhaiḥ. Śunam parjanyo ma-dhunā payobhiḥ śunāsīrā śunamasmāsu dhattam.*

   Let the ploughmen plough the land happily for our peace and nourishment. Let the farmers work with the oxen and horses happily for peace and joy. Let the clouds shower with milk and honey joyously for peace and prosperity. Let the share and plough, the ploughmen and their helpers, and the powers of fertility bear and bring us peace, prosperity and joy for us all.

Mandala 4/Sukta 58

Agni, Surya, Apah, Gavah, or Ghrtam Devata, Vamadeva Gautama Rshi

   From the seas of earth and space arises the wave of honeyed energy, and close by the sun and soma that is produced in the solar yajna it joins and collects the nectar of immortality. That mysterious identity of cosmic fertility which is for us and for life as a whole flows from the tongue of divinities and originates from the centre of Eternity.

   The name and identity of that spirit of energy and immortality we sing and celebrate in divine words in this yajna, and, with reverence, surrender and self sacrifice, give it unto ourselves in the soul to hold on to it in life. May the Lord Omniscient so close to us hear it well chanted in celebration, the same Lord of Vak, the eternal Word, who commands the four Vedas as high peaks of knowledge and breathes out the same for us in revelation.

3. Catvāri śṛṅgā trayo asya pādā dve śiṁse sapta hastāsō asya. Tridhā baddho vṛṣabho roravīti maho devo martyāṅ ā viveśa.

Of this mighty self-refulgent Lord, Word and Dharma, four are the high peaks of light and self proclamation: Rgveda, Yajurveda, Samaveda and Atharva-veda; three legs on which it rests: jnana or knowledge, karma or action, and upasana or prayer; two heads: abhyudaya or worldly well being, and Nihshreyas or moksha or ultimate freedom; seven hands or the seven verse forms. Three way bound in faith, action and meditation, it is the thundervoice of Divinity which proclaims itself through the beauty, wonder and terror of nature and the music of the Veda. And this mighty presence of mighty self-refulgent Lord and the self-awareness of omniscience is enshrined in the heart of mortal humans.

4. Tridhā hitam paṁ nibhirguhyamānāṁ gavi devāso ghṛtamanyavindan. Indra ekāṁ sūrya ekāṁ jajāna venādekaṁ svadhaya niṣṭatakṣuḥ.
Ghrta, the essence of the nature, purpose and science of life, three way hidden in mystic language and held by natural forces, the enlightened ones discover, create and produce: Indra, cosmic energy, electricity, thunder and lightning, holds and reflects one, the sun holds and radiates another, and the third they discover from their meditation on Divinity with their own vision and intelligence.

These streams of light and life’s energy flow in a hundred streams from the innermost depth of the heart-ocean, but not perceptible to the negative soul. Residing in the golden grove, myself wrapped in golden hue in their midst, I watch the light all round, the gold and the essence of life.

These streams of light and life flow like vibrations of the voice divine, purified and sanctified by the innermost soul of the heart and mind. The streams of ghrta, joy of life, flow like deer flying from the hunter’s arrows towards the shelter of the divine saviour.

The streams of ghrta, life’s energy, flow on to join the sea like strong currents of a river rushing on in tumult by simple, straight and holy paths of the bed carved by Divinity, and I, inspired by the waves of ghrta, like a fiery stallion flying, breaking the bounds of world pressures all round by the force of inner vibrations, move on to my divine destination.

As youthful ladies of love and virtue, inspired with passion and smiling in bliss, proceed to meet agni, enlightened husband, so do streams of ghrta move and flow into the vedi to meet the lighted fire, and the rising fire, loving and gracious, cherishes to receive the flow of the holy yajaka’s offer.

Where the yajna of holy action and meditation is enacted and the bliss of divine soma is created, there I see all round the flow of the streams of consciousness into that vedi of divine fire wherein, like a maiden in all her beauty, finery and perfume proceeding to meet her bridegroom at the wedding yajna, the individual soul flies and is accepted and sanctified in the supreme spirit of Divinity.

Let the voice of holy praise and divine celebration rise and resound, O saints and sages and scholars of eminence, bear and bring us the light of knowledge enshrined in holy speech, lead us to honour, excellence and victory, and help us create wealth for the world leading all to the bliss of peace and common good. Guide, lead and direct this yajna of ours, the streams of honeyed ghrta flow for the fire divine.

11. Dhāman te viśvaṁ bhuvantamadhi śrītamanṭaḥ samudre hr̥dyantarāyuṣī. Apāmanīke samithe ya ābhṛtastamaśyāma madhumantam ta ūrmin.
O Lord, within your presence by your power is sustained the entire world of existence. That same power and presence vibrates in the depths of the oceans, in the cave of the heart, in the breath of life and age, in the waves of water and energy, in the vibrations of thought, and in the heat of action in nature and humanity. That power and presence vibrating in existence, O Lord, we pray, let us realise. Let us flow with that constant flow of vibration of Divinity in and across the fluctuations of mutability.

MANDALA 5

Mandala 5/Sukta 1

Agni Devata, Budha-Gavishthara of Atreya Family Rshis

Abodhyagniḥ samidhā janānāṁ prati dhenumi-vāyatīmuṣāsam. Yahvā iva pra vayāmujjihānāḥ pra bhānahaḥ sisrate nākamaccha.

Agni is seen and known while rising by the burning samidhas lighted by the yajakas at dawn coming up like a cow early in the morning, and the flames, like branches of a mighty tree, rise brilliantly and touch the sky where there is no pain, no darkness.

Abodhi hotā yajathāya devānūrdhvo agniḥ sumanāḥ prātarasthāt. Samiddhasya ruṣadārṣi pājo mahān devastamaso nīramoci.

The yajaka Agni, good at heart, is seen to invoke the divinities and noble sages to the yajna and rises high while the fire keeps burning and rising. The light of the burning fire is seen as a blissful divine power and then the great refulgent sun rises from the night’s darkness.

the great refulgent sun rises from the night's darkness.

When the pure and lustrous fire of yajna, as the sun, rises with its pure bright flames and takes over the reins of the conduct of the yajnic world around, then the invigorating and powerful dakshina offering is made with the ladles, the flames of fire rise high, and the fire higher and higher up voraciously consumes the offering.

4. Aghimacchã devayatãm manãnsi cak¡µmsíva sürye sam caranti. Yadãm suvãte uãsã virµpe šveto vãjì jãyate agre ahnãm.

The minds of holy celebrants of Divinity turn intently to Agni as their eyes wait for and turn to the rising sun. And when the heaven and earth, both different of form, one bright and the other dark and green, bring forth this Agni at the rise of the dawn, day light appears and the world grows bright.

5. Janišôta hi jenyo agre ahnãm hito hitešvarušo vanešu. Damedame sapta ratnã dadhãno’gnirhotã ni šasãdã yajîyãn.

Arises Agni, victorious yajaka, the fire and the sun, for sure in advance of the day every morning, benevolent, active in everything good and holy, bright in the woods and every home, bearing sevenfold jewels of light and flame, and then settles in yajnic business, carrying the yajna on and on. The yajna must go on.

Agni, host and performer of yajna, settles in the lap of the mother, earth and nature, in the beautiful fragrant world and its people, conducting the yajnic business of life which must go on. Young and bold, bright, intelligent and creative, imaginative as a poet, dedicated to all without exception, committed to truth and the law divine, sustainer and controller of the people, he goes on at the centre of everything, bright and blazing, never relenting, never slackening. The yajna must go on.

Ever and onward, with food, surrender and service in faith, people light, praise and worship that Agni, wise and vibrating, excellent in the accomplishment of yajnic projects, host, priest and organiser of life’s business, who pervades heaven and earth with light and fragrance and blesses the people with enlightenment. Daily they renew their dedication and commitment with vows of truth, feed the power with ghṛta, and refine the light and power to shine it more and more.

Agni, pure and purifying catalytic power, is refined in itself. Self-controlled and a powerful controller, sung and celebrated by poets, it is a welcome guest, auspicious and beneficent for all of us as a breeze of peace and freshness. Agni, O light of a thousand flames of eminence, generous as cloud showers, blazing lustrous, you are the pioneer, overtaking, conquering, and leading all others forward with your power and force.

9.  Pra sadyo agne atyesyanyānāviryasmai cārutamo babhūtha. Īlenyo vapusyo vibhāvā priyo viśāma-tithirmānuṣīṇām.

Agni, lord of light and power, for whosoever you rise on the vedi, light up in the home, or shine in flame in the cave of the heart most lovely and gracious, for him you excel and surpass everything else instantly and forever: adorable, sublime, effulgent, dearest and most welcome guest of all communities and habitations of men and women.

Agni, most youthful power and presence, devoted people from far and near bear and bring and offer homage and yajaka to you. Listen, know and accept the praise and prayer of the celebrant. May your shelter and protection for us be wide and great, full of peace and well being.

Agni, refulgent lord of knowledge, ascend your strong and brilliant chariot of light today with your adorable powers and associates, and across the wide paths of space bring here the nobilities of eminence of your alliance for joining and sharing our feast of yajnic offerings to the divinities.

We sing this song of adoration in honour of the lord of light and knowledge, holy, potent, and generous. The holy yajaka dedicated to sacred speech and light of heaven, thus, ought to direct his beautiful song of praise and prayer with oblations and salutations rising high to the skies as to the sun in heaven.

Mandala 5/Sukta 2

Agni Devata, Kumara Atreya or Vrsha Jana or both Rshis

1. Kumāraṁ mātā yuvatiḥ samubdhaṁ guhā bibharti na dadāti pitre. Anīkamasya na mina-jjanāsaḥ puraḥ paśyanti nihitamaratau.

The youthful mother bears and supports the foetus concealed in the womb, she does not, cannot, give it to the father in the state of immaturity. People cannot hurt its strength and vitality hidden in secret. But when it is born, they see its beauty and vitality before their eyes.

O youthful lady, sweet is this baby you carry which the consecrated mother bore. I saw the foetus grow and grow for many many years many times before. And I see it born of the mother when she delivered it.

I see him born of the mother’s womb far and near with a golden spoon in his month, pure and bright of form, wielding his weapons of essential potential. And I give him the feed of immortal elixir for life. What can those deny Indra, the soul? What can those who reject knowledge and celebration of Divinity do against me? Nothing.

I see him born of the mother, mother earth and Mother Nature, see him roaming around since eternity by himself like an army on the march, commanding great beauty and grace. When he is born they hold him not, withhold him not, they cannot, and the young mothers, having given him birth, grow old and grey haired, and then they grow youthful again.

Ke me maryakaṁ vi yavanta gobhirna yeśāṁ gopā araṇaścidāsa. Yaṁ jagṛbhurava te sṛjantvājāti pāśva upa naścikitvān.

Who can take away my wealth alongwith my lands and cows, sense and mind, feeling as if they are the cowherd stealing away my bull alongwith the cows, when in fact Agni himself is their protector and energiser? And those who try to grab them must despair and give up since the lord omniscient continues to protect, create and recreate the human wealth.

Vasāṁ rājānaṁ vasatiṁ janānāmaratayo ni da-dhurmartyeṣu. Brahmāṇyatrerava taṁ sṛjantu ninditāro nindyāso bhavantu.

The law and order of humanity and the human habitations, negative forces try to obstruct and sabotage in the communities among themselves. But the power, potential and intelligence of Atri, enlightened people free from physical, mental and spiritual fears and limitations disinflate that negative effort and the saboteurs themselves become self-condemned.

Shunśichchhyāṁ nirditaṁ sahaśraṇaṇādaṁ mṛtyuḥ Asmāmiṁ hi ṣ: |
Evaśaaṁdṛg Bhū yair mṛṣuṣaṁ pashā-ḥatāścikilv ih ī duṁ niṣpatā || 7 ||
7. Šunaściccheṣpatṁ niditaṁ sahasrād yūpādamuṇco aśamiṣṭa hi śaḥ. Evāsmadagne vi mumugdhi pāśāṁ hotościkītva iha tū niṣadya.

Agni, O lord of light and ruler of the world, you save even shunah-shēpa, the connoisseur lost in senses, reviled and condemned; you save him from a thousand snares of the world so that the man settles back in peace of mind. Same way, O lord and light of the world, come, O highpriest of the yajna of life, grace our yajna here and snap the snares of suffering and slavery off our body, mind and soul.

8. Ḡṛṇīyamāno apa hi madaiyēḥ pra me devānāṁ vratapā uvvāca. Indro vidvān anu hi tvā cacakaśa tenāhamagne anuśīṣṭa āgām.

The observer of the laws of righteousness and divinity says: Let the element of hate and anger be away from me. Indra, man of knowledge and power, who knows and speaks of you, O Agni, destroyer of the pollution and impurity of body, mind and soul, has spoken to me and, instructed by him, I come to you in search of purity and purgation.

9. Vi jyotīṣā bṛhatā bhātyagnirāvirviśvāni krṣute mahitvā. Pradevīṁāyāḥ sahate durevāḥ śīśe śṛṅge rakṣase vinikṣe.
Agni shines and blazes expansively with mighty rising flames of light, and with its lustre and power illuminates and reveals all things of the world. It sharpens and extends its arms of light and power for the destruction of evil and challenges and throws out the strength and wiles and acts of the clever forces of negation and destruction.

And let the blazing weapons of fire roaring in the heights of the skies be raised for the destruction of evil forces, for as they strike for the joy and victory of life’s positive forces as the very flames of terror, the obstructive forces of evil would fail to avert or oppose them.

Agni, light and power divine among the strong and wise, I, dedicated to knowledge and service, bold and patient, keen to do good in word and action, structure this song of celebration like a skillful engineer designing and making a chariot for you. O lord refulgent, if you are kind and gracious to accept it, then by the same song we would win sweet and heavenly waters of life, light and energy for the joy of life.

12. \textit{Tuvigrívo vṛṣabho vāvṛdhāno’śatrvaryah sama-jāti vedah. Itīmam-agnim-amrta avocan barhi-śmate manave śarma yaṁsaddhaviśmate manave śarma yaṁsat.}

Agni, strong and graceful power and flame, roaring as a bull and generous as cloud showers, growing and promoting, free from enemies, master ruler and sustainer, creates and bestows wealth and power of the noblest kind: Thus do men of spiritual vision and divine wisdom celebrate this Agni in holy words. May Agni bless the man of generosity and self sacrifice, man of thought and discrimination, with a happy and peaceful life, holy family and a happy home.

Mandala 5/Sukta 3

\textit{Agni Devata, Vasushruta Atreya Rshi}

\textit{वरुणः जायसि यत्यतं मित्रा भवसि यत्समिद्वः।} \textit{व्यवास्त्वमिद्वा दृश्याः मत्याः। १।}

1. \textit{Tvamagne varuṇo jāyaso yat tvaṁ mitro bhavasi yatsamiddhaḥ. Tve viśve sahasasputra devā stvamidro dāṣuše martyāya.}

Agni, flaming fire, light of knowledge and power of the world, when you are born, you shine like Varuna, light of the dawn and spirit of justice and discrimination in mankind. When you are in full blaze of your glory, you are like Mitra, bright sun, friend of all. In you reside and abide all the powers of nature’s divinity, O child of omnipotence, and you are Indra, giver of honour and excellence for the man of charity and generosity.

Agni, lord of energy and living vitality, when you bear the mysterious name of youth among men and women, you become Aryama and assume the role of a judge with discrimination. When you join man and woman in wedlock, with equal love of mind and heart, they celebrate you with holy words and hospitality with cow’s milk and butter.

Agni, you are Rudra, lord of justice and dispensation. For your honour and excellence vibrant people come to you and anoint you and glorify the beautiful and wonderful name that is yours. The office of Vishnu, protector and sustainer, is vested in you, by that you protect and maintain the secret name and identity of the lights of stars.

   O lord of light and generosity, ruler of the world, by virtue of your light, honour and grace, brilliant scholars of vision, commanding wide powers and immortal knowledge, and the people in general, loving and desiring admirable wealth and beauty of life, establish, serve and expand the fire of various forms of yajna of social and scientific projects, in your honour, holy yajaka and giver of life’s benefits.

   Agni, there never is a generous giver and yajnic performer before you, nor is there any one higher celebrated by poets in hymns, lord of your own essential wealth and power as you are, worthy of homage. Lord of light and generosity, whoever the host where you are invoked and invited as yajnic deity, you bless the people by the yajna with fulfilment.

Agni, lord refulgent ruler of the world, may we grow and prosper, we pray, under your protection, searching for wealth, raising the fire with havi offerings and ourselves rising in wealth and knowledge with the yajna. Let us win in life’s contests, in yajnas, day by day, O child of strength and protector of power and valour, and let us be blest with children and grand children.

Whoever commits sin and crime against us, may Agni, lord ruler and dispenser of justice, turn that sin and crime upon the sinner and calumniator. May the lord of light and knowledge, Agni, silence that imprecation, whoever be the person that hurts us with double dealing, sin and scandal.

Agni, refulgent power of light and generosity settled in the midst of this people, yajakas ever since time immemorial honouring you as harbinger of nature’s wealth join you and adore you in yajna with oblations of havi. And when you join them and settle in their midst then, raised and fed by the people on fragrant materials, you rise in flames as brilliant lord giver of the wealth of life.

Agni, born of omnipotence, I think of you, meditate on you: You are the saviour from suffering and mortality as a child is for the parent. You are the scholar of science, visionary of existence and observer of the eternal laws of Dharma. Emulate, excel and save the parent, the protector and the yajaka who lights you in the vedi, fight out and eliminate suffering, sufferance, evil and destruction. Pray when would your eye of grace favour us? When would you inspire us and show the path of rectitude to guide us?

O shelter home of life, Agni, father and sustainer of living beings as you are, the worshipper adores you by many names which adoration if you accept and acknowledge with pleasure then the worshipper, loving, adoring and growing like fire by the light and power of the generous lord, creates joy and well being for himself, and Agni too, loving and favouring the adorer by his own divine knowledge and power, waxing with love and kindness, bestows the joy and well being of life upon the supplicant.

Dearest ruler of the earth, most youthful power of the world, Agni, save the celebrant, purge the supplicant of all the evil and sufferings of the world: thieves are seen prowling around, enemies lying in wait, ignorant people lying in hidden corners, all following crooked ways, flags flying.

These celebrants and supplicants observing the law divine are dedicated to you, O lord Agni. Also, whatever their weakness or trespass, that too has been confessed to the lord protector and sustainer. We pray may this Agni, lord omniscient and omnipotent, increasingly pleased and gracious, never forsake us and never deliver us unto the maligner or the injurer or the evil of failure and disaster.

Mandala 5/Sukta 4

Agni Devata, Vasushruta Atreya Rshi

1. Tvāmagne vasupatiṁ vasūnāmabhi pra mande adhvaresu rājan. Tvayā vājam vājayanto jayemā’bhi syāma pṛtsuir-martyānām.

   Agni, lord and brilliant ruler of the world, protector and sustainer of the wealths of life, I serve and celebrate you in the constructive business of cooperative living without hate and violence. With you and under your guidance and inspiration, collecting speed and strength for progress, let us, we pray, win the battles of mortal humanity and be happy.

2. Havyavālagnir-ajaraḥ pitā no vibhourvibhāvā sudṛśikō asme. Sugārhapatyāḥ samiśo didihyasmadryak-saṁ mimīhi śravāmsi.

   Agni, our father, sustainer and ruler, ever youthful and unaging, carrier of holy materials and fragrances over and across the world is all pervasive in power and presence, resplendent, all illuminative and all revealing, and blissful in form and appearance. May he provide for us all the healthful food, and energies for a happy household and may he, knowing us well and what is good for us, measure out, determine and grant all the bounds and laws of our wealth and properties, rights and duties, which we must not violate or neglect.

Install Agni in the seat of power, protection and creative governance, Agni the poetic sage and visionary of the people, chief of human settlements, pure and unsullied, the light and fire of the world, strongly based in ghrta and waters, highpriest of the yajnic human organisation, conversant with every detail of the social order, and he procures and rules the choice gifts which people love and desire.

Agni, all knowing lord of light and destroyer of enemies, pervasive across the earth and pleased with world voice, joining the sunrays and working with them, come, join our yajna lighted and rising with the fuel on fire, enjoy yourself and bring the noblest generous powers of nature and humanity along to partake of the fruits of our corporate endeavour of yajna.

Agni, enlightened scholar, ruler of the world, loved and honoured as a member of the family and welcome visitor to the house, having challenged and eliminated all the opposing forces of hate and enmity in the world, come to this yajna of ours and bring us cherished foods and delicacies.

Agni, enlightened ruler of the world, born and risen as the very child of strength and honour, drive away the wicked, thieves and robbers, augmenting the food and energy for your own body politic. O best of men and leaders, protect and promote the noble enlightened people and replenish the powers of nature and thus strengthen and promote us in our joint endeavour of living.

Agni, noble ruler of life and humanity of the earth, pure and purifying power, rising in flames of piety and well being, with holy songs of celebrative knowledge and practical work and with correct inputs of yajnic materials, we offer you homage and service for human progress and all round welfare. For us, create, collect and receive the wealth of universal value and hold in trust the honour and prestige of the entire human nation.

Agni, blazing light and fire, child of omni-potence, ruler of three worlds, join and bless our non-vviolent yajna of creation and production for the good of life. Let us be blest, we pray, to be followers of universal Dharma and piety of action, and protect and promote us with peace and comfort in a happy home of threelfold bliss for body, mind and soul through three seasons for the human family.

\[9. \text{Viśvāni no durgahā jātavedaḥ sindhum na nāvā duritāti parṣi. Agne atrivannamāsā grṇāno’sm-ākaṁ bodhyavitā tanūnām.}\]

Agni, lord ruler commanding knowledge of the world of existence, constantly supported by relentless active assistants, as a sailor helps travellers to cross the sea by boat, so do you, we pray, help us cross the most difficult obstacles of the world. Served and celebrated with homage and service with surrender, you are the protector and sustainer of our bodies and material interests, this be gracious to know we know.

\[10. \text{Yastvā hṛḍā kīrṇā manyamāno ’martyaṁ martyo johavīmi. Jātavedo yaśo asmāsu dhehi prajābhiragne amṛtatvamaśyām.}\]

While I, a mortal man, invoke, sing and celebrate your gifts and glory, immortal lord omnipresent in the world of existence, I pray with a sincere heart in full awareness of your omniscience and omnipotence as a supplicant, give us the gift of honour and excellence and bless us that with good progeny we may attain the state of immortality and ultimate freedom.
Yasmai tvam sukṛte jātaveda u lokamagne kṛṇavaḥ syonam. Āśvinam sa putriṇaṁ vīrava-ntaṁ gomantaṁ rayim naśate svasti.

Whoever the person doing noble work in piety, for whom, O Jataveda, lord all knowing the things born, Agni, lord refulgent ruler of the world, you create and provide a lovely life of freedom and action, he attains a wealth of horses, dynamic self-progress, noble children, brave warriors, lands and cows, and above all all the bliss of well being.

Mandala 5/Sukta 5

Apri Sukta, Mantrawise Devata, Vasushruta Atreya Rshi

Susamiddhāya śociṣe ghṛtaṁ ūvram juhotana. Agnaye jātavedase.

For success and self-fulfilment, ardenly offer hot and sharply catalytic ghrta into the intense fire, lighted, rising and radiant in the vedi, Jataveda, fire of life vibrating in everything in existence including yourself.

For self-realisation in meditation, collect and concentrate your mind and consciousness into focus and direct it into the light of Divinity all pervasive, and shining in the cave of your heart also.
2. \textit{Narāśaṁsaḥ suśūdatīmāṁ yajñamadābhyāṁ. Kavirhi madhuhastyāḥ.}

Only the best of men admired by humanity effects such a yajna, the man intrepidable, whatever the circumstances, the man of poetic vision, so generous that sweetness and charity flows from his hand like honey dripping from the honey suckle.

3. \textit{Īlīto agna ā vahendraṁ citramiha priyam. Sukhai rathebhirūtaye.}

Served and celebrated in yajna, O light of life, Agni, hastening hither-ward by holy chariots for our protection and advancement, bring into the world the dearest wonderful wealth of honour and excellence with peace, comfort and freedom from fear.

4. \textit{Ūrṇamradā vi prathasvā’bhyarkā anūṣata. Bhavā naḥ śubhra sātaye.}

O ruling light of the world, soft, softening and protective, the mantric songs resound, arise and expand, bright and pure. Be gracious for our good and give us our share of wealth, honour and enlightenment in the social system.
5. Devīrdvāro vi śrayadhvam suprāyaṇā na ātaye.
Prapra yajñam prṛṇitana.

O celestial doors of light divine, open welcome wide for us to walk through to the heavenly shades of peace and protection, expand, beautify and beatify the yajna of life for us.

Doṣāmuṣāsamīmahe.

We arise, welcome and honour the night and the dawn of day, both gracious and blissful of form, energisers of life, mighty strong, observers of nature’s law and makers of yajna.

7. Vātasya patmāṇīlītā daivyā hotārā manuṣaḥ.
Imāṁ no yajñamā gatam.

Divine performers of yajna, night and the dawn of day, blessed benefactors of humanity, celebrated in songs of praise and prayer, come by flight of the winds to grace this yajna of ours.
8. \( Ila\ sarasvat\|i\ mah\|i\ tisro\ dev\|irmayobhuva\|h. \)
\( Barhi\h\ s\iddantvasridha\h. \)

Ila, divine knowledge of infinite omniscience, Sarasvati, divine language of existential knowledge, and the divine spirit of mother earth, three divine givers of material, mental and spiritual bliss, may, we pray, come and sanctify our holy grass on the vedi and bless our yajna without delay and without fail.

10. \( Yatra vettha vanaspate devānāṁ guhyā nāmāni. \)
\( Tattra havyāni gāmaya. \)

Lord of sun rays and master of vegetation and forests, wherever you know are the secret abodes of the divine powers of nature and their names and definitions, there guide our yajna to reach for knowledge and further development.

\( \text{स्वाहूग्रुहू चरुणाय स्वाहन्दौय मुरुद्ध्यः।} \)
\( स्वाही दुवभ्या हुविः। II 11 II \)
11. Svāhāgnaye varuṇāya svāhendrāya marud-bhyah. Svāhā devebhyo haviḥ.

Let there be right words of description and exact definition for Agni, light and fire energy. Let there be right words of knowledge and choice for Varuna, right values and judgement. Let there be right actions for Indra, power, energy, honour and excellence for the Maruts, the people. Let there be honour and holy care for the divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity. Let there be right materials as inputs for the holy scientific yajna of development and growth in gratitude to nature and the Lord Divine.

Mandala 5/Sukta 6

Agni Devata, Vasushruta Atreya Rshi

1. Agniṁ tāṁ manye yo vasurastāṁ yam yanti dhenavāḥ. Astamarvanta āśavo’stāṁ nityāso vājina iṣaṁ stotṛbhya ā bhara.

Agni is that power and presence of energy, I believe, which pervades everything and in which and by which all things abide and function. The cows abide in it, move by it and end up into it. Horses abide in it, move by it and end into it. So do all fast moving streams and objects, permanent forms, and all forms of energy move by it and retire into it. O scholar of Agni, universal energy, produce and bring up food and energy for the celebrants and supplicants for Agni. This energy is originally set in motion by Agni, the Cosmic omnipotent Spirit. (In the mantra agni is described as astam, i.e., set into motion.)

2. So agniryo vasurgṛṇe saṁ yamāyanti dhenavaḥ.
   Samarvanto raghudruvaḥ saṁ sujātāsaḥ sūraya iṣāṁ stotṛbhya ā bhara.

   That is Agni which is the abiding power, pervasive and moving force, and that is what I study and celebrate. The cows and horses, stars and planets and the rays of light, and sound and word come from, move by and go unto it, from which and into which and by which the slow moving ones move and function; and by which and toward which brave and eminent scholars rise to fame and create and produce the wealth of food and energy for the celebrants and suppliants.

3. Agnirhi vājinaṁ viśe dadāti viśvacarṣanīḥ. Agnī rāye svābhuvaṁ sa prīto yāti vāryamiśaṁ stotṛbhya ā bhara.

   Agni, light and energy of existence, alone provides fast modes of transport for the people. Studied and developed for wealth, Agni provides automatic and self-sustaining energy for the people. O scholar scientist, create and bring choice foods and energies for the celebrants and suppliants.
4. Ā te agna idhīmahi dyumantam devājaram. Yaddha syā te panīyasī samiddidayati dyaviśaṁ stotṛbhya ā bhara.

Let us kindle you, light and fire of life, generous divinity, refulgent and unaging so that the wonderfully admirable light of your blaze shines in heaven and you bring food and energy for the celebrants.

5. Ā te agna ṛcā haviḥ śukrasya śociśaspate. Suścandra dasma viśpate havyavāṭ tubhyam hūtaya iṣaṁ stotṛbhya ā bhara.

Agni, light of life, lord of power, purity and splendour, golden beautiful, generous, sustainer of the people and carrier of fragrant oblations across the spaces, fragrant offers are made to you with the chant of holy verses in praise of your identity, attributes and functions. Generous creative power, create and bring food and energy for the celebrants.

Those radiations of your energy into other forms of energies feed, invigorate and develop the wealth and growth of life in existence. They inspire, impel and collect, they expel, expand and organise, and thus they animate the circuitous dynamics of centripetal and centrifugal forces in systemic unison of the universe. O living power, create and bring food and energy for the celebrants.

Agni, O mighty power of the universe, those mighty radiations of your flames of energy feed and animate all objects into motion in space and they, with the radiating waves of your power, energise, expand and hold in poise the orbits of motions for the stars, planets and the galaxies. O mighty power, create and hold the food and energy of life and bless the celebrants.

8. Navā no agna ā bhara stotṛbhyaḥ sukṣiṭīrisaḥ. Te syāma ya āṅrcus-tvādūtāso damedama iṣam stotṛbhya ā bhara.

Agni, mighty power and light of knowledge, bring us new forms of food and energy and give us new revelations of blissful earths and stars in existence. And we pray, may we, who worship and celebrate you, be your messengers in every home. O lord, bring us the food and energy of life and light of knowledge ever new for us, your celebrants and supplicants.
animate the circuitous dynamics of centripetal and centrifugal forces in systemic unison of the universe. O living power, create and bring food and energy for the celebrants.

Agni, mighty power of the universe, those mighty radiations of your flames of energy feed and animate all objects into motion in space and they, with the radiating waves of your power, energise, expand and hold in poise the orbits of motions for the stars, planets and the galaxies. O mighty power, create and hold the food and energy of life and bless the celebrants.

And we pray, may we, who worship and celebrate you, be your messengers in every home. O lord, bring us the food and energy of life and light of knowledge ever new for us, your celebrants and supplicants.

Agni, mighty lord of golden glory in form, creator and wielder of universal energy, you catalyse two ladlefuls of liquid fuel in your crucible for impulsion and expulsion in cosmic metabolism. Thus, O lord, fulfil us too in holy tasks of yajna and create and bring food and energy for the celebrants.

Thus do the celebrants and supplicants positively dedicated to Agni study and apply natural energy for practical purposes by holy speech and yajnic structures of research and experimentation, so that agni may hold and bring us lustrous strength and dynamic energy of electric speed and success.

O lord of power and energy, create and bring food and energy for the celebrants.

Mandala 5/Sukta 7

Agni Devata, Isha Atreya Rshi

O friends, all your food and energy well collected and all your song of description and celebration is for Agni and is dedicated to Agni, lord giver of light and energy, highest of the powers and abodes in the universe, power manifest in divine manifestations of energy and the power omnipotent over all.

Where is that Agni on whose revelation and arrival in the home-steads of humanity, people, the best and highest of them, rejoice? which scholars and sages light and raise? and which even the least of living beings generate?

3. Sam yadiṣo vanāmahe samī havyā mānuṣaṇām. Uta dyumnasya śavasa ṛtasya raśmimā dade.

When we join together and pray for foods and energy forms, and the oblations of holy materials into the fire for the good of humanity rise in fragrance, then Agni with its power takes over the reins of rain showers and abundance of wealth and well being.
1. Sakhöya¬ saÅ va¬ samyaÛcami¦aÅ stomaÅ cŒgnaye. Var¦i¦¢hŒya k¦it¶nŒmµurjo naptre saha-svate.

O friends, all your food and energy well collected and all your song of description and celebration is for Agni and is dedicated to Agni, lord giver of light and energy, highest of the powers and abodes in the universe, power manifest in divine manifestations of energy and the power omnipotent over all.

Where is that Agni on whose revelation and arrival in the home-steads of humanity, people, the best and highest of them, rejoice? which scholars and sages light and raise? and which even the least of living beings generate?

3. SaÅ yadi¦o vanŒmahe saÅ havyŒ mŒnu¦ŒÄŒm. Uta dyumnasya Üavasa ¾atasya ra¦mimŒ  dade.

When we join together and pray for foods and energy forms, and the oblations of holy materials into the fire for the good of humanity rise in fragrance, then Agni with its power takes over the reins of rain showers and abundance of wealth and well being.

He, the power unaging, pure and purifying, gives signals of his light and guidance even for those who are far away when he leaves behind the night and rides the waves of light over the tops of trees.

5. Ava sma yasya veśane svedaṁ pathisū juhvati. Abhîmaha svajenyam bhûmä prśṭheva ruruḥuḥ.

On whose rise, as the sun’s, and in whose service people shed the sweat of their brow in pursuit of the paths of life, to that Agni and the sun, the entire people of the earth look up and rise as children rise on the back of the parent.

For the service of Agni, unaging sustainer of the world, let mortal man know and attain to Agni, favourite love of all, because Agni is supreme among the pleasures of life and Agni is the ultimate home of living beings, in fact, of everything in existence.
7. Sa hi śmā dhanvākṣitaṁ dātā na dātyā paśuḥ.
Hiriśmaśruḥ śucidannṛbhurāṇibhṛṣṭataviśih.

Like a generous man with a golden beard and pure white teeth, Agni, wise and expert with his forces intact, his effulgence undiminished, watches all and, like a liberal giver, gives to the dedicated supplicant a dwelling in the skies.

8. Śucīḥ śma yasmā atrivat pra svadhītvā rīyate.
Suṣūrasūta mātā krāṇā yadānaśe bhagam.

For him, i.e., the supplicant yajaka, the man free from threefold suffering of body, mind and soul, Agni, bright and pure, releases the honour and splendour of life like currents of thunder power, which mother nature spontaneously generates for him and which flows to him incessantly.

9. Ā yaste sarpirāsute’gne śamasti dhāyase.
Aiśu dyumnam-uta śrava ā cittam martyeṣu dhāḥ.

Agni, lord of light, giving of peace and power, when the ghrta has been offered into the fire and the flames arise, then let there be a shower of peace for the bearer of oblations, your gift for the yajaka. O lord, bear and bring wealth of honour and excellence, food and energy, and a noble mind with wisdom and vision and vest the same in these dedicated people.

This is the song of praise and prayer, O lord, Agni, giver of light, peace and power. Born among the dedicated aspirants, I accept the gift of peace and passion, power and property and cattle wealth. Let man be Atri, free from threefold suffering of body, mind and soul. Let man challenge the ungenerous and fight out the impending dangers, human as well as natural, and hold on to noble men and aspirations.

Mandala 5/Sukta 8

Agni Devata, Isha Atreya Rshi

1. Tvāmagne rtāyavaḥ samīdhire pratnaṁ pratnāsa ītaye sahaskṛta. Puruścandraṁ yajataṁ viśvatdhāyasāṁ damūnasāṁ gṛhapatiṁ vareṇyam.

You, light of the world, life of life, Agni, the lovers of Truth and universal law dedicated to yajna since time immemorial kindle and install in the home for protection and progress: Agni, ancient and eternal born of omnipotence, golden glorious, worthy of reverence, sustainer of the universe, self-controlled and abiding in divine law, head of human family, chosen and worthy of choice.
(Swami Dayananda applies this hymn by implication and extension to home life and the homely fire yajna, of which the head and yajamana is the married couple. Agni, further, may be interpreted as the head of a state and of the world government elected and anointed by common consent.)

Agni, light of life, people have enshrined and consecrated you in their heart and home: Agni, a welcome guest on the rounds, ancient presence with flames of fire for locks of hair, master of the home, high beacon of light, pervasive in all forms of the world, creator, lover and giver of wealth, neatly settled in homes, commanding noble and sure modes of protection and progress, pure, cleansed and free from hate and poisonous enmity.

Agni, human communities all adore you enshrined in the heart, knower of the yajakas and the delicacies of yajna, discriminator between right and wrong, positive and negative, good and evil, highest treasurehold of the jewels of wealth, gracious and glorious with honour and excellence, light of the universe, loud and bold in universal service, directly accessible in yajna and rising in flames by ghrta.

4. \(Tvāmagne dhārṇasīṁ viśvadhā vayaṁ gīrbindra-grṇanto namasopā sedima. Sa no juṣasva samidhāno aṅgiro devo martasya yaśasā sudītibhiḥ.\)

Agni, lord of light and sustainer of the world, celebrating you in many ways with holy songs of praise and prayer, we sit by you with reverence, with offers of oblations in the holy fire. O lord Angira, pervasive in every particle of the universe, bright and generous, kindled and rising in flames by the mortals’ offers of havi, be gracious, accept our homage and bless us with honour and excellence in life.

5. \(Tvamagne pururūpo viśeviśe vayo dadhāsi pratnathā puruṣṭuta. Purūṇyannā sahasā vi rājasī tviṣih sā te titviṣāṇasya nādhrṣe.\)

Agni, pervading in all the many forms of existence, praised and celebrated by all since time immemorial, you bear and bring abundant food and health and life for every individual and every community. You shine with might and splendour, and that splendour of yours, glorious one, no one dare challenge.

6. \textit{Tvāmagne samidhānaṁ yaviśṭhya devā dūtaṁ cakrire havyavāhanam. Urujrayasaṁ ghṛtayo-nimāhutaṁ tveṣaṁ cakṣurدادhīre codayanmati.}

Agni, ever youngest, unaging power of existence, kindled and shining in flames, bright and generous sages and scholars among humanity and divinities of nature make you the carrier and disseminator of fragrant energies of life and health, and install and enshrine you in the vedi, ghṛta fed, wide expansive, brilliant, watchful and inspirer of intelligence, ever invoked and invited.

7. \textit{Tvāmagne pradiva āhutaṁ ghṛtaiḥ sumnāyavah suśamidhā samīdhire. Sa vāvrdhāna oṣadhī-bhirukṣito’bhi jrayāṁsi pārthivā vi tiṣṭhase.}

Agni, light of life invoked and received from the revelations of heaven, enlightened people in pursuit of self-realisation enkindle and raise you in the vedi with fuel and ghṛta of the holiest kind. They light you in the heart with the fuel of their sense and mind and self-awareness. And you, rising with the fuel and sprinkled with ghṛta, ever abide expansive in all their business of earthly existence.

Mandala 5/Sukta 9

Agni Devata, Gaya Atreya Rshi

1. Tvāmagne haviṣmanto devaṁ martāsa īlate.
   Manye tvā jātavedasāṁ sa havyā vakṣyānuṣāk.

   You, O fire divine, mortals bearing havis with reverence in homage, honour, celebrate and worship, and I meditate on your presence in omniscience to pray: Radiate the holy light and fragrance all round and let it come to me also, generous one.

2. Agnirhotā dāsvataḥ kṣayasya vr̥ktabarhiṣaḥ. Saṁ yajñāsaścaranti yam saṁ vājāsaḥ śravasya vah.

   Agni is the high-priest of Nature’s abundance for humanity, blessing the house of the liberal devotee ready to kindle the holy fire, since all nutriments, energies and all yajnic gifts of Divinity coexist and work with Agni.

3. Uta sma yam śiśuṁ yathā navaṁ janīṣṭāraṇī. Dhartāraṁ mānuṣiṇāṁ viśāmagniṁ svadhvaram.

   And just as two arani woods produce the fire, and just as mother and father beget and nurse a new born baby, so do we kindle, raise and serve the holy fire of yajna and worship the lord of life, sustainer of human communities and high-priest of cosmic yajna.

Yadimaha trito divyupa dharmateva dhamati šīśite dhamātarī yathā.

Fire whose flames mixed together with smoke rise up and shine when the yajaka or the yogi, thrice excelling others in body, mind and soul, lights up the fire, refines, intensifies and raises the flames close to and into the heights of heaven just like a smelter blowing and intensifying the fire with the blower.

Dveṣoyuto na duritā turyāma martyrānām.

O light and fire of life, Agni, may we, with your protections and friendly exhortations, cross over the sins and weaknesses of mortal humanity as we overcome the hate and enmity of the wicked.

7. Tam no agne abhī naro rayim sahasva ā bhara. Sa kṣepayat sa poṣayad bhuvadvājasya sātaya utaidhi pṛtsu no vṛdhe.

O lord of patience and power, Agni, create the right leaders among us. Bless us with the wealth of life. Inspire and move us to act. Come, be with us for the achievement of food, energy and prosperity. Help us win and make progress in our battles of life.

Mandala 5/Sukta 10

Agni Devata, Gaya Atreya Rshi

1. Agna ojiṣṭhamā bhara dyumnamasmabhya-madhṛigo. Pra no rāyā parīnasā ratsi vājāya pan-thām

Agni, irresistible power of motion and advancement for the aspirants, bring us the most brilliant honour and excellence of life. Bless us with abundant wealth, open the path of progress and guide us on the way.

2. Tvaṁ no agne adbhuta kratvā daksasya maṁhanā. Tve asuryamāruhat krāṇā mitro na yajñīyāḥ.
Agni, unique unrivalled power of the world, help us advance by yajnic action and the greatness of our experts. The man rising in divine strength and intelligence and acting in your service is adorable for us.

Agni, lord of beauty, majesty and ecstasy, the words of your voice, potent and pregnant with sense and power, shine and reverberate all round in space with the message of action and achievement at the fastest, the wise expansive vibrancy of which, a shower from heaven, by itself, awakens and inspires the leading people of imagination with flames of fire.

तवं त्य अग्नि अच्या भार्जन्ता यत्न्ति धृष्णुया।

Agni, those flames of your light and fire, bright and blazing, go round with might and majesty like cosmic waves of lightning energy commanding the kingdom of the world, as if by a roaring chariot leading to victory.

And now Agni, for our protection and progress and for the relief and advancement bound in limitations, come so that all our leaders, bright and bold, may cross over all the bounds in all the directions of space.

Agni, light of the world, dear as breath of life, generous sage and scholarly yajaka, liberal giver, praised by devotees and approving and praising the celebrants, bring us wealth for the devotees and the worshipper good enough to challenge the mighty, and come for us so that we may win the battles of life and grow higher and higher.

It is the sanctifier for yajnic initiation, conduct and congregation, and it is the very light, beauty and grace of the holy project.

3. Asaṁmrsto jayase matroh sucirmandrah kavirudatiṣṭho vivasvataḥ. Ghṛtena tvāvardhayannagna āhuta dhūmaste keturabhavad-dīvi śrītaḥ.

Agni, born of parents natural, unadorned and free, pure and radiant, charming, with the gift of being the leading light rising from the sun, when you are invoked and invited, people raise and advance you with oblations of ghrta and then your light and fragrance as the flag of your majesty rises to the regions of the sun.

May Agni come straight to our yajnic actions of social value. Leading and enlightened people light and raise Agni in every home. Agni is the disseminator of the fragrance of yajna over lands and spaces. Intelligent people of holy action take to Agni, the power that effects creative actions of the enlightened for social good.

(Swami Dayananda interprets agni in the sense of the enlightened leading heights of society who help people to do good to the community. Agni is thus not only the divine fire but also the leader, teacher and the preacher.)

Agni, this sweetest song of honour and adoration is presented to you. The holy sentiment and prayer is addressed to you in praise of your holiness and peace at heart. The great holy voices protect, promote and fulfil you and make you stronger with power just as great rivers flow and add to the depth and power of the sea.

Angira, life breath of the universe, light and fire of the world, Agni, pervading every forest, every ray of light and every living being, holy yajakas dedicated to you as to the breath of life awaken and realise you through meditation in the cave of the heart when you are hidden as a mysterious flame, and you, stirred through contemplation, concentrated and enkindled, rise as a great power of light and victory. Rightly they call you manifestation of the omnipotent.

Mandala 5/Sukta 12

Agni Devata, Sutambhara Atreya Rshi

As in yajna, we bear and bring and offer oblations of ghrta into the vedi, so do I compose and bring the language of inner consciousness purified in meditation and offer it in honour of Agni, great, adorable in yajna, giver of the showers of water and the light of truth, life breath of the world, inspirer of thought, and generous giver of strength and power.

2. Ṛtāṁ cikitva ṛtamiccikiddhyṛtasya dhārā anu ṭṛṇḍhi pūrvīḥ. Nāham yātum sahasā na dvayena ṛtāṁ sapāmyaruṣasya vrṣṇāḥ.

Agni, light of the world, you know the law and dynamics of world order. Know the truth and sincerity of our yajna and worship, and release the showers of eternal light of truth and open the doors of nature’s generosity. I follow the generous and brilliant lord’s path of truth and rectitude but not by violence nor with duplicity. I follow the path of honesty and sincerity.

For what reason, Agni, you being the latest scholar and observer of the laws of truth by the laws of truth, would you not know of the earth and of our songs of adoration? Lord protector and observer of the laws and cycle of the seasons, generous and brilliant, give me the knowledge. I do not well know the lord giver and protector of the wealth of life.

Agni, ruler of humanity, what are your injunctions and prohibitions of law and order to deal with the opposite forces? Who are the guards and what are the safeguards? Who are your allies? Who the leading lights? Who preserve and maintain food supplies and food resources? Who are the people and what are the elements that shelter falsehood? What are the safeguards against false and malicious words and reports?
5. Sakhāyaste viśuṇā agna ete śivāsāḥ santo aśivā abhūvan. Adhūrṣata svayamete vacobhir-ṛjyuḥate vṛjīnāṇi bruvantaḥ.

Agni, bright ruler, those friends and allies of yours, wide spread and intelligent, who were favourable earlier but have become unfavourable and negative later would of themselves be destroyed, all these, by their own words, speaking crooked things to simple people of rectitude. See they are eliminated.

6. Yaste agne namasā yajñāmīṭṭha ṛtam sa pātyaruṣasya vṛṣṇah. Tasya kṣayaḥ prthurā śādhuretu prasarsrāṇasya nahuṣasya śeṣah.

O brilliant ruler, Agni, whoever the man with reverence and holy oblations in yajna serves your yajna of the social order, he protects and promotes the rule of truth and rectitude, the rule of the generous, brilliant and non-violent ruler. May his house as the house of the ruler go on rising high and higher, from good to better, the house of the progressive man on sound foundations of economic surplus and all round security.
Mandala 5/Sukta 13
Agni Devata, Sutambhara Atreya Rshi

Agni, light of life, brilliant ruler, reverend teacher and scholar, singing hymns of adoration we invoke you. Singing songs of joy we enkindle and celebrate you. With homage and reverence, we come and pray for protection, light and advancement.

2. Agneḥ stomam manāmahe sidhramadya divisprāśah. devasya draviṇasyavḥ.

With desire for the creation and achievement of the wealth and power of brilliant Agni, we study and concentrate on fire energy in focus and structure a joyous song of success in praise of the rich and generous power touching the lights of heaven and for sure that would make the achievement possible.

3. Agnirjuṣata no giro hotā yo mānuṣeṣvā. Sa yakṣad-daivyam janam.

Agni Devata, Sutambhara Atreya Rshi

1. Agni stomena bodhaya samidhńno amatryam.
Havyń deveńu no dadhat.

Light the immortal holy fire, physical, mental and spiritual, with a celebrative song of its attributes and qualities. Refulgent, it bears the wealth of life in nature's variations, carries the fragrance of oblations to these divinities and brings us the gifts of divinity to bless the nobilities of humanity.

2. Tamadhväreśvāte devaś martń amartyam.

That refulgent immortal divine fire bearing rich gifts, loved and most loving among the human community, the mortals light, serve and worship in creative, productive and holiest projects of yajna, love and non-violence in the service of the Lord and humanity.

3. Ta ś hi Üa ś vanta ś ūatē srucś devaś ghńtaś cutś.
Agni ś havyśya vōhave.

Agni, that divine refulgent generous power, the humans, immortal souls, with ladles dripping with ghrta, sprinkle, serve and worship so that it may carry their offerings across the spaces and bring them the sweets of yajna.

Agni, lighted, raised and manifesting, rises radiant and, destroying the negativities, dispelling the darkness and driving away the wicked with its blazing light, reaches over the earth and rays of the sun, waters in the middle regions of the skies and touches the lights of heaven.

5. Agnimīlenyāṁ kavīṁ ḍūtṛpṛṇṇaṁ saparyata.
Vetu me śṛṇavaddhavam.

Serve, develop, honour and worship Agni, adorable, poetic visionary of omniscience, shining bright on ghrta and rooted in fertility. May Agni hear and accept my invocation and prayer and come to bless my yajnic business of life.

The devotees light, raise and exalt Agni, light of life, ever wakeful watcher of the world, with songs of adoration, deeply meditative and highly eloquent, creased by realised souls with words of Divinity in the state of samadhi.

Mandala 5/Sukta 15

Agni Devata, Dharuna Angirasa Rshi

I bear and offer words of adoration in honour of Agni, omniscient presence, visionary creator, glorious and eternal lord worth knowing. Pleased with the offer of ghrta and sincere devotion in yajna, Agni is the breath of life, gracious, giver and commander of the wealth of existence, sustainer of the universe and ultimate haven of the world.

2. Ṛtena ṛtāṁ dharūṇaṁ dharayanta yajnasya śāke parame vyoman. Devo dharmān dharuṇe saduṣo nṛṇjātairajātāṁ abhi ye nanakṣuḥ.

Those who know and realise the unborn eternals of existence by the forms and functioning of the manifested mutables, and sit by the leading lights abiding by the sustainer of the laws of heavenly stars, would know the mysteries and power of yajna in the highest heaven, abide by the sustainer of the laws of Rtam, and realise the Truth, observing the laws by themselves.

Those who eliminate sin and perplexity grow inwardly in the self and offer incomparable gifts of austerities and meditation for the eternal power, Agni within. And he, the lordly power newly arisen in the soul, would, like a passionate lion, destroy the hostile powers prowling around.

4. Māteva yadbharase paprathāno janamajanaṁ dhāyase cakṣase ca. Vayovayo jarase yaddadhānah pari tmanā viṣurūpo jīgāsi.

Agni, rising and expansive, you bear and sustain every person like a mother, taking and giving food for nourishment and enlightenment. You go to everyone, shine as fire within for a new lease of life even for the weak, and in this way you glorify life, and by yourself go on self-revealing, taking on new and universal forms of life.
Agni, light of life, generous giver, may your omnipotence protect the strength and courage of humanity to the highest degree, our plenty and prosperity to the utmost bounds, and may you, we pray, protect the wealth of humanity like a guard holding his foot firmly down. And revealing the light of divinity in the cave of the heart, enlightening the devotee for great spiritual wealth, you bless all with the vision of Divinity.

Mandala 5/Sukta 16
Agni Devata, Puru Atreya Rshi

1. Bṛhadvayo hi bhānave’rcā devāyāgnaye. Yaṁ mitraṁ na praśastibhirṁartāso dadhire purah.

For heat and light, energy and power, and for vision and excellence in life, study, develop and revere that mighty inexhaustible Agni with vast and rich inputs, which like a friend, people have lighted and instituted as a prime and divine power with high praise and celebrations since the earliest times.

With light and power, and with holy acts, Agni, highpriest of humanity, giver of the strength of arms, bears our inputs to the divinities of nature and, like a friend, brings us cherished gifts of nature and Divinity.
Agni makes the development and achievement possible like Bhaga, excellence incarnate.

For heat and light, energy and power, and for vision and excellence in life, study, develop and revere that mighty inexhaustible Agni with vast and rich inputs, which like a friend, people have lighted and instituted as a prime and divine power with high praise and celebrations since the earliest times.

2. Sa hi dyubhir janōnōñō hotō dakṣāsyā bōhvo.

With light and power, and with holy acts, Agni, highpriest of humanity, giver of the strength of arms, bears our inputs to the divinities of nature and, like a friend, brings us cherished gifts of nature and Divinity.

In the song and celebration of this mighty power of excellence, in the friendship of this lord of high light and majesty, in this roaring power and energy, in this noble master of wealth and all round prosperity, Agni, in which all mankind place their faith and trust, let us all abide, invest, preserve and develop our power and potential, and from this let us receive our strength and fragrance of life.

Agni, lord refulgent of power and glory, bless these heroes with the gifts of strength and noble valour. As the heaven and earth go round that mighty sun in orbit and homage, so do the honour and valour of life’s dynamics move round you.

Agni, come and bless us now as ever, come roaring, rejoicing and joining our celebration, bring us the gifts we cherish. All of us here and all the brilliant brave wholly dedicated to you pray for peace and joy. Come as a friend, our own, promote and advance us in the battles of life’s dynamics.

Mandala 5/Sukta 17

Agni, come and bless us now as ever, come roaring, rejoicing and joining our celebration, bring us the gifts we cherish. All of us here and all the brilliant brave wholly dedicated to you pray for peace and joy. Come as a friend, our own, promote and advance us in the battles of life's dynamics.

Mandala 5/Sukta 17
Agni Devata, Puru Atreya Rshi

1. ॐ जयाः विद्युताय जीवताम् गृहाय गीताय।
   आग्निः कर्तवे स्वगुरु भवेत् स्वदेवं विद्युः प्रवर्त्त आय॥ ३ ॥

Devo na yasya retasā bṛhacchocantyarcayaḥ.

   O man, blest with the holy speech of communion and the divine light of this Agni, by whose energy-shower streams of adoration shine all round widely like rays of the sun, by that same holy light and divine speech destroy the want and suffering of existence.

2. ॐ जयाः विद्युताय जीवताम् गृहाय गीताया।

Adhā viśvāsu havyo’gnirvikṣu pra śasyate.

   By the yajna and holy action of this brilliant generous power, creators of positives and destroyers of negatives, men of wisdom and discernment, achieve wealth and circulation of wealth
by modes of transport and communication.
And then Agni, venerable power for development, is valued and honoured among all human habitations.

3. ॐ जयाः विद्युताय जीवताम् गृहाय गीताया।

   Brave men of knowledge, wisdom and brilliance study, produce and bring us cherished gifts of Agni, fire and electricity, gifts of divinity, by word of mouth and steady application. Agni, O power of permanence, for all our good, protect and promote energy, be strong and strengthen us for all our good and well-being, and stand by us for our success and advancement in our battles of the business of life.

Mandala 5/Sukta 18

Agni Devata, Dvita Mrktavaha Atreya Rshi

Let Agni, beloved of all people, freely roaming around as a visitor, be welcomed and honoured early morning, the immortal spirit and power which pervades, energises and beatifies all acts and things worth doing, giving and receiving among the mortals.

2. Dvitāya mṛktavāhase svasya dakṣasya mam-hanā. Induṁ sa dhatta ānuṣak stotā citte amartya.

Agni, immortal spirit and power, by virtue of the grandeur of your own potential bring light and sweetness, power and prosperity for dvita, dedicated celebrant twice born, educated and cultured, who loves free knowledge and bears the knowledge and power for your service only.

O dedicated celebrants, for you with holy words of prayer I invoke Agni, harbinger of light and power, good health and long age, that presiding power of yajna, that welcome visitor. O lord giver of speed, power and progress, Agni, I pray for them whose chariot, blest with light, power and prosperity as they are, rolls on unchallenged.

Who are the holy visitors like Agni? Who are the dedicated celebrants and yajnic devotees of Agni? Those in whom the light of Divinity shines bright and various, who preserve and promote holy songs of dedication and pursue yajnic actions, and who spread holy grass on the vedi, propagate knowledge, and bear and offer holy materials in yajnic projects of love and non-violence among people for the sake of peace and ultimate freedom of salvation.

5. Ye me pañcāśataṁ daduraśānāṁ sadhastuti. Dyumadagne mahi śravo bṛhatkṛdhi magho-nāṁ nṛvadamṛta nṛṇāṁ.
Those who give me fifty modes of speed and progress in life along with their description and words of thanks to Divinity, for those men of power and excellence among the leaders of humanity, O lord of light and heavenly knowledge, Agni, spirit of immortality, just like a human friend and leader, create and bring honour and glory of vast and universal order.

1. Abhyavasthāḥ pra jāyante pra vavrervavriściketa.
_Upasthe māturvi caṣṭe._

For the man of attainment, adverse circumstances do arise. Let the man in the real situation accept this eventuality. And then, let him be close to mother Divinity for light and rise to face it successfully.

जुहुर वि चितयन्ताचनिमिषं नृणं पांति।
आ तूड़ हां पुरं विविशुः॥ २॥

2. Juhure vi citayanto’nimishaṁ nṛmaṁ pānti.
Ā dṛḷhāṁ puraṁ viviśuḥ.

Those who challenge adverse circumstances and sit by Agni, light of Divinity, day and night without a wink of sleep, they enter the adamantine city celestial.

3. Ā śvaitreyasya jantavo dyumadvardhanta kṛṣṭayah. Niṣkgarīvo brhadukthāḥ enā madhvāḥ na vājayuḥ.

Living beings of spatial waters, common men on earth, the man wearing a golden necklace, and the priest chanting loud hymns, loving and wanting food and energy sweet as honey, all grow by the energy of vital fire and, with holy chant and yajnic action, develop the light and power of brilliant Agni.

Friend and associate of heaven and earth, intrepidable, eternal, dynamic, like the vital fire of the body which assimilates all it receives for energy, I, living fire of existence, receive and assimilate all I love as delicious milk and remain unconquered.

5. Krīḷanno raśma ā bhuvah saṁ bhasmanā vāyunā vevidānaḥ. Tā asya sandhrśajō na tigmāḥ susamśitā vakṣyo vakṣaṇeṣṭhāḥ.

Agni, radiant as rays of the sun, sporting with the wind and self-declaring with heat and ash, come and be good to us, and so too may be those potent flames of yours, fierce, fiery, sharp and penetrating, fully collected and intensified in form in vehicles and batteries for transport and communication.
Agni Devata, Prayaswantah Atreyah Rshis

1. Yamagne vājasātama tvaṁ cinmanyase rayim.

   Agni, scholar of eminence, expert in matters of food, energy, success and victory in the affairs of life, whatever you think is the real wealth worthy to be heard of, acknowledged, and, accepted for application as friendly and companionable power, speak to us among the generous and illuminative divines in words of truth in faith with admiration.

2. Ye agne nerayanti te vṛddhā ugrasya śavasaḥ.
   Apa dveśo apa hvaro’nyavratasya saścire.

   Agni, these senior dedicated devotees of yours, who take to the strength of your power and passion for truth, do not waver in their faith, they keep away from malice, crookedness, double dealing and tortuous behaviour.

   Yajñeṣu pūrvyāṁ girā praysvanto havā-mahe.

   Agni, we opt for dedication to you, original yajaka, generous giver, agent and instrument of strength and success, and, creatively endeavouring in our yajnic programmes, we invoke and invite you with the holy voice of faith.

1. Yamagene vājasūtama tvaṃ cinmanyase rayim.
   Taṃ no gṛbhiṁ Üravasya devatrāṇa panayā yujam.

Agni, scholar of eminence, expert in matters of food, energy, success and victory in the affairs of life, whatever you think is the real wealth worthy to be heard of, acknowledged, and, accepted for application as friendly and companionable power, speak to us among the generous and illuminative divines in words of truth in faith with admiration.

2. Ye agne nerayanti te vṛddhaḥ ugrasya Üavasa¬.
   Apa dveṣo apa hvaro'nyavratasya saucire.

Agni, these senior dedicated devotees of yours, who take to the strength of your power and passion for truth, do not waver in their faith, they keep away from malice, crookedness, double dealing and tortuous behaviour.

3. Hotram tvā vṛṣmahe'gne dakṣāyasya sūdha-nam.
   Yajûje pūrvyaś girī praysvanto hav średni¬.

Agni, we opt for dedication to you, original yajaka, generous giver, agent and instrument of strength and success, and, creatively endeavouring in our yajnic programmes, we invoke and invite you with the holy voice of faith.

4. Itthā yathā ta ūtaye sahasāvan divedive. Rāya rtāya sukra tō gobhiḥ syāma sadhamādo viraiḥ syāma sadhamādaḥ.

O lord giver of strength and light of life, enlighten us so that we may, under your protection, advance on way to wealth and rectitude day by day, and by our words and voice be your companions and co-dwellers in the home, blest with brave children.

Mandala 5/Sukta 21

Agni Devata, Sasa Atreya Rshi

1. Manuṣvattvā ni dhīmaḥi manuṣvat-samidhī-mahi.
   Agne manuṣvadaṅgiro devān-devayate yaja.

Agni, light of life, like a living human presence we meditate on you. Like a living human power, we enkindle, serve and develop you. O breath of life, Angira, like a human power and sagely presence, inspire the brilliant and generous sages with the light of life for the sake of those who love the divinities.

2. त्वं हि मानुष जनचय तु पीत कृध्यस।

2. Tvam hi mānuṣe jane’gne suprīta idhyase.
   Srucastvā yantyānuṣak sujāta sarpirāsute.

   Agni, fire of life, loved and kindled, you shine and blaze in the human community. Excellent in form and beauty by birth and nature you are, and ladles full of ghrta move to you in love and faith and, on the oblations of ghrta, you rise and shine among humanity.

3. Tvāṁ viśve sajośaso devāsos dūtamakrata.
   Saparyantastvā kave yajñeṣu devamīṭate.

   All the divine powers of nature and all brilliant sages of humanity in one accord, with love and reverence for you, install you as the conductor and carrier of their yajna forward. Serving you, O visionary of poetic excellence, they honour and worship you as a divine power in their yajnas of creative and corporate projects.

4. Devaṁ vo devayajyayā’gnimīḷīta martyāḥ.
   Samiddhaḥ śukra dīdihyṛtasya yonimāsadaḥ sasasya yonimāsadaḥ.

   O sages and scholars, with your service in yajnas of love and non-violence in honour of the divinities of nature and noble humanity, man serves and worships the generous and radiant Agni. O radiant power and presence, Agni, pure and potent, lighted and raised to the full, shine on, illuminate the truth of existence and the flow of life from the particle onward and reveal the chain of cause and effect in the process of evolution.

Mandala 5/Sukta 22

Agni Devata, Vishvasama Atreya Rshi

O vishvasaman, master of all world power and property, songs of praise and prayer, peace and tranquillity, shine, illuminate, develop, honour and sing in celebration of Agni, blazing as fire, pure and potent power and presence of nature and humanity, yajaka, creator and giver, most enlightened and blissful among people, worthy of song and celebration in yajnic projects. Celebrate Agni like Atri, man of vast knowledge and freedom from suffering.

Hold on to Agni, meditate, worship the power omnipresent in things born, generous Divinity, cosmic yajaka in seasons of time, holiest friend and companion, haven and home of divinities such as earth and heaven, and ultimately the power that winds up the cosmic game. May that Power and Presence, most intimate, reveal Itself in the heart, the friend, the Self.
3. Cikitvinmanasāṁ tvā devaṁ martāsa ūtaye. Vareṇyasya te‘vasa iyānāso amanmahi.

Agni, refulgent lord of life and giver of light, we mortals, approaching the generous lord of supreme intelligence worthy of choice for protection and enlightenment, meditate on your presence and pray for the favour of your grace.

4. Agne cikiddhyasya na idaṁ vacaṁ sahasya. Tam tvā suśripa dampate stomairvardhan-tyatrayo gīrbhiḥ śumbhantyatrayah.

Agni, giver of strength and courage, listen to this word of our prayer for light, protection and advancement. O lord of gracious visor and presiding power of the home and family, celebrants free from three kinds of suffering, of body, mind and soul, exalt you with songs of celebration, supplicants free from three kinds of passion, hate, anger and greed, adore you with words of worship.

   Agna eṣu kṣayeṣvā revanah śukra dīdihi dyumat pāvaka dīdihi.

   Agni, that all watchful commander of the world brings us challenging strength and victorious force. Agni, light of life and ruler of the world, in these homes and places, shine, lord of wealth, shine for us, fire pure and light illuminating, shine in command of the wealth and honour of humanity.

Mandala 5/Sukta 24

_Agni Devata, Bandhu, Subandhu, Shrutabandhu, Viprabandhu Gopayana or Laupayana Rshis_

1. *Agni, lord of light, fire of life, you are our closest friend and saviour. Be good and gracious, the very spirit and security of the home for the inmates._

2. *Agni, you are the home and shelter of the world. Pure and purifier, you create and give the food for life and energy, wealth and honour. Give us the food, energy and light of life. Come and pervade this home as the very spirit and security._

3. *Such is Agni. May the lord awaken us, listen, enlighten us. Hear our prayer, save us from all sin. We want no sin. We love no sin and evil._

4. *Lord most pure and purifying, light of illumination, with all our friends, for sure, we pray to you for peace and life's well being._

Mandala 5/Sukta 25

_Agni Devata, Vasuyavah Atreya Rshis_

1. *Sing well of Agni, light of Divinity, with enthusiasm, for your protection and progress. He, spirit of truth and rectitude, who inspires the sages with the light of truth and life's stability may, we pray, give us wealth and stability. Agni is a saviour as a son is, overcomes hate and enmity and takes us across the seas of life._

2. *Vasuragnir-vasuśravā acchā nakṣi dyumattamam rayim dāḥ._

3. *Surely, desire and desire the human beings, who are in this world, that all may be removed._
3. Sa no bodhi śrudhī havamuruṣyā ṇo aghāyataḥ samasmāt.

Such is Agni. May the lord awaken us, listen, enlighten us. Hear our prayer, save us from all sin. We want no sin. We love no sin and evil.

Lord most pure and purifying, light of illumination, with all our friends, for sure, we pray to you for peace and life’s well being.

Mandala 5/Sukta 25

Agni Devata, Vasuyavah Atreya Rshis

1. Acchā vo agnimavase devaṁ gāsi sa no vasuḥ. Rāsat putra ṛṣūnāṁrtāvā parṣati dviṣaḥ.

Sing well of Agni, light of Divinity, with enthusiasm, for your protection and progress. He, spirit of truth and rectitude, who inspires the sages with the light of truth and life’s stability may, we pray, give us wealth and stability. Agni is a saviour as a son is, overcomes hate and enmity and takes us across the seas of life.
2. Sa hi satyo yaṁ pūrve cid devāsaścid yamīdhire.
   Hotāram mandrajihvamit sudītibhirvibhāvasum.

That alone is true, unquestionable and inviolable whom the seniors and brilliant sages kindle and install on the vedi, the leader and ruler, liberal giver and host of yajna, sweet and serious of tongue and commander of wealth and splendour by virtue of his innate light and flames of holy fire.

(Swami Dayananda applies this mantra to the choice and investiture of a ruler.)

Agni, O lord of our love and choice, life of life, light of the world, give us the stability of mind and intelligence and, alongwith the highest, choicest and best thought and understanding, kindle and bring us splendid wealth with do’s and don’ts of holy teaching.

4. Agnirdevaṇu rājayagnir-marteṣvāvīsan.

Agni, life of life, light of existence, revealing intelligence, natural energy, leading light, pervades, energises, inspires, shines, illuminates and enlightens as it is present in divinities such as earth, and nobilities such as scholars and sages, and vibrates in all mortals.
O scholars and sages, serve, pursue, and develop Agni with the best of your intelligence and understanding.

5. Agnis-tuviśravastamāṁ tuvibrahmāṇamuttamam.
   Atūrtam śrāvayatpatim putram dadāti dāśuṣe.

   Agni, generous light of yajna, gives to a liberal yajaka and man of charity progeny fond of study and listening, abundant in food and wealth, widely read in sacred lore, most virtuous and invincible, who brings honour and glory to the parents.

6. Agniraddāti satpatim sāsāha yo yudhā nr bhīḥ.

   Agni, lord of light and ruler, gives us a leader, ruler, and progeny who protects and supports the good, who fights and wins over evil with arms and forces, and to this invincible victor he gives transport and communications of fastest efficiency.

7. Yad vāhiṣṭham tadagnaye brhadarca vibhāvaso.
   Mahiśīva tvad rayistvad vājā uḍirate.

   The fastest transport, fastest communication, lightning adoration is for Agni, lord of light and power. Shine high and wide and intense, blazing power, and as all greatness and grandeur flows from you, so do all wealth, all energy and all victories flow from you.

8. Tava dyumanto arcayo grāvevocyate brhat.

_Uto te tanyaturyathā svāno artha tmanā divaḥ._

Blazing are your flames of fire, radiant your rays of light. Your identity is proclaimed like rumble of the cloud, and your voice like thunder and lightning radiates from heavens by itself.

_Sa no viśva ati dviṣaḥ parśannāveva sukratuḥ._

Thus do we, aspiring for wealth and power, adore and celebrate you, lord of forbearance, challenge and victory. May Agni, omnipotent lord of holy action, save us and, like a boat over seas, help us cross over all hate and enmity of the world.

Mandala 5/Sukta 26

_Agni Devata, Vasuyavah Atreya Rshis_

Agni, light of Divinity, fire of life, generous and brilliant giver of knowledge and enlightenment, with a sweet and lustrous tongue, bright and blissful, you bear and bring the divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity to the vedi and serve them from here with light and energy.

तं त्वा गृह्तस्त्रवीमहु चित्रभानाः स्वदूर्गम।
दुर्वाँ आ वीतय वह॥ २ ॥

2. Taṁ tvā ghṛtasnavīmahe citrabhāno svardṛśam.
Devāṁ ā vītaye vaha.

Agni, pure and purifier, light of fire feeding on ghrta, showerer of life’s beauty and grace, shining with manifold lustre, indeed the very light and bliss of heaven, we pray: With a sweet and lustrous tongue of flame full of bliss, bring for us the nobilities and divinities of nature and humanity for a feast of pleasure and enlightenment and serve them with love and reverence.

वीतिहात्र त्वा कव दुमन्तं समिथ्यमहि।
अग्र बृहन्तमध्वर॥ ३ ॥

3. Vitihotraṁ tvā kave dyumantam samidhīmahi.
Agne bṛḥantam-adhvare.

Agni, creative visionary of the light of heaven, in our yajnic project of love and non-violence, we invoke and enkindle you, universally great, self-refulgent and giver of the gifts of peace and enlightenment.

अग्र बिश्वाभिरा गंहि दुमभिव्यददातय।
हातारं त्वा वृणीमह॥ ४ ॥

4. Agne viśvebhirā gahi devebhir-havyadātaye.
Hotāram tvā vṛṇīmahe.

Agni, light and fire of yajna, spirit of creation and cooperation, come with all the divinities and nobilities of nature and humanity for the presentation of the fruits of yajnic creation. We elect and invite you as the presiding priest and the chief yajaka.

यर्जमानाय सुन्त्रत आग्ने सुवीर्यं वह।
दुर्वश सत्सि बहिष्मि॥ ५ ॥

5.  Yajamānāya sunvata āgne suvīryam vaha.
Devairā satṣi barhiṣi.

Agni, giver of the prizes of yajna, come with the divinities, sit with the nobilities on the holy grass in the holy assembly, bearing noble vigour and splendour for the host of yajna who prepares and offers the pleasure and power of peace and excellence in the yajna and bless him and all.

सुमिधान: सहस्रजिज्ञ धर्माणि पुष्यसि।
दुवानां दूत उक्थ्यः॥ ६ ॥

Devānāṁ dūta uktvyah.

Agni, burning and blazing, winning a thousand forces over, you protect and promote the universal values of knowledge and practical conduct in cooperation. Surely you are the adorable harbinger of the bounties of God and nature for humanity.

न्यौगिण्या जातवर्दसं हात्रवाहुं यविष्ठग्राम।
दधोता दुर्वमृत्विज्ञ ॥ ७ ॥

7.  Nyagnīṁ jātavedasāṁ hotravāhāṁ yaviṣṭhyam.
Dadhātā devam-ṛtvijam.

Hold on to Agni, light and fire of life, pervasive in all things in existence, bearer of yajna fragrance, most youthful energy, and divine yajaka of nature and humanity.

8.
Pra yajña etvānuṣagadyā devavyacastamaḥ.
Strñīta barhirāsade.

May the yajna, creative and fragrant activity of mankind and nature, spread around in due order and reach the bounds of divinities pervasive unto the ends of the expansive universe. Come ye devout performers, spread the holy grass for the yajnas and expansion of the fire and fragrance.

9.
Edaṁ maruto aśvinā mitraḥ sīdantu varuṇaḥ.
Devāsah sarvayā viśā.

May the Maruts, dynamic leaders, Ashvins, complementary powers like teachers and preachers, friends, Varuna, judges, and brilliant nobilities with all the people come, and sit on this vedi for yajna.

Mandala 5/Sukta 27

Agni and Indra-Agni Devata, Tryaruna Traivrshna, Trasadasyu, Paurukutsa, Ashva-medha Bharata, or Atri Bhauma Rshis
1. Anasvantu satpatirmamahe me gavā cetiṣṭho asuro maghonaḥ. Traivṛṣṇo agne daśabhiḥ sahasrair-vaiśvānara tryaruṇaściketa.

Agni, life and leader of humanity, the Lord, protector and sustainer of the true and the good, giver of higher knowledge, mighty powerful and dear as breath of life, shower of bliss for and from the earth and heaven and the sky, commanding existence, omniscience and beatitude, has blest me with tens, hundreds and thousands of cows and transports. I honour and exalt the lord of all wealth and power and pray the lord may know my people and my gifted power and potential and protect the same.

2. Yo me śatā ca viṁśatim ā ca gonaṁ harī ca yuktā sudhurā dadāti. Vaiśvānara suṣṭuto vāvr-dhāno'gne yaccha tryaruṇāya śarma.

Agni, life and light pervasive in the world, leader of entire humanity, honoured, exalted and exalting in the universe, you give me teams of twenty and hundred cows and horses yoked to well structured and firmly balanced chariots, pray give a happy and comfortable home for the man aspiring for the truth, beauty and goodness of life.

3. Evā te agne sumatiṁ cakāno naviṣṭhāya navamaṁ trasadasyuḥ. Yo me girastuvijātasya pūrvīryukte-nābhi tryaruṇo griṇāti.
O lord of light and life, Agni, thus does Trasadasyu, the man terror for the wicked, aspiring for favour of your attention and kindness, Tryaruna, blest with physical health, mental insight and spiritual vision, with concentrative mind sings anew in praise of you, lord ever fresh and most youthful, who ‘for me (i.e.Trasadasyu, Tryaruna) reveal the ancient and eternal Word of omniscient awareness’.

या म इति पुवाचत्वश्चर्मधाय सूर्यः

4.   Yo ma iti pravocatyaśvamedhāya sūraye.
      Dadadṛcā sanim yate dadanmedhāṁṛtāyate.

   “Who for me reveals the ancient and eternal Word...”, whoever speaks thus in homage to Agni in the interest of the social order of the world and for advancement of the brave, enlightened people, to him, endeavouring with holy chant, may Agni give wealth, to him, aspiring for truth and rectitude, may the lord grant the light of divine intelligence.

यस्य मा परुषाः: शतमुद्धर्षयत्यन्त्यर्गः ||
अश्वमधास्य दाना: सामाङ्गव्र्यांशिर: || ५ ||

5.   Yasya mā paruṣāḥ śatamuddharṣayantu-kuśaṇah.
      Aśvamedhasya dānāḥ somā iva tryāsirah.

   The loud and bold voices, creative acts and generous gifts of ‘ashvamedha’, national yajna in relation to threefold programmes for life, environment and energy, like a drink of soma, give me pleasure in a hundred ways.
6. Indragnī śatadāvnyaśvamedhe suvīryam.
   Kṣatrāṁ dhārayatam brhad divi sūryamivājaram.

May Indra and Agni, knowledge and power, force of law and enlightenment, generous and giving in a hundred ways, in this ashvamedha yajna, i.e., non-violent holy plan and programme of national development and governance, enact, uphold and sustain the social order as they hold the sun in the vast heaven. Unaging, ever young harbingers of honour and valour to the system, ever fresh they are.

Mandala 5/Sukta 28

Agni Devata, Vishvavara Atreyi Rshi

1. Samiddho agnirdivi sociraśret pratyānuṣasasamurviyā vi bhāti. Eti prācī viśvavārā namobhir-devāṇ īlānā haviṣā ghṛtācī.

The fire of yajna, kindled and rising, reaches the light and energy in the solar sphere and, with its various and expansive lustre, extends to the dawn, and then the East. Vishvavara, laden with versatile food and energy for the world, activating nature’s bounties like a yajnic ladle full of ghṛta, it illuminates and showers the world with gifts of Divinity at the end of the dewy night.
2. Samidhyamāṇo amṛtasya rājasi havīśkṛṇvantam sa case svastaye. Viśvam sa dhatte draviṇam yaminvasyātīthyamagne ni ca dhatta it purāh.

Agni, O light and fire of life, kindled and raised in the vedi and in the mind, you rise and shine in the midst of immortality and abide with the supplicant yajaka as a friend for his life’s well being. Whoever you inspire, invigorate and, as a friend, take up under your care and protection, the person wins, holds and commands the world’s wealth in existence and, since then for all time, O light divine, he offers service with complete surrender in obedience to your will like hospitality in obligation to an honoured guest.

Agni, mighty power, may your highest gifts of wealth, honour and splendour be for great good fortune and well being in life. Make our homes full of conjugal bliss, well maintained with discipline and control. Help us face and fight out the greatest enemies in the conflicts of life.
4. Samiddhasya pramahaso’gne vande tava śriyam.
Vṛṣabho dyumnavāṇi asi samadhvareṣ-vidhyase.

Agni, mighty ruling power of the world, burning bright and great, I honour and adore your wealth and splendour. Valorous and generous, prosperous and majestic, you shine glorious in the yajnic projects of the world.

5. Samiddho agna āhuta devān yakṣi svadhvara.
Tvam hi havyavālasi.

Agni, invoked, kindled and raised to the full in light and splendour, you honour and inspire the nobilities of humanity and feed and replenish the bounties of nature. O noble power of the yajnas of love and non-violence, you are the receiver and disseminator of our oblations and you are the harbinger of the gifts of nature’s bounties.

6. Ā juhotā duvasyatā’gnim prayatyadhvare.
Vṛṣīdhvam havyavāhanam.

O man, honour and serve Agni with offers of fragrant havi in creative and developmental programmes of love and non-violence in humanity. Select, elect and serve the light and fire of life, receiver of our oblations and giver of the gifts of life and nature.

(Swami Dayananda interprets Agni as the fire of yajna, as the scholar and teacher who gives knowledge, and as the ruler who receives, creates and distributes the wealth in the social order of humanity with love and without violence.)

Mandala 5/Sukta 29

Indra, Indra Ushana Devata, Gauriviti Shaktya Rshi

च्ययुमा मनुषा दुवतात्त्री रचना दिव्या धारयन्त। अचर्नि त्वा मुरुतैः पूर्तद् ग्रस्तवमण्डृष्णिन्द्रसिध्यः धीरः: || १ ||

   Indra, lord of power and ruling power of the world, in the holy yajna of the social order, its governance and administration, those heroes of the speed of winds honour and serve you whose strength and expertise is pure and sanctified: men of judgement and discretion who are thrice blest with full knowledge, noble action and devotion to Divinity; men of brilliance who are self-established with health of body, mind and soul, familial joy and social commitment; and men who enjoy the favour and grace of Divinity. Indra, you are their seer, philosopher and guide, imperturbable, inviolable and unchallengeable.

नु यदीः मुरुतैः मन्दसान्माधरिन्द्र-पपिवांसं सुतस्यै।

2. Anu yadīṁ maruto mandasānamārcannindram papivāṃsaṁ sutasya. Ādatta vajramabhi yadahīṁ hannapo yahvīrasṛjat sarvatā u.

   With dedication and loyalty, when the Maruts, supportive heroes of the social order, serve and honour Indra, the ruler, happy and honourable, ruling and enjoying the state entrusted to him, then, just as the sun with thunder and lightning breaks up the clouds and releases the showers and mighty streams aflow, he too takes over the thunderbolt of law and power and, striking the serpentine demons of darkness and evil, sets the mighty streams of national energy to flow in showers and creative streams.

उत्त ब्रह्माण्य महता म अस्त्यन्तः सामास्य सुभुतस्य पया: ।
tadbhirya मनुष्य गा अर्भिन्ददहुः गहीं पपिवाँ इन्द्रा अस्य ॥ ३ ॥

3.  Uta brahmāṇo maruto me asyendraḥ somasya susūtasya peyāḥ. Taddhi havyaṁ manuṣe gā avindad-ahann-ahim papivāṁ indro asya.

And may the Maruts, heroes of the winds, dedicated to Brahma and the Vedas and the ruling lord Indra, now drink of this soma of national honour and glory so well distilled by me. That honour and glory alone, dedicated to Divinity in yajna, for man can win cows and lands and holy wisdom, of which Indra alone is the guardian, having destroyed the forces of evil.

4.  Ād rodasī vitaram vi śkabhāyat saṁvivyānaścid bhiyase mṛgam kaḥ. Jigartim-indro apajargurā-ṇāḥ prati śvasantamava dānavam han.

And then Indra holds and firms up the earth and heaven separate and yet together pervading both with his presence and power just like separating a fear-stricken deer and a devouring tiger by the power of his presence and holding off the demon tiger snorting fiercely.

(Compare the laws of gravitation separating and holding together in firm relationship two heavenly bodies according to their mass and distance under the presiding presence of the force of natural omnipotence.)

5. Adha kratvā maghavan tubhyāṁ devā anu viśve adaduḥ somapeyam. Yat sūryasya haritaḥ patantīḥ puraḥ saṅruparā etaśe kaḥ.

And further, O lord of honour and power of omnipotence, all the divinities of nature and humanity offer you the drink of soma in response to your yajnic action of systemic integration and sustenance when the various rays of the sun radiating forward all round and nourishing life stop on the planet on your behest (to feed life and drink up the sweet juices of soma).

When Indra with thunder and lightning destroys ninetynine serpentine strongholds of evil and darkness obstructing the light of Divinity in this world, then the Maruts, guardian forces of humanity on earth, honour and adore the omnipotent lord with trishtubha hymns of celebration.

Sakhā sakhye apacat tūyamagnirasya kratvā mahiṣā tṛī śatāni. Trī sākamindro manuṣah sarāṃsi sutam piṇḍad vṛtrahatayāya somam

Agni, a friend, for a friend, Indra, alongwith Indra and the holy action of Indra, the sun, in this world soon ripens the sap in three hundred fields and forests of man, and then Indra, great and generous, drinks up the soma in order to break the clouds of rain and let the rivers flow to fill three great lakes in three worlds of heaven, earth and sky.
9. Uśanā yat sahasyairayātam .graymindra jūjuvānebhiraśvaiḥ. Vanvāno atra saratham yayātha kutsena devairavanorha śuṣṇam.

Indra, glorious ruler, when the man of light and passion and you both come home by chariot driven by swift and robust horses, then, again with love and desire for victory, pray go with the thunderbolt and the best of the brilliancies and defend the strength and honour of the nation.

10. Prānyaccakramavr̥haḥ sūrasya kustāyānyad varivo yātave’kaḥ. Anāso dasyūṇamr̥no vadhexa ni duryoṇa āvṛṇañ mṛdhra-vācaḥ.

Extend the orbit of enlightenment for the thunderbolt. Clear the paths and areas for development, peace and freedom of movement. Eliminate the shameless, the wicked and the thieves with punishment, and stop the entry of the malicious, throw them in jail.

11. Stomāsastvā gaurivāteravardhannarandhayo vadathināyā piprum. Ā tvāmrjiśvā sakhyāya cakre pacan pakīrapibah somamasya.

May the eulogies of the poetic lovers of song and their singers exalt you. Punish the man who exalts and raises the warring forces against you. Let the men of simple honest mind be keen to make friends with you. Maturing and completing the plans and programmes of the state, celebrate and enjoy the honour and splendour of the order.

12. Navagvāsaḥ sutasomāsa indraṁ daśagvāso abhyarcantyarkaiḥ. Gvyāṁ cidūrvamapidhāna-vantam te cinnarah śaśamānā apa vran.

Men of new ideas treading new paths of knowledge and polity, men of controlled mind and senses, celebrants ready with distilled exhilarating soma, adore Indra with songs and presentations of homage and, celebrating him, the dedicated admirers, best of men and leaders, extol him revealing his vast but hidden virtues of divine knowledge.

13. Katho nu te pari carāṇi vidvān vīryā maghavan yā cakartha. Yā co nu navyā kṛṣṇavāḥ śaviśṭha predu tā te vidatheṣu bravāma.

Indra, ruler of the world, mightiest hero commanding wealth, power, honour and excellence, sage and scholar, how shall we, in yajnic assemblies of the nation, fully describe, sing and celebrate your achievements and your potential, the exploits that you have done and those new ones you are sure to achieve henceforth?

All these many exploits of the world [from creation and sustenance to organisation, organisational elimination included], Indra, ruler and lord of power and excellence, which you have done and which you would do, unresisted and irresistible, by nature and nurture, by vigour and valour, O wielder of the thunderbolt, bold and terrific, no one can comprehend. There is none who can obstruct, hold or surpass those overwhelming powers and forces of yours.

15. Indra brahma kriyamāṇā juṣasva yā te śaviṣṭha navyā akarma. Vastreva bhadrā sukṛtā vasūyū ratham na dhīraḥ svapā atakṣam.

Indra, the holy chant and homage of gifts, newest and latest, being offered, graciously accept and cherish, which, for you, O lord most powerful, we have created. Like a beautiful dress of thought and devotion, I, a sincere artist in pursuit of life’s wealth and peace and a steadfast and skilful maker, have designed and created the song like a chariot.
Mandala 5/Sukta 30

Indra, Indra and Rnanchaya Devata, Babhru Atreya Rshi

   Where is that thunderous catalytic power? Who saw that Indra, harbinger of peace and comfort travelling like a pleasing chariot along the waves of attraction and repulsion which, laden with wealth and wielding the force of thunder moves on and, invoked and invited by many for protection and promotion, goes to the house of the host with desire for the taste of life’s pleasure?

   With the desire to pursue and achieve success, I have discovered and described the science of this mighty source of immanent energy. Let me consult and ask others too who would speak of Indra, the energy, to me. And the best of men and leading scholars among men, enlightened all, we would realise and achieve it in full.
3. Pra nu vayam sute yā te kṛtāndra bravāma yāni no jujoṣāh. Vedaṇavidvānchṛṇavacca vidvān vahate’yaṁ maghava sarvasenaḥ.

   The knowledge acquired and energy created in practice, O scholar, Indra, let us speak of and proclaim your achievements which you share with us. Let those who don’t know hear and know of it too. This scholar who bears the knowledge and power is the mighty possessor of honour and excellence, and he commands all the power and the forces.

4. Sthiram manasiaṃcakrṣe jāta indra veśideko yudhaye bhūyasaścit. Aśmānaṃ cicchhasā didyuto vi vido gavāmūrvamusriyāṇām.

   Indra, commander of light, knowledge and power, rising, you firm and resolve the mind to stability and constancy. In battle, you alone, by yourself, overcome many. You illuminate the cloud and the firmament and break the mountain with your power and force, and you recover and reveal the vastness of earth, the sun rays, the wisdom of knowledge and the ocean fire enshrined in words.

5. Paro yat tvam parama ājaniśṭhāḥ parāvati śrutyam nāma bibhrat. Ataścindindrabha-yanta devā viśvā apo ajayad dāsapatnīḥ.
When you, highest and best power, arise and manifest, bearing great name and high renown in far off regions, and win over and release the waters concealed in the cloud, since then all the forces of nature accept the power of Indra and obey the divine law.

Vibrant heroes and these yajakas in obedient service offer you songs of adoration, prepare the food and distil the soma for you, Indra. And with his wondrous forces, Indra engages the crafty cloud holding the waters by his deceptive wiles and sleeping like a giant in apparent security.

Indra, commander of honour and valour, ruling lord of excellence, from your very emergence thirsting for battle, breaking the cloud with the roar of thunder and lightning, energising and winning prizes for humanity with the desire to make way for progress, you arise here and now and break the stronghold of the dark cloud locking up the waters of rain showers.
When you, highest and best power, arise and manifest, bearing great name and high renown in far off regions, and win over and release the waters concealed in the cloud, since then all the forces of nature accept the power of Indra and obey the divine law.

Make me your friend and instrument since you break the top of the cloud, replete with vapours but resistant to release the rain, hold the firmament wheeling, circling and resounding, and divide space into earth and heaven and make them turn round and round like wheels for the winds to blow in the firmament and the humans to live on the earth.

Dasa, enemy of an inferior order, uses women as secret weapons and warriors. But what can these poor forces do against me (in violation of my discretion]. Let the ruler, Indra, see deep into both the language and warriors [of this enemy, the open policy and the secret tactics), and then advance upon the slavish enemy to engage him in battle.

If the cows exult in unison with calves everywhere, if the sunrays play together on the herbs, if the lands smile with greenery and the earth rejoices with her children, and then, suppose the cows were separated from the calves, the rays of the sun were intercepted from the herbs, the lands were locked off from greenery, the earth were bereft of her children, then must Indra, brilliant ruler of the earth and the skies, should join the mothers and children with his might so that the soma drinks distilled may gladden him and his ruling order.

11. _Yadīṁ somā babhrudhūtā amandannaroravīḍ vṛṣabhaḥ sādanaesu. Purandaraḥ papivāṇ indro asya punargavāmadadādusriyāṇāṁ._

When the somas, honours and pleasures of the earth, created, distilled and energised by the sagely scholars and people of yajnic creativity, exhilarate Indra, the ruler and his order, then the generous and valorous lord roars in the assemblies and in the homesteads and he, breaker of the enemy strongholds, having drunk of the honour and glory of the nation, again gives to the nation fertile lands, cows, open sunlight and words of holy speech.

If the cows exult in unison with calves everywhere, if the sunrays play together on the herbs, if the lands smile with greenery and the earth rejoices with her children, and then, suppose the cows were separated from the calves, the rays of the sun were intercepted from the herbs, the lands were locked off from greenery, the earth were bereft of her children, then must Indra, brilliant ruler of the earth and the skies, should join the mothers and children with his might so that the soma drinks distilled may gladden him and his ruling order.

11. When the somas, honours and pleasures of the earth, created, distilled and energised by the sagely scholars and people of yajnic creativity, exhilarate Indra, the ruler and his order, then the generous and valorous lord roars in the assemblies and in the homesteads and he, breaker of the enemy strongholds, having drunk of the honour and glory of the nation, again gives to the nation fertile lands, cows, open sunlight and words of holy speech.

12. Agni, refulgent ruler, it is a great blessing of Indra, the sun, giver of four thousand rays of light, wealth of existence, and destroyers of negativities, which he collects from nature, and gives us. He is the best leader and guide of humanity, and with gratitude and best efforts we should acknowledge and benefit from these gifts of energy and power.

13. Agni, refulgent ruler, brilliant forces, destroyers of evil and darkness, create and give me a beautiful home with a thousand bright rays of light, and at the end of the departing night in the light of the dawn, blazing fires bear distilled soma oblations and rise to Indra, the sun, and give him delight.

14. Agni, refulgent ruler, brilliant forces, destroyers of evil and darkness, create and give me a beautiful home with a thousand bright rays of light, and at the end of the departing night in the light of the dawn, blazing fires bear distilled soma oblations and rise to Indra, the sun, and give him delight.
When the fugitive night of rest and peace in the home departs, having made up the want of light at the rise of dawn, blest and beautiful, collecting and bearing nature’s gifts, then babhru, the crimson sun, sustainer of life, moving like a flying horse at instant speed, showers four thousand gifts of energy and intelligence and the creative yajaka receives and shares the gifts on and from the vedi.

Agni, O self-refulgent light of life, glorious ruler of the world, let us receive and share four thousand gifts of the wealth of light, energy and intelligence present in the lights of the dawn, and let us, O friends of knowledge, vibrant scholars, receive and share that golden wealth and heat of life which is tempered and refined in the pravargya yajna of self sacrifice and surrender.

Indra, lord of honour and excellence, commander of power and forces, accelerates whichever supersonic chariot he rides and inspires whichever region he rules for a great leap forward to the heights. All round protector and pioneer, like a shepherd who leads and drives his flock and followers forward, he gives the clarion call, gathers his forces with the desire to advance and win, and goes fast forward, unhurt and unobstructed, first and foremost leader and pioneer thirsting to realise his ambition.

with the growth of health and vitality, then let Indra, the disciplined soul, control and command all the senses, mind and intellect, awaken and exercise the creative potentials innate but yet dormant within, and with inner light of the soul keep off the resurgent darkness.

Indra, mighty ruler, expert craftsmen design and make the chariot for your fast movement and communication, the defence scientist and engineer, Tvashtā, makes the blazing thunderbolt for you, and the scholars of the Veda celebrate your power and glory with hymns of adoration and exalt you to break the demonic cloud of darkness and want for showers of rain and prosperity.

Indra, ruler of honour and excellence, when the brave warriors and noble citizens offer songs of adoration to you, then, O generous lord, the clouds and the sky in unison with them and with you and those dynamic powers even without horse and chariot, inspired by your power and grace, surround the wicked and destroy them.

Indra Devata, Samvarana Prajapatyā Rshi

For the sake of great strength and power, let me thus focus on the people who are not too strong and draw the attention of this mighty ruler, Indra, who, honoured and admired among people, is keen to fight for progress and, in the struggle onward, enlightens our mind and directs our efforts on the right path.

And you Indra, master and ruler of the nation, commanding power and prosperity, generous as showers of rain, thus addressed with reverence and listening to our prayer, take up the reins of the people, be with them and harness their energy, and with love and faith pursue the noble policies for advancement to completion.

For the sake of great strength and power, let me thus focus on the people who are not too strong and draw the attention of this mighty ruler, Indra, who, honoured and admired among people, is keen to fight for progress and, in the struggle onward, enlightens our mind and directs our efforts on the right path.

2. Sa tvāṁ na indrā dhiyasāno arkairhariṇāṁ vrṣan yoktramaśreḥ. Yā itthā maghavannanu jośāṁ vakṣo abhi prāryaḥ sakṣi janān.

And you Indra, master and ruler of the nation, commanding power and prosperity, generous as showers of rain, thus addressed with reverence and listening to our prayer, take up the reins of the people, be with them and harness their energy, and with love and faith pursue the noble policies for advancement to completion.

Indra, mighty lord, refulgent and generous, those who are not with us and are not for you are disjoined from reality. It is their ignorance and impiety toward the motherland. O lord of the force of thunder in hand, ride the chariot, take up the reins, equipped as you are with excellent forces for advancement. Guide and lead.

Many are your acts of generosity, Indra, which you have done for the land and cattle wealth and for fertility of the fields, O generous lord, and while fighting in the battles of life in your own seat, you create the light of life like the sun and earn for yourself the name and fame of the abundant cloud of showers.

Come, O lord, and bless us with all your imperishable power, come like power and splendour incarnate, most welcome among the cherished ones.
6. Papṛksṇeṇyamindra tve hyojo nṛmāṇī ca nṛta-māno amartaḥ. Sa na enīṁ vasavāno rayiṁ dāḥ prāryaḥ stuṣe tuvimaghasya dānam.

Incomprehensible is the splendour in you, Indra, lord of glory, all the wealths of humanity abide in you, yours is the ongoing dance of creation, yours is immortality. Universal abode of existence, give us the pure wealth of life, wealth that is possible. You are the lord and master commanding immense wealth, honour and power. I praise, admire and pray for your grace and generosity.

7. Evā na indrotibhirava pāhi grñṇātḥ śūra kārūn. Uta tvacaṁ dadato vājasātau piprīhi madhvaḥ suṣutasya cāroḥ.

And giving us the glowing corselet of self defence in the battle business of life, enjoy the beauty and sweetness of life created, distilled and offered by the admirers and worshippers.

Mandala 5/Sukta 34

Indra Devata, Samvarana Prajapatiya Rshi

The lady of light and joy, grace unbound, unaging power, divine Shakti, as the human offering too, in yajna, follows the lord omnificent, Indra, omnipotent, free from enemies ever born. Sow the seed of piety, distil the soma, mature it for the lord creator, giver and receiver of food, energy and eternal wisdom, universally adored and worshipped, and bear and offer the fragrance that will take you across the seas of existence.
He, lord of wealth, honour and power, who satisfies his hunger with soma and exults in honey sweets of food offered, and who, wielding the mighty thunderbolt of justice and punishment, out of love for life and the people raises his bolt of a thousand potentials to punish and destroy the wild beast of violence and ferocity: that is Indra, that is the ruler.

He who creates soma day and night and offers it to this lord Indra surely rises to heights of brilliance in knowledge, power and honour. But Indra, the lord commanding wealth, power, honour and excellence, disowns and throws off that man far and farther from himself who lives and works only for self-decoration and self-exhibition and associates with the selfish, miserly and wholly acquisitive.

If the powerful ruler punishes somebody’s father or mother or brother, he does not for that reason forsake that person, nor does he go back on his decision. Indeed he expects and accepts the homage of the man since he loves effort and endeavour, and he is the shelter of all and a treasure of wealth. He does not fly away from sin and guilt, he faces it and fixes it.

5. Na pañcabhir-daśabhir-vaśtyārabham nāsunvatā sacate puṣyatā cana. Jināti vedamuyā hanti vā dhunirā devayuṁ bhajati gomati vraje.

He does not wish to begin anything with the five senses and ten pranic energies in association with a selfish, slothful, unyajnic person even though he were otherwise thriving. In this manner he defeats and punishes the lazy and the selfish. But a terror as he is to the wicked, he loves and serves the pious and learned person in the place where cows roam around and the place resounds with chant of the sacred Word.

Brave in the battle of life, Indra destroys suffering and rides the wheel of time and cycle of the seasons. Averse to the selfish and uncreative, he helps and raises the creative men of yajna so that life may grow higher and better. Self-controlled and awe-inspiring, Indra is the ruler and ordainer of the world, a power, dynamic, ever modern and progressive, who controls the services of the nation according to the force and pressure needed on time.

For sure he augments the food and comfort of the celebrant but takes away the grains of the thief, and for the charitable he gives wealth good for people. And into dungeon darkness are thrown all those people who challenge his blazing power and provoke his indignation.

If Indra, lord of honour and excellence, terror of the enemies and inspirer of the people by virtues of his nature and character, were to come across and select two men possessed of honest wealth and all round strength and courage from among the brilliant people over the reputed and spotless regions of the land, he would appoint one as his assistant, and the other for economic management providing for abundant water and wealth of cows and food products.

Agni, refulgent ruler, you adore Indra, giver of a thousand gifts of fire and electric energy, powerful, self-evident mark of honour and grandeur. Such as you are, I pray, like rivers flowing in bounds to the sea, may the disciplined people be dedicated to you and may the social order, brilliance and majesty vest in you as their very home and glory incarnate.

Mandala 5/Sukta-35

Indra Devata, Prabhuvasu Angirasa Rshi

Yaste sādhiṣṭho’vasa indra kratuṣṭamā bhara. Asmabhyaṁ carṣaṇīsaham sasniṁ vājeṣu duṣṭān.

Indra, lord refulgent, ruler of the world, for our protection and promotion, bear and bring for us that straight and most effective vision and action of yours which is pure and most bountiful, tolerant and yet challenging for people and formidable in our battles of life, the discipline inviolable.
2. Yadindra te catalosro yacchūra santi tisrah.
Yad vā pañca kṣitīnāmavastat su na ā bhara.

Indra, refulgent ruler, bear and bring us for the protection, progress and sustenance of the people those three, four or five principles of policy and values of society which, according to you, are the best ways of the peace and advancement of the people, and let us settle and establish ourselves therein with your law and inviolable power, brave one.

Note: This mantra is the basic formula of any socio-political structure and its governance and administration for the preservation, advancement and balanced sustenance of society. Details have to be worked out in the light of permanent values, history and tradition, and present and future implications. We may consider the following:

(A) Three: Physical, mental and spiritual well-being of the individual, society and the total human community, the departments of governance and administration, legislation and education; care, preservation and replenishment of the earth, environment and higher sphere; the government, the people, and the defence forces.

(B) Four: The four classes of the people, i.e., teachers and researchers, defence forces and administrators, producers and businessmen, and the ancillary workers; The four stages of individual and collective life, i.e., Brahmacharya (education, preparation and consolidation), Grhastra (family, professional life and social responsibilities and management), Vanaprastha (retirement and voluntary community service), and Sanyas (total freedom, renunciation and social service). This is Varnashrama Dharma.

(C) Five: Four classes of people and the other miscellaneous groups whosoever they be.

Five levels of organisation: individual, family, professional community, nation, and the global and environmental level.

Vedic suggestions are symbolic and general, particular details are to be worked out in the light of the Vedic purpose of life and living for the realisation of Dharma, righteousness in practical life, Artha, material well being, Kama, fulfilment of the Self, and Moksha, ultimate freedom.

This is the clarion call for victory in life’s battle for sustenance and success.

Indra, ruler and commander of the people, take over, command, lead and protect our chariot of the nation, formidable, advancing in the contests of life, going ahead with all forces of the nation in one field after another and winning victory after victory.

Indra, lord of might and blazing power of light, come, we pray, and protect our chariot by your intelligence, wisdom and tactics. O lord most potent, let us have our cherished sustenance and word of wisdom in this kingdom of love and beauty. Let us know and meditate on the holy song of success and adoration in this kingdom of light and peace.

Come, Indra, lord of honour and excellence, you know the wealth, beauty and excellence, of the world of existence, you know how to give, you are the giver and treasure hold of the wealth of life, golden orb of the full moon. Like a sojourner of the skies, like a bird or bull, thirsting, loving, discriminating between truth and falsehood, come, drink the nectar of refreshing, rejuvenating, regenerating milk of life, your rightful share.

2. Ā te hanū harihaḥ śūra śipre ruhat somo na parvatasya prṣṭhe. Anu tvā rājannarvato na hinvan gīrghir-madema puruhūta viśve.

Indra, great and brave lord of heroic people, may love and sweetness play on your lips, let fragrance breathe from your nose, let success and glory play on your helmet like a soma creeper on mountain top. O ruler of the world all honoured and adored, like a victorious army rejoicing on victory, we all with all our voices in unison invoke and entertain you so that we all enjoy together.

Indra, invoked and adored, blazing as sun and generous as cloud, ever greater and greater, commanding knowledge, honour, power, and treasure hold of all wealth, like a wheel in motion my mind is trembling for fear of want of intelligence and understanding and, in praise and adoration of you as commander of the chariot, it raises the voice of prayer and supplication. Listen lord, shelter, haven and home of all.

Indra, lord of wealth, power and honour, you have attained the heights of wide spaces. This celebrant like a soma press which extracts streams of soma or like a cloud of showers sends up words of praise in your honour for your beneficence. You control and give gifts of wealth by both right and left hands. O warrior of the chariot and leader of men, we pray, do not ignore us.

5. Vṛṣā tvā vṛṣaṇaṁ vardhatu dyaurvṛṣā vṛṣabhyāṁ vahase haribhyāṁ. Sa no vṛṣā vṛṣarathah suśipra vṛṣakrato vṛṣā vajrin bhare dhāḥ.
Indra, you are brave and generous, may the gracious heaven elevate and exalt you. Generous and great, you move and rise by ground and powerful modes of transport and yajnic action. May the great lord of mighty chariot, clad in strong helmet, generous of action, wielder of the thunderbolt engage and protect us in the battle of life.

Let the people of the world bow in honour and reverence to the scholar, expert of the knowledge of motion and speed who teaches this young student the two allied subjects of the science of heat and electric energy with three hundred applications of it and designs a world famous vehicle for transport.

Mandala 5/Sukta 37

Indra Devata, Atri Bhauma Rshi

The flame of Agni, heat and light, invoked and kindled on the base of ghrta, water, rising fast and beautifully vies with the light of the sun. “This we create

1. Saṁ bhānunā yatate sūryasyā’’juhvāno ghṛtapr-śṭhaḥ svaṅcāh. Tasmā amṛidhrā uṣaso vyucchān ya indrāya sunavāmetyāha.
in honour of Indra, the ruler”: for the scholar scientist who says this, let untiring dawns of light and excellence shine blissfully.

2. Samiddhāgni-vanavat sūrṇabarhir-yuktagrāvā sutasomo jarāte. Grāvāno yasyeṣirām vadantyayad-adhvaryur-haviṣāva sindhum.

Agni, light and fire, raised and rising, touching the skies, suffusing the clouds, creating the soma for life and energy, crackles, and adores Divinity. The roaring clouds proclaim its force and refreshing power. The yajaka scientist with his yajnic inputs into the fire rises and moves to the sea (with fragrant vibrations rising to space, with waters flowing to the seas).

Just as a loving bride goes to her groom and the bridegroom receives the consecrated bride, and both together run the home and take the family forward, so do fire and water mixed and working together drive the chariot and from the power and its revolution and thunderous roar many thousands of projects are moved forward.

That ruler does not face want and trouble in whose realm Indra, fire or electric energy, consumes intense liquid, friendly with earth connection, and goes forward with various forms of power. The ruler moves forward, breaks the clouds for rain, destroys the demon of darkness with light and knowledge, and settles his people in homes, thus progressing all forward in health and sustenance and earning a name for wealth and power.

5. Pusyāt kṣeme abhi yoge bhavātyubhe vṛtau samyaṁ saṁ jayāti. Priyah sūrye priyo agnā bha-vāti ya indrāya sutasomo dadāsat.

That nation moves forward in yoga, creation of new assets, and in kshema, preservation of the progress and achievement earlier attained, rises higher in social dynamics both ways, and wins further ground in both together: the nation which reverentially loves solar energy, which reverentially takes interest in fire energy, and which spares its best and sweetest surplus in the service of Indra, development of electric energy.
Mandala 5/Sukta 38

Indra Devata, Atri Bhauma Rshi

1. Uroṣṭa indra rādhaso vibhī rātiḥ satakrato. Adhā no viśvacarṣaṇe dyumnā suksesatra maṁhaya.

   Indra, hero of a hundred holy actions with insight and counsel, wide and high are your powers and wealth, abundant your gifts. Ultimate watcher and observer of all that is in the world, ruler of the mighty social order, lead us on to wealth, power, honour and excellence and help us rise to the heights.

   Indra, ruler of golden majesty, lord most potent, destroyer of suffering, whatever food, energy and light of knowledge, great and renowned, you bear and bestow upon us you increase and extend, and it resounds far and wide as the highest of fame most unchallengeable by mortal man.

   O ruler of the clouds and mountains, dispenser of generous and adamantine justice, these powers and potent people of yours, these lights and the enlightened, all these brilliances that obey your law and do your will both shine and exalt earth and heaven with their power and generosity for the achievement of cherished goals.

4.  Uto no asya kasya cid dakṣasasya tava vṛtraḥan. Asmabhyaṁ nṛmṇamā bharā’ smabhyaṁ nṛmaṇasyase.

   Indra, O lord destroyer of darkness, want and suffering, bring that human wealth of values, honour and excellence which is worthy of anyone here, there and everywhere in terms of efficiency of your divine order. Give us the power and freedom from fear, since you love us and wish us to rise and prosper.

   Indra, lord of unbounded action and generosity, potent ruler of the world, may we with these cherished blessings under your benign protection be possessors, protectors and promoters of lands and cows and revelations of light. Let us be preservers and promoters without fear.
Mandala 5/Sukta 39

Indra Devata, Atri Bhauma Rshi

1. Yadindra citra mehanā’sti tvādātamadrivaḥ. Rādhastanno vidadvasa ubhayāhastyā bhara.

Indra, O lord of light and power, mysterious and sublime, refulgent ruler of the clouds and mountains, omniscient dispenser of munificence, whatever the rain of blessings showered by you, whatever the wealth and honour of success, not yet ours, pray give us with both hands.

Indra, whatever you think is worthy of choice, bear and bring that brilliant gift of heavenly quality. Let us receive that and let us know that as a blessing of your unbounded generosity worthy to be received and justified with gratitude.

3. Yat te ditsu prarādhyaṁ mano asti śrutaṁ bṛhat. Tenā driṁhā cidadriva ā vājaṁ darṣi sātaye.

Adriva, wielder of thunder arms and ruler of clouds and mountains, with that mind and courage of yours which is great, renowned and magnanimous leading to sure success, break down the strongholds of darkness and scatter the forces of negativity to reveal the light of rectitude for success and victory.

For the praise and celebration of Indra, greatest of the powerful among you and ruler of the people, offer songs of adoration with the eternal verses of the Vedas as did the ancients for the benediction of the lord and master.

5. Asmā it kāvyaiṁ vaca uktham-indrāya śaṁsyam. Tasmā u brahmavāhase giro vardhantyatrayo girah śumbhantyatrayaḥ.

For this Indra, lord and master, indeed, is the holy poetic voice of praise. For that lord giver of universal wealth and light of knowledge and wisdom do poets free from threefold bondage of body, mind and soul raise and offer their songs of adoration. Him, the voices beautified with threefold graces of sound, meaning and structure, free from threefold defects of sound, meaning and structure exalt and glorify.

Indra, Surya, Atri Devata, Atri Bhauma Rshi

आ याह्याद्रिभि: सूतं सामं सामपत पिब।

1. Ā yāhyadribhiḥ sutaṁ somaṁ somapate piba.
   Vṛṣannindra vṛṣahīr-vṛtrahantama.

   Indra, creator and protector of honour, excellence and prosperity, come with the clouds of rain showers, and taste and promote the distilled soma of the herbs of the earth. Come, generous lord, greatest dispeller of darkness and suffering, with the strongest and most enlightened, commanding the creation of glory.

वृषा गावा वृषा मदा वृषा सामाः अर्थं सूत:।
वृषेणिन्द्र वृषेणिवृद्धहत्तम॥ २॥

2. Vṛṣā grāvā vṛṣā mado vṛṣā somo ayaṁ sutah.
   Vṛṣannindra vṛṣabhir-vṛtrahantama.

   Deep is the cloud, the hope and ecstasy is high, and this soma distilled is potent and delicious. O generous lord, Indra, creator of valour and destroyer of darkness and suffering, come and realise the highest prosperity with the showers of rain clouds.

वृषा त्वा वृषेणां हुव वजनिज्ज्वारक्षितिभिः।
वृषेणिन्द्र वृषेणिवृद्धहत्तम॥ ३॥

   Vṛṣannindra vṛṣabhir-vṛtrahantama.

   Indra, potent lord of generosity, magnanimous Indra, creator and protector of honour, excellence and prosperity, come with the clouds of rain showers, and taste and promote the distilled soma of the herbs of the earth. Come, generous lord, greatest dispeller of darkness and suffering, with the strongest and most enlightened, commanding the creation of glory.

Deep is the cloud, the hope and ecstasy is high, and this soma distilled is potent and delicious. O generous lord, Indra, creator of valour and destroyer of darkness and suffering, come and realise the highest prosperity with the showers of rain clouds.

Indra, potent lord of generosity, magnanimous giver of the showers of joy, wielder of the arms of thunder, greatest breaker of the clouds of rain and destroyer of evil, I invoke you with the strongest and most liberal powers and gifts of prosperity to come with various and wondrous securities, protections and promotions.

Dynamic guardian of the path of rectitude to the last, wielder of thunder, generously brave, breaker of tempestuous missiles instantly, terribly forceful, refulgent ruler and sovereign commander, destroyer of the darkest enemies and protector of peaceful prosperity and joy of the people, Indra comes post haste by fastest horses, and at the noon day session of yajna joins the celebrations of the nation's honour and excellence.

When the moon lighted by the sun affects the sun with the darkness of its shadow, when it is in line with the sun and earth, then the person who does not know his area feels confused during the eclipse and the regions too appear confusing. Similarly O sun, light of the spirit, when the veil of darkness covers knowledge and awareness of the spirit, then the ignorant man feels confused and the world too appears different, that is, the material appears as ultimate reality and the spirit is eclipsed. He makes no distinction between body and soul.

And then Indra, when the cosmic energy which moves the stars and planets removes the shadow of the moon from the sun, then Atri, man of knowledge, with his fourth state of the soul, that is, turiya, direct vision of Reality, regains the sight of the sun earlier covered by the shadow of the moon.

Similarly, when Indra, lord of light, removes the illusion of darkness which intercepts the light of the spirit below it, then Atri, the sage of knowledge and discrimination, with this fourth stage of spiritual development, regains the light earlier covered by the darkness of ignorance.

O sage, Atri, free from the bondage of confusion between body, mind and soul, I am your friend. Let not this malevolent ogre out of anger, dread or hunger devour me. You are a friend. So is this Varuna, ruler of light and man of judgement and discrimination. May you two, I pray, protect me from darkness, ignorance and confusion.

8. Grāvṇo brahmā yuyujānaḥ saparyan kīrinā devān namasopasākṣan. Atriḥ sūryasya divi cakṣurā- dhāt svarbhāṇorapā māya aghukṣat.

Then Atri, sagely scholar of four Vedas, free from threefold confusion, illusion and sufferance, collecting hymns of adoration, joining wise sages, singing songs of adoration in honour of Divinity, teaches and illuminates the supplicant disciple, removes the clouds, dispels the veil of darkness and illusion, and restores the light of the heavenly sun into the spirit.

9. Yaṁ vai sūryaṁ svarbhāṇus-tamāsavidhyadā- suraḥ. Atrayās-tamanvavindan nahyanye aṣa- knuvan.

That sun and light of heaven, covered by the shadow of the moon and hidden by the veil of darkness, the Atris, sages of knowledge in the fourth state of spiritual development, turiya, direct vision of Reality, free from threefold confusion, illusion and sufferance, restore and regain for themselves and their disciples. Others cannot see that light because they do not have the spiritual vision and freedom from illusion.

Mandala 5/Sukta 41

Vishvedeva Devata, Atri Bhauma Rshi

1. Ko nu vāṁ mitrāvaruṇāvratāyan divo vā mahaḥ pārthivasya vā de. Ṛtasya vā sadasi trāsīthāṁ no yajñāyate vā paśuṣo na vājān.

O Mitra and Varuna, light and bliss of heaven, complementary energies of prana and udana, friend and man of justice, teacher and preacher, who, for sure, dedicated to truth, can know you? Who can thank you in words? Protect and promote us wherever you be in your regions of truth and natural law in the light of heaven, the firmament or the earth, and bless us with food and energy, speed and progress, vision and wisdom, and material and spiritual wealth for the generous man of yajna.

May the light of the day and the peace of night, the ocean, the cosmic order, health and time of age, spiritual vision, spirit of nature, cosmic flow of energies, be friendly with us. May all these who, together in love and loyalty with Rudra, lord of generous abundance and universal justice of correctitude, bear and carry our prayers and adorations and yajnic offerings with all our obedience and salutations to the Lord.

Ashvins, complementary harbingers of light and life energy, observers and keepers of the laws of nature and guiding principles of humanity, teachers and preachers, I invoke you for extension of the paths of winds and clearance of the channels of progress, and I call upon you for strengthening and sophistication of the chariot powers of humanity. Come ye all fellow men, travellers and friends, concentrate your thoughts and intentions on the life breath of existence flowing from the regions of light as you bear and bring the food and fragrance for the yajna fire.

4. Pra sakṣaṇo divyaḥ kaṇvahotā trito divaḥ sajoṣā vāto agniḥ. Pūṣā bhagaḥ prabhṛthe viśvabhojā vājīṁ na jagmurāśvaśvatamāḥ.
The refulgent yajaka, forbearing, challenging and victorious, intelligent and self-conscious (Kanva), Trita, active and expansive in the three regions of the universe, i.e., the sun, wind and electric energy, heat and light, nourishment and growth, power, prosperity, honour and excellence, all operative together in love like friends, with brilliant holy ambitions for the advancement of the world, may, we plan and pray, come like warriors flying to the battle business of life on the wings of fastest coursers.

O Maruts, dynamics of nature and progressive forces of humanity, create, bear and bring the wealth and power born of action and advancement. Develop, hold and use knowledge and intelligence for the achievement of all forms of power, honour and prosperity. All the actions and movements of yours are for your good, and by all these progressive steps of yours, the yajaka, creator and giver of fragrance, humanity, the child of brilliant ambition, grows happy and enjoys peace and comfort.

With your holy chants of mantras and offers of fragrant inputs into the yajnic fire of corporate action, create the wind and electric energy usable in your transports for progress. Create the brilliant, vibrant, admirable scholar and scientist of energy. And may these warriors of energy and scientific intelligence dedicated to progress and the truth and goodness of the laws of natural and human dynamics, serving heaven and earth, motherly divinities, bear and bring universal light and nourishment for our intellectual and cultural advancement.

In consequence, for your success and achievement, by virtue of your holy and powerful efforts and your intelligent and enlightened chants and oblations, may the night and day, both great and potent, like intelligent and educated women, carry your yajna across the world and bring you from heaven the wealth of the world for humanity.

Happy with myself, celebrant for you all, and for the achievement of wealth, power and all round prosperity, I honour, adore and serve the leaders who work for food and nourishment for growth. I honour the artist, architect and maker of forms, and love creative and friendly intelligence, trees and herbs, with reverence, gratitude, replenishment and renewal.

Tuje nastane parvatāḥ santu svaitavo ye vasavo na vīrāḥ. Panita āptyo yajataḥ sadā no vardhā-naḥ śaṁsāṁ naryo abhiṣṭau.

May the clouds and mountains be for the expansion of our charities. So may be the Vasus, abodes of life such as earth and oceans, suns and planets, as well as the brave and generous people of strength and intelligence, self-motivated, self-moving, celebrated, self-realised, creative and corporate powers, and may they all augment our honour and reputation in all fields of human welfare.

10.

Vṛṣṇo astoṣi bhūmyasya garbham trito napā-tamapāṁ suvrkti. Gṛṇīte agniretari na śūṣaiḥ sociškeśo ni riṇāti vanā.

I admire and adore the lightning fire, child of waters, which pervades the three worlds of the universe and gives showers of life for the fertility of the earth. Like a moving power with locks of light with its force and motion, Agni energises the rays of the sun, moves the clouds and enlivens the forests with greenery.

Katha mahe rudriyāya bravāma kad rāye cikituṣe bhagāya. Āpa ośadhiruta no’vantu dyaurvanā girayo vṛksakeśāḥ.

How shall we speak to the seeker of nature’s catalytic powers breaking and making the changing forms of matter and energy, how speak to the earnest seeker of knowledge, of wealth, production and prosperity? May the flowing waters and clouds, herbs, heavens, rays of sunlight and high mountains with locks of forests help and protect us.

Śṛṇotu na īrjāṁ patirgirah sa nabhastarīyāṁ iṣirah pariṃmā. Śṛṇvantvāpaḥ puro na śubhrāḥ pari sruco babhāṇasyādreh.

May the lord creator, controller and sustainer of energies listen to our voice of prayer, listen and reveal the mystery. May the master of the science of energy listen and enlighten us. May the lord omniscient, pervasive in waters and the skies, ever moving, omnipresent, listen and reveal the knowledge. May the crystal waters and the perennial streams and showers issuing forth from the mighty clouds and mountains speak to us like the clairvoyant ancient seers and seekers.

Listen ye, great ones, and let us know for certain those acts and motions of yours which we speak of and pray for, which, all great and generous ones, bearing cherished gifts of food, energy, health and age, ever growing stronger and expansive, mighty powerful with their catalytic forces, come to the mortal seeker who tries to know and search them out.

I speak of the celestial and terrestrial evolution of things and forces and their actions and attributes for the holy pursuer of creative yajnic action. May the heavenly light and words of knowledge grow with peace, beauty and bliss in action. May the waters of life and energy grow and flow like the spatial oceans enveloping our existence.
15. Padepade me jarimā ni dhāyi varūtrī vā śakrā yā pāyubhiśca. Siśaktu mātā mahī rasā naḥ smat sūribhir-ṛjuhasta ṭjuvaniḥ.

At every stage of evolution, my growth with divine praise and prayer is evident, replete with power and grace bearing all natural and divine modes and materials of protection and progress. May mother earth and her nectar sweets of energy with sages and scholars bless us with the rich gifts of her simple, natural and liberal hands.

How shall we honour and serve the generous and renowned Maruts, dynamics of nature and the dynamic leaders and scholars of humanity, with offers of gifts and acts of homage in order to thank and supplicate them in words of reverence? Too generous and too highly renowned are they even for the best and choicest words of ours. May the generous cloud in the sky never forsake us to suffer want and injury. May there always be ample blessings of nature and Divinity for us close at hand.

Thus does mortal man honour and celebrate you, O divinities of nature and humanity, for progeny and for abundance of wealth and cattle. Thus does mortal man win your favour. Give me here in the world well being of the body and sustenance for health, and may mother earth with her generosity keep off debility and decay of my health and the onset of old age.

O Vasus, divinities of nature and humanity, may we receive that holy intelligence of yours, that energising food, by our praise and prayer in honour of mother earth, nature and the cow, and may that mother power, generous, loving and merciful, O divinities, sages and scholars, the lady overflowing with kindness, move for us in response to us for our good, for our honour and prosperity.

May the divine Ida, voice of omniscience, generous nature and the wide earth, mother of multitudes, sublime and overwhelming, enlighten and inspire us. And may the majesty of divinities, commanding universal light, comprehending the meaning, purpose and energy of life itself, revealing knowledge and wisdom come to us.

And let the scientist help us and the lord omniscient bless us, with strength and energy from all sources of nature.

Mandala 5/Sukta 42

Vishvedeva Devata, Atri Bhauma Rshi

Let my holy voice, the chant of OM, full of peace and bliss, light of my higher energy of udana, rise up and reach Varuna, cherished lord of love and justice, Mitra, lord of light and friendship, Bhaga, lord of honour and excellence, and Aditi, mother Infinity of heaven and earth. May the lord Supreme listen and receive, the lord of Eternal Word and speech coexistent with space and Divinity, ministrant of five pranic energies, indefatigable and irresistible in the ways of his power and action, giver of life and energy, lord of bliss, Bliss itself.

May Aditi, mother of eternal speech, receive and love my song of praise and prayer as a mother holds her child to the heart, dear, cherished and soothing. Brahma, lord Infinite that is dear, kind and benevolent to the noble people, supreme giver, who inspires prana and udana energies, is our lord adorable.

Sing, celebrate him that is the most imaginative of poets, exalt him with honey sweets of song and homage, and may he, the inspirer creator, Savita, refugent and generous lord, in response to our homage and effort, give us cherished wealth and honour of our choice for the good of our body, mind and soul.

Indra, lord of power, honour and excellence, you lead us on with a holy mind, with efficient senses, intelligence and songs of homage, with bright and brave people. Lord of humanity, commanding the motive forces of the dynamics of existence, let there be all good and well being for us. Lead us on with knowledge and wealth of divinity, with whatever is good and beneficial for noble people, and with the wisdom of the brilliant people devoted to yajnic creation and divine service.

May the brilliant and generous, the prosperous and honourable, the creator inspirer, rich and generous, participant sharer, commander of honour and excellence, winner of loud showers, producer of wealth, the powerful intellectual, commander of power and progress, the man of wisdom and distant vision, the immortals and powers of tempestuous advancement, may all these protect and promote us on the path of goodness.

We sing and celebrate the acts and achievements of the lord of men and winds, incomprehensible, victorious, unaging and undecaying. O lord of honour and power, Indra, neither the ancients, nor the moderns, nor the succeeding ones nor anyone else would comprehend your power and potential.

7. Upa stuhi prathamam ratnadheyam bṛhaspatim sanitāram dhanānām. Yaḥ saṁsate stuvate saṁbhaviṣṭhaḥ purūvasur-āgamaj-joḥuvānam.

First sing in honour of him close at hand who wields and governs the jewel wealth of existence, Brhaspati, Lord Almighty of the boundless universe, giver of wealth and honour, lord most blissful, omnificent, universally adored, who blesses the celebrant and supplicant, and brings him the wealth and honour prayed for.

8. Tavotibhiḥ sacamānā ariṣṭā bṛhaspate maghavānāḥ suvīrāḥ. Ye aśvadā uta vā saṇti godā ye vastradāḥ subhagāsteṣu rāyāḥ.

Brhaspati, O lord of unbounded wealth of the universe, the people who are free from injury, enjoying wealth and power, brave and fearless, sharing the blessings of your protections, who are generous and honourable and give horses, cows and clothes in charity, all enjoy the good fortune of wealth and power and the grace of divinities.

Render the wealth of those people fruitless and unproductive who eat by themselves inspite of our songs of divine praise in honour of charity. Deprive them of the light of the sun who observe no rules of good conduct, and who, while growing materially in the lord’s creation, revile the lord giver and desecrate the food.

O Maruts, dynamic leaders of the people, take him down straight, not in round about words, who invokes and entertains the wicked in the holy programmes of society, who reviles the noble work of the divine celebrant and who, even though trying hard apparently, demeans his values and desires.

Praise and exalt him who wields the strong bow and sharp arrow in support of life and shelters the creative, corrective and protective forces of the world. Do good work in cooperation with the great and magnanimous people, and honour and serve with homage and holy offerings Rudra, lord of power, justice and punishment, brilliant and generous giver of life and energy.

12. Damūnaso apaso ye suhastā vrṣṇah patnīr-nadyo vibhvataṣṭāḥ. Sarasvatī bṛhaddivota rākā daśasyantīrvarivasyantu subhrāḥ.

May those who are generous at heart, noble at work, liberal of hand, bold and bountiful, motherly women, streams of water flowing within bounds of divinity, vastly illuminative, perennially flowing with sweetness, blissful like a moonlit night, ever giving without reserve, pure and immaculate, we pray, bless us.

13. Pra sū mahe suśaraṇāya medhāṁ giram bhare navyasīṁ jāyamānām. Ya āhanā duhitur-vakṣa-ṇāsu rūpā mināno akṛṇod-idad naḥ.

I offer my latest song of praise arising spontaneously and dedicate my intellect and imagination in honour of Indra, blissful shelter of the world, who, sculptor of the forms of his creation, has provided and made to flow this water for us in the streams of his daughter, the earth.

Praise and exalt him who wields the strong bow and sharp arrow in support of life and shelters the creative, corrective and protective forces of the world. Do good work in cooperation with the great and magnanimous people, and honour and serve with homage and holy offerings Rudra, lord of power, justice and punishment, brilliant and generous giver of life and energy.

Let this celebrative song, O celebrant, rise and reach the roaring, thundering lord of earth and eternal speech who, replete with blissful waters, rolling like spatial oceans, goes forward sprinkling the earth and illuminating heaven and earth with the showers of light and life.

Let this song of praise reach and excite the power and force of the Maruts, fellow humans, youthful children of Rudra, Lord of law, justice and discriminative wisdom, and let my love and desire inspire them for wealth and honour of the world. O celebrant, celebrate the dynamic forces of humanity, generous and showerful as the clouds.
16. Praiṣaḥ stomah pr̥thivīmantatikṣāṁ vanaspatī-ñroṣadhi rāye aṣyāḥ. Devodevaḥ suhavo bhūtu mahyaṁ mā no mātā pr̥thivī durmatau dhāt.

May this song of celebration ring over the earth, resound across the sky, and vibrate among the trees and herbs for the production of wealth. May the lord supreme, God of the divinities of nature and humanity, be kind to me and listen to my invocation and prayer.
May the mother earth be kind and never ill-disposed to us.

17. Urau devā anibādhe syāma.

O divinities, saints and sages, may we ever prosper in the unbounded generosity of nature and of mother earth.

18. Samaśvinor-avasā nūtanena mayobhuvā supra-ṇīti gamema. Ā no rayim vahatamota vīrānā vīsvānya-mṛtā saubhagāni.

O lord, we pray, may we ever follow and benefit from the latest and blissful guidance and noble policy of the Ashvins, teachers and scholars. Bring us, O divine twin powers of nature’s complementarities, wealth, brave progeny and all the imperishable good fortunes of honour and excellence. Let us prosper with your protection and vision of progress.

Mandala 5/Sukta 43

Vishvedeva Devata, Atri Bhauma Rshi

Let the Voice of Divinity like mother cows, flowing with milky streams of meaning and metaphor, instantly vibrating unto the mind and soul, incessantly rippling and soothing without violence or difficulty, come and bless us with honey sweets of divine peace and spiritual awareness. Sevenfold are they in sound, music and meaning, expressive, grand and infinite. The celebrant yajaka, joyous and ecstatic, invokes, augments and proclaims the voices for the highest wealth and well being of life.

We offer songs of adoration with homage and offers of yajnic food and fragrance to win incessant blessings of loving and non-violent heaven and earth for the sake of food and sustenance, knowledge and progressive advancement in life. May the father, mother, heaven and earth, sweet and loving of voice and word, liberal and unstinted of hand, bless us with honour and excellence at every stage of our battle business of life.

3. Adhvaryavaś-cakrvāṁso madhūni-pra vāyave bharata cāru ūṣkram. Hoteva naḥ prathamah pāhyasya deva madhva rarimā te madāya.

O priests of the scientific yajna for peace and unity with love and non-violence, working on the holy powers and mysteries of wind and electric energy, take up pure energised waters, and create and bear the energy for Vayu, spirit and ruler of humanity. O Vayu, brilliant ruler, first of all preserve, protect and promote this honey sweet energy so that we may be happy and enjoy life together for your honour and pleasure.

4. Daśa kṣipo yuñjate bāhū adrim somasya yā śamitārā suhastā. Madhvo rasaṁ sugabhastīr-giriṣṭhāṁ caniścadad duduhe ūṣkramāṁśuḥ.

Just as ten fingers join the two hands, and the dexterous priests use the stone press to extract the soma juice, and just as the sun with its bright rays, happy and rejoicing, distils the potent pure honey sweet vitalities of energy existing in the clouds and mountains, so do the happy performers of scientific yajna for peace, expert specialists of energy, using their hands and mind and senses, working on the clouds distil the purest rays of energy, the honey sweet essence of nature’s sources of wind and waters.

5. Asāvi te jujusānāyaya somaḥ kratve dakṣāya bṛhate madāya. Harī rathe sudhurā yoge arvāgindra priyā kṛṇuhi hūyamānah.

Indra, brilliant ruler, commander of winds and waters, distilled is the soma of energy for your knowledge and enlightenment, for your power and potential, and for delight and grand celebration, love as you do the honour and excellence of prosperity. Invoked and invited to the celebration, harness the fast controlled powers to the chariot, come straight, and accomplish the programmes you wish to complete.

6. Ā no mahīm-aramatīma sajōṣa gnam devēṁ namasē rātaḥavyāṁ. Madhormadāya bṛhatīṁ-ṛtajnāmāgne vaha pathibhirdevayānaiḥ.

Agni, O light of knowledge, scholar scientist, loving and cooperative, lead us on to that great, continuous but unaddicted knowledge of divine value with your humility and yajnic inputs, knowledge which is highly creative and productive for honey sweet delights and celebration of mankind, which is vastly revealing of mother nature’s truths and worthy of further pursuit by the progressive paths of divinities and nobilities among humanity.

Like a darling child in the lap of father, like the fire of yajna in the vedi, the disciple in pursuit of the light of knowledge and fire of life is seated in school close to the teachers like a seedling growing to fullness, whom sagely scholars, purifying, seasoning and tempering like steel and gold by the heat of fire, strengthen and prepare for a full yajnic life.

Let the good and great, wide and high, refreshing and beneficent voice of ours like a messenger go to invoke and invite the Ashvins, teachers and preachers, complementary powers of nature, positive and negative currents of energy circuit, and may the Ashvins, kind, peaceable and peace giving come to us straight like the centre pin of the axle and navel of a chariot wheel, and share our treasure wealth of knowledge, power and material well-being.
9. Pra tavyaso namauktim turasya’ham pūṣṇa uta vāyoradikṣi. Yā rādhasā coditārā matīnāṁ yā vājasya draviṇodā uta tman.

I offer the song of homage and reverence in honour of Pusha, power of nourishment, and Vayu, energy of wind and electricity, both power givers for success and achievement, inspirers of mankind, and both spontaneous and instant givers of wealth and progress.

10. Ā nāmabhir-maruto vakṣi viśvāṇā rūpebhijā-tavedo huvānāḥ. Yajñāṁ giro jarituḥ suṣṭutim ca viṣve ganta maruto viṣva ūṭī.

O Jataveda, light of life, sagely scholar of the knowledge of things in existence, invoked and invited, kindled and raised, you bring and speak of all the energies of winds and electricity of all names and all descriptions for men. O Maruts, winds and energies, in response to the mantric formulae and the celebrant’s songs of adoration, come all and bring all modes of protection and advancement along to the sagely scholars’ yajnic pursuit of research and development.
11.  Ā no divo brhataḥ parvatādā sarasvaṅī yajataḥ gantu yajñam. Havām devī jujuṣāṅā ghṛtācī śagmāṁ no vācamuṣaṅī śṛṇotu.

May Sarasvati, divine mother of knowledge and language in the cosmic flow, loving and responsive to her children, come to bless our yajna, bearing ghrta and waters of life’s energy and inspiration from heaven, the vast skies, clouds and mountains. May she join us like a mother overflowing with love, listen to our words of prayer for peace and pious advancement and give us the vision.

Enshrine the eminent sage and scholar specialised in the round blue skies, great and rising pursuant of space, in your seat of yajnic learning, in the home and in the assembly: the scholar concentrating on the ultimate natural causes, bright and illuminative, golden in performance, the very dawn of light and knowledge, we honour and serve.

May the wielder and sustainer of existence, mighty refulgent and blissful, invoked, enkindled and raised in the vedi come and bless our yajna with all means of protection and progress, the lord illuminating our voices of praise and prayer, vitalising herbs and vegetation, kind and loving, lord of nature’s three modes of thought (sattva), energy (rajas) and matter (tamas) which are transparent, red and dark green, the lord generous as showers and giver of health and age.

On the sacred and excellent vedi on the floor of mother earth, lovers and admirers of life come in pursuit of the joy of living, bearing holy offers for the sacred fire. And just as they cleanse the new born baby and welcome it in new life, so they feed, serve and develop the holy fire with love and offers of food and fragrance like a living divinity on earth.

15. Brhad vayo bṛhatē tubhyamagne dhiyājuro mithunāsaḥ sacanta. Devodevaḥ suhavo bhūtu mahyaṁ mā no mātā pṛthivī durmatau dhāt.

People senior in age and wide in experience, eminent in knowledge and intelligence, men and women together, offer homage to you, Agni, lord of light and great. May the lord Divine, light of all divinities, be kind and gracious to me, and may mother earth look at us with favour and never forsake us.

उराखे अनिबाध स्याम \ १६ II

O Divinities, may we ever be in the light of your unbounded grace, free and uninterrupted.

समाश्विनार्वत्सा नूतनन मयाभुवा सुपणीती गमम \ १७ II

17. Samaśvinor-avasā nūtanena mayobhuvā supraṇīṭī gamema. Ā no rayin vahatamota vīrān-ā viśvānymṛtā saubhagāṇī.

Ashvins, complementary powers of nature, teachers and preachers, men and women together, all kind and blissful, may we go on in life by your latest protections and noble paths of progress and morality. O immortal divines, bear and bring us wealth, and brave progeny and all the good fortunes of the world.

Mandala 5/Sukta 44

Vishvedeva Devata, Avatsara Kashyapa and others Rshis

1. Taṁ pratnathā pūrvathā viśvathemathā jyeṣṭha- tātim barhiṣadaṁ svarvidam. Praścīnaṁ vrjanaṁ dohase girā’’śuṁ jayantamanu yāsu vardhase.

Indra, Ruler as of ancient times, as before, as always, as of now, with your holy voice you draw upon the highest, heavenly, blissful force and power present upfront and instantly victorious in the battles of life, and you grow and progress in consequence of that same power and force. O Ruler, let us all honour and augment and serve that power.

1. TaÅ pratnathŒ pµurvathŒ viÜvathemathŒ jye¦¢ha-tŒtiÅ barhi¦adaÅ svarvidam. Prat¶c¶naÅ v¾janaÅ dohase girŒ''ÜuÅ jayantamanu yŒsu vardhase.

Ruler of the world, you are the self-refulgent light of heaven, illuminator of spaces and mover of the still clouds of vapours in the skies, the lord whose lights and graces are for the beauty and majesty of life. You are the protector, defender, preserver and promoter. You are not for deceit or violence. You are the cause and agent of holy action, sovereign with your powers and potential, and your name is identical with truth and law.

(He abides in, with, and above the dynamics of the yajnic evolution of existence: consumer, consumed, consumption, evolution and devolution, the beginning and the end, all): He abides with the food of life. He is truth, reality, eternity. He is the wielder, sustainer and commander of the world in existence. Inviolable is his word, uncharted his way. He is the yajaka, creator and giver. He is the lord and controller of power and potential, challenge and forbearance. He is ever on the move across the skies and spaces. He is the generous cloud, the seedling in the womb of existence, ever young, unaging, antidote of negative destruction, and loving support of all.

Pra va ete suyujo yamanniṣṭaye nīcīramuṣmai yamya ṝtāvrddhah. Suyantubhiḥ sarvāsāsai-rabhī-śubhiḥ krivirnāmāṇi pravaṇe muṣāyati.

O children of the earth, for your good and comfort, immediate as well as distant, are these united, cooperative, well controlled radiations of the sun all round, fostering the truth of nature’s law in their own way: For that Master Spirit, the sun sucks up the vapours of water from the ocean and other lower places by well directed, all dominating waves of light, and then makes the cloud release the waters in rain showers to flow down in streams and rivers into the ocean.

(In the same way the administrative forces of the ruler, working together in cooperation within the law, collect the taxes from the various communities of the people and the ruler uses the collection for rain showers of the people’s protection, promotion and prosperity without hoarding anything for himself.) truth, reality, eternity. He is the wielder, sustainer and carder of the world in existence. Inviolable is his word, uncharted his way. He is the yajaka, creator and giver. He is the lord and controller of power and potential, challenge and forbearance. He is ever on the move across the skies and spaces. He is the generous cloud, the seedling in the womb of existence, ever young, unaging, antidote of negative destruction, and loving support of all.

5. Sañjarbhurāṇas-tarubhiḥ sutegrbham vayākinam cittagarbhāsu susvaruḥ. Dhāravākeṣv-ṛjugātha śobhase vardhasva patnīrabhi jīvo adhvare.

Shining and vibrating by flutter of the leaves of trees, proclaiming the presence of the spirit manifested in life forms living and aging in the world of creation, in the caves of the heart, you shine and radiate in the consciousness, O lord of rectitude and paths of naturalness. Grow on, live on, O lord, in the yajna of creation and let the life forms grow on and advance.

6. Yāḍṛgeva dadṛśe tāḍṛg-ucyate saṁ chāyayā dadhire sidhrayāpsvā. Mahīm-asmaḥbhyan-uruṣāmuru jrayo bṛhat suvīram-anapacyutam sahāḥ.

Who are the sagely divines of humanity? As they see the truth of reality, so do they speak of it. They behold it and stand thereby by the holy reflection of it in divine works of creation or in the visions of their own imagination. And they, men of courage, wide and bold in speech and imagination, bear and bring for us great illuminative speech of knowledge and high and mighty undecaying valour, forbearance and spirit of challenge which creates great heroes in the service of truth and rectitude. They are human divines.

The leader, reborn in knowledge and courage of action, goes forward challenging, thirsting for battle, radiant by mind, visionary of present and future, protecting the light of day, preserving our future wealth of generations, and protecting our hearth and home, self-possessed and self-established as he is.

The ruler and scholar who receives and serves the superior, the holy and advancing voice of the seers and sages by virtue of the knowledge and efforts of this industrious scholar, and you whose name and fame resounds among the people, whichever way the name and fame and knowledge is received, and the man who attains the knowledge of that all by his own effort and karmic discipline and carries the tradition on by himself, self-possessed and self-established, may all these do us good on our way of life.

The fame and advancement of these people resounds over seas and abides over spaces, nor does their yajnic progress suffer where hymns are chanted and wealth grows in holiness. Here the heart’s desire of the worshipper is not obstructed where holy intelligence and intentions abide for guidance in action.

10. Sa hi kṣatrasya manasasya cittibhir-eva vadasya yajatasya sadhreḥ. Avatsārsasya sprṇavāma raṇvabhiḥ śaviṣṭham vājam viduṣā cidardhyam.

With our collective thoughts and intentions and with all our love and delight, we desire to have that ruler for the social order whose high strength and dynamism is respected by the wise and enlightened scholars, who is a strong disciplinarian and organiser, who commands intelligence and eloquence, who is a holy and cooperative man of yajna, sociable as a friend and who can preserve, protect, defend, promote and enlighten the people and the system. Only such a person deserves to be the ruler.
11. Śyena āśāmaditih kakṣyo mado viśvavārasya yajatasya māyināh. Sam-anyamanyam-artha-yantyetave vidurviśāṇaṁ paripānamanti te.

Of these people, he, the ruler, is the Shyena, eagle, harbinger of nectar, the watchful eye, and the marksman for the target, the destination. He is Aditi, the inviolable identity, symbol of nature, character, tradition and the nation. He is Kakshya, orbit of movement as well as the rampart, ever in harness, and he is the joy of life. Of this universal leader, all embracing and giving, all powerful, they jointly and separately desire and ask for advancement, know his generosity, and find their own fulfilment in his presence.

He is an unfailing giver of fulfilment, holy and cooperative in joint action for development, destroyer of hate and enmity, strong of arms, scholar of the Vedas, accessible saviour and helper and friendly for all of you. He receives both friend and foe appropriately and realises both material and spiritual good, shines and illuminates, the leader who serves this social order and this people with effective and acceptable means and

The baby’s parent, the yajaka’s protector and promoter, the teacher, ruler, guardian of humanity who preserves, sustains and advances whatever wealth and joy is achieved, the treasure hold of all history and tradition and intellectual and scientific progress on the march, bearing the milky food for body, mind and soul like the mother cow and forbearing earth, he goes onwards high proclaiming his knowledge and vision, the divine gift, without a wink of sleep: He is worthy of reverence.

Whoever is awake, the Rks love and bless. Whoever is alert, the Samans move and elevate. Whoever is active without a wink of sleep, this soma of life’s joy and ecstasy addresses and says: O seeker and yajaka, I am for you, a friend and shelter home.
15. Agnirjāgāra tamṛcaḥ kāmayanye’gnirjāgāra tamu sāmāṇī yanti. Agnirjāgāra tamayāṁ soma āha tavāhamasmī sakhye nyokāḥ.

To Agni, soul of life awake, the light of Rks radiates with love. To Agni, light of life awake, the songs of Samans vibrate with love. To Agni, the fire of life aflame, the streams of nectar flow with love, and to the soul of life, the light of awareness and the fire of action, the ecstasy of life says: I am yours with love, a friend, your very haven and home.

Mandala 5/Sukta 45

Vishvedeva Devata, Sadaprna Atreya Rshi

1. Vidā divo visyann-adrim-ukthair-āyatyā uṣaso arcino guḥ. Apāvṛta vrajinūrūt svargād vi duro mānuśirdeva āvah.

Brilliant sages with holy songs of adoration worship the self-refulgent Lord and break the cloud of ignorance. In consequence, the dawn of light follows, dispels the nights of darkness, and then the refulgent sun of divine knowledge opens the doors of human reason and intelligence with knowledge.

वि सूया । अमति न श्रियं सादावाद गवां माता जानुती गात । धन्वणसा नद्यंः खादर्भणाः स्थूर्णाः सुभिताः दृंहत द्याण । २ ॥
2. Vi sūryo amatim na śriyam sādorvād gavāṁ mātā jānaṁī gāt. Dhanvarṇasasā nadyāḥ khādo arṇāḥ sthūnena sumitā dṛthinām dyauḥ.

The sun takes on the refulgent form of beauty like the grace of divinity, and from the vast heavens, the dawn, mother of light rays, goes forward revealing the beauty of the world. Streams and rivers, charming bright and refreshing, flow rushing on to the sea. The regions of light rise on, expansive like a measured column of the day’s sustenance.

(The mantra is a metaphor, in continuation of the previous mantra, of the expansion of the light of knowledge and onward flow of life.)

3. Asmā ukthāya parvatasya garbhō mahīnāṁ januṣe pūrvyāya. Vi parvato jihīta sādhata dyaur-āvivāsanto dasayanta bhūma.

In honour of this adorable ancient sun, cause of the birth of planets and the cloud, and for the fertility of the earths, the vapours leave the cloud to rain in showers. Let us too, high shining like the sun, realising the light of knowledge, illuminating all around, giving in charity, eliminating evil, realise ourselves.

With unambiguous holy words approved by scholars and loved and used by divine brilliances, we study and experiment with Indra and Agni for the invocation and achievement of electric energy and fire power for protection and progress, just as, with the same holy words, for all time, poetic men of vision and imagination and dynamic scientists engaged in creative and productive joint works, shining and illuminating in the pursuit of truth, work and conduct holy programmes of research for you all.

5. Eto nvadya sudhyyo bhavāma pra ducchūnā minavāmā varīyaḥ. Āre dveśāmsi sanutardadhāmā’-yāma prāncō yajamānamaccha.

Come ye all today, let us engage in works of vision and wisdom as intelligent holy people. Let us throw off all evil and eliminate it. Let us always keep hate and enmity far away. Let us move forward and enthusiastically join the yajamana engaged in creative and productive work for advancement.

Come friends, let us take up works of science and reason by which mother knowledge reveals and, like the dawn, opens the doors of light and power, by which the man of war and tactics wins the helmet and armour, and by which the industrious producer achieves fertile land and ample water.

Anūnodatra hastayato adrirārcan yena daśa māso navagyāḥ. Rtaṁ yatī saramā gā avindad viśvāni satyāṅgirāścakāra.

7. Let the priest of dexterous hand, generous like the cloud, celebrant of divinity and nature’s powers, set the yajna in motion, inspiring the new generation on the move to keep the fire burning for ten months at least, and the dynamics of revelation would flow to the yajna, open the secrets of the Word and knowledge and control of mind and senses, and vibrant men of initiative would enact projects of truth and universal good.

Viśve asyā vyuṣi māhināyāḥ sam yad gobhiraṅgiraso navanta. Utsa āsāṁ parame sadhastha ṛtasya pathā saramā vidad gāḥ.

8. When on the rise of this glorious dawn the Angiras, vibrant scholars and sages dedicated to yajnic divinity, meet and rejoice with the rays of light, then, the oceanic source of these rays of light being in the highest heaven, it is the radiations of Divinity on the waves of nature’s vitality that transmit the revelations of light and knowledge and bless the yajnic seekers.

Let the sun, commanding seven horses of its spectrum lights, come to the earthly part of its domain like a flying courser, a hawk-like harbinger of nectar, dispelling darkness, and ripening food with its light and heat, and let it shine, an unaging youth, a visionary creator and inspirer, going over lands and planets on the long course of its orbit in space.

So may the light of the Spirit descend into the earthly form of the body of five elements and five senses, mind and intelligence, and illuminate the individual personality of the soul to keep it a youthful visionary and self-inspiring poet, creatively playing around with the mind and senses, dispelling the darkness of ignorance and ripening the existential potential of its nature, across the world of five elements, and ahankara and mahan modes of nature, for its advancement over its eternal course.

When the sun yokes its far ranging rays of spectrum light to its chariot, it rises over the bright and lustrous ocean of spatial waters, and its intelligent and well directed horses carry it over the orbit like the constant waves of the sea carrying a boat, with the result that the overflowing waters stand around listening and raining down in showers. Similarly when the self-luminous soul yokes the five senses, the five pranas and the mind and intelligence to its purpose of action in yoga yajna, it rises over the bright and blazing world of existence, the seven lights of natural powers, perceptive and well directed by the soul in the state of constancy, carry it over the waters around waiting for its orders, and the soul reaches its destination where it joins the Divine.

11. Dhiyaṁ vo apsu dadhiśe svarśāṁ yayātaran daśa māso navagyāḥ. Ayā dhiyā syāma devagopā ayā dhiyā tuturyāmātyamhaḥ.

O divinities of nature and humanity, I pray, I may absorb into my pranic energies and actions that blissful intelligence of your gift by which the rising souls on the move cross the seas over ten months. May we, by this, be protectors and promoters of our sages and our divine nature. May we, by this, cross the seas over sin and evil.

Like a trained horse on the new path, the man of knowledge takes on a new programme, voluntarily. I too carry on the new programme which is protective, defensive and progressive. I do not want it abandoned, nor do I have anything reserved or secret about it, and further, only a scholar pioneer and leader advancing on the path of rectitude would take men and leaders forward.

2. Agna indra varuṇa mitra devaḥ śardhaḥ pra yanta mārutota viṣṇo. Udbhā nāsatya rudro adha gnāḥ pūṣā bhagaḥ sarasvatī juṣanta.

Agni, O brilliant power of light, fire and knowledge, may Indra, powers of honour and excellence, Varuna, chosen powers of justice and goodness, Mitra, friends, devas, noble powers of nature and humanity, Vishnu, universal lover of life all over, Maruts, leaders of the force and speed of the winds, create strength and courage and bestow it on us. O Ashvins, cooperative powers of truth and rectitude of behaviour, Rudra, powers of justice and punishment, and voices of scholars and sages, Pusha, power of nourishment and vitality, Bhaga, creator of honour and prosperity and Sarasvati, spirit of knowledge, listen to our voice.

Like a trained horse on the new path, the man of knowledge takes on a new programme, voluntarily. I too carry on the new programme which is protective, defensive and progressive. I do not want it abandoned, nor do I have anything reserved or secret about it, and further, only a scholar pioneer and leader advancing on the path of rectitude would take men and leaders forward.

Agni, O brilliant power of light, fire and knowledge, may Indra, powers of honour and excellence, Varuna, chosen powers of justice and goodness, Mitra, friends, devas, noble powers of nature and humanity, Vishnu, universal lover of life all over, Maruts, leaders of the force and speed of the winds, create strength and courage and bestow it on us. O Ashvins, cooperative powers of truth and rectitude of behaviour, Rudra, powers of justice and punishment, and voices of scholars and sages, Pusha, power of nourishment and vitality, Bhaga, creator of honour and prosperity and Sarasvati, spirit of knowledge, listen to our voice.

I invoke and study, for the benefit of protection and progress, heat, light and electricity, prana and udana energies of vitality, the atmosphere and the sky, the sun and higher regions of light, air and winds, clouds and mountains, waters and other liquids, all pervasive space, vitality of vyana energy, spirit of the universe, universal power and prosperity, creative energy of the universe, and all their positive and beneficial attributes and practical applications.

4. Uta no viśṇuruta vāto asridho draviṇodā uta somo mayaskarat. Uta ṛbhava uta rāye no aśvinota tvaṣṭota vibhvānu maṁsatē.

And may the omnipresent lord Vishnu, sustainer of life, Vata, waves of wind and electric energy, the creator and giver of wealth, and Soma, spirit of peace and joy do us good without delay or violence. And may the experts and specialists, and the Ashvins, complementarities of natural evolution, and the maker of forms and sophisticated designs, all with their skill and power and knowledge enlighten and train us in arts and crafts for the achievement of life’s wealth and honour.

And may that celestial and adorable power and force of the tempestuous nature of winds in consonance with joint human interest and advancement come and be installed in our homes, assemblies and centres of production. And may Brhaspati, father and ruler of the wide world, Pusha, giver of nourishment and sustenance, Varuna, highest leader of our choice, Mitra, friendly and loving as breath of life, and Aryama, lord of justice and correctitude grant us peace, joy and progress worthy of a happy home.

And may those clouds and mountains, and streams and rivers, admirable and majestic, shine and flow for our sustenance and progress. May Bhaga, lord of honour, excellence and prosperity, generous friend of all, come to us with universal strength and protection, and may Aditi, inviolable Mother Nature of unbounded generosity respond to our invocation and prayer and bless us all.

May the motherly divinities of nature and the motherly women in happy and blessed homes of pious people, loving, sustaining and spontaneous, protect us, constantly advance us to rise in strength for the achievement of success in battles of life. May all these divinities and nobilities of the earth and of the oceans and celestial waters of space, constant in their holy tasks, ever responsive to our prayer give us peace and felicity of home and family.

8. Uta gnāḥ vyantu devapatnīr-indrāṇyagnāyasyaśvinī rāṭ. Ā rodaśi varuṇāni śṛṇotu vyantu devirya śṛturjanīnām.

May the brilliant divinities of nature and women of noble and divine disposition, protective and progressive, be good and responsive to our voices of prayer. May motherly lightning energy, heat and healing energies, earth and heaven, spirit of justice and soothing cool of waters, and the cycle of seasons respond. May mother ruler, mother leader, health care matrons, fertility of women, scholars of earth, heavens and oceans, be kind and responsive to our progress.

Mandala 5/Sukta 47

Vishvedeva Devata, Pratiratha Atreya Rshi

Prayuñjatī diya eti bruvāṇā mahī mātā duhitubādhvanyatī. Āvivāsantī yuvatimśīṇā πίτρβhya a sadanā jahū- vāna

1. Great and glorious mother arises in all her youthful splendour from the lights of heaven and, invoked, invited and adored on the vedi, she comes with radiations of light and intelligence collected from the nourishing and sustaining divinities of nature and humanity, awakening, enlightening, speaking loud and bold, and preparing the daughter for life in the home with knowledge and wisdom. (The Dawn is mother, the earth is daughter.)

(The mother of the home, and the mother teacher in the school, is great and adorable as a human deity because, having collected her knowledge and wisdom from her parents and teachers, she arises like the dawn of light and prepares the daughter for intelligent living in an enlightened home.)
2. Ajirāsastadapa īyamānā ātāsthivāṁso amṛtasya nābhim. Anantāsa uravo viṣvataḥ sīm pari dyā-vāpṛthivī yanti panthāḥ.

The radiations of the light of the dawn, as the actions of wise and brilliant parents and teachers, abiding in the centre of immortal eternity and flowing therefrom, move all round fast and ceaseless, vast and endless, on their paths across and over heaven and earth.

3. Ukṣā samudro aruṣah suparṇah pūrvaya yonīṁ piturā viveṣa. Madhye divo nihitaḥ prśnirāśmā vi cakrame rajasaspātyantau.

The mighty deep and generous ocean of waters, the blazing sustainer bird of space, the sun, enters in the spatial womb of its mother, divine Nature, fertilized by the original and eternal father creator. Placed in the midst of the heavens of light like a multicolour diamond, it traverses on and on, lights up, sustains and marks the expansive ends of the upper and lower strata of the sphere of heaven.

4. Catvāra īṁ bibhrati kṣemayanto daśa garbhaṁ carase dhāpayante. Tridhātavaḥ paramā asya gāvo divāscaranti pari sadyo antān.

The directions of space, receiving the sustaining light and warmth of life, bear it up. Ten directions of space feed the world they hold as a baby to keep it going. The rays of the sun radiate from the highest region of light and fill the threefold world of sattva, rajas and tamas, heaven, firmament and the earth, reaching all round to the borders of it almost instantly.

Just as rivers hold and celebrate the flowing waters, so do people revere and adore this refulgent sun of wondrous form which two twin sisters, day and night, born of the same mother, hold and nurse the same one brother though born of another mother.

6.

Celebrants compose songs of adoration from their heart and intellect and extend yajnic homage up to this sun by the paths of light and fire just as mothers weave and sew clothes for the child and joyous wives eagerly move to join their generous husbands.
7. Tadastu mitrāvaruṇā tadagne śaṁ yorasma-bhyamidamastu śastam. Aśīmahi gādhamuta pratiṣṭhām namo dive bṛhate sādanāya.

O Mitra and Varuna, lord of love and judgement, sun and the sea, day and night, mother and father, prana and udana energies, O Agni, yajna fire purifier, revered teacher, teacher pioneer and giver of enlightenment, may this cherished song of ours be for our peace and blessedness which is all time free from suffering and pain. May we attain a home and haven of high excellence and unshakable honour and prestige. Salutations to the great and glorious heaven of light, eternal and imperishable!

Mandala 5/Sukta 48

Vishvedeva Devata, Pratibhanu Atreya Rshi

When shall we all sing and celebrate in honour of our own domain, our cherished independent identity and social order, our own honour and glory, which, commanding its own power and splendour, pursuing its own policy, extends its resounding actions and waters of peace and freedom among the people, across the lands and over the clouds of immeasurable skies and spaces? When shall we think and reflect upon this?
2. Tā atnata vayunāṁ vīravākṣaṇāṁ samānyā vṛtayā viśvamā rajaḥ. Apo apācīraparā apejate pra pūrvābhistirāte devayurjanaḥ.

Those acts and policies of peace and freedom provide incentives to the brave and extend knowledge and positive action programmes over the entire world of humanity, through uniform treatment and equality of law for all. A brilliant nation of vision and noble action doesn’t procrastinate over the present, agitating over the past or worrying and waiting for the future, it crosses the bridges in front right away.

3. Ā grāvabhir-ahanyebhir-aktubhir-variṣṭham vajra-mā jighrīti māyinī. Śatamā vā yasya praca-rantsve dame saṁvartayanto vi ca vartayannahā.

Ever and instantly, this nation shines and sharpens its best arms and armaments day and night with the stones (which sharpen the arms and press the soma too) or with the clouds of showers against the evil of want and suffering of ignorance, and otherwise too hundreds of its forces actively working together in their own fields spend their time moving forward in a state of readiness with a challenging spirit.
4. Tāmasya rītim paraśoriva pratyanīkamakhyāṁ bhuje asya varpasah. Sacā yadi pitumantamiva ksayaṁ ratnam dadhāti bharahūtaye više.

That character and disposition, that form and policy of its dynamic flow, that admirable force of its arms like the razor’s edge, I know, is in keeping with its identity for the purpose of peace, protection and progress, and, like a comfortable home full of plenty, it holds the jewels of wealth and felicity for the people at the beck and call of the inmates.

5. Sa jihvayā caturanīka ṝṅjate cāru vasāṇo varuṇo yatannarim. Na tasya vidma puruṣatvatā vayaṁ yato bhagaḥ savitā dāti vāryam.

The nation, the ruler, the fire, the sun, wearing a charming form, shining with forces all round in all four directions, encounters the opposing darkness with the tongue of light and flame. We know not how, with what strength and power, from where this Varuna, best and highest power of justice and wisdom, Bhaga, commanding wealth and felicity, Savita, inspiring all with exhilaration, brings and bestows on us all the cherished gifts of life, how he makes everything possible.
Mandala 5/Sukta 49

Vishvedeva Devata, Pratiprabha Atreya Rshi

1. \textit{Devaṁ vo adya savitārameṣe bhagāṁ ca ratnaṁ vibhajantamāyoh. Ā vām narā puru-bhujā vavṛtyāṁ divedive cīdaśvinā sakhiyān.}

For you all today I love, gratefully desire and pray for favour of the brilliant and generous Savita, inspirer of light and life, Bhaga, treasure source of honour and prosperity and the loving spirit of life and living beings that showers the jewel wealth and felicity on all. O Ashvins, leading complementarities of nature powers and humanity, ruler and people, leaders and followers, men and women, parents and children, teachers and disciples, blessed participants and celebrants of life for all, I love to be friends with you and pray that I may love, cooperate and be with you day in and day out.

2. \textit{Prati prayāṇam-asurasya vidvānt-shuktairde-vāṁ savitārāṁ duvasya. Upa bruvīta namasā vijānaṅjyeṣṭhaṁ ca ratnaṁ vibhajantamāyoh.}

Sagely scholar, watch the evolution of life and energy, meditate on the self-refulgent Savita, inspirer of life, with Vedic songs of praise and prayer, and with homage and gratitude speak precisely of the supreme, the most precious felicity pervading and participating in the evolution of life, knowing well the gifts of the lord.

3. Adatrayā dayate vāryāṇi pūṣā bhago aditirvasta usraḥ. Indro viṣṇurvaruṇo mitro agnirahāni bhadra janayanta dasmāḥ.

Aditi, eternal and infinite creative power of lord Savita’s Nature, Prakṛti, wears the mantle of the morning. Pusha, nature’s nourishing power, and Bhaga, inexhaustible generosity, produce, promote and give the choicest gifts of food for consumption and creation of energy. Indra, catalytic radiation, Vishnu, all pervasive energy, Varuna, udana energy for evolution, Mitra, pranic energy of life, Agni, heat and light for life, all these creative and generative powers give rise to the days of light and bliss for us.

4. Tanno anarvā savitā varūtham tat sindhava iṣayanto anu gman. Upa yad voce adhvarasya hotā rāyah syāma patayo vājaratnāḥ.

May lord Savita, creator, with his radiating energy, grant us that treasure of cherished values of hearth and home which I celebrate as organiser and achiever of yajnic production, and which the flowing rivers and swelling seas promote with love and desire in obedience to the lord. O lord, we pray, may we, blest with energy and felicity of existence, be protectors and promoters of the wealth of the world.

Let untold wealth and knowledge flow to those who offer homage and yajnic service to the Vasus, creative abodes of life and sustenance in the world of nature, and to those who raise their voice of adoration in honour of Mitra and Varuna, friendly sun and seas and all embracing space. O Vishvedevas, creative divinities, create for us wealth of exceptional order so that we may abide and enjoy under the protection of heaven and earth.

Mandala 5/Sukta 50

Vishvedeva Devata, Svasti Atreya Rshi

Let all the mortals, people of the world, choose and win the favour and friendship of the brilliant leader and pioneer who targets and commands the wealth of the world. O people of the world choose the wealth, power and splendour of the world for the sake of growth and advancement.

2. *Te te deva netarye cemāṇ anuśase.
   Te rāyā te hyāprce sacemahi sacathyaiḥ.*

O brilliant leader and ruler, those who have chosen you are wholly for you, and so are these whom you approve and admire. All the assets and powers of the nation are yours to rule and protect, and to share, defend and augment the same we are keen to join you and win your favour.

   Āre viśvāṁ patheṣṭhāṁ dviṣo yuyotu yūyuvih.*

From here, from this elective and promotive yajna of total cooperation, serve and strengthen and thereby promote us all, leaders, chance visitors, immigrants and others, raise and promote the women, mothers of the nation, and, maker and breaker as you are, throw off all the hate, enmity and negativities obstructing the paths of progress.

4. *Yatra vahnir-abhīhito dudravad droyaḥ paśuḥ.
   Nrmaṇā vīrapastyo’ṛṇā dhīreva sanitā.*

Where the fire, placed, invoked and kindled in the vedi rises in flames, where a fiery leader, elected, supported and enthused goes around watching and watched all round among a dynamic people, loving all and loved at heart by all, and where the homes abound with brave and brilliant youth, there the streams of prosperity flow deep and calm like inalienable partners of the nation.

Eṣa te deva netā rathaspatiḥ śāṁ rayiḥ. Śāṁ rāye śāṁ svastaya ɪṣaḥ stuto manāmahe devastuto manāmahe.

O brilliant leader, pilot of the nation to peace and prosperity, this warrior of the chariot is yours, this peace, this wealth, power and prosperity is for you. This peace is for wealth and this peace and prosperity is for holiness of well-being. This warrior of the chariot, peace and prosperity honours and adores food, energy and knowledge. We love and adore this peace and prosperity. We love and adore you and the nation honoured by the divines.

Mandala 5/Sukta 51

Vishvedeva Devata, Svasti Atreya Rshi

अग्नि सूतस्य पीतया विश्वविद्यद्वातमिति गहिः।
द्रवविष्णुवद्वैतात्।।१ ||

1.

Agne sutasya pītaye viśvair-ūmebhīrā gahi.
Devebhīr-havyadātaye.

Agni, light of knowledge and fire of life, come with all the means and methods of protection and progress, come with all the divines of the world and divine generosities of nature to enjoy what knowledge and nourishment we have distilled for your treat and bring the wealth and knowledge you have gained for us.

O divine scholars, radiations of nature’s vitalities, observers of the laws of universal truth, followers of the truth of Dharma and the Dharma of Truth, come to our yajna of love and non-violence and scientific creation in honour of the Lord. Agni, leading light of the world, drink the joy of life by the tongues of fire.

O vipra, vibrant scholar, eminent sage of the present age, come with other scholars, with the knowledge and freshness of the morning light and breeze which stir and radiate with the dawn. Come with the divines for a drink of the soma we have distilled.

This soma, inspiring power and honour of the nation, reflected in the defence forces as soma is held in the charu vessel, and held in the body politic as soma is poured in the goblet, is the love and pride of Indra, ruling lord, and Vayu, tempestuous defence forces.

Vāyavā yāhi vitaye juṣāṇo havyadātaye.
Pibā sutasyāndhaso abhi prayāḥ.

O Vayu, force and power of the nation, come for the delight of a drink of the soma of knowledge and enlightenment with love and joy for the self sacrificing people. Enjoy the flavour of the food and stimulating taste of the drink on the tongue.

6.
Indraśca vāyavesāṁ sutānāṁ pītimarhathaḥ.
Tāṃjuṣethāṁ-arepasāvabhi prayāḥ.

Indra and Vayu, ruler of the land and commander of the defence forces, you deserve a drink of the soma of the nation’s power and culture. Come, watch the effects and delicacies of their taste and decency, and, inspired with love and holiness, enjoy the beauties of life.

7.
Sutā indrāya vāyave somāso dadhyāśiraḥ.
Nimnaṁ na yanti sindhvo’bhi prayāḥ.
Just as rivers flow downwards to the seas, so the sweetness and decency of the soma of human values and culture distilled with effort and cooperative action flow to Indra and Vayu, the strong and the progressive.

8. \textit{Sajürviśvēbhirdevebhiraśvibhyāmuṣasā sajūḥ.}
   \textit{Ā yāhyagne atrivat sute raṇa.}

Agni, giver of enlightenment and the fire of life, friend and associate of all the generous divinities, companion of the dawn and the Ashvins, circuitous complementaries of natural energies, come into this world of creative humanity like an omnipresent power free from threefold bondage of body, mind and soul, rejoice and proclaim your message of light and love loud and bold.

9. \textit{Sajürmitrāvaruṇāḥbhyāṁ sajūḥ somena viṇṇuṇā.}
   \textit{Ā yāhyagne atrivat sute raṇa.}

Agni, giver of knowledge and power, come together with prana and udana energies of nature, come together with the peace and beauty of the moon and the vastness of omnipresent space, come like a sage free from the threefold worries of past, present and future, come to the world of creative and endeavouring humanity, rejoice and proclaim your message of knowledge and action loud and bold.
10. Sajūrādityairvasubhiḥ sajūrindrenā vāyunā. Ā yāhyagne atrivat sute raṇa.

Agni, giver of health and knowledge, come together with the light of the sun as in the changing months and seasons, come with the generosity of the abodes of life such as earth, come with the breath of life and glow of health, come with the force and freshness of the winds, come to the world of joint human yajna like one free from threefold ailments of body, mind and spirit, rejoice and proclaim your message of health and energy loud and bold.

May the Ashvins, complementarities of nature and humanity such as teachers and preachers, day and night, sun and moon, prana and apana energies, bring us peace and well-being. May Bhaga, lord of glory, bless us with peace and honour. May the eternal imperishable Mother Nature and indivisible Vedic revelation of omniscience bless the independent scholars with peace and spiritual joy and vision. May the nourishment and showers of the life-giving cloud bring us peace and joy. And may the heaven and earth bless us with peace of mind, joy of knowledge and spiritual illumination.
12. Svastaye vāyumupa bravāmahai somāṁ svasti bhuvanasya yaspatiḥ. Brhaspatiṁ sarvaganaṁ svastaye svastaya ādityāso bhavantu naḥ.

Let us study and describe Vayu, wind, energy, and pursue programmes of peace and joy for our social good and well-being. May the lord ruler who controls and sustains the world be good and kind to us. Let us pray to the Lord of the expansive universe and honour the head of all the world communities for our peace and progress. May the scholars of the highest order and the cycle of the solar phases of time and seasons be good and kind to us for our well-being.

13. Viśve devā no adyā svastaye vaiśvānaro vasvaragnih svastaye. Devā avntyrbhavaḥ svastaye svasti no rudraḥ pātvamhasaḥ.

May all the generous divinities of nature and brilliant sages of the world be good and kind to us for our well-being today. May the all pervasive vitality of life’s energy be kind and favourable for our peace and well-being. May all the generous scholars and brilliant experts be for our good and advancement in peace with joy. May Rudra, lord of law and justice, be good and kind and save us from sin for our well-being. May all the divinities protect us.
Svasti na indraścāgniśca svasti no adite kṛdhi.

May Mitra and Varuna, sun and moon, prana and udana energies of nature, rich in life’s wealth of vitality, be for our good and well-being and guard us to move on the right path of action. May the universal electric energy and the vital heat of life’s vitality be kind and good for our well-being. O Mother Nature, eternal and imperishable one, do us good, be kind and gracious.

Let us follow the path of peace, progress and well-being like the sun and moon, moving forward with men of knowledge and self-awareness, giving, receiving and giving again, in our orbit without hurting and encroachment on the rights of others, at the same time maintaining our own identity.

Mandala 5/Sukta 52

Marutah Devata, Shyavashva Atreya Rshi
1. Pra śyāvāśva dhṛṣṇuyā’rcā marudbhīr-ṛkvabhiḥ.
   Ye adrogham-anuṣvadham śravo madanti yajñiyāḥ.

   O bold yajaka, riding the spectrum flames of holy fire, honour and celebrate those divinities worthy of reverence and homage who exult with electric vitalities of the winds and vibrancy of dynamic people without hate and jealousy within the laws of nature and their own potential, and who accept the homage and spontaneously respond according to nature.

2. Te hi sthirasya śavasaḥ sakhāyaḥ santi dhṛṣṇuyāḥ.
   Te yāmannā dhṛṣadvinas-tmanā pānti śaśvataḥ.

   Bold and brilliant, they are friends and constant companions of the strong among the stable minded people, and on the highways of life they, sincerely and spontaneously, protect and promote the brave and resolute always without fail.

3. Te spandrāso nokṣaṇo’ti ṣkandanti ṣarvarīḥ.
   Marutāmadhā maho divi kṣamā ca manmahe.

   Streaming and overflowing with generosity like the cloud and the sun, they shower the nights and dawns of twilight with showers of rain and dew. We admire and celebrate the grandeur, potential and forbearance of the winds on the heights of heaven and the strength and stability of vibrant people in the brilliance of humanity.

रुत्सु वा दधीमहि स्ताम् युजं च धृण्युगा।

4. Marutsu vo dadhīmahi stomaṁ yajñam ca dhṛṣṇuyā. Viśve ye mānuṣā yugā pānti martyaṁ risaḥ.

For you all, let us admire and honour all those of you and hold them among the Maruts as children of stormy winds and rays of light who protect our songs of praise and prayer and promote the flames and fragrance of yajna throughout human history and save humanity from violence with strength and determination.

अह्न्तिः य सुदानवा नरा असामिषवसः।

5. Arhanto ye sudānavo naro asāmiśavasaḥ.
Pra yajñam yajñiyebhyo divo arcā marudbhyaḥ.

Honour and admire those leading lights who are deservingly meritorious and commanding, generously charitable, strong and determined, loving and brilliant, and who dedicate their songs and yajna to the dynamic Maruts among humanity worthy of reverence.

आ रुक्मणद्व युध्या नरे रूः रूढ्ये रूढीरस्वृ ।

6. Ā rukmairā yudhā nara ṛṣvā ṛṣṭīrasrksata.
Anvenāṅ aha vidyuto maruto jajhyaṁriva bhānurarta tmanā divaḥ.

While the leading lights and mighty warriors with blazing arms launch the attack upon the enemy, then, for sure, upon the heels of these tempestuous forces and shining leaders the light and splendour of the world follows spontaneously like roaring streams of water.

The heroes of the earth who rise in honour and glory, the winds and currents of lightning energy in the wide wide skies, or the roaring waters flowing in the river beds and around, or the splendour of the regions of light, these are the Maruts worthy of honour and celebration with homage.

8. Śardho mārutamucchaṁsa satyaśavasam-rbhasam. Uta sma te śubhe narah pra spandrā yujata tmanā.

Honour and celebrate the strength and courage of humanity, admire and value the honest wisdom and rectitude of the scientist and the expert. O leading lights and brave pioneers of the human nation, moving forward with steadiness and dignity, join the onward march of humanity for a noble divine purpose. Join it conscientiously, honestly, without reservation.

And they, the Maruts, leading lights and warriors, self-secure on the tortuous paths of existence, shining bright and pure, with their valour and wheels of the chariot ride the clouds and shatter the mountains.

Travellers hitherwards, or travellers by various ways, or travellers over the interior ways, or travellers of open and successive ways, thus and by these names and descriptions they bring expansion to my yajna.

11. Adhā naro nyohate’dhā niyuta ohaṭe. Adhā pārāvatā iti citrā rūpāṇi darśyaḥ.

Leaders of knowledge and advancement, sometimes they carry the burdens by themselves, sometimes appointed as a team in cooperation with others, and sometimes stationed far away: thus their forms and functions are various, wondrous, beautiful and beatific.

12. Chandaḥ stubhaḥ kubhanyava utsamā kāriṇo nṛtuḥ. Te me ke cinna tāyava ūmā āsan dṛṣi tviṣe.
Poetic celebrities, some of them, thirsting for self-expression, burst out in lyrics and sing and dance in divine ecstasy from the depth of the heart. Some of them like streams profusely flowing for us are protectors and saviours, and some of them shine in the sight of the beholder because shine they must by nature.

13. \(\text{Ya rśvā rśtīvidyutāḥ kavayaḥ santi vedhasah.}
\text{Tamṛṣe mārutāṁ gaṇāṁ namasyā ramayā girā.}\)

Those who are great and strong, formidable scholars of science, of heat, light and electric energy, poetic visionaries, writers and singers, and sages of the sacred love: for that class of dynamic leaders and path finders, O Rshi, seer, sage and scholar, offer reverence and homage and, with the celebrant’s words of praise and appreciation, give them the feel of the joy and holiness of their vocation.

14. \(\text{Accha rṣe mārutāṁ gaṇāṁ dānā mitraṁ na yoṣaṇā. Divo vā dhṛṣṭāva ojasā stutā dhībhiriṣanyata.}\)

Just as a maiden goes to her chosen friend and love, so, O Rshi, sagely seer and scholar, with gifts of homage, go reverentially to the congregation of the Maruts, dynamic scholars, leaders and divinities of the world. O Maruts, brilliant as light, loving, bold and determined, blazing with splendour, celebrated by the wise and visionaries, come, hasten to our yajna and receive our homage.

As the stream flows and meets the sea, so should the man of thought and reverence eagerly meet the Maruts, brilliant and divine natures in humanity, with gifts of homage and associate with the wise and brave, celebrated and gracious scholars, leaders and path makers who are well versed in law and the ethics of conduct.

I meet, associate, and write with the Maruts, those leading lights wise and brave who speak to me as to a friend and brother in search of human and divine bonding. Mighty powerful are they who speak to me of the Holy Word, of heat and light of the sun, the earth and the cow. They speak of the rainbow skies and spaces, and of Mother Nature, and then they reveal to me the omnipresent omnipotent Father and Rudra, lord of justice and mercy.
17. Sapta me sapta śākina ekamekā śatā daduḥ. Yamunāyāmadhi śrutamud rādho gavyam mṛje ni rādho aśvyam mṛje.

Seven and seven are the Maruts, wise and brave, and each one of them gives me a hundred gifts of knowledge, will and strength for action, and love of life and divine worship. What I have heard comprehensively on yama and niyama, ethics of conduct in social and personal life, and on the subject of success regarding earthly life (abhyudaya), and the philosophy of attainment and ultimate destination and arrival (nihshreyas), I specify and refine for practical application and success in the earthly situation and in relation to the ultimate freedom of Moksha in the personal psychic and spiritual situation.

Mandala 5/Sukta 53

Maruts Devata, Shyavashva Atreya Rshi

का वैद्व जानंमश्व का वा पुरा सुन्नव्यास मुरुतां। यद्यूयुज किलास्यः॥ १ ॥

1 Ko veda jānameśāṁ ko vā purā sumneśvāsa marutāṁ. Yad yuyujre kilāsyah.

Who knows the origin of these Maruts? Who was present in the peace and pleasure of the Maruts? Whoever concentrates the mind, meditates on their presence, and joins them, and then has the clear and specific language to describe them, knows these stormy powers.

Who perceives them riding their chariot on earth and in the skies and who knows whither they move? For which generous man or power do they rise and flow and turn like friends with the showers of their mysterious message and food for life?

They speak to me who come to me with lights of revelation, flying like birds in ecstasy: “Noble men among mortals free from sin and folds of ignorance have seen these Maruts.” Say this, appreciate and praise the Maruts.

The people who are innately brilliant, who shine in their open works and achievements, in their speech and expression, in garlands of applause in series of action programmes, in their golds and jewels of honour, and who ride pioneering chariots of nations and resound in the twang of their bow: they are the Maruts.
5. Yuṣmākaṁ smā rathāṁ anu mude dadhe maruto jīradānavaḥ. Vṛṣṭī dyāvo yatīriva.

O Maruts, leading lights and unaging pioneers, I take to your chariots for your pleasure and exhilaration and rise to the clouds of shower and lights of heaven.

The treasure wealth of holy vapours, which the generous leading lights of the science of yajna cause to move from the regions of sunlight for the generous creators and givers of food and energy, shower down to the earth and skies: The skies then form the clouds and let them rain down on the earth and the floods move as directed over the thirsty lands.

(This mantra is on the science of rain and irrigation which can further be explained with reference to Chhandogya Upanishad 5, 4, 1 to 5, 8, 2, and Gita 3, 14-16.)

Released and freely flowing, soaking and breaking the lands with the flood, the rivers flow over and on, irrigating the lands like mother cows feeding the people. Like horses they go on covering and leaving their track behind, the streams revolve as they go on in their circular course of yajna.

8. Ā yāta maruto diva āntarikṣaḍamāduta. Māva sthāta parāvataḥ.

O Maruts, leading lights and stormy forces of nature and humanity, creators and givers, come, come from the lights of heaven, come from the skies, come from near and afar, be on the move, never stay still, do not stagnate.

May the earth and her environment never move without light and water for you. May the flowing river and the rolling sea never stop for you. May the wind and vapour, blowing, flowing and refreshing for human habitations never be still. May everything, every force of the Maruts, on the earth and in the environment be for your comfort and well being. Let nothing hold you back.

For which cultured, creative and generous personality, for which producing and providing community of yajnic gifts, do the Maruts, dynamic forces of life, move forward today by this chariot with controlled motion and direction?

O people of the earth, the showers of peace, comfort and well being rain down on you in response to your strength, the speed and shine of your war-like chariots, the joint power and performance of your leaders, and the latest powers and policies you work out and follow for your peace and progress.

Let us move together step by step in disciplined order in accord with the united interests and aspirations of each unit of the defence forces, each unit of the economic order and each unit of the social order of these people for you all as a nation with the appraisal and appreciation of these with the best of our understanding and action.

For which cultured, creative and generous personality, for which producing and providing community of yajnic gifts, do the Maruts, dynamic forces of life, move forward today by this chariot with controlled motion and direction?

O Maruts, dynamic and progressive leaders and powers of life, that action and message of advancement by which you create and bear the food and imperishable seed of life and progress for the baby and the child and the rising generation, bear and bring the same gifts and action for us too, the honour and good fortune, universal health and wealth, and the secret and source of that accomplishment we ask of you.

O citizens and leaders of the world, let us get over the malignant scandalisers and crooked evil mongers, having given up inner evils and despicable failures and adversities with noble thoughts and positive actions. Let us have the showers of peace and united action, waters of holiness, light of truth and wisdom, and food and tonics for good health, all with the Maruts together.
15. Sudevaḥ samahāsati suvīro naro marutaḥ sa martyaḥ. Yam trāyadhve syāma te.

O Maruts, leading lights of life, great and glorious, brilliant is that man, brave and fearless, whom you protect and promote across the seas. Let us too be the same, your own, all for you.

16. Stuhi bhojānt-stuvato asya yāmani raṇan gāvo na yavase. Yataḥ pūrvān iva sakhīṁranu hvaya girā grṛihi kāminaḥ.

Adore the Maruts, natural saviours and leading lights of humanity, givers of life and food for energy while moving on the holy path of this yajnic celebrant of theirs, rejoicing at the same time like cows running for their favourite grass. Invoke them like ancient eternal friends, and, loving as they are, celebrate them with holy songs of adoration.
Maruts, leading lights of humanity, offer this song of adoration. And for the renowned yajaka who lights and feeds the fire to adore the divinities of nature through yajna on the heights, moves the clouds and brings the showers, offer gifts of human wealth of high value with songs of praise and appreciation. Loving scholars value the gifts of divinity from the lights of heaven.

O Maruts of sky and space, your powerful currents of wind laden with vapours, bearers of food, energy and healthful age for living beings, going all round on the wings of electric energy, take on the thunder of lightning roaring as trinity of wind, water and lightning, and the waters shower over the earth everywhere as harbingers of food and health for all.

O leading lights of humanity, know that the Maruts command the mighty electric energy in the skies, light up the thunder, energise the winds and break the claws. Blazing with splendour, ferocious with force, roaring with thunder, they wear the rumble of spatial boom shaking the mountains and burst in floods of incessant rain.

4. O potent Maruts, mighty blazing and roaring powers of cosmic winds, Rudras, breakers and makers of things, you shake the nights and days in and out, you shake the skies and atmosphere, you move the particles of matter and pass over regions as the ship sails over the sea. You break open the strongholds of nature and yet you never hurt nor destroy.

5. Tad v\text{\textacuten}ry\text{\textacuten}ni vo maruto mahitvana\text{\textacuten}n d\text{\textacuten}rgam\text{\textacuten} tat\text{\textacuten}na s\text{\textacuten}ryo na yojanam. That lustre and splendour of yours, that extensive grandeur of yours radiates like the light and gravitation of the sun. Incomprehensible is the course of your radiations of energy which penetrates even the dark and densest clouds and mountains which are otherwise impenetrable.

O Maruts, leading lights of nature and humanity, commanders of strength, creativity and intelligence, your power and splendour is apparent as it shines since, like a storm, it shakes the flood and the forest. O friends and comrades, guide our activity relentlessly in motion onward on the straight and right path just as the eye shows the path to the traveller and helps him to move on and makes it easy for him to follow.

7. Na sa jīyate maruto na hanyate na sredhati na vyathate na riṣyati. Nāsyā rāya upa dasyanti notaya ṛśīṃ vā yaṁ rājānāṁ vā suṣūdatha.

O Maruts, divine powers of nature and brilliant leading lights of humanity, the person you protect and guide, mature, refine and temper is never overcome, nor killed, nor decays, fears or falls, nor hurts anyone. Nor do his powers, honours and excellence, defences and protections ever deplete and exhaust. Indeed, the person grows in knowledge as a sage and shines bright in splendour as a leader and ruler.

Great organisers, winners of multitudes and human habitations like leading lights, makers of men and dispensers of justice on the paths of life, the Maruts are reservoirs of vitality and exhilaration like the clouds of living waters and freshness of breeze. And when the mighty forces set out in motion, whistling, roaring, thundering, they fill the rivers, lakes and oceans over and surfeit the earth with honey sweets of food and energy for the joy of life.

The wide world of abundant ways opens and clears its highways for the Maruts, adventurers who move like winds. The heaven of light extends all her expansive spaces for those who fly. The regions of the skies open up their paths for the winds, and the life giving clouds and mountains open up their depths and caverns for the heroes of initiative and adventure.

O Maruts, leading lights of the love of life and joy of heaven, you bear the burdens of life together for all and lead them all to celestial joy and the truth of Dharma. You feel delighted and celebrate the sunrise, and never do your horses in harness relent, but galloping on at high speed reach the destined end of this existential highway.

11. Aṃseṣu va ṛṣṭayaḥ patsu khādayo vakṣaḥsu rukmā maruto rathe śubhaḥ. Agnibhrājaso vidyuto gabhastyoḥ śiprāḥ śīrṇasu vitatā hiraṇ-yayīḥ.

O Maruts, warriors of the winds for humanity, on your shoulders are blazing lances, at your feet your assistants, on your chests are shining corselets, on your chariot are flames of the purity of fire, in your hands are flashes of lightning, and on your heads are protective golden helmets. Victory is assured.
O Maruts, leading celebrants of action and Divinity, like a master of his own freedom in the laws of Truth and Divinity, shake the tree of existence by your noble action, bring down the balance sheet of your fruits of karma to Zero and win that rewarding state of ultimate freedom and bliss, void of suffering, beyond comprehension, which is pure ineffable refulgence of Divinity. Winding up their tally of karma, dismantling their fortifications, shining in the light divine, waxing in their search for Truth, when the celebrants raise the chant of Aum, they declare the victory and rest at the end of the road.

O Maruts, leading celebrants of action and Divinity, like a master of his own freedom in the laws of Truth and Divinity, shake the tree of existence by your noble action, bring down the balance sheet of your fruits of karma to Zero and win that rewarding state of ultimate freedom and bliss, void of suffering, beyond comprehension, which is pure ineffable refulgence of Divinity. Winding up their tally of karma, dismantling their fortifications, shining in the light divine, waxing in their search for Truth, when the celebrants raise the chant of Aum, they declare the victory and rest at the end of the road.

O Maruts, leading lights of wisdom and vision for humanity, masters of discriminative knowledge, travelling by radiations of Divinity in the mind, let us, we pray, be masters of the life-giving wealth of light divine given by you. O Maruts, bless us with that wealth of thousandfold value which decays not but shines like a star of heaven for ever.

O Maruts, leading lights of humanity, you protect and promote the heroic wealth, honour and excellence of the nation with her heroes. You revere, protect and promote the sage who chants the hymns of Samaveda in celebration of humanity and Divinity. You bear and bring the food, energy and the speed of progress for the maintenance of life on the globe, and you hold and maintain the harmonious, dynamic and glorious social order on earth.

15.  Tad vo yāmi draviṇāṁ sadya-ūtayo yenā svarṇa tatanāma nṛṇrabhi. Idaṁ su me maruto haryatā vaco yasya tarema tarasā sataṁ himāḥ.

O Maruts, leading lights of humanity and generous divinities of nature, instant givers of protection and all round support, listen and accept this holy voice of mine: I feel blest with that wealth of yours by which we can promote the life of humanity as in a heaven of bliss on earth, and by which we would live a happy life over a hundred years with strength and success.

अवृत्तत्॥ १ ॥

Adorable Maruts, devout pioneers and leading lights of yajnic progress in unison with humanity, commanding vast knowledge and power to bear the mighty burdens of life, wielding brilliant weapon in hand with golden corselet on the chest, press forward by coursers of instant speed controlled by sense and judgement. So do their noble chariots on and on.

Let the chariots roll on with the leading lights on way to the land of honour and excellence.

Great and glorious as you are, you know, you hold and command the blazing forces by yourself, and while you go over, explore and know the vast earth and the environment, rule accordingly and shine. And let the chariots roll on with the blazing pioneers and with their might and splendour traverse the skies and spaces.

Maruts, leading lights and rulers of the earth and her children, risen together, excellent, anointed, sanctified and covenanted together for the honour, excellence and grace of life, rise and advance the freedom and happiness of life for the people, and thus, with their interests and holy ambitions, shine in truth and rectitude like rays of the sun. Let the chariots roll on with the leading lights to the holy lands of bliss and freedom.

4. Ābhūṣeṇyāṁ vo maruto mahītvanāṁ didṛkṣeṇ-yaṁ sūryasyeva cakṣaṇam. Uto asmāñ amṛttatve dadhā-tana śubham yātāmanu rathā avṛtsata.

O Maruts, leading lights of life, graceful is your greatness and grandeur, radiant your form and conduct as light of the sun. With your light and grace, lead us to establish ourselves in the regions of immortality. Let the chariots roll on with the leading lights to the heights of goodness and grace.

5. Uḍīrayathā marutaḥ samudrato yūyam vṛṣṭim varṣayathā purīśiṇāḥ. Na vo dasrā upa dasyanti dhenavaḥ śubham yātāmanu rathā avṛtsata.

O Maruts, ruling lights of the earth, just as the winds raise vapours from the seas and shower them down from the sky, so you inspire the people, energise the earth, shake up the clouds and bring the showers of prosperity from the seas and spaces. O wondrous workers and generous leaders, the fertilities of nature, sunlight, earths and cows never desert you, nor ever exhaust for you. Let the chariots of life roll on with the leading lights of generosity to happiness and prosperity.

6. \textit{Yadaśvān dhūrṣu prṣatīr-ayugdhvāṁ hiraṇyā-yān

O Maruts, windy travellers of the skies, when you use liquid fuel and air for motive power in the front part of your chariot, put on your protective golden suit and release the energy drop by drop and spark by spark, you leave behind all the contestants on the journey. Let the chariots roll on with the travellers of space for a noble cause for a noble destination.

7. \textit{Na parvātā na nadyo varanta vo yatrācīdhvāṁ maruto gacchathedu tat. Uta dyāvāprīthivī yātha-

O Maruts, heroes of the earth and skies, no mountains, nor clouds, nor rivers in flood any way obstruct your course wherever you travel, nor do they disturb the place you reach. Indeed, your course is all over the earth and skies and unto the regions of light across the spaces. Let the chariots roll on with leading lights of the earth and space for the well being of life on earth.

8. Yat pūrvyaṁ maruto yacca nūtanaṁ yadudyate vaśavo yacca śasyate. Viśvasya tasya bhavathā navedasaḥ śubham yātāmanu rathaḥ avṛtsata.

O Maruts, leading lights of the world and havens of life and comfort, whatever is old, and whatever is new, and whatever is spoken, admired and adored: of all that be cognizant and aware in the full. Let the chariots roll on with leading lights of knowledge and life's joy for the good of humanity.

9. Mr̥lata no maruto mā vadhiṣṭanāṁ smabhyaṁ śarma bahulaṁ vi yantarana. Adhi stotrasya sakhyasya gātana śubham yātāmanu rathaḥ avṛtsata.

O Maruts, leading lights of yajna, lords in command of the world's wealth, adorable performers of yajna, come you all, happy, singing and rejoicing, join our yajna and enjoy the sweets of our yajnic homage. Lead us from all adversities to excellence and prosperity. We pray: may we be masters, protectors and promoters of the world's wealth, honour and excellence for all.

Agni, ruler of the land, today I call upon the most daring troop of the Maruts, commandos of the nation decorated with golden honours of rainbow brilliance from amongst the most shining and intelligent defence forces of the country.
2. Yathā cinmanyase hṛdā tadinme jagmurāśasah.

Ye te nediśṭhamān havanānyāgaman tān varṣdha bhīmasanāndrasah.

As you believe at heart that they are such and honour them sincerely, so they would instantly come closest to you and to your expectations in response to your call. Then encourage and promote them, they are just pictures of terror for the enemies.

3. Mīlhusmatīva prthivī parāhatā madantyetyasmadā. Ṛkṣo na vo marutāḥ śimīvāṁ amo dudhro gauriva bhīmayuḥ.

Like a youthful woman wedded to a virile husband, the earth, unhurt and rejoicing, comes to us for protection, defence and promotion. O Maruts, youthful warrior defenders of the land, like a shooting star is your force, strong, unchallengeable, and terrible as a mighty bull.

4. Ni ye rinantyoyasā vṛthā gāvo na durdhuraḥ.

Aśmānāṁ cit svaryāṁ parvataṁ girīṁ pra cyāvayanti yāmabhīḥ.

The Maruts are those heroes who rush forth with their valour and splendour, throw off the yoke like untamable bulls and scatter the enemy forces, and with their advances shake up resounding mountains and break up thundering clouds.

5. Ut tiṣṭha nūnāṃ samukṣītanām. Marutāṃ purutamamapūrvyāṃ gavāṁ sargamiva hvaye.

O ruler, O citizen, rise up with joy and confidence, for, as we call in or call out of the stalls a herd of cows, so I call upon and arouse the ancient and abundant host of these mighty Maruts exalted by songs of praise.

O warriors and engineers, use the red flames of fire for moving the chariot like red horses, use the collected and stored solar energy, use the fast moving impulsion and expulsion, and use the strongest accelerative force to carry the load and move the chariot to the destination.

And now, O Maruts, adventurers and explorers of the earth, that volatile, wondrous and vociferous energy of red flames is here used in the chariot. It would not delay you any more in your advancement. Ignite and accelerate it in the chariots.

We call up and ready in harness the stormy and resounding chariot of the Maruts in which both earth and the heavens treasuring many adorable energy prizes join with the Maruts in a bond of friendship.

I admire that force and power of your chariot, shining, adorable and good for the chariot, in which are exalted the generous earth-and-heaven energies, nobly manifested and beneficent in abundance as friends of the Maruts.

आ सुदासु इन्द्रवन्त: सुजार्षसा हिरण्यरथु: सुविताय गन्तन। हुय वां अस्पत्यति हयत मतिस्त्रृणां न दिव उत्सा उदन्यवः। १॥
1. Ā rudrāsa indravantaḥ sajoṣaso hirānyarathāḥ suvitāya gantana. Iyam vo asmat prayate matis-trṣṇaje na diva utsā udanyave.

O Rudras, powers of justice, rectitude and dispensation, commanding honour, power and excellence of the world, loving kind and friendly, going by golden chariots of glory with gifts of good fortune, prosperity and well being for all, this love, desire, understanding and prayer of us all is addressed to you: Come like a wave of divine nectar for the thirsty waiting for a drink on the shore.

O Maruts, tempestuous heroes of the world, children of the essence of nature in love with the earth, you are blest with the voice of thunder, light of knowledge, wisdom and understanding of the speed of mind, mighty bows, unfailing arrows and inexhaustible quivers, noble steeds and excellent chariots and the best arms and armaments. Go forward, noble heroes, and do good to all.

O Maruts, children of the firmament, winds and tempests of nature’s energy, you agitate the regions of light, break the clouds and shake the mountains to create wealth for the generous giver. At your approach forests shake with fear and the earth vibrates when in a state of passion for water showers you join and charge the clouds of vapour.

The Maruts command the fury and splendour of the winds. Cleansed and anointed by holy water, they replete the showers of love and justice all the year round. They are highly impressive and handsome in body and mind as self-controlled people are. They command the moderate yellow as well as the intense red flames of the yajnic fires of life’s dynamics. Untouched by sinful involvements, refined and discriminative in thought and judgement, they are refulgent like the sun and large-hearted like space by virtue of their innate greatness.
5. Purudrapsā aṇijimantah sudānavas-tveṣasam-drśo anavabarādhasah. Sujātāso januṣā rukmavakṣaso divo arkā amṛtaṁ nāma bhejire.

Universally generous like the perennial stream of soma and showers of nature’s joy, versatile of form and action as light in spectrum colours, holy and vastly charitable, they see the reality in all its variety of true colours as light reveals the real forms without screen effects. Commanding imperishable wealth, power and competence in their own right by birth and genetic merit of previous karma, they wear their beauty and regality of life and conduct in their heart and hands. Loving, brilliant and adorable, the Maruts define, deserve, serve and thus justify the name and description: Immortal.

6. Rṣṭayo vo maruto aṁsayaradhi saha ojo bāhvorvo balaṁ hitam. Nṛmṇā śīrṣasvāyudhā ratheṣu vo viśvā vaḥ śrīradhi tanūṣu pipiše.

O Maruts, leading lights of humanity, on your shoulders you bear the blazing lances and the burdens of forbearance with courage and splendour of life, while the force of action is concentrated in your hands. On your heads you carry the care and comfort of humanity with the arms and ammunitions of protection and progress in your chariots. Indeed, the entire wealth and honour, beauty and grace of life reflects in your body and personality.
7. Gomad-aśvāvad rathavat suvīram candravad rādho maruto dadā naḥ. Praśastiṁ naḥ krṇuta rudriyāso bhakṣīya vo’vaso daivyasya.

O Maruts, leading lights of humanity, generous divinities of nature, indomitable powers of love and justice, give us the wealth of lands, cows and the revealing language of knowledge bright as sun rays. Give us the force of noble heroes equipped with fast transport and uninterrupted communications. Give us wealth and competence for success with the beauty and graces of culture. Promote our power and prestige so that we may share and participate in your human protection and divine evolution to the grace of freedom and immortality.

8. Haye naro maruto mṛlatā nastuvīmaghāso amṛtā rtajñāḥ. Satyaśrutah kavayo yuvāno brhadgirayo brhadukṣamāṇāḥ.

O Maruts, leading lights of humanity and divinities of nature, commanders of unbounded wealth, honour and excellence, immortal souls, learned sages of the laws of nature and time, world renowned voices of truth, poetic visionaries young beyond aging and debility, diviners into the infinite Word and world languages, heroes of universal generosity and generative vitality, bless us with wealth of the world, peace of mind and everlasting grace.
Mandala 5/Sukta 58

Maruts Devata, Shyavashva Atreya Rshi

I admire the blazing, tempestuous group of these Maruts, modern self-governing people who, possessed of the fastest transports and communications, move like storms, a very picture of velocity, and, shining and self-controlled, dominate over the regions of the immortals.

O sagely scholar, admire and exalt that group of leading lights, brave, generous and dexterous of hand, enthusiastically committed to noble causes, wondrous workers abundantly charitable, who are versatile achievers without reserve or bounds by virtue of their own innate strength and expertise and who are a tremendous source of peace and prosperity.
3.  "Āvo yanṭūdavāhāso adya vrṣṭim ye viśve maruto junanti. Ayaṁ yo agnīrmarutah samiddha etam juṣadhyam kavayo yuvānah."

O Maruts, eminent leaders and pioneers, may all those winds of the firmament come to you to-day in this yajna which bear the clouds and impel the rain showers. O leading scholars and scientists, poetic visionaries and youthful researchers, lighted is this fire, come and take it over for the rain yajna.

O Maruts, leading lights of the nation, holy performers meeting and working together for yajnic development, you create the inspiring ruler who is an architect of the nation. From you arises the administrator of strong hand and will. From you arise the warriors of strong arms, and from you arises the brave man, the hero who commands the army, the cavalry and the flying force for the people.

5.  "Arā ivedacaramā aheva prapra jāyante akavā mahobhiḥ. Prśneḥ putrā upamāso rabhiṣṭhāḥ svayā matyā marutaḥ sam mimikṣu."

Like the spokes of a wheel in motion, together, undivided, equal and integrated, whole, generative, the Maruts rise anew like days on and on with their power and forces. Children of mother earth, firmament and radiations of sunlight, strongest and most eminent, with their own perception, understanding, dedication and determination, they analyse, catalyse, integrate and generate new ideas, forces, institutions and traditions, all renewed and revitalised.

6. Yat prāyāśiṣṭa prṣatībhir-aśvair-vīḷupavibhir-maruto ratbehiḥ. Kṣodanta āpo riṇate vanān-yavosriyo vṛṣabhaḥ krandatu dyauḥ.

   By their motive forces and chariots equipped with strong wheels of initiative and advancement, the Maruts proceed with showers of new life as leaders and pioneers of a new age, and as they proceed, the dormant vapours of life agitate with new ferment and join the rays of the sun, the cloud roars with thunder and lightning and the earth receives the showers of new life.

7. Prathīṣṭa yāman prthivī cidesāṁ bharteva garbhaṁ svamicchavo dhuḥ. Vātān hyaśvān dhuryā-yuyujre varṣaṁ svedam cakrire rudriyāsaḥ.

   As the Maruts proceed, the earth waxes with desire and fertility. Like the husband man, the Maruts shower their own vitality on earth as the seed of new life. Thus do the Maruts, forces of new life, generative and enlightened, commanding power and judgement, yoke new winds and motive forces to the chariot of life and move the wheels of history forward with the shower of their own sweat of the brow.

O Maruts, leading lights of history, be kind and gracious and rejoice with us. You command the grandeur of life’s wealth, honour and excellence. You are the immortal spirit of humanity, observers of Law and Truth, renowned and blest with the Revelation of Truth, poetic visionaries, ever young and modern, masters of universal voice and blest with the spirit of renewal and regeneration.

Mandala 5/Sukta 59

Maruts Devata, Shyavashva Atreya Rshi

Adore and exalt those who are close to you, who do good and observe truth and law in their character, conduct and action for you, for your welfare, for the generous, and for the earth, the firmament and the regions of light. They energise the motive forces, radiate their light and lustre upto the regions of space and attain their ends by the seas.

By the power and force of these Maruts, the earth trembles with fear and, like an overloaded boat going over the sea, shakes in agitation under pressure. Seen from far, they are known by their movements and, leading lights as they are, they go forward in the great battle business of life and its organisation.

For the beauty of the regions of the earth, you are like the highest peak of mountain ranges. In the shower of vapour and in the clearance of mists, you are like the sun, eye of the world. You are handsome and excellent like race horses, and, O leaders and pioneers, you shine like rays of the sun for the glory of humanity.
4. Ko vo mahânti mahatâmudaśnavat kaskāvyā marutaḥ ko ha pauṃsyā. Yūyaṃ ha bhūmim kiraṇam na rejatha pra yad bharadhve suvitāya dāvane.

   O Maruts, leading lights of the world, you are great. Who can reach your grandeur and achievements? Who can realise your divine vision and imaginative creations? O virile heroes, who can approach your power and potential? You illuminate the earth as sun beams and even shake it like particles of dust, while you rain down showers of generosity as gifts for the charity and welfare of the people.

5. Aśvā ivedaruṣāsah sabandhavaḥ śūrā iva prayudhaḥ prota yuyudhuḥ. Maryā iva suvṛdh vāvṛdhurnarah śūryasya cakṣuḥ pra minanti vrṣṭibhiḥ.

   O Maruts, leading lights of the world, sanguine and bold, you are ever going forward like horses on the course, uninterrupted. Brotherly and friendly toward all equally, fighting like warriors for all, you are always struggling for a better world. Rising and growing like mortal life forms, you are evolving continuously. And with the torrents of rain you dim the blazing light of the sun in mist.

6. Mimūṭu dyaur-aditir-vūtaye na- saÅ dūnucitrū ṣa uḍaso yatantūm. cucyavur-divyā kośameta ṣe rudrasya marutogūtāḥ.

   May the heaven of light and mother earth bless us and help us rise in light and generosity, peace and
6. Te ajyeṣṭhā akaniṣṭhāsa udbhido’madhyamāsān mahasā vi vāvṛdhuh. Sujātāso januṣā prśnimātaro

None highest, none lowest, none middling, among them, they are equals all, burst forth into life through layers of impediments. Nobly born by nature, children of heaven, earth and the firmament, they are mortals, humans all, who, as we wish, come to us and appreciate us all. They grow and rise by their own strength and grandeur.

7. Vayo na ye śreṇīḥ papturojasā’ntān divo brhatāḥ

They soar together like flights of birds with the innate force of their light and lustre over mighty mountain peaks across the middle regions to the bounds of expansive heaven. Commanding the two-way motion of their circuitous energy, they shake the clouds of the sky and break them into showers.

May the heaven of light and mother earth bless us and help us rise in light and generosity, peace and joy. May the dawns, wonderful givers, join us and help us to rise in beauty and grace of life. O Rshi, lord of universal vision, may these Maruts, children of the lord of justice and rectitude, sung and adored, singing and rejoicing, shower the treasure of heavenly light and joy on earth.

Mandala 5/Sukta 60

Maruts and / or Agni Maruts Devata, Shyavashva Atreya Rshi

Collecting the work already done for us in the field, happy and enthusiastic, in perfect faith with relentless dedication and investments, I study and adore Agni, heat, light and electric energy, rich source of protection and progress, in order to extend the knowledge, hoping that, going round the world as if by tempestuous chariots of the winds in right order, I would raise the song of celebration in honour of the scholars and humanity. May the lord of knowledge accept and consecrate our work!

1. Īle agniṁ svavasaṁ namobhiriha prasatto vi cayat kṛtam naḥ. Rathairiva pra bhare vājayaodbhiḥ pradakṣiṇin-marutāṁ stomam-ṛdyāṁ.

2. Ā ye tasthuḥ prṣaṭiṣu śrutāsu sukheṣu rudrā maruto ratheṣu. Vanā cidugrā jihate ni vo bhīyā prthivī cid rejate parvataścit.
Rudras, pranic energies of life and natural catalysis, Maruts, heat, light, electric and wind energies, which abide and energise streams and showers, which work in means of transport and comfort, and which are described in works of revelation and research, are mighty, tempestuous and blazing. O Rudras and Maruts, catalytic, integrative and regenerative energies, under your power and fear of natural law the sun-rays radiate, the forests tremble, the earth moves and shines, the clouds break and the mountains shake.

O Maruts, tempestuous energies of divine omnipotence, when you agitate, blow and flow together like streams of water—which is just your play in life—the densest cloud and the great ancient mountain cower in fear and the top bounds of the regions of light vibrate with the waves of your boundless roar.

4. Varā ived raivatāso hiraṇyair-abhi svadhā-bhistanvah pipiśre. Śriye śreyāṁsas-tavaso ratheṣu satrā mahāṁsi cakrire tanūṣu.

Like eminent people nobly born in life’s affluence who adorn themselves with their innate graces and golden attainments of culture and education, the Maruts, leading lights of humanity, commanding honour and excellence, riding their chariots, do great actions of truth and rectitude in their life and conduct for the beauty of human culture and grace of living as reflections of their inner self.

None highest, none lowest, all equal as brothers together, the Maruts, leading lights of life and humanity, work and grow and advance for the honour and prosperity of life and living. Their father and creator, Rudra, lord omnipotent of justice and dispensation, ever young, giver of sustenance, and mother earth and the firmament, ever abundant and generous for the Maruts through the bright days, look after them and inspire them.

O Maruts, creators of prosperity, honour and excellence, and Rudras, leading lights of justice and rectitude, and Agni, leading light of knowledge, whether you abide in the highest, or middle or the lowest regions of life and action, or in the light of heaven, establish us in right knowledge and action of the transparent order, and know of our action and homage which we offer to Divinity in our life.

अग्नि ययास्ते सिवव्याद्वस्त्र तवस्य वशयः उत्तराद्धि शुष्कः। त मन्दसाना धुनया रिशा ददसा वाम धंत यज्ञमानाय सुन्नवत् ॥ ७ ॥

7. Agniśca yanmaruto viśvavedaso divo vahadhva uttarādadhī śubhīḥ. Te mandasānā dhunayo riśādaso vāmam dhatta yajamānāya sunvate.

O Agni, leading light, and Maruts, dynamic leaders and pioneers, blest with knowledge and wealth of the world, you abide on top of the regions of light and love by your own will and desire and bring down showers of light and wisdom. O leaders and pioneers, such as you are, movers and shakers of the negatives, and as you rejoice on the vedi with the yajakas, bring down the gift of life’s wealth and beauty from over the levels of ordinary mortals for the yajamana and the creative soma yajaka.

अग्नि मरुद्भिः सुभयाद्भिः क्षणमं तिब मन्दसाना गणंश्रिभि। पावकभिविश्वामन्विभिरयुभिवश्चानर पदिवा कुतुम्ना सांजूः ॥ ८ ॥

O leading light of the world, Agni, Vaishvanara, power and passion of life, friend and associate of higher light and wisdom by virtue of your character and conduct, come rejoicing to the vedi, share and enjoy the sweets of soma, life’s joy, wealth, honour and excellence in the company of the Maruts, dynamic people on the march who are pure and gracious, praiseworthy, pride of the republic, purifying, inspiring, strengthening and beautifying the world, people who love life and add to the grace of life by living well and gracefully.

क छो नरः श्रद्धतमः य एकमक्ष आयूः।
पूर्मस्या: परावते। ॥ १ ॥

1. Ke śṭhā naraḥ śreṣṭhatamā ya ekaeka āyaya.
   Paramasyāḥ parāvataḥ.

   Who are you, leaders and pioneers, best and most excellent, that come one by one and reach all together from farthest of far distances?

क्वा वाचश्ववः क्वा भीष्णवः कथं शंक कथा यय।
पूष्च सदा नुसायमः। ॥ २ ॥

   Where are your horses? Where the reins? What is your power and potential? How do you move? Where is the saddle on the horse back? Where is the bridle that controls the direction by the nose?

They goad and spur on the horses’ flanks, the riders make them move fast in order, their muscles strained and waxed, as parents raise their children to the optimum with freedom and control.

Go far, brave leaders of the people, nobly born and nobly educated, men of vibrant discipline trained in the crucibles of fire as you are, and happily married.

5. Sanat sāśvyaṁ paśumuta gavyaṁ sātāvayam. Śyāvāśvastutāya yā dorcīrayopabarbrhat.

The woman who opens her arms with love and joins her brave and dynamic husband shoulder to shoulder in work and household jointly achieves a hundredfold wealth of land and cattle, plenty of food and energy, and movable and immovable acquisitions.
Adevatrād-arādhasaḥ.

O man, the woman deserves your respect and reverence and love because she remains a generous and graceful accomplisher in the home in spite of the man’s want of piety and success.

7. Vi yā jānāti jasurim vi tṛṣyantam vi kāminam.
Devatrā kṛṣute manah.

She who knows well the man struggling with want and deprivation, thirsting for love and recognition, ambitious for dedication and success, steadies her mind in concentration and the divine will in action for success in married life in piety.

8. Uta ghā nemo astutah pumāṅ iti bruve paṇih.
Sa vairadeya it samaḥ.

And I say: Whether the man is worthy of praise or unworthy of praise, but being the husband he is half of the woman’s life (as the woman is his better half), and has equal rights and responsibilities in the family affairs and equal conjugal rights.

And she, my wife, young, happy, learned, going fast forward, clearly shows the way of life to me, virile, learned, seeker of high renown, going forward by chariot, which we two draw like two equal ruddy horses.

Hail to him, disciple of a specialist of transport, who gives me a hundred gifts of lands and cows and forms of knowledge and takes me across the seas as by a mighty boat.

Those who bring hither instant showers of rain, tasting sweets of honey drinks here, bear and hold the food, energy and wealth of the world.

Those, who by their beauty and grace of culture shine over earth and skies in chariots like the sun in heaven above, (bear and hold the food, energy and wealth of the world).

Young, bright and bold, that group of Maruts, pioneers of humanity, riding their bright and blazing chariots, admirable beyond reproach, rises over the spatial oceans, unobstructed and unchallenged.

Who would know of them for sure where these tempestuous heroes born of truth, immaculate and free challengers of sin, work and rejoice and celebrate their victory?

15. Yūyanī martāṁ vipanyavaḥ praṇetāra itthā-dhiyā. Śrotāro yāmahūtiṣu.

O leading lights, admirable heroes, with intelligence and understanding, thus, you are inspirers, guides and saviours of mortals. And you listen when they call on you in peace or distress for help and assistance.
16. Te no vasūni kāmyā puruścandrā risādasah. Ā yajñiyāso vavṛttana.

Thus they, adorable benefactors, creators of good and destroyers of evil by yajna, abundant in golden gifts, may, we pray, continue to bring us the wealth and honours of excellence we desire.

O divine spirit of night and vibrations of peace, listen and, like a charioteer, for me, carry this song and words of prayer far to the regenerative lord of life.

18. Uta me vocatāditi sutasome rathavītau. Na kāmo apa veti me.

And then say this for me: The yajna is complete, soma is distilled, the chariot arrived in peace, and my prayer and desire never goes astray.

This man of yajnic action, honour and excellence travelling by chariot straight like rays of the sun across the clouds lives in the world and reaches his destination without difficulty.
Mandala 5/Sukta 62

Mitra - Varuna Devata, Shrutavid Atreya Rshi

O Mitra and Varuna, light and life of the universe, I know the thousand radiations, and I have seen that one fixed centre of your reality, Rtam, Eternal Truth, covered by Rtam, cosmic manifestations of its mutability and the laws of mutability, where the radiations converge and wherefrom they are released around. And that eternal centre is the essential, ultimate and highest form of all existential forms of divinity, the One and yet many at the same time.

1. Rtena ṛtamapihitam dhruvaṁ vāṁ sūryasya yatra vimucantyaśvān. Daśā śatā saha tathus-tadekaṁ devānāṁ śreṣṭham ī vapoṣāmapaśyam.

O Mitra and Varuna, light and life of the universe, I know the thousand radiations, and I have seen that one fixed centre of your reality, Rtam, Eternal Truth, covered by Rtam, cosmic manifestations of its mutability and the laws of mutability, where the radiations converge and wherefrom they are released around. And that eternal centre is the essential, ultimate and highest form of all existential forms of divinity, the One and yet many at the same time.

2. Tat su vāṁ mitrāvaruṇā mahītvamārmā tathuṣṭhāṣṭhirahbhīdhutuḥ. Viśvāḥ pinvatāḥ śvasaraśya dhenā anu vāmekāḥ pavirā vavarta.

O Mitra and Varuna, sun and the surrounding waters of life, that living grandeur of yours, the One constant impeller of life, the unmoved mover, Spirit of existence at the centre, vests in the immovable forms of life, herbs and trees, by days and nights. Thus you nourish all the streams of life while one of you, the sun, goes round and round in orbit by the law of the One at Mitra and Varuna, sun and space, light and law, heat and water, refulgent rulers of the world, generous creators and givers, together with your powers and actions, you hold the earth and heaven, feed and promote the greenery of nature, sustain the planets, and create and shower the rains.

Mitra and Varuna, rulers and scientists of the world, may your motive forces of transport well used and well steered like horses by reins and light by rays bear you and bring you hither. Purified and reinforced waters and liquid fuels are under your command, and let streams of water flow when the fire is ignited.
Mitra and Varuna, leading lights and dynamic forces of the world, in keeping with Vedic tradition and your own honour and fame, enhancing your personality and character, preserving and promoting the wide earth and environment, like protecting and augmenting the light and fire of yajna with mantric chants of application and acts of self-sacrifice, with wealth of food and energy for input, and commanding strength and expertise, you sit at the high steer of the nation and join centres of production and progress across the earth.

अर्कविहस्ता सुकृत परस्य यं त्रासांथ वरुणञ्जास्वानतः।
राजोना त्रपरहेणीयमाना सहस्रस्थूरण विभूतः सुह द्वाखः ६।

Mitra and Varuna, leading lights of vision and judgement, ruling and refulgent powers of humanity, kind and loving nobilities of non-violent hands, holy of action, helpful for others, seated at the centres of yajnic activity over the earth’s regions, ruling and protecting the social order without hurting and damaging it, both of you bear and hold up the order of a thousand pillars together and protect it against fear and violence of terror.

हिर्णयनिर्णिगयो अस्य स्थ्रूणा वि भोजत दिव्यश्रवाजनीव।
भुद रात्रि निमित्ता तिल्चिल वा सुनम मध्व अधि-गत्यस्य। ७।

This social order is distinctive, discriminative between gold and merely glittering. It rests on pillars of gold, and it shines like lightning in the skies. Its policy is framed and defined in the house of holiness or, let us say, on the fields of fertility. Let us hope and pray we join and share the honey sweets created by the leading lights and rulers of judgement at the helm of the nation and by the people in the home by the fire-side.

8. Hiraṇyārūpamuśaso vyuṣṭāvayaḥ sthūṇamuditā sūryasya. Ā rohatho varuṇa mitra gartamataś-cakṣāthe aditiṁ ditiṁ ca.

O Mitra and Varuna, rulers and leaders of the earth, commanding vision and judgement, at the break of dawn and rise of the sun you ride your chariot of golden pillars and take your seat on the helm and thence watch the realm for what is permanent of value and preservable and what is merely transient and destructible.

9. Yad baṁhiśṭam nātīvidhe sudānuḥ acchidraṁ śarma bhuvanasya gopā. Tena no mitrāvaruṇ-āvaviṣṭam sīṣāsanto jīgīvāṁsah syāma.

O Mitra and Varuna, ruler and leading lights of strength and judgement, generous as breath of life, unchallengeable protectors of the world, come and bless us with that greatest, highest and imperishable home of protection in which, sharing the honey sweets of life with all, we may live to achieve our ambition for victory in the struggle of existence.

Mandala 5/Sukta 63

Mitra - Varuna Devata, Archanana Atreya Rshi

Mitra and Varuna, lord of light and lord of justice and rectitude, ruler and judge, guardians of truth and law, observers of truth and law and eternal Dharma, you abide in the highest regions of existence in the presence of Divinity and ride over the chariot of life and the state while you occupy the highest seats of the social order. In this state, whoever you protect is blest, rains of honey sweets shower on him from heaven above.

Mitra, lord of love and friendship, Varuna, lord of judgement and discrimination, rulers and leading lights of this world, you shine in splendour and reveal the light of Divinity in the yajnic business of life on the earth. Just as thunder and lightning light and shake the earth and sky, so do you rule the earth. We pray to you for the shower of joy, success and the nectar sweets of immortal values in this mortal state of life.

Mitra and Varuna, ruler and leading lights like sun and shower, shining in majesty, blazing with splendour, brave and generous, guardians of heaven and light of the earth, watchful observers of the world, wielding wondrous clouds of rain and power, you stay close by us and send down showers of rain and roar of thunder by the awful force of light and winds of nature’s breath of life.

Mitra and Varuna, lord of light and lord of bliss, ruler and leading lights of the social order, your power and generosity is based in the light of Divinity and issues from there. The sun, an agent and manifestation of the same, shines with its light as weapon of enlightenment and purification. You cover the sun with an ocean of vapour and energy of cosmic electricity in the regions of light, then the cloud is formed and showers of honey drops fall as rain.

5. \textit{Rathañ yuñjate marutañ śubhe sukhaśūro na mitrāvaruṇā gaviṣṭiṣu. Rajāṃsi citrā vi caranti tanyavo divaḥ samrājā payasā na ukṣatam.}

O Mitra and Varuna, generous ruler and enlightened leaders, the Maruts, dynamic scientists and engineers, brave as warriors and tempestuous as winds, design and structure a faultless chariot and use it for the comfort and welfare of mankind. They rise in the company of sunrays to the wonderful regions of the skies, light and lightning in yajnic programmes for the good of all. O brilliant leaders, give us showers of water, milk, generative energy and creative vision.

6. \textit{Vācaṁ su mitrāvaruṇāv-irāvatīṁ parjanyaś-citrāṁ vadaśi tvīṣīmaṁ. Abhrā vasata marutaḥ su māyayā dyāṁ varṣayatam-aruṇāmarepasam.}

Just as the cloud deeply filled with vapour and highly generous rumbles with its voice of thunder and showers rains of water, fertilising, exciting and pure, similarly, O scholars, teachers and preachers, loving as Mitra, friend, and discriminative as Varuna, the judge, speak to us that language of knowledge and wisdom which is comforting, refreshing, regenerative and life giving, wonderfully engaging and illuminating, full of wonder and variety and light of life. Let the dynamic people, vibrant as winds live in plenty like the cloud, and rise to the light of heaven with knowledge and power. Powerful as Indra, brilliant as Sun, and generous as Prajapati, give us the showers of knowledge and speech, holy, bright and blazing, free of sin and evil.

7. Dharmaṃa mitrāvaruṇā vipaścīta vratā rakṣethe asurasya māyayā. Rtena viśvāṁ bhuvanaṁ vi rājathāḥ sūryamā dhattho divi citryaṁ ratham.

Mitra, O lord of light and love, and Varuna, lord of law and justice, knowing and discriminative, dedicated to the observance of the Law, you uphold, protect and promote the entire world of existence in order by Dharma, Rtam, cosmic dynamics and the innate strength and will of life. You shine in manifestation by Law and you maintain the sun in the regions of light like a marvellous chariot on the highway by the Law.
Mandala 5/Sukta 64

Mitra - Varuna Devata, Archanana Atreya Rshi

O Mitra, loving friend, and Varuna, learned scholar and lover of justice, with words of prayer and adoration we invoke and invite you, destroyers of negativity and enmity, moving forward by the strength of your arms and leading to the golden goal of joy and bliss by paths of knowledge, love and rectitude, moving as you do like shepherds leading cows to the stall.

2. Tā bāḥvā suceṭunā pra yantamasmā arcate. Šēvam hi jāryam vām viśvāsu kṣāsu joguve.

O Mitra and Varuna, sages of love and justice, extend your hands of generosity alongwith your knowledge and wisdom to this aspiring supplicant. I adore and proclaim your admirable treasure of light, love and justice over the entire regions of the world.

I wish and pray I go by the same path and reach the same goal, the home of divine bliss of this dear lord of love and non-violence, Mitra which the sages follow and reach.

4. \textit{Yuvābhyaṁ mitrāvaraṇopamaṁ dheyāmṛca. Yaddha kṣaye maghonāṁ stotṛṇāṁ ca spūrdhase.}

May I, with prayer and adoration, receive from you, Mitra and Varuna, that excellent treasure of wealth and wisdom which abides in the home of the prosperous celebrants when they have reached their golden goal of joy and which I aspire to emulate.

5. \textit{Ā no mitra sudītibhir-varunāśca sadhastha ā. Sve kṣaye maghonāṁ sakhīnāṁ ca vṛdhase.}

O Mitra and Varuna, loving friend and friend of justice and rectitude, come to us with your brilliance of knowledge and grace our home, your own place, for the advancement of friends and devotees on way to further progress.

6. \textit{Yuvāṁ no yeṣu varuṇa kṣatraṁ bṛhacca bibhṛ-\textit{thaḥ. Uru ṇo vājasātaye kṛtam rāye svastaye.}}

O lord of love and friendship, Mitra, O Varuna, lord of justice and rectitude, those whom you vest with the great social order and high excellence and guide and conduct for our sake, advance and raise higher in honour and excellence for victory, wealth and well being for us.

उच्छन्त्यां म यज्ञता दुव्र नृण रुष्णात्रिवः सूतं सामं न हस्तिभिरा पदभिधारि। नरा बिभ्रतावचनानंसम् । ॥ ७ ॥

7. Ucchantyāṁ me yajatā devakṣatre ruṣadgavi.
Sutaṁ somaṁ na hastibhirā paḍbhirdhāvatam narā bibhratāv-arcanānasam.

Mitra and Varuna, ruler and pioneers of the nation, adorable guides and unifiers of humanity, come running fast on feet firm as the elephant’s and join my yajna at the rise of dawn in the light of the sun in this holy social order. Accept the song of adoration and prayer of the celebrant and enjoy it like distilled soma of yajna and excellence of the social order.

Mandala 5/Sukta 65

Mitra - Varuna Devata, Ratahavya Atreya Rshi

यस्त्रिचक्त स सुक्रतुद्वत्रासबंवीतु नः। ।
वरुणाः यस्य दश्ताः मित्रा वा बर्तं गिरे।॥ १ ॥

1. Yaściketa sa sukraturdevatrā sa bravītu nahī.
Varuṇo yasya dārśato mitro vā vanate girah.

He who knows is a holy performer of good action, Sukratu. Let the sukratu speak to us of the Lord and of truth, universal love, justice and rectitude, whose vision and language of vision, Mitra, friend and lover, and Varuna, who can discriminate between truth and falsehood, eminent among the eminent worth meeting, love and admire. Let mitra and varuna among us speak to us of Mitra and Varuna, Lord of love and justice.

2. Ta hi sreṣṭhavarcasā rājānā dīrghaśruttamā. Tā satpatī ṛṭāvṛdha ṛṭāvānā janejane.

They command the highest knowledge and illumination, they are eminent among the brilliant, learned scholars of Revelation. They command and preserve the truth, they preserve and protect the divine law of nature, they observe and uphold the universal law and Dharma among every community of humanity.
Mitra, friend and lover, for sure, provides a wide path away from sin for us to have a safe and spacious haven of peace on earth. The love and friendship of the Lord of instant action who protects and upholds us against sin and evil is for humanity, abundant for anyone who cares to benefit from it by prayer and effort.

5. \(V\text{ayam mitrasy\text{\=a}vasi sy\text{\=a}ma saprathastame. Anehasastvotayah satr\text{\=a} varun\text{\=a}\text{\=s}\text{\=e}\text{\=s}a\text{\=s}a\text{\=h}.}\)

Let us pray and make effort that we may abide in the widest protection of Mitra, lord of mercy, friend and lover of the universe. Let us be free from sin, evil and violence, safe under your protection, O Lord, ever dedicated to truth and law, and let us live as loved children of Varuna, lord of justice and rectitude.

6. \(Yuva\text{\=m mitream\=a jana\text{\=m yatath\text{\=a} sam ca nayath\text{\=a}. M\=a maghona\text{\=h pari khyatam mo asm\=a\text{\=kam-r\=\text{\=i}n\=\text{\=a}m gopi\text{\=h}e na urusyatam.}\}

O Mitra and Varuna, friend and lover of humanity, upholder of justice and rectitude, you inspire and exhilarate this human nation to action, unite them and lead them to the common goal. O lord of love, mercy and justice, pray do not ignore the suppliants on way to prosperity and excellence, do not forsake our people and future generations on the path of piety and progress, promote and exalt us and our leading lights to reach the haven of peace and bliss.

Mandala 5/Sukta 66

Mitra - Varuna Devata, Ratahavya Atreya Rshi

O learned and intelligent people, for a perfect dynamic order of truth and righteousness, abundant, great and joyful, hold on to brilliant, generous and divine Mitra and Varuna, leading lights of love and justice who discriminate between right and wrong, truth and falsehood. They are destroyers of hate and enmity, negativity and contradiction, and inspirers of holy, creative and integrative action, dedicated to creative yajna of the human nation.
O Mitra and Varuna, for the onward movement of these chariots of yours we freely offer the wide earth and her highways and honour you and the creative song of the sacrificing celebrant with our chants of praise.

Adhā hi kāvyā yuvām daksāsyā pūrbhiradbhutā.
Ni ketunā jānānāṁ cikethe pūtadakṣasā.

O Mitra and Varuna, leading lights of love and friendship, justice and rectitude, poetic visionaries commanding unprecedented and unsullied power, inspiring wonder and awe, you are widely known of the people by the brilliance of your knowledge, abundant praises of the versatile poet and the strongholds of strength and power over the earth.

5.
Tadṛtaṁ pṛthivi brhacchrava eṣaṛṣīṇām.
Jrayasānāvaram pṛthvati kṣaranti yāmabhiḥ.

That truth of Law and rectitude, water and abundant food, profuse renown, and wisdom of the sages for attainment of the people, O mother earth, Mitra and Varuna, widely ranging over time and space, day by day, action by action, pray shower on life and humanity abundantly and incessantly without bounds.
Mandala 5/Sukta 67

Mitra - Varuna Devata, Yajata Atreya Rshi

It is true, thus, that three brilliant and generous powers of divinity vested in humanity organise, sustain and promote the grand, united and adorable world order achieved and established: Mitra, spirit of love, friendship and constant vigilance; Varuna, spirit of justice, rectitude and discriminative sense of values and wisdom; and Aryaman, innate energy, comprehensive vision and all embracing spirit of progressive planning and guidance.

2. Ā yad yoniṁ hiranyayāṁ varuṇa mitra sadathaḥ. Dhartārā carṣaṇīṁṁ yantam sumnam riśādasā.
O Mitra and Varuna, leading lights and rulers with the spirit of love and justice, organisers and sustainers of the people, destroyers of hate, enmity and contradictions, since you occupy the golden seat of power, pray rule, guide and promote the peace and welfare of the social order of the people.

3. Viśve hi viśvavedasō varuṇo mitro aryamā.
Vratā padeva saścire pānti martyam riśaḥ.

All the ruling, sustaining and promotive powers, Mitra, Varuna and Aryama, knowing everything of the systemic order, are committed to the laws, discipline and values of the order, keeping their feet on the ground realities as their sacred duty, and they protect the people against evil and violence and promote them towards a better life.

4. Te hi satyā rtaṣprśa rtaśvāno janejane.
Sunīthāsaḥ sudānavaṁ hościdurucakrayāḥ.

Surely they are the best and highest in truth, keepers of the rule of law and rectitude, dedicated to universal truth and law, generous among and for every community, holy guided guides of the people, and they keep the wheel of Dharma moving against the evil of ignorance, injustice, poverty and sloth of every kind.
5. Ko nu vāṁ mitrāstuto varuṇo vā tanūnām.
   Tat su vāmeṣate matiratribhya eṣate mathiḥ.

O Mitra, friend, O Varuna, friend of justice, which one of you is not praised and appreciated? Which one of you is not best of form and function in manifestation? Indeed, all our thoughts and reflections turn to you in homage. All our adorations are addressed to the powers free from evil and injustice, to those who command knowledge and good action beyond threefold miseries of body, mind and soul of the individual, society and humanity.

Mandala 5/Sukta 68

Mitra - Varuna Devata, Yajata Atreya Rshi

1. Pra vo mitrāya gāyata varuṇāya vīpā girā.
   Mahikṣatrāvṛtam bṛhat.

   Sing in holy words in honour and praise of Mitra and Varuna, ruling lord of light and dispenser of justice, who hold and sustain the great world order and maintain the universal values of eternal Truth and Law for you.

2. Samrājā yā ghṛṭayonī mitrāścobhā varuṇasca.
   Devā deveṣu praśastā.

   Mitra and Varuna, both brilliant rulers of nature and humanity, sources of the showers of fertility, prosperity and felicity, are eminent and adorable, honoured among the brilliancies of nature and humanity.

3. \( \text{T\text{	extasciitilde} na\text{h} \text{\textasciitilde} saktam p\text{\textasciitilde}rthivasya maho r\text{\textasciitilde}yo divyasya.} \)
   \( \text{Mahi v\text{\textasciitilde}m k\text{\textasciitilde}stram deve\text{\textasciitilde}u.} \)

   Great is your power and potential for us over the wealth and excellence of heavenly and earthly values, culture and conduct and behaviour. Great is your rule and order over the divinities of nature and humanity.

4. \( \text{R\text{\textasciitilde}m\text{\textasciitilde}t\text{\textasciitilde}t\text{\textasciitilde}ena sapante\text{\textasciitilde}imir\text{\textasciitilde} dak\text{\textasciitilde}sam\text{\textasciitilde}s\text{\textasciitilde}t\text{\textasciitilde}te.} \)
   \( \text{Adruh\text{\textasciitilde} devau vardhete.} \)

   They live, serve, strive and search for the realisation of Rtam, eternal and universal values of Truth and Dharma, by their earnest pursuit of truth and Dharma in life and conduct, Rtam, and thus, free from hate, jealousy and violence, achieve the strength and excellence they long for and rise, shining in merit as leading lights of humanity.

5. \( \text{Vr\text{\textasciitilde}\text{\textasciitilde}t\text{\textasciitilde}dy\text{\textasciitilde}v\text{\textasciitilde}v\text{\textasciitilde}a r\text{\textasciitilde}ty\text{\textasciitilde}a\text{\textasciitilde}pesaspati d\text{\textasciitilde}numat\text{\textasciitilde}y\text{\textasciitilde}h.} \)

   Harbingers of showers from heaven, making the waters flow on earth, creating, preserving and promoting the energy, fertility and production of the generous earth and environment, ruling and realising the desires and aspirations of humanity, Mitra and Varuna bring about a great and expansive haven of peace, prosperity and felicity on earth.

Mandala 5/Sukta 69

Mitra - Varuna Devata, Uruchakri Atreya Rshi

1. \(Tri\) rocan\(\text{\textsl{a}}\) varu\(\text{\textsl{n}}\)a tri\(\text{\textsl{n}}\)ruta dy\(\text{\textsl{u}}\)n tri\(\text{\textsl{n}}\)i mitra dh\(\text{\textsl{a}}\)-rayatho raj\(\text{\textsl{a}}\)m\(\text{\textsl{i}}\). V\(\text{\textsl{a}}\)v\(\text{\textsl{r}}\)dh\(\text{\textsl{a}}\)n\(\text{\textsl{a}}\)vamati\(\text{\textsl{m}}\) k\(\text{\textsl{s}}\)atriya- sy\(\text{\textsl{a}}\)’nu vrata\(\text{\textsl{m}}\) rak\(\text{\textsl{a}}\)m\(\text{\textsl{a}}\)n\(\text{\textsl{a}}\)vajuryam.

Mitra and Varuna, prana and udana energies of the life of existence, you wield and sustain the three regions of light, three regions of the ethereal sphere, and the three layers of the earthly sphere, sustaining, protecting and promoting the expansive form and structure of the world in dedication to the unaging laws of Rtam, universal Law.

2. Ir\(\text{\textsl{a}}\)vat\(\text{\textsl{ir}}\)-varu\(\text{\textsl{n}}\)a dhena\(\text{\textsl{v}}\)o v\(\text{\textsl{a}}\)m madhumad v\(\text{\textsl{a}}\)m sindha\(\text{\textsl{v}}\)o mitra duhre. O Mitra and Varuna, nourishing, energising and radiating are your rays of light, fluent and overflowing your showers and streams of milk, honey and life giving waters. Three are abiding clouds of virility and fertility inspired with love and vested with vibrant life seeds of the three mighty regions, radiating with knowledge, karma and worship, O brilliant ones.

O Mitra and Varuna, life-givers of love and justice, early morning I invoke and pray to eternal mother nature for divine intelligence, at mid-day when the sun is high, I pray for light and splendour, and in the all blissful yajna, I pray for health, wealth and all round peace and well being for the children and all future generations.

O Mitra, O Varuna, great and abundant is your protection and wisdom which, O friend, in all sincerity you love to share and extend to us.

O Mitra and Varuna, Loving friends of justice and rectitude, free from hate and jealousy and destroyers of violence and injustice, may we receive, we pray, that energy and sustenance, that protection, guidance and wisdom of yours so that we may internalise it and pursue it in our life and conduct.

O destroyers of hate and violence, lovers and dispensers of justice and rectitude, with all your care and guidance, protect and promote us. Save us, O saviours, against evil in our person and social institutions so that we may get over all forces of negativity, crime and destruction.
4. \textit{Mā kasyādbhutakratū yaksam bhujemā tanūbhiḥ.}
\textit{Mā śeṣasā mā tanasā.}

O Mitra and Varuna, friend and justicier, accomplishers of wonderful acts of yajna, creation and production, let us never grab, consume, live on or live by any body else’s share of yajnic sustenance, nor withhold our share of yajnic contribution for our selfish purposes, either for our own person or for our children and friends, either for the present or for future. (Help us to live by our own effort.)

\textbf{Mandala 5/Sukta 71}
